A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

MY HELP: I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.—Psalm 40: 17.

GENERAL GLASSFORD WALKS THE PLANK

Gen. Pelham D. Glassford, superintendent of police of the District of Columbia, a distinguished soldier of 30 years before his name went on the retired list an Arizona ranch owner and breeder of fine stock, walked the plank for his bold defiance of Attorney General W. D. Mitchell and the president of the United States. All this because Glassford would not take orders in the so-called war on the bonus marchers who were driven out of Washington by regular soldiers of the United States.

IMPORTANT DECISION IN CONGRESSIONAL REDISTRICTING

All the 48 American commonwealths were given unrestricted freedom by a supreme court ruling to map out their congressional district as they see fit. Indeed, the highest tribunal upheld the recent redistricting of Mississippi and declared that a regulation imposed in the federal reapportionment act of 1911 was no longer in force.

FLOWERS FOR OFFICERS OF THE LAW

Well, the officers of the police department of Austin and San Antonio desperado trailers have brought to judgment the slayer of Edgar C. Arledge, Jr. It was a splendid achievement and flowers should be given to those who are entitled to praise as well as credit for the neatest bit of Sherlock Holmesing paced in the record for many a day.

BRYAN THOUGHT HE WON AN LOST

As for the democrats and independents in Texas who are following the flag of the standard bearers of the people, they should see to it that organization is complete in every one of the thousands of Texas precincts in order that a huge majority may be returned on election day.

Now Watch Out for "Retaliatory Tactics"

Cartoon titled 'Now Watch Out for "Retaliatory Tactics"'. It depicts various political figures and events with humorous captions. One panel shows a man saying 'THE GOP MUST BE ELECTED' while another says 'WE VIEW WITH ALARM!!'. Other panels mention Hitler, Gandhi, King Carol, Mussolini, and South American candidates.

DERRICK SHADOWS

The life of a poet must surely be a fascinating one. To dwell among the clouds in a dream-dream forever marveling at the wonders of nature and writing little phrases about trees and flowers and beetles and love should be inspirational. Do you really think all geni are mad? I think not. They are merely of another world, trying vainly to adapt themselves to the inferior conditions here.

Putnam Pleads For Homestead Exemption Plan

HOUSTON, Oct. 29.—"I am making a Christmas gift this year to all of the 500,000 homestead-owning families of Texas, and placing the same gift within reach of all of the other 800,000 Texas families who may hereafter acquire homesteads," said Frank Putnam, originator of the homestead tax exemption amendment, in a final plea to all Texas voters, white and colored alike, to vote for the amendment Nov. 8.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

In times of bad business it seems that the producers of raw materials suffer most. That is, of course, unless the particular raw material is for some reason absolutely essential and also free from over production or under consumption and is, in fact, an exception.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER. WASHINGTON.—A Republican victory this year would at least have the effect of dissipating the popularity of straw votes. Perhaps no one would ever bother again to conduct an unofficial presidential poll on a large scale.

Texas University Tennis Team Is Stronger Than Ever

By United Press. AUSTIN.—Dr. D. A. Penick, famous tennis coach who has turned out such stars as Wilmer Allison, Davis cup player, expects a far stronger team for the 1932-1933 season than he had last year.

ARE RELIC EXPERTS

APPLETON, Wis.—The five small children of George Overton, farmer living near Lake Butte des Morts, are becoming experts on Indian relics. Overton is an amateur archeologist and each of his children has made a collection of relics gathered from the lake shore farm lands.

NOTICE TO WATER CUSTOMERS

In a general reduction of operating expenses of the City it has been necessary to eliminate the services of one clerk in the office. It has been the custom in the past to send out second notices to delinquent water customers each month but owing to this reduction in clerical force this practice will be discontinued after November 1st.

CALL of the WEST by R. G. MONTGOMERY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

STAN HALL accuses ASPER DELO, timber king, of having men shot who attempt to check up on his activities. Hall says he is making a check. DeLo says he will go in person and present it.

DUDDLEY WINTERS, in love with Dona, goes with her to Three Rivers to get her father to give up the fight with Hall. Dudley gets a marriage certificate filed, one which he hopes to use. Hall is accused of killing a ranger and of wounding DeLo from ambush. Dona has to show him the certificate and tell him she is married to Dudley to get him to promise to leave.

The office is raided of valuable papers and a posse headed by SWERGIN, DeLo's timber boss, surround Hall. Dona goes out and is captured after trying to shoot Hall. He takes her to a cave. Swergin finds the cave and rescues Dona. He waits for Hall, who is out, and captures him. Swergin's men start a lynching while taking him in. Dona stands them off with her gun and frees Hall. He lets her take his horse and promises to come for it that night. He says he is leaving the country. Dudley follows Dona and tries to shoot Hall. After his escape, Dona promises to marry Dudley. Dona rides out to investigate queer workings over the ridge. Her horse is shot from under her. She remains consciousness to find Swergin bending over her accusing Hall of the shooting. Dudley has been riding a lot alone and cannot be found.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XL ASPER walked fully 15 minutes at the corral before Dudley arrived. Malloy rode away at a lope without looking back, or saying a word regarding his destination or when he would return.

Dudley came riding in at a trot. He was as spotless and unruffled as though he had just come from his room. The old timber king's anger almost choked him as he watched his son-in-law slide from his saddle. "Where have you been?" Asper demanded.

Dudley looked at his father-in-law in a surprised manner. "I got here just as soon as I heard about it," he protested. "His face flushed as he met Asper's glare.

Donna laughed softly. "I'll be in this afternoon, Dad."

The doctor smiled, but not without a trace of irritation. "Where is Dud?" Dona asked, as though she had remembered him for the first time.

