

Allies Outflank Foe In Rome Landing

Reds Close In On Rail Center Near Leningrad

By JAMES McLONG
LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Russians, pursuing the beaten German besiegers of Leningrad, closed in to within six miles of the great rail hub of Krasno-ardelk controlling trunk railways to Estonia and Poland today while other forces captured 30 communities to the east where they were driving to free the major rail artery to Moscow.

More than 70 towns and hamlets were taken in the entire Leningrad area, said the Moscow broadcast communique recorded by the Soviet monitor.

Less than 100 miles to the south where the Red army was surging west from captured Novgorod four more towns were taken as the last scattered remnants of Germans surrounded in the forests were declared wiped out.

Gains also were made in southern White Russia where seven communities were taken as the forces of Gen. Konstantine Rokossovsky reached out from captured Kallinkovichi through the Pripiet marshes toward Pinsk.

The Leningrad fighting saw the day's greatest advances as Gen. Leonid A. Govorov's forces captured Komolova and Zaitsevo, both six miles northwest of Krasno-ardelk.

The Russians also officially announced the clearing of a roundabout railway from Leningrad to Moscow with the capture in the Mga area. The railway via Mga, Kurishi, and Ovinische is a single track line, considerably longer than the main line.

Germans Use Aerial Bombs On Convoy

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—German planes using new radio-controlled glider bombs and a great swarm of U-boats attacked an important Atlantic convoy in another "battle of the Bay of Biscay" recently, but were decisively defeated with damage to only two of the convoy's ships, an admiralty air ministry communique disclosed tonight.

The battle in all its phases lasted four days and three nights. At least one submarine was sunk, two probably were sunk, and several others were damaged, and a number of big enemy bombers were shot down.

To protect the convoy, the first attacked by long-range German bombers in more than a year, British and Canadian warships were rushed to the scene from all directions and U. S. and British planes were flown into the area from Gibraltar, the newly obtained bases on the Azores and from England itself.

Bombs Leave German City Ablaze

Industrial Center Heavily-Blasted By Hammering Blows

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The central German industrial city of Magdeburg, twice destroyed by fire centuries ago, once more was ablaze tonight after a terrific hammering by the RAF which brought to a climax a mighty 26-hour aerial battle involving perhaps 3,000 Allied planes.

Large sections of the city, a rail junction harboring a wide variety of war industries, were left in flames by a deluge of more than 2,000 long tons of explosives and incendiaries dropped with saturating effect in 34 minutes by planes which flew more than 500 miles to reach their targets.

The assault brought to at least 6,300 tons the total weight of bombs hurled on Europe by Allied air armadas in two nights and a day. An RAF assault on Berlin Thursday night and an American heavy bomber pounding of the "rocket gun coast" of France Friday were the other principal raids.

While the RAF was pulverizing Magdeburg, 83 miles southwest of Berlin, smaller fleets of four-engined Lancasters and plywood Mosquitos again visited bomb-scarred Berlin, and the Germans unwrapped a new type of night raider to make their heaviest assault in a year against London.

The widespread night operations cost the British 52 bombers, one of the heaviest losses suffered by the RAF, although a total of around 1,000 planes were believed to have been involved so that the losses were probably kept down to five per cent.

Hitler sent 90 planes against Britain in two waves, but only 30 reached London and at least 10 were shot down by British night fighters and ground defenses. They dropped 90 tons of bombs on Britain.

West Texas CC Starts Contest

ABILENE, Jan. 22—The West Texas Chamber of Commerce today announced the formal launching of an area-wide inter-county agricultural stock contest to run initially through two crop years.

Entries were invited from all West Texas counties. In announcing the contest as a plan, "both war and postwar, rural and urban starting at the seat of our wealth and economy—the land," President M. C. Ulmer, said "conservation, protection, perpetuation and fullest possible utilization of our West Texas land resources, with increased, balanced and higher quality production from our farms and ranches" were the over-all objectives.

This represented doing "of that which we are most capable of doing with our resources, facilities, skill and experience," he said.

Adolf Takes Good Care Of Pal Rommel

The "Desert Fox" Is Named To Post Of Inspector General

By ROGER GREENE
LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Adolf Hitler was reported today by the Daily Express to have appointed his twice-beaten former "desert fox," Marshal Erwin Rommel, as inspector general for defense of Europe.

Rommel theoretically becomes Germany's supreme anti-invasion chief. Actually, however, an inspector-general in the German army seldom gives orders to a field commander and it is believed Field Marshal Karl von Rundstedt will remain in active charge of defending Hitler's Atlantic wall.

The Express quoted several reports saying Von Rundstedt, who more than once has shown open scorn for Nazism and has been quoted as referring to Hitler as "an inflation lunge corporal," has been moved to southeastern Europe where he will be in charge of the areas at the rear of Field Marshal Frits von Mannstein retreating from Russia.

Rommel's appointment as inspector general was interpreted here as a new move by Hitler to tighten the Nazi hold on the German army against a possible revolt by generals of the high command.

Von Rundstedt, known as the "high priest" of German strategy, never has been entirely trusted by Hitler. It is understood here that Hitler ordered Rommel to treat Von Rundstedt with kid gloves for fear Von Rundstedt would resign again as he did in 1941, or exploit his influence among German army officers to stage a revolt.

In his role as inspector general Rommel would be able to keep an eye on Von Rundstedt, who outranks him both in age and seniority of service, and officiate rather as Hitler's right hand man than as commander in the field.

Veto Of Bill May Have Been Averted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—A presidential veto of the new $2,000,000,000-plus tax bill may have been averted, it appeared today, by senate softening of its earlier efforts to place rigid limitations on the laws governing recovery of war profits deemed excessive.

The senate completed its work on the measure yesterday, two months after house action, and conferees will meet Monday to begin adjustment of differences between the two chambers.

Tax specialists agreed the treasury had lost approximately $200,000,000 by failure to put in force on January 1 the elaborate list of added and new excises on so-called luxury items and the boosted postal rates.

Demo Committee Wants Roosevelt To Continue Work

Washington, Jan. 22 (AP)—The democratic national committee, turning its meeting into virtually a fourth term rally, called on President Roosevelt today to "continue as the great world humanitarian leader" in both war and peace.

After selecting Chicago as the national convention and installing youthful Robert E. Hannegan, hailed as a "second Jim Farley," as new national chairman, the committee members roared approval for a resolution declaring the "liberal spirit and far-sighted idealism" of Franklin D. Roosevelt "must be imprinted in the peace."

"We, assembled here, realizing his world leadership and knowing that our allies are praying with us for the continuation of his services both in war and peace," the resolution concluded, "do now earnestly solicit him to continue as the great world humanitarian leader."

Thus, the resolution stopped short of calling for a fourth term in so many words but there was no mistaking that the committee members regarded it as a plea for the president to run again.

House Speaker Rayburn and Vice President Wallace, praising the leadership of President Roosevelt, told a Jackson Day dinner tonight the same kind of leadership must be maintained in the post-war period if this country is to win the peace.

Neither called directly for a fourth term for the president, but the threat of this possibility ran clearly through both addresses to the $100 a plate banquet at the Mayflower hotel to raise funds for the democratic party's 1944 campaign. Both men have been mentioned as possible running mates for Mr. Roosevelt.

"Roosevelt, God willing, will in the future give the new deal a firmer foundation than it has ever had before," said Wallace.

Rayburn said there were "two (See DEMOS, Page 3, Col. 7)

Aussies Drive Thru Jungles To Get Japs

Nips Strafed By Planes And Aerob Fighters Nab 15

By ROBERT EUNSON
ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Sunday, Jan. 23 (AP)—A jungle drive by Australians in the Ramu valley against the shipping base of Madang, a costly retreat of trapped Japanese under fire of strafing planes on the nearby New Guinea coast, and a 15-to-6 air victory over Rabaul, New Britain, were reported today by headquarters.

The Aussies, veterans of the African desert campaign, are pushing along the Faria river towards Kankayo in an inland jungle area about 40 miles south of Madang. Kittyhawks and Thunderbolts supported them by dive-bombing Japanese positions.

These Aussies thus resumed a drive which began last September after the fall of Lae, 140 miles southeast of Madang and carried from the Markham into the Ramu valley to a point beyond Dumpu in October before it resolved itself into patrol activity. Dumpu, near the Ramu river, is 45 miles from Madang.

On the northeast New Guinea coast, Japanese trapped below Madang between American invasion forces at Salidor and Australian captors of Sio were reported by headquarters today to have fled to Spill by Alracobras Friday fleeing the 28 miles from Rejas Point to Spill.

Today, marking the second anniversary of the Japanese landing at Rabaul, headquarters announced that on Thursday afternoon long-flying Mitchell medium bombers from the Solomons attacked Vunakunanu air-drome, destroying three ground-fighters and silencing gun positions.

The Japanese sent up 55 interceptors which were engaged by a large force of fighters escorting the Mitchells. Fifteen of the Japanese were shot down and three others were listed as probables. Six of the raiders were lost.

Before dawn the next morning, Liberator heavy bombers attacked the Rabaul town area and started fires.

