LIBRARY VOTE 'YES'

Bookmobile Services Expected To Start About March 23rd

Part of Olabelle Lamb's dream came true Friday when Bailey County took its first step toward complete library facilities. All four Bailey County commissioners and Judge Glen Williams, who acts as advisor to the court, recognized their duty in relation to the wishes of the public and voted "yes" to bookmobile services here.

The move, which came at a special called meeting attended by about 70 spectators, came after months of work by the Friends of the Library Committee — an outgrowth of the Muleshoe Study Club's Library Committee. The Study Club had several years ago been the first to recognize the lack of library facilities in Bailey County. The group organized a library committee and was able to establish a small inadequate library in the county courthouse. But the project was too big for one group, and even that small library soon came to be a repository for cast off books from private homes.

In October of last year the Library committee then headed by Olabelle Lamb, approached the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and asked its support. At about the same time the Texas State Library, which Mrs. Lamb had been communicating with for some time, sent Charles Gholz, its representative to the area to offer its assistance.

With the help of the Chamber of Commerce, without which the library program would never have gotten off the ground, the current Friends of the Library was formed. In a few short months it grew from a small tight group of 12 persons to encompass over 400 today. It exerted pressures in all areas of community life — religious, financial and political. The result was Friday's favorable vote of the county commissioners.

Dr. Roy McClung To Speak Before Rotary Club

Annual FFA Banquet Scheduled To Be Held Here February 18th

Muleshoe will join the nation next week in saluting National Future Farmers of America Week. The week, which will extend from Feb. 15 to 22, will be highlighted here by the Muleshoe Chapter's annual Father and son Banquet.

The yearly affair is scheduled to be held in the high school cafeteria at 7:30 Tuesday. The primary purpose of the celebration is to bring fathers, sons and supporters together.

The Future Farmers of America organization is in its 35th year in Texas — and it continues to grow, having over 39,702 members this year. These FFA members are boys who are studying vocational agriculture in approximately 906 high schools in Texas. In their vocational agriculture classes, students are provided an opportunity to secure technical and scientific training in agriculture as well as to receive training in leadership, citizenship, and cooperation. In 1950 there were 711 FFA chapters in Texas with a membership of 28,643. Today, we have 875 chapters with over 39,000 members. The largest growth has come in the last three years since the membership increased over 3,000. In a recent study it was found that 52.2 per cent of the vocational agriculture graduates last year who were available for employment are now in full-time farming or in an agricultural related occupation. Approximately one-half of this number is in full-time farming.

Agriculture today is more than farming. It involves those who process and distribute many agricultural goods. Many people are employed in agricultural occupations such as engineers, scientists, management personnel, sales and service personnel, and educators. There are 60,000 desirable openings each year for farm operators, farm engineers, and full-time hired farm labor. This group needs a sound education in a continuing education to help them abreast of the rapidly changing technical and management aspects of farming.

FFA, as an integral part of the vocational agriculture program, encourages the student to develop a high degree of skill in producing livestock. Through FFA sponsored livestock shows, (See Banquet Page 5)

Awards will be presented to the race winners. Another feature of the banquet will be the presentation of awards to most of the 81 boys who compose the local Cub Scout organization. Awards to be presented are Wolf, Lion and Bear and arrow points for each.

Muleshoe School District Board of Trustees approved the contracts of five school principals, the band director and speech teacher, and accepted the resignations of an English teacher and football coach.

The contract of Ralph Stevenson, principal of Muleshoe High School was renewed at a yearly salary of $9,600; R. E. Everett, Junior High Principal, $8,000; Milton Oylor, Richland Hills School principal, $7,405; W. O. The board accepted the resignations of Wanda Lewis, English teacher at Muleshoe High School and Bill Taylor, head football coach. Both resigned for personal reasons.

In other business the board opened bids for the contracts for a new lighting system for the high school football field. Contracts were not awarded because the bids were tabled until they could be examined by a disinterested electrician.

An outline of rules governing the coming school board election was drawn up and approved. It is as follows:

A chapter out of "Peyton Place" came to life in Muleshoe this week when a city resident was charged with the forcible rape of his natural daughter.

