Political Pot Coming To Boil

With the filing deadline less than three weeks away (February 4) Political races for some county offices are starting to shape up.

Four candidates have announced they will run for the School Superintendent position that will be vacated by retiring Superintendent O.L. Stamey. A contest has also developed for the County Treasurer's office.

The latest candidate to file for County office is Dick Foster of Gorman who will challenge incumbent Mrs. Ellen Justice for her County Treasurer seat.

Foster is present Precinct Three Commissioner who will lose his job next year because of the county's redistricted commissioner precincts.

Mrs. Justice, a resident of Cisco and long time county employee has been re-elected County Treasurer for the past few terms.

The only other contested race at the moment is for the Precinct Four commissioner's post. Here Bill Childers will face fellow Ciscoan Clarence B. Dill, the incumbent.

Other incumbents who have filed for office Judge Scott Bailey and Precinct 1 Justice of the Peace L.C. (Wells) Dalton.

O.L. (Lee) Cantrell, Mayor of Ranger, has announced his candidacy for County Commissioner of the newly redistricted Precinct 2.

District Clerk Joe T. Gray of the 91st District Court has announced his intentions to run for re-election.

In other state races, State Rep. Joe Hanna and Congressman Omar Burleson have announced their candidacies for re-election.

Mr. Gray said that he will issue a formal statement at a later date.

He is a native of Eastland County and a 1931 graduate of Eastland High School. He graduated from Texas A&M in 1937 and is a Certified Public Accountant. Gray is a member of the Texas Association of Public Accountants.

Eastland Firemen responded to a three alarm fire Tuesday afternoon shortly after 5:00 at a mobile home on North Green Street. The fire erupted from a hot water heater and spread into the ceiling and wiring of the house. Firemen had the fire under control with very little loss in a short time.

Superintendent for the past eight years. Alton Roan, who retired from Cisco Junior College faculty after five years as director of the college stage band and college entrance counselor.

COMES WORD from the Civic League to all who planted trees and shrubs during the recent beautification: best by putting water on these plants so long as our present rainless conditions continue. It's been a long time since it rained - and these new plants need moisture.

CHAPARRAL CONSTRUCTION Co. of Eastland has informed us that they will contribute a day's labor or a yard of concrete toward the construction of a sidewalk at the Elementary School. The Lions Club is promoting such a safety walk, and the Eastland Telegram would gladly add another yard of concrete. How about you? Otis Coleman is Lion Chairman for the project.

PRETTY POSTCARD from the Rev. Ben Marney recent visitor in Jerusalem and the Holy Lands. We're anxious to hear of his trip. Brother Ben is pastor of First United Methodist Church. Other church news: Rev. Harry Grantz, well-known hereabouts, has been called as pastor First Baptist Church, Breckenridge.

WORLD FAMOUS Chocolate Candy goes on sale by Eastland Maverick Band members beginning Jan. 25.

CONGRATULATIONS TO the Eastland School Board for new contract signed with Supt. Wendell Seibert through Jan. 1977. He and the staff he maintains are the kind of school house people any town can be mighty proud of.

Joey's Pizza Opens

A brand new food business will be open in Eastland this weekend. Joey's, the county's first true pizza parlor, officially opened its doors for customers Wednesday at the corner of Lamar and Commerce.

However, owner Joe Bowles has been letting potential customers sample his wares all week. Informed tasters say that his fresh baked pizza is o'kay.

He believes that Eastland needs more places with different kinds of food and a different mood. The business will be a one man operation for awhile. "I'm going to be the cook and chief bottle washer", he admitted. Eventually it will be geared for two people.

Eastland's pizza chef will concentrate his talents on one product, to start with. He believes the quality and freshness of a restaurant's food is lost if they try to specialize in too many products.

Bowles has been on the run the past month getting his pizza place ready to open for business. He has been around pizza places for years and even went down to Houston and trained with a major company for awhile on the art of cooking and serving the tangy meal.

He quit working for Coca-Cola to go into the food business, working for them 8 1/2 years and traveling around Texas.

Hours will be from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday thru Thursday and from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., Friday and Saturday.

