Eastland Echoes

By Casey

THOUGHT FOR TODAY: "For the most part fraud in the end secures for its companions repentance and shame."—(Simmons).

Great day in th' mornin'! What a controversy we've gotten into the big middle of — all on account of who's in the heart of Texas. A lady, a week or so ago, came forward with the declaration that Comanche county was the geographical center; then a man came along with the claim that it was in Brown County.

Now, here's another — C. I. Jones of Olden — who declares: "The Texas Centennial organization set the geographical center marker 7 miles southwest of the southwest corner of Brown County, in McCullough County. I've seen a picture of it and I also use the Texas Almanac for evidence."

So there you go again. And that's not all. Geography mail is still coming in. A letter has arrived at this columnator's desk which we won't have time to process until next issue, but in which the claim is made that STILL ANOTHER place is Texas' geographical center.

What a state. What a geography. What a controversy. And it all came up over Lake Leon's being "deep in the heart of." Luckily they all have good things to say about Lake Leon. (Read the next installment of this Great Continued Story in our next issue — and take your pick!) Earth-shaking, isn't it?

Eve Arden, hearing the noise caused by her sitting on a piano keyboard: "H'm, two octaves. I'll have to reduce."

Their slip — is — showing de. parentment: Headline from a Los Angeles paper — "County Officials to Talk Rubbish."

While that dollar spent locally turns over 8 times, think of the bills it pays.

Chatting with a number of those who have been attending the Church of God Texas meeting, it was pleasing to learn that they were delighted with this year's meeting and looking forward to next year's.

The sessions, containing many inspirational features, closed Sunday night. Glad your meeting was a success; we'll be looking forward to your return.

Here's one we heard the other day — a small boy's definition of Father's Day. Just like Mother's Day only you don't spend as much on the present.

Always flatters you to have somebody remember your name although you've been away a long time, doesn't it? Homer Porter (of Irish Drilling) while on a recent vacation jaunt with his family stayed at the University of Pittsburgh, which he is a 1928 alumnus. He hadn't been there in 20 years and two profs he came into contact with both remembered him by his name and one of them immediately called him by his first name.

This week we're welcoming to our staff Norman Wright, widely-experienced newspaperman and graduate of Baylor's School of Journalism, as our advertising manager. And we want to extend our very deep appreciation to Rex (Mrs. O. H.) Dick, who—although she had bought half-interest in a local business—worked effectively part-time on the advertising chores until we could obtain the services of a full-time ad manager. We bought it from the Dicks—and they're steadfast and helpful friends.

Urging people not to blow a mental fuse in traffic situations, Safety Analyst Burt Gannon gave pointers through address and movies to Rotary and its guests Monday noon at the Connellee.

Introduced by Program Chairman Frank N. Sayre, Mr. Gannon talked on "What's Wrong With the Careful Driver." He used an "Annoyance Quiz" in connection with his remarks and explained that often those who lose control of their emotions lose control of their cars.

President Bernard Hanna, presiding, read a letter from County Agriculture Agent J. M. Cooper announcing a picnic at the park for Mr. and Mrs. George I. Lane, who are moving to Waco. New member Rev. Richard R. Smith was introduced by Dr. J. H. Canton.

Visiting Rotarians at the meeting were Bob Milligan of Brownwood and Dick Anderson and E. P. Crawford, both of Cisco; Steve Beard with Jim Kuykendall, George I. Lane with Earl Bender and Norman Wright with Floyd Casebolt.

Eastland Rotary tons the district for June with 98.53 attendance. Earl Bender is attendance chairman.

GI Homes Program Is Due Early Start

Early start of the proposed GI homes building program in Eastland is in prospect today.

The site that is expected to be the scene of this construction is the Bob Perkins 8-lot property, in the Connellee subdivision, known as the Connellee place, on Pershing street, it was learned from the Chamber of Commerce, which has been working closely on the project with Builder C. C. Broyles of Abilene, who came here and proposed to undertake it.

