Q-Back Membership Drive Is On

Eastland Echoes

By Casey

"It is motive alone that gives character to the actions of men." — (Bruyere).

Dr. J. H. Caton remembers a lot about that terribly cold snap 55 years ago that Charlie Van Geem has lately described. "I can report what happened over in East Texas," said Dr. Caton, an Eastland resident the past 36 years. "At the time I lived in Red River County. The temperature dropped to 13 below zero, even freezing hard the water in cisterns. Making trips to call on the sick was a plenty cold job, too."

Dr. Jim Whittington tells how a fellow can take inventory of his own golf game. He explains: "If he shoots over 80, he's neglecting his golf; if he shoots under 80, he's neglecting his business."

Needless to say, we deeply regret the accident in which a vehicle driven by one of our employes and another driven by Mrs. Mose Nantz of Ranger figured in an accident Saturday afternoon, seriously injuring Mrs. Nantz and slightly injuring one of our employes, Norman Owens. Our deepest sympathy to the injured and their families and our earnest offer to be of any possible assistance at the time of this misfortune, which of course, is the sentiment of the young man driving our pickup, at the time.

An Eastland mother made this remark the other day: "We love to live in Eastland because it is a good, clean town, and an ideal place in which to rear our children." ... A simple — but wonderful — tribute for a town, isn't it?

Deadline For Filing In City Election March 5

March 5 is the deadline for filing for the city commissioners race, City Manager A. E. Taylor said Tuesday.

Mr. Taylor said the deadline is 20 days before the city election, which falls on April 5 this year. Three seats will be filled as a result of the election. So far Mayor George L. Davenport and Commissioners Norris Wilson and T. L. Fager, who have all filed for re-election, are unopposed.

14 Persons Filed On In Justice Court

Charges were filed against 14 persons in Justice of the Peace J. R. Boggus' court during the past week.

Three paid fines in the JP court, totaling $42.50.

Five were charged with passing a worthless check, four with passing in a no passing zone and one each for drunkenness, speeding, driving without an inspection sticker, passing in an approach and failure to pass safely to the left.

Smith Case Is Reset March 10

1955 SLOGAN: EVERY MEMBER GET A MEMBER

More than 30 members of the Eastland Quarterback Club turned out at seven this morning for the annual kick-off breakfast which began the 1955 membership drive for the organization.

The members ate a breakfast at the High School auditorium cooked by Superintendent-elect Wendell Siebert and Coach Carrol Shelton and then carried out hundreds of membership cards in hopes of boosting the membership of the organization to more than 300 members.

With the slogan — "Every Member Get A Member" — on their lips, the volunteers began one of the most unusual membership drives ever held here. Here is how it will work: Each member will seek out a new member, selling him a membership card and giving him another to sell. Thus, each new member will be expected to get one more new member for the club.

The Quarterback Club has accomplished many things in Eastland, Jack Chamberlain Jr., membership drive chairman, explained. The club helped bring the gym from Morton Valley, built a press box at Maverick Stadium, built playgrounds at the ward schools and assisted the schools in many other ways.

Present plans call for building a practice football field and track, and purchasing a movie camera for the school. Work on the football field and track is already underway.

First Of A Series

Eastland Facilities Plentiful For Active YMCA Movement

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles explaining the work done by Y.M.C.A. groups in towns that do not have a "Y" building. An active organization is now busy planning such an organization here.)

By Telegram Staff Writer
To many individuals, a Y.M.C.A. organization means simply a recreation building, just as, to many, a church means a building for religious people to meet in.

This is certainly a misconception. For just as a church is actually the membership of a religious body, the "Y" is in reality a group of young men and women with their adult leaders.

It is not necessary for a "Y" to have a building. For as Col. Dan Pitt Jr., area Y.M.C.A. secretary, explained, "Your boys and girls, with your help and guidance, can make use of the facilities that Eastland now has."

What are these facilities? They

Miss Little Violinist With Abilene Orchestra

A sixteen-year-old Eastland High School junior is making a name for herself in the music world by performing with the Abilene Symphony Orchestra.

She is Janis Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Little, 901 S. Gilmer. Janis plays the violin.

The attractive Eastland High student is a member of the all-state band. She performed Monday in Abilene's Radford Memorial Auditorium with the orchestra. Two more concerts are planned. One will be held March 21 and another in the latter part of April.

Miss Little is one of the youngest, if not the youngest, member of the orchestra. A member of the Eastland High band for six years, she is also a member of the Sub Debs and a straight-A honor student. She is active in Methodist Youth Fellowship in both the local church and the district.