By opening in mid-morning Bowles hopes to provide downtown merchants, customers, and office workers a place to take a break, have a cup of coffee and "chew the fat".

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, Ben Franklin - - And tip of the hat to Eastland for the spectacular publicity garnered this past weekend in the widely-distributed Southwest Scene Magazine of the Dallas Morning News, and its cover-story feature of Mrs. Marene Johnson, her famous stamp mural window at the post office, and Eastland, Statesman Ben was born this date, 1706, and the beautifully written story by former Eastlander Betty Ecker, and this photo by News Staffer Richard Pruitt, make for a wonderful birthday notice for Ben and tourist - invitation to all to visit Eastland.

New School Hours Effective Monday

The Eastland School Board approved new school operating hours proposed by Supt. Wendell Seibert because of Daylight Savings Time at their regular meeting Monday night.

Under Seibert's plan, high school and junior high will begin classes at 8:30 a.m. and let out at 3:45 p.m. Students in elementary school will begin classes at 8:45 a.m. instead of 8:15 and will let out at 3:45 p.m.

The new time schedule will go into effect Jan. 21. This schedule will probably last through mid-March.

Present at the meeting were F.L. Spurlen, Lee Williamson and Mrs. Dick Hodges, who requested that the school board make the changes in the schools' hours of operation because of darkness under the present schedule.

In other action, the board agreed to make $3,300 worth of repairs on the school's band hall. Materials will be purchased and repairs will be made in the summer months.

Funeral Services Held Wed.

Highway Commission Lowers Speed Limit

AUSTIN - The Texas Highway Commission set a statewide maximum speed limit of 55 miles per hour, effective at 12:01 a.m. Sunday, Jan. 20.

The action was taken in keeping with the law passed by the recent special session of the Texas Legislature, empowering the Commission to set lower speed limits to comply with federal energy saving actions.

Under the terms of the Emergency Highway Energy Conservation Act signed by the President Jan. 2, a state not establishing a 55 m.p.h. maximum speed limit would not receive its share of federal highway construction funds.

Now When You Take A Bible - It's Okay

Churches of the United States and Canada are joining hands with the World Home Bible League in an effort to place a copy of Reach Out, the New Testament portion of The Living Bible, in every motel room on this continent, according to the Rev. John DeVries, international director of WHBL.

The project is about two years old at this point and has been set up in 32 states and three provinces. Of the 1,200,000 motel rooms in the United States, 200,000 have had Reach Out placed in them.

Paradoxically, the aim of the project is to have transients take the New Testament with them, and to encourage Bible reading in this way. One month this summer 100,000 copies of the modern English New Testaments were taken by tourists. Printed on most hotel Bibles are the words "Please Leave In Hotel Room."

By the end of 1974, DeVries says the league plans to have contacted all the U.S. motels. An annual turnover of more than three million New Testaments is anticipated.

Inserts in each copy of Reach Out invite tourists to take the New Testament with them and to enroll in an interdenominational Bible correspondence course sent out from the local church which distributes the Bibles. Over 10,000 people enrolled in the Bible course in that month.

The World Home Bible League is an interdenominational Bible distribution agency with headquarters in South Holland, Ill. It was founded in 1928. Today its annual budget is more than three million dollars, and the league is working in 50 countries around the world.

The World Home Bible League, in cooperation with the New York Bible Society, is responsible for the publication of 95 per cent of the translations produced by Wycliffe translators.

During the next five years the World Home Bible League is undertaking a campaign to bring a gospel portion of every literate person in India. The organization is a service agency which works through existing churches and mission points.

Reach Out is a paraphrase of the original New Testament translated by Dr. Kenneth Taylor, who heads Tyndale House Publishers which produces this version and The Living Bible. Taylor spent 14 years in paraphrasing his Living Bible, which now has 12 million copies on the market.

The effectiveness of the Bible distribution ministry is seen in this true story: A rather discouraged and lonely young serviceman was spending his last night in the U.S. in a motel room in southern California. He noticed an unusual looking New Testament called Reach Out on the bedside table. Curious, he began to read. It was illustrated with modern pictures and, to his surprise, the text was in modern English, too, and he understood it.

Later, the church which had placed that Reach Out in the motel received this letter.

