SAN ANTONIO HAS TWO EARTH SHOCKS TODAY

By United Press.

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 4.—Two earth tremors jarred San Antonio just before noon today and caused much excitement among the citizens. The first shock occurred about 11:10 a. m. and the other, which was not so distinct as the initial quake, was experienced 40 minutes later. Windows rattled and police and newspaper offices were swamped with calls. A check of arm posts here showed no unusual firing at the ranges. I really did used to do).

GEN. WOLTERS ISSUES ORDER ON PRORATION

By United Press.

KILGORE, Texas, Feb. 4.—Brigadier General Jacob F. Wolters, in charge of enforcing proration in the East Texas oil field, today issued an order cutting the allowable flow of oil to 75 barrels per well daily. The former flow was 100 barrels daily. The new order becomes effective Friday morning at 7 o'clock and will effect the 4,015 wells in the field. It was estimated the schedule would mean a reduction of $5,000 barrels daily.

Two Men Rob a Woodsboro Bank

WOODSBORO, Refugio Co., Tex., Feb. 4.—Two white men held up and slugged the assistant cashier of the First National Bank today and escaped with between $1,000 and $2,000. A third man waited in a car while his companions held up the bank.

Ranger Police Are On Lookout For Two Jailbreakers

The Ranger police department was requested early today to be on the lookout for two men who escaped from the county jail at Stephenville about 2:30 this morning. One of the men was described as being 35 years of age, weighing 155 pounds, dark, with hair slightly graying, and name given as Johnnie Carnes. No description was given of the second man except that his name was W. C. Nutt. It was thought that they might be headed toward Eastland or Ranger and police were asked to be on the lookout for them.

CAPITOL HAS FIRE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—A fire alarm was sent in from the capitol today when the office of Representative Garrett, democrat, Texas, became filled with smoke from an open fireplace.

RELIEF CREATES WORK

DETROIT, Mich.—Relief funds should be used to create work, not to purchase baskets of food for handouts, according to Carl D. Henslev, president of the Lower East Side community council, New York. Speaking here, he said the emergency relief committee has raised $18,000,000. This is spent in wages for work, he said. Only family men are considered as prospects for the "created" jobs.

MAP SHOWS THEATRE OF ACTION IN ASIATIC WARFARE

Above is a detailed map of Shanghai on which may be traced the newest developments in this storm center of Japan-Chinese conflict. The boundaries of the international settlement, the French settlement and the native city are clearly defined, and observe that the North Station, the Astor House and the various consulates that figured in the early wire news are indicated, as well as other important buildings in the theater of action.

JAPS LEAVE FOREIGN AREA OF SHANGHAI

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Admiral M. M. Taylor, commanding American naval forces at Shanghai, advised the navy department by radio today that all Japanese patrols have evacuated American and British defense sectors, "improving the situation greatly."

School Teacher Sues Board Head For $50,000.00

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Feb. 4.—Miss Nema Philen, 25, pretty blond school teacher, who lost her job at East Bernard when school authorities charged her with dating one of her eight grade pupils, today sought bail for her wounded feelings in a $50,000 damage suit.

Eastland Youth Is Enroute To Honolulu Waters

J. C. Day, Jr., former Eastland High school athlete and son of J. C. Day, secretary of the Retail Merchants association is on his way to the naval maneuvers at Honolulu. Day left here last fall for the Naval Training Station at San Diego where he won a reputation in boxing. He has been assigned to U. S. S. Alder, a repair ship which serves destroyers. His ship sailed for the maneuver grounds last Sunday at midnight.

Ogden L. Mills Accepts Post As Head of Treasury

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Under Secretary Ogden L. Mills, a wealthy member of one of America's leading families, will be promoted to the cabinet post when Andrew W. Mellon becomes ambassador to Great Britain. Announcement was made informally at the White House. At the same time Mellon confirmed the announcement he would accept the London ambassadorship.

Bessie Sharp Murder Trial Is Moved to Del Rio

SANDERSON, Texas, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Bessie Sharp, 20, today won her fight against being tried here on a charge of poisoning her husband, Telefus Sharp, so she allegedly could marry a ranch hand. Judge Joseph Jones granted the defense motion for a change of venue and designated Del Rio as the trial place for the case during the April term of court there.

Jap Sailors Well-Trained

This picture shows Japanese sailors during maneuvers held recently to develop skill in landing and holding ports after successful bombardments from their ships.