Julius Hegyi, conductor, has praised Miss Little's ability highly and calls her an important member of the orchestra. She is a violin student of Mrs. R. W. Scott of Eastland.

Mrs. Nantz Is Transferred To Abilene Hospital

Mrs. Mose Nantz of Ranger, who was injured in a pick-up-car crash near there Saturday morning, has been transferred to an Abilene hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Nantz suffered a broken collar bone and other injuries when the car she was driving and a pick-up truck driven by Melvin Crabtree of Eastland collided.

The injured woman will not be permitted to see visitors for two or three more days, relatives said.

Also injured in the wreck were Norman Owen, also of Eastland. Owen received facial lacerations. He was treated and later dismissed at the Eastland Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Nantz was taken to a Ranger hospital and later transferred to an Abilene hospital for treatment.

To County Livestock Show

Shorthorn Division Is Latest Addition

All animals to be exhibited at the annual Eastland County Livestock Show at the old Airport near Eastland March 25 and 26 must be entered and in their places by 11 a.m. on opening day, Luther Wilson, general show superintendent, said today.

Animals in the breeding classes must be representative of their breed although they do not need to be purebred or registered. The fat animals classes of steers, pigs and lambs is open only to 4-H Club boys and girls and to FFA members of the county, Wilson said.

All judging of the animals will be done on Saturday, March 25. No judging is expected to be done on opening day.

One change has been made in the beef cattle division of the show. The Shorthorn breed will have a division also for the first time in a number of years and the classes will be the same as for the Hereford and Angus.

One change in the dairy division calls for two bull classes such as bull calves from six months to one year and older. A grand champion dairy bull will be selected also. The dairy division of the catalogue had not included dairy bulls the past few years.

The sheep, goat and swine classes will remain as they have been for the past year or so.

Adult exhibitors will show for the ribbons only. The only cash prizes to be paid by the Livestock Raisers Association who annually sponsor will be to club boys and girls.

County Well Has Potential of 135 Barrels Oil Daily

A daily potential of 135 barrels of 41 gravity oil daily has been announced for the Eastland Oil Co. No. 1 Holcomb Heira, formerly Rose E. Day No. 1 Holcomb, one and a half miles northwest of Eastland.

The well has been completed as a regular field producer. Its location is in Section 1, Block 4, H&C Survey.

Red Cross Honor Roll Names Are Still Being Sought

When was the first time you did volunteer work for the Red Cross? That's a question Red Cross personnel are trying to find out in Eastland County.

Reason for the search is the Red Cross workers honor roll being drawn. Mrs. Kenneth Jameson, of the Eastland Red Cross office, said that anyone who has ever done work for the Red Cross is urged to contact her office and let her know when they helped.

"We want the names of everyone who has ever assisted," she explained.

A search is also on for the person who first was a Red Cross worker.

"We want to know who we can credit with getting Red Cross work underway in the county," Mrs. Jameson said.

Two Eastland County Boys Catch Calves

Two Eastland County boys caught calves in the calf scramble event of the San Antonio Livestock Show.

Robert Bostick and Dan Jobe both will bring home a calf from the show.

Pat Agnew, who showed a Shorthorn in the show, will bring back second place honors from the show.

The boys were accompanied by Assistant County Agent Rufus Higgins.

HYPTONIC ELECTRONICS—It's not the gaze that Chicago electronics engineer Neil Satter, has fixed on his wife, Lillian, that's hypnotic; it's the device he's adjusting. Satter calls it the "electronic hypnosis inducer," says it has been used successfully in treatment of alternating brightness atop the machine is projected at patient's eyes, coupled with a varying sound tone. Both are synchronized to patient's breathing rate, and frequency is decreased gradually until rate of respiration reaches sleep level.

Rotary Program Horton Cruise; Club To Breckenridge March 1

Topics of chief interest for Rotary Monday noon, at the Connellee, were two trips — one, Rotarian James Horton's and Mrs. Horton's Caribbean voyage, the other, Eastland Rotary's upcoming trip to Breckenridge March 1.

Frank N. Sayre presided over the meeting. Dr. J. H. Caton was program chairman.

Mr. Horton was greatly impressed by Haiti and agreed to tell its story to the club at a future date, and he added that "I never saw anything like Caracas." He explained that the various stops on

HS Auditorium Due Capacity Audience For Senior Play Hit

At rise of curtain on "I Love Lucy" Thursday and Friday nights at 8 o'clock, the high school auditorium is expected to be filled to capacity.