"Thank you for leaving the new Bible in the motel. It brought me closer to God at a time when I needed Him most. I have read the first 25 chapters of Matthew and can't seem to take my eyes off the Word.

"Please send my wife a copy of Reach Out. She divorced me for what I did to her before I left. She didn't think I would change. Bless you people for giving me a chance with God again. I hope my wife and daughter will benefit from Reach Out as much as I did."

Churches interested in this ministry receive an attractive manual and a cassette commentary on the manual, without charge, from the World Home Bible League. After listening to and reading the details, the church makes a decision to participate in the motel program. A charter is signed and the church applies for a territory and an initial order of materials is sent.

About a month later one of 15 full-time representatives throughout the United States and Canada contacts the church and offers additional help.

Gordon Spot

by DeMarquis Gordon

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Testing Laboratory has released a summary of soil test results for Eastland County. The summary includes samples tested between January 1971 and July 1972.

Of the 124 samples tested, 74 percent were either low or very low in potassium. Most soils are low in nitrogen, therefore it appears that many Eastland County soils are deficient in nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium.

However, this summary does not tell about your soils. For such information you need to have samples tested from each field at least every two or three years if you are going to keep up with changes taking place in the soil due to cropping and fertilization.

Now is a good time to collect soil samples for testing. Act early and plan next year's fertilization to take advantage of plant foods in the soil. Act now to allow more time to find the fertilizer you need. Phosphorus can be applied well ahead of planting while nitrogen can be applied after soil temperatures drop below 50 degrees F. Efficiency from nitrogen fertilizers is reduced when warm, wet conditions prevail between application and planting time. With an anticipated short supply of some fertilizer materials, soil tests, early planning and early application will be more important in 1974 than in recent years.

Farmers and ranchers of Eastland County are urged to inspect their grain storage facilities to determine if stored grain pests are damaging feed and seed stock held over through the winter months. Frequent inspection of grain storage bins is a good practice even though the bins may have been properly cleaned before grain was stored during the summer months. Eggs of stored grain pests are commonly deposited on grain in the fields before grain is harvested. The infestation is transported to storage and develops rapidly during the winter months.

Stored grain pests damage grain by consuming the entire kernel or by damaging the seed germ resulting in seed that will not germinate after planting. Livestock may also refuse to eat feed stuffs that contain high numbers of stored grain insects. According to Area Extension Entomologist Dr. Clifford E. Hoelscher, insects referred to as primary and secondary pests often damage stored grains in this county. Primary pests attack whole kernel grain and complete their development inside the kernel. These pests include the rice or corn weevil, lesser grain borer and Angoumois grain moth. Because of their "hidden" developmental habits these pests may go unnoticed and can cause large grain losses. Therefore seeds should be split open and for primary grain damaging insects.

Secondary pests feed primarily on cracked or otherwise broken kernels. Some cotton secondary pests are the rice moth, Indian meal moth, and Mediterranean flour moth, flat grain beetle, confused flour beetle, and sawtoothed grain beetle.

All stored grain pests are characterized as being very small insects. Because of their small size careful sampling of each lot of grain is very essential. Probe samples should also be taken at various depths to determine if unseen insect infestation is building within grain lots. If careful inspection yields one rice weevil or one lesser grain borer, or as many as five insects of the other insects previously mentioned per quart of sampled grain then treatment is needed.

Fumigants can be effectively used to control stored grain pests. Fumigants are available in liquid, gas and volatile solid formulations. All of these materials are extremely toxic to humans and domestic animals according to Hoelscher and some fumigants also pose an extreme fire hazard and can explode due to static electricity in clothing or storage containers during fumigant application.

Farmers and ranchers may contact our office for further information on stored grain pest identification and control techniques. Bulletin L - 217 "Control of Insects in Farm - Stored Grain", is also available at the County Extension Office. The new brucellosis regulations (Proclamation of the Texas Animal Health Commission No. AHC - 1) were adopted unanimously by the Texas Animal Health Commission at an official Commission meeting in Laredo, Texas, on October 15, 1973. These new regulations will bring the Texas Brucellosis Program into compliance with the National Uniform Methods and Rules which are considered minimum standards.

