STRAY DOGS IN EASTLAND TO BE EXECUTED

Dog Owners Must Buy License Tags To Save Canines From the Dog Catcher.

There are many stray dogs in the city, according to Chief of Police Elmer Lawrence, and City Manager H. O. Tatum has given orders to have them run in and executed. It is insisted that stray dogs are a nuisance to the people and a misery to themselves. All dogs without licenses are to be considered stray dogs, for it is believed that dog owners who think enough of their canines to wish to keep them are willing to buy license tags. These may be obtained from City Secretary Craig for $1.50 each. They are made of good metal and said to be quite ornamental, so that any dog might be proud to wear one. This is additional value to the protection it gives the dog.

"Forget-Me-Not" Sale To Help the Disabled Veterans

Labor Federation Chief Addresses American Legion

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 10.—Continuation of the friendly relations between the American Federation of Labor and the American Legion for the promotion of interests of the common people was urged here today by William R. Green, president of the labor federation, in an address before the 10th national convention of the legion. Green invited the legion to send a representative to the federation's annual convention at New Orleans, November 19. He said the federation opposes any revision of present immigration laws to permit a larger number of aliens to enter the country than provided under the present law. He added, however, that the federation would urge the next Congress to amend the law to place families of aliens in a preferential position in the quota standings.

CHARITY FUND TO BE RAISED IN EASTLAND

Thanksgiving Offering Will Be Sought To Provide United Charities With Means To Give Aid.

The executive committee of the United Charities held its annual meeting Monday in the Methodist church. The attendance was large. It was decided to increase the committee, now composed of representatives from the various churches, by adding representatives of the Civic League, of the Rotary and Lions Clubs, of the Chamber of Commerce and the city manager. The Rev. Frank E. Singleton is president of the United Charities. His report showed that every call on the organization coming within the scope of charity had received attention and been properly cared for. The treasurer's report showed that no campaign for funds had been made since the initial drive when the United Charities first began to function in Eastland.

It was the opinion of members of the committee that many calls for help were likely to be made during the coming winter and that the treasury should have at least $1300 at the outset to carry through faithfully until next spring. It was decided to ask those citizens who had contributed to the United Charities when it was organized to renew their pledges, or to make new pledges, and, so far as possible, to pay them in cash.

Hickman Resigns Himself To Death

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Calif., Oct. 10.—Calling Warden James Holahan to his cell in the San Quentin "death row" today, William Edward Hickman, condemned slayer of little Marion Parker, denied reports that he had attempted suicide and said he was ready to take the full penalty for his crime. The young slayer asked warden Holahan to give the statement he had prepared to the United Press immediately. In it Hickman said he realized he had been a "guilty sinner" and desired punishment for his deed. The statement in full: "I know very well I have been a most guilty sinner. Nevertheless, I have confessed by sins and am now trying to do what is right. I am sorry for having offended God and Man. "I desire punishment and ask no personal favors. I am thankful that the supreme court has given me time to prepare for death. Please ask the people in the name of God to pray for us condemned men in San Quentin prison. Also glory be to our Father in heaven and on earth good will towards men." (Signed)—William Edward Hickman, Number 45,041.

CANDIDATE HAS WORRIES WHICH IRRITATE HIM

Campaign Does Not Go Well, He Makes Mistakes and His Managers Accentuate Them.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER WASHINGTON.—Senator J. Boomboom McWhorter, whose principal worry in life for several years has been the grave question whether his meat and potatoes would come out even, is now beset by trials and tribulations calculated to make most of his private speeches unfit for publication. The senator's campaign for reelection is not going so well. The fact that McWhorter is himself no longer certain of victory was demonstrated the other day when, after his opponent had claimed the election by a majority of 80,000, the senator himself only claimed it by 75,000.