PRIVETT CASE SET FOR TRIAL FEBRUARY 22

The second trial of Oscar Privett charged with the murder of Melvin Dunson in Ranger has been docketed for Feb. 22. Privett was tried here once and given a penalty of 30 years confinement. The criminal court of appeals at Austin found some errors in the court's charge to the jury and remanded the case back for another trial.

FIGHTING IS RESUMED AT NORTH STATION

SHANGHAI, Feb. 5 (Friday)—Copyright by United Press.—Terrific fighting was resumed on the north station battlefield at 1 a. m. today after a lull of six hours in the battle during which the blazing ruins of Chapei were the only signs of warfare. Foreign military observers believed the Japanese had launched a final effort to dislodge the Chinese, who have been resisting them with surprising success. Defenders of the foreign settlement held their positions alertly, fearing the possibility the Chinese, if routed, would attempt to rush the gates of the settlement.

Jury Is Notified Not To Appear In Court Monday

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The body of 5-year-old Florence O'Donnell, missing since early yesterday, was found today in a tenement basement in Brooklyn. She apparently had been strangled to death. The girl's mother reported her absence at midnight. Scores of police and neighbors searched the remainder of the night. This morning a patrolman found her body in the basement, huddled in a corner, just 75 feet from her home.

EASTLAND GAS CASE ACTION IS HELD UP

By order of the United States district court of the northern district of Texas, all justice court proceedings in the case of C. F. Shepperd against the Community Natural Gas company are halted. Shepperd had sued the gas company for the sum of $145 due him by reason of an alleged overcharge on a gas bill. He was given judgment in the justice court when the gas company defaulted. Justice Newman issued a writ of execution against the gas company and placed it in the hands of constable Marion Seabourne, who attached a gas range at the gas company's office and removed it to the office of the justice of the peace. The sale of the gas stove to the highest bidder was announced for Feb. 12.

Advance Sale For Eastland Benefit Show Goes Well

The advance sale of tickets to the benefit show at the Lyric theatre in Eastland tonight for the athletic fund of the high school indicates that it will be filled to capacity for both performances. The same show will be repeated Friday night.

Legionnaires To Discuss Banquet At Meet Tonight

L. R. Herring, post commander of the Carl Barnes post of the American Legion, announced today that an important meeting of the post was to be held at the Legion hall tonight. Discussion of plans for the annual George Washington banquet, to be held on the night of Feb. 22, will be held and several other matters of importance will come before the meeting.

Body of Missing Girl Is Found

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The body of 5-year-old Florence O'Donnell, missing since early yesterday, was found today in a tenement basement in Brooklyn. She apparently had been strangled to death. The girl's mother reported her absence at midnight. Scores of police and neighbors searched the remainder of the night. This morning a patrolman found her body in the basement, huddled in a corner, just 75 feet from her home.

POSSES SEEK NEGRO SLAYER AGED WOMAN

By United Press.

DALLAS, Feb. 4.—Posses searched today for a negro known as "Slim," who last night killed Mrs. W. S. Gray, 60, and beat her husband so severely that he may die. One important suspect has been arrested, while the search continues for the negro who was recognized by Gray as the assailant of the couple. Relatives of the negro also have been held after officers learned from them that "Slim" had been planning a holdup because he "had to have money."

Temperature Drops 41 Degrees In 12 Hours

The temperature took a drop of 41 degrees in about 12 hours in Ranger Wednesday night and Thursday morning. At 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the thermometer in the city hall registered 67 degrees. From that point it dropped rapidly until at 7 o'clock this morning it registered 25, the second lowest temperature recorded for the winter. After 7 o'clock the mercury began a gradual rise to slightly above freezing before noon.

Eastland Short Course Draws Record Crowd

The two-day farmers' short course sponsored by Eastland business men and the International Harvester company started off to a capacity house this morning. The city hall auditorium was filled to overflowing and people were still arriving.

NINE OF CREW KNOWN DEAD; MAY BE MORE

By United Press.

MARCUS HOOK, Pa., Feb. 4.—Officials of the Sun Oil company announced at 2 o'clock today that the total of known dead in the explosion here had reached 17. Rescue workers are still looking for other possible victims.