Spatz Predicts Early End To German Air Force

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Carl A. Spatz said today that weather permitting, the German air force is likely to be knocked out during the summer and he disclosed that American bombing operations now are limited only by a shortage of planes, crews or facilities.

The newly-named commander of the U. S. strategic (long range) air forces for the two-day heavy bombardment campaign against Germany revealed that the U. S. army air forces now is large enough so that it can do large bomb every day flying conditions permit.

Surprise Action Menaces Lines Of Communications

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS, Jan. 22 (AP)—American and British troops by the thousands landed practically without opposition on the beaches south of Rome and moved inland today in a daring, successful seaborne blow that completely surprised the Germans and deeply outflanked the powerful "Gustav" and "Adolf Hitler" defense lines.

The Germans placed the scene 16 to 28 miles south of Rome on a 30-mile flat coast between the Tiber river mouth and the resort town of Nettuno, and they admitted loss of Nettuno harbor.

Allied headquarters said the landing caught the Nazis by "complete surprise" and "constitute a grave menace" to enemy communications.

Troops who splashed ashore met "alight" resistance and are making "satisfactory progress" in their drive inland.

The great amphibious stroke that ended the Italian deadlock was timed perfectly with a new general Fifth army offensive on the land front which fully occupied the stubborn German tenth army.

(The NBC correspondent in Naples reported the Germans facing the old front in the Liri valley "have started to break, and enemy vehicles now are reported moving northward.)

Kenneth Dixon, Associated Press correspondent who flew over the beaches south of Rome said German anti-aircraft at a road junction town was so slight that the Nazis either were dispersing their weapons or retreating.

Don Whitehead, Associated Press correspondent who accompanied the amphibious force as representative of the combined American press, wrote that the 2 a. m. landing "was so easy and simply done and caught the Germans so completely by surprise that as I write this dispatch six hours after the landing, American troops are literally standing with their mouths open and shaking their heads in utter amazement."

"I still don't believe it," a Fifth army infantryman, veteran of other amphibious operations told him. Allied airmen said German air activity was practically non-existent.

The battle-wise British and American troops lost no time in taking advantage of the situation by smashing straight inland toward the Apennine Way and the roads leading to Rome. Severing of these routes, 12 and 22 miles from the coast, would trap the bulk of the German tenth army, 13 divisions strong, and leave the path to Rome itself virtually undefended.

Mull Named As Vice-President With Cosden

Election of J. Blount Mull as vice president in charge of refining of Cosden Petroleum Corp., was announced by R. L. Tollett, president of the company, Saturday.

Mull was elevated to his new post by the Cosden directors in session at Fort Worth last week, climaxing a series of steady advancements since he joined the company as refinery technologist and assistant to the president at the Big Spring home office on Sept. 9, 1940. Since April 1, 1942, he had been serving as manager of refining. He has a background of 21 years experience in petroleum-refinery operations.

Born and educated in Indiana, he was graduated in 1921 from Purdue with a degree in chemical engineering. The following year he did graduate work in petroleum chemistry and geology at Colorado School of Mines. Associating with Cutlin Shale Products Co. at Elk, Nev., he experienced rapid promotions until he was assistant chief chemist when operations were abandoned in 1924.

He served a year and a half at Parco, Wyoming, with Producers & Refiners Corp., resigning to accept a position with Roxane Petroleum Corp., which developed into a 14-year association with Shell.

After two years as assistant chief chemist, he served as chief chemist and head of the treating department and acid recovery plant at the East Chicago Shell refinery for four and a half years. In 1933 he became refinery technologist at the 64-Louis home office manufacturing department, where he served until he resigned to accept a position with Cosden.

Mull is married, and he and Mrs. Mull and their children, Gilbert and Marilyn, reside at 1408 11th Place.

War Bond Sales Must Speed Up

By Saturday evening, Big Spring and Howard county bond buyers had clicked off another $100,000 to increase total sales for the Fourth War Loan to $214,825.25.

Although encouraged by a slight increase in rate with sales amounting to $77,849.75 Friday and Saturday, Chairman Ted O. Groebel warned that purchases must accelerate if the county is to hit its $1,380,000 quota, of which $453,000 must be in series E bonds.

He and other leaders in the drive were looking to two theatre bond benefits this week to invigorate the campaign and stimulate a wave of liberal buying.

Reviewing The Big Spring —Week— Joe Pickle

Have you bought bonds during the Fourth War Loan drive? Have you bought all you honestly can? What's America worth to YOU?

Those of us who stay must pay. Appeals by city officials last week to reduce water consumption met with good response. The next day 150,000 gallons less were used. Those who know the limitations of the current well supply would breathe a lot easier if that much more could be cut from daily consumption. At the rate pumping is proceeding now, we are apt to be out of water before a supplemental supply can be developed.

Unless you plan to be exclusively a dry-land back yard farmer, please don't plan on gardens, flowers, trees or shrubs. You'll save yourself money by waiting until you are surer about water. Remember, drinking water comes first.

Story Of Jon Beauroid—

Johnny Nall Woven In Heartbreak Again

By HELEN WILSON

The thread of life often weaves strange patterns . . . so it is in the case of 1st Lieut. Johnny Nall, 28, who has been reported missing in action following a heavy air assault over German territory.

During World War I the famous Rainbow Division which included a large number of Big Spring men, and among them Cpl. Leo Nall, Jr., was stationed in a small French town where Cpl. Nall met and married Madeleine Beauroid, a well educated French girl from a good family, who worked in a factory during the war for 25 cents per week.

Cpl. Nall learned during their courtship that her story was the same as many boys of the first world war. She had married a young Frenchman, who was killed in action several months before their son Jon was born.

Because of her low income, she was forced to put Jon in a home where he remained until Madeleine and Leo were married.

When the Armistice was signed, and the young couple prepared to come to the United States, Cpl. Nall adopted the small blond haired, blue eyed boy in order that he might come too.

Arriving in Big Spring the four year old lad, clad in straight knee pants, striped sweater and French beret, alighted from the train, timidly hiding behind his mother's skirts, somewhat in doubt about his new relatives who waited to meet him.

Even though Jon was called 'Shon' by his mother, he was dubbed Johnny when he reached the United States, and just as he was mastering his native tongue, the process began all over again, and he learned to speak English.

From the very first meeting at the station on that eventful evening when the soldiers returning from war, were met at the station, Johnny became attached to his grandmother, Mrs. Leo Nall, Sr., and lived with her until he was grown.

One of his greatest hatreds in childhood was for World War I of which he knew very little . . . except that it was responsible for the death of his real father. He always spoke of returning to Europe, and to Paris, France, his birthplace.

He was graduated from the Big Spring high school, in 1933, and later attended college in Washington before joining the Royal Canadian Air Force when World War II was aborning.

In June, 1943 his wish to return to Europe was fulfilled for he was sent to England. Later he was transferred to the American Air Corps, retaining his rank as first lieutenant.

In London he met a young lieutenant nurse from the States, and after dating for several months they announced their engagement. Their excited letters home revealed they had bought the wedding rings, and were "going through all kinds of red tape" in order to be married over there.

On the evening of January 3rd, preceding the attack on January

4th) Johnny wrote his grandmother that he was doing the thing that he had been wanting to do, and "I'm really enjoying my work." He closed with "Good-night Mom, I'll be getting up early in the morning." And so he did get up early the next morning, and what followed during the next 24 hours is not known.

The young nurse, broken hearted but still hopeful, wrote Johnny's grandmother here, and told her that Lieut. T. L. Donahoe of Abilene, Johnny's buddy, had come to the hospital the following day and brought her the wedding band they bought in such high spirits. Donahoe told her that he took part in the same raid over Germany; that it was really one bloody air battle; and that the last he saw of Johnny, he was after a German plane, chasing it like wildfire into a bank of clouds.

"His gasoline tank was full Tom tells me" she wrote, and in heavier ink she concluded "And I'm not giving up hopes for Johnny."

Chaplain Patterson Speaks To ABClub On Youth Problem

Adults have a definite responsibility to youth, Chaplain James L. Patterson asserted in an address before the A B Club Friday. There is no better way to meet this responsibility than by good example, he said, and club members can do much by accepting the responsibility of so living before and counseling with youth that these young people will be brought in a sound social and spiritual atmosphere. In so doing, the speaker ventured, club men would be contributing to the perpetuation of a great America.

The club voted to sponsor a job for the "March of Dimes" in connection with raising infantile paralysis funds.

New members introduced were Vernon Logan, O. C. Lewis and Lee Harris. Guests included Capt. Preston Sanders, Lieut. Arthur F. Putz and L. A. Jones. The program was under the supervision of J. B. Apple.

Mitchell American Legion Assists In Fourth War Loan

COLORADO CITY, Jan. 22 — Led by John M. Worrell, commander of the Oren C. Hooker post of the American Legion, Mitchell county members will battle for bonds here next week. The legion has volunteered to help appointed committees put over the Fourth War Loan drive. "If necessary," Pat Bullock, Fourth War Loan chairman states, "we will canvass the town house by house, business by business." The county has reached and bettered every war quota and assignment to date.