McWhorter's manager, of course, hastened to cover up his gesture of defeat by asserting that the senator hadn't seen his opponent's claim or he would have raised him 5,000 or 10,000. When the national committee heard of Senator McWhorter's troubles they advised him that if he would avoid all national issues in his campaign and say nothing about the presidential candidates, he could have anyone he wanted to go on a stump tour with him. Senator McWhorter agreed and wrote back suggesting Clara Bow, but has had no reply.

Of course, the McWhorter misfortune aren't all his fault. Someone should have told him when he addressed an audience of Italian-Americans two weeks ago that the bulk of them were anti-Fascists. Then McWhorter wouldn't have launched into such fulsome praise of Mussolini and the meeting would have been concluded without the aid of the entire local police force. It was McWhorter's campaign managers who suggested in advance of a great mass-meeting a few days later that it would be a graceful tribute if everybody should bring a flower or two to cast at Senator McWhorter as he

KILLS GIRL AT HER OWN WISH, TELLS POLICE

Kansas City Youth Stabs Fiancee and Then Carries Body To Police Station.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 10.—His fiancee asked him to kill her and early today Glenn Jenkins, 20, of Kansas City, stabbed Marie Young, 21, to death, then drove to the police station with the body and gave himself up. Just before catering police headquarters he drank poison, but was not seriously affected. "I am ready to be hanged," he told officers in explaining he had killed a girl. He then fell unconscious but was revived by a physician. "I knew her a year and a half," Jenkins told T. A. J. Mastin, an assistant prosecutor. "The first time I saw her, she asked me to kill her. She once said she would not mind being choked to death. When we saw a motion picture of a woman drinking poison, she said she would like to die, but not that way." Late last night, Jenkins rented a motor car, went to where his fiancee lived and then they left on the fatal ride. They were to have been married Aug. 15, but lack of funds delayed the wedding.

News Writer Picks "Hero Of Game"

The Mavericks have won almost as much acclaim in defeat as the Backaroos received in victory. The Ranger Times states: "I was picking a 'hero' of the game, we would unhesitatingly choose Connie Smith, the Maverick's 130-pound quarter back. His passing was brilliant, his punt returning almost invariably gave a thrill, his tackling was deadly accurate and he did most of the punting and ball-carrying for Eastland. The little lad was badly hammered, yet played the entire game and, to the very end, was the embodiment of gameness."

Three Theatres In San Antonio Face Striking Staffs

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 10.—Musicians of three downtown theatres today struck in sympathy with machine operators at three shows. Stage hands joined the strike yesterday. Theatre managers worked frantically today to recruit musicians and operators from Dallas and Houston in order to remain open for the large throng of legionnaires in the city.

He was made chairman of the Nationalists Government council with the title of president. Chiang will head a definite form of government which for the present, at least, will be based on administration of executive legislative and judicial functions by five board of councils.

NEW YORK CITY FACING FAMINE DUE TO STRIKE

Truckmen Refuse To Work and Foodstuffs Spoiling At the Railroad Terminals.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Unless a strike of approximately 700,000 truck men can be settled within the next 24 hours, New York is going to wake up hungry Friday morning, and will find itself unable to do anything about it. Strung along the tracks at the 11 railroad terminals in the city today there are trainloads of fresh fish, vegetables and milk which will stay there until someone can be found to truck them to market. There is enough food on hand to feed 6,000,000 persons here for two days. Most of the food trucks are operated by the American Railway Express company and officials of the concern are working frantically to get the trucks in operation before the huge supply of food stuff spoils.

FREDERICKSBURG, Oct. 10.—A man and a woman are held in the county jail here awaiting examining trial today on charges of kidnaping and attack in connection with the recent disappearance of a 19-year old Mexican girl of Stonewall, near here.

The ruthless tactics of her captors was told by the girl, following her escape after nine days imprisonment. The girl said she accepted a ride with the man and woman and, instead of depositing her at her intended destination, they carried her away in their car. During her imprisonment, the girl said she was attacked nine times and when she threatened to scream, her captor covered her with a pistol. The examining trial Wednesday will be held before Justice of the Peace A. W. Petnetucky.

