THOUGHT FOR TODAY: "Hapand is not to be picked in strang-erdens." — (Jerrold).

Here's something you'll find quite enjoyable: There's to be a community sing of Christmas carols Saturday night of this week, at 6:45. It will be on the northeast corner of the square and early enough that it doubtless won't interfere with other engage-

The sponsoring Chamber of Commerce has placed a tree there and lighted it and appointed Stanley Webb as m-c and Bandmaster Howard E. Gill in charge of the instrumental music. All plans are complete. This can be a delightful and inspiring pre-Christmas feature if a real crowd turns out for it. Let's give it one!

This is one we heard about a little boy: Visitor: "Why does your

Holiday Mail May Be Real Record Smash

Checking the progress on the local "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign, Postmaster M. Johnson predicted today that the 1955 pre-Holiday decorations included fireplace with a wood fire brightsprigs of cedar, mistletoe and ly burning. The mantel was hung ord breaker as she noted the > "Last year we handled a total A beautifully decorated Christ- of 160,000 pieces of mail be A beautifully decorated Christmas tree stood in a corner of the

> Games of forty-two and Chinese checkers were played

The postmaster went on to say that the mounting volume of Christmas mail makes it doubly important for everyone to help on the "Mail Early for Christmas" program. She warned that packages mailed to out-of-state points ages mailed to out-of-state points after this week may not be deliv-ered in time for Christmas. She said that the flow of Christmas cards is running about normal but parcel post is definitely behind schedule and suggested that all out-of-state parcels still to be mailed should be sent by air par-cel post, and pointed out that Christmas cards addressed to the most distant points should also be air mailed.

Postmaster Mrs. Johnson again reminded that all gifts should be wrapped securely with plenty of heavy paper and tied with strong "Write legibly or better yet Patients in Eastland Memorial print the recipient's full name, street address, zone number, city and state on all mailing labels and Lundy Ann Hooker of Cisco, Christmas cards, "she urged, pointing out that a new pamphlet, "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels for Mailing" is now available free of charge. Keep in mind that gift packages may not be sealed, unless the return address and this notice aphe collided with another vehicle and was brought to the hospital Tuesday night.

pears: "Contents, Merchandise — May be opened for postal inspection." Christmas seals and "Do Not Open Until Christmas" stickers may be used but always place them on the back of your gift parcels or Christmas cards, leaving the address easy to read.

"Try to bring your parcels to the postal windows before 10:00 a.m. or between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. to avoid the noon hour rush," the postmaster concluded.

Company Chicken, Oven Fried from the Start

Here's a new and different approach to the fried chicken department. It's oven fried! The chicken is prepared in one pan; no previous rowning needed and it reaches a rich golden brown.

It's called "Company Chicken" because it frees the cook from standing over the range and it's subtly and deliciously flavored with California white table wine.

Good go-alongs are the "Creamy Baked Limas" baked in the same oven, raisin cornbread squares prepared from a mix, colorful canned ching peach halves filled with tart current jelly, and chilled ripe olives and celery hearts.

The planning of this company meal combines all the attributes of an efficient homemaker. It's appealing; all foods eat well together and it cases meal preparation by utilizing the oven. Company Chicken

2 frying chickens (about 3 to 3 is pounds each)
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour 1 tablespoon salt 2 teaspoons paprika

4 teaspoon black pepper 1 cup shortening 2 cup California Sauterne, Rhine Wine, or other white table wine

Cut chicken in serving pieces. Blend flour, salt, paprika and pepper in paper bag. Shake chicken, a few pieces at a time, to coat. Melt shortening in large shallow pan, and place chicken skin side down in shortening. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 30 minutes, until browned. Drain off excess shortening and turn chicken skin side up. Drizzle wine over chicken, cover loosely with foil. Reduce oven heat to moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) Bake about 45 minutes larger. Makes about 8 servings. longer. Makes about 8 servings.