The 35-year-old man is accused of having attacked his 13-year-old daughter in their home late Thursday night. The records show officers have detailed statements from both the young girl and her mother. The father was arrested by city police. He has plead not guilty and Friday was in jail in lieu of $2,500 bond.

Possible Tax Irregularities In School District Checked

It was charged in public meeting last week that there were possible tax irregularities in two tax cases carried on the books of the Muleshoe School District. The person making the charges stated that these possible tax irregularities should be brought to the attention of the public too.

The cases concerned back taxes owed the school district by two Muleshoe residents. Information provided stated that tax suits had been filed against the two men and then not pressed in court.

A check of the records showed the informer to be correct. The suits were filed on Feb. 23, 1962 and never brought to court. However, a check of the school tax records show one man has brought his back taxes up to within the legal limitation.

The other is beyond the school board set limitation and his case is still pending. However, he has paid his 1963 taxes in full. When asked to comment on the cases Muleshoe Schools District Attorney Norman Bays said, "No comment".

SOCIAL SLANT

Gardeners and ladies too, have begun to plan a lot and work a little in the yard. Wouldn't it be lovely if all the female species enjoyed same?

Make your plans now to see the "Style Show" to be presented March 13. The lovely young things are worth seeing — as well as the clothes!

Sales are everywhere. Too bad some of us always get there after what we want or need has been sold.

The Aquarian lady is usually a lover of home, good wife and mother, and true to her wedding vows.

Roy and Wanda Hardy will be missed out at the country club. They are moving to Clovis soon.

Men go fishing in droves, especially in the spring. For a change, why not take ladies next year, expense free? Most of the old gals need a vacation and Pa could keep house, run errands, buy groceries, tend kids and do nothing in general as we do!

The candy recipe with chow mein and butterscotch is good.

Several persons have expressed a desire for night classes here similar to those in Clovis from E. N. M. U. Could be done if enough people are interested.

February 12 began the Chinese New Year. Never received a letter with anything but the Christian date but then I don't know any Chinese personally.

Farm wives have triple reasons to be thankful for moisture. Helps the family income, the plowing helps control the sandstorms and most of all, it helps the man's disposition!

Nothing makes a clerk's eyes shine like a big sale, except the checker at a grocery store late in the evening on "double stamp day!"

"Be as merry as you can."

"No one likes a sorrowful man."

Adapted to the ladies, it reads: "Be as healthy as you can."

"No one likes a sickly (wo) man."

"Then our Exchange student, Horacio A. Cavallero, of Santa Fe, Argentina, who makes his home at the Alex Williams, took us on a "word and picture" trip of his native country. To say it was "well received" is putting it too mildly. It was enthusiastically received as attested to by the question period that followed. Everyone wanted to know more of this lovely country and it's representative. Only the lateness of the hour demanded it come to an end, Mrs. Jennings said.

Mrs. Horace Blackburn was the director for the evening.

Parmer County News

Since it is in school that our children are supposed to obtain their understanding of economics in general, we think it is important that parents of school children know what may be offered along this line in our public schools. There are three books on economics that have been approved for selection and use in Texas Public Schools. We have quite a bit of information by quotation from these three books, but here is the first one listed for each book: "The Federal Government can maintain a budget deficit because it has the unique power to create money". (From Economics For Our Times, by Smith and published by McGraw-Hill) Page 516.

"The National Government debt, however, can go on and on indefinitely". (From Economics, By Goodman and published by the Ginn and Company, Page 311). "Deficit financing has many consequences which seriously affect the economy. The limits of this book confine us to one; Namely, inflation. (From Understanding Our Free Economy, by Fairchild and published by the Van Nostrand Company, Page 565).

If you know who teaches economics in your local school, we would encourage you to talk with that teacher about these books and try to encourage the teaching of the one that seems to you to be the best.

If the pending civil rights bill is passed, it will affect you as a farmer. Agencies to be used to police you, under the direction of the Attorney General would be: All banks for cooperatives; Federal Land Banks; Federal Intermediate Credit Banks; PCA; A-SCS; CCC; Federal Crop Insurance Corp.; Agricultural Marketing Service; FHA; SCS, and ALL OTHER agencies having to do with Federal assistance in the field of agriculture. Maybe you would like to write or call your congressman about his vote on the Civil Rights bill now pending and being pushed. The bill numbers are: Sen. Bill 1731 and House Resolution 7152.

