Moore... ABOUT Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

We have always said that when you really want to get something done, get a group of young men to do the job. We have firmly maintained that it takes youth to really get any job done in a hurry. And in the last three months we have seen a good example of just that.

Take for instance, the recently organized Junior Chamber of Commerce, commonly called the Jaycees. Now Moore About is, or should we say was, a charter member of that organization.

And just look how fast that club has worked! Why in just the short period of three months the Jaycees organized, elected officers, held several meetings, got a sign halfway finished, did a lot of big talking and folded.

Friend, that's action.

No birthdays today, but Friday Alene Sue Lawless will be a year older.

This actually happened at a local drug store. Wouldn't want to say which one it was, but it's right next to Bender's Abstract.

A distinguished looking gentleman walked into the store, sat down at the soda fountain, told the girl to give him a Coke. She did and the man drank it without saying a word, got up, placed a dollar bill on the counter and turned around and walked out.

The soda girl, we'll call her Mary Ann, picked up the bill, folded it up and placed it in her pocket. Then she looked at the other fountain girl and said, "How about that big fake? He walks in here without saying hello to anybody, asks for a Coke, leaves a dollar bill for a tip and then walks out without paying for his drink."

We have seen some prettier windows around town than the Telegram's, but we haven't seen one that looked more realistic.

Talking about our Christmas display, of course. We fixed the windows earlier this week, with cotton for snow and so forth. By mid-day the window as a half inch thick in dead flies. Couldn't figure it out for a while, but then someone told us what was happening. The flies got in the window, got to looking at that cotton, thought it was snow and froze to death.

Well, that beats picking 'em all out, doesn't it?

That Eastland-Olden game Friday night is due to put a good crowd in the Maverick gym. In Olden the Eastland five will be going up against one of the best teams in this area. Let's hope that Eastland can at least put as many fans in the gym as Olden will.

Eastland Lions To Hold Joint Meeting At Cisco

Eastland Lions voted to hold a joint meeting with the Cisco Lions next Wednesday in Cisco at the club's regular luncheon meeting held Tuesday in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church.

A delegation of Eastland Lions attended the Cisco club's meeting yesterday to make plans for the joint meeting.

The Eastland club discussed giving special awards to students at the Tuesday meeting. The motion, made by Van Allen, was turned over to the board of directors.

Harold Reese gave the invocation. The club's high school visitor was Lowell Brown.

Hunters 'Finds Self' After Search Begins

A mass search was being organized yesterday for a lost Dallas deer hunter when he phoned Ranger Police headquarters that "he had found himself."

Missing since early Tuesday evening, the hunter had walked upon a drilling rig and phoned from one of their portable telephones. A wife of one of the employees drove him to town.

The Eastland County sheriff department and the Ranger Police were already searching for the lost hunter when the phone call was received. The Ranger unit of the National Guard was in the process of gathering their forces and plans were being made for an aerial search.

Hunting with a party of two others, the Dallasite failed to make his way to a point of rendezvous yesterday evening and became lost as the night closed in.

The anonymous hunter is engaged in a sporting goods business in Dallas and he stated that he spends a great deal of time hunting and fishing and at often times he has had occasion to advise others of standard procedures to follow to keep from becoming lost.

The hunter allowed that as darkness fell, he built a fire and remained during the night instead of attempting to locate some means of aid.

He reported hearing rifle shots of others in his party in the distance near dark Tuesday and carried earlier Wednesday morning of those seeking his whereabouts. However, his ammunition was expended earlier and he had no means of disclosing his position other than the fire which evidently went unobserved.

The Dallasite followed a power line to the site of the drilling rig after daylight yesterday morning.

He expressed that it was the first time that he had been lost for such a long period of time and advised the sheriff's department that he did not care to make the return trip under any circumstances.

He added that he was nearly famished when he walked upon the rig but that water was his biggest problem during the night.

It Was His Saddle!

Deputy Sheriff Tracks Down Youth; Recovers Stolen Goods

A youthful would-be desperado found out the hard way Tuesday that stealing from a deputy sheriff isn't the best way to get into the top ten most wanted badmen in the nation. For in the case of Herman Lee Jones it was just a matter of hours before he was apprehended and indicted by a 91st District Court grand jury.

