COACH SHELTON

Maverick Coach Carrol Shelton, chief speaker at the Lions Club luncheon on the Connellee Roof Tuesday, told his listeners that Eastland had about a 50 per cent better High School football club this year than last, and that the Mavericks would have a much better season, but he declined to say they would win the district championship.

The coach said that while the Mavericks were a year older and a little better and a little heavier, other clubs in the district enjoyed the same advantages, and there was tough competition ahead for all the teams.

Coach Shelton noted that all of the Mavericks had a greater spirit of competition this year than they (Continued on Page Four)

104 Join 1st Baptist Church In Last Year

The annual "letter" of the First Baptist Church was read and approved by the First Baptist Church last night. This letter is an annual summary of the work of the church submitted to the Cisco Baptist Association. Among the many interesting facts revealed was that 104 people had united with the church in the last twelve months. These additions bring the membership to 1,030. There are 821 enrolled in Sunday School and 330 enrolled in Training Union. The Women's Missionary Union has a membership of 148 and the Men's Brotherhood has an enrollment of 45. The total gifts of the church last year reached $41,122.00. Of this amount $16,248.00 went into Missions. Vacation Bible school enrollment was 270 including a mission school at the Colored First Baptist Church.

Other highlights of the letter showed that the Rev. Mr. Kimbler was called as pastor in December; Gayle Bowen was called as Music and Educational Director in March; Rev. James Fleming was called as associate pastor in charge of the local mission in June. During the year the church obtained another fifty feet of frontage on West Main for the mission and built and paid for a $3,500.00 addition to the mission. A $2,000.00 remodeling project on the three nurseries in the main building has just been completed. The Sunday School will become fully graded on October 1 and under the leadership of A. J. Blevins (Continued on Page Six)

THOUGHT FOR TODAY: "A secret to a woman is not worth keeping or too good to keep." — (Uncle Mat).

Folks are considerably steamed up about the Lake Leon celebration this week-end and, from the planning, we believe they're going to have a big time, too. . . . Quite a number have invited out-of-town company to the festivities and no doubt the guests in our midst will be well entertained. . . . We all want them to see and enjoy our fine lake and the hospitality of our community.

Everything Set For Lake Leon Opening

Projects for the Lake Leon celebration are rounding into shape, reports heard by the general committee Tuesday night in the Ranger Chamber of Commerce building indicate.

The bathing revue committee plans a meeting at the lake tonight to install a floor over the floats which will be used as the contestants stand.

A 20 foot ramp and a 20 foot dock are to be placed in the lake Friday afternoon, the boat racing committee reported.

A maintainer is now at work preparing the road to the boat pit and the band committee indicated that they had secured enough chairs to seat the special guests and the three visiting bands.

The group of committeemen accepted a proposition by Joe Collins giving him permission to take visitors on a pleasure cruise down the lake for individual fees. Profits will be divided with the Ranger and Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

LEON PARKING

An opening having been made in the fence, there will be free parking for 700 to 800 cars on the spillway at the Lake Leon celebration this week-end. The area is reached just before reaching the dam from the north side. The road over the dam itself will be closed Saturday.

Boys, patterning the course of the boats entered in the races, will be placed in the lake Friday. The boat excursions will be available (Continued On Page Three)

Last year she was runner-up in the Miss Breckenridge Pageant and this year received the title.

Policy Meeting Of Bureau To Be Held

County Farm Bureau President Mitchell Campbell tells of a forthcoming policy development meeting which the bureau will hold soon in a letter to members. The directors will set the date Sept. 15. His letter:

"Are you willing to turn over the operation of your farm to a stranger and have him tell you what's good for you? I don't think you are. Conditions aren't, quite that bad yet, but there are plenty of non-farm groups in our country today who do think they know what's good for the farmer, better than you do.

"I know of no time in the history of our country when the need has been greater for us as farmers to be organized and willing to work in our organization. We are living in an age when almost all people, regardless of their business or occupation, are members of organizations for the purpose of representing their particular business or individual group. In Washington, there are over 300 national organizations with headquarters there, fifty-one labor unions and an estimated 20,000 people in so-called private enterprise.

