Huge Sum In Cotton Rental Checks Received This Week

1,348 Checks Valued at $69,369.30 Came In Tuesday

NOTICES MAILED TO PRODUCERS

County Agent Declares that Large Number of Payments Will Arrive Later

Receipt of 1,348 second cotton rental checks on Tuesday morning of this week is announced by County Agent Jake Tarter. Five first rentals, amounting to $63.14, were also received at the same time.

Tarter stated yesterday that all producers entitled to checks from this consignment have been notified. He also asserted that a considerable number of checks will be late. This is ascribed to the fact that such a large percentage of Wheeler county farmers planted too much cotton—far in excess, in some cases—of the allotment figures.

Much time was required in which to get the cotton plowed up and re-measured. This had to be done before the compliance papers could be mailed to federal headquarters for the second rental checks. The first lot, received Tuesday, is on contracts in which the producer did not plant more than was allowed in the contract.

Definite figures on the remainder due in the first 1935 rentals are not available at this time, but the listings which reached the local office on Tuesday of last week, indicated slightly over $73,000.00. On that basis, between $4,000 and $5,000 is yet to come on this installment.

To show that the checks make a quick trip when once released at Washington, Tarter brought the packages to The Times office and called attention to the Washington postmark dated Oct. 26 and the Wheeler mark of Oct. 29. Some folks, it is said, become a trifle impatient at times and feel that payments are delayed at the local office after having been actually received.

This instance proves conclusively that no time is lost in the mails or at the agent's office, since a large part of the notices were addressed, ready for mailing, as soon as the checks were received.

METHODIST MISSIONARY GROUP MET AT THE CHURCH MONDAY

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at the church, with Mrs. J. Edmund Kirby as leader of the lesson taken from the last chapter in the study book, "That Other America." They also reviewed the entire book. Mrs. H. E. Nicholson read a part of the first chapter of Colossians for the devotionals.

Those present were Mesdames J. Edmund Kirby, W. W. Adams, A. B. Crump, J. D. Merriman, E. T. Cosper, H. E. Nicholson, D. A. Hunt, J. M. Porter, Ollie Hubbard, Cora Hall and J. M. Lawrence.

Masonic Lodge Meeting

Wheeler Lodge No. 1099, A. F. & A. M., will meet in regular communication on Monday night, Nov. 4, at 7:30 p. m. Work in the several degrees is anticipated, according to Lee Guthrie, Master. Members and visitors, alike, are urged to attend.

COURT HOUSE GETS FACIAL

Keeping up with the modern trend, the Wheeler county court house, here, is getting a facial and otherwise preparing to look its best. Workmen have been engaged the past few days in applying a ground coat of dark color—similar to the famous mud pack, possibly—to be topped off with an aluminum finish coat.

This preliminary coat, it is said, forms a foundation, or binder, for the last covering which, when completed, is expected to present an attractive and durable appearance to the local hall of justice structure. Failure to receive satisfactory contract bids when the job was advertised a short time ago caused the commissioners to let the work by day labor.

Monday, Nov. 4, Named As Will Rogers Day

Gov. Allred Issues Proclamation In Connection with Memorial for Great Humorist

In a letter received at this office from Gov. James V. Allred, he states: "I am enclosing copy of the proclamation issued for Will Rogers Day, Monday, Nov. 4. This proclamation was issued at the request of the National Will Rogers Memorial committee. Because of the love which all of us bore for Will Rogers, I trust this matter may be given proper publicity."

As but a small part of the program, on Monday, every bank in the nation will open special "Will Rogers Memorial" accounts. Every man, woman or child who has ever chuckled at the homely philosophy of Will Rogers, whose life has been made happier, who has been inspired by the cleanliness of his example, who has hungrily searched for his daily news contribution, who has seen him on the screen, who has pressed forward in surging crowds for a personal glimpse of him, will be given an opportunity to make a deposit, quietly, without publicity of any kind, from a single dime to the limit of their means.

"I think Will Rogers, if he knew that all who loved him are determined to establish a permanent foundation to his memory, would prefer contributions of twenty-five cents from fifteen million people to a few larger sized donations," declares the governor.

PROCLAMATION

Now, therefore, I, James V. Allred, governor of the State of Texas, do hereby set aside and dedicate Monday, Nov. 4, as Will Rogers Day. I urge all Texans on this day to reflect upon the fine, clean manhood of Will Rogers, the life of service he lived, the good he did. I suggest that all of our schools and civic clubs conduct suitable programs and exercises in memory of our great philosopher humorist.

I especially urge that all of us contribute our bit to the Will Rogers Memorial fund.

Witness my hand under the great seal of the State of Texas, this 28th day of October, A. D. 1935.

(SEAL) JAMES V. ALLRED,
Governor of Texas.

Former Wheeler Young Lady Weds In Dallas

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott of Wheeler, announce the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Emma Louise, to Mr. Leonard Pratt, Tuesday, Oct. 22, at the home of Mrs. Clara Fillman in Dallas.

Mrs. Pratt is well known in Wheeler, having spent most of her life here. She graduated in 1929 from Wheeler high school, where she was president of the senior class, a member of home economics club and a favorite of her classmates.

At the time of her marriage she was employed in the insurance office of George A. Cox & Co. at Dallas, where she has been for three years.

Mr. Pratt is not known in Wheeler but his good judgment is evidenced by his selection of so charming a young lady as his companion.

The happy couple will make their home in Dallas, where Mr. Pratt is in business.

Rural Schools to Get Circulating Library

Books for Rural School Pupils to Soon Become Available—Committee Appointed

Realization of a plan for providing rural pupils of Wheeler county with first class reading material is nearing its goal, asserts a statement issued this week by B. T. Rucker, county superintendent. This is one of the objectives included in an ambitious program adopted by Rucker shortly after taking over his duties as county superintendent.

"Wheeler county is one of the few counties in this part of the state to take the lead in providing proper reading material for the school children," declares Rucker. "Much credit," continued the superintendent, "is due the trustees and teachers of the county for their splendid co-operation in getting the library started. Within a few years, it is believed that Wheeler county boys and girls will have ready access to an abundance of good literature."

During the Rural Teachers association meeting here Saturday a library committee composed of the following was appointed: W. W. Brister, Gracy; Ruth Richerson, Corn Valley; A. S. Wharton, Magic City; Novella Whitener, Twitty; Mrs. Geo. A. Weems, Davis; J. W. McCord, Bethel, and Vinson Younger, Pakan. A called meeting was held Saturday, followed by special meetings Monday and Tuesday.

Orders are being placed with the Southern Library association, Dallas, for a complete set of the new state reading course books, together with a book of Texas for all state aid schools; also many books for the first three grades which are not included in the state reading course. The course represents 32 different publishers and 168 different titles.

Many children are eagerly awaiting this shipment of interesting books and will try for the special reading certificates. All who read 20 of these books within one school year will receive a beautiful state reading certificate, given by the State Department of Education. The "Book of Texas" is one of the most outstanding of all library books, with a compact and readable story of Texas.

One hundred and four volumes of library books for the primary, or first three grades, were ordered. This will make a well-balanced library for 20 grade schools of the county. All rural schools joined except Plainview.