So popular is the Annual Senior Class Play each year at the high school, that almost all the town and community turn out for it.

The play this year promises to be one of the most entertaining ever presented as it is a take-off on the famous television pair — Lucy and Desi Arnez.

At the beginning, Lucy is frantically trying to straighten out her household accounts before Ricky can see them. Their only hope to get out of debt is to convince the owner of the Tropicans, where Ricky leads the orchestra, that Ricky should be made manager (which means a big increase in pay).

Part of the blame for their difficulties, Lucy insists, belongs to Ricky, because he never hangs up his clothes and this makes their cleaning bills too high. Ricky has no time for picking up clothes. He wants to get to work before being spotted by 16-year-old Peggy, who has a crush on him. Ricky has hopes of a magazine called "Half Note" doing a spread called "Ricky Ricardo at Home." It is hoped that this will help convince the boss that Ricky should be the new manager. Later Ricky phones that he is coming out with a magazine photographer. He wants the house as neat as a pin, of course.

To teach Ricky a lesson, Lucy turns the house into a sort of Tobacco Road. Just as she and Ethel Mertz complete the devastation of the living room, the bewildered Ricky and dumbfounded photographer enter. While Ricky is trying to explain that this must be some other apartment, Lucy comes in dressed as a comic mountaineer followed by Ethel — calling herself "grandma." Ricky's boss bursts in. The photographer is from life, and the boss is included in extremely unflattering pictures. The outraged boss tells Ricky that a man who can't manage his own wife and home certainly can't manage the Tropicans. From this point on, every single thing Lucy does helps convince the boss that Ricky can't manage anything! Lucy tries to demonstrate how economical she can be by ordering a walk-in freezer. She gets caught in the freezer and then at a crucial moment, comes in all frosted over. The characters furnish much

Be A Quarterback

Let's give a helping hand to the helping hand for athletics—the Quarterback Club.

The annual membership campaign is rolling along and it's entitled to ready and generous support.

According to Drive Chairman Jack Chamberlain Sr. the watchword is: "Every member enlist a new member." And that, indeed, is the way it should be, all right.

The definite goals of the club, just now, include the building of a practice football field and track and the purchase of a movie camera to be used in filming important grid games of Eastland High.

Whatever the sport, if the Quarterbackers learn that it's not of aid, they rally around with coin of the realm, as long as it lasts.

Many a recreational program here has this live-wire group to thank for some mighty good lifts.

For this year, the announced objective is 300 memberships at $5 per, and, to our way of thinking, it certainly isn't too ambitious a goal. Let's get on the line, decorating the well-known mahogany with some of that good old foldin' money, so local athletics may be sure to get the breaks they deserve!

Warmer Weather Expected

Skies cleared over Eastland County Saturday afternoon after frigid weather brought traces of sleet and rain to the area Friday and set the stage for the second coldest night of the year was recorded Feb. 11 when the temperature dropped to 16 after a high of 44 had been marked during the day.

Gradual warmup will begin today with temperatures predicted to rise up to the high 50's and then on to the mid-60's tomorrow. The temperature dropped to a low of 23 here last night.

The frigid air mass struck with a wintery thump Friday as it spread its tentacles into most parts of the state.

At 3:30 p.m. Friday the temperature was 22 degrees at Dalhart and 88 at Laredo. In the north portion of the state the mercury hung around the freezing mark. In the south it was in the 70's and 80's.

Temperatures dropped 12 degrees in five minutes when the norther hit San Antonio.

The front took on an air of urgency at 7 p.m. Friday when the Weather Bureau issued severe thunderstorm and tornado warnings for areas of East and South Texas. Central and East Texas was drenched by thunderstorms, but no strong winds were reported anywhere in the state.

The thunderstorm warning was posted for an area 100 miles east of Brownsville to 40 miles north of Shreveport, La. An inch of snow fell in Dalhart, and the reading there was eight degrees, the lowest in the state.

Light showers accompanied the front in most parts of the state but the Eastland area received only a light mist along with traces of sleet.

Wichita Falls weather station recorded 13 inches of frozen rain, Moran measured .50 of an inch, Breckenridge recorded .42 and Graham measured .60.

Other rain reports include, Weatherford, .35, Mineral Wells .01, Albany .13, Stephenville .65 and Stamford .14.

