

Eastland Echoes

By Casey

THOUGHT FOR TODAY: "Work: The yeast that raises the dough." —(Uncle Mat).

Welcome indeed is a jumbo postcard (size, 7 inches by 9 inches), depicting the White House and received from Mrs. Bob Shoemaker, an Eastland-ex, Arlington, Va. She says: "Dear Mr. Casey: Eastland was my home for many years and my son, Pete Pegues, spent all his school years there and was drum major at EHS for three years, and we receive your paper."

I have recently returned from six weeks in Scotland, England and eleven countries on the continent and, of course, had many papers to read but you spoke often in your column of cards you received. So if you collect them and want to add this one, hope you have one like it. (I return to Texas once a year.)

Thanks, Mrs. Shoemaker; good to hear from you.

A rural yarn we heard:
First Farmer: "We've got the laziest rooster in the world on our farm."
Second Farmer: "How do you know?"
First: "He never crows at sunrise. He waits until the other roosters crow, then nods his head."

Sometimes it looks as if a community makes a lot of effort to bring in industries without commensurate results, but it's the old story of "nothing ventured, nothing gained" — or, perhaps, we might take a more homely expression from old Josh Billings: "The wheel that squeaks the loudest is the one that gets the grease." If we tell enough of 'em, somebody will listen!

To continue: "Big shots are little shots who kept on shooting!"

Our friend Robert Tuley, Abilene district manager for Social Security — whom we knew quite well in his Trinity University days at Waxahatchie — dropped in to see us the other day and showed us an interesting farmer-ranch-

Loboes, Who Open Here, In 2-a-Day Work

An impressive looking group of Cisco High School Loboes this week began training for the 1955 season. Coaches Jay Williams, George Owens and Bill Tate are directing their training.

It is expected that 50 or more will be working out when school begins August 31. Drills will be held twice daily until school opens.

The 1955 squad is composed of 15 seniors, 9 juniors, 8 sophomores and 15 freshmen. The starting lineup will be composed mostly of seniors. The 15 freshmen make up one of the most promising groups to enter high school for several years. The members of last year's Midget team who graduated to the Lobo squad this year are bolstered by several boys who have transferred from area schools. Among these are Randall Hess, Weaver Callaway and Rubin Hurley from Moran. Hess and Hurley are backs and Callaway is a tackle.

The Loboes will play their first game in Eastland on September 9. They have four games at home and six away for the season. Plans call for scheduling eight games for the "B" squad with four on the home field and four away. Conference games this season will be with Graham, Mineral Wells, Breckenridge, Stephenville and De Leon. New to the district are Breckenridge and De Leon.

Driver Education for EHS Is Urged in Strawn Lions Talk

Speaking before the Lions Club at its luncheon on the Connellee Roof Tuesday, Lester Strawn, Texas Highway Patrolman for Eastland County, told members of the club that he could not urge too strongly that a course in Driver Education be initiated in Eastland High School and made an appeal for some local civic organization to get behind the project and push it.

Strawn said it was a matter of record and cold statistics that fewer auto accidents happened among students who had been given Driver Training in the public schools than among any other group.

Wilson and Fry Attend Banking Special Events

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson have returned home from Chautauqua, Colo., after two weeks there.

Mr. Wilson attended the School of Banking at the University of Colorado at Boulder, taking a graduate course in banking. This was his second summer to attend the school of banking and next summer he will complete the course.

The Wilsons' little daughter, Shannon, spent the two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rockwell of Hereford.

David Fry, cashier at Eastland National Bank, will attend the Texas Bankers Conference at the University of Texas Sept. 5, 6 and 7.

The three-day condensed course will cover all phases of banking, adapted to Texas banking, new methods and procedures designed for further efficiency in the banking industry.

Two Countians Recipients Of H-SU Degrees

Two from Cisco were among the 105 graduates of Hardin-Simmons University who received degrees in summer graduation exercises of the school this week.

Mrs. Dorothy Rice Steffy and Mrs. Gladys Byrd, both living in Abilene at the present time, were the Cisco representatives in the graduating class.