American Tanker Is Shattered By Blast Early Today

MARCUS HOOK, Pa., Feb. 4.—The Sun Oil tanker Bidwell was shattered by a series of terrific explosions early today and many of the 61 persons aboard were killed. Officials of the Sun Oil company listed the names of nine men killed in the explosion. They included A. B. Selch, Houston, mess boy.

Five Members of the Crew Died in Hospitals while Rescuers Removed the Other Bodies from the Charred Remains of the Craft

The tanker was tied up at a dock after unloading her cargo of crude oil brought from Mexico. A few members of the crew were cleaning out the tanks. Some members of the crew were asleep. Suddenly there came the first blast. Confusion followed. Three more blasts came quickly. Members of the crew and stevedores screamed and fought for safety. Several leaped into the water, one swimming a quarter of a mile, so cold he was almost paralyzed.

Many were injured, their bodies scarred by flames. Not until morning did the heat allow rescuers to board the craft.

Then they discovered the body of Captain Joseph Rivers in his cabin. The other bodies were on the decks and in the crew's quarters.

UNIFORM TAXATION

Mounting costs of government, high under prosperous economic conditions and staggering under depressed economic circumstances, are due for a violent decline if the movement toward the formation of taxpayers associations throughout the country means anything. The business slump that has struck the country at this time has had the effect of increasing the tax burden in the proportion that it has lowered the income of the taxpayers and increased the purchasing power of the dollar, for the costs of government have failed to decline in the proportion that income and values have declined.

As revealed in a recent article by County Auditor W. S. Michael, government costs—if the instance of Eastland county can be taken as an example—are due in the largest degree to payments on bond issues which are contract obligations and cannot be lowered. Two-thirds of the county taxes are allocated to the liquidation of these obligations. Until some relief is afforded in this direction there is little hope, as Mr. Michael points out, for a material reduction of the tax burden.

Formation of taxpayers associations, if kept within their proper sphere and prevented from developing into a state propaganda organization pledged to the support of a particular and well defined ticket, should exert a healthful effect. The proper place for these associations is among the citizenship and not as a state-wide organization with paid officials. In the latter event a taxpayers league becomes merely another party with its own ticket and platform, which logically and naturally occurs the political enmity of the established political organization.

It is estimated that one dollar out of every six dollars earned goes to the cost of government. The annual tax bill has reached a staggering sum, blamed upon waste and extravagance, so staggering that the people cannot bear the load. Taxes shall be equal and uniform, is a prime principle of the constitution but so involved and illogical is our system of meeting governmental expenses that this principle is violated on every side. While imposing burdens of unequal character, our present tax system provides innumerable opportunities for firms, corporations and individuals to escape their proportionate share of taxes which necessitates heavier impositions in other directions.

Until some fundamental and sweeping revision of the state scheme of taxation is effected—a revision that will do away with the "joker" in the method of valuating property for taxation—there is little hope for any permanent and equitable relief.

POLL TAX PROOF

The action of the Texas Highway commission in requiring that only Texas citizens be used in building Texas highways is a commendable action, but the method adopted of putting this requirement into effect robs the action of a large part of its merit. The commission recently announced that a poll tax receipt must be shown as an evidence of Texas citizenship when apply for work.

The effect of this ruling is to deny employment to the element most in need of it. The men most in need of jobs today are men who have not been able to secure poll tax receipts and if the man possessing such a receipt is to be given preference over the man not so possessing, the highway department employment program will fail in its ultimate object and a large section of the most needy citizens will be denied the relief that it meant to be given them.

It is quite true that such a requirement will prevent floaters from taking jobs that rightfully belong to the citizens of Texas and that it will serve to build a stronger citizenship, but at the same time it will make it harder than ever for a deserving citizen utterly without means to obtain any of the relief to which he is entitled.

HOPE FOR THE FARMER

In a recent address, David Lawrence, the well-known political journalist and editor of the United States Daily, said that the present transition of agriculture from an unorganized to an organized basis, constitutes the most hopeful features of the present agricultural situation.

The cooperative movement is growing to a remarkable degree, not only in scope but in strength. There are now about 12,000 cooperative associations in the county, with a total membership of about 2,000,000 farmers. They did a business totaling $2,400,000,000 last year—an increase of $100,000,000 over 1930.

Thus, in spite of present depressed conditions, agriculture should be optimistic for the future. The day the first cooperative started was a red letter day in the history of farming. And the day the last group of unorganized farmers join together for mutual benefit, the farmer will have reached the goal for which the more progressive members of his industry are working. The time when a man could stand alone in his business dealings is past. He must join with his fellows in the same endeavor, so that all may prosper and find a sound market for what they have to sell.