Jones made the mistake of taking a saddle owned by Eastland County Deputy Sheriff Lee Horn, according to the complaint. He also managed to get his hands on a small arsenal of weapons including two .22 caliber rifles, a .22 caliber pistol and a .30-40 Winchester rifle. The two .22 rifles belonged to Frank Hallmark, and the Winchester was owned by Joe Gregg.

Jones' story starts out several weeks back. The youth was hitchhiking from Abilene to Eastland when he was given a lift by Hallmark. Hallmark offered him a job staying on his ranch and feeding his cattle for him. Jones took him up on the offer and for several weeks did a fine job for Hallmark.

Then one day the youth decided he needed a saddle. Hallmark borrowed one for him to use from the deputy sheriff. Later he borrowed a rifle for the youth to use and then returned it to Gregg, who he had borrowed it from.

Early this week Jones appeared at Gregg's house again and asked to borrow the rifle to go deer hunting. Gregg agreed and Jones went away with the rifle. Next day the youth disappeared. With him had gone Horn's saddle and the four guns.

Horn got word that Jones had headed for Abilene, and with Sheriff Frank Tucker and Ranger Jim Riddle he traced him to a filling station where Jones had sold the guns for $30. From there they learned he had headed for one of Abilene's best hotels with the saddle. The officers checked and found Jones in his hotel room, saddle intact.

When asked what he planned to do with the saddle, he told Horn, "I wasn't gonna keep it. I planned to send it to you for a Christmas present."

The grand jury indicted Jones on two counts of theft.

MONEY FROM POLICEMENS BALL TO GO TOWARD RADIO HOOKUP

Police Chief Ray Laney Thursday gave Eastlanders a good reason to buy tickets to the Policemen's Ball, which is scheduled for Dec. 7. Chief Laney said money made from the ball would go toward the purchase of a two-way radio hook-up for local police.

And the Chief said ticket sales are still zooming. "It looks like we may set an all time record," he said Thursday, "if we don't have a sudden drop off in sales."

The ball will be held at the American Legion Hall beginning at 9 p.m. Ray Judia and his Dixieland Band will be featured at the Seventh Annual Ball.

Chief Laney said that it would cost approximately $700 to equip police headquarters and the police car with the radio equipment. He said that it was badly needed here.

P. H. Bradford Is Named New City Patrolman

Eastland has a new city patrolman. He is P. H. Bradford, who is married and has two children, is an Air Force veteran of World War II. He has lived in Eastland for the past few years and was formerly employed by J. O. Earnest.

The new patrolman replaces Billy Jack Johnson, who was recently voted fire chief.

Other members of the police force now include Chief Ray Laney, and patrolmen Milton Nash, Roy L. Stroud and Neil Seabourn.

VISITORS FAVORED BECAUSE OF EXPERIENCE; GAME HERE

Eastland's untried Maverick cagers take on a team with experience plenty Friday night when they tie into the highflying Olden Hornets in the opening game of the season for the locals.

The Mavs, under Coach Bobby Blair, have only four days of workout's back of them, while Olden has played more than a dozen games. Coach Blair summed the situation up Thursday when he said, "Against Olden, we will be playing probably the strongest team we will meet all year."

For at Olden, basketball is The Sport. The Hornets forget football and stick strictly to their specialty. There will be both a boys and girls game.

For Olden, the starting boys' line-up will probably be composed of Phil Hilliard, Jim Everett, Jimmy Colburn, Dale Norton and Bill McCotter.

Eastland's starting line-up will probably have Benny Cates and Dale Sutton at guards; Clyde Ewart at center; and Lupe Herrera and Larry Graham at forwards.

Others who may see action include Leo Smith, Larry Tankersley, J. P. Jarrett, Clayton Stoker, Johnny McMahan, Gene Reagan, Mike Tuggle, Harvey Lewis, Real Herrera, Mike Reese, John Livey, Jr., Donald Rich, Bobby Layne, Buz Bounds, J. Kenneson, Derrell Basham, Ronald Robinson and Jerry Cates.

Eastland girls due to see action are Brenda Tankersley, Billie Jo Trout, Jo Ann Hollis, Laverne Akers, Geraldine Johnson, Jane Howell, Laverne Trout, Treva Nunley, Zelma Phillips, Jean Gainses, Donia Sheppard and Sandra Curtis.