CONSIDER THIS: The hand of the diligent shall bear rule; but the slothful shall be under tribute. Proverbs 12:24.

Four Parmer County FB men went to the Farm Bureau Legislative meeting in Lubbock last Thursday. They were Harry Hamilton, James Dixon, James Norton and Raymond Euler.

There are several things going on that will have a definite impact on the future of agricultural people one way or another. The department of labor is becoming much more technical in its requirements of records on time, type of work, etc. performed by farm employees if there is a Bracero among them. Then, there is the idea being promoted of extending requirements for payment of the minimum wage, now $1.25 per hour, to those areas of employment that have been exempt because of the peculiarity of such areas of work. Farm employees are in the exempt group. And even more important than this, the pressure that is being generated to increase the minimum wage to $1.50 or $2.00 is not to be forgotten. The net results, of course, would be increased unemployment because of the inability of many employers to pay such minimum wages. Farm Bureau is opposing all of the above proposals. If you oppose them your strength will be multiplied by your support of Farm Bureau through membership if you are not a member.

In the field of cotton, Farm Bureau is endeavoring to get back to the program of operation in effect through 1960 which had reduced surplus of cotton to a normal amount while promising more acreage to meet the demand of the textile market.

Every politician is now branded by someone as a liberal or a conservative. We would recommend support of men who have shown, and continue to show their belief in the Constitution of the United States. The Lampasas Schools program on citizenship recently emphasized these important points related to the Constitution: 1. We believe in and trust God; 2. Importance of the individual; 3. Freedom of the individual; 4. Dignity of work; 5. Private ownership of property; 6. The profit motive; 7. Free competition; and 8. The government is supposed to be a protector, not a provider.

CONSIDER THIS: Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred there with. Proverbs 15:17.

OUR WARMEST CONGRATULATIONS TO THE FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA IN THIS COMMUNITY

TODAY, TOMORROW AND ALWAYS . . . there's a Big Job ahead for boys in AGRICULTURE because agriculture is a science, a business, a profession, and industry. To hit their mark of success in any line of work, these boys must sight their target and aim carefully — but agriculture offers them a broad target and rich rewards. If they choose agriculture, it's hard for them to miss.

Today, about 40% of all jobs are in agriculture — jobs important to everyone — jobs with futures — jobs with rich financial rewards . . . and because there are these jobs, young men in the F.F.A. are preparing themselves diligently and adequately through the Future Farmers program in connection with the Vo-Ag department of the local schools. They'll be ready for the "Future that can be theirs in Agriculture".

MR. AND MISS — Dianne Chappell, Miss Muleshoe High School and daughter of Mr. & Mrs. R. B. Channell and Darrell Burton, Mr. Muleshoe High School and son of Mr. & Mrs. Barbara Burton, posing before one of many Valentine posters used throughout the school to celebrate the day.

Banquet--

boys learn to recognize quality in animals and to realize the benefits of publicity in developing a good marketing outlet for the livestock produced on the farm.

Judging contests create an interest in comparing individual animals and demonstrate methods of selection which will increase the quality and production of livestock a boy will produce during his entire career as a stockman.

In order to advance through the degrees of FFA membership, boys must keep complete and accurate records of their projects. This practice in record keeping prepares a Future Farmer to properly analyze a farm enterprise and determine its strengths and weaknesses.

A livestock enterprise in today's agriculture must be efficient to be profitable. By application of the basic scientific principles taught in Vocational Agriculture, a Future Farmer can be a leader in efficient, profitable production of livestock.

The value of livestock training received as a result of FFA membership is further illustrated by the fact that most of the successful young farmers and ranchers of this generation have a background of participation in the activities of a good FFA Chapter when they were in high school.

Behind the successful record of Texas Future Farmers stand nearly one thousand dedicated teachers.

Vocational agriculture teachers serve as advisors of each local FFA Chapter. Each teacher has an agricultural background, most having been raised on farms or ranches. Many themselves studied vocational agriculture in high school.

In college, each selected agricultural education as his major. He found that the requirements of this course of study gave him no time for a minor. He studied agriculture, with all of its modern techniques and advancements. But he also studied mathematics, history, English, biology, chemistry, economics, journalism and psychology.