Heirloom Turns Out To Be Only A Reproduction

By United Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo.—An aged woman, shabbily dressed, and carrying a carefully wrapped package, was admitted to the office of Purd B. Wright, librarian here.

"Here," she said, "is a treasured heirloom. I am parting with it only because I need money badly."

She unwrapped a worn, discolored copy of a newspaper.

Wright picked it up, looked carefully at a moment, and then shook his head. It was a copy of the almost legendary Ulster County Gazette of Jan. 4, 1800, which contained a complete account of the death and funeral of George Washington.

But, plainly, it was just another nearly one million reproductions made and distributed, and not an original copy," Wright said, take one look, and fly back.

"would be worth thousands of dollars. A reproduction is worthless."

Every year, Wright said, hundreds of copies of the reproductions are offered for sale to museums and libraries, the owners honestly believing they have an original.

Yet, to this day, he said, no original has been discovered.

All the copies offered probably were purchased for 10 cents each in 1876, when several hundred copies were sold at the Philadelphia Centennial, Wright said.

The paper was established as an organ of the old Federalist party, in Kingston, N. Y., by Samuel Freer and his son, Samuel S. Freer, on May 5, 1798. It died in 1822, along with the party it supported.

In that original copy of 1800 appeared the account of the death, three weeks before, on Dec. 14, 1799, of George Washington.

Flyers are planning a round-trip from Ireland to America and return, foreigners used to flock to America, but since the depression they just want to come over, original copy," Wright said, take one look, and fly back.

WEST TEXAS C. OF C. DRIVE IS UNDERWAY

A committee composed of J. E. Meroney, chairman, Roy Glibreath, Charlie Moore and H. C. "Andy" Anderson, was working today to secure memberships for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in the city of Ranger.

The West Texas organization has outlined a program for the year and a budget has been set for the work to be done during the year. According to the figures furnished by the directors, the quota for Ranger has been set at $460 for the year, or a total of 46 memberships from the city.

Pound Sterling Still A Mystery After Centuries

By United Press.
LONDON.—Everyone is talking about the pound sterling, but just what the word "sterling" means nobody quite knows.

Some have connected it with the small stars which appeared on certain early coins, others say that the word is really "starling" and refers to the four birds which appeared on the coins of Edward the Confessor.

The first English standard coin was not the pound, but the silver penny, which dates back to the time of the early Saxon kings. Silver pennies were of different weights and sizes until 1280, when a law was passed requiring that the weight of a penny should be that of 24 grains of wheat. The pound Troy, which is not now used, had the same weight as 5,760 grains of wheat, which, divided by 24, shows that there were 240 pennies coined for each pound of silver.

Twenty-four grain silver pennies were known as sterling coins. The penny sterling came first, the name pound sterling being given to the weight of silver from which 240 could be coined. It was not until the reign of Henry VII that gold coins were made in England, and even long after that time silver was the standard.

The reign of Charles II brought a further development in the issue of a coin valued at 21 shillings, which was made for the especial use of the African company trading off the coast of New Guinea.

This gave the name of "guinea" to the coin. Other coins of the same value were made at a later period, but the name stuck. That explains the continued use of the term for denominations of 21 shillings, although the coin is no longer in existence.

LLANO.—Company organized here to install granite finishing plant to cost $50,000. Construction to start soon.

STOP SIGNS ILLEGAL

By United Press.
SEATTLE, Wash.—Fully 25 per cent of the "stop" signs on streets here are illegal, Superior Judge Howard M. Fingley ruled. But they all look alike, he added, and unless one has a chart showing the illegal ones, it would be wise to stop for all of them.

Nevertheless, the Austrian archduke who was challenged to four duels was lucky. In America he would have got a couple of black eyes.

STOP SIGNS ILLEGAL

Huddleston of Alabama compared the Bloom "hullabaloo" over Washington with "an effort to draw a crowd into a circus, belittling to Washington and to the country." He called the Bicentennial "a sort of racket." LaGuardia of New York said someone, meaning Bloom, was "exploiting Washington." Other members made mean remarks.

STOP SIGNS ILLEGAL

Attention was called to the fact that Sol supplies members with portraits of Washington and booklets about him which they can send out to their districts in their own names. Also, they get leaflets and pictures of Washington for themselves. And all members will receive free copies of the 25-volume set of the George Washington definitive writings which will cost about $125 apiece for the people who buy them.