In brief this regulation requires that all breeding cattle two (2) years of age and over that change ownership are required to be brucellosis tested. Breeding cattle may be tested on the farm or ranch or at an auction market. Slaughter type breeding cattle may be sold through livestock markets without test until sampled on the kill floor. The brucellosis test will be good for movement purposes for a thirty (30) day period provided animal is ear tagged and accompanied by test certificate.

Effective January 15, 1974, these regulations will be in full force and effect.

Search Is On

The search is underway for Texas' rural hero of 1973.

The Rural Heroism Award, sponsored by the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, is presented annually to some deserving person who has performed an act of exceptional bravery during a time of crisis, according to Ben Bullard, Council vice president and assistant safety director for the Texas Farm Bureau.

All entries must be submitted by March 1, 1974, to the Rural Heroism Award Committee, Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, P.O. Box 489, Waco, Texas, 76703, according to Bullard.

The heroic act or deed must have occurred in Texas during 1973 and must be related to farming or ranching operations.

Nominations should include a written account of the incident and the names of all persons involved.

Question:

Is Lone Star doing everything it can to hold down costs?

Answer:

Yes!

We're operating more efficiently than ever before. But our costs are going up none the less... just like yours.

For instance, the interest rates on money we have to borrow for constructing new gas supply systems have increased dramatically. These rates have recently been at all time highs.

Within the last 18 months, we have invested nearly $100 million:

- to build a large diameter, 400-mile pipeline from West Texas to the Dallas-Ft. Worth area,
- for other facilities along this pipeline,
- to attach major new reserves and
- to pay for well drilling by producers... all for the purpose of assuring continuing natural gas supplies to our customers.

These investments don't even include the cost of all the gas we must buy to fill the line. In 1969, natural gas cost us about 19 cents per thousand cubic feet.

Recently we paid more than 85 cents for major new supplies. And the price is still rising.

Costs like these are the price Lone Star must pay for your continuing natural gas supplies. It's important that you understand our need for adequate rates so we can continue to deliver clean gas energy to your home for winters to come.

We're doing everything possible to hold down controllable costs. But even with gradual rate increases, natural gas from Lone Star will still be your most economical and efficient non-polluting fuel.

Eastland County Commissioners' Court Met In Their First Regular Session

The Eastland County Commissioners' Court met in their first regular session of the new year Monday to discuss and take action on five major items of business.

Commissioners spent a major portion of the lengthy five-hour meeting considering justice of the peace and election precinct lines. After a compromise by Precinct Three Commissioner L.T. Owens and Precinct Four Commissioner Clarence Dill, the following justice and election precinct lines were drawn to conform to the county's redistricted commissioner precincts.

Commissioner Precinct One will include justice precinct one and voting precinct one with voting boxes at Eastland.

Commissioner Precinct Two: justice precinct two - voting precinct two, Olden; voting precinct three, Ranger; and voting precinct four, Desdemona.

Commissioner Precinct Three: justice precinct three (Rising Star) and five (Carbon, Gorman) - voting precinct five (Gorman) six (Carbon) and seven (Rising Star).

Commissioner Precinct Four: justice precinct four; - voting precinct four both at Cisco.

According to County Judge Scott Bailey, justice of the peace precinct lines and constable areas of responsible were drawn to include the five population centers of the county.

A new voting precinct was created at Lake Leon, No. nine, and will be included within precinct two and justice precinct two.

Action taken was by unanimous agreement of the commission.

Play Coleman

Friday night the Eastland High School Basketball teams play the Coleman Bluecats there at 5:30 p.m. The Maverick A and B teams and the Mavettes all face action.

Tuesday night in Maverick Gym the Boys A and B teams lost their contests with Clyde 61 - 34 and 45 - 37.

The Mavettes blew their opponents off the court 66 - 41. The girls more than made up for their cold shooting last Friday against Hamilton. Ann Haun blistered the basket with 23 points. She was followed by Milt Kincaid and Carol Smith with 14 points each and Jill Price with 13.

The Mavettes were just as good on the boards, snagging a total of 40 rebounds, an outstanding team effort. The crew of Dollie Moseley, Karen Jones and Jerri Simms once again were terrific on defense.