He studied professional education, too, for he found that the ability to impart knowledge to others is fully as important to a teacher as knowledge of his subject. He did student teaching under the supervision of an experienced vocational agriculture teacher. Then he applied to local schools for a job, after receiving a Bachelor of Science degree.

MEETING CANCELED

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Twenty-eight Democratic and 15 Republican candidates bang d through the starting gate before last week's filing deadline in a dramatic beginning to a political year that opened with relative calm.

A ruckus over the would-be U. S. Senate candidacy of McAllen Congressman Joe Kilgore, and Gov. John Connally's last-minute hesitation about running for reelection, highlighted the filing-deadline spectacular.

Kilgore decided not to run against U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough. Connally acknowledging that he had considered retirement, went ahead and filed for a second term.

Conservative Democrats boiled over the Kilgore incident, said it might result in a second Republican senator from Texas.

Jack Cox, the GOP's 1962 candidate for governor against Connally, was a surprise entry in the Republican senate contest — at five minutes before deadline.

The Republicans fielded a complete slate for state offices (except judicial) and congressional races.

Connally ended up with opposition from liberal Don Yarborough of Houston, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Brenham and Rev. M. T. Banks of Beaumont, a Negro, Republican candidates for Governor are Jack Crichton of Dallas and Harry Diehl of Houston.

Yarborough is opposed by Democrats John Van Cronkhite and Gordon McLendon, both of Dallas. Cox and George Bush of Houston, and Dr. Milton V. Davis and Robert Morris, both of Dallas, are the GOP senatorial candidates.

Here is the complete lineup for other statewide offices:

Lieutenant Governor — Preston Smith of Lubbock (incumbent) and Albert Fuentes Jr. of San Antonio, Democrats; and Horace Houston of Daallias, Republican.

Congressman-at-large — Incumbent Joe Pool of Dallas, Bill El-Baker and Bob Looney, both of Houston, Democrats; and Bill Hayes of Temple, Republican.

Attorney General — Incumbent Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, Democrat; and John Trice, Waco, Republican.

Commissioner of Agriculture — Incumbent John White of Wichita Falls and Millard Shivers, Waco, Democrats; and John B. Armstrong, Kingsville, GOP.

Land Commissioner — Incumbent Jerry Sadler of Grapeland and Fred H. Williams of Dallas, Democrats; and John A. Matthews of Abilene, GOP.

Comptroller — Incumbent Robert S. Calvert of Austin, Democrat; and Dallas Calmes Jr., Houston, GOP.

Treasurer & Incumbent Jesse James, Austin, Democrat; and Fred S. Neumann, Beaumont, Republican.

Railroad Commissioner (full term) — Incumbent Ben Ramsey, San Augustine, Democrat.

Railroad Commissioner (unexpired term) — Incumbent Jim C. Langdon of Austin, and Jesse Owens of V rnon, Democrats; and Don Flanagan, Richardson, GOP.

Supreme Court, Place 1 — Sears McGee of Houston and Jack Pope of San Antonio, Democrats; and T. E. Kennerly, Houston, GOP.

Supreme Court, Place 2 — Ruel C. Walker, Cleburne incumbent, Democrat.

Supreme Court, Place 3 — Incumbent Robert W. Hamilton, Midland, Democrat.

Court of Criminal Appeals — Incumbent K. K. Woodley of Austin, Democrat.

Thirteen of Texas' 23 congressmen escaped opposition in their own primaries, but for the first time in history there will be a Republican to deal with in every district come November.

"INSTANT" HOSPITALS — The State Health Department is expected to be added to the list this month, and a master plan calls for 450 of these facilities eventually. The State Health Department is directing the Civil Defense Emergency Hospital program, and encourages local authorities to provide the needed storage space.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Connally appointed Frank B. Appleman of Fort Worth, a University of Oklahoma law graduate, to the Board of Regents of Texas Woman's University of Denton.

He then picked Myrion O. Johnson of Harlingen to preside over the 107th District Court in Cameron and Willacy counties. Johnson replaces Judge Hawthorne Phillips, who resigned to become Attorney General Waggoner Carr's first assistant.