"These different groups are in Washington to influence Congressmen and legislators to pass legislation that will protect and promote their particular interest. There are approximately 400 to 500 lobbyists in Austin for the same purpose. These individuals are not concerned about the welfare and promotion of your business as a farmer, although many are there for the selfish purpose of promoting their interests at the expense of the farmer.

"Our Farm Bureau was very successful this year in passing many pieces of beneficial legislation in both our state and national capital. Also many pieces of harmful legislation were defeated that would have cost you and me many dollars in the future.

"In order for us to continue to be effective in Washington and Austin, it is going to be necessary that you and every member of our Farm Bureau do everything you can to make the policy development phase of our Farm Bureau program better.

"As I mentioned above, the things Farm Bureau will fight for in Austin and Washington are decided by you and other county Farm Bureau members throughout Texas and the other forty-seven states and Puerto Rico. The date for our policy development meeting here in Eastland County will (Continued On Page Three)

Arrangements Are Announced by Supt.

By Floyd W. Casebolt

All Eastland public schools will launch into the new year's schedule Tuesday, according to Supt. Wendell Siebert.

Junior High School Principal M. M. Sheffield has announced that Junior High School pupils will register Friday from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.

For high school students, pre-registration was held last spring, thus schedules are set. At 8:10 a.m. Tuesday the first assembly of the high school will be held in the auditorium.

Junior high also will start its daily schedule at 8:10 a.m. Tuesday.

Both elementary schools—West and South Ward—will begin classes daily at 8:15 a.m.

Superintendent Siebert announced that a general faculty meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Monday in the high school building. School buses will make the same runs as last year beginning Tuesday morning, with the vehicles due to arrive at the high school at approximately 8 a.m.

Lunchrooms will be operated at the high school and the two ward schools as usual. In charge will be: High school lunchroom—Mrs. Gerald Wingate; South Ward, Mrs. Lee Horn; West Ward, Miss Franks.

Pre-registered through August, 50-plus 6-year-olds are lined up for the first grade. About ten more are expected. Siebert said it will be necessary for them to register in the business office at the high school prior to Tuesday.

Enrollment at high school is due to come near to raising the school from the A to the AA conference. The superintendent said "we're guessing 210 to 220, whereas 225 would put us in Double A."

"Incidentally," he added, "the word keeps going around that boundaries likely will be ordered redefined in September so that schools with 200 would be in Double A. However, we hear also, that if this is done, it is likely that the bracket just above would be dropped back to 375."

The negro school, like the white school, starts Tuesday morning, probably with 30 to 35 students, likely including several in the upper grades from Cisco and Ranger, as was the case last year.

PICTURED ABOVE is Miss Sammie Bell, who will represent Cisco in the bathing revue to be held on September 4 in connection with the Lake Leon celebration sponsored jointly by the Eastland and Ranger Chambers of Commerce. Miss Bell, a 1955 graduate of Cisco High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bell of Cisco. She was named Miss Cisco during the Cisco Kid Fiesta. At present she is employed in the offices of Eastland County Tax Assessor-Collector Stanley Webb.

Preparation For Mav Season Are Moving Ahead Rapidly

By NORMAN WRIGHT

Eastland High School is working double time this week in an effort to get all the new seats laid in Maverick Stadium before the first game of the season with Cisco on Friday, September 9. The school board got behind in the work of replacing the seats due to the fact that they had tried to get redwood lumber for the project and had been promised redwood on three different occasions by mills who could not come through with delivery.

The board finally settled on stadium pine, a grade of lumber that has been treated under pressure and pressed for special use as stadium seats, and the lumber arrived Tuesday afternoon.

When asked if the new seats would all be in by game time with Cisco, Superintendent Siebert said they would or he would leave town. About two-thirds of the West stands are getting new seats out and out, and the best lumber that was removed from the west side was moved across the field for patching on the east side.

Siebert said everything would be ready for the opening game, including installation of a public address system, and it is expected that every seat in the stadium will be filled for this initial contest.

Coach Carrol Shelton has had the Mavericks doing some pretty rugged practice work this week, and it will be climaxed with a scrimmage session with Comanche on Friday afternoon at Comanche, about 5:00 o'clock.

The Junior High School squad also got down to work this week under Coach Dale Biggs. Biggs was J.H.S. coach at Comanche for three years and is quite experienced in working with the younger lads.