Of the $421,000 assigned to the county in the new drive, Loraine citizens will take care of $70,000, Westbrook $30,000. The balance will belong to Colorado City and surrounding communities.

one folded his paper, looked at his watch. Then the two lit cigarettes and the tall man ambled off. This encounter was repeated many times, and within two hours, the arrivals had assembled in a certain building.

It was a full session of the French National Council of Resistance, leaders of the greatest and deadliest fifth column in history. Each of them had been long condemned to death by Vichy and the Gestapo; had the Germans raided that house that afternoon they would have made their biggest haul yet. They would have gone a long way toward destroying the underground network which everywhere spies upon them, disrupts transport, cuts communication and tortures production.

But the entire quarter was guarded by young men who two or three years before had been peaceful bank clerks or tradesmen but who now held submachine guns. Other precautions had been worked out in detail.

Three years of misfortune and false starts have imprinted precaution into the French underground movement. Today its leaders have behind them fully 200,000 well-trained and trusted guerrilla fighters.

They are the "soldats sans uniforme" who will crumple the enemy's transport, communications and supplies behind the beachhead.

Timing and rehearsing for this invasion day attack is the primary task of the National Resistance Council. Its secondary aim is day-to-day sabotage.

Sabotage is both active and passive. Actively, it ordains the slowdowns in factories, the blowing up of bridges, the caving in of rail tunnels.

Passive sabotage is carried out by aiding young Frenchmen to evade the German labor draft for Nazi factories. Recent estimates say that more than 100,000 youths are now hiding in the hills.

Along this underground, justice is firm, swift and primitive. At 8:30 one night a Lavalist militiaman stumbled into a partisan area. The townspeople formed a court. He was found guilty of treason. At 9:30 p. m. he was buried.

Another Highlight Of Big Spring's Earl Of Aylesford Uncovered

Reminiscent of the days when a member of the English nobility lived in Big Spring and astonished residents with his flourishing tactics, a copy of a will written in fine script and bearing the seal of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice is on file in the office of District Clerk George Choate.

The will is that of Daniel Harry Finch, a younger brother of Henegae, Earl of Aylesford, who came to Big Spring in the early 1880's. A series of legends developed as result of the earl's residence here, one of the first being that he purchased the old Cosmopolitan hotel and reserved it for his needs because of the fact he had been unable to find accommodations upon his arrival in the city.

Although named as an alternate heir in his brother's will, Henegae, Earl of Aylesford did not benefit from the estate. He preceded his brother in death, dying in Big Spring approximately two years after his arrival here. The will apparently was filed in this county because of its bearing on the estate left by the earl.

In the will copy, which is on parchment paper and headed "In Her Majesty's High Court of Justice," Daniel Harry Finch bequeathed "all my property of every description to my brother the Honorable Clement Edward Finch absolutely and in case of his death during my lifetime I give the same to my brother Henegae Earl of Aylesford." It provided further for distribution should both his brothers precede him in death. The will was dated March 15, 1883. Its maker died Dec. 17, 1890.

Attached to the will copy is a certificate signed by George C. Hitt, vice and deputy consul-general of the United States for Great Britain, and certifying authenticity of the seal, indicating full faith should be given the will's contents.

The Finch family long had been a part of the English nobility. The Earl of Aylesford, a handsome and hearty gentleman, was a frequent companion of the Prince of Wales, later Edward VI, while in England. The earl came to this country, according to several accounts previously published, because he had gone into debt to the tune of ten million dollars and his wife had run away with another man. Another account was that he came here to invest in land for his two daughters, who, under English laws, could not inherit any of the family estate.

Not only did the earl own a hotel in Big Spring but he duplicated his purchase of a business to suit his needs in at least two other lines. Unable to get the particular brands of whiskey he desired, he bought a saloon and had Tommy Monahan, an Irishman, run it for him. Later, he purchased a meat market the operator of which knew how to purchase prime meat to suit the earl's tastes. The earl owned a ranch north of Big Spring. His contents included a stock of priceless firearms.

The earl's regular quota of whiskey was a minimum of two quarts a day. His epicurean tendencies plus his capacity for drinks undoubtedly hastened his death, according to accounts. The earl accepted the advice of his personal physician in all matters except that of drink.

Geo. Williams Awarded DFC

FO GEORGE F. WILLIAMS

High honor has come to another Big Spring man, Flight Officer George F. Williams, Jr., with the announcement from general headquarters in the Southwest Pacific area that he has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Lieut. General George C. Kennedy, commander of the allied air forces in that area awarded the DFC for "heroism in flight and exceptional and outstanding accomplishment in the face of great danger above and beyond the line of duty while participating in 50 operational flight missions... during which hostile contact was probable and expected."

FO Williams is pilot on a troop transport and assigned to a troop carrier squadron with the Fifth Air Force. The operations mentioned consisted of dropping supplies and transporting troops to advanced positions in flights which involved flying at low altitudes over mountainous terrain under adverse weather conditions in transport plane, and often landing within a few miles of enemy bases.

The young pilot took a circuitous and hard route to get his wings. Enlisting in November 1941 in the air corps, he was assigned to San Angelo. When the glider program became available to enlisted men, he transferred and by April 23, 1942 he had soloed at Hancock College of Aeronautics at Santa Maria, Calif. Completing his work there, he was made a staff-sergeant in July and started on a long round of additional training at Santa Ana, Calif., Warrensburg, Mo., Albuquerque, N. M. and Dalhart, Texas before he was shipped on May 10, 1943.

Although he has never written of any of his engagements, mentioned to "watch the papers" usually keeps Mr. and Mrs. George F. Williams, 207 E. 6th, informed of activities of his group.

The body will lie in state at the Eberley-Curry Funeral home pending word from relatives.

Petty Home Damaged Seriously By Fire

Fire Chief H. V. Crocker estimated 35 per cent damage to the building and 65 per cent to contents. He said that flames apparently originated from a gas heater.

Bonds

bonds will buy. In addition to the motion picture, the Tuesday evening offering will include a stage show by Big Spring Bombardier School soldiers and WACs.

There will be portions from the Broadway hit, "Oklahoma." The post orchestra and vocalists will present the show with Sgt. Joe Kling, Cpl. Phil Tucker and Pfc. Bernice Sciorra featured in two numbers. The Five Jacks and a WAC, a novelty sextette, will also be spotted as will S/Sgt. Clyde Nickle, Harrisburg, Pa., a balloon twirler extraordinary.

After a four-man modern rhythm orchestra, "the Stylists," give their interpretations of popular tunes, Clyde and Stanley Puerliff, Big Spring soldiers, will present harmony number. A reading of Norman Corwin's dramatic sketch, "Soldiers Are Not Alone," will conclude the performance.

In another move to promote the sale of bonds, the Lions club and the high school Steers will tangle in a basketball game Thursday evening with stamps and bonds alone good for admission. The high school student section is sponsoring.

While the campaign is gaining some momentum, Grobel Saturday appealed "for every red-blooded person in Howard county to buy bonds this week until it hurts. Until we buy to that extent, we haven't really bought... and we haven't really begun to support our men until we honestly sacrifice here at home to give them everything they can possibly use to fight for their lives—and ours."

Police Catch Thief In Act

Police caught another burglar in the act early Saturday morning when Officer Tracy Kupper nailed a negro inside the Big Spring Laundry.

Attracted by Officer R. H. White, a new man on the force, Kupper and Officer York went to the laundry at 12:30 a. m. While others watched entrances, Kupper went inside.

After searching the place, Kupper finally spotted a head peeping over a pile of clothes.

"Come out," commanded the officer. When there was no response, he added, "I'm going to shoot a hole through you."

With that the negro fairly floated into the air with his hands over his head. Police picked up a suitcase full of clothing which the negro admitted taking. He told officers a negro companion had taken money removed from the cash drawer.

Wolcott, assessor-collector, announced Saturday. Persons wishing to vote in 1944 elections have only seven more week days in which to pay their taxes.

A total of 2,887 persons had paid poll taxes and 128 had obtained exemptions up to Saturday afternoon. The total of 3,005 exceeds the total on the same day in 1943 by 404.

"We have gone to war under a caliber of leadership that has proved, by actual results, that it is worthy of the high trust we placed in it," he continued. "That leadership is still proving its worth. May we never make the fatal error of thinking we can win the peace, under a leadership of any smaller caliber, or under no leadership at all."

Chicago won the convention without making any specific offer as to money, and over a surprise bid from Detroit. Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago simply promised on behalf of a non-partisan citizens committee that Chicago would meet expenses of the convention.

The republicans, who will meet in Chicago in June, were guaranteed $75,000.

The democratic committee left the date of the convention up to Hannegan, 40-year-old Missouri Irishman who succeeds Postmaster General Frank C. Walker as national chairman. He is expected to select a date in July.

Demo Organization Is Solvent For Once

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (UP)—The democratic national organization is "financially solvent" for the first time in its history, Treasurer Edwin W. Pauley reported today to the party's national committee.

He said the committee entered 1943 with a deficit but now has a credit balance with all bills paid.

A goal of the 1944 campaign fund at the limit allowed by the law, $3,000,000.

Using the number of delegates, the democratic vote in the last presidential election, and the assessed property valuation in each state, an average was struck for the following quotas in the 1944 fund raising drive: Arkansas $27,000; Louisiana $39,000; New Mexico $14,000; Oklahoma $46,000; Texas $106,000.