"This was the best offensive game in a long time", said coach Charlotte Mason. "Our team just came alive."

The difference in this game was the tremendous offensive effort by the team. It was a good game at both ends of the court.

commission adopted the salary szstem for county and precinct officers as provided by Art. 3912c for 1974. And they accepted a bid of $4,158.60 for a tractor from Perkins Implement Co. and another bid of $2,000 for a truck in considering the purchase of county road and bridge equipment.

LIBRARIES

Another major area of business was considering appropriations for tures of revenue sharing funds. The County Auditor reported the receipt of $59,000 in revenue sharing funds for this quarter. County commissioners allocated $3,000 of these funds for library purposes in 1974. Libraries are a priority item in revenue sharing allocations. To qualify for the funds under government guidelines the library must

Lettered Mavericks Jacketed

Before an assembly of their fellow athletes at the Maverick gym Tuesday afternoon, thirteen returning sophomore and junior football players and their manager received their letter jackets.

The occasion was one which these Mavericks had eagerly awaited for the past month, said Head Football Coach Douglas Dallas.

It was a good way to start out a new semester after a week of finals. Are you happy now? asked the coach. All fourteen wore smiles along with their new jackets.

"We decided to award the jackets before an assembly of your fellow athletes, girls and boys, who respect each other, for only they know what it takes to earn a letter", said Dallas.

Under a new policy in the Eastland High School Athletic program jackets will be awarded to athletes as soon as they letter. Previously only seniors were eligible for the honor. And an athlete will be able to wear a letter "E" for every sport and year that he or she achieves the honor.

"You should look back on them with pride", d the head coach, "and sit down and think all the time and work it took to earn that big red E."

Dallas admitted that these football players weren't receiving the jackets because of their won-loss record of last year. "This represents your enthusiasm and desire and how hard you worked to achieve your goals in football this year."

They were outweighed but not outplayed by their opponents this past season. By the fourth quarter our opponents had literally beaten our lighted line into the ground the coach said.

Funeral Services Held Sunday For Jerry Noble

Funeral services for Jerry Lynn Noble, 19, of Cisco, were held Sunday, Jan. 13, 1974, at 4 p.m. at the Cisco Funeral Home with burial in Oakwood Cemetery. Rev. L.C. Williams, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Eastland, and Rev. Lester Swan, assistant pastor of Merriman Baptist Church, officiated. Pallbearers were Gaylon Nelms, Clifton Stedum, Jam Daniels, Randy Nix, Charles Clark and Donald Wende.

Jerry Noble was killed instantly in a car-train accident about 9:20 p.m. Friday evening at the railroad crossing on North Ave. D. in Cisco. Also killed in the accident was Carolyn Sue Hock, 15, also of Cisco.

Jerry Lynn Noble was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Noble of 1204 Park Drive, Cisco. He was born Jan. 27, 1954, and had attended Cisco schools. He was a member of Calvary Baptist Church in Eastland.

Survivors are his parents; one brother, Jimmy, of the home; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T.D. Smallwood of Cisco and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Noble of Eastland.

My mother bore twelve children and I was the seventh of eight boys and four girls. She did all the housework, and never heard of the work-saving gadgets so common in modern homes. She milked the cow, carried in wood and "built" fires in fireplace and cook stove. Yet, with all these tasks she remembered the birthday of a little rag-tag boy, one among a dozen.

If I could whisper to her Angel in heaven, I would say: "TELL HER I REMEMBERED", and plant a kiss on her cheek for me and eleven others.

Funds To Five Libraries

Eastland County Commissioners Monday voted to divide $3,000 of county revenue sharing funds among five county public libraries. The libraries are located in Eastland, Ranger, Cisco, Gorman and Rising Star. Each will receive $600 under the plan.

In other business commissioners voted to place all elected county officials under the salary plan, rather than on a fee basis. County Judge Scott Bailey said that counties under 20,000 population are given this opportunity under state law, and that Eastland County has done this on a yearly basis since 1960.