Dr. Hugo Eckener May Make Flight In Dirigible, Which Is To Start Thursday Morning.

FRIEDRICHSHAVEN, Germany Oct. 10.—The Graf Zeppelin is ready to start for the United States at 8 a. m. tomorrow. Dr. Hugo Eckener, trusting in the stability of his 770 foot air monster and anxious to prove that he is more than a "fair weather" sailor, decided late today to make the attempt if it is at all possible.

Weather reports which postponed yesterday's scheduled sailing were more favorable. An adverse change overnight might cause Eckener to reverse his decision, but he was determined to go if he possibly could. Eckener believed the trip could be made in 60 to 70 hours.

The Larsen will clear Los Angeles harbor after 4 p. m., bound for New Zealand, where Byrd will be reunited with other members of his expedition who sailed from the eastern seaboard on the City of New York and Eleanor Bolling, designed as the mother ship of the trip. During all that time Byrd and his fellow workers will be engaged in mapping the uncharted region of the South Pole and studying ice, wind and weather conditions.

THE AUTO'S DEVELOPMENT.

We seldom realize the marvelous mechanical advances represented in the average, medium-priced automobile of today. A British inventor claims he has invented a mechanism that will do away with the gear shift in molins-propelled autos. With his motor there will be no gear shift and no clutch. The driver will have only a foot brake and a foot throttle to worry about. He need never take his hands off the steering wheel. The car will start faster and pick up speed more rapidly, its inventor says, and will be much better on hill climbing.

Now the interesting thing about that is this: this invention, if it is all that its inventor claims, will not be received half so eagerly now as would have been the case a decade ago.

For, when you stop to think about it, the modern automobile's gear shifting is not a matter of the average motorist thinks twice about. It is done almost without effort. The modern car steers so easily that there is no risk in removing one hand from the wheel. Its pickup, nowadays, is as good as anyone could ask, and it is a poor car that cannot take the average hill in high.

Yet it is only a few years ago that the auto without a gear shift would have been received as a boon from heaven. It used to take a good deal of plain physical strength to shift gears. The plummy cars of a decade ago were hard to steer, and taking one hand from the wheel created a real risk. If a motorist climbed any sort of a hill on high he braced off it for months afterward, and there was no such thing as a speedy pickup.

All of this illustrates the advance in auto design and construction. It is undoubtedly true that the thousand-dollar car of today is a better automobile in every way than the $5,000 car of a dozen years ago. It will go faster and farther, it is easier to operate, it uses less gas, it is more silent and it does not need so many repairs. The comparatively poor mug today can afford a better means of conveyance than could the millionaire a short decade ago. The automobile industry, when you stop to think about it, is giving us pretty good value for our money.

DELIGHTFUL BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION COMING

Friday evening, from seven to nine o'clock, a unique birthday dinner will be spread in the lower assembly hall of the Methodist church. Mrs. E. T. Murray will represent the engagement for Father Time, who will arrange a dinner date for his patrons at reduced rates, for if they are all seated according to schedule, the ship will be too heavy laden at the lever end of the hull. Many committees are looking after the different departments for the feast, and the refreshment has a committee all to itself, which promises excellent and luscious results.

LEAGUE PROGRAM AT CHURCH

Workers of the Methodist church were entertained last Sunday evening by a drama, presented by the Junior League in a truly artistic way. The parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins was dramatized, and most effectively developed through the aid of Mrs. Frank Singleton, Mr. Mason of the faculty of Eastland H. All those taking part of virgins, were dressed in white robes and carried the picturesque light of flambeaus.

SUSAN STEELE BIBLE CLASS TO HOLD ELECTION

All members and invited are urged to be present at the business and social meeting of the Susan Steele Bible Class, which will be held at the residence of Mrs. R. F. Jones, on North Seaman Street, tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The election of officers for the ensuing year will take place, and all are urged to be present for this occasion.