A Luggage Gift Will Please Him

Looking for a truly masculine gift which that special guy would be proud to receive and use? Because all men instinctively appreciate fine accessories, chances are that a handsome set of luggage will fill the bill — whether he travels frequently or just once in a while. Good luggage will also add to his prestige, and help keep clothing wrinkle-free when he must look his very best. Moreover, having his own suitcases will mean no more borrowing of luggage for emergency trips.

According to luggage retailers, the luggage pieces most wanted by men include a "suiter" bag and matching companion case. Usually these are either suntan or ginger in color, but there are many other styles, coverings and colors for the less conservative traveler to choose from. In fact, subdued plaids, small houndstooth check and gaborings in blue, grey and even red are gaining in popularity.

The "suiter" bag is generally what retailers describe as "soft side," which means that the leather or other covering is drawn over a metal frame rather than a solid box. "Hard side" means just that — often with a tray for suits instead of hangers which fasten to the body of the case. Companion cases (to use on a weekend or for accessories on a long trip) are smaller versions of the "suiter" bag with no interior hardware.

When you buy, remember that luggage should be selected to give the receiver every convenience; although a two-suiter bag is the most popular size, for instance, one, three and four-suiter bags are available. Check for sturdy handles, even stitching, carefully fitted linings and evenly coated hardware. If the luggage is to receive extra hard use, bear in mind that sturdiness may be preferable to lightness in weight, because a good investment in luggage that can "take it" will mean fewer replacements.

By Ray Wood

Higgledy-piggledy, my black hen, She lays eggs for gentlemen; The gentlemen come every day To see the eggs my hen doth lay.

There seems little doubt that this rhyme was one of the earliest to arrive in America, long before "Standard" texts of the classic Mother Goose were available, for the first two lines have survived in many parts of the country. But it was inevitable that, so charming a rhyme should meet with changes reflecting more accurately the American scene, such as the text given here. It could happen only in America.

Hicketty-picketty, my black hen; She lays eggs for the railroad men; Sometimes one, sometimes two, Sometimes enough for the whole blame crew.

However, in American childlore, the speckled hen or "dominecker," was quite as much of a favorite, and the following rhyme could go on just as long as the teller could think up rhymes:

Mammy had a speckled hen, She was faithful, tried and true. Every day she laid an egg; On Sunday she laid two.

Someone scared our speckled hen, I wish they'd let her be. Every day she laid two eggs; On Sunday she laid three.

Now this old speckled hen of ours, She laid behind the door. Every day she laid three eggs; On Sunday she laid four.

Next: More about the Little Hen.

Variants of these or similar rhymes will be recorded in the permanent collection of Mother Goose in Texas if sent to Ray Wood at Raywood, Texas. (Copyright 1954, by Ray Wood.)

There is no Such Thing—

... as a "bargain" in insurance. Along with every other commodity you get what you pay for and no more. John Ruskin once said "there is hardly anything in the world that some man cannot make a little worse and sell a little cheaper and the people who consider price only are this man's lawful prey." Ruskin was right. Whatever you buy, buy the best. If it's insurance you can't go wrong by buying from a local agent who is as near to you as your telephone when you need him.

Courts Rap Impatient Big Game Hunters

AUSTIN — Impatient big game hunters contributed most in fines and court costs in the latest arrest report issued by the Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission.

Several $200 fines plus costs were levied for raids on deer herds and wild turkey flocks before the current season got underway. Night hunting trapped several.

The Director of Law Enforcement said the totals of fines and court costs for 468 cases were $12,476.80 and $888 respectively, for a combined sum of $13,364.80.

The largest number of cases for a single charge was listed to hunting from an automobile, with 67 arrests. These involved mainly prosecutions during the recent mourning dove season, although there were some cases in connection with night deer hunting.

Fines of $100 plus costs aggregated thirteen for hunting deer out of season. Similar assessments were made in four cases for shooting wild turkey before the legal season opened.

The minimum for big game raids involved fines of 110 on each of two counts against a Wimberly man for shooting deer out of season and for possessing deer illegally.

Violations of fishing laws also brought heavy fines. A Gulf coast man paid $150 in fines on each of two counts for using gill nets. A Mathis man was fined $100 and costs for netting fish in closed waters. Illegal fishing tackle resulted in more than forty Texas fishermen being fined.