But the House cut out the money for celebrations and dedications, providing that the $250,000 it gave Sol should be used for printing George Washington literature. And the Senate Appropriations Committee decided that the country could survive with $50,000 less of such literature.

Have You Sent For An Analysis Of Your Writing?

Have you sent for an analysis of your handwriting?
Perhaps you missed the first announcement of the offer, made yesterday. Well, here it is again: It is now possible for you to have a personal analysis of your handwriting, made by the nationally known graphologist, Lorne A. Milne. You may have this analysis, which would ordinarily cost you $5, for only the cost of handling, 10 cents, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope!

What an offer! Through the efforts of this paper the services of this handwriting analyst, heretofore available only in the larger cities of the country, are now available here. However, the offer is for a limited time only, so you must act quickly. Clip the coupon you'll find in this issue of your paper. Fill it in with the required information and mail it, together with the 10-cent handling charge and a stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Mr. Milne at the address given on the coupon.

Know yourself and others! It's new... different... entertaining... valuable... this scientific character study through handwriting! And it's sweeping the country.

A number of cases are known where a handwriting analysis has restored self-confidence. In these very trying times, that is something that is worth much. Lots of times an analysis of your handwriting will reveal to you traits and abilities that you perhaps don't know you possess.

What do others think about you? What are your strong and weak points? Lorne A. Milne, the handwriting analyst, who has analyzed the handwriting of thousands at $5 each, will tell you. But it won't cost you $5! With the compliments of this paper you may have such an analysis for only the cost of handling, 10 cents, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for his reply. Act now! Clip and mail the coupon you'll find in this issue of the paper.

Penmanship does not count! You don't have to solve anything, build anything, or do anything except sign your name and write a few words on the coupon. Every sample sent in will receive a personal analysis in booklet form. You may discover something about yourself you never knew before! Send for your analysis today!

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE with BILL MAYES

Today comes a letter from Fort Worth that needs so little explaining that we are going to pass it along just as it was written. It is from Bennie Wilson, who is not unknown to local wrestling fans, and reads:

"Mr. Bill Mayes, Ranger, Texas: I take this means to challenge Bobby Novack to a finish wrestling match.

"I understand he claims the junior welter title, I weigh 147, but will make that 142-pound weight for a title match. I heard that I was too tough and tough in my match before. Well, the promoters asked for a rough match and I gave it to them. I heard clean if they want it that way.

"Anyway, I want this Novack and I will wrestle just like he wrestles and if he socks me I will sock him back.

"Would you see if you can arrange it?"

"Regards,
"BENNIE WILSON."

Now there, it seems to us, is a clear-cut challenge to Bobby Novack to wrestle and one that should be given some consideration. No doubt Mr. Novack is more or less busy with his gymnasium classes right now, and it may be that wrestling cards for the next few weeks are filled, but Sergeant Bennie says that "anyway, I want that Novack," so he would probably be willing to wait a few weeks until it could be arranged.

We are not a wrestling promoter, but we are going to look up those who have charge of the Elks athletic show and see what they think about it. It Novack is looking for wrestling engagements, as he told us one day he was, here is a chance for him to show Bennie just how anxious he is to wrestle.

Bennie sends along a clipping showing him in wrestling togs, ready to grapple an opponent—or maybe it was the photographer—and underneath is the legend, "Sergeant Bennie Wilson, Champion Welterweight of the 36th Division, T. N. G." We take it that T. N. G. stands for Texas National Guard, which covers considerable territory, so the champion of the 36th division should be able to put up a pretty good show.

State Planning Dry Law Test

By United Press.
SEATTLE.—Regardless of the stand taken by political parties, the State of Washington will get a chance to test popularity of prohibition at the polls next fall.

That seemed almost assured when the State Prohibition Repeal League announced recently that it was making great progress toward getting the 50,000 signatures necessary to submit an amendment.

The measure would state's home-dry law, let enforcement of prohibition to federal officers.

B. N. Hicks, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, threatened court action to keep the measure off the ballot if the 50,000 signatures are obtained.

Hicks will fall in court, D. A. Doyle, official of the repeal league, predicted.

prohibition stands at their state conventions two years ago. Both, however, asked repeal of national laws, and substitution of unaided state control.