Tuberculin Tests Given Children

Approximately 850 tuberculin patch tests have been administered to school children during the past week by Dr. J. E. Olean, director of the Midland-Ector-Howard county health unit, assisted by Mrs. Anne Fisher and Mrs. Jean Stripling.

Preliminary studies of the tests indicated an encouragingly low percentage of reactors. In these cases, X-ray examinations will follow to furnish more accurate information.

High school students, scheduled for testing, will be given the patches this week, and health unit officials hoped to complete the testing program as originally planned within the next two weeks. Some rural school groups also remained to be tested.

H. D. Norris, field scout executive, will be in Fort Worth this week, attending the region No. 9 scouters conference.

Dickey Is Named Player Of Year By Association

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—William Malcolm Dickey, the gangling Arkansas who has been a fixture at the New York Yankee catcher for 15 years, today was selected as the player of the year by the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association.

He will receive the award at the annual dinner of the chapter in New York's hotel Commodore on Sunday, Feb. 6.

Dickey, fourteen-time recipient of the trophy which last year went to Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, is the first catcher to make the grade.

Thirty-seven years old and a father, Dickey will report to manager Joe McCarthy of the Yanks in March for his seventeenth campaign with the Bronx bombers.

During the long career he established a major league mark for catching 100 or more games in 19 consecutive seasons and in addition holds numerous field and batting marks.

Last season he was third in the American league's batting roster with an average of .351, and has established such marks as clutching three homers in a single game, July 26, 1939 and bashing homers with the bases loaded in consecutive games at the expense of the Chicago White Sox on Aug. 3 and 4, 1937.

He caught 125 games in 1931 without a passed ball, is co-holder of the major league mark of making three assists in an inning and authored an unassisted double play with the St. Louis Browns the victims on June 8, 1941.

BILL DICKEY - CATCH

As a Yankee, his only major league connection, he has played in eight world series and has represented the American league in actual play in seven all-star games. In addition, he has been selected on the Sporting News' all-major league team six times.

Off to a slow start because of time lost during the Christmas season, the Big Spring Steers will get enough work this week to compensate for some of the experience deficit when they play a six game schedule—three tilts for the first and three for the B string boys.

This does not include the bond benefit till Thursday evening when the Steers square off to extend the Lions club cagers. Admission to this affair will be by bond and stamps only.

Monday at 3:30 p. m. the first series comes up with the Midland Bulldogs, victors over the Steers a week ago in their initial meeting, as opposition. The B strings of both teams play first and the first line youngsters square off in a nightcap.

Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. Lamesa comes here for a pair of games, and Friday evening the Steers journey to Colorado City to return two games with the Wolves.

Both the Midland-Lamesa encounter will be crucial tests for the Steers. The games count on a double-round robin schedule, and Big Spring already has lost one game. If they could win one or both, they might have a chance to figure in the western half title chase of 3-A, but if they lose, all they can do is hope to ruin the chances of others.

Although they have yet to break into the win column, the lanky Steers are showing steady improvement. Last week they were hot against Phillips Tire and scored 27 points, showing the greatest offensive punch of the season.

Coach John Dibrell will start Earl Lusk and Alvin Mize at forward, Billy Ray Warren, who is developing fast, at center, and Woody Baker and Bobby Barron, both with some experience, at guards. Felix Hudgins will alternate with the forwards.

On the second string, starters are Bobby Wright and Hugh Cochran, forwards, Leo Rusk, center, Richard (Pee Wee) Simmons and Ben Aguerre, guards.

Two Denison Men Are Major Pitchers

DENISON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Denison has two men on the pitching staff of the St. Louis Browns for next season but one of them may pass up major league baseball.

Newman Shirley recently signed with the Browns. Shirley, a brakeman with the Katy Railroad here, finished last season with Springfield, Mass., of the Eastern league.

Bob Muncief pitched for St. Louis last year but is not sure of his plans for this season. He now is employed in the shipyards at Houston.

NTSTC To Play Host At Tourney

DENTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Thirteen schools have been invited to participate in a basketball tournament here next Saturday at North Texas State Teachers College.

Host team will be the North Texas State Demonstration High School.

Fred Slack, director of the tournament, invited the following schools to participate: Frisco, Sanger, Era, Roanoke, Argyle, Pilot Point, Krum, Tlaga, Prosper, Colinsville, Tom Bean, Valley View and Ponder.

TODAY'S SERMON IS BASKETBALL

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF (AP) Features
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Take it from Beebe Bill Flynt, athletics and religion make a happy blend for a normal youngster.

Beebe Bill ought to know—he's doing all right at both.

Flynt is a full-fledged minister of the gospel and also a main cog in another University of Arkansas basketball team with South-west Conference championship hopes.

The 21-year-old, six-foot-one product of Beebe, Ark., is the fellow Coach Eugene Lambert of the Razorbacks thinks will furnish just the punch he needs.

Flynt came here in November from Ousachita College where he starred on varsity cage teams for two winters.

He is in his sixth year as a Bible interpreter and has been serving a regular pastorate for four. His present charge is the Perryville Baptist Church, some 150 miles from the Arkansas campus.

When Bill's basketball chores are finished on a Saturday night, he climbs into his car and sets out for the site of his Sabbath activities.

A few well-wishers advised Flynt to think twice before he enrolled at the university and took part in athletics.

"I haven't regretted my decision a minute," says the quiet-spoken young man. "I came here prepared to find that 'big-time' college athletics might not revolve around Christian principles. But let me tell you right now, I've never seen a better attitude toward sports, school and fellow-men than I've encountered right here on the Arkansas campus. They're a swell bunch of fellows and it is a privilege to play with the Razorbacks. Students all over the campus are swell and here's where I want to complete my work for a degree."

Incidentally, Bill is not the only cager in his immediate family. Two older brothers, Alvin and Clayton, formerly starred for the Arkansas State Teachers College and two step-brothers also played a lot of basketball. Alvin Flynt was captain of the State champion Teachers College quintet in 1938. Flynt also has played basketball. "I've always regretted I didn't have a chance at other sports, such as football," he adds.

Beebe Bill was ordained a Baptist minister some four years ago at the Wattensaw Church in Lonoke County.

Mar-Kell Takes Money In Hialeah Park's Handicap

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 22 (AP)—The five-year-old Mar-Kell, top money winner for the Calumet farm now that mighty Whirlaway has been retired, brought home a $4,000 prize today with a smart triumph in Hialeah Park's Evening Handicap before one of the largest crowds of the winter season.

Billy Thompson had the bay thoroughbred out in front by a length and a half at the finish, and was pulling away from the field. Despite a burden of 126 pounds and a relatively soft track, Mar-Kell went the seven furlongs in one minute, 26 seconds—3-5 seconds off the course record.

The Woolford farm entry of Silvestra and Pig Tails took second and third, respectively.

Mar-Kell returned $4.70 for $2 to win, $2.80 to place and $2.60 to show. Silvestra and Pig Tails, hooked together in the Pari Mutual pool, paid $2.40 to place and $2.50 to show.

Rafferty Dethroned By Hulse In Miler

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Bill Hulse, America's 4:06 miler, dethroned James Rafferty tonight as the Metropolitan A.A.U. champion at the distance by swinging eight times around the 13th regiment armory's unbanked floor in 4:25.96.

It was the second straight win on the boards for the youngster who hopped into the limelight last summer by chasing Gunder Haegg. Last week, running in rubber-soled shoes, he was clocked in 4:23.4. Tonight the competitors wore short spikes.

Rice Smothers Ag Quint 63-33

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 22 (AP)—Paced by the 27 points of tall Bill Henry, the Rice Owls smothered the Texas Aggies 63 to 33 here tonight.

It might have been worse if the Rice first string had not been taken out with seven minutes to play. The halftime score was Rice 24, Aggies 11, but the Aggies went eight minutes without scoring in the first period and Rice piled up a lead of 12-0.

Kell Is Batting Champion For 1943

DURHAM, N. C., Jan. 22 (AP)—The 1943 batting champion of organized baseball is infielder George Kell who smashed out a .366 average as an infielder with the Lancaster Red Roses of the Class B Interstate league.

Minor league press headquarters disclosed that Kell had a 27-point margin on his closest competitors, Hal Gruber of Bristol in the Appalachian league and Ben Visan of Batavia in the Pony league, each of whom batted .369 in Class D competition.

District 10-AA Abandons New Plan

TEMPLE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Football district 10-AA will return to the old round robin schedule in 1944, abandoning the split district plan in effect for the past two years, Temple School Superintendent George Gearty said tonight.

The decision was made at a meeting of the district executive committee in Waco today.

Participating in the round-robin play will be Ennis, Bryan, Cleburne, Hillsboro, Waxahachie, Corsicana, Waco and Temple.

Lead Increased By 78th Cagers

After suffering an upset earlier in the week at the hands of the 812-S team, the 78th bombardier training squadron Friday evening trounced the 359th to build its lead in the Big Spring Bombardier School enlisted men's basketball league to a game and a half.

The 78th handled the 359th by a 32-25 count with Enloe scoring 10 points and Weinstein eight.