Creamy Baked Limas

3/2 green sweet pepper 1 cup commercial sour 2 cups California large

dry limas
5 cups boiling water teaspoons salt 6 strips bacon 1 large onion

2 tablespoons molasses 1 teaspoon dry mustard Black pepper

Rinse limas, add boiling water and boil 2 minutes. Cover and let stand 1 hour. Add 2 teaspoons salt, and boil slowly until tender, 45 minutes to 1 hour. Cut bacon in ½-inch strips, and fry until crisp. Remove bacon, and drain off all but 2 tablespoons fat. Chop onion Remove bacon, and drain off all but 2 tablespoons fat. Chop onion and green pepper, and cook slowly until transparent but not browned. Add sour cream, molasses, mustard, remaining ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper to taste. Drain limas, reserving ½ cup cooking liquid. Combine limas, ½ cup cooking liquid mixture, sour cream mixture and bacon, mix lightly, and turn into 2½ quart baking dish. Cover. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) about 45 minutes, removing cover about 15 minutes before serving. Garnish with small red plum tomatoes, if desired. Makes about 8 servings.

GOOD FEED GOOD PRICE...

Yes, it is good news when a quality feed like Check-R-Mix can be made and sold locally for such a good price. We're able to do it only because we mix local grain with Purina Concentrates right here at our own mill.

We're equipped to accurately make Check-R-Mix feeds on formulas approved by Purina Research. These "recipes" are based on Purina's many years of mixing local grain with Purina Concentrates. With the Check-'R-Mix line, we'll help you work out a feeding program that calls for a mighty small cash outlay. You'll be surprised when you find out how far Check-R-Mix can stretch feed dollars.

Christmas Snacks Ring Bell With Young Folk

Festive and filling—that's how to describe this holiday fare for young folk. Chocolate milk-mocha punch and cookies are wonderful to serve under the Christmas tree.

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

WHEN the young folk want to give a party during the holiday season, let them plan simple but festive fare. We suggest some of these good things:

Chocolate Milk-Mocha Punch (Makes 12 servings) Three quarts chocolate milk, well chilled; 1½ quarts coffee ice cream, 6 tablespoons instant coffee. Combine all ingredients; beat with rotary beater or electric mixer until frothy.

Cherry Holiday Sugar Cookies (Makes about 5 dozen)

Four cups sifted cake flour, 2½ teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup softened shortening, 1¾ cups sugar, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 tablespoons maraschino cherry juice.

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cream shortening with sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs and vanilla and mix well. Add sifted ingredients alternately with cherry juice, mixing well after each addition. Chill thoroughly. Roll out on lightly floured surface to 1/8-inch thickness. Cut with floured cookie cutters.

Place on lightly greased baking sheets. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 5 to 7 minutes, or until lightly browned. Frost and garnish with maraschino cherries, as desired.

Cherry Christmas Wreaths (Makes about 3 dozen) One cup softened shortening, 1/2 cup firmly-packed brown sugar, 2 eggs, separated; 2 cups sifted, #fl-purpose flour; ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ cup chopped maraschino cherries, drained (about 20 cherries); 1 cup chopped walnuts, 1 cup shredded coconut, maraschino cherry halves, drained.

Cream shortening with sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks, flour, salt and chopped cherries, mix well. Shape into 1-inch balls. Combine nuts and coconut. Dip cherry balls into egg whites and roll in coconut mixture. Place on greased baking sheets. Make slight depression in center of cookies; fill with cherry halves. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F) 15 minutes, or until

The crisp corn flakes add an unusual texture to the cheese souffle. Serve the souffle with individual tossed vegetable salads, bran muffins, grape jelly, milk to drink and fresh fruit for dessert.

Cereal Festivals were celebrated in mid-April about 500 B.C. by the Romans to solicit protection for growing grains. The modern version of this celebration is the Spring Cereal and Milk Festival sponsored by the breakfast cereal and dairy industries to promote the food value of cereal and milk. Cereal and milk complement each other in both food value and appetite appeal. Besides providing calcium, cereal and milk also contribute other important minerals (phosphorus and iron), B vitamins (thiamine, niacin and riboflavin), top-quality protein and food energy.

The ingredient use of cereals and milk in main dishes provides an attractive way to encourage adults, and children too, to get their daily requirements of this nutritious team.