"When the deal for the property is closed, it will have the clearance of the Veterans Administration, according to Mr. Broyles," said Chamber Manager H. J. Tanner. "Mr. Broyles is ready to start one — maybe two — immediate."

It was learned that the three-bedroom homes will be $9,000; the two-bedroom homes, $8,200. They will all be GI projects and the plans may be seen at the Chamber of Commerce, it was stated.

"It is our firm belief," said Mr. Tanner, "when one of these homes is built and can be examined, the demand for them will be very definite."

M-Sgt. Cooper At European Religious Event

M-Sgt. Winford Cooper, son of Mrs. E. A. Cooper, 1400 Bassett St., Eastland, recently attended a five-day retreat at the Army's European Religious Retreat House at Berchtesgaden, Germany.

Sergeant Cooper is an ordnance shop foreman in the 7715th Army Unit's Headquarters Company. He arrived in Europe in November, 1952. His wife, Blannie Mae, and daughter are with him in Germany.

Vet Rank and Job Choice Told By AF Recruiter

The United States is now offering veterans rank and job choice. Sgt. Grady Hoyle says that openings are available now for men who were discharged since July, 1951, from any of the Armed Forces.

Under the Air Force build-up all 44 career fields are open and jobs in electronics and jet mechanical skills are critical.

Men who are 17 through 26 and have not seen their military duty yet may apply for enlistment and receive valuable training while they are fulfilling their military obligations, he said.

Sgt. Hoyle says that now more than ever before, "It's know-how that counts and the Air Force has that know-how to offer."

Anyone interested may contact Sgt. Hoyle at the Selective Service board each Monday or come to 102 N. Center Brownwood. All men are asked to bring along their birth certificate and discharge record to avoid delay in enlistment.

Fire Dep't. To Give Boat And Equipment

The Eastland Volunteer Fire Department has announced a project whereby a 14-foot boat, a 14-foot trailer and a 10-horsepower Scott-Atwater motor will be given away about 6 p.m. Sept. 3 — right after the Lake Leon celebration's boat races.

Those participating in this project do not have to be present to be eligible, it was learned. Proceeds will go to buy bunker suits for volunteer firemen.

"Only the paid firemen have these suits," said Fire Chief Billy Johnson. "The volunteers certainly need them because they often run good clothes fighting a fire, if it is one of importance."

County Bar In Tribute Judge Patterson

The late B. W. Patterson of Eastland, former district judge and long-time prominent Eastland County attorney, has been paid high tribute by the Eastland County Bar Association, of which he was a member, in the following resolutions:

TO THE EASTLAND COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION: Your committee, appointed to present resolutions in memory of our late friend and brother, Judge B. W. Patterson, submit the following:

Burette Winston Patterson was born in Stone County, Arkansas, September 1, 1871, and died in Eastland, Eastland County, Texas, July 20, 1955, one month and 11 days prior to his 84th birthday. His family moved from Arkansas to Preckneridge Texas, in 1879, to Eastland in 1880, and to Cisco in 1881. Judge Patterson, as he was commonly called, grew up in Cisco, attended public schools there, and was valedictorian of his high school class.

After attending Baylor University at Waco, he graduated from the University of Texas in 1893 with an LL.B. degree, and was admitted to the Bar in 1893. He practiced law in Cisco from 1893 until 1910 when he moved to Pauls Valley, Oklahoma, where he practiced law until 1919, when he returned to Cisco to resume the practice.

He was elected District Judge of the 88th Judicial District of Eastland County for a term beginning January 1, 1933, and held that office until that district was abolished in September 1945. His first wife, whom he married in 1894, died in 1934. In 1936 he married Mrs. Helen Manton Grimes, who survives him. His survivors include his wife; one daughter Mrs. Dave P. Carlton of Houston; two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Warren of San Angelo, and Mrs. Clyde S. Karkalts of Cisco, and several nieces and nephews.