The front moved to the east and into the Rio Grande Valley Sunday and Sunday night but temperatures were not cold enough to add damage to their stricken vegetable crops.

For this benefit, the President's proclamation merely set January 31, 1955 as the end of the Korean conflict period during which eligibility for the grant may be established. This means the injuries covered by the law must be sustained in active service on or before that date.

No application deadlines prevail for the other VA-administered benefits affected by the President's proclamation.

Olden Hornets Seek Bi-District Honors

The Olden Hornets put their chances on the line tonight when they journey to Gorman to meet the Lipan five on the neutral court in bi-district play. Game time is 7:30 p.m.
Winner of the tilt will gain the right to advance to regional play at Brownwood. Olden, champions of District 23-B, and Lipan, District 24-B champs, both had impressive records in breezing to their respective district championships. Gametime will be 7:30 p.m. The Olden and Lipan girls, who will also meet in bi-district play, have not yet decided where they will play. Olden's starters will probably be Phil Hilliard, Bill McCotter, Jim Everett, Jim Colburn and Dale Norton. Others who may see action include Alvis Rodgers, Roy Rodgers, Eddie Munn, Stanley Cook, Jack Hilliard, Kenneth Reese and Steve Fox.

Vets Taking Farm Training Get Reminder

The nation's 16,000 World War II veterans taking GI Bill farm training were reminded today by the Veterans Administration that reports of their 1954 earnings are due at their VA Regional Offices no later than March 1, 1955. Failure to submit the reports by the deadline, VA warned, may result in discontinuance of GI subsistence payments until such time as the reports do reach VA. Trainees who have not yet received the report forms may obtain them from their instructors. These yearly reports, VA emphasized, do not apply to veterans taking institutional on-farm training under the Korean GI Bill, since their monthly allowances are computed on a different basis.

Junior Girls Seek Conference Crown

The Eastland and DeLeon junior high girls will meet Thursday night at 8 p.m. in Gorman to decide the Little Oil Belt Conference basketball championship.

The winner of the game will wear the conference crown. Eastland starters are expected to be Catherine Williamson, Sue Stoker, Judy Inzer, Nancy Beck, Jackie Baggett and Laura Harris. Others due to see action are Joan Ellen Gee, Jan Roberson, Willene Lee, Sharlot Vaught and Kay Culbertson.

Soul-Winning Study Planned By Baptists Here

Harvey Kimbler, pastor of the First Baptist Church, announced today that the church will engage in a soul-winning study March 14-18. "This study is in preparation for the church's participation in the Southern Baptist simultaneous crusade," Rev. Kimbler said. "Members will be studying to make themselves more efficient in guiding people to Christ. Every available resource of the church will be thrown into this effort. Members are even now praying for God to move in a mighty way during the crusade."

Moore... ABOUT SPORTS

By VIRGIL E. MOORE
Two important cage games pitting Eastland County teams against outsiders are on tap this week. Tonight the Olden boys journey to Gorman to play Lipan in a bi-district game. Winner of the tilt will advance into regional play in Brownwood. And Thursday night, the Eastland Junior High girls will be in Gorman to play the DeLeon Junior girls in a game that will decide the champions of the Little Oil Belt Conference race.

Gorman has drawn some of the best crowds, as well as some of the best games of the year. The city deserves a pat on the back for pushing basketball. We enjoyed their tournament more than any we have seen this year.

It is getting time for some big fish stories to start coming across our desk. And maybe we can even get in a little fishing, ourselves.

Let us hear about your big ones this year. We want call you a liar... not to your face, anyway.

Understand some work is going on at the Lakeside Country Club. Two greens are due to be revamped, we understand, and a new fence is being built near the clubhouse.

A lot of work is behind volunteers on the new football practice field and track, too. The grounds already have taken on that booming look.

See you again Thursday.

Nothing tells the story so clearly as a photograph...

And the story in portraits of your children's growing-up becomes a precious possession with the advancing years. Phone for your appointment today.

News of Eastland by David Massengale MAVERICKS

The Maverick track squad is shaping up. They did not attend the Comanche track meet Saturday because of a few of the athletes were not ready.

The tennis minded students of E.H.S. will start their tennis season Monday under the coaching of Carrol Shelton. The tennis team will be a large and effective one this year. We have some promising material. Those attending the workouts will include Betty Jo Westfall, Mattie Jo Bentley, David Caruthers, Ellen Whatley, Barbara Dalton, Dixie Day, Norman Owens, Betty Jones, Madeline Lucy, Mike Tuggie, Goldia Skills, Freddy Taylor, Jean Whitten, Barbara Hightower, June Warner, Silvia Latham, Darrol Basham and Silvia Sullivan.