Mrs. Byrd received her bachelor's degree as did Mrs. Steffy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Rice of Cisco. Mrs. Steffy was among five of the graduates who received high honors in the exercises.

Dr. E. S. James, editor of the Baptist Standard, and former pastor of the Cisco First Baptist Church, was the baccalaureate speaker and Mrs. R. L. Mathis, president of the Woman's Missionary Union of Texas, was the commencement speaker.

University Head Urges Junior College Start

Logan Wilson, University resident, urged all high school graduates to attend junior colleges for their first two years.

There will be no difficulty in transferring credits to the University, he said.

Aptitude tests will continue to be given, but these are only to eliminate the 5 or 10 per cent that could not pass the work at the University. Anyone who has met the requirements at junior college can easily pass these tests, he added.

Security Man Gives Answer To Farm Quiz

Robert O. Tuley, manager of the Abilene territory of Social Security, here earlier in the week, in the place of vacationing Glen McNatt, field representative, answered a farm social security question.

Question: Will a farmer or farm worker who was issued a social security card many years ago but has since lost his card, be required to get a new account number for his coverage as farm operator or farm employee?

Answer: This farmer or any other person similarly situated will not need a new social security account number. One account number is all anyone ever needs.

The number on the first card that has been set up for him and all earnings reported by and for him during his lifetime will be credited to that account. There has been no other card issued to another person showing the same number.

If a person's social security card is lost or destroyed, he should apply for a duplicate account number card from his nearest social security office. Without a person's own social security account number there is no way to establish social security protection for "him or his family."

Application forms for getting a new or replacement social security card are available at all post offices as well as social security offices.

Public Responds Well In Fire Dep't Lot Burning

Highway Heads Apparently Favor Lake Leon Road

Representatives of both Ranger and Eastland who met with the State Highway Commissioners in Austin Tuesday, to request a paved road from Ranger across Lake Leon were apparently optimistic over the results of the meeting.

The highway commissioners asked for a letter of request from the county commissioners and indicated that construction on the road could possibly begin early next year.

Further details of the progress taken are expected after the representatives meet with the commissioner's court Monday.

The representatives asked for a hard surface road bisecting U. S. Highway 80 1 1/2 miles west of Ranger that would cross Lake Leon dam and join the new lake road recently completed from Eastland, thus providing an all weather road around the lake.

Representatives from Ranger were Joe Nuesse, C. B. Pruet, James Ratliff, and R. V. Galloway. Attending from Eastland were Tip Arthur, Travis Wheat, B. M. Bennett, Judge John Hart and H. A. Tanner.

CO-OPERATION IN SAFEGUARD PLEASES CHIEF

Safety against fires is being well served in Eastland, as the public co-operates promptly in the fire department initiated lot-burning program, according to Fire Chief Billy Johnson.

Around a dozen lots have been burned off this week — the first, in this new anti-fire campaign here in Eastland.

"We're glad to burn off vacant lots or other property, but it's the rule that the owner of the property must be present at the time," said the chief.

He pointed out that some of the grass is a bit green, but that before long the hazards will increase greatly, as hot winds and sunshine dry out vegetation.

"At Ranger," he explained, "Chief Charlie Isbell says they have had several grass fires, already this year. We've had just one, fortunately. Chief Lefty Sublett of Cisco tells us that a house or two burned there last year due to grass fires starting the blazes."

"Incidentally," Chief Johnson said, "we go out on fires in the rural areas 'regardless' and we hope that the county decides to help out the departments in this rural protection."

Ranger Jr. College Registration Soon

Registration for the thirtieth annual session of Ranger Junior College will be held on September 6 and 7.

The 1955-56 term will be ushered in by a largely expanded administrative staff, several new faculty members, and many improvements on the physical plant. These additions were imperative to meet the needs of a rapidly growing student body.

Lake's Namer Is Coming To Celebration

Mrs. Bob Young of Cross Plains, who named the nearby 35-mile-shoreline lake, Leon, is pleased to accept an invitation to attend the Sept. 3-4 opening celebration, she has written the Eastland and Ranger Chambers of Commerce.