He was a member of the Baptist Church, in which he was a Deacon, and where he taught a Sunday School class for many years. He belonged to the Masonic Lodge, was a Knights Templar, Scottish Rite, the Shriners, former Noble Grand of the IOOF, past Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, and past president of the Cisco Lions Club.

Judge Patterson was in every sense of the word, a good man, a citizen of the highest type, ever and always standing for what he thought right for his fellow man and for his country. In his nature and disposition he was generous and affectionate. His soul was devoid of coldness and calculating selfishness.

He was actuated by the impulses of a heart as gentle as it was brave, as noble and charitable as it was fearless and true, and his life was always that which becomes a gentleman. He was a man of exalted patriotism and love of country, always true to every principle which he believed to be right, always following the path marked out by his own judgment, with disregard for public opinion or popular clamor.

No one could look at his genial, frank, manly face, and doubt the sincerity of his nature. He bore himself always and under all circumstances as a Christian gentleman. As he walked deeper and deeper into the valley of the shadow of death, with eyes fixed steadfastly upon the light on the other side, those who knew him at this time could well imagine him saying: "Sunset and evening star, And one clear call for me; And may there be no moaning in the air."

Burleson Says "We Can't Live Alone"

Congressman Omar Burleson of this district points out that a nation can not live alone, in this age, in a release received by this paper. The congressman is quoted as follows:

January 17, 1956 will be the 350th anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin. Franklin was a scholar, educator, soldier, inventor, scientist, philosopher, businessman politician, man of God, patriot, and prophet.

Benjamin Franklin, living in another age, would nevertheless have been a fitting figure at the meeting at the "summit" in Geneva, Switzerland. These quotations suggest a mind which reached into the present age. He said: "There is no little enemy."

"There has never been, nor ever will be, any such thing as a good far, or a bad peace."

"I lament with you the prospect of a horrid war which is likely to engage so great a part of Mankind."

"There is little good gained and so much mischief done generally by wars, that I wish the imprudence of undertaking them was more evident."

On preparedness, Franklin had this to say: "Let us beware of being lulled into a dangerous security; and of being weakened by internal contentions and divisions; of neglect in military exercises and discipline and in providing stores of arms and munitions of war; for the expenses required to prevent a war are much lighter than those that will, if not prevented, be necessary to maintain it."

On world cooperation and world leadership: "All Europe is on our side of the question, as far as applause and good wishes can carry them. Those who live under arbitrary power do, nevertheless, approve of liberty, and wish for it; they almost despair of recovering it in Europe; — 'Tis a common observation here that our cause is the cause of all Mankind, and that we are fighting for their liberty in defending our own."

In these preceding words Benjamin Franklin admonishes us of the present age to guard against an isolationism which in the present world is infinitely more impossible than in his day. Even though some of our efforts may be a pure gamble, it is a much greater one to think we can live alone, either militarily or economically.

A few days ago I appeared on the television program, "American Forum of the Air," with three of my fellow Members of Congress. One was from Wisconsin, one from Minnesota, and one from Ohio. The discussion was on the subject of foreign policy, and particularly as it applies to Asia. I expressed a belief that as long as we do not assure the Chinese Communists that we will use the Atomic Bomb in our defense, trouble will not be so stupid as to attempt to match man-for-man in "small" wars. Benjamin Franklin said, "There is no little enemy." It is unthinkable that we would ever again, as was the case in Korea, send American foot soldiers, whose lives are precious, against Asiatic

Chicken Tasty Cooked in Skillet

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

YOU'LL enjoy this fried chicken with mushroom stuffing and rich giblet gravy. It will be economical, too, because broilers and fryers are plentiful and low priced now.

First make this mushroom stuffing. While it is baking, fry chicken a golden brown. Nest the stuffing around the chicken in the skillet. This will make an attractive from-range-to-table dish to be served with lots of gravy.