This year, with an election at stake, it was believed both parties would avoid the prohibition issue altogether. The Democrats want to preserve harmony. The Republicans, in addition to writing a platform, intend to make "advisory nominations," and candidates at the primaries will be more or less bound to the platform.

Damage In Quake Is Near 2 Million

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Property damage in the earthquake in Santiago, Cuba, was estimated at "between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000," in a report to the state department from Ambassador Harry G. Henshaw.

The death toll remained at 12.

Now that Newton D. Baker has clarified his stand on the League of Nations he is boosted as a presidential candidate. Maybe Hoover ought to come out and say he is in favor of the depression.

Damage In Quake Is Near 2 Million

facts that have been gathered here and there around the city, will be published. They may get a little under the hides of some who have formed the habit of buying out of town, but that is our idea of nothing to worry about right now.

If any merchant has an instance in mind of citizens going out of town to buy the things they could have bought here, we would like to hear from them. We do not intend to use names, but instances of this kind will be given due consideration and used, if applicable.

The program for the Elks athletic show for Monday night, Feb. 8, has been completed and is in the hands of the printer now. It should prove of interest to all wrestling and boxing fans as it contains some good matches.

The dime a-dance girl

GIN HERE TODAY Ellen Rossiter, who day as a salesgirl in department store, lives mother, Molly Rossiter, elder sister, Myra, and her 12-year-old brother, Mike. Ellen's dead father, a younger son in a titled English family, left a comfortable fortune to provide for his wife and children but irresponsible Molly soon went through the fortune. Since then the support of the household has devolved upon the two sisters. Their problem is complicated by Molly's heedless extravagance.

Molly spend the precious rent money to buy unnecessary clothes for Mike. At her mother's suggestion Ellen decided to work at night as a dance hall hostess until the sum is made up. She and Myra leave a house together for the day's work. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER II During the long hot morning at Barclay's department store Myra's words lingered with Ellen. Myra had said that the Rossiter family would always be just one jump ahead of the poorhouse. Myra had said that the Rossiter girls would never find men financially able to marry them. With a pang in her heart Ellen thought of Myra, engaged for nine years to Bert, worn out with ceaseless waiting for the opportunity, the break that never came. She thought of little Mike. In an age of specialization Mike must have his chance. But how was that chance to come? How was Mike to go to college as other boys did? How was Mike to get an education? All of the Rossiters desired ease and beauty and luxury in life. All of them deserved those things.

As she mechanically cut lengths of 19-cent outing flannel for women who for some inscrutable reason wanted outing flannel in mid-summer, the girl's mind returned continually to that morning conversation. Were the Rossiters fooling themselves? Were they indeed

Next cold does 3 things "Pape's" stops them all A cold always affects you IN AT LEAST THREE WAYS. Air passages are inflamed and irritated. Perspiration is checked. Bowels are clogged with acid wastes from the mucous discharge. So doctors say you must do THREE THINGS to be rid of a cold. Pape's Cold Compound does all three! It reduces inflammation and swelling of the mucous membrane; it induces perspiration; opens the bowels. Chew one of these pleasant tablets and see how quickly nasal discharge stops; head clears; breathing becomes easy. See how that achy, feverish, weak feeling disappears. And "Pape's" doesn't stop with killing cold germs. It activates bowels and removes germs and acid wastes from the system. All drug stores—35c. Just remember "Pape's."

But her voice was cool as she admitted that she did clerk in a store... and meant to continue to do so... the Brooklyn apartment house... there was a long wait while good-natured Mrs. Clancy climbed the stairs to bring Molly to the phone... But the wait was easier than the explanation, Molly Rossiter made very hard. She could not understand why Ellen had not persuaded Salomon to take her without the evening dress. She never understood such things. To top this off she explained tearfully that the landlord had called during the morning for his rent... "What will we do?" she wailed. Ellen had no better idea of that than Molly. But she poured forth reassurances before she hung up the receiver and turned away. She gave way a little then. There were tears in her wide, thick-lashed eyes and her face, ordinarily so easy, was pale with fatigue and anxiety. She brushed past a handsome middle-aged man, who had been waiting at the row of telephones on the fifth floor of Barclay's. She did not notice him until he touched her on the arm. She turned to face Steven Barclay, owner of the department store. "You're employed here, aren't you?" he asked. Ellen's heart gave a great thump. It was against the rules to telephone during business hours. It was also against the rules to leave one's counter. Her counter, tended by another girl, was six floors below in the basement. "I am employed here," she said in a strained, low voice. "Will you step into my office, please?" Ellen clamped her teeth into her lower lip. As she silently followed him she called forth all her reserve to meet this final calamity. So she was to lose her job at Barclay's! (To Be Continued)