M. L. Bird, vice-president of Lone Star Gas Company, wrote that he would "make every effort to be present."

This afternoon the band committees of both chambers will meet in the Eastland C. of C. office. Tonight President Virgil Seaberry Jr. and Manager Tanner of the Eastland Chamber, and Frank Sayre, chairman of the general committee, will meet in Ranger with Ranger C. of C. President Charles Millican, C. of C. Manager Rip Galloway and J. L. McCaleb, general committee co-chairman, to go carefully over celebration plans.

Dr. Roy Wellborne, who comes to Ranger from Texas State College for Women, will serve as dean of the College.

A complete and highly capable faculty is maintained by Ranger Junior College (a pictorial page appears elsewhere in this issue).

Things have really been happening on the campus of RJC this summer. While Dr. Price Ashton had been busy planning the new dormitories, a campus crew directed by W. H. White, M. L. Bailey, and Roy Crawley have been energetically working.

Mrs. N. L. DeFord, past district president and, currently secretary, presided. Mr. Jackson's address emphasized the importance of American Legion and auxiliary work. Miss Caton told of her training in government at Girls State at Austin, where she was elected "county superintendent."

Refreshments of coffee and cake were served. About 25 persons attended.

Local Fans to See New Rules Effects

Eastland football fans watching the games this year will see little difference between the current ones and those played in 1954, but there will be a difference. They've made a few changes in the rules.

The old "hideout" play, for example, has been banned. Time was when a player could hide out near the sidelines, a jillion miles from anybody, and catch a forward pass unmolested. That's out. The new rules say that all players must now be within 15 yards of the ball when it is spotted for play. After that they can move anywhere they please.

Another rule change concerns the "tackle-eligible" play for a pass. Under the old system the end could drop back a yard or two immediately before the ball was snapped, leaving the tackle the end man and an eligible was receiver. This, too, is out. The new rule states that the tackle is eligi-

From S. Dakota Granary Lost Wedding Ring Back To Sheriff

A gold ring in a granary up in South Dakota is like the proverbial "needle in the haystack," says Eastland County Sheriff J. B. Williams, but he got his back. It's his wedding ring, which he lost in 1953.

"To begin with," said the sheriff, "those folks are mighty honest. You can leave expensive tools in an open truck for night after night and nothing happens to them, around Wahpeton, anyway — and that's where I lost my ring."

It all came about during a harvest season. After serving as Eastland County sheriff from 1947 to 1951, Williams took his combine and engaged in harvesting from the flax fields of South Texas, in the King Ranch vicinity, on up into the wheat fields near the Canadian border.

At Wahpeton, he thrashed the crop of Farmer George Redmond, and while unloading wheat at the Redmond granary, his wedding band slipped off his finger, as he had lost weight during the strenuous season.

Mr. Redmond knew he was an ex-sheffer, as well as his name, and was eager to get his ring to him, after finding it, but didn't know Mr. Williams' address.

Lately it was supplied to him by Jess Brown of Rising Star, who has been running his combine at Wahpeton this summer. So Mr. Redmond enclosed the golden band in a friendly letter to Mr. Williams, who, is again serving the county as sheriff.

It's a piece of jewelry the sheriff greatly treasures, for he earned the right to it when he wed Miss Theonia Taylor of Gorman Jan. 1, 1934.

Preparation of Foods Event of TESC Is Held

Well attended, particularly at the afternoon session, the preparation of foods — for freezing feature presented by the Texas Electric Service Company at its office Tuesday offered many practical suggestions.

Introduced by Bill Collins of TESCO, Miss Elizabeth Gunther and Mrs. Frances Rousley, home service advisors for the company, conducted two demonstrations one in the morning, the other in the afternoon.

Featured were demonstrations of the preparation of foods for freezing, the newest materials available for packaging and the cooking of frozen foods.

Deep interest in methods and materials was evinced by the gathering present.