GUESTS FOR DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephen had as their guests for dinner last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Jones, Alois Unkart of Strawn, Misses Clarice Gardner and Ina Ruth Kelly. After dinner, the evening was spent in informal bridge until the party adjourned to the Elks Club room for minstrel rehearsal.

MINSTREL

In this day of advanced and modern ideas, people are very rarely surprised at anything, but Brother "Back" the director of Minstrel Flashes for the Elks, states that the theatre patrons of the oil belt will witness a novel and unique novelty when right before their eyes six of their favorite chorus girls are transformed from white to black, and then presto, they are white again. This is one of the John B. Rogers Producing Company's greatest hits.

The idea was first presented in a big Broadway production, and it was only after considerable persuasion and expense that they obtained the secret, which they now take great pleasure in presenting their many patrons. It is very amusing to hear the funny and varied comments as to how it is done, some even declaring it is done with a "black spotlight," which Director "Back" admits must be the last word in electrical devices, since it is something that even he has not been able to see through.

To the tuneful strains of Virginia Warren's inimitable "Mississippi Mud," the clever dance routine for the biggest musical hit of the season will be given by Hazel Tilley, Boss Marlow, Frances Harris, Janita Matthews, Ola Alice Rutledge and Mona Bartledge. It is the personification of gracefulness. After considerable discussion it was decided that the price of admission would not be raised, but left the same as in the past years. The Elks will continue their policy of giving the best for the least cost of anything in the way of their entertainments. The members of the cast and all Elks are pushing the advance sale of seats, and since this year's performance is to be given only one night in Eastland, things point to a sell-out.

Walks 48 Miles To Attend School

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo.—After Ivan Conley, 15, had walked 48 miles to and from school the first two days he was enrolled in the Teachers' College Training School here, authorities investigated and found part-time work and a place for him to room and board near the institution. Instructors noticed the youth appeared exhausted on his arrival at school each morning and placed the matter before school authorities. The walk required 10 hours each day. Conley said he had not been offered lifts in either direction.

Mr. Phillips said that while he would like very much to attend the meeting it was probable he would be too busy to get away.

VARE DAUGHTER TO TAKE STUMP IN HOME STATE

But Father, recovering From Illness, Will "Superintend" Speeches.

By HILLIER KRIEGBAUM, United Press Staff Correspondent. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Miss Beatrice Vare, attractive and elderly daughter of Senator-elect William S. Vare of Pennsylvania, will take her father's place in the state campaign for Herbert Hoover. When the senator-elect is recovering from a long illness at his Atlantic City home from a stroke, his daughter will carry his message of republicanism to the Keystone state voters. It will be her first public appearance in politics. However, she gave a radio address in 1926 to aid her parent's senatorial campaign that year.

The tall, striking young woman said she was a member of the Vare family should campaign for Hoover. For years, the name of Vare has resounded throughout state political circles. And Miss Vare wants to carry on the traditions of the family even if her father cannot personally be an active campaigner. There are two daughters in the family.

Miss Vare has been preparing her speeches at the Vare Atlantic City home. She will speak in various parts of the state for Hoover. For years, the name of Vare has resounded throughout state political circles. And Miss Vare wants to carry on the traditions of the family even if her father cannot personally be an active campaigner. There are two daughters in the family.

"I am not as wise politically as father," confessed the young woman. "He is going to superintend the speeches." Her program was given as support for Hoover and the entire republican ticket; modification of the prohibition laws to allow light wines and beer; a high protective tariff, and a continuing of the present prosperity.

The story is circulated that the senator-elect told his daughter during the campaign for his post that if he disapproved of her radio speech he would disown her. After listening in at his own radio set, he was enthusiastic in praising his daughter's effort to aid his campaign.

HOW WILL THEY VOTE?