Commissioners accepted a low bid of $4,158.60 submitted by Perkins Implement Co. of Eastland for a diesel tractor to be used in county road work. Also accepted was a low bid of $2,000 for a used dump truck from the Caterpillar Tractor Co. of Abilene. The truck will be used in Precinct 3 in Rising Star.

Commissioners also realigned the county's voting precincts to conform with the newly designated county precinct lines that went into effect Jan. 1.

It was quite impossible for the one open stove in the wrongly called "reading room." There the reference books were sometimes taken to a student's car where it was a bit warmer and the facts for that school paper could be - perhaps - obtained outside. The tall step ladder, donated by a sympathetic mayor, Mayor Deaton, was against the west wall and to reach the top shelf, a climb was precarious as it was necessary to actually stand on the top of the ladder - not on a step.

It was January 6, 1972, that the Eastland Telegram carried the photograph the caption "LIBRARY - OTHER MATTERS COULD BE AIRED IN TOWN HALL MEET"

A year later there was HOPE. To be sure only three chairs were in the skimpy space for waiting patrons. The plumbing was frozen on this January day but there were gay posters covering the

The doorway of another century was opening and the most tangible evidence of the city's participation in the hundredth year would be the completion of the remodeling and redecorating an 8000 square feet of concrete floors and steel beams which had been purchased in Nov. 1972 by the Thursday Afternoon Club to house their precious books and to memorialize the founders and the friends of the library.

The first step was to change the name of the library, begun in 1901, to EASTLAND CENTENNIAL MEMORIAL LIBRARY. The Plummer Street location in the Womens Club building was to be vacated and the new doors would be at 210 Lamar Street.

Today, Jan. 1974, there is space. Perhaps that is the first reaction as the would-be borrower of a book enters the spacious and beautiful doorways vestibule. The shelves are full - the titles can be read - the books can be reached easily. The children can enjoy their own corner with three old fashioned desks and a large low oval table with gay chairs around it and shelves full of bright and tempting books, plainly visible.

The 404 beautifully bound books which have been given as memorials to loved ones throughout the years, are now truly appreciated and are not in an almost inaccessible high

I REMEMBER

By Dick O'Brien

Seventy five years ago today, Jan. 10, I came home from my first school. My mother was in the yard making soap, after doing the family washing. She boiled the clothes in a large pot and scrubbed them on a "rub board" by hand. Her dryer was a wire clothes line stretched between two posts. She dragged up the wood for the fire and drew the water from the cistern by hand. When she saw me, she said "go look on the table". Curious to know what she meant, I rushed into the kitchen. And there on the table was a cake with seven candles. It was my birthday and I hadn't thought about it. BUT SHE HAD."

My mother bore twelve children and I was the seventh of eight boys and four girls. She did all the housework, and never heard of the work-saving gadgets so common in modern homes. She milked the cow, carried in wood and "built" fires in fireplace and cook stove. Yet, with all these tasks she remembered the birthday of a little rag-tag boy, one among a dozen.

other looking backward" (from the new World Book Dictionary - recently purchased and in constant use, with the new Encyclopedias).

January a year ago - an icy, cold month in Eastland. A chilly fingered librarian climbed slippery steps to try a stubborn key to unlock a door. Another key and another door inside opened into a cold, fireless, dark room. Books on temporary shelves across windows curtailed light from without - and double lines of old volumes crowded the shelves from floor to ceiling. French doors into the large stack room closed to let the open gas stove try to heat the reception room.

It was quite impossible for the one open stove in the wrongly called "reading room." There the reference books were sometimes taken to a student's car where it was a bit warmer and the facts for that school paper could be - perhaps - obtained outside. The tall step ladder, donated by a sympathetic mayor, Mayor Deaton, was against the west wall and to reach the top shelf, a climb was precarious as it was necessary to actually stand on the top of the ladder - not on a step.

bookcase. They are listed in the bound volume on the charge desk of the librarian. Beside that book is another - the most valuable book in the library - It lists the donors who have contributed to make the impossible dream of thirty women in the Thursday Afternoon Club become a reality.

The names placed in the Book of Memory include the people who made our Eastland what it is today. How happy would be the brave and the ambitious ones who in 1901 began the library. Fifty four books were checked out today. There are 96 new readers of the library.