Manager Frank Sayre said that the response to the invitation to attend was deeply appreciated.

Cisco Trounces Eastlanders In Rusty Softball

The "Rusty Nine" softball club, composed of managers of the Little League and Teen-age Teams of Eastland, dropped their first game of the season Wednesday night at Little League Field in Cisco.

The Cisco All-Stars were just a little more experienced than the "Rusty Nine" and after a hard-fought battle finally came out with an eighteen and thirteen victory.

Dr. Ferhan Lund was the starting pitcher for the old men and gave up only a few hits and home runs. Norman Guss was the star hitter, getting one single out of nine times at bat. Joe Manning lasted only three innings because of the long distance he had to walk coming in from left field.

The amazing thing of the game was that there was no one injured; however, the Sheriff's Posee was summoned this morning to tail a few men out of bed.

Saturday night at Fireman's Field the Rusty Nine will play the Cisco All-Stars at eight o'clock. The management says "if you want to see the game of the year, be present."

Plymouth, biggest of the low-price 3, is also

BIGGER THAN CARS COSTING $500 MORE

Get the biggest value in town! You get big-car size, big-car beauty and big-car comfort at the lowest possible price when you choose a big 17-foot-long Plymouth.

Even many medium-price cars (let alone the other two low-price cars, which aren't nearly as long, as roomy, as heavy or as handsome as Plymouth) can't match Plymouth for over-all size and value. In fact, you could spend as much as $500 more and still not get a car as big as Plymouth.

So don't be fooled by misleading claims! Compare price tags and you'll immediately see that, model for model, Plymouth sells for much less than medium-price cars and gives you much more car for your money.

Get the biggest deal in town! With sales piping hot, your Plymouth dealer is able right now to give you the biggest, sweetest deal of the year on a new '55 Plymouth. He's ready to offer you a sky-high allowance for your present car - probably much more than you'd expect!

What's more, he'll be glad to arrange quick, easy financing. Better hurry over to see him now.

Plymouth named "America's Most Beautiful Car" by famous professional artists, the Society of Illustrators

Officers of the West Ward Parent-Teacher Association held a pre-school business meeting recently at the home of the president, Mrs. Richard R. Middleton, 300 S. Dixie. Plans were made for building a P-TA book shelf at the school and forming a permanent file for records. It was decided that the association would order two P-TA magazines to be put on this reference shelf to be used by members of the P-TA.

A discussion of ways to beautify the school grounds led to plans for such beautification. Arrangements were mapped for trying to get 100 per cent membership of mothers of West Ward school children.

Refreshments of Cokes, coffee and cookies were served. Present were Mrs. Frank Sayre, first vice president; Mrs. Wayne Hudson, second vice president; Mrs. J. R. Lusk Jr., third vice president; Mrs. W. M. Brown Jr., treasurer; Mrs. E. C. Hardin, publications; Mrs. Bill Pryor, hospitality; Mrs. M. A. JUDGE TURNER COLLIE of the 91st District Court, who told us when we called at his office recently that the fall term of court will start Tuesday, Sept. 6, and gave us a line-up on various hearings (as published on page 1 of The Telegram the next day), invited us to attend court any time . . . and that we shall do.

Did you know that there used to be two courts here: the 91st and the 88th. . . . The late JUDGE B. W. PATTERSON was presiding judge of the 88th.

Wish we worked for the bank . . . Its employees and their families are all going to The Teahouse of the August Moon at State Fair Park Auditorium Saturday night and dine at a pre-theater supper at The Smorgasbord . . . with the bank as host. . . . This is the summer activity of the bank which twice a year, treats its personnel and their families to an entertainment. . . . Wonder what the winter activity will be. . . . It can't top this one, in my book, MR. WILSON!

Wonder if anyone realizes how much it means to former residents to read The Telegram. . . . So many have visited our office this summer and told us that they "read every line in it" . . . Such was the case in the bank Tuesday when we met MRS. M. B. GRIF-FIN and daughter, GENE, of Lubbock, visiting some of their hometown friends in the bank briefly. . . . she highly commended our staff for "getting so much local news in the paper." . . . Thanks Mrs. Griffin!