The Ag class ventured to Ben Freeman's peach farm Thursday to attend a field day. We really heard and saw some educational speeches and movies. Tom Denman spoke about the qualities of peaches. The new species were introduced to us.

Jimmy Phillips is one of the most active ag boys up on the hill. He is feeding out a beef calf and 11 head of feeder hogs and one gilt. He holds the office of treasurer in the chapter. He was president of the Greenhand Chapter last year.

Jimmy had a project of four hogs last year. He did not show it. Jimmy will be attending his first show when he journeys to Abilene. He hopes to make a profit off his calf so that he can buy another calf for next year. He plans on majoring in animal husbandry.

The library received two new tables and eight new chairs today. Mrs. Whatley is really happy.

In Olden From Mineral Wells Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williamson and daughter, Lynda Kay, of Mineral Wells, were weekend guests of Mrs. Williamson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Dick of Olden.

Donna Horton Feted On Fifth Birthday

Honoring Donna Gay Horton, a party was given Saturday afternoon by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Horton at their home, 1208 S. Bassett.

The occasion was Donna Gay's fifth birthday anniversary; and the table in the game room had been decorated for the festive event. The birthday cake was heart-shaped, frosted white and embossed with sugar spun flowers in pastel hues and the inscription, "Happy Birthday, Donna," in pink. Ice cream, mints and chocolate milk were served with the birthday cake.

Favors were coloring books and crayolas and the children each colored a page during the party. Other diversions, conducted by the honoree's 9-year-old sister, Toni, and their parents, included "Musical Chairs," "Toss the Monkey" and such games as "Drop the Handkerchief."

Present were the honoree and Toni; Marsha Treadwell, Jane Jessup, Rhett Smith, Martin Whitley, Connie Koch, Joan Gage, Gray Pierson, Bob Day, Ann Whittington, Jimmy Frost, Glenna Lenhard, Jeannie Freyschlag, Candy Harris, Belinda Herring and the honoree's parents and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Horton and Mrs. James Horton.

PATRICIA ANN LILES IN RECITAL AT BROWNWOOD

Mrs. A. F. Taylor presented Third Grader Patricia Ann Liles Friday night at the Brownwood Music Teachers Association in cooperative recital. These cooperative recitals are held every three months. Teachers were there Friday night from Goldthwaite, Comanche, Eastland and Brownwood. Patricia Ann played Autumn Leaves by Adler. Her mother, Mrs. Artie Liles, took the group to Brownwood. They were accompanied by Mrs. H. M. Hart.

Seniors, Teachers At Party Honoring Darrell Basham

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Basham entertained the Eastland High School seniors with a breakfast, Feb. 18, at their home, 1416 S. Lamar, honoring their son, Darrell Gene, on his 18th birthday anniversary.

The dining table was laid with a friendship quilt bordered in the high school colors — red and black — and the names of all the seniors, teachers, friends and relatives present will be embroidered on the plain squares of the quilt, which later will be lined, filled with cotton and quilted for Darrell Gene by his mother.

Red azaleas, festooned with a large black satin bow, formed the centerpiece for the table. Hot cakes and coffee were served by Mrs. Basham, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Smith. Red bows bedecked the necks of the syrup bottles which were draped with red and black satin ribbon and the cans of condensed milk, also encircled with ribbon, were topped with ribbon rosettes in the school colors, each bearing the honoree's name, adding much to the festive table decorations. The birthday book, also in the school colors, was signed by the seniors, the honoree's teachers and his other friends and relatives present.

Darrell Gene was presented a gift from the class.

Present were W. G. Womack, Wendell Siebert, Mrs. J. C. Whitley, Miss Verna Johnson, Mrs. Ethel Woloszyn, Carrol Shelton and Mrs. Earl Conner Jr., teachers; Nuell Sherman, Billy Don Brown, Berry Don Bounds, Glenn Maxwell, Helen Ruth Flowers, Louelle Lewis, Jane Clark, Bill Smith, Margie Franklin, Margie Lane, Helen Taylor, Jane Ann Haines, Sylvia Sullivan, Jack Akers, Dean Tindall, Neal Edwards, Tom Castleberry, Norma Wright, Leona Ellis, Linda Brockman, Ted Kuykendall, Charles Cook and the honoree, students.