RADIO EDUCATES TWO-YEAR-OLD By United Press. ELION, N. Y.—A proud father here tells friends who will listen about how the radio educates his 2-year-old daughter. The baby has become "quite proficient at classical music," the father says, by listening to radio recitals, then sitting down to a toy piano and repeating the notes. Broadway shows are flopping every day. One of these days Jimmy Walker is coming back to town and start reprisals against mid-westerners for staying at home.

Dorcas Club To Meet. The Dorcas club will meet with Mrs. C. W. Alworth, Strawn highway, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Chair Practice Is Postponed. Chair members of the First Baptist church are asked to note the postponement of chair practice, formerly announced for this evening.

"Health" Is Discussed At P. T. A. By Dr. Jackson. Dr. Walter Jackson added an impressive feature of entertainment at the Young School Parent-Teacher association meeting Tuesday afternoon, choosing as his topic, "Health."

A playlet on "Health" was cleverly given by the pupils taught by Mrs. J. S. Barnett.

A short business session also proved interesting, attended by a large group of mothers.

Communications Are Heard At Woodman Circle Meeting. Two communications were heard at the meeting of the Julia Alexander Grove No. 1554, Woodman Circle, yesterday afternoon.

The hour of lodge matters was presided over by Mrs. Davis. Several members were reported ill and their names submitted to the visiting committee.

Plans are going forward for the party to be given at the home of Mrs. A. L. Murrell the last Friday in this month.

The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. C. C. Cash and Mrs. Barney. Eighteen members attended the session.

Honorary Luncheon Is Lovely Affairs For State President. One of the loveliest as well as most impressive affairs of the winter season took prominent place on Ranger's society calendar Wednesday afternoon when the City Parent-Teacher Association and Child Study Club association, under the personal direction of Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, president, entertained with a colorfully appointed luncheon at the Ranger high school.

The tables at which places were laid for 50 members and guests were elaborately decorated, to represent the organization's colors of blue and gold.

Other table accessories were gold tinted autumn leaves, used as runners which met a harmonizing tone with the artistic place cards made and designed in the form of leaves, by Mrs. George Parsons, member of Child Study Club No. 1.

Corners of the spacious room were adorned with tall floor baskets filled with long tapering greenery, helping to effect a bright spring-like background.

The luncheon was opened and presided over by the Ranger president, Mrs. Maddocks, in her gracious manner. Invocation was said by Prof. E. F. Holloway, followed with an appropriate vocal solo, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," sung by Miss Marjorie Maddocks and accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Stagg.

This selection so beautifully sung, serves as the state song of the Parent-Teacher association.

During the hour with three delicious courses served by members of the home economics class, directed by Miss Adrian Hagaman, greetings were heard from Prof. R. F. Holloway, Mrs. A. J. Olsen of Cisco, county president, who gave a brief resume of the county meet held in Eastland recently.

Miss Blackburn of Breckenridge, district recording secretary, who presided in the absence of the district president, Mrs. L. W. Felchry, and Mrs. R. F. Holloway, presenting greetings from the federal clubs of Ranger, so closely in contact with the Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. Holloway, in her usual pleasing way, extended greetings for Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, president of the county federated clubs, and who is ill at her home, Tiffin road. The extremely delightful toastmaster also introduced other active members of the district and club presidents of the Ranger association.

The response from the honororee, Mrs. Wooten, was more than impressive. A great portion of her talk was highly complimentary to this particular district of workers and thanking the city and her ladies for her cordial welcome, expressing the wish for a return visit as soon as can possibly be arranged.

Miss Hagaman and her splendid class of young ladies proved their personal ability as connoisseurs as to what constitutes a tasty, well-served and delicious menu. The school should indeed be proud of such a department.