BUSINESS IMPROVES — The 1963 index of Texas business activity was up 5.4 per cent on the average monthly level over the previous year, according to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Ausrin, Amarillo and Beaumont showed highest gains. They were followed closely by Corpus Christi, Houston, Fort Worth, Galveston and Waco.

No city showed a percentage decline.

Bureau predicted that 1964 will be another good year as far as personal income and business activity is concerned if the federal income tax bill now the Senate is passed.

CIVIL DEFENSE SPACES UP — Texas now has 1,800,000 licensed civil defense shelter spaces of a goal of 1,900,000, CD Regional Director Bill Parker told a conference here.

These seven cities have fully-stocked shelters, Parker said: Abilene, Baytown, Bryan, Big Spring, Denton, Odessa and Tyler.

SHORT SNORTS
The Texas Tourist Development Agency awarded its $250,000 advertising contract to McCann-Erickson, Inc., Houston advertising agency.

Texas Liquor Control Board collections for December amounted to $40,701 as the result of 609 convictions and 77 jail terms for liquor-law violations.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler ordered a full investigation when he learned that seven oil wells on a state lease in Gregg County had been plugged without his approval.

Texas State Teachers Association president, Mrs. Elizabeth Little of Corpus Christi, said public school teachers in the state this year will receive a salary almost $600 below the national average; teachers group has voted to fight for a salary increase when the 59th Legislature meets.

Governor Connally authorized removal of the three remaining Confederate widows now housed in the Confederate Home for Women in Austin to a "first-class" nursing home, where he said they would receive better treatment and at less expense to the state.

Banks in El Paso and Burkburnett were granted charters by the State Banking Board while application of Jacinto City State Bank was declined, and action again was postponed on bids for two new banks in Midland.

Governor Connally got a new lighter cast on his damaged right arm, was pronounced in pretty good physical shape, but doctors said it will be six or eight months before he regains full strength.

Excise taxes collected on cigarettes in Texas last month came to $7,300,000, up from $7,200,000 a year ago, despite U. S. Health Service warnings about evils of smoking.

Texas schools have been urged by the governor to give special emphasis to the state song, "Texas, Our Texas", during Public Schools Week, March 2-6, and Texas Historical Period, March 2-April 21.

Speed, drinking and wrong-side driving are three main factors in fatal traffic accidents, Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr. told a traffic courts conference.

Yarborough In Washington

Dear Fellow Texan:

The current controversy with Panama is complicating our foreign relations with all Latin America, and indeed with all countries:

Let's review a little of the background. In 1902, the present Republic of Panama was a part of the Republic of Columbia. We sought to buy rights for a canal across the isthmus, but Columbia turned us down. So in 1902, Panama revolted from Columbia and our warships kept Columbian troops from landing in Panama. Thus Panama's independence was obtained with the help of the American Navy while Theodore Roosevelt was President.

Then in 1903, we signed a treaty with Panama by which we obtained rights in perpetuity to a 10-mile wide strip of land across the 50-mile wide isthmus, and we built the Panama Canal from 1904 to 1914. Panama reserved what is called titular sovereignty.

We built the canal at a cost of $380 million and the lives of 4,000 American citizens from yellow fever and other causes. We paid the Republic of Panama certain money. In recent years, Panama has demanded more money, so in 1959 we entered into another treaty with Panama and made concessions. We reaffirmed the titular sovereignty over the Canal Zone that remained with the government of Panama, and we raised the payments to Panama from about $400,000 a year to about $1,900,000 a year.

We also have set up a commission to improve U. S. — Panamanian relations. We agreed to pay the Panamanians who work in the Zone higher wages. We built a thousand new housing units for Panamanian employees, and opened more job opportunities to Panamanians. And in September of 1960, President Eisenhower authorized the flying of the Panama flag in one section of the zone. In 1962, President Kennedy ordered that the Panama flag could be flown wherever the U. S. flag was flown. Now the government of Panama is demanding in effect that we pull out and let them have that territory back.

Twelve thousand ships a year go through the canal. Thirty per cent of them are American ships, but 70 per cent of the goods shipped in all those 12,000 ships are American-owned goods. We owe an obligation to all the shippers, we owe an obligation to the world to keep the canal open, Panama's charges and demands are beyond reason; we will not be slanders out of our obligation to keep this waterway open.