The library will be located in the county superintendent's office, at least temporarily. Books will be classified and put in properly labeled boxes. Each school will be allowed one box for the necessary reading time, when the books will be exchanged for another lot. Several teachers volunteered their services as assistant librarians.

Peoples Store Puts On Big Sales Event

Under direction of C. D. Wilkins, sales manager, the Peoples Store in Wheeler is starting a huge selling event at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Publicized as a fall celebration with premium features for workers, the affair should prove a sort of housewarming for the recently completed addition to the store space. Installation of fixtures and display of merchandise gives the salesroom almost double its former floor space and greatly enhances its appearance and convenience.

Brother of D. E. Holt Dies In Kansas Home

L. E. Holt of Uniontown Succumbs Saturday Night Following Extended Illness

Although it was not unexpected, relatives here learned with deep regret of the death of Levi Emmett Holt, 65, brother of D. E. Holt, at his home in Uniontown, Kans., early Saturday night. Deceased had been in ill health for 18 months before his death.

L. E. Holt was born August 9, 1870, at Uniontown, where he had spent his entire life. He had been a banker for 40 years and headed the Union State bank. He was considered one of the most conservative and capable bank managers in that section of the country.

He helped organize the Citizens State bank of Wheeler, of which D. E. Holt is an officer. He was also interested in banks at Branson, Springfield and Pritchett, Colo. Brothers and sisters surviving besides the Wheeler man are Herbert W. Holt, Parkville, Mo.; Bronson Holt, Walsh, Colo.; Marshall Holt, Uniontown, and Mrs. Mamie McKinis, Walsh, Colo.

The Fort Scott, Kans., Tribune pays high tribute to the memory of L. E. Holt, terming him the "best-known man in Uniontown, and a philosopher as well as shrewd banker."

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Uniontown on Monday afternoon.

D. E. Holt and son, Robert of Wheeler, left Sunday and were present for the last rites, returning Wednesday.

No Cuts Permitted On Taxes Assessed

J. H. Templeton, Wheeler county tax assessor-collector, is in receipt of advices from Geo. H. Sheppard, comptroller of public accounts, which declares that no discounts may be allowed on ad valorem tax payments made during October, November and December. A recent decision of the Texas supreme court declared unconstitutional that part of House Bill No. 6 which would permit certain discounts during the last quarter of the year.

Templeton is directed to collect the 1935 taxes as assessed on the tax rolls. One-half payment of taxes during October and November is permissible, according to the statutes as amended.

SPIKES ELECTED SECRETARY-TREAS. WHEELER NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSN.

According to J. W. Barr, president, the Wheeler National Farm Loan association, in session Monday evening, accepted the resignation of Miss Agnes Reynolds and elected as their new secretary-treasurer, J. A. Spikes of Springfield, Colo.

Stockholders of the association, asserts Barr, will be glad to know that because of this action of the board, the business of the association will no longer be interrupted, and that the association will remain at Wheeler.

Before electing Spikes, the board submitted his name to the land bank for its approval. The land bank assured the board that Spikes was well qualified for the position and would have their co-operation and support.

Armistice Day Will Be Observed Sunday, Nov. 10, by Legion

Officers and members of Wheeler post of the American Legion are completing plans to observe Armistice Day on Sunday, Nov. 10, with appropriate services at the Baptist church that morning. Efforts are being made to secure Congressman Marvin Jones as the speaker for the occasion, but it is not known as yet whether he can be here. In the event he is unable to come, some other out-of-town speaker will be present, according to the tentative program.

Student Aid Set-Up Starting In County

Allotment of 36 Is Apportioned to Seven Towns—Applications Are Being Filed

Modification of federal regulations governing eligibility permits 36 Wheeler county students to qualify for aid under the National Youth administration program. So says County Superintendent B. T. Rucker.

In addition to the former limitations to students of families on relief and rehabilitation clients, needy students are now entitled to the assistance. However, all students, regardless of classification, must be capable of doing high grade academic work, and adjudged worthy of receiving help by the county placement committee.

Complete information on methods of making application for this help may be obtained at the office of the county superintendent.

The county allotment, by towns, is: Shamrock, 13; Wheeler, 8; Mobeetie, 5; Kelton, 4; Magic City, 2; Lela, 2; Briscoe, 2.

Applications are being sent to Austin as rapidly as received from the various schools. On Tuesday of this week 13 applications from the following places were sent in: Shamrock, 5; Wheeler, 2; Kelton, 4; Lela, 2.

State and local authorities urge all eligible students in need of the NYA help to take advantage of it at the earliest possible date.

Robbers Loot Farm Home Near Kelton

The home of Walter Coward, living three miles west of Kelton, has been stripped this week of all its contents, it was learned at the sheriff's office today. Household goods and all other articles were taken in two raids. The first visit occurred Monday night, followed by a clean-up last night. The family has been staying at the home of Jim Dern, father of Mrs. Coward, who lives west of Twitty, where Coward is working.

Sheriff Raymond Waters and force had been making a quiet investigation of Monday night's loss until the second raid last night, when their efforts have been redoubled to apprehend the thieves.

At a late hour today no arrests had been made.

ANOTHER WILLIAMS & SON HEREFORD TO NEW MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chism of Red River, N. Mex., were Sunday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams. Last spring Mr. Chism purchased several heifer calves from the Williams & Son herd of registered Herefords. He was so well pleased with the animals that he selected a good bull calf to head his fine herd of registered Herefords while here this time.

N. M. Hunt of Mobeetie, was in Wheeler Monday on business.

Corn-Hog Producers Favor Control Plan

Wheeler Countians Give Decisive Approval In Referendum Held Saturday

Voting in the nation-wide referendum held Saturday, Wheeler county producers gave overwhelming approval to the corn-hog control program. According to figures supplied by the county agent's office, 157 growers voted to continue the adjustment set-up, while 13 cast negative votes.

The returns by polling places are as follows:

Place	For	Against
Wheeler	86	4
Twitty	19	1
Heald	15	0
Mobeetie	21	5
Lela	5	2
Allison	11	1
Totals	157	13

Action of Wheeler county farmers at the polls duplicated in miniature that of the state and nation. Press reports give approximately 7 to 1 approval by producers of the country as a whole. In Texas, some counties exceeded the local 12-to-1 decision, although a few isolated districts did not register such a decisive vote.

National AAA officials are reported as delighted with Saturday's returns and have indicated an intention of increasing production in 1936. However, Secretary Wallace has declared that efforts will be made to avoid excessive production in the future.

County H.-D. Clubs Plan November Tours

To see if demonstrations are continuing to live and grow, each home demonstration club will conduct a tour in their own community on the regular club meeting day during the month of November. 4-H club girls will accompany the women and visit their demonstrations, also. This is according to Miss Viola Jones, county home demonstration agent.

Tours will start in the morning, as has been planned, and each woman will bring a covered dish. A picnic lunch will be served at the noon hour at some point previously selected. Club members will be glad to have visitors accompany them and see the various demonstrations which have been carried on in the county since 1927.

These tours will begin with the Shamrock club on Friday, Nov. 1. Briscoe will hold the second visitation on Tuesday, Nov. 5. Those who wish to go will assemble at the clubhouse by 9 o'clock. The trip will be made in one of the school buses.