MILDRED PITTMAN, back from a two weeks vacation with husband, J. D., saying they drove over the 60-foot-deep hole under Atlanta's heavily traveled Ponce de Leon avenue both Friday and Sunday before the 25-foot wide and 25-foot long hole was discovered Tuesday by accident by gas company employees seeking a leak in a gas main.

"The gigantic hole apparently had been washed away by heavy rains, leaving only a precarious covering of pavement over it on the avenue that handles a peak load of traffic and is a main artery for highway traffic leaving or entering the city from the northeast," said a Georgia paper.

"The gas leak was a miracle in disguise as the four-story deep hole would never have been discovered until it was too late," said the paper, quoting the fire department chief.

Former Eastland Girl Makes Tour With English Workshop

Dolores Warden returned to Fort Worth Friday after a month's tour of the south, east, Canada and the middle west. Miss Warden and her father, Bill Warden, visited in Eastland Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Warden and their son, Guy. She formerly lived in the Warden home, here.

Miss Warden traveled with 36 members of the TSCW Traveling English Workshop which left the campus July 23 on a 5,000 mile tour of literary points of interest in the south and east.

The tour took the class through 23 states with Dr. Eleanor James, associate professor of English, as director of the tour. She was assisted by Miss Mary Nell Odie, instructor in English.

The trip, planned so that the group visited the places that figure in American literature, was through the South to the Atlantic seaboard, New England and down the Mississippi valley. It is believed to be the first traveling class to stress literary America.

Members of the tour enrolled in a TSCW class, "Literary America," which opened July 19 with a four-day series of lectures by members of the English faculty. These included "The Mississippi Writers," by Dr. Eleanor James, "Thomas Wolfe and Stephen Vincent Benet," Dr. Gladys Maddox; "Whitman and Poe," Dr. Aubrey Nell Wiley, and "Emerson and Thoreau," Miss Mamie Walker.

The first area visited and studied was the Mississippi Delta Country including Vicksburg, the Natchez of Stark Young and William Alexander Percy, Eudora Welty's Jackson and Oxford, Miss., home of William Faulkner.

Dean of Women Estella Hefley of the University of Mississippi, former dean of women at TSCW, joined the TSCW group for a tour of the University, Oxford, and the William Faulkner home. The group visited the Mississippi Room of the university library which has an excellent collection of Faulkner material and manuscripts.

The traveling workshop studied in Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia and Washington, D.C. before a look at Philadelphia, New York, the Washington Irving country, the New England shore drive, Boston and Niagara Falls.

At Asheville, N.C., the group was welcomed by Mrs. Mabel Wolfe Wheaton, sister of the author, Tom Wolfe. Mrs. Wheaton and her husband showed the women through the boarding house made famous as "Dixieland" in Look Homeward, Angel. Then the couple went with the group to the graves of Thomas Wolfe and O. Henry.

The class spent two nights in Richmond, Va., and after a tour of that city, the group toured nearby Williamsburg, Jamestown and Yorktown. They especially enjoyed the visit to the Virginia Capitol at Richmond. The beautiful capitol was designed by Thomas Jefferson and the famous Houdon statue of Washington — the only one in existence today that was made from life — stands in the rotunda of the capitol. The Edgar Allen Poe Shrine in Richmond was of special interest to the literary group.

"The Common Glory." On the way to Washington, D.C., Mount Vernon and Arlington National Cemetery were visited, and also the new Iwo Jima statue. In Washington, D.C., they were conducted through the Capitol by Mr. Provence, aide to Vice President Richard Nixon.

The group attended sessions of both the House and the Senate and were greeted by Senator Price Daniel of Texas. One night many of them attended a Navy Band concert on the steps of the Capitol and saw the Vice President. After Washington, they visited Gettysburg, Valley Forge and places of interest in Philadelphia.