Maximum fines of $100 each plus costs were levied against a Wells man for "telephoning fish" and against a Fort Worth man for poisoning fish.

One of the more common violations involved the use of unplugged guns in hunting morning doves. Twenty-nine such cases were filed.

Eight cases were filed against persons hunting bobwhite quail out of season. The most severe penalty on this count was $100 plus costs levied against a Holliday man. A Plantersville man paid a total of $165 and costs on charges of taking both quail and doves out of season. A Houston man paid only a total of $40 plus costs on similar charges.

The Director of Law Enforcement pointed out that circumstances vary from case to case and also that some courts are more severe than others.

Live Celebration Set By Texas Safety Assn.

"I would like to invite every citizen in Texas to join the Nation in a LIVE Christmas Celebration."

This Christmas invitation was tendered by Mr. R. B. Roaper of Houston, President of the Texas Safety Association, and Chief Safety Engineer, Humble Oil Refining Company, today as he gave his support to the Holiday Hazards programs now being conducted by The Texas Safety Association and the National Safety Council.

Mr. Roaper reminded local citizens that "the mixture of last minute shopping, home celebrations, office parties, distracting holiday sights and sounds, can lead to the sometimes-tragic state of 'holidaze'."

Mr. Roaper said 'holidaze' is an intangible thing, but is still a very real hazard during this holiday season.

"To make matters worse," he said, "we're in this state of 'holidaze' just at the time when winter walking and driving hazards are at their height."

He said the National Safety Council's figures showed that the traffic death toll was usually higher in December than in any other month of the year.

"Motor vehicle deaths rise steadily from a low point in February, until they reach an all-year high in December," he pointed out.

For this reason, he urged all motorists and pedestrians to be extra alert, and to be certain to continue to observe all common sense safety rules for staying alive in traffic.

His hero...do you really deserve it?

Of course you deserve to be your son's hero. Haven't you worked extra hard to provide for his physical needs, strained your memory for facts to feed his enormous curiosity, passed on to him the timeless spiritual truths treasured from your own childhood?

Still, you wonder at times if you can ever be equal to the image you see reflected in his eyes. You wonder if you can ever build enough security to justify the unqualified faith that lights his face now.

Eight million Americans just like yourself have discovered a plan that's helping them work toward goals like this, a plan that can provide financial security for your family and educations for your children. It's the Payroll Savings Plan of investment in U. S. Savings Bonds—the Bonds that now pay an average 3% annual interest for as long as 19 years and 8 months.

Here's how it works. Just tell the people in your pay office how much you want to save. They'll put that amount aside for you each payday. When enough accumulates, they'll buy and turn over to you a Series E Bond which then adds its interest to your total. This way $3.75 a week, for example, becomes $1,025 in just 5 years.

The Payroll Savings Plan works even for people who have never been able to save before. It will work for you. Why not sign up today?

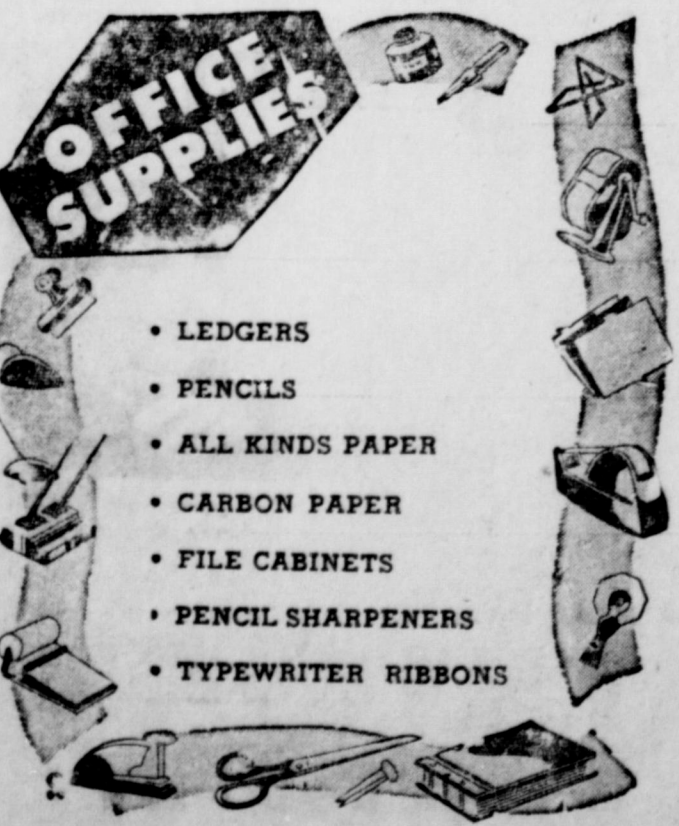

If you want your interest as current income, ask your banker about 3% Series H Bonds which pay interest semiannually by Treasury check.