The third tour will be made by the Wheeler club, and it is dated for Wednesday morning, Nov. 6. The fourth circuit will be conducted by the Busy Bee club on Thursday, Nov. 7.

Itinerant Scale Man in 'Hotel de Waters'

When J. B. Fox, a traveling man who claims to be a scale tester, landed in town Wednesday afternoon he probably did not contemplate a sojourn here under the gentle ministrations of Sheriff Raymond Waters. Yet such is the case.

Fox, who had apparently been associating somewhat intimately with old John Barleycorn, approached M. McIlhany and offered to inspect and adjust his counter scales. Mr. McIlhany informed him that his scales were all right and bore a certified tester's seal of recent date. The visitor insisted on checking the scales but was dissuaded by Mr. McIlhany.

Later he visited the City Market & Grocery and obtained permission, it is alleged, to adjust the scales there. Upon presentation of a bill considered excessive by Loyse Bolton, who had observed proceedings, Fox created a disturbance. The sheriff was called and accepted Fox as a guest.

At a hearing before Justice of the Peace D. A. Hunt this afternoon, the roving weights man was returned to the custody of Sheriff Waters to await further developments.

WORK RELIEF COLLAPSE DUE TO BUNGLING

(NOTE: Believing readers of The Times should have the information found in the following editorial comment taken from a recent issue of the Wichita Falls Record News, the article is reproduced.)

The three great collapses of the year seem to be those of Maxie Baer, the New York Giants and President Roosevelt's work relief program.

In no case was the collapse altogether unexpected; but while the first two can be laughed off by everybody except those who put their money down on the wrong side, the work relief program's collapse is somewhat more serious.

A fund of $4,000,000,000 was set up, if you remember. With it the administration promised to give work to no fewer than 3,500,000 people by the first of November.

Shortly after the middle of October it was disclosed that 1,310,000 people had been given jobs under this program. Bad enough in itself, this figure is even more discouraging when analyzed.

In the first place, that total includes some 550,000 CCC workers, and approximately 135,000 men working under other than federal agencies. In the second place, far from a last minute rush as the deadline drew near, there was an actual let-down in the work of re-employment, only about 180,000 men having been taken off the relief rolls by the WPA during the first two weeks of October. And of the 600,000 men actually given jobs by the WPA, a full third are in New York City.

These figures reflect something unpleasantly like an utter collapse of one of the most vital of the administration's efforts. In spite of the proven executive ability of WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins, this collapse must be at least partly due to sheer fumbling and bungling. The greater part of the blame, however, seems to have been caused by confusion in the administration's mind as to the form which a work relief program ought to take.

The original idea was that it would be a vast public works program. Bridges would be built, slums would be cleared away, roads would be paved, parks would be laid out, public buildings would go up, canals would be dug, and a great number of highly useful, permanent works would be added to the country's possession.

In such jobs, however, a great deal of money has to be spent for materials. The administration decided that there would be too little direct re-employment that way. So the plan was modified. Projects for public works were scaled down ruthlessly, to make way for ventures in which most of the money would be paid out in actual wages.

The result was a revival of a long series of leaf-raking projects, and local enthusiasm ebbed. It was easy to think of big jobs that needed doing; it was hard to cook up schemes for transferring topsoil from one side of the road to the other.

The original public works program would have picked up speed as it went along. By stimulating business in the heavy industries, it would have created many jobs indirectly. The work relief stunt has no momentum of its own. An artificial thing from the start, it is bound to lag and wobble.

The present collapse is a natural result of the mistake that was made when the public works idea was shelved.

RAISE YOUR OWN SPUDS

There is a great rumpus about whether the AAA is to enforce the Potato Control act or not. Just what discretion has the AAA, or any of its officials, to do other than enforce the law? They have not been given the power to nullify or change any law. It is not the function of any board or bureau charged with enforcement duties to say whether it will or will not administer an act.

The courts still have the duty of deciding on the legality of the acts of congress and this constitutional provision of our government has not yet been abrogated.

The quickest way for our citizens to break the legislative program to drive up potato prices is for every citizen with a back or front yard, to raise potatoes for his own use. That would also be an expression of disapproval of the new doctrine of food scarcity that is advocated to raise prices. "Every family raise its own spuds" may become a national slogan.

NO GENERAL SALES TAX

Most everybody will appreciate the governor's insistence that the legislature should not fool with the sales tax, as the best and quickest way out of the dilemma presented by a huge state deficit and the demand for funds to set aside for old age pensions. He tells the legislature frankly that he will veto a general sales tax measure when it gets to him. He, thereby, avoids a big waste of the legislators' time.

The sales tax as a theory in financing government activities, is very enticing. In practice, however, it would be a very different thing. The huge army that would be required to collect the tax is ample argument against it, regardless of the experience reports from other states, which may indicate the people are highly pleased.

It may be questionable whether the governor's public censure of the legislature was good politics or good business, but his frankness in warning them against waste of time on the sales tax was refreshing, and good statesmanship.

TRIBUTE TO WEEKLIES

Some of the late Will Rogers' philosophic and humorous paragraphs will go down in literary history as masterpieces. And perhaps one of the finest of these is his tribute to the "home town paper," one of his last writings.

"Take away my ham, take away my eggs, even chili," said Will, "but leave me my newspaper. Even if it has purely local news as 'Jim Jones came home last night unexpectedly, and bloodshed ensued' or 'Jesse Bushyhead, our local M. D., is having one of the best years of his career, practically speaking—but they just won't pay him when they get well,' the county seat was packed yesterday with prominent people from out of town, attempting to renew their notes' and 'election ain't far off and everybody is up for office that can sign an application blank.'

"Now all that don't seem much news to you. But it is news to you, especially when you know the people and they are your own folks. So no matter how punk you may think your local newspaper is getting, why just take it away from you and see how you feel. The old newspaper, I think, is just about our biggest blessing. So let's all read and be merry, for tomorrow the paper may not have enough ads to come out." —Journal-Democrat, De Pere, Wis.

Scott Shipp, Berger trucker was bound over to the action of grand jury and bond was set at $10,000 in an examining trial held before Fred Reiner, justice of the peace, Thursday morning. Shipp was charged with criminal attack on a 30 year old Skellytown woman, mother of five children ranging from 11 months to seven years old, early Wednesday night of last week while her husband was downtown. It is alleged that Shipp broke a latch to enter the home and choked the woman, at the same time threatening her with violence if she screamed.—Panhandle Herald.

A total of $105,366.87 in second rental payments on 1935 contracts was received here this week in the form of 1,804 checks to be paid to 1,408 producers, according to announcements from the county agent's office today. Approximately 300 other checks are still due and are expected to follow as soon as the Washington office has checked compliances the notice further stated.—Wellington Leader.

The only man ever to be seen reading a roadside signboard was in the suburbs of Memphis Friday evening. He was seated in a dilapidated flivver that had partly wrecked the signboard. Twenty-one Gray county students are working several hours a week to earn $6 per month from the National Youth administration, according to W. B. Weathered, county superintendent. These are distributed as follows: Pampa high school 10, Pampa Junior high school 3, Lefors 4, McLean 3, Alanreed 1.—Lefors News.