In New York City, the group had a three and a half hour boat cruise around Manhattan Island and an all day guided tour of New York. Many went to Broadway shows and Miss Warden and her roommate, Miss Sara Esslinger of Cameron, saw the Pulitzer Prize winning Cat On A Hot Tin

McMurrays Home From Bureau Trip To Florida

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McMurray and daughters, Jane and Janna, have arrived home from a 12-day trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., where they attended the All-Star Farm Bureau Supervisors Convention.

Mr. McMurray, Farm Bureau Supervisor of area 3, which takes in 40 counties in this section, won the trip in a contest by reaching a certain production quota for the first three months of this year.

He and his family met the ten other Texans, who qualified for the trip, at Baton Rouge and they visited New Orleans where they took a lecture tour; the Silver Beaches of Florida, Silver Springs, the great Oceanarium at Marineland, Fla., and Daytona Beach, where they stayed four days at Elinor Village, the resort village which is the scene of the "Mrs. America" contest each year.

They took a three-hour cruise down the Halifax River to the ocean but did not go into the ocean because Hurricane Connie had it churned up and Hurricane Diane followed shortly. For these same reasons, their deep-sea fishing trip was cancelled.

"Connie, came in at Daytona Beach" alright but did no real harm; in fact she saved the city a lot of money because she cleaned up the beaches—a job the city does regularly," Mrs. McMurray said.

About 30 others from the other Southern Farm Bureau states qualified and made the trip to the All-Star Convention.

The Texans went by way of Biloxi, and returned home by Vicksburg, taking five days going out and three days returning home.

Unsung Contributors

THE PROGRESS and the development of our nation is a collective undertaking. It involves millions of people whose contributions are many and varied.

The same basic principle which governs our national well-being applies equally to the economic development of cities and communities.

In each case, there is involved a complicated maze of interdependence... for neither individuals nor busi-

The railroads have been criticized and praised. They have suffered adversity and enjoyed prosperity. In times of disaster, they have rescued the helpless and aided the needy. They have been a tower of strength in war, and a source of strength in peace.

Of the several modes of transportation, ONLY the railroads have Industrial Departments devoted exclusively to (1) serving the commercial and industrial enterprises located on their rails and (2) attracting new enterprises to the communities they serve.

In cooperation with community leaders... and others... our Industrial Department located on our railroad in the various communities of Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico in 1954 a total of 102 new industries, with a plant investment estimated at $110,000,000 and employing 2,780 people.

