Change Seen In Wheat Program

Emmett E. Powell, county office manager of the Eastland County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, has announced that the 15-acre wheat provision is not in effect for 1963. Mr. Powell stated that there is a possibility that an entire new wheat program will be in operation next year. He said that if there has the past three years, the farm will not be permitted to plant wheat without an allotment. If a producer is interested in growing wheat for the first time in 1963, he should make an application for a new grower allotment. All appli-

been no wheat on the farm in

Miss Akin; Mr. Hutto Wed In June Ceremony

1717 7th St., Wichita Falls, completed the setting. Saturday evening, June 9, at Members of the hor of Bay City read the double ring wedding vows amid a nupital setting of white glads, stock, ferns and lighted candlelabras. Pink and white tapers were used effectively.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Akin of 428 Ave. K, Huntsville. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marvin

Hutto Sr. of Olden are parents of the bridegroom. Wedding music was presented by Anna Katherine Springfield, organist, and Linda Stogner, soloist. Miss Wanda Lou Murray attended the bride as maid of nonor. Bridesmaids were Misses Marilyn Delores Davis and Jeanne LeSueur.

Attendants were dressed in dentical gowns of light blue satin and lace. Each wore matching gloves, shoes and headdresses and carried bouquets of white stock centered with an orchid.

Attending the groom as best nan was Eddie Munn of Olden. Ushers were Edward Hayner of Olden and Lonnie Sheperd of Houston.

LaEurette Kochl and Billy Carswell served as flower girl and ring bearer respectively. Given in marriage by her brother, Billy Akin, the bride wore a floor length taffeta gown with slight train. The rounded neckline trimmed in lace was etched in seed pearls and irridescent sequins. Long sleeves tapered to points over her hands. A large bow in the back created a bustle effect for the bouffant skirt. Her elbow length veil was caught to a dainty pearl crown. Her bridal bouquet consisted of an elongated crescent design of white

EASY FINANCING - Tandy's "No Red Tape" Way

Tandy's ON-THE-SPOT financing is quick, easy and does away with the "Red Tape" of home buying. All you need is a clear deed to your lot or acreage. Once the few necessary basic papers for ownership are processed and your token payment—just $25.00 down—is made, you have just a few short days to wait till your Tandy Decorator Homes is erected on your lot. Think of it! A home of your own for less than monthly payment!

TANDY HOMES - Built Better, To Last Longer

Tandy Homes are carefully pre-engineered under factory controlled conditions. They are checked and rechecked in every phase of assembly taking out all the chance of error, that can so easily occur, when the old board-by-board method of construction is used. This extra care lengthens the life of Tandy Decorator Series Homes-makes them sturdy and resistant to weather conditions that can age a house before its time. Tandy's careful factory methods assure you of a better built, longer lasting home when you buy