Mark Arrington called at the office Tuesday with a mammoth pear, entrusted to him by his grandfather, Mark Huseby, to be delivered to the Hereford calves entered by Fred Marshall and Grady Oldham in the feeder class won two first places in the American Royal Livestock show at Kansas City. Twenty-two entries were shown, the Randall county calves winning against the choice from the southwest. Winning first in both classes entered is an unusual accomplishment in so great a show as the Royal where the finest stock is assembled.—Canyon News.

On Tuesday evening, the teachers of Gray county were guests of the Pampa business men at a banquet and stunt night entertainment. There were three prizes given, with eleven schools entering stunts in the contest. The McLean faculty won a $10 prize on their stunt, which was directed by Miss Elizabeth Kennedy.—McLean News.

Cattle sales and shipments out of Canadian were numerous last week. Among the sales reported was the purchase of 26 head of 2-year-old steers by A. C. Haas of Blissfield, Mich., from Tom Waters for $90 a head. The steers averaged 1156 pounds. Cattle shipments to feed lots has exceeded last year's figure considerably, C. O. Johnson, Santa Fe agent here reports. Ninety per cent of the cattle shipped from this territory go to feeders back East, he says.—Canadian Record.

Mustangs to Tangle With McLean Tigers

Injuries to Handicap Players In Fifth Conference Tussle

Although somewhat crippled for the fray, the Mustangs will invade the McLean Tigers' territory tomorrow night (Friday) for their fifth conference game of the season.

Some of the best players are crippled; the left ends, Whitener and Pendleton, are injured, one with a fractured hand and the other a sprained shoulder. Bob Tillman also is handicapped because of a bad shoulder.

McLean boasts a better team than Shamrock. If this proves true the Mustangs will have to play real football to defeat the Tigers.

Stratton and Cunningham seem to be the stars of the Tigers. The Mustangs will have a good chance to win the game if the line can hold these two players.

Coach Bill Allen of Canyon, mentor of the McLean team has assumed a serious attitude about their game with Wheeler. Good playing will have to be done by the Mustangs if they live up to the reputation gained by their excellent playing in the Shamrock game.

The total scores of the Wheeler squad compared with those of their opponents are: opponents, 32; Wheeler, 82.

After Friday night the Mustangs will have two more conference games, one with Lefors and the other with Clarendon.

The probable starting lineup will for Wheeler will be: Pendleton, le; Newkirk, lt; Connor, lg; Deering, c; Sherwood, rg; Tillman, C. rt; Maxwell, re; Weeks, A. Tate, Ford and Cain or Norman, backs.

One Minute Interviews

Question: What do you think would be a good name for the football stadium?

Curtis Weeks: I think we should name it after the Coach, so Clark Field would be good.

Principal C. B. Witt: I don't know, I'll have to think a little on it. Are you getting this for the paper? Well, Cowhand Stadium is the only one I can think of now.

Rutha Mae Conner: The Mustang Mesa is a good name for it. Miss Winona Adams: The only one I know that is suitable is The Range.

Martha Alice Wiley: What are you getting these for? Oh, for the paper. Then the Mustang Meadow is my suggestion.

Lowery Deering: Mustang Field is a good name if it did take me the week end to think of it.

Mrs. G. O. McCrohan: A good name for the field? Well, I thought of three the other day and any of them would be good. They are Mustang Field, Victory Field and Prairie Field.

Mrs. J. L. Gilmore: The Corral would be good.

FAIRY GODMOTHER WAVES WAND OVER MUSTANGS

With six new showers in the back of the gymnasium it seems as if the fairy godmother has waved her wand over the football boys. This is a real improvement over the two that were in the old bath house. The new dressing room is much larger and more convenient than the old one. It has racks to hang the clothing, whereas before there were only shelves. There are also enough benches for the boys to sit while dressing.

The east side of the building which is not yet completed, will be used by the girls when basketball season opens.

The Tom-Tom of Miami, says that their high school crowned a football queen last Friday. (I've heard that they were rough up at Miami.)

SQUAD SMOTHERS TEXOLA, 40 to 6

Ponies Crash Across Goal Line for Four Touchdowns, Three Extra Points

Piling up the highest score of the season against their opponents, the Wheeler squad smothered the Texola Muskrats, 40 to 6, on the local field last Friday afternoon. The entire squad, composed of Mustangs and Ponies, was used.

Although the Ponies were outweighed by five pounds per man, they crashed across the goal line for four of the touchdowns and three extra points, while the Mustangs scored only two counters and one extra point.

The starting lineup for the Ponies was: Tucker, c; Passons, rg; Tillman, rt; Maxwell, re; Jamison, lg; Shipman, lt; Whitener, le; Weeks, Young, Norman and Cain, backs.

WHEELER HAS THREE TEAMS

Wheeler schools can now boast of three football teams. The first string is the Mustangs and the second is the Ponies. The two teams together form the main squad. Boys of the eighth and ninth grades or who aren't playing with the Mustangs or Ponies make up the third team, which is called the Colts.

The Pep Squad has been named the Wheeler Cowgirls.

Cow Girls Fail to Get Pictures Taken

Although the Pep Squad girls came dressed in their cowgirl suits last Wednesday afternoon to have their pictures made at 3:15 o'clock, the photographer did not appear and the group photograph was not made.

COLTS

All of the grammar grade students are excited over Hallowe'en. The first, second and third grade students were entertained yesterday afternoon at a party. Both sections of each class will meet in one room so that the entertainment will be more complete. The fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grade classes will each also be entertained by plays in their individual class rooms.

The third grade classes as well as the second grade have been studying about Indians. Each of these classes has just completed an Indian notebook about the American Indian. One of Mrs. G. O. McCrohan's students made two vases on the style of the old Indian pottery.

The sixth grade had an exhibit last Monday of the things raised in Texas. The students brought everything from cotton down to sweet potatoes.

Many of the students were absent this week because of different reasons. Most of those absent are helping to gather the crops at home but some are sick with the mumps.

The pupils seem to be studying harder this six weeks than they were last six weeks because after the parents saw the report cards the boys and girls seemed to be more interested.

Most everyone who has stated his opinion believes that the McLean-Wheeler football game will be even better than the tussle with the Irishmen. Wouldn't it be just swell if the Mustangs were to take the pigskin through the Tiger line or around it, just anyway, so that they would win the "all important" game.

Well, since the Colts and Ponies are being given a little rein, they're planning to show Wheeler fans the material that will make up the Mustang squad next year.

The games scheduled for the second and third teams with Wellington, Pampa and Magic City will be rather tough ones; but Wheeler is backing up future Mustangs—so do your best.

The custom of visiting Pep Squads presenting their stunts on the opponents gridiron, puts the Wheeler cowgirls quite in the running with their plans for a stunt between the halves at McLean.

Gee! those Mustangs must be trying to kill each other by the looks of those bandaged hands, broken fingers and skinned elbows received while working out. Go light on the boys, fellow players, because we need them.

Those tackles, Clifford Tillman, Ford Newkirk, are gettin' good in this football business. They're the main blockers in the strong line.

Wheeler ran up its highest football score when they played Texola last Friday on the local field. The final count was 40-6 in favor of the Mustangs.

Coach Bob Clark wishes to announce Wheeler's Annual Basketball tournament, which will be held in Wheeler's new gymnasium on Jan. 3-4. Invitations have been sent to 25 schools.