However, Coach Biggs is having his troubles. He can't find a house for his wife and two little girls.

EHS Band To Meet 9 A. M. Friday At Hall

All Eastland High School Band members have been requested to meet in the band hall at 9 a.m. Friday, as preparations are beginning for the season.

"We are still without a band director in our faculty," said School Supt. Wendell Siebert, but, fortunately, the Rev. Richard R. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church, has agreed to pinch-hit as bandmaster until we engage one, regularly. I understand he has had experience with bands at Dallas and in the Randolph Air Base Band in wartime."

Supt. Siebert said that it is important that work by the band begin at once "as we have a home game—with Cisco—Friday of next week."

Sweetheart of Lions Receives Gift At Meet

Miss Helen Taylor, Lions Club Sweetheart for the past two years, was presented with a beautiful Samsonite wardrobe case at the Lions Tuesday luncheon in appreciation of her services over the past twenty-four months. Miss Taylor leaves for Baylor University in Waco in about a week.

Lion "Pop" Garrett made the presentation and praised Miss Taylor for her unselfish service to the club while serving as its sweetheart. She has seldom missed a luncheon, playing the piano for all the meetings, and representing the club on many occasions. She is the Lions Club entrant in the Lake Leon Bathing Beauty Revue.

Miss Taylor will be succeeded as sweetheart by Miss Lou Ann Corbell.

"Beauty For Beauties" Will Be Seen, Lake

"Beauty for the Beauties" will be the order of the day at Lake Leon at 5 p.m. Sunday when the bathing revue gets under way as a climax of the two-day opening celebration.

A stage setting equaling a Hollywood production has been prepared by the Bathing Revue Committee and will be wheeled into place for the final event. The stage, consisting of two huge truck trailers placed end to end, will be fifty feet long, with a smaller stage extending out into the crowd of spectators. The sides of these trailers will be draped with fish netting and decorated with driftwood and marine cutouts.

As a background for the stages, a professional artist has been engaged in painting huge reproductions of national sports magazine covers with marine and lake decorations.

The stage settings have been hidden from the public view but those who have seen them have said that they leave nothing to be desired as a background for the beauty pageant.

W. H. Boon's Funeral Rites Are Conducted

Funeral services for the late Walter Hill Boon, 73, who died at his home in Eastland Monday, were held Tuesday afternoon at Hamner Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. Richard Smith III of the Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Harvey Kimbler of the First Baptist Church, conducting.

In his eulogy of Mr. Boon, the Rev. Mr. Smith compared him, in patience, to the Biblical character Job, praising his fortitude and cheerfulness, although he had been ill and hadn't walked a step in 24 years.

Palbearers were: Floyd McBee, Aubrey McBee, Wiley Harbin, Clyde Denton, all of Eastland, and Millard Slaughter and Robert L. Slaughter, both of Cisco.

Government Report
Traces Drouths Toll

Farm land in Eastland County consumes 611,200 acres a recent report by the Bureau of Census of the U. S. Department of Commerce shows.
Naturally, one of the biggest harvests on this acreage is pen-nuts—a total of 23,515 acres.
However, the overall total harvest has fallen from 25,027,241 pounds in 1949 to 5,831,570 in 1954.

There were 241,244 bushels of oats threshed or combined last year as there were 55,147 acres of sorghum type harvest used for grain or for seed.
Yields of last year and those of 1949 reflect the long drouth period in the governments four-page statistical report.

Total farm yields in some instances have been cut as much as 75 percent as compared to those in 1949.
However, in the livestock and poultry industry, increases and decreases tend to balance the scale.
One big change was noted however, in the increase in the turkey trade in the past six years. Last year 96 turkey farmers raised 105,516 turkeys while in 1949,
127 turkey farmers raised only 12,080 birds.

There was $1,041,857 worth of cattle sold last year, 131,418 pounds of mohair was clipped from goats in the county.
There is 680 acres of irrigated land in the county and 408 farms report the use of mules or horses exclusively. However, 947 farms use the tractor entirely and 386 farmers make dual use of the tractor and horses or mules.
Average size of the farm is 285.5 acres and the average land value is $45.51 per acre.