Another plentiful food, instant nonfat dry milk, is used in both dressing and gravy. The one-pound package makes five quarts of dairy sweet nonfat milk for as little as eight cents a quart, and the handy premeasured package contains three foil-lined envelopes, each of which makes one quart of nonfat milk.

Giblet Gravy (Makes 3 1/2 cups gravy)

Chicken giblets, 1 1/2 cups water, 3 cups liquefied instant nonfat dry milk, 1/2 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon kitchen bouquet.

Simmer gizzard, heart and neck in water about one hour or until tender. Add the liver the last 10 minutes of cooking. Drain, reserve 1/4 cup stock. Chop the giblets. Pour liquefied instant nonfat dry milk into top of double boiler. Sprinkle flour, salt and pepper over surface. Add giblet stock.

Beat with rotary beater until just blended. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly until thickened, about 10 minutes. Remove from heat. Add kitchen bouquet and giblets. Serve hot with fried chicken and mushroom stuffing.

Mushroom Stuffing (Makes 4 servings)

One medium-size onion, chopped; 3/4 cup sliced mushrooms or 2 (3-ounce) cans, drained; 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup liquefied instant nonfat dry milk, 4 cups soft bread crumbs, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 1 teaspoon powdered thyme, 2 1/2-pound chicken, fried.

Saute onion and mushrooms in butter or margarine until onion is tender. Four liquefied instant nonfat dry milk over bread crumbs. Add to onion mixture with seasonings. Toss lightly until blended.

Turn into ungreased (8 1/2 x 1 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch) baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 30 minutes or until stuffing is lightly browned. Serve stuffing with fried chicken and giblet gravy.

An economical meal these days is fried chicken with mushroom stuffing. It's delicious, too.

Double Protection

In an atomic age there's always possibility of an atomic attack. What about a shelter from it?

Of course, absence from the area is the best thing—but next best is the shelter. We've been reading suggestions by the Federal Civil Defense Administration and they point out that your best protection "is an outdoor underground shelter covered with at least 3 feet of earth. This type of shelter is similar to an old-fashioned cyclone cellar. The earth will provide a SHIELD against radiation, cutting the rate to only about ONE-FIVE-THOUSANDTH of the rate above ground." . . . "To be safe from radiation injury you would have to stay in the shelter until the fallout radiation decayed to the point where it was no longer a hazard. This might be 2 or 3 days or more, depending upon the amount and intensity of the fallout in the area."

We have an idea that these shelters will become more and more popular. And why not? . . . They'll serve a dual purpose—the second being, obviously, protection against windstorms.

IT'S THE LAW

HOME ACCIDENTS
"Good ol' Gus" Slack busted around the house making the ice tea and setting out the cold watermelon. "Well, everything's ready," he told his wife, "and it's about time for our friends to get here."
As they sat there waiting for their guests Gus puffed with pride. "We are certainly lucky to have so many friends, a nice home, two fine children and money in the bank."
"Good ol' Gus" didn't know that the next day 13 law suits would be filed by his friends who would be hurt that night falling on the floors his wife had so carefully waxed that day, tripping over throw rugs, stretching their necks on his clothesline, plowing a furrow with their noses in the pile of gravel in his unlighted front yard, burning their hair off their heads on defective wiring, slipping vertebrae when the porch rail on which they were leaning gave away or being half-blinded by firecrackers thrown down the stairs by son Ronald, bitten by Rover, and having their legs bruised and broken by getting tangled up in Rover's leash.
Of course, such a case never really happened but law suits have been filed involving each of the above situations. The genial host is sometimes surprised to find that his guests' gratitude is expressed by filing law suits against him for injuries received in his home.