After Friday night the Mustangs will have two conference games left to play. These will be with Lefors and Clarendon.

McLean has a record of all games won this year; but Friday night will they be able to say the same after they've met the Mustangs?

Colts Defeated By Wellington 12 to 7

By using headwork, the Colts were able to hold the Wellington Roman Candles to a 7-12 score in the game played Monday night at Wellington. This was the first game for about eight of the boys to play. Considering the fact that the local aggregation was outweighed approximately twenty pounds to the man, the Colts made a good showing.

The Havenhills, Puckett and J. D. Badley were outstanding players. "It was smart thinking on the part of Puckett when he raced across the goal line for Wheeler's counter," Coach Bob Clark said in commenting on the game.

The starting lineup was: Havenhill (Grady), le; Page, lt; Badley, lg; Flynn, c; Passons, rg; Tucker, rt; Jolley, re; Puckett, qb; Havenhill (Lewis), Robison, Young, backs.

Equipment Ordered for Cage Season

Basketball Suits for Senior Teams—Two Goals, Four Balls to Arrive Soon

Making preparation for the basketball season, Coach Bob Clark ordered new suits for the senior boys and girls from W. A. Holt Co., Waco, Texas, last week.

Two goals and four basketballs were also ordered for the convenience of all the high school teams. Cost of the equipment amounted to $137 and will be paid from the athletic fund. The playing material is expected to arrive about Nov. 7.

Suits for the senior girls are to be made of gold dune with black numbers and trimming. The trunks will be made as those of the preceding year but the tops are to be similar to a polo shirt with short sleeves, tailored collar, and buttons up the front. These uniforms cost $50.

The boys ordered 12 suits which are also of gold dune with black stripes up the sides of the trunks. The tops are like those of last year. Twelve black sweat suits were ordered for the senior boys' team.

COWGIRLS TO PRESENT STUNT

Between the halves of the Wheeler-McLean football game Friday night the Wheeler Cowgirl squad will present a stunt. They will form a "W" for Wheeler and an "M" for McLean.

Coach Bob Clark and Miss Frances Alice Clark have coached the girls.

CORRAL SENDS DUES TO STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Texas High School Press association dues of $2 were sent in last week by the journalism class.

The annual meeting will be held in Belton this year. Wheeler is not planning to send a delegate to this convention; however, the class will send in papers, stories and columns to enter the contest. The Corral staff of last year won third on a page of school news in a local paper.

Party Is Given by Home Ec I Class

Irene Hunt, Jonnie Lewis, Lavell Jaco and Jaunell Perryman planned the entertainment of a Hallowe'en party for the home economics I girls Monday night. They decorated the Home Economics cottage with yellow and black crepe paper and paper skeletons.

Mrs. C. B. Witt, dressed as a gypsy, told fortunes. For other entertainment those present went through the house of horror, popped popcorn and pulled candy.

The members present were: Lavern Cox, Helen Flynn, Alverna Hampton, Velma Hestlow, Helena Jones, Geraldine Lewis, Norma Lou Maxwell, Jaunell Perryman, Jonnie Lewis, Johnnie Faye Templeton, Elsie Newkirk, Dorothy Winkler, Lavell Jaco, Imogene Jamison, Irene Hunt, Ruth Faust, Mary Genthe and Lois Ficke.

Among the guests who attended were: Cecil and Erskin Sherwood, O. D. Connor, Harry Clay, Gordon Whitener, Jack Tate, Ocie Pace, Junior Jamison, Lewis Cain, W. J. Ford, Bob Tillman, Virgil Greenhouse, Scotty Risner and Howard Nations.

Gay Abandon and Wreckage as Epoch of Hallowe'en—Night of Cats, Witches

Once again the witches will jump astride their broom sticks with their black cats and prepare to make a merrier Hallowe'en than ever before. The one night in the year which is safe to bring forth the family skeleton, you've been hiding in the back closet, has arrived.

It is said that in the north of England this night, when anything goes, is called the Nutcrack Night. In Scotland the principal object in fortune telling is not to foretell death as one might suppose, but to discover who the individual will marry. Popular belief ascribed to children with birth date on Hallowe'en bequeaths them supernatural powers, rendering them capable to converse with the mystic world.

Ghostly Spirits! and Spooks! will lend atmosphere to the night once termed the festival of All Saints of the Vigil of All Hallows. Sorcerers will mutter incantations over their magic potions brewing in heavy kettles swung on tripods in form of curses to vindicate the wrongs done to witches. If these are made on Hallowe'en it is a popular belief among the superstitious that they will work.

Fun makers on this nation-wide holiday will be decked out in every conceivable form from sheets to costumes of New Zealand, to celebrate by frightening people with "Boos" from a secluded spot, serenading, tacking or playing mover for gates, ash cans, etc.

So, as spirits promenade and black cats arch their backs, bear with the children on the one night in the year they all run riot in gay abandon; save your wrath until you witness your yard the morning after, in all the glory of its wreckage.

DAWN GIVES ENTERTAINMENT

Dawn Weatherly entertained several girls with a party Friday night. They passed the evening popping popcorn, making candy and singing high school and popular songs.

Those present were: Dorothy Burgess, Orveta Puett, Martha Alice Wiley, Lilla Mae Crofford, Ferrol and Lois Ficke, Imogene Jamison, Dorothy Tolliver, Lavell Jaco, Rutha Mae Conner and the hostess.

Home Economics Club Plan Year's Program

Entertainment to Be Given Each Month; Girls to Make Quilt Containing Names of Members

To discuss the meetings and entertainments throughout the year, the Home Economics club met in the Home Ec. cottage at noon, Tuesday.

In addition to announcing programs and monthly entertainments for the year, plans were discussed for having each member make a quilt block which will have her name on it. The blocks will be put together, quilted and presented to the department. Elva Willard and Adell Hampton will design the pattern to be used.

At the monthly meeting to be held at noon every second Tuesday special programs will be presented on Thanksgiving in November, on New Year's in January, and on Washington's and Lincoln's anniversaries in February.

Entertainments planned for each month are: October, Hallowe'en party for Home Ec. I; November, Thanksgiving party for second year class; December, party for Home Ec. club; January, Home Ec. III party; February, entertain the faculty; March, open; April, farewell party for seniors; May, Mother's Day program.

PICTURES OF PETS MAKE CLASSROOM ATTRACTIVE

In order to make the class room more attractive, Mrs. G. O. McCrohan has placed pictures above the front and back boards in the fifth grade room. "Our Pets," the group on the front board, consists of only dogs. "Our Animal Friends," in the rear of the room, are cuttings of lambs, kittens, rabbits deers and rams.

To make the clippings more colorful, the students have pasted them on bright construction paper.

Seventh grade A's and B's: Lombr Brazil, Norma Webb, Presley Guynes, Elizabeth Balch, Otha June Cummings, Stella Cooper, Louise Genthe and Melba Hyatt.

WEIGH IT YOURSELF

That, "An idle mind is the devil's workshop," is aptly illustrated by the conduct of the students who are in the 8:30 to 9 o'clock study hall.