Former Eastland
Advances In
Hwy. Department

The 8-column headed page one story in the Athens Review, Athens newspaper of August 26 reads
"Resident Engineer Located Here"
The story's sub-head says "Will Bluff Jobs."

In the first paragraph: "District Highway Department Engineer A. C. Gentry of Tyler said Friday that David W. Hogan, formerly located at Palestine, had established offices in Athens as resident engineer to supervise improvements on West Corsicana in this city and the construction of a Trinity River crossing at Porter's Bluff."

After seven paragraphs explaining the work to be done there one reads the following: "Hogan, with the department about 10 years and a graduate of A&M College, has been assistant to the resident engineer at Palestine during the construction of a Trinity River bridge in Anderson County. He and Mrs. Hogan and their two children are residing at 712 E.
College.
"The resident engineer's office is temporarily located in the court house, and an office with larger floor space is being sought. Hogan succeeds B. H. Balfour, who was transferred to Austin several months ago."

Former Rangerite
World Champion
To Enter Speed
Boat Races, Leon

A former Ranger boy will return home this weekend a world's champion!
Earl McGill, a former Ranger and Olden resident and a world's champion speed boat racer, will be here for the Lake Leon Regatta Saturday, he said today in a special notice to this newspaper.
McGill, who races from his home in Corpus Christi, this year set a new record average of 50.420.

He won his world championship race March 27 of this year at Sunset Lake in Dallas.
McGill nearly failed to qualify in the big event race, however, almost slipping into the water on several occasions. Dallas News sports reporter, Jim McKone, said,
"he drove almost all the way with the throttle wide open. Several times his boat, C-61, bounced into the air like a PBY taking off. But McGill managed to wrestle the wheel under control by taking the turns wide for a better high-speed angle."

His average speed of 50.420
m.p.h. for the two five-mile heats set a world record for Calass D. runabouts. It broke the record of 48.413 set by A. C. Huff, also of Corpus Christi, in 1953.
The McGills moved to Ranger in 1910 and both Earl and Charles, a brother, were born in Ranger.
The family moved to Olden in 1934 where both boys attended school before moving to Corpus Christi in 1936.

Sons of T. J. McGill, who will accompany the boys on the trip for the races at Lake Leon, the group will enter three boats in the regatta. They will be a D-Hydro, B-Runabout and their D-Runabout which holds the world championship and also the five mile closed course record.

Rules of the Lake

There are many things a lot of people can do to make Lake Leon afford its maximum of service.
For example, care should be taken against polluting this important body of water. And in the line of neatness, all of us who visit the site should be sure that we don't leave a litter to mar the appearance of the environs.
Then, too, it is important that the rules be abided by.
They have been established and publicized for definite and vital reasons. They're entitled to be respected.
So—let's truly appreciate this fine asset of ours and, in connection with it, play the game fairly, at all times. Give it a chance to function as it is intended.

Policy -

to be set at a directors meeting Sept. 15.

"At this policy development meeting, we will have some factual information concerning the problems we are faced with in Austin, Washington, and here in our own county, but having the information will not solve our problems. We must have you and the other members of our county organization to discuss this information and see what we should recommend as a county Farm Bureau to help solve these problems. I cannot over-stress the importance of this meeting and the importance of your attendance to help it a success.

Sincerely yours,
Mitchell Campbell
County Farm Bureau President
P.S. I am enclosing a list of some of the problems that we will discuss at the meeting. Look them over and come to the meeting with any suggestions that you might have that would help solve the problem.

1. Do you think we as farmers should have to pay a federal gasoline tax on gas that we use in our tractors? Many of our Congressmen do.

2. Do you think the feed control law in the State of Texas should be a law to protect the manufacturers of feed or us as farmers and ranchers?

3. Do you think we as citizens should have the right to work without having to belong to a union. Fortunately, we in Texas have a law that allows us to work without belonging to a union, but there are approximately thirty-one other states that do not have such a law, and organized labor recently stated that no state would have such a law in the near future. How are we going to retain this right?

4. Another very important problem facing Texas farmers, since we grow a large per cent of the basic crops such as cotton, wheat, etc., is what should we do with the acreage taken out of production due to allotments of these basic commodities. Should we put them in soil building crops, cash crops, or what?