EASTLAND CONTACTS HABANA

A camera records an interesting hour's souvenir shopping by Mrs. James Horton of Eastland while she and her husband, well known Eastland business man, were in Habana (Havana), Cuba on their Caribbean cruise. Mrs. Horton is shown in the foreground purchasing Maracas from a native.

Picturesque Caribbean Islands Visited By Hortons On Cruise

Mr. and Mrs. James Horton returned from a 21-day cruise to the West Indies and South America, and Mrs. Horton, when interviewed by a Telegram staff writer, related interesting highlights of the enticing journey.

Sailing from New Orleans on the M-S Stella Polaris, their first port of call was Habana (Havana) where they dined at the Tropicana Club which, she said, could be described only by the word "fabulous," and that it was reminiscent of the Billy Rose show at Fort Worth in 1936.

Then they cruised to Cap Haitien, the little town on the island of Haiti, where Columbus wrecked the Santa Maria and there they saw the anchor to his ship in the museum. This was the first place Columbus discovered in America, it will be recalled. Port-au-Prince, also on the island of Haiti, was an interesting port.

Mrs. Horton said that the Stella Polaris, being a small ship, could go into ports that larger ships could not get into and mentioned the San Blas Isles among these on their itinerary. San Blas Indian islands are about 2,000 years behind in culture and the inhabitants, she said, are the only race of Indians that have never intermingled and that the women never leave the islands and no one can come to the islands and stay more than two hours at a time.

Another port of call was La Guira, South America. From here the Hortons drove up to Caracas—a "fabulous and beautiful city" located in Venezuela, "the only country in the world with no indebtedness."

Curacao Island — a shoppers paradise with its free port, free of duty and free of tax — was the most picturesque village, Mrs. Horton said. It is a Dutch village owned by Holland with the Holland-owned Shell Oil Company tanks and shipping port, picturesque Dutch houses and business streets and a boat-pontoon bridge connecting two strips of land with the city located on both sides of the canal.

Cristobal, port for Panama, was thrilling, too, for they rode down the Panama Canal, part of the way by boat and then beside it, and then for a while in a train and then in an automobile. While sightseeing in Panama they spoke to the new president of Panama — Ricardo Arias.

Kingston is the commercial port of Jamaica while Montego Bay, where the smaller ships can dock in that country, she described as a choice village and said there were beautiful villages and homes on that island.

From Montego Bay they went to the town of Georgetown, located on the largest of the Cayman Islands, known as Grand Cayman Island, south of Cuba. This was the first cruise ship ever to stop at this island, she said. It is an English island noted for fishing and turtle raising. One man ships, by air, every week a ton of turtles to New York, most of which go on to St. Louis, she added, for turtle steaks and turtle soup.

The sea was rough most of the time and especially so when there was a storm on the Gulf near New Orleans as they were returning there, but the Hortons are good travelers and came right on home from New Orleans by train and the next day, after arriving, reentered activities in their hometown. While the trip was wonderful they remark that it is truly good to get back home.

Visit in Fort Worth
Mrs. John D. McKee and Mrs. Cyrus B. Frost visited in Fort Worth Wednesday and Thursday.

Eastland D.A.R. Members Attend Cisco Meeting

Mrs. A. F. Taylor, Phyllis Phillips, Mrs. Frank Castleberry and Mrs. Ed Castleberry, all of Eastland, attended the Charles Crawford Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution meeting in Cisco recently.

The occasion was a George Washington tea and about 75 guests called at the home of Mrs. W. W. Wallace, 700 E. 22nd St., Cisco. Mrs. Yancy McCrea, Regent, and Mrs. W. C. McDaniel, both of Cisco, served as hostesses with Mrs. Wallace.

A chorus of Cisco Junior High School girls appeared on the program and Phyllis Phillips, a student of the Taylor Studio, Eastland, played a program of five piano numbers from MacDowell, Clementi and three by Beethoven.

A red cloth overlaid with a white tuxedo lined cloth carried out the George Washington theme at the table in the dining room. The centerpiece was of red and white carnations flanked by red, white and blue tapers in crystal candleabra. Tea was served from an antique silver service and a silver tray held white cake squares embossed with red roses.

Mrs. Davenport Moderator On Panel Thursday Afternoon Club Meeting

"Christianity, the Foundation of Democracy" was the subject of a panel discussion at the meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club at the Woman's Club. Mrs. Fred Davenport was moderator and those forming the panel were Mrs. Cecil Collins, Mrs. Dixie Williamson and Mrs. R. E. Sikes.