Of course all students know that a study period is a time to study and prepare assignments. What of those, however, who profess to have their lessons "all brought up" for perhaps a day ahead? It is the idle person, generally, who disturbs the other pupils in the study period. These wasters of valuable minutes could avoid, through slight exertion, annoying their neighbors.

Scientists of today tell us that noise has a great influence on our physical well-being. An excess of sound can cause a nervous breakdown, while a continuous disturbance may lead to a difficult case of nerves, occasionally resulting in the individual's becoming insane. Is it necessary to annoy our neighbors to distraction, sometimes causing them to "fly off the handle," simply because we have nothing in particular to do?

The high school library is open during the first study period. If it is necessary to do reference work, this would be the appropriate time. Fiction novels may be checked from the library to allow diversion for the student.

Though a seemingly unimportant thing until six weeks grades come out, the noise and disturbance caused by the individual is recorded by the department grade. Special privileges are conferred on the student who has learned how to conduct himself properly in the school building.

It is a breach of etiquette to stomp noisily into study hall; boisterously converse with one another in the main hall; to rudely disturb your neighbor with such mutterings of "How is Jane or Jack?" as the occasion may warrant; to confide the latest bit of gossip you've just heard.

Weighing what can be gained by orderly conduct against that which is lost by unnecessary misbehavior, the odds of mannerly conduct greatly overbalance the liability incurred by actions which are uncalculated in the 8:30-9 o'clock study hall.—B. M. M.

THE ELEVEN MAN TEAM

Do you always give credit where credit is due? The average football fan gives more praise to the backfield player than he does to the linemen. Of course the backfield is important, but they are not the whole squad. When one of them makes a long run with the ball the spectators don't seem to realize that the important role played by the linemen has made such a run possible.

The ends, the tackles, the guards and the center have the difficult duty of blocking out the players of the opposing team. They are supposed to make an opening for the ball carrier and if they fail then the ball carrier can't get very far.

The linemen are the unsung heroes of football. They have to play just as hard as their teammates but the glory for what they do goes to the other fellow. If you want to see the real football game, watch the line. Whether the team will win or lose depends upon the success or failure of the linemen. That's why it takes more than one man to make a football team.—M. A. W.

CHEM LAB IS SCENE OF TRYING EXPERIMENTS

Pop! Bang! Zooy! Who is it? How did you do it? Go the questions from every direction. Oh it's nothing, I don't know how he did it, or what it is, but I know that it is Lewis Cain trying to make a fire extinguisher.

Poor Miss Kirby nervously totters to the boy's side to rescue him from being blown to bits or from drinking acid. While the teacher is getting Lewis straightened out, Harry hurriedly mixes some gunpowder.

"Nope," says Harry, sticking a match to the powder, "it didn't work again. Isn't it a shame?"

So on and so forth go the blows and the blown in chemistry lab.

Bus Driver Is Ill With the Mumps

In spite of taking every possible precaution, B. F. Morgan, the driver of bus No. 3, has taken the mumps. Last Monday Morgan was sick and unable to drive the bus, and last Tuesday he was reported to have taken the mumps. H. E. Cole has been driving the bus in Mr. Morgan's place.

Dear Aunt Susie:

Dear Aunt Susie: How may I get a hero on the football squad?

Worried,
Rutha Mae.

Dear Rutha Mae: I suggest that you start taking lessons from Ruth Faye.

Sincerely,
Aunt Susie.

Dear Aunt Susie: What can we do to keep the Pep Squad girls from wearing their pep suits out before the season is over?

Puzzled,
Pep Leaders.

Dear Pep Leaders: I think that it would help if you were to cut a large hole in every girl's suit, then they couldn't wear them. If this doesn't stop them, please write me again.

Yours,
Aunt Susie.

Dear Aunt Susie: How may I keep Jack from taking my new blond haired girl friend away from me?

Respectfully Yours,
W. J.

Dear W. J.: Perhaps it would help if you were to blondeen your hair and cut your curls off.

Yours,
Aunt Susie.

Bouquets to Our Unforgettable Will

Nov. 4, 1879, marked the birth of America's best loved humorist, the second Mark Twain, Will Rogers. Monday, Nov. 4, has been set aside by Governor Allred as Will Rogers' Day. Vice-president Garner is the chairman of the committee to erect a national memorial for him. Instead of a cold marble shaft, this memorial will be in the form of a school or a public institution of some kind.

The death of Will Rogers caused more sorrow, not only to the American people but also to people all over the world, than the passing of any other great man of his generation. The inscription on his tombstone is, "I joked about every prominent man of my day but I never met a man I didn't like."

Rogers' writings were always up to the minute. He was never asked whether he was a Republican or a Democrat—his sparks flew both ways.

Just as Longfellow was the "household poet" Will Rogers was the "household humorist." His witty sayings were read daily in almost every home. America has produced hordes of columnists, philosophers and fun makers but no one can hold a candle to our unforgettable Will.

HOME MAKERS ACQUIRE DOMESTIC INSTRUCTION

As a means of teaching the girls to be better home makers, Mrs. Gordon Whitener is instructing students in the home economics department in proper methods of serving, canning and planning a home.

The home economics I class spent four weeks on the personal relationship unit. They are now studying clothing. Each girl will have a cup-towel and donate it to the department and will make an undergarment and a school dress. Next semester they are to take up the planning, preparing and serving of breakfasts and luncheons.

The home economics II class spent several weeks canning. They canned fruit and vegetables to supply the department for the year. They are now preparing individual dishes for dinner and next week they will plan, prepare and serve dinners to classmates and guests. They will study a unit on the kitchen and then take up home nursing. Next semester these girls are to make tailored dresses and study clothes for the preschool child.

The home economics III class has studied the family income and interior decoration and are now planning an ideal home according to the income. Sometime later they will take up a study of foods in relation to health and the calories it contains. Next semester they will make afternoon or evening dresses and study child development, the family and community relationship, and the art of entertaining.

Reverie in E flat: The delightful task of removing paper from a slightly damp orange mint. . . Attempting to compose a sports story. It would be a song, if I could write one. . . In what condition will the Mustangs be for the McLean tussle since it's customary to round out a night of the witches' holiday? I only hope that they're good enough next day to tame the Tigers and win the little ole conference game.

Junior Class Meets to Discuss Party

At a Junior Class meeting last Thursday afternoon Everette Cole invited the class to have a party Saturday night at his home. The invitation was accepted.

The Miami Warriors will play the Mustangs on the night of Nov. 11, in an attempt to get revenge for the defeat handed them the first of the season. This promises to be an interesting game because the Warriors have improved greatly.

The Wampus Cat
(With Apologies to Odd)

Thingumbobs: Miss Frances Clark looked quite charming Sunday night in red and gray. . . Coldest football game so far has been the one between Texola and Wheeler. Though enthusiastic, it was difficult to show it with my knees knocking together like an insistent Hallowe'en prankster refinishing the leading citizen's door.

Although the Cow Girls were yelling to keep warm at the game Friday afternoon, they were peppier than ever before. (Perhaps because they changed leaders each quarter.)

"Call of the Wild" has been recommended to me as an excellent movie. . . Don't know what attraction these country parties have, but I must attend one to discover the hostess' secret. . . In the line of parties, the juniors entertained with their first of the year Saturday evening.

Winchelly speaking, I only heard that a certain junior couple were together again. Well, a happier landing this time. . . If you lend a good book to a friend that is something really worthwhile.