5. Do you think we should have allotments on grain sorghums. If so, how should allotments be figured?

6. Do you think a farmer that owns a pick-up and has it registered with a farm license should be able to use the pick-up as a passenger vehicle for his family. Under the present law he cannot.

7. Do you think farmers should be able to continue to get Mexican laborers out of Mexico when there is no help available on our country? Organized labor doesn't think we should.

Policy Development Discussed By Farm Bureau Group At Brownwood

Local, state, and national issues affecting agriculture and methods for holding successful local-level policy development meetings were the topics discussed at the District 7 Farm Bureau meeting held in Brownwood Hotel, Brownwood, Monday, according to Mitchell Campbell, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau. B. J. Gist, District 7 Director, presided at the meeting.

Issues which were discussed were those expected to come up in the next sessions of the state legislature, and in the national congress. Eastland countians who attended the Monday meeting were Ray Norris, Sec. - Treas., ECFB; O. C. Stewart and John Love, Policy committee members, who participated in the discussions during the day.

The meeting was one of a series being held over the state during August in connection with the Farm Bureau's annual Policy Development Program.

So-called "Kitchen Conferences" as a means of local and neighborhood group participation was one suggested method which came out of the caucus, as explained by a field representative of the Texas Farm Bureau. Farm Bureau's policies are made at the "grass roots" and policies adopted at the county, state, and national conventions this fall will guide the organization through 1956.

Some of the issues discussed were Federal - State relations in Education, Administration of National Farm Program, State Water Development Program, Feed Control Laws, right to work laws, Federal - State relations in highway construction, and refund of state taxes on non-highway-used gasoline.

Cheaney Chatter

Mrs. Bill Tucker

Home again, after a very interesting trip to the 19th annual meeting of the National Home Demonstration Council at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, in Chicago. The ten Texans, including this writer, helped to swell the attendance to 2139, registered from 44 states, Porto Rico and Hawaii. Three foreign countries were also represented by Mrs. Alice Berry, president of Associated Country Women of the Queensland, Australia; Mrs. Hugh Sommers, Ontario, national president of Canadian Women's Institute; and Dr. Fikeet Silistire, Ankara, Turkey.

Reports on national programs of work were presented by state and regional directors and revealed how closely the clubs throughout the nation were developing and carrying out plans and projects set forth by NHDC. The Illinois women proved delightful hostesses in planning hospitality, comfort and recreation for the many hundreds who came to the convention.

Illinois Night was a riot of colored hatted girls with balloons, taking part in the program of games, stunts and skits. The Illinois girls did a good job.

Noted speakers were introduced at each session. These included Donald Buck, Safety Director, Dept. of Army; Jennings Randolph, assistant to president, Capital Airlines; Mrs. Alice Berry, ACWW, Australia; Evelyn Mills, Duvall, Ph.D., Chicago; Frances Scudder, director, Div. of Home Economics program, Federal Extension Service, Washington, D. C.; and the national president, Mrs. Homer Remsburg of Maryland.

The Sunday evening vesper service for the visitors was a high-light even, long to be remembered, and was concluded with a candle-lighting ceremony in which hundreds of tiny flames were lighted until all present were included. The only anti-climax that happened, happened to me. When the time came to light my candle, it had no wick, and out of the many hundreds present, my candle had no light. Now, I am not superstitious, but it was an eerie feeling.

Just let me add that I enjoyed my trip. It was educational. I met new people and saw a lot of the evidence of good work of oth-state homemakers. Being in Chicago, the Windy City, was a new experience. But I still like Texas best, and our own San Antonio will host the NHDC convention next year--1956.

AROUND the TOWN

By Fay

Water is clearing up nicely at Lake Leon; settling has taken place after the rains and our beautiful lake is sparklingly, invitingly attractive and characteristic of the "western scene" . . . for our visitors Saturday and Sunday . . . and we are having some from out-of-town, the J. RAYS from Waxahachie and, of course, the visiting folk from the profession . . . and we are looking for a number from the "fourth estate" . . . we hope it will be much like going to a press convention, which is always the "nth" of the "nth" with us.