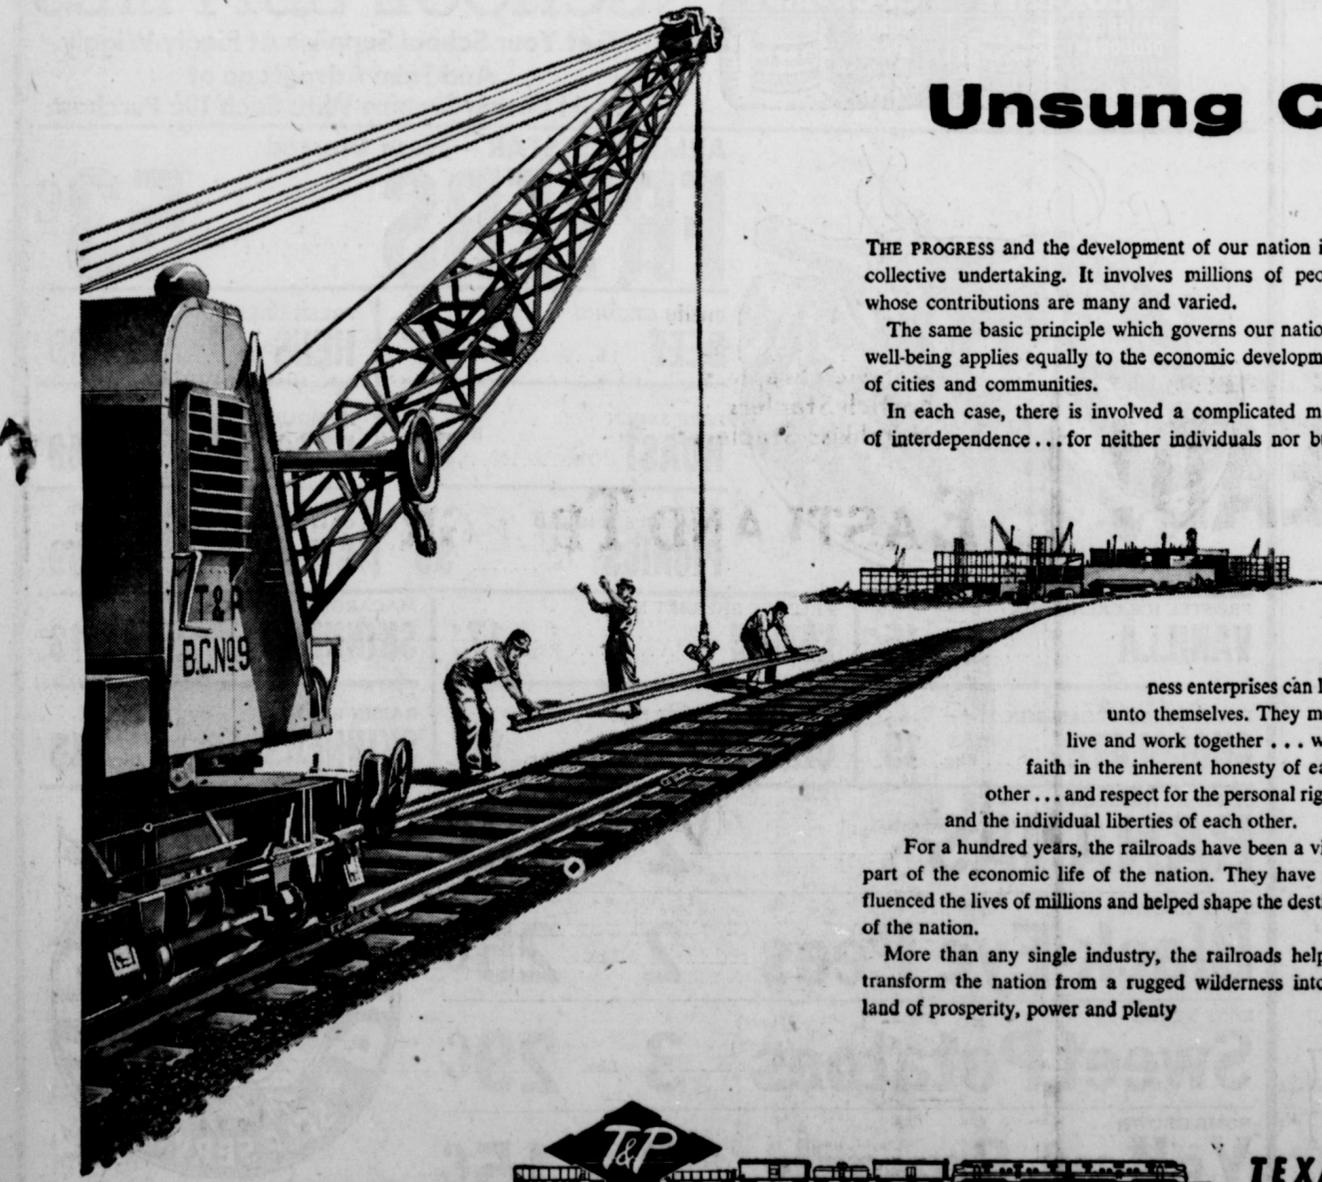

The railroads often are the unsung... and unrecognized... contributors to the economic development of the communities they serve. They seldom, if ever, take credit for securing new industries, even when their contributions are a major factor.

But whether publicly recognized or not, the railroads are mindful of their responsibility to the people with whom they live and work... and serve.

They strive to be good neighbors... helpful and understanding.

That is a sound and rewarding policy. It is the kind of policy the men and women of our railroad live and work by.