In years past various objects have littered the family yard the morning after Hallowe'en. Among the most resplendent articles last year were attractively arranged gates from a neighboring fence. . . Lamentations that there will be no carnival at the school this year.

Letter writing fascinates Miss Kirby. Ocie Pace has no particular hobby. . . Florene Wright has collected "Corrals" for the last two years. . . A baby-lisping girl friend would have an interesting time attempting to gargle "Swanky swaggers sweep into society with a swish" to amuse the boy friend. The Campaign for Texas drivers' license constitutes a worthwhile movement.

When one of the intelligent juniors was asked to name her favorite flower she pipes, "Oh pink hillbillies I guess."

Geraldine Lewis collects lounging pajamas. . . Statistics show that the New York words-eye-viewers of the late world series amounted to three-fourths of the metropolis' population. . . Helen Jepson, formerly associated with Paul Whiteman, is leaving the kilocycles to make a concert tour.

Twos: Rutha Mae, Conner and Dorothy Burgess. . . Though deceased, Will Rogers continues to be a favorite box office attraction in his last pictures.

Reverie in E flat: The delightful task of removing paper from a slightly damp orange mint. . . Attempting to compose a sports story. It would be a song, if I could write one. . . In what condition will the Mustangs be for the McLean tussle since it's customary to round out a night of the witches' holiday? I only hope that they're good enough next day to tame the Tigers and win the little ole conference game.

SPARKS FROM THE CAMPFIRE

Often the one who is absent from the bridge party nowadays gets the most slams.

Blessed is he who has found his work—let him ask no other blessedness.

Cheerfulness or joyfulness is the atmosphere under which all things thrive.

Little minds are too much wounded by little things; great minds see all and are not even hurt.

The Lasso's Noose

THIS morning I heard TWO teachers talking ABOUT the students. "THEY are only mischievous, THEY are not really bad," said one. "I DON'T know. WHAT about that Harry Clay and Cecil Sherwood and Ocie Pace?" REPLIED the other. NOW, students, this will never do. WE can't have the teachers TALKING about YOU.

Evelyn, was it a cousin or an honest-to-goodness boy friend escorting you Saturday and Sunday?

Could you imagine? Dawn didn't even know where Lowery lived.

Laney Mae was caught buying a false face Saturday. Isn't yours funny enough, Laney?

As the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" floated up through the plane geometry room from the music room several students leaped to their feet and assumed attitudes of attention. (The secret of the patriotism was to escape a few minutes of class).

I study when I am at home, I study when I am at school, I study all of the time, but I keep on making bad grades just the same. Faw! what's the use, anyway?

Poor Harry's career as humorist has almost ended. Why? Because he was sent to the office twice and received F on department the same day.

McIntyre (to Ford, who wears a nose guard): "Is something wrong with your nose, too?" Ford: "No, I just have this on here to keep me from grazing."

Some of the students look sad. Perhaps it's because some one is staying out of school to pick cotton.

"Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn.

Your car's at the crossroads, Your brake lining's worn." But little Boy Blue made nary a peep—

Now he's under a tombstone fast asleep.

Ha, a rescue! Coach Bob Clark asked Miss Clark to ride to school last Friday morning so she wouldn't have to walk in the cold rain.

W. J. was very angry Thursday and Friday. Maybe some one had taken his new girl friend away from him.

Chlorene is crazy about riding boots. I wonder why. (Is it because her boy friend wears riding boots all the time?)

Mr. Gilmore: "My wife is pretty smart, she's nobody's fool." Mr. Clark: "Then how in the dickens did you ever get her?"

Ocie Pace was seen wearing his hat in the hall one day this week. Miss Kirby called out to him. "Ocie, I heard that boys were not supposed to wear hats in the house." Ocie replied: "Oh, we wear our hats to classes all the time at Briscoe."

All work and no play makes Jack.

YOUTH TRAINING TO BE TOPIC OF P.-T. A. MEETING

"For what are we training our youth?" is the theme of the Parent-Teacher association meeting to be held in the high school building next Tuesday. Orveta Puett, junior class president, will give a discussion on "Developing a Finer Citizenship."

A short number will be given by each of the second grade rooms. Miss Lois Kirby will talk on "Is there a tendency to make things too easy for the high school student?" Mrs. J. L. Gilmore will read "I Have Found Such Joy."

Some parent will discuss "Necessity of Parent and Teacher co-operation in helping the students to realize that attainment comes through self-effort and sacrifice."

"All parents are urged to come to the meeting," states Mrs. G. O. McCrohan, chairman of the program committee.

CORRAL RECEIVES LETTER FROM PRESS ASSOCIATION

In a recent memorandum from Doris Eubanks, secretary-treasurer of the Panhandle Press association, the staff of the Corral was reminded that the $1 membership fee is due to the association. The members of the journalism class have solicited subscriptions to The Wheeler Times on a percentage basis as a method of procuring money with which to pay dues to the Panhandle Press and the Texas High School Press associations.

The Panhandle Press meet will convene the first Saturday in February. Last year the cup offered by the Pampa Daily News was given to the Corral for one year's possession. If the cup is awarded to the Corral for two more years in succession, it will then become the permanent possession of Wheeler high school.

"Our staff will be looking forward to your high school paper being well represented at the convention," states Miss Eubanks.

GENERAL SCIENCE CLASS SEES PICTURES ON GLASS

The Rev. J. E. Kirby entertained the general science class last Thursday at the high school building with a picture show. The slides demonstrated the making of glass and the necessity of proper fitting glasses for the eyes.

Miss Lois Kirby has been teaching the bending of glass to the science class and it was necessary for the students to know how glass is made and what it is made from in order to understand its characteristics. Due to the fact that the room was not as dark as it should have been, the picture was not very plain.

HOME EC. GIRLS INSPECT MRS. WILLARD'S BEDROOM

To inspect a project of Mrs. J. E. Willard's, the members of the home economics III class visited in her home last Tuesday. She is modeling her bedroom in connection with her club work.

Mrs. Willard has redecorated part of her furniture and has made several articles, including what not shelves, magazine racks and door stops. From their inspection girls found many ideas that can be used in arranging the furniture for the Home Economics cottage bedroom.

While there the girls and Mrs. Gordon Whitener, instructor, looked at the canned goods in the Willard

MEMBERS OF HISTORY CLUB ALSO CHOOSE GREEK NAME

Another Greek name has been chosen for a high school organization. This time it is Theta Epsilon Gamma, the name of the history club.

The members of the club have drawn up their constitution and are ready to organize to begin their work. They will meet the first Monday in each month, unless the president calls a special meeting during that period.

Membership in this organization is to consist only of students regularly matriculated and will include active and pledge members. New members will be taken at each semester.

The Tiger Post, McLean, announces the marriage of their football coach, Bill Allen, to Miss Dorothy Brown of Amarillo. (I wonder if The Corral will ever have the honor—or misfortune—of announcing the marriage of our coach?)

In the near future a vote will be taken in Thursday assembly on the Texas hero that the student body believes should be in the hall of fame at C. I. A. This vote is in co-operation with the program for all Texas schools fostered by the College of Industrial Arts at Denton.—EISombrero, Perryton.