And the doctors and lawyers have been invited to JUDGE TURNER COLLEGE and DR. R. C. FERGUSON'S new cabin on the lake from 3 to 5 Saturday. . . Did you know there were 36 attorneys hereabouts on that list and we don't know how many doctors? . . . and just lots of natives have invited houseguests for the weekend.

The numerous festivities have been listed elsewhere in The Telegram and we do not intend to miss a one. We will be there with our camera!

An orchid to MRS. KENNETH JAMISON, secretary of the Red Cross, for giving us an orchid for a story about the Red Cross need for disaster relief. . . She said it brought her a check for $100 from an Eastland person, a gracious, charitable, Christian woman, whose name we do not have permission to use but whom we know and admire. . . An orchid to this fine woman for making the prompt response to the appeal with a check labeled for "disaster relief."

CHAIRMAN STANLEY WEBB is delighted, too, we know.

Summer At Col. Resort Like A Reunion With Far-away Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pipkin are back home from their annual summer vacation at Spring Creek Resort, Almont, Col., 7 miles from Gunnison.

First they went to Idaho Falls, then to Sun Valley for a few days and from there to Yellowstone and thence to Spring Creek Resort. They were accompanied by Mrs. Pipkin's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Courtney of Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. Pipkin lodged in the cabin they have occupied summers for the past 10 years; and the Courtneys in the cabin they have used the past four years. Enticing place is Spring Creek Resort with its 21 cabins in a circle in a picturesque spot where the temperature registers 40 to 60 degrees nights and doesn't get too hot in the daytime—and intriguing, too, is its summer population of personages from various places in Texas and other states who go there every summer.

In this way, Eastland's "Grady and Clyde Pipkin" have become "neighbors" and close friends of 20 interesting families most of whom have been going there every summer the past decade, just as the Pipkins.

They were gone seven weeks.

Good study habits are easier to form...

when LIGHT is RIGHT for homework!

Your school-age youngster will form good study habits more quickly when lighting is right for homework. Good lighting aids concentration . . . makes homework seem easier . . . helps develop good study habits that can contribute so much to future success. Check the lighting under which your child studies. Make sure there is enough light and the right kind of light to prevent eyestrain and fatigue.

See your dealer now for the lamps and right-size bulbs you need. He'll gladly help you with suggestions.

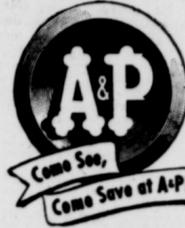

A 150-watt bulb is recommended for best light from a table study lamp. The lamp should be placed close to the work area. A diffusing bowl is recommended to soften the light and prevent glare.

Two wall lamps with 100-watt bulbs in diffusing bowls may be used against a light-colored wall or tackboard. This arrangement leaves entire desk top free for books and work papers.

FRIEND OR FOE?—Private First Class James Sullivan of the U.S. Army's Jungle Warfare Training Center near Fort Sherman, Canal Zone, introduces a box-constrictor to some newly-arrived soldiers—who do not seem too "pleased to meet you" about the situation. To old hands at the center, reptiles are just another facet of jungle living to which all soldiers must become accustomed.

Lomax was a veteran of World War II, and a member of the Cisco First Methodist Church. Following the war he returned to Cisco and entered the electrical contracting business. Some four years ago he moved to Springfield and at the time of his death was employed by the Damron Electric Company.

He had been in a Springfield hospital for treatment but had been released a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lomax had just returned from a visit to see their son and family. Funeral services were held in Springfield sometime Wednesday and the body was brought to Cisco for services which were held at 4 p.m. Thursday at Wylie Funeral Chapel. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery. The Rev. Raymond Burton, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and the Rev. Dick Crews of Pampa, former pastor of the Cisco First Methodist Church, officiated.

Pallbearers were Raymond Beams of Ranger, Robert Donovan and Troy Stewart of Cisco, Blake Stephens of El Paso, Spurgeon Parks of Breckenridge and Coy Warren of Abilene.

"GOVERNMENT OF MEN" INDEPENDENCE PROTESTED

What do we mean when we say that in the United States we have a "government of law" and not a "government of men"? Basically we mean that we have certain individual rights, guaranteed by our federal and state constitutions and laws, which may not be denied by any governing body.

The early American colonists had their fill of government by men, and the Declaration of Independence, signed 179 years ago, set out their complaints against that type of government and revealed their belief in a principle which we now accept as basic to our American way of life.

