One of the towns in the county, not Gorman nor Carbon but one about that size, has organized a Dolly Dimples club...

Dolly came to town more or less unannounced. She was staying at the home of one of the prominent citizens...

It seems that Dolly was just about to inherit a nice sum of money. The inheritance depended to a large extent upon the perpetuity of life in the body of a mother-in-law...

And so, as the story goes, Dolly equipped herself with a nice automobile and such exterior decorations for herself as the shelves and hangers of the town's merchants afforded...

Now Dolly went so far as to take a suite of rooms in a certain hotel in one of the more metropolitan cities of the county...

The Chinese and Japanese forces massed today for a decisive battle to decide the control of Shanghai with troops for both sides pouring toward the city.

The usual night fighting ceased at midnight after a heavy bombardment on the Chapei front and the Woosung forts.

Heavy guns rocked Shanghai Monday night as Japanese troops renewed their bombardment of the native quarter and at the forts of Woosung after a 26-hour cessation of hostilities.

The fort bombardment was conducted with eight Japanese troop transport waiting to pass up the river toward Shanghai.

The troops were fully equipped, all wearing steel helmets and carrying their own field guns.

Among survivors is a sister, Miss Lena Coleman of Odessa. The body of an unidentified man was run over early Sunday morning by a Texas & Pacific freight train about five miles east of Strawn.

HOUSTON MILK WAR IS STILL BEING WAGED A truck load of milk on the way to a Houston creamery, was hijacked today near Pearland and about 500 gallons of milk were poured into the ditch beside the highway.

Two motorcycle officers on milk war duty picked up three men in an automobile near the scene and brought them to Houston.

The truck belonged to a milk producer, enroute to the creamery to sell his milk.

The milk war between producers and distributors, was blamed for the incident. Producers refused to sell their milk when distributors reduced the price almost one cent per quart.

Distributors received thousands of gallons of milk today shipped from distant cities, chiefly Dallas and San Antonio.

LEWISTON, Ill.—A mock grave, prepared by a heartbroken mother whose son was killed during the World War, and who died from grief before his body was located, is to be converted into a real grave to receive the son's body, only recently located in France.

The body, that of Jesse F. Butler, was found buried in a grave with the body of a French soldier, in a war cemetery close to the scene of a battle in which he was reported to have been killed July 24, 1918.

Discovery of the son's body was announced in a war office communication to Mrs. Rowenah Woodrill, Pekin, his sister. It said that Butler's body was found in a French war grave alongside that of a Frenchman and attached to the communication was a ring that Butler had worn.

When Mrs. Woodrill expressed uncertainty as to the identity because she was unable to remember the ring, the war department declared there could be no dispute over identification and discussed that its investigators had found a metal identification tag with the body and that a check of the records showed it belonged to her brother.

Acting on Mrs. Woodrill's instructions, the War Department plans to move the body from France to New York, and then transport it to Lewiston for burial in the mock grave alongside that of the dead soldier's mother, the latter in compliance with the mother's dying request.

A military escort, Mrs. Woodrill was informed, will accompany the body from New York to Lewiston.

A SECTION OF A LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO WAREHOUSE WHERE TOBACCO'S ARE STORED TO AGE AND MELLOW

A 90 million dollar reason why Chesterfields are Better!

Just think what this means for Chesterfield smokers. It means that the larger part of 90 million dollars is invested in Domestic and Turkish tobaccos that are being properly aged in Nature's way, and cured so as to make them sweeter and milder.

These warehouses, if placed end-to-end, would be about four miles in length. From floor to ceiling they are filled with these casks of fine tobacco, ageing in Nature's slow but sure way. It takes a lot of money to make a good cigarette—money to buy good tobaccos and money to age them properly.

CHESTERFIELDS are milder, and taste better... there's a 90 million dollar reason why! Just try them!

"Music that Satisfies." Hear Nat Shilkret's 35-piece orchestra and Alex Gray, soloist, every night except Sunday—on the Columbia Network—10:30 Eastern Standard Time.

MARY ELIZABETH HARRIS Editor Office Phone 500 Eastland

This paper is in receipt of a clipping from a San Antonio newspaper giving a detailed account of the wedding of Julius Krause of Eastland to Miss Edith Machat of San Antonio.

The clipping is reproduced here: "The marriage of Miss Edith Machat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Machat, to Julius B. Krause, son of Mrs. H. Krause of Braunschweig, Germany, was solemnized Tuesday evening in the Crystal Room of the Aurora.

"Prior to the ceremony, which was read by Rabbi Rubin before an improvised altar of smilax, fern and tall ivory candles, Mrs. Herman Brenner sang "Because I Love You." She was accompanied by Mrs. L. L. Marks.

"The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of pale peach colored lace fashioned along Princess lines, the skirt ending on train. The peach colored tulle veil was caught to her head with real orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

"Miss Carrie Machat, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of ice green satin and carried an arm bouquet of Tallman roses.

"The matrons were Mrs. M. Bendix, who was in flesh colored satin, and Mrs. D. Wolf, in ivory satin. Mrs. Bendix carried an arm bouquet of butterfly roses and Mrs. Wolf carried Columbia roses.

"Following the ceremony an ice course was served in the flower-decked sun room. In the center of the table was the wedding cake, a ring-shaped confection embossed with pale pink roses and flanked by tall peach-colored candles in Dresden holders. Mrs. Abe Ilfberger presided at the coffee service assisted by Miss Rose Newding.

"A string quartet played during the reception. "Mr. and Mrs. Krause left for a month's stay in California, after which they will be at home in Eastland. The bride traveled in a smart beige suit trimmed with beige fox."