CLUB NOTES

Happenings of Interest by and for Home Demonstration Club Women of the County.

The Mobeetie Husky Go-getters met Oct. 22 in the home economics department. Plans were discussed about raising money to send a girl to the Farmers Short Course next year.

Geraldine Sims was added as a new member to the Husky Go-getters club.

Miss Jones gave a lecture on the health and care of women. Then the members went through a correct procedure of a business meeting held in a demonstration club.

Members present were: Wanda Creekmore, Audrey Brewer, Rosa Mae Tubbs, Anna Lee Compton, Geraldine Sims, Margaret Seedig, Lorraine Brown, Cleveland Lamson, Dora Goodright, Lois Meek and Bulah Brewer. —MARGARET SEEDIG, Reporter.

"This one fact: sprinkle your tomatoes with potassium permanganate in hot dry weather to make them hold the blooms, will repay me for all the time I have spent attending club meetings, if I did not learn another thing," Mrs. Emma Elders, All Pantry demonstrator for the Mobeetie Home Demonstration club, told her fellow club members during a recent meeting.

She continued, "This summer we used surface irrigation on our small tomato patch and had pretty vines, plenty of blooms, but no tomatoes. I thought about sprinkling with potassium permanganate. My husband said if it will help tomatoes, it will not hurt beans, so we sprinkled them, too. Both began to hold blooms and bear fruit immediately. The results of this experiment has shown its value."

From a patch 24 feet long and 27 feet wide, Mrs. Elders has canned 84 quarts, had all a family of four could eat fresh, divided with the neighbors occasionally and has bushels of green ones still on the vine.

As she nears the completion of her pantry demonstration, Doris Mayfield of the Lela 4-H club, with the help of her mother, has canned more than 500 quarts of fruit and vegetables.

From the cellar to the basement of the home have been transferred four shelves, eight feet long and one foot wide, and four new shelves, 10 feet by one foot, have been built. They are painted white.

"What before was only a storage space, now makes a very good pantry," stated Doris in speaking of the basement.

By using shrubs, trees and annual flowers that they already have, and buying a few more, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sivage will be yard demonstrators for the Briscoe Home Demonstration club this year.

Their yard is 62 by 84 feet. The front lawn has been grassed and 170 feet of tiling has been laid for sub-irrigation.

Mr. and Mrs. Sivage now have nine cottonwoods, one black walnut, one willow and one cherry tree. By following their plan, they will move some of these trees and use fruit trees, salt cedar and evergreens in their place. Other flowers and shrubs will be added to the jasmine plant, lilac bush and annual flowers they now have.

At the back of the house is a tomato patch. As soon as possible, this will be made into a grape vineyard and vegetable plot.

This plan of yard demonstration includes three years of work.

In carrying out her plans as farm food supply demonstrator for the Briscoe club, Mrs. John McCarroll has whitewashed her cellar and has had 14 shelves, nine feet by six inches built. She will have bins for her potatoes, apples and other stored products. All her cans of fruit and vegetables will be labeled.

That a couch can be made for the sum of approximately $2.12 has been proved by Mrs. W. N. Pharis of the Ramsdell Home Demonstration club, by using an old iron bedstead, discarded mattress cotton and mattress ticking, slats, four new rollers, new cretonne, discarded bedsprings, cardboard and old planks.

For the back of the couch Mrs. Pharis used the footboard of the iron bed. The arms were made from the rest of the bed and one by four planks, bradded together at the shop for the cost of 10 cents. She saved the 24-inch side railing with a hack saw. At the back Mrs. Pharis fastened springs in between the rods of the bed. She found that these rattled when the couch was moved, so she put cardboard between the springs and rods to prevent this.

The seat was made solid with the use of the slats. Both back and arms were padded with cotton from the discarded mattress, and the two pillows for the seat were made with this cotton. She used the old mattress ticking to cover the couch before putting on the nine yards of cretonne, which cost 18c a yard and is laundry proof and sun proof. The coverings were made in such a way that they can be removed and laundered.

This couch, with its pleated ruffles, is the width of a bed. It can be moved about, since four new hard-rubber rollers were bought for 10 cents each. The hard-rubber rollers prevent scarring of the floor when the davenport is rolled.

THE POET'S CORNER

When the Western Sun is Setting

When the western sun is sinking low
And the evening breezes begin to blow,
I'll get my pony for a ride to go
Over the hills to the range below.

Over the hills where the coyotes howl,
Down the ravine, with a trickling stream,
Through the dense underwood where the cougars prowled;

Down the canyon where the night-birds scream.
I'd ride for miles to see that beautiful sunset
Across the range dotted with cat-tle—
Through the grassy marshes so wet,
Where the diamond snakes rattle.

It's a western sunset that I love,
Turning the skies to pink and gold;
With fluffy white clouds floating above,
A more beautiful sight you'll never behold.

Sitting atop of yon big knoll
I'll watch that beautiful sun go down,
As a lone cowboy starts for a stroll,
I'll listen for a familiar sound.

It's just the tune of an old song
That to me has grown so dear.
He sings as he strolls along—
It makes the sunset seem so near.

Just as the last beautiful rays
Disappear beyond the range,
I'll turn my pony where the rabbit plays,
As dusk turns to dark, it seems so strange:

To hear the sighing mesquites moan,
To scent the cactus blossoms so sweet,
To hear the coyotes howl alone,
Wandering over the hills, their mates to meet.

As I turn my pony back home,
The sagebrush with dew is wet.
I no longer want to roam,
I'll live out West and watch the sun set.

Movie Chatter
By a Rogue

Zane Grey's Dude Ranger Theatre patrons will again welcome George O'Brien in his latest Zane Grey picture, Dude Ranger, which comes to the Rogue, Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee. This is not just an ordinary pistol-horse opera, but a real western story, the like of which can come only from the pen of that master writer, Zane Grey. Then to add plenty of comedy to the program, Buster Keaton will entertain with a two reel comedy. Do not forget the date.

Broadway Gondolier
Some time ago Warner Bros. made a little picture called 20 Million Sweethearts. It will long be remembered as an outstanding picture. Again Warner Bros. came to the front and made Broadway Gondolier, featuring Dick Powell and Joan Blondell. It is full of light comedy, romance, young folks, catchy tunes and a snappy story that compares favorably with 20 Million Sweethearts. It comes to the Rogue, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 4-5.

Old Man Rhythm
Buddy Rogers and Betty Grable are featured in the Wednesday and Thursday attraction, Old Man Rhythm, at the Rogue theatre. The picture is basically a musical with all the popular musical numbers that are being rendered over the radio. It is light and carefree. It deals with the young folks; their likes and dislikes. It is real entertainment, and you will go away feeling refreshed and happy for having seen it. Also, a Technicolor comedy will be shown. The date is Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 6-7.

Nora Pearl Bentley has one star in her crown, if she never gets another.

Wilma Connell and Florette Miller have been playing with matches—we warn them to be more careful.

"Popeye" (J. W. Johnson) is singing "You gotta be a football hero" since he's a regular on the team.

Imagine the impertinence of Mrs. Caldwell's room, thinking they can beat Miss Mason's room in the queen's race.

We heard Bobby Groves saying, "Tickle, I'll get even some day," when he was burned with a match.