SP-5 Jim Kinser Hurt In Thailand

Kinser suffered a severe knee injury and deep cuts on the left leg and arm which required numerous stitches, and bruises. He is reported to be recuperating without complications in the Ubon Base Hospital, however he will be on crutches for several weeks.

The accident occurred when the wheels locked on the Army vehicle while he was enroute from the base to the city of Ubon.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER FROM SENATOR JOHN TOWER

Committee: Banking and Currency Labor and Public Welfare

I do not believe any concerned American can be happy about the present trend in world affairs. To put it bluntly, our alliances are coming apart at the seams. Nations that we aided with the blood of our soldiers and the produce from our farms and factories now turn a cold shoulder when we ask that they stand firm against a common enemy. Newly emerging nations that came into existence with our blessings have now turned to Moscow for ideological comfort. We suddenly find our presence unwelcome in areas where we have spent millions and millions of dollars in an effort to upgrade the economy and culture of "underdeveloped" countries. We find a Communist bastion at our doorstep daily being made stronger through trade agreements with our friends and our foes. We see it being used as a base for subversion throughout Latin America and Africa, and we seem powerless to intervene. We hear our country called "aggressor" by Panama, a country that would not even exist were it not for the United States. In Southeast Asia, we see Sukarno of Indonesia, whom we have aided generously, active in pursuing a policy of "Asia for the Asians," a policy we opposed when enunciated by the Japanese before World War II.

No recitation of detail is needed here. You are all familiar with the situations in Cuba, Panama, Zanzibar, Vietnam, Laos, Berlin, the Congo, Cyprus, and almost any other place you can place your finger on the globe. The overall picture is certainly not one in which we can take great comfort. It appears to me that before we can ever hope to improve the situation, we must come to some realization of its cause. Without that, we will continually drift in foreign affairs, and find ourselves — as the most powerful nation in the world — on the defensive before ambitious leaders and or tribal chieftains.

The one simple realization that must be made by our leaders, and by our people if we are to survive, is that there is now in progress a worldwide struggle between two conflicting ideologies — one that champions individual liberty and freedom from the excesses of an all-powerful State — and the other which claims that all rights of citizens are wrapped up in the person of the State, and that a citizen has no rights other than those granted him by the State. In short, the battle is between Communism and Freedom. It will not end until either the United States or the Soviet Union changes in basic concepts.

When this realization is not a matter of conviction, when it can be modified to suit local or temporary exigencies, such as granting credit to the Soviet Union, the heartland of Communism, in order that they may bail themselves out of difficulty, then we have compromised our position as leader in the fight against Communism and for Freedom. It then becomes quite easy for England to bolster Castro's economy with buses to overcome a critical transportation crisis; it becomes easier for Sweden to sell heavy machinery to Cuba; it becomes easier for President deGaulle to recognize Red China. It becomes much more difficult for us to persuade Pakistan not to establish closer ties with Red China; it becomes more difficult to persuade our Allies not to carry on trade with Cuba. It becomes more difficult to persuade our allies to meet their commitments to NATO and similar alliances.

And finally, it encourages the formation of small power blocs and groupings in what should otherwise be one great, cohesive effort to isolate Communism and reduce its potency and its danger to the free world. I believe our government should embark once again on a diplomatic and economic crusade to bolster the cause of freedom around the world. I believe we should seek to lead the free world by actions, not merely by high-sounding phrases. For it should be obvious to all that our allies will listen to our advice only so long as our actions indicate we believe our own advice. I do not believe we can afford to continue our present policy of "airplane diplomacy," as it is called. This consists chiefly of the Administration relaxing comfortably until trouble erupts somewhere among our alliances, then, amid great fanfare, sending a member of the cabinet to assess the situation. If the Department of State and the Central Intelligence Agency, as the two governmental bodies most directly responsible, are unable to properly inform the Administration or to properly represent the government in the areas affected, then something is drastically wrong. Or, if the Administration is informed and nothing is done until trouble erupts, then something is equally wrong. In the year ahead, and indeed, as long as I represent you in the Senate, I will support policies and measures that implement the thinking I have outlined above.