For the losers, Logan has best total for the evening with 14 points and Chapman had eight, day evening.

Coach John Dibrell will start Earl Lusk and Alvin Mize at forward, Billy Ray Warren, who is developing fast, at center, and Woody Baker and Bobby Barron, both with some experience, at guards. Felix Hudgins will alternate with the forwards.

Major League Plans Set For Spring Training

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Uncle Sam can be certain that one class of athletes—the major league baseball players—will have their income tax problems all settled by March 15, the day of payment and the almost-universal choice for opening day of spring training.

It will be the second cold-weather ordeal for the athletes above the Eastman-Landis line, established a year ago as means of curtailing travel, and the 16 clubs have made only three changes from the sites picked a year ago.

The Philadelphia Phillies, owned this year by Robert M. Carpenter, will train this time in the young socialite's home town of Wilmington, Del. The athletics will ship their belongings to Frederick, Md., and the New York Yankees have picked Atlantic City in preference to Asbury, N. J.

Players from three teams in the national loop and three in the American will sweat off their surplus weight in Indiana, the Chicago Cubs and White Sox establishing a combined base of operations at French Lick. Cincinnati returns to Bloomington, Cleveland to LaFayette, Detroit to Evansville and Pittsburgh to Muncie.

The Polar Bear titles remain with the two Boston entries, the Braves having reengaged the facilities of the Choate School at Wallingford, Conn., and the Red Sox limbering up in Tufts care at Medford, Mass.

Brooklyn plans its outdoor work for Bear Mountain, N. Y., and the huge Fieldhouse of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point if it proves too frosty in the open.

The St. Louis Cardinals will break through their drills at Cairo, Ill., and the Browns at Cape Girardeau, Mo. Washington started to second place after preparing for the 1943 campaign in College Park, Md., and the Senators are trying their luck in the same spot a second time.

Chicago, Jan. 22 (AP)—Coach Bill Chandler's proposed personal foul rule change in basketball was given an experimental try last night and his Marquette team used it effectively to help upset DePaul 51-49.

The experimental rule inflicted only a three-minute rest period on a player with four personals rather than complete eviction from the game.

With six minutes to play, Bill Chandler, Jr., son of the coach, went to the bench after accumulating his quota of fouls. After three minutes he returned to the floor where he had much to do with controlling the ball as Marquette stalled out the time to survive a last-minute DePaul drive.

Jack Dean also was ejected on fouls, but only 10 seconds remained by the time he was released from the bench.

Three DePaul players and two Marquette men went out on fouls during the game, but only Chandler and Dean left soon enough to take advantage of the three-minute test plan.

Bears Nose Out NTAC 38-35

WACO, Jan. 22 (AP)—In a closely fought basketball game here tonight, the Baylor University Bears nosed out the North Texas Agricultural College quintet from Arlington, 38 to 35.

Tall Marlin Hicks' offensive and defensive play for the victors was outstanding. Aggie's Jim Batchelor and Bob Doyle, with ten and eight points, respectively, made things hot for the Bruins and kept NTAC ahead the first half, but Baylor came back to build up an eight-point lead.

NTAC turned on the heat the last few minutes of the ball game but failed to overtake the Bears.

Porkers Swamp Mustangs 74-49

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Jan. 22 (AP)—Arkansas' red-hot Razorbacks came within four points of a Southwest conference scoring record tonight as they routed Southern Methodist's Mustangs, 74-49 to sweep the two game series.

The Mustangs, hopelessly beaten, kept the Porkers away from the record by holding onto the ball in the last five minutes of play while the Razorbacks desperately tried to score. Texas set the new record of 77 points this season.

SMU, guarding closely and shooting with greater accuracy than last night, held Arkansas on fairly even terms in the first half, which ended 33-24 in favor of the Porkers.

Grid Candidates Report Early For Try At Rice Slots

By The Associated Press
One Southwest conference school already has begun football practice but it's of the informal variety.

Spring training will not open full blast at most of the schools until March.

Fifty-nine candidates have reported to Coach Jess Neely at Rice. Included are all the boys on the squad at the close of the 1943 season. Unless semester examinations take a toll, Neely expects no defections before Nov. 1.

Formal spring training starts after the new semester March 1. By that time, Neely expects to have several 17-year-old freshmen and a few more V-12 prospects.

Texas A. and M. is one school that won't hold spring training in the spring. The Aggies will be called out in late summer or early fall.

It was explained that "A&M" wasn't going to train players for other conference schools as was the case last spring. A number of boys who worked at Aggie land were at other schools when the grid race opened in the fall, some by navy transfer, others by change of schools.

Arkansas opens spring training March 3 and runs to April 1. Texas starts practice March 6 and continues for 30 calendar days.

Texas Christian and Southern Methodist have not yet set dates for spring training.

Baylor, the other member of the conference, was not in football last year and is not expected to return to the fold next fall.

Pancho Nail Asks To Be Returned

R. L. (Pancho) Nail, commissioner of precinct No. 3, announced Saturday that he would be a candidate for re-election to the office, subject to the democratic primaries.

Nail pointed out that 20 of his 37 years in Howard county have been spent in the precinct he represents. He owns his home just south of the city and feels that he is in a position to "know the wants and needs of the people of the precinct."

In asking for continued support at the polls, Nail said "I don't claim to have made the best commissioner in the world, but I have tried to be one with whom the people would be well satisfied. I make no apology for what has been done, or for what we could not do because of wartime shortages and restrictions. I want to run on my record in office."

A half hour later the sheriff's telephone rang.

"Say, dad," his son said, "I got that kid that held up that girl. I'm bringing him in."

He did, too. The 11-year-old captive turned out to be a boy police had tried to nab for more than a year.

"I'd seen this kid around with plenty of money for candy and ice cream," Dean explained. "When I saw him on the street after this girl said she had been robbed, I figured he was the one who did it."

COLUMBIA, S. C., (AP) — Capt. G. C. Rush of a state prison farm insists the ability of the rural Southern Negro to handle stubborn and fractious mules is unsurpassed.

An unbroken mule on the farm, which officials believed could not be tamed, was turned over to five Negro prisoners for a last-resort try.

The Negroes gathered around the quivering, panic-stricken animal and talked steadily to him for a quarter of an hour, finally quieting him.

The next day, Rush said, only four men were needed to deal with the recalcitrant; the next day, only three; and by the fifth day, one man was plowing with the mule.

'Destination Tokyo' Is Action Film At Ritz Today

"Destination Tokyo," showing today and Monday at the Ritz theatre is a story of a submarine, the U. S. S. Copperfin, but more, it is superb screen fiction of what might have taken place when U. S. air and naval forces prepared for the bombing of Tokyo.

Emphasis of the story is laid upon the preparatory patrol work of the Copperfin before the air raid on Tokyo, and most of the action is confined to the submarine. The film's outstanding quality is the technical perfection of detail which, instead of bogging down the plot and hampering suspense, creates an authenticity which heightens this drama of adventure in a wartime sub.

An expert cast, headed by Cary Grant as Captain Cassidy of the Copperfin, and John Garfield, playing a blonde-chasing torpedo man called, "Wolf," perform their roles forcefully. This is a story of fighting men and it is a man's film, but so effective are the human qualities of the story, that it becomes a picture for everybody.

T-N-T:—A scene from "Destination Tokyo" showing Sunday and Monday at the Ritz Theatre starring Cary Grant, John Garfield with Alan Hale, Dane Clark, Robt. Hutton.

Action Highlights "The Desperadoes"

One of the most magnificent dramas of the old West ever to thunder across the screen, Columbia's "The Desperadoes" opens today at the State Theatre with its stellar cast headed by Randolph Scott, Glenn Ford, Claire Trevor, Evelyn Keyes and Edgar Buchanan. Told in breathtaking Technicolor, the new film is said by Hollywood to be an epic drama of brawling men and untamed women, of lawless wickedness and matchless heroism.

Rich with all the color and tumultuousness of the boundless plains, "The Desperadoes" was directed by Charles Vidor from an original story by Max Brand adapted to the screen by Robert Carson. Telling of a killer's fight for law and order, in a town which was not sure it wanted either, "The Desperadoes" has been praised from coast to coast not alone for the stampeding swiftness of its blood-tingling story, but also for its vivid direction and breathless characterization. Special acclaim has been accorded its glowing, splendor-splashed backgrounds, brought to pulsating life through adept use of the technicolor cameras.

"The Desperadoes" are many in the new film; in fact, nearly every member of the cast is one, of one sort or another. Randolph Scott, newly elected sheriff of Red Valley, is a gun-fighter who has successfully managed to reform. Glenn Ford, as a man-hunted killer, does his best to reform but finds his efforts frustrated until he goes on a gun-roaring rampage, to clear the town of some of its "better" citizens. Claire Trevor appears as "The Countess," charming operator of Red Valley's most popular gambling hall. Guinn "Big Boy" Williams is a bad man, handy with dynamite and with a six-gun, and therefore a good man to have around "in a fight." Edgar Buchanan is a con-ning rascal and a shootin' fool, when he can find his gaudy Porter Hall is the town banker, who robs his own safe once too often. Raymond Walburn, appearing as the local judge, "bankers for a hang-in," and makes no bones about it. Lovely Miss Keyes thus emerges as the only non-desperado in the film, and it is about her charming presence that a fair share of the excitement takes place. Scott and Ford become rivals for her attention; ex-buddies, they help each other in and out of jail, and they team up to put a stop to the villainy about them when it finally reaches the point of a showdown.