Mrs. Davenport pointed out that a religious program was especially appropriate on that date as it fell on National Brotherhood Week. She emphasized the fact that our basic documents of government — "The Declaration of Independence and The Constitution" are especially religious in nature.

Mrs. Williamson discussed some of the things that are undermining the American Way of Life and dwelled primarily on communism as a threat. The problems of the home, school and community were discussed by Mrs. Sikes, while Mrs. Collins pointed out a lack of integrity in civic problems.

Announcement was made of the World Day of Prayer program, Friday, to be observed locally at 7:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Frank Castleberry, president, presided at the business session and Mrs. Milburn S. Long, secretary, read the minutes and correspondence.

Present were Meses. Castleberry, Long, Collins, Sikes, Williamson, Davenport, Earl Conner, Turner Collier, Harold Durham, Ben Hamner, I. C. Heck, C. W. Hoffmann, James Horton, D. L. Houle, Iral Inzer, W. P. Leslie, W. W. Linkenhozger, Frank Lovett, Arthur Murrell, Jackson C. Oglesby, Robert G. Perkins, Grady Pip-

Loop Leading Rams Rub Rangers 60-48

SAN ANGELO (Spl.)—The San Angelo Rams took another giant step toward their second consecutive Pioneer Conference Basketball crown Saturday night by downing the jittery, third place Ranger Junior College Rangers 60-48.

It seemed for awhile in the opening part of the contest that Ranger may contain the league leading Rams as they led 14-12 after ten minutes of play.

Ranger fell behind 25-23 at half time before crumbling in the final stanza, after their offense lost control of the ball several times. Ranger lost control of the ball on eight occasions on out-of-bound throws.

The Ram win was the second of the season over the Rangers.

Donald McDonald, the leagues high scorer passed the Rams and took scoring honors for the night with 17 tallies. Bill McCurry and Lloyd Cogburn were high for the Rangers with 16 and 15 points respectively.

The Rangers engage the Arlington State Rebels tonight on home court in a battle to keep intact their third place standings. Tip-off time will be at 8.

Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, was so called as the day of "shrift" or confession before the Lenten fast began, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

In French, it is known as Mardi Gras, "Fat Tuesday," an allusion to the fat ox which is ceremoniously paraded through the streets. The Germans knew it as Fastentag, and in England the eating of pancakes survives as a social custom, the day having been called at one time "Pancake Tuesday." In many countries it is celebrated as the last day of the pre-lenten carnival, with feasting and merry-making.

The carnival season is of ancient and somewhat obscure origin. Rome long was headquarters of carnival, and though periodic efforts were made to stem the tide of Bacchanalian revelry, the event was generally highlighted by games, races and bull-baits in the Forum. Pope Paul IV, on the other hand, "kept carnival" by inviting all the Sacred College to dine with him, and Sixtus V set himself to restrain the excesses and to repress lawlessness, gib-

Join the brigade against blustery weather with these True Story Magazine recipes:

BARBECUED BEEF STRIPS
Makes 4 - 5 servings
Cut into strips 1 1/2-inches wide; 2 pounds round steak.
Coat each piece well with prepared mustard, and turn in flour. Melt in heavy skillet: 4 tablespoons fat.

Brown meat slowly and well. Place meat in baking dish. Add to fat left in pan: 1 clove garlic, minced; 1/2 cup onion, finely chopped.
When lightly browned, stir in: 1/2 cup green pepper, diced 1/4 cup celery leaves, finely cut 1/4 cup parsley, finely cut 1 cup tomato sauce 1/4 cup vinegar 1 1/2 cups water 2 tablespoons brown sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt
Simmer for 10 minutes. Pour over steak; cover, and bake in slow oven (325 degrees F.) for about 2 hours, or until tender.

SHORTCUT: A can of condensed vegetable soup may be substituted for the onion, pepper, celery, parsley, and tomato sauce. This saves 15 minutes in preparation time for this dish, and the flavor is still delightful.

POT ROAST
Makes 6 servings
Wipe well with a damp cloth; 3 pounds round steak. Coat with flour, and brown well on all sides in a small amount of fat. place meat in a large kettle with: a 1 onion, sliced 1/2 cup diced celery or turnip 1 carrot, scraped and diced 2 cups boiling water
Cover, and simmer for 2-3 hours, or until meat is tender. Remove from pan. If a thicker gravy is desired, blend: 1 tablespoon flour 1/4 cup water Stir into hot broth. Cook over low heat, stirring until thickened. Season to taste.