CAR-PICKUP WRECK — A pickup driven by George Haskins, Sr., Lazbuddie, was in collision with an Oldsmobile driven by Eugene Martin of the Flagg Community. The accident occurred in front of Foster-McGeehee Fertilizer east of Lazbuddie Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are being treated in West Plains Hospital for cuts and bruises. Mrs. Martin suffered a fractured knee. Haskins was treated and released.

Another appearance of the wildly popular Beatles, a British recording group, will highlight "The Ed Sullivan Show" at 7 p.m. Mitz Gaynor is also on the guest list. The program originates live from Miami Beach, Florida.

A brand-new program premieres at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday. It's "Destry", a series based on the character made popular over the years in movies and on the Broadway stage. John Gavin plays the title role in "Destry," the story of an unusual cowboy. Destry in no way resembles the stereotyped Western hero. As the west's most happy-go-lucky avenger, he's in no hurry to catch the man he's looking for. A pretty face, a warm cup, a man-sized joke, all these things seem to detract from the job at hand.

John Gavin promises to fulfill the tradition of "Destry" in his characterization of the role made popular by such stars as Tom Mix, James Stewart and Andy Griffith.

Tammy Grimes, Broderick Crawford and Neville Brand are the guest stars in the premiere showing of "Destry."

Two outstanding films will be shown in regular movie slots of KLBK TV's schedule this week. "The Late Show" at 10:30 p.m. Friday is "Backfire," starring Academy Award winner Edmund O'Brien, Dane Clark and Virginia Mayo. "Frenchman's Creek" is the title of "The Million Dollar Movie" at 10 p.m. Saturday, starring Joan Fontaine and Arturo DeCordova.

Country and Western music fans as well as devotees of the current folk-music craze, will enjoy "The Porter Wagoner Show" at 8:00 p.m. Saturday. Guest stars drop in to add their talents to the program, which is already richly endowed with the musical abilities of the star and the regulars.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

By J. Frank Peery

TWO-SIDED MOUTH

The Communist "line" seems to be a two-way street in relationship to Religion. This is of great interest to me and I trust to you.

In recent government broadcasts beamed to local listeners in the Russian Republic, the theme was ridicule of religion. In government broadcasts to local listeners in East Germany, the propaganda was aimed to show the compatibility of Communism and Christianity.

The Religious New Service, as reported in the "All-Church Press" of January 24, 1964, says that the Russian line states: "Religion makes people unhappy . . . divisive."

The East German line: "We should always bid Christians a cordial welcome on every level of public and social life, and meet them with respect and friendship." "The daily living and working together of Christians and Marxists in our state demonstrates that their basic interests — the preservation of peace and building of a just society — coincide."

The Russian Line: "Clergymen never work for unification of working people and they teach their followers to divide people according to religious belief."

In a recent Russian broadcast, the Red Regime ridiculed and slandered the Christian clergy, including Metropolitan Nikolai of the Russian Orthodox Church, the theme being: "Religion — The Enemy of Human Happiness."

However, in East Germany, the Communist Government is intent on sowing the clergy's participation in civic affairs, claiming that some 50 Christian ministers now serve on city and town councils, the theme being to show that Christian and Marxists can work happily side by side.

Thus, it appears that divergent "lines" on Religion flow from both sides of the Marxist world. Could it be that in that part of the world a spiritual marriage is slowly taking place: a co-existence of Religion and Atheism to the degree that in time one will dominate and devour the other?

I do remember a leader of the Baptist Church in Leningrad saying to me, "We Christians have no real quarrel with the Government on temporal grounds. My father could get no education in Czarist Russia. I am a doctor. My two cousins have university degrees and are living good."

Frankly Speaking — The practice of speaking out of both sides of the mouth is evil and dangerous. It is much better to know that the snake will strike than have it lick your boots, posing as a complete ally. A snake in Russia or East Germany has the same color.

Today's Meditation

THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

The Christian faith is founded upon basic spiritual truths which are taught in the Holy Bible. They are tenets of the spiritual world and not of the material world. Let us here merely list some of these great truths.

1. We begin with God, the Creator and Maker of the universe. Who is the First Cause of all things. "In him we live, move and have our being".