"The Desperadoes" reaches its most dramatic moments in the final sequences, when a stampeding herd of horses races madly through the frontier town, while Ford rides concealed in its dust and tempest until he can reach the local jail. Here, after effecting Scott's freedom, the killer and the sheriff turn their attention upon the gang which has been riding rough-shod over the elementary laws of justice and decency.

"The Desperadoes" has been highly praised; that the film rates its enthusiastic applause will be proven to State Theatre audiences on Sunday and Monday.

OCS Picture Is Slated To Open At Lyric Today

There are something like 7,000,000 American soldiers now in uniform, so when Columbia produces a motion picture called "There's Something About A Soldier," scheduled to open at the Lyric theatre on Sunday, it's bound to be of current interest. With its plot laid in an Officers' Candidate School, advance reports of this one indicate that it is a drama of human emotions rather than of actual battle.

What do these young men, destined to become the leaders on our battle fronts, think about when they are preparing themselves for what may be death? How does the army train them for the gallant leadership all Americans know that their troops are getting? "Something About A Soldier" is said to answer these questions in a very dramatic and exciting fashion as well as showing what these young men do in their few spare moments of relaxation, their friendships, their loves, even their pet hates.

The story is based on the rivalry of two young men striving to survive the mental and physical rigors of an Officers' Candidate School. Wally Williams (Tom Neal) is an ex-newspaperman, a sports columnist, who is very bright and very, very sure of himself. Frank Malloy (Bruce Bennett) is a sober-minded young man who has gained his appointment to the school the hard way by actual fighting in North Africa. Between these two is Carol Harkness (Evelyn Keyes), a Civil Administration secretary at the camp.

How they struggle for her favor, the regeneration of the smart and cynical newspaperman, is said to make up one of the truest and most realistic soldier stories which have yet been brought to the screen.

Featured in the large cast set against the authentic background of a real army camp are: Tom Neal, Evelyn Keyes, Bruce Bennett, John Hubbard and Jeff Donnell.

Western Drama—"The Desperadoes", showing Sunday and Monday at the State theatre featuring Randolph Scott, Glenn Ford, Claire Trevor, Evelyn Keyes and Edgar Buchanan.

Sensation—Bruce Bennett and Evelyn Keyes in a romantic scene from their new picture, "There's Something About A Soldier," with Tom Neal showing Sunday and Monday at the Lyric theatre.

Queen Presents The 'Right Man' Today And Mon.

Alan Ladd, who has suddenly and surprisingly found himself the motion picture star discovery of the year because those people who make stars, the picture audiences, have found him to be the "right man," comes to the Queen theatre on Sunday. Ladd tops the cast of the picture, "The Right Man."

Summer vacation from college sends three girls into the life of John Gilman, played by Ladd, to thrust him into a series of adventures that makes him the romantic target of all three and in the process sets man against man in a contest that doesn't stop with conversation.

As in the case of his recent "China," "Lucky Jordan," and "The Glass Key," Ladd doesn't have to hunt for adventure and excitement. They follow him. Adele Comandini, author of Deanna Durbin's "Three Smart Girls," wrote the screenplay that puts him in the enviable position of having to make a choice between Julie Bishop and Judith Linden until Edith Fellows enters the scene to settle the issue.

Edith plays the role of Linda Strong, the typical student who thinks college was made for study. She quickly finds her most profitable study a book entitled, "How To Win A Man." Julie Bishop, playing the role of Eileen, Linda's older sister, had already captured their cousin's fiancée, but has set her cap now for still another conquest. Edith discovers the impending play and enters the field herself, with her textbook, "How To Win A Man," under her arm.

Grandmothers Are Skillful Workers

LONDON, (AP)—A large British war factory has a new unit for measuring production — the "gran-hour."

This is the term used, and very respectfully, by factory management for the 350 hours of work contributed voluntarily by 52 energetic grandmothers and one great-grandmother.

The grey-haired women, most of whom worked in war factories during the last war, do vital jobs soldering, paint-spraying, drilling and assembling. The plant manager said that they are among his more efficient and dependable workers.

Bond Buyers May See Free Of Charge, Show At Ritz

Promises of action aplenty and the presentation of lovely ladies as well as your favorite screen stars are promised in "Thousands Cheer," which will show at the Ritz theatre Tuesday, January 25, in line with the Fourth War Loan drive in this section. Tickets have been printed and will be issued to those bond buyers making application at the Ritz theatre or the bond headquarters.

In brief the story is as follows: When Kathryn Grayson gives up a concert career to keep house at an army camp for her father, Colonel John Boles, she has just one thought in mind. Through her efforts she hopes to effect a reconciliation between her father and mother, Mary Astor, who have been separated for fifteen years.

At the station before departing for the camp she meets Private Gene Kelly who kisses her goodbye, unaware that she is the Colonel's daughter.

Later at the camp, Eddy is rude to Kathryn because she represents authority and he plans to ask for transfer to the air corps. His friends tell him that he might work the lead through Kathryn, but the idea bomerangs when they fall in love. She visits his family. Her father becomes alarmed and wires her mother who arrives at camp determined to take Kathryn back to New York. Kathryn begs to remain until after a USO show which she has planned. Eddie gets in trouble and gets thrown in the guard house. When his parents who are aerial performers with a circus arrive to participate in the show, they beg the Colonel to let them teach their son a lesson. In a unique manner from the top of the tent they impress upon Eddie that no person can be perfect without the help of others.

Stars—Gene Kelly, Kathryn Grayson, Jose Iturbi, Mary Astor and John Boles are but a few of the stars appearing in "Thousands Cheer," in technicolor which will show at the Ritz theatre Tuesday in interest of the War Loan drive.

"Two Score And Seven Days Ago" Writes Sea B

NEENAH, Wis., Jan. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Sell, whose husband, Arvin, is a carpenter's mate, second class, with the Seabees somewhere in the South Pacific, received this parody on Lincoln's Gettysburg address, which Sell said, he and a companion had written:

"Two score and seven days ago our battalion brought forth upon this island a new project, conceived in a hole and dedicated to the proposition that all Japs are created evil.

"We are now ensnared in the heat, rain and mud of the island, testing whether this project or the Seabees will long endure.

"We are all together slipping and sliding as we do this, but in a larger sense we cannot cultivate, we cannot navigate, we cannot harrow this ground, for those great rains which make this mud here have made it impossible, far above the poor power of all but the "Cats" (tractors).

"It is for us, the Seabees, rather to be enslaved here by this menial labor which they who are in charge have thus so freely advanced. It is rather for us to be here sickened by the dish of ash set before us, that from these cans we took our nourishment; nor no devotion to those cooks, for our stomachs gave an everlasting measure of commotion.

"The world will little note nor long remember what we build here, but we shall never forget the hash and beans we ate here. Let us resolve that we shall not have sweat in vain; that this battalion shall have 80 days of freedom in the United States by Easter; that this thought shall not perish from our hopes."

And You Know How Much Eggs Cost

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Friends wouldn't be surprised if Frank Evans started cackling any day now.

When the 49-year-old janitor was offered three dozen scrambled eggs if he would eat them all at one sitting, Evans accepted. He ate the eggs, ate four slices of toast, sopped his plate and claimed he was still hungry.

The very next day, Evans won a similar proposition by eating another dozen eggs.

Really Leaf Tobacco

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Tobacco sales supervisor Ed Johnston, Jr., of Rocky Mount, N. C., doesn't write letters home. He just scribbles notes on burley sales tickets. The tobacco reaches his home office at Rocky Mount each day and his father, supervisor of purchases, reads the notes as he inspects each bundle of tobacco.

Cleburne Lady Writes Poem On March Of Dimes

CLEBURNE, Jan. 22 (AP)—The following poem, "Dancing Feet," was written by Mrs. Dollie Davis Smith of Cleburne, Texas poet laureate, in honor of President Roosevelt's birthday:

Some feet have never danced before
A mother called it "wrong."
And others simply cannot feel
The rhythm of a song.

Yet when the annual Birthday Ball
Of F. D. R. is called,
The Nation's feet begin to dance
And no one seems appalled.

The motive is so clean and sweet
That every jitterbug
Is singing "Bless America."
"Give, Give" and "Cut a Rug!"

And Granddad drops his cane and swings
A little ray of hope
With dancing dollars (his donation)
In an envelope.

For everyone who dances then
Or enters in some game,
Is helping strengthen little feet
That follow-made lame.

The young and old, the rich and poor,
The Nation, one and all,
Is heartily in favor of
The annual Birthday Ball

And each who cannot enter
With gay and rhythmic part,
Is freely giving dimes and dollars
With a dancing heart.

Midwest Demos Want 4th Term

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The midwestern democratic conference unanimously approved a resolution expressing the hope that President Roosevelt be re-nominated by the party's national convention.