By FRANK SULLIVAN William Allen White has retracted most of the charges he made against Governor Smith and has fled to Europe. This reduces the number of those who will vote against the New York Governor to the following: Herbert Hoover, Senator Curtis, Mrs. Clem Shaver, Bishop Cannon. Calvin Coolidge cannot be included in this list as, to date, he has not expressed any preference for Hoover or Smith. He may vote for Smith. It is understood he has a secret deal with Smith whereby the latter, when elected, is to appoint Coolidge postmaster of Plymouth, Vt., in exchange for Coolidge's vote. Coolidge is also to be given the privilege of sending all his letters through the mails free of charge. Senator Curtis is doubtful, too. It is rumored that he may split his ticket, voting for Smith for Presi-

BACKFIRE, PISTOL IN A SCENE

Man Thinks Boys Shoot; He Gives Chase With Pistol.

Three youths, enroute from Dallas to Abilene, last night learned in one lesson, that it was not quite the correct thing to make a car backfire just as it passed a horse and cart. But the instructor—the man who taught the lesson—was placed in jail for his mode of dispensing knowledge. The three boys made their automobile backfire and backfire loud just as it passed a cart containing a man and woman, police later learned. The automobile continued on its way. Before it reached Ranger, however, a man on a running-board of another car waved them to stop. They did. Reaching into his shirt as he dismounted from the commandeer-automobile, the man withdrew a pistol and brandished it into the faces of the three suddenly pale-faced boys. "What do you mean shooting at me back yonder," the man inquired in no uncertain terms. The charge was denied. After much arguing, the boys were allowed to continue their trip and the man sat down to wait for the horse, cart, and its lone woman occupant.

This Statesman Absent-Minded

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 6.—Eliel Lofgren, Sweden's minister of foreign affairs, has a reputation for absent-mindedness, and a new box in his pocket illustrates his falling was brought out in the recent election campaign. When holding the post of minister of justice in a previous Swedish cabinet, he was commissioned to bestow a decoration upon a contractor of a small city in southern Sweden. At a formal dinner Lofgren made a speech and at the end presented the guest of honor with a small leather case. The recipient opened it but hurriedly closed the lid, and put the box in his pocket, thereby earning the esteem of his fellow guests as an extremely modest man.

The next morning, when the cabinet member started his shave, he was surprised to find instead of a razor in his shaving kit, a bright and shining star of gold and enamel which he thought he had presented to the contractor the night before.

SECOND PARLEY CALLED TO AID COAL INDUSTRY

Twenty Nations to Be Represented at Bituminous Fuel Conference.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 9.—Whether recent scientific discoveries in the use of bituminous coal will aid the coal industry to save itself from threatening ruin is a question that may be partially answered here next month when scientists and engineers of 20 nations meet at the second international conference on bituminous coal. The meeting will take place during the week of Nov. 19, under the auspices of the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Mrs. L. De Anda, 2524 Darwin Ave., Los Angeles, Cal., writes: 'My kidneys didn't act right and my back was really lame and weak. I felt tired, had dizzy spells and suffered severely from pains in my back that kept me from doing much around the house. One box of Doan's Pills did me of the trouble and I haven't been bothered since.'

the Pittsburgh district again have focused the attention of capitalists as well as scientists and engineers upon the increasing ills of the industry.

More than a hundred scientists will address the conference on subjects concerned with improved utilization of coal.

The production of gasoline and other spirits from coal, the use of pulverized coal in internal combustion engines and in ship propelling engines, the production of synthetic rubber from coal, the manufacture of artificial fertilizers from coal, the propelling of automobiles by means of compressed gas packed in small tubes placed at the side of the car, the piping of coke oven gas from the mouth of the mines to cities hundreds of miles distant, and the use of coal tar and other by-products of coal, are a few of the topics to be discussed.