2. Then we are confronted with God's only begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Christ, broke through eternity in time and lived for a time in this world in the form of man. It was in the Incarnation of our Lord that He revealed Himself and through Him the Father God.

3. Through the teachings of the Holy Bible and through the checked history of the human races that we learned for a fact that mankind is sinful and in such a state, lives in rebellion to God and His Holy will.

4. Man has learned through the teachings of the Bible and experience that he is helpless and powerless to cleanse himself from his sinful nature and live a just and righteous life.

5. Salvation or the redemption of man comes through the power of Jesus Christ who alone can forgive sins and cleanse the sinful heart of sinful man.

6. The Holy Bible teaches the immortality of the soul and the life after death. Our Lord's death and resurrection confirms the fact that God has the power over death and that He alone gives eternal life to as many as believe on Him.

7. We believe that all the re-

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Snow, Muleshoe visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Layton Saturday.

Everyone enjoyed the snow we had last week, the first moisture we have had this year, it will help the wheat, and other fall deemed of the Lord will not only live again after death, but will be clothed with spiritual bodies in a better world in a better environment than this one. The Christian lives in this hope and builds his faith not upon sciences of man making, but on the sheer promises of God and His Son, Jesus Christ.

Once more let us read the gospels in order to confirm this faith. The gospels are our constant sources of information on which the Christian Faith is founded. If you will read Alfred Lloyd Tenyson's great poem, "IN MEMORIAM" you will discover that the tenets of the Christian faith are interwoven in this poetic masterpiece of literature.

An increase of almost $200,000 in deposits is reflected in the financial statement of Muleshoe State Bank, which appeared in this issue of The Journal. Total deposits are $2,227,713.14 as compared to $2,065,450.59 as of the previous report. Sales of grain, cotton and livestock has accounted for a large part of the increase.

James H. Bendley wrote The Journal publisher from aboard ship Dec. 26, 1943. His letter included these statements: You know the war has really scattered the Muleshoe boys. They are stationed all over the world. I suppose, I have seen quite a few of them in California, Billy Beavers, Eldon Pointer, Pete Jenkins and Audrice J. Morris.

I like the Navy and believe it is a better deal than the Army, Marines or Air Corps, but James Jennings, Willis Farrell and a few others would argue with me over the subject. I'm sure. You have probably heard about the state of California and all of it's sunshine. Well, don't believe it. All it has done for the past month is rain. Never saw so much rain in my life. Boy, would I like to see a good Texas sandstorm.

Sgt. Charles Alsop writes of life somewhere in Italy with the 36th Division. In part, it reads, "We are away from the Battery for the present time and have been doing our cooking on an open fire until yesterday when we were issued a small Coleman stove and it is much better as we can now make coffee after dark and that sure helps as we are up so much at night."

We have to get out a Metro reading every few hours. Our Metro station is set up on a railroad, but there is no danger of trains, because the tracks were destroyed in many places by the Jerries before their retreat. We sleep a little way from the station in a hay barn which is very comfortable. There is a very nice Italian family living near who are very nice to us and have asked us in for a spaghetti supper often. I suppose you know that Herschelle has not been with us for some time, as he was sent back to the Base Hospital in North Africa for a rest, as he was suffering from exhaustion caused from overwork and exposure, and also his heavy responsibility. I think he will be back commanding soon.

ON TAX SAVINGS

TAX BILL

The $11,500,000,000 tax bill has taken a giant stride toward enactment but whether it can become law by March 1, the Administration goal is uncertain.

The Senate Finance Committee vote 12-to-5 approval including all the major provisions sought by President Johnson. But, it is feared debate may delay the bill too long for passage by March 1.

OUTLAWS POLL TAX

President Johnson has hailed as a triumph of liberty a new amendment to the Constitution outlawing the poll tax as a requirement for voting in elections for Federal office.

The twenty-fourth Amendment was written into the law of the land when South Dakota became the thirty-eighth state to approve it.

D. C. ASSURES ASIA

The United States is seeking to cushion the impact of the French recognition of Communist China with reassurances that it will not change United States policy in the Far East.

The hope in Washington is that the expected French action will not touch off a wave of recognition by other countries and upset the balance of power in the United Nations.

They Do Not