Chairman James C. Quigley of Nebraska said the group, composed of state chairmen and national committeemen from 13 states, had voted unanimously for the resolution which also proposed the selection of Robert Hannegan, internal revenue commissioner, as national chairman to succeed Frank C. Walker, postmaster general.

Hannegan is expected to be elected to the post when the national committee meets tomorrow to set the time and place for the nominating convention.

The midwestern group met for two hours behind closed doors in what was described as a "complaints" session.

Gov. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, who remained behind with Quigley and Mrs. Lawrence McDaniel of Missouri to discuss the meeting with reporters, said that the group decided not to make public any of the controversial questions which it discussed.

Quigley said he would present the fourth term resolution to the national committee. He wouldn't predict what action might be taken on it.

State Theatre Offers "Coney Island" Free To War Bond Purchasers

Hurry... hurry... hurry... to the State theatre, where one of the top musicals of all time is showing! We're talking about 20th Century-Fox's "Coney Island," the Technicolor extravaganza which stars Betty Grable, George Montgomery and Cesar Romero. Admission by Bond only. Free theatre tickets available at State or at War Bond headquarters in Empire Southern Service Co. with each bond purchase.

There is no rationing of entertainment in this superlative picture. It is most lavish in its production numbers; the songs, both new and old, are easily the best in a long, long time; the story is fresh and imaginative, capturing all the hurly-burly drama and dancing delirium of a riotous age of ragtime and romance.

Producer William Perleberg has taken every advantage of Betty Grable's many-sided talents in "Coney Island." The story is in the best of taste—there is enough to pace the picture compactly, thanks to Director Walter Lang's astute handling, yet at no time does it clash with the musical sequences. The tale of show folk is set in the playground of New York, where fun was furious and the lights were bright all night—and the thrills of a roaring era of ragtime abound. Betty is an entertainer in Cesar Romero's cafe in Coney Island, but George Montgomery—who is on a par with Cesar when it comes to being tall, dark and handsome—sees bigger things ahead for her. The events which develop, with an eye for the humorous, revolve around the boys' love for Betty—and who can blame them for "knifing" each other!

Among the new tunes with which "Coney Island" is liberally sprinkled are "Take It From There," "Beautiful Coney Island," "Miss Lulu From Louisville" and "There's Danger in a Dance," all by Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger. The old favorites include "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey," "Who Threw the Overalls in Mis-trous Murphy's Chowder," "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "Darktown Strutters' Ball," "In My Harlem" and "Cuddle Up a Little Closer."

Charles Winninger and Phil Silvers top the featured cast of the film. George Seaton did the original screen play, while the musical sequences and ideas are by Fanchon. Special credit is due to Hermes Pan, not only for the novel, intriguing staging of the dances, but for his sure-footed accompaniment of Miss Grable in several of the dance numbers.

KEEP 'EM FOLDING might well be the slogan of the volunteer workers who fold bandages at the Red Cross surgical dressing headquarters at the Big Spring Bombardier School.

Mrs. Horace L. Borden, chairman of the Red Cross surgical dressing room at the post, announces that the work is progressing favorably, and that the majority of women are anxious to help with this vital service.

The room is located in WAC barracks 481, across from the post hospital, and is open Tuesday through Thursday from 9 to 12 a. m. and from 1:30 to 5 p. m.

Operating through the Howard-Glasscock Red Cross chapter, headquarters are sponsored at the post for members of the Women's club and all other officers' wives. A cordial invitation has also been extended to wives of cadets and enlisted men to join the group for work at the surgical dressing room.

Workers are asked to wear wash dresses or cotton uniforms, and are urged to bring head coverings of white muslin. Only other requirement is that the worker not wear nail polish while working.

For women inexperienced at folding the dressings, there are experienced workers on hand to teach them the methods of folding and packing.

Mrs. Borden also announced that Red Cross passes will be distributed at the gate to all workers arriving either by private car or bus.

Gold Star workers, who are recognized for having worked 25 hours or more include Mrs. Robert W. Warren, Mrs. Paul S. Dewell, Mrs. Jack P. Rayzor, Mrs. Horace L. Borden, Mrs. James L. Wright, Mrs. Alvin E. Gessell, Mrs. John J. Dunkerly, Mrs. Kenneth A. Laughlin, Mrs. Ray B. Davis, Jr., Mrs. Lewis P. Blanton, Mrs. Phillip Bishop, Mrs. S. D. Wright, Mrs. Herman Katkow, Mrs. Robert W. McDermott, Mrs. Pierre W. Curie, Mrs. Benjamin J. Palen, Mrs. Clarence Roos and Mrs. Ray S. Samuels.

Large Number Attends Birthday Dinner At First Baptist Church

Rev. O'Brien Is Master Of Ceremonies

Laughs were plentiful at the second annual birthday dinner at the First Baptist church Friday night, when approximately 300 persons gathered in the basement for dinner and to witness a program presented by persons representing each month.

Humorous skits were presented by several groups. For instance, one group presented a Pocahontas play, the assemblage roaring as members labeled as trees marched in to form a setting for a play in which John Smith "stalked" through the forest with stalks of grain in his hands and as he wooed Pocahontas amidst other laugh-provoking antics. Another group presented a representation of Rev. P. D. O'Brien, church pastor, as a dinner guest, while another presented a humorous skit in a railway station and another recited nursery rhymes. Other skits and several musical selections comprised the program.

Guests were seated according to the months of their birthdays at 12 tables decorated in varied manners appropriate to the months.

Rev. O'Brien presided for a brief assembly in the auditorium preceding the dinner and served as master of ceremonies. Out-of-town guests were Rev. and Mrs. Vernon Yearby and Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Harris of Midland.

Group captains who had charge of table and food preparations and program were: January, Mrs. J.

A. Coffey; February, Mrs. W. R. Creighton; March, Mrs. A. C. Klovin; April, Mrs. Nat. Shick; May, Mrs. J. H. Greene; June, Mrs. R. E. Lee; July, Mrs. George Tillinghast; August, Mrs. W. B. A barbershop quartet will highlight the planned entertainment and a floor show will be presented. Numbers included will be presented by Sgt. George Baur, Cpl. Rose Fineberg, and Billie Jean and Perry Walker.

There will be a special place for weighing gold dust and guests will check their shooting arms at the door. The USO lobby will be decorated as an old fashioned hotel lobby, and girls will come dressed with full long skirts, tight bodice, with bonnets and parasols.

Music for dancing in the game room will be furnished by the post orchestra and all service men WACs and hostesses are invited to attend the dance which will be held from 8:30 to 11 o'clock.

Decorations committee for the affair includes Cpl. Walter Mika, Cpl. John Brenner, Pvt. Henry Patrick, Mrs. Winston Harper, Mrs. R. B. Dunivan and Clarinda Mary Sanders. Committee in charge of refreshments is composed of Marilee Beavers, Mozelle Bradley, Dorothy Long, Maxine Wallace.

Soldiers From AAFBS Are Convinced Show Business Is Full Of Contradictions

Two men from the Big Spring Bombardier School, Cpl. Edwin J. Todd and S/Sgt. Dale L. Francis, were assigned last week to attend the Eighth Service Command Soldier Show conference at Camp Hood, Texas. They came back convinced that show business is packed full of contradictions. Here are a few examples:

Perc Westmore was the conference instructor in makeup. The Warner Brother wizard of the cosmetic room demonstrated his skill. He took an attractive WAC and transformed her into an unshaven partially bald man. He then took a rather unattractive soldier and with the magic of makeup transformed that soldier into an amazingly attractive young woman. Westmore explained that by the use of a few simple makeup tricks it was possible to make even the plainest persons attractive. The irony of it is that Perc Westmore himself is one of Hollywood's home-liest men.

LeRoy Prinz, Warner Brothers dance director and the man who directed the routines in such hits as "Yankee Doodle Dandy," is a fabulous character. In World War I he went to France when he was fourteen, fought long before the United States ever entered the conflict. When the U. S. entered Prinz became a pilot. He was one of the first American "Aces." During the war he was shot down fourteen times and yet escaped almost unscathed each time. After the war's end he stayed in France as a dance director for the Hollies Bergere. He tired of that after awhile and came to Mexico to fly a plane for the rebel forces during a rebellion south of the border. He then went back to the States and became the dance director for a famed night club. He was finally made manager of the club—not an enviable job since the owner was Al Capone. In a gang war Prinz was taken for a "ride," thrown out of a car so badly beaten it was believed he would not live. He pulled through and headed for Hollywood where he promptly became the magic city's most famed dance director. Since then he has directed the dances in more than fifty musicals. Now the contradictions in the life of LeRoy Prinz are these:

This man of adventure, this famed soldier of fortune is not the big, muscular man you might expect but a meek, mild appearing little man not more than five feet three inches tall. And amazingly enough, although he is Hollywood's greatest dance director, LeRoy Prinz doesn't even know how to dance.