The indictments set out in the document against King George III of Great Britain charged him with numerous violations of that principle. Among the complaints enumerated are the following:

"He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people." "He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent for laws for establishing judiciary powers."

"He has made judges dependent upon his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries."

"He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good."

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation: . . . For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury; For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offences: . . . For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments; . . . For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever."

Our forefathers who subscribed to the principles of the Declaration of Independence were willing to fight for their beliefs. The Revolutionary War followed, dragging through weary years of suffering and suspense. Each of us takes pride in their eventual triumph over gigantic obstacles.

In 1787, when the framers of our Constitution met at Independence Hall in Philadelphia, where the Declaration of Independence had been signed 11 years previously, they set to work to create a system of checks and balances in government which was to permeate the fundamental theory mentioned in the preamble of the earlier document:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

"That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed;

Some 5 years later, the first ten amendments to our Constitution were adopted at one time, specifically detailing various basic civil rights stemming from the underlying theory of the Declaration of Independence.

Our courts day by day guard these rights for us.

"Mummy, what happens to us if the bomb drops?"

She looks to you for a real answer. She knows what she must do when the sirens sound at school. But what happens if they sound when she's at home? Will you be ready, like teacher is? Ready to protect her from harm? Ready to help her if she is hurt?

An atomic blast is something like a tornado, a fire and an explosion all rolled into one. Any of these may happen any day. They do happen every day, somewhere. But when they happen all at once, lots of people get hurt. Everybody needs help at the same time—and it may be hours before it comes to your home.

U. S. Civil Defense, working with doctors and atomic scientists, has developed a list of "must" disaster first-aid supplies. These few simple items may already be in your home or, if not, you can get them at any drug counter. For the sake of your children, your neighbors and yourself, these supplies should be in your home—and you should know how to use them.

BE SURE YOU HAVE THESE OFFICIAL DISASTER FIRST-AID ITEMS!

Luscious Blueberries Star in Desserts Other Than Pie

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

THOSE luscious, giant, cultivated blueberries, most of them from Michigan, can put color and flavor into your salads and desserts.

Blueberry Ice Cream Sauce (4-6 servings)

Simmer 1 pint (2½ cups) cultivated blueberries in ¼ cup water for about 5 minutes. Add 1½ cups small, dry bread cubes, without crusts; ¼ cup sugar, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind, and 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Place on lowest heat for 20 to 30 minutes. Serve with vanilla ice cream, plain cream, or sweetened, whipped cream.

Blueberry Ambrosia (6 servings)

One-third cup boiling water, 4 sprigs mint, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 cups fresh cultivated blueberries, 1 to 1½ cups shredded coconut. Pour boiling water over mint and steep for 5 minutes. Strain. Add sugar and stir until dissolved. Cool. Alternate layers of blueberries and coconut in serving dish. Pour mint sauce over fruit. Chill. (Note: For variation use fresh fruits, such as apricots, pitted Bing cherries, grapefruit, honeydew melon and cantaloupe).

Blueberry Plantation Salad

Crisp lettuce, cottage cheese, large, cultivated blueberries; fresh peach half, salad dressing. Arrange crisp lettuce leaves on individual salad plates. Place scoop of cottage cheese on each leaf and heap blueberries on top. In the center of the plate put a fresh peach half, cut-side up, and fill with berries. Serve with mayonnaise or any favorite fruit salad dressing.

Blueberry sauce for ice cream is a delicious, seldom-used topping with which to surprise your family one of these days.

IS NOW HIGHLY FORTIFIED WITH PROTECTIVE LEVELS OF VITAMIN D
Increase Your Milk Profits Control Milk Fever

Calving time is a critical time for a good dairy cow. A mineral shortage results in milk fever. The mineral in the feed for the dry cow should be in balance. Even though the mineral is in balance and adequate, the cow cannot use it unless she has an adequate supply of Vitamin D.

With good cows, every pound of flesh you put on during the dry period enables the cow to produce 25 lbs. more milk during the lactation period.

The mineral requirements for individual animals vary considerably, therefore it is advisable to provide RED CHAIN STOCK MINERAL. Free Choice in Self-Feeders.