The law is usually more strict about accidents befalling tradesmen and others who enter your premises in the line of duty so to speak - postmen, laundrymen, meter readers, delivery boys and the like - than it is in the cases of those who enter your home for purely social reasons.
But this does not mean that a homeowner is absolved of all responsibility for injury to his guests. If he knows a dangerous condition exists, he has a duty to correct it and can be held liable for accidents which might happen if he doesn't. For example, in one case a rotted tree branch fell to the sidewalk, injuring a passerby. The court held that the owner was responsible because he knew of the defective condition and should have remedied it.
Businesses as well as homes can suffer serious losses from accidents. A case which happened several years ago will illustrate this point.
Greenthumb entered a hardware store to buy a garden hoe and was struck in the mouth by a golf club being used by Ben Blogun, another customer at the store's invitation. The store had to pay Greenthumb a large amount of damages because Greenthumb had been implicitly invited into the store for the business of making purchase; the store failed to use ordinary reasonable care and to warn Greenthumb of the danger.

Comanche Plans Electric Fair August 1-2

The 1955 Electric Fair, an all-new rural show which has already entertained thousands this year in Texas, will make its appearance in Comanche Aug. 1-2 again sponsored by the Comanche County Electric Cooperative as a part of its annual membership meeting.

Two contests, professional entertainment, exhibits, and free feris wheel rides for the kids will all be a part of the bigger and better "Big Top" show which will take place at Lake Eanes Park.

Co-Op Manager W. J. Parks calls attention also to the important business session at which members will elect directors and hear reports on operations and progress of the Co-Op during the past year.

Parks points out that only once each year do the members of the Co-Op acting as a group have this opportunity to take active part in the business, and he strongly urges that all attend.

Frozen Soups Cool Off Your Summertime Menu Problems

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

SUMMER weather calls for food with delicacy and extra interest. We think that the new frozen condensed soups on the market make wonderful surprise dishes with the minimum of work. Select cream of potato, cream of shrimp, oyster stew or green pea with ham. Combine with other foods, or serve just as delicate soup for hot weather menus.

Shrimp Paprika on Noodles (4 servings)

One can (10 1/4 ounces) frozen, condensed cream of shrimp soup, 1 cup sour cream, 1 cup cooked shrimp (one 7-ounce can), dash paprika, 2 cups cooked noodles (4 ounces uncooked), 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 tablespoon butter.

Combine shrimp soup and sour cream; heat slowly until soup is defrosted. Simmer gently, stirring occasionally until sauce is blended. Add shrimp and paprika. Serve over hot noodles seasoned with parsley and butter.

Oyster-Corn Custard (6 servings)

One can (10 1/4-ounce) frozen, condensed oyster stew, 1 cup cream-style corn, 3 eggs, slightly beaten; 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Heat soup in double boiler or over low heat until completely melted; remove oysters and chop in fine pieces. Mix all ingredients together; pour into a greased 1 1/2-quart casserole. (Sprinkle corn-flakes on top, if desired.)

Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 45 minutes, or until custard is done.

Many readers have asked for a different type of sandwich for summer afternoons. We think this one is not only different but delicious.

Coconut Jam Sandwiches (18 small tea sandwiches)

Six slices white bread, 4 teaspoons softened butter, 1/4 cup raspberry jam, 1 1/2 packages (4 1/2 ounces) cream cheese, 1 1/2 cups shredded coconut, toasted.

Remove crusts from bread. Spread 4 slices with softened butter, then with jam. Put together to make 2 double-decker sandwiches, placing 2 plain slices on top. Cut crosswise and lengthwise twice to make 9 squares. Spread on sides with cream cheese. Roll in toasted coconut.

FROZEN SHRIMP SOUP is the taste-tempting secret of this shrimp paprika. Serve on noodles for welcome summer variety.

NOTE: Raspberry or currant jelly may be substituted for the raspberry jam, if desired.

Daughter of Ex Eastland Couple Weds At Mission

Miss Dorothy Martyn Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thomas Cook of Mission, formerly of Eastland, became the bride of Robert Joe Potts of Weslaco in a double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Friday, July 22. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Potts of Weslaco.

Decorating the altar of the First Baptist Church of Mission, setting for the service, were arrangements of pink chrysanthemums and pink carnations, flanked by pink tapers in floor candelabra against a background of greenery. The Rev. Hal Potts, brother of the bridegroom, was the officiant.