These were just two of the many contradictory characters the local soldiers met in their four day stay at the conference. There were other interesting bits of irony. For instance, Corporal Harold Rome was an instructor in the art of writing music. Rome wrote many hit songs in civilian life, including "Franklin D. Roosevelt Jones," one of the biggest hits of the decade. Yet Corporal Rome swears his greatest song was "Sing Me a Song of Social Significance," a song almost nobody ever heard. Another soldier, Sgt. Harry Friedman, was a professional actor for fifteen years. He was a member of Ethel Barrymore's "The Corn Is Green" company when his draft number was called. Yet when they called for volunteers for a short play the judges required that he "try-out" to prove that he could act. Another soldier, Henry Branden, was a Hollywood character actor in civilian life. He specialized in Nazi roles and appeared last in "Edge of Darkness." During the conference he appeared in five skits. Each time he played a soldier of a different rank. Once he was a captain, another time a lieutenant, another time a first sergeant, another time a private, another time as a buck sergeant. He never once appeared as a soldier of his own rank—corporal. And the final bit of irony demonstrated the affinity of stars—when one star came out she brought out other stars. Hedy LaMarr appeared on the stage of the conference on Monday. She wasn't the only star on the stage though—there were others on the shoulders of her escorts. The beautiful Miss LaMarr was flanked on either side by generals—three of them led her to the stage, sat beside her and led her off.

Mrs. M. E. Beale won a guest prize and Mrs. Herbert Johnson and Mrs. R. L. Pritchett binged.

Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscales won high score.

Mrs. Merritt Barnes and daughter Joetta of Elizabethtown, Ky. are visiting Mrs. Ruth Merrick.

Nurses Needed To Conduct Courses

Mrs. W. J. McAdams, chairman of the home nursing committee for Howard-Glasscock counties, announced Saturday that nurses are desperately needed to conduct classes in Red Cross home nursing.

According to the announcement from Red Cross headquarters, 430 more women must receive instruction and courses cannot be started until instructors are provided.

Volunteers are urged to call Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle, secretary of the Red Cross at 256, or Mrs. W. J. McAdams at 1480.

Benefit Party Held At Church

Circle five of the First Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service entertained with a benefit '42 party at the church Friday evening.

The affair was sponsored by the group to raise money for the unit treasury, and around $30 was cleared.

Mrs. H. D. McQuain, chairman of the finance committee was in charge and circle members directed the entertainment.

Patsy Stalcup Leaves For Georgia To Receive Training As An Air-WAC

Patsy Stalcup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stalcup, left Saturday for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where she will receive basic training in an Air-WAC.

Miss Stalcup was graduated from the Big Spring high school where she was a member of the Sub Deb, Choral and Latin clubs. She attended Texas Christian University in Fort Worth where she was a member of the Brushes club.

She hopes to be able to do something in the service which concerns drawing, painting or drafting, since she received college training in this field.

In 1940 a mural painted by Miss Stalcup was shown publicly and in 1942 she was awarded second place at the T. C. U. art show in Fort Worth.

When asked if she made any sacrifices to join the WACs, Miss Stalcup replied, "I don't consider it a sacrifice, but just what I should do. WAC needs specialists, and I'm anxious to help if I can."

Following her training at Fort Oglethorpe, she will be assigned to a field for duty.

Miss Stalcup was entertained with a farewell dinner by Jean Johnson Friday evening.

Refreshments were served and dancing was entertainment.

Around six couples attended.

Since we have begun sending copies of the Cosden Chatter to our men in the service, we have received numerous letters from them expressing their appreciation for the "news from home."

This is only a small courtesy that we can show them in return for the job they are doing for us, and we are mighty happy that we can be of service in this small way.

This recalls to mind the fact that we are beginning our Fourth War Loan Drive, and we hope that the Cosden employees will come through for Victory as they have always done in the past. Our men in the service need our help, so let's don't let them down.

We are glad to see A. Lee Harris back at work for Cosden after being in Fort Worth for several months.

Word has been pouring in from our men in the service thanking us for the Christmas packages which the company sent to each of them. Some of the men have been on the move since the packages were sent and have not as yet received them, but sooner or later the Christmas boxes will catch up with them.

From somewhere in England we received the following note from James C. Tonn: "I am doing fine and having a swell time; that is, as far as swell times go over here!"

We have received a card from SC-3/c B. L. Mason stating that he is now in a convalescent naval hospital in Yosemite National Park, California, and that he finds the scenery beautiful there, but the life quite dull.

J. B. Mull has been receiving congratulations this week on his election to be vice president in charge of refining of our company at the recent board of directors meeting in Fort Worth. This gives us two vice presidents now; Mr. M. M. Miller, the senior vice president, is on charge of marketing and all distribution facilities.

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an absolutely prepared, efficient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy... it helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin... for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use.

Roy Davis Judges Palomino Group At Denver Show

Roy C. Davis, one of the outstanding Palomino breeders of this section and the Southwest, has just returned from Denver, Colo., where he judged the Palomino division of the National Western Livestock show during the past week.

Davis judged the saddle classes Tuesday night and Thursday afternoon he placed the saddle Palominos in the reining classes. Davis judged halter classes Wednesday morning, and in all he looked over some 35 Palomino steeds.

"There were some mighty fine horses there," he said, "mighty horse." The grand champion horse of the show was a Palomino. One quarter horse sold for $5,000 and Davis added that "there's no telling what the champion would have brought had his owners wished to sell."

He was accompanied here by Dr. C. H. Hall, Casper, Wyo., who looked at some of Lane Hudson's Palominos Saturday morning and was to visit the Davis ranch near Sterling City during the afternoon.

Second Kermit Ellenburger Well Indicated

By JOHN B. BREWER SAN ANGELO, Jan. 22 (AP)—An indicated second producer for the Kermit Ellenburger field, in north-central Winkler county and a southern Reagan county wildcat testing Permian lime showing cavernous porosity and bleeding oil were watched closely in West Texas at the week's close. Crane, Midland and Yoakum counties gained a wildcat location each.

Plans for new absorption type gasoline plants were reported. Shell Oil Co., Inc., and the Celotex Corp. will build a second plant in the Wasson field in Yoakum county, in the northwest quarter of section 827-D-John H. Gibson. It will handle 50 million cubic feet of gas daily. Materials are being ordered in expectation of early WFB and EAW approval of the project.

Phillips Petroleum Co. will erect a gasoline plant in the Seminole field in Gaines county in section 228-G-WTRR. Fifty-seven miles of gathering lines will supply 20 million cubic feet of gas daily and a connection with Phillips' Odessa-Borger pipeline will provide an outlet.

Magnolia No. 21 State-Walton in Winkler county, three-quarters of a mile southeast of No. 20 State-Walton, discovery well in the Kermit Ellenburger field, recovered 180 feet of gas and distillate-cut mud on a 90-minute-drillstem test from 10,580 to 10,625 feet. It topped the Ellenburger at 10,581 feet, 4,562 feet below sea level, correlated 136 feet lower than No. 20 State-Walton, which drilled about 100 feet into the Ellenburger before showing wet gas. The outcrop is in the C SE SW 4-B3-psl.

Superior and Wiggins & Hyde No. 1-A University, Reagan county wildcat C SW NW 25-8-U, recovered Permian lime between 3,141 and 3,175 feet that showed cavernous porosity and bled oil. Seven inch casing was cemented at 3,141 feet and plugs were being drilled. Location is 2 1-2 miles northwest of the Grayson pool and 4 1-2 miles south of the Big Lake field.

Jap Ships Damaged In Marshall Foray

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Raiding five Japanese positions in the Marshall Islands, Army bombers, damaged three small Japanese vessels and strafed and bombed air field and gun emplacements.

No fighter opposition was encountered and all of our planes returned safely from the raids which hit Roy and Kwajalein islands in the Kwajalein atoll and Mil, Tmet and Imieji islands in the Jaluit atoll.

Dive bombers participated in the attack on the two islands in the Jaluit atoll, bombing and strafing shore positions. They also damaged three small vessels in the harbor.

Another raid took low-flying Mitchell bombers over Mill at noon Friday to strafe the airfield and gun emplacements. Bombs also were dropped but the extent of damage was not reported.

Heavy bombers carried out the attacks on the islands in the Kwajalein atoll, battering shore installations. The extent of damage they caused was not reported.

The President Asks Us to Join Him In Fighting the Ravages of Infantile Paralysis

Each year thousands of young Americans who started life perfectly normal, are crippled by the dread disease infantile paralysis. It takes long months, sometimes years, for them to sufficiently win in battling this disease, so that they have the use of their limbs. One great institution in our land is dedicated to helping infantile paralysis sufferers. It is the Warm Springs Foundation in Georgia, which needs your help to carry on its great work. If someone you love should ever be stricken by this consuming disease—then only could you truly know how vital it is that each of us enlist in the March of Dimes!

Announcement: lend-lease will buy 322,000 bales of raw cotton in the open market was followed today by a jump of 80 cents to $1.05 a bale, in cotton futures prices here, and gains of 90 cents to $1.10 at New Orleans.

Here March contracts climbed above 20 cents a pound to the highest level since August of last year. Mill buying against textile contracts was attributed to fear a scarcity might develop in spot supplies.

Its manufacturers here have developed a rotary pulling mechanism which enables the scout car to extricate itself or other Army vehicles from deep mud. A vertical winch, the apparatus is mounted on the front end of the jeep. It has a minimum hauling power of 2,000 pounds.