Choose your own savings goal

	If you want approximately
	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save.....	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save.....	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. Remember, you can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday up to as much as you want. The important thing is start your Plan today!

Joyful Interlude

It is a merry season indeed—that interlude which precedes Christmas—the most loved and enjoyed of the year because, among other good things, it lasts so long and makes one feel so joyous.
We mark the day itself with the solemn thoughts and the religious observances appropriate to its deep significance as the birthday of Our Saviour, Founder of Christianity.
But in the days and weeks which come before—in the fun and excitement, the bright anticipation and the joyous preparation which lead to the happy culmination of the opening of the presents—there is the goodwill and merriment of a season which, unfortunately, "comes but once a year."

NEWS FROM CHEANEY Mrs. Bill Tucker

Thebert Jones suffered a heart attack and is hospitalized at Ranger General Hospital, was the announcement made Sunday. His condition, at this reporting, is considered critical.

Mrs. Nell Hester and children, Randy and Gary, of Ranger, were church visitors Sunday. Mrs. Hester is a niece of Mrs. Sophie Freeman and Mrs. Maud Dean, whom she visited.

Others who visited in the Freeman home during the Thanksgiving holidays were the Dick Weekes family from Comanche, the Tom Kimbroughs of Ranger and Mr. and Mrs. Martin White of Sudan. The Whites are old time friends of the Freemans. They are also relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howard, with whom they visited while here as overnight guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cook and Mrs. Winnie Cox were callers on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Charlotte Love of Lubbock and Mrs. Jimmy Lee, nee Berle Blackwell, spent the holiday week end with their grandmothers, Mrs. Belle Blackwell, Mrs. Ann Love and Mrs. J. P. Strickler, and various of the Blackwell and Love families. Berle states that Jimmy is in the service and she plans to go to Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wisdom of Abilene were in the community

Sunday, looking after farming interests. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Galloway.

Numerous friends and old time neighbors attended the graveside services at Alameda Cemetery Friday morning for Luther Perrin, who passed away Wednesday, Nov. 24. Mr. Perrin, aged 58, was a farmer in Cheaney community for many years. He had been in ill health for a long while, since retiring from farming and moving to Ranger. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Box and children of Pickett, Ohio, returned to their home Friday after spending Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Box of Eastland and Mrs. Mary Tucker, here at Cheaney. Thanksgiving dinner guests in the Richard Tucker home included the Box family, Mrs. Slaton Prown and children, Mrs. John Tuckers, the Bill Tuckers and also, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Stone and Oleo of Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogers complimented Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Greer, newly-weds, with a wedding shower at their home near Alameda Friday evening, Nov. 26. Mrs. Greer is the former Betty Jean Love, daughter of the Arthur Loves at Alameda. A lot of nice gifts were on display in the dining room. Lavonia Rogers presided at the gift register. Cake, cocoa and coffee were served to about 40 persons. Many sent gifts who did not attend. The Greers are at home in Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferrell's home was the scene of Thanksgiving festivities for their children, Lester of Crane, Mrs. Francis Fory and family of Ft. Worth and other members of the Walton and Melton families numbering 22. All reported the traditional bird and trimmings made fine eating.

Mrs. John Love and Mrs. Richard Tucker of Cheaney accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Coates of Cisco, attended a Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance meeting in Coleman on Tuesday, Nov. 30. The group hospitalization, which is available for all Farm Bureau families is now offering added protection under its plan to include cancer coverage to all policy holders.

B. J. Gist, Dist. 7 director of Abilene, will be in charge, with representatives of Group Hospitals, Inc. as speakers on the program.

Mrs. Bill Tucker, vice-president District 8 Texas Home Demonstration Association, was in Abilene Tuesday and Wednesday of this week for a General Board meeting, called by Mrs. John Goughly, Hico, president.