Mr. Cook gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of pale pink tulle, designed with lace-capped sleeves and neck of illusion. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a Juliet cap of pink satin and pearls. Her bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Bill Patterson of McAllen was matron of honor; bridesmaids were Mrs. Joel Austin of Alice and Miss Florence Harwell of Houston; junior bridesmaids were Judy and Joan Bodine of Mission and flower girl was Jill Bodine. All attendants wore mint green cristolite gowns; and they carried bouquets of feathery pink carnations or wore pink carnation headpieces.

Jim Swinnea was best man. Ushers were Joe Cook Jr., Mission; Don McNeely, Weslaco; Bill Cozart, Paris; Alan Potts of Weslaco, brother of the bridegroom; Joel Austin of Alice and Fred Lister of Weslaco.

A prelude of prenuptial selections was played by Michael Wilkominski, violinist, and Miss Sue Garza, organist. The traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and recessional.

Mrs. Cooke chose for her daughter's wedding a blue lace gown, trimmed in bugle beads and her hat and bag were beaded. Mrs. Potts, mother of the bridegroom, wore a mauve lace gown and a jeweled hat. Both wore orchid corsages.

At the reception which followed at the Cactus Tea Room in Mission, the bride's table was centered with an arrangement of feathery pink carnations and pink candles in an epergne. The cake was a pink double-heart confection and the table was covered with a full-skirted pink organdy cloth.

After their wedding trip the couple will be at home in Weslaco. For traveling the bride chose a black polished cotton frock trimmed in satin, a satin hat, red accessories and her corsage was a white orchid. She received her B. A. Degree from Baylor University and taught the past year in the Corpus Christi public schools. Her husband received his B. A. degree from Baylor University, also, and is to enter the Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth in September to continue his studies for the ministry.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCannies of Cisco, grandparents of the bride, and Mrs. Everett Shelby of Weatherford, grandmother of the bridegroom.

RELATIVES VISIT THE W. T. YOUNGS

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Young had as their weekend guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kimble Young and children, Ronnie, Judy and David; their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Aderain Hile and son, Robert, all of Abilene, and the Hiles' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Hile of South Fort Hood, who are there from Abilene for him to engage in ROTC training.

An appreciated scenic card from MRS. GRADY PIPKIN was received by the writer of this column in which she says "We are having a wonderful time, though not as cool as usual." The card shows a vista on the eastern slope of Monument Pass, Colo., which carries U. S. Hy. 50 over the Continental Divide at an altitude of 11,302 feet. MRS. PIPKIN wrote "We crossed this Pass coming to Gunnison and it's a beautiful, wide, safe road" . . . She and her husband are at their summer home at Spring Creek Resort, Almont, Colo., having left here July 1, planning to return in about six weeks.

Another appreciated card was received from MRS. M. G. KEY, showing a scene at Alameda Park in the center of Mexico City noted for its beautiful fountain . . . The KEYS (Mr. and Mrs.) home now, enjoyed the flowers in Mexico City, the colorful shows, tours of the city, exotic dishes, the native shops and all the other things one sees there. "We nearly froze," she said, "it was so cold in Mexico City." She came to work (she is deputy district clerk) Monday wearing hand tooled leather shoes and carrying matching bag, bracelet and matching earrings, beautifully wrought in the South of the Border land . . . They went by Brownsville, Reynosa and Monterrey and returned by Laredo.

Thanks to Mrs. Tom Lovelace Jr. for her note of appreciation and kind words to the editor and his wife for "fine publicity and help on making the water show a success" and success it was, Mrs. Lovelace, for we saw and thoroughly enjoyed the performance of the kiddoes who had been so thoroughly trained . . .

LOIS DUNLAP, teller, Eastland National Bank, talking about the 17 1-4 pound yellow catfish he and a group brought in on another fisherman's line recently at Daniel's Lake, near Breckenridge. It was "quite a thrill." With him were DICK CARAWAY of Jal N. M., DALE LANGLITZ and BILLY HARDIN . . . Even though they could not claim the 17 1-4 pounder, they "caught some nice cat fish."