Much credit is due Mrs. B. H. Peacock and her committee who aided to such a great extent in selling the tickets and giving their help in other ways. Members of the program committee, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Lewis Pitcock and Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, are also complimented for the perfect features of entertainment. The decorative committee headed by Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, and ably assisted by Mrs. C. A. Hummel, Mrs. Lewis Pitcock, Mrs. George Parsons, Mrs. F. A. Wagner and Miss Adrian Hagaman, are too extended compliments of the highest degree for the decorations and appointments blending into such a lavish arrangement. Every member of the Parent-Teacher associations and study clubs aided to an immeasurable extent in making this function one of which they should be proud.

Proceeding the luncheon a program was rendered in the high school auditorium at 3 o'clock, at which hour the invocation was given by Dr. L. B. Gray, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Greetings, Mr. Holloway, superintendent of the schools, Texas Rhythm band number, Miss Belva Dixon, director.

Harmonica bands, Mrs. Easkin and Mrs. June Pearson, directors. The glee club selection formerly announced was cancelled on account of the serious illness of the director, Carl Brumblow.

Address, Mrs. A. S. Wood, state president, Athens, Texas. Places were marked at the beautifully appointed luncheon for the following guests: Mmes. A. S. Wood of Athens, A. J. Olsen of Cisco, C. E. Maddocks, Lyman Keeping Up With Eastland County Students at C.I.A.

Special Correspondent. DENTON, Feb. 4.—Frances Glazner, a freshman at Texas State College for Women (C. I. A.), visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Glazner, of Ranger, last week.

Kenneth Wier, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Wier, sang at the First Baptist church of Denton last Sunday. "The King of Love, My Shepherd Is." She was accompanied by Miss Lottie Mae Donoho, of Denton.

Melba Gamble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gamble of the Lone Star Gas camp, spent the week-end at home. Miss Gamble is a freshman at Texas State College for Women (C. I. A.).

Exams are over. Grades have been turned in. Gone is that worried look from the face of every student. Gone are the circles around the eyes, caused by lack of sleep. Gone is that lagging step, that "frazged out" walk. One walks up the hill in the mornings with a light step and with a beaming smile. Everyone has that air of determination to really study this semester so cramming will not be necessary when exams come around again. Oh, yeah!

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer. If you would serve left-over vegetable dishes in the most attractive fashion, remember to make the most of ramikins and timbales.

Although ramikins refer more to the manner of serving than to the method of cooking, as is the case with timbales, foods served in ramikins have a distinctive flavor. These individual dishes make it easy to use up two or more varieties of left-overs and give each member of the family his favorite vegetable. Or these perplexing little dabs can be disposed of individually without comment, each in its own small ramikin. Aside from this, the use of ramikins is a means of saving dish-washing since material is heated, served and eaten from the same individual dish.

Timbale translated literally means "kettle drum" and was originally used only for molds shaped somewhat like the present melon mold. Timbales are always unmolded before serving and now days any shape of mold in which mixtures can be baked is used. Timbales should not be confused with timbale shells, which are entirely different. Timbale shells are made of a thin fritter batter and fried on a special iron mold in deep fat. They are used to hold a creamed mixture.

Very often two vegetables can be combined in timbales. A cheap vegetable can be used to stretch a more expensive one as in the following recipe.

Combination Timbales. One-half cup cooked asparagus, 1-2 cup chopped cooked carrots, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon white pepper, 2 eggs.

Rub asparagus and carrots through ricer. Melt butter, stir in flour and cook until bubbling. Slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Bring to the boiling point and remove from fire. Stir in prepared vegetables and well beaten eggs. Season with salt and pepper and pour into well buttered molds, filling them about two-thirds full. Put molds in a pan of hot water, cover with buttered paper and bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven. Unmold and serve.

The foundation of most timbales is this same rich, custard-like sauce. More eggs can be used, making a decidedly custard-ish base high in food value.

Pea Timbales. One cup pea puree, 2 eggs, 3 tablespoons milk, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, few gratings nutmeg.

Rub peas through ricer. Beat eggs until light with milk. Combine with peas and add melted butter and seasonings. Beat until well blended and pour into well buttered molds. Place molds in pan of hot water and cover with buttered paper. Bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven and unmold to serve.

Tomorrow's Menu. BREAKFAST: Stewed figs with lemon slices, cereal, cream, broiled cottage ham, creamed potatoes, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Pea timbales with creamed salmon, pumpkin, shredded leaf lettuce with chiffonade dressing, grape juice, nut cookies.

DINNER: Veal and pork loaf, scalloped potatoes, buttered beets, apple and celery salad, wheat rolls, creamed peach cobbler, milk, coffee.