SHORTCUT: A can of condensed vegetable soup can be used in place of vegetables. The gravy then need not be thickened. This saves 15 minutes' preparation time.

GROUND-MEAT STEW
Makes 6 servings.
Put through food chopper: 2 medium-size peeled onions 3 scraped carrots
Brown in a hot, well-greased skillet:
1 pound ground beef
Stir as it browns to prevent lumping. Combine the ground vegetables with:
1/2 cup washed raw rice 1 tablespoon parsley, chopped 1 small clove garlic, crushed 2 teaspoons meat paste or 2 bouillon cubes
2 cups hot water
Blend into beef mixture, and simmer for 20-25 minutes, or until rice is tender and water is absorbed. Season to taste.

SHORTCUT: Ten minutes' preparation time and the bother of washing a grinder can be saved by using 1 can of condensed vegetable soup, and 1 can onion soup — to replace onions, carrots, and meat paste.

In Pioneer Conference San Angelo Two Wins Shy Of Crown

With a big assist from Arlington State's Rebels, San Angelo's Rams this week were one step from their second straight Pioneer Conference basketball championship after winning two of three loop tilts last week.

Second-place Schreiner Institute slammed the West Texas crew last Tuesday, 88-75, to avenge an earlier loss and pull into a tie for the league lead. But Schreiner in turn bowed to Arlington State Saturday at Arlington, 89-82, to slip from the tie as San Angelo halted Tarleton State, 75-68, and Ranger, 60-48.

Arlington State Saturday will get another chance as giant-killers as they furnish the opposition at San Angelo as the Rams wind up their season. The Rebels will be decided underdogs, however, off their one-won, four-lost conference record which includes a 78-89 to San Angelo at Arlington.

Schreiner and Ranger also concludes season play this week. Schreiner, still with an outside chance for a title tie, meets Ranger at Ranger Friday and Tarleton State at Stephenville Saturday. The Rangers also entertain Arlington State Tuesday, with third place Langing in the balance.

Texas Family Proves Texans 'Do Things Big'

DETROIT — This "big-operating" automotive capital of the world is still a trifle stunned following a visit by the quiet, likeable Adcock family of Lamesa, Texas.

Detroit sheepishly discovered they do things big in Texas, too. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Adcock, Sr., and sons D. L., Jr. and E. D., arrived in town quietly and took the famed plant tour at the Chrysler Division of the Chrysler Corporation.

At the end of the production line, the tour guide pointed to the gleaming red Chrysler New Yorker which the Adcocks had followed along the line as they watched it being born. "Like it?" he asked. "We do" they chorused. They proceeded to prove that statement.

Visit in Fort Worth and Dallas Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whaley of Eastland and daughter, Miss Jesse Elizabeth Whaley of Fort Worth, attended the Gift Show in Dallas Saturday and Sunday.

The four sections of the first and second grades will compete for first and second prizes of $2 and $1.50 for the best group act. Individual acts will be judged in that group with a first prize of $2 and second prize of $1.50.

Judging will be done by three experienced people who have no children in the five grades of West Ward.

Admission to the show will be 25c for adults and 15c for all children in school from grades 1 to 12, inclusive. Tickets will be on sale in advance of the show by members of West Ward PTA.

All children in the show whether performing with a group or as an individual act will be admitted with a school pass.

There are about 130 children in the school, most of whom will appear.

Surgery Much Improved In Just Few Years

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Surgery is much safer now than it was only a relatively few years ago. The mortality incidental to virtually all types of operations, even the most radical, has been materially reduced, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company statisticians, who base their report on a study of various hospital experiences.

Surgical mortality in recent years is compared with that about a decade or more earlier for various types of major operations, including surgery for benign and malignant conditions of the digestive tract, diabetic gangrene, and certain female disorders. In every one of the experiences reviewed surgical mortality was reduced by at least one half, and in several instances by more than four fifths.

Among the factors which have played a part in bringing about this progress, according to the statisticians, are the better training of surgeons, advances in surgical techniques, the wide use of the newer chemotherapeutic and antibiotic agents to control infection, and improved anesthetic substances and procedures.

The improved outlook for patients with surgical conditions is strikingly illustrated by the rapid decline in the mortality from appendicitis, the statisticians note. The death rate from appendicitis among the company's industrial policyholders dropped by three fourths in the past decade and by nine tenths in the past two decades.