Convention Of Florists Found Be Instructive

Mrs. Don Parker and Mrs. O. H. Dick of Parker-Dick Floral and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Poe of Poe Floral were in Dallas to attend the 42nd annual Texas State Florists' Convention at the Baker Hotel, July 17-21.

This year's program included a new type of design school produced by Schoolmaster Marty Swartz of Dallas, and commented by nationally-known Miss Tommy Bright of Chicago. The latest styles and supplies to enhance the floral arrangements for sickroom, weddings, parties and funerals are shown at the convention and attending florists are informed on newest and best methods. Like a Broadway theatrical, the convention theme was "Golden Opportunity."

Bud Rogers of San Antonio and Willard Crain of Denver were coordinators and Bill Hoering and Jack Savariese of FTD were sponsored artists. In the design school the display highlight was the "Tables of Songs" feature. Florists attending numbered about 1,200.

While in Dallas they also attended a gala costume party, and two dinner dances, as well as a tea-time style show presented by a famed Dallas specialty store.

The Texas State Florists' Association has a membership of over 1700 owners and employees in leading florist shops throughout Texas.

County Bar -

of the Bar,
When I put out to Sea.
Twilight and evening bells,
And after that the dark;
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.

For Tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place,
The flood may lead me far,
I hope to meet my Pilot face to face,

When I have crossed the Bar."
He was an able, and honorable district judge. As a lawyer he was wedded alike to the ethics and honor of his profession and his duty to his clients, always actuated with such honesty, faithfulness, and impartiality of purpose as won for him the respect, esteem, confidence and friendship of all with whom he was associated, and of the members of the bar with whom he came in contact.

His familiar figure will no more be seen upon our streets, or along the walks of men. We will no more be greeted by the warm clasp of his manly hand, nor encouraged by his counsel, friendship and advice, but he has left with us the example of a life crowned and ennobled by virtues worthy of our emulation. Sustained and soothed by the promises of his faith, he met death with calm assurances, with undoubted hope as to his future, and while it is not given to mortal sight to penetrate the veil which separates this from the life beyond, nor to mortal ken to solve the mysteries of that state of spiritual being which awaits those who enter the bourne from which no traveler has ever returned, still, knowing him as we did in this life, it is our consolation to believe that our departed friend and brother is now experiencing that exalted existence where it is promised that the pure in heart shall see the Father and enjoy forever immortal happiness. Though he is gone from among us, he has left behind him the example and inspiration of a great and useful life, of which we may say: "Were a star quenched on high, For ages would its light, Still traveling downward through the sky, Shine on our mortal sight."

So, when a great man dies, For years beyond our ken, The light he leaves behind him lies, Along the paths of men." The record he has made, the life he has lived, the example he has left us, will stand as a lasting monument to his memory. He is gone from the walks of life, and vacant is his place among us, but his memory is cherished by those of us who remain. Judge Patterson wrought ably and well, made a success in his chosen profession, and accumulated something of this world's goods to leave as a legacy to those he left behind, but, above all, he left a good name. King Solomon said "A good name is more to be desired than great riches," and the priceless legacy Judge Patterson left is a good name, and the highest tribute which we can now pay to his memory is to say that, ever and always he bore in his life the white flower of a stainless name.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in the death of Judge Burette W. Patterson the Bar has lost one of its most highly honored and respected members, a brother whose loss we deeply deplore, our County and State has lost a good citizen, and that we tender to the bereaved wife and family our deepest sympathy in their great loss.

And be it further resolved that a copy of this report be presented to the Honorable Court of Civil Appeals for the 11th Supreme Judicial District of Texas at Eastland, Texas, and to the Honorable District Court of Eastland County, Texas, with the request that it be spread upon their minutes, and that a copy be delivered to the bereaved wife and family.