According to the preliminary program, Germany with about 20 representatives, will send the largest delegation to the coal congress, while France, with 15, England with 15 and Canada with about 10, will have comparatively large numbers of delegates and speakers. Other countries that will be represented include Italy, Austria, Belgium, Chile, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Japan, Jugoslavia, Norway, Poland, Rumania, Russia and Spain. About 70 of the 110 to 120 speakers listed will come from countries outside of the United States.

Sports Matter

For a long period he was not rated as a top-notch major league manager, but Bill McKechnie led the St. Louis Cardinals into the 1928 world series.

Back in 1925 McKechnie won a pennant and a world's series with the Pittsburgh Pirates but didn't receive full credit for the feat because of the presence of Fred Clarke on the bench. Clarke won three successive pennants as manager of the Pirates in 1901, 1902 and 1903, and was considered by many a big factor in the success of the Corsairs in 1925.

Within a year after the world's series of 1925, McKechnie found himself without a job. A revolt led to the summary banishment of Max Carey, Carson, Bigbee and Babe Adams and the release of McKechnie. He finally landed a berth as coach of the Cardinals under B. B. O'Farrell and when O'Farrell resigned after one season, was appointed to succeed him.

His position is similar to the one occupied by Miller Huggins before the Yankee manager came into his own in 1926. He is actually one of the best managers in the majors but few believed it or cared to admit as much. Ten days before the close of the 1928 season, with the Cardinals two games in the lead, more than one St. Louis fan voiced the opinion "If the Cardinals had a good manager they'd win, but with McKechnie—I don't know."

PORT WORTH.—Coaches Matty Bell and Ed Kubale were well-pleased with the showing of the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs in their game with the Simmons' Cowboys last Saturday. ### What Doctors Think of the Laxative Habit

In all history, no Indian was ever known to have constipation. Nor does YOU. He chewed the bark of a tree called cascara. Today, we have the candy Cascaret.

Cascaring the bowels never forms a laxative habit. If already formed, an occasional Cascaret will usually break the habit. For cascara strengthens the muscular walls of the bowels, and their need of any aid at all grows constantly less. What other cathartic has this characteristic? The writer knows of none.

An evacuation brought gently about by cascara will, nine times in ten, be followed by full functioning of the bowels on the morrow—and for days after. For there is no REACTION as with salts, or any of the purgatives that go to the system like a bullet.

The ideal laxative—and the tongue tells us candy Cascarets are its ideal form. At least a million people know this; what a pity there are any who don't. Especially parents; because children love to take a Cascaret. After which, for days-on end, the bowels will be seen to work of their own accord.

The only habit from cascara is that of regularity! Cascarets tone and train the bowels. But at the first sign of returning sluggishness another Cascaret is as effective as the first.

There isn't a druggist who hasn't Cascarets, so WHY experiment with laxatives?

COME SHOP WITH MISTRESS NELL

WELL, my Dear, hasn't this week passed SWIFTLY. You know last WEDNESDAY I showed you my little SHOPPING GUIDE—Well I have been SO BUSY with this and that, I had visited anyone.

I did visit Mr. Nemir's store and Mr. Powell at the Quality Cleaners and MY! I was so PLEASED—but here are my NOTES:

A BIG STORE VISITED

After a week in Eastland I am much pleased with my choice of West Texas towns. And I must tell you of my trip to a large department store—two blocks off the square, on paved street, a large fifty-foot front, plenty of parking space with large and well decorated show windows, a credit to any city.

These are the outstanding features that tone notices before they have hardly parked their car in front of this big store. On entering the store I found a well lighted store, saw goods piled high noticed many familiar brands of nationally advertised merchandise. And at one side a large console model Atwater Kent Radio with a sign on it saying "This machine free to the person receiving the most votes."

All of these go hand in hand with good business and reasonable prices, so I at once turned to notice prices before getting back to the ready-to-wear—there they were showing reductions on many articles. Then to my surprise some of the newest New York styles in fall frocks and priced as low as $9.95, while other very serviceable frocks may be had at $5.95.

I am going to insist that my friends visit this store—Nemir Dry Goods Store.