"He'll be in a minute," Asper promised. "I'll hike out and tell him you are awake."

Dona held out a hand weakly. "First tell me, what happened to the room?" There was real concern in her eyes.

Asper cleared his throat and looked at the floor. "He was killed?" Dona faltered.

Asper brightened suddenly as he remembered that Malloy had ridden out on an errand of his own making. "Malloy went out to get him and that boy can sure take care of a horse."

"Malloy is a good fellow, Dad," Dona murmured.

THE doctor stepped outside and Asper followed him. "She ought to go back to sleep and rest an hour or so more before Winters talks to her," the doctor said gravely. "She will be sitting up tomorrow. I never saw more vitality." He shook his head. "She will not stay in bed."

Asper grunted and looked about the big main room. Dudley was no where in sight, but his door was open. Asper walked over and looked in. Dudley was standing before the mirror, smoothing back his hair. He was as fresh as a newly-opened rose. Asper snorted disapprovingly. Dudley dropped the brushes he had been running through his hair and stepped forward.

"Has she wakened?" he asked. Asper nodded. "Doc says you'll have to wait until she has had an hour or two. She's pretty excited and wants to talk. When you see her don't talk about this business."

Dudley laid a hand on the older man's arm. "I'll be very careful," he said.

Asper and Dudley went down to the corral to see if the roan had been brought in. Malloy was not to be found but a young helper was on hand.

"Did they find the roan?" Dudley asked. The boy nodded toward a saddle that lay on the ground at the door of the harness room. "Had two millet holes in him and didn't get fast," he explained briefly. "Dead?" Dudley spoke nervously. The boy nodded and went on working at a cinch he was repairing.

ASPER said nothing, but he turned away and walked slowly up the hill. Dudley saddled his horse and rode out of camp. He was doing a lot of hard thinking and needed to be alone. Delicious came hard with Dudley but he knew he had one to make without much more delay.

An hour later he returned. Asper met him outside Dona's room. The old timber king was smiling broadly.

"Go in and have a chat with her. She has been trying to talk about the timber business but I was able to head her off. But watch your step." He patted Dudley's arm heavily.

Dudley entered the sick room with a swift stride. He was met by an eager smile from Dona. He sat down beside her. The doctor had gone and they were alone. Dudley bent close to her.

"I'd have been in early but I missed you when you woke the first time and they wouldn't let me come until now," he said. Dona had been struggling with herself and had come to a decision that had given her a peaceful feeling. She was resting now after strenuous excitement and felt she could forget and give herself wholly to Dudley. He deserved it after the way he had acted.

FAMOUS FOOTBALL PLAYS

Girls, 4 p. m., junior high school; Mrs. Tom Harrell, guardian. "Ghost House," home talent play, auspices South Ward P.T.A., benefit charity; 8 p. m., high school auditorium. Eastland Firemen's association, 8 p. m., city hall. Saturday. Junior Missionary Auxiliary, 9:30 p. m., Baptist church; Mmes. J. P. Trub, Lee Bishop, and Miss Opal Hunt, directors. Public library open 2 to 5:30 p. m., community clubhouse. Fidelis Matrons. Mrs. George Harrell of South Soanap street, opened her attractive home Friday afternoon, to the Fidelis Matrons class of the Baptist church, hostessed by Group No. 1, under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Stiles, group captain. A Halloween atmosphere of darkened rooms, with soft lights glimmering through jack-o-lanterns greeted the guests. Halloween emblems, in silhouettes of witches, bats and cats, were festooned on window draperies, and low bowls filled with yellow cosmos were used in decoration.

Mrs. Harrell and Mrs. Stiles received informally. A brief program of devotional opened the afternoon.

Song ensemble, "What a Friend We have in Jesus," with Mrs. H. A. McCannies at piano, and Mrs. Frank V. Williams, as song leader, preceded prayer by Mrs. W. H. Muston.

A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Harrell, president. The devotional following, presented "Spiritual Growth," given by Mrs. W. A. Owen.

A series of clever games was led by Mrs. Williams. The initiation into the "Royal Order of Donkey," introduced a blindfold game and a threading exercise proved that needles are not always easy to handle.

Timely refreshments of pecan-pumpkin pie with whipped cream topping, and coffee, were served by Mrs. Stiles and hostess group at close of a pleasant afternoon, to Mmes. Wilbert Irons, J. A. Stover, J. H. Fulcher, Eugene Tucker, Charles Seed, W. P. Fuller, Lily Herndon, A. O. Cook, L. G. Summers, A. J. Campbell, R. A. McCannies, W. A. Owen, R. L. Young, Frank V. Williams, W. H. Muston, L. J. Lambert, E. W. Gurley, W. D. R. Owen, W. A. Stiles, S. C. Walker, and George Harrell.

Enjoys Halloween Party. The Neetopew group of Camp Fire Girls had a hilarious time at their Halloween party Thursday night when they were received at the home of Mrs. Tom Harrell, their guardian, who was assisted by Mrs. W. K. Hyer, Mrs. Joe H. Jones, Mrs. N. N. Rosenquist, and Mrs. W. E. Coleman, in entertaining the jolly young crowd.

The Harrell home was decorated with Halloween devices and bowls of yellow chrysanthemums adorned the living-room, where a style revue was held, as a curtain raiser to the fun program.

Everybody was in masquerade and wore some kind of costume of witch, Spanish belle, tacky, clown, or pierrot.

A prize was offered for the one who could maintain their identity the longest without becoming known, and as all were masked this was rather difficult. The prize was awarded Ida Lee Foster, who represented a lady of 1890, and who was presented a Halloween noise maker.

Mrs. Harrell was assisted by Mary Jane Harrell, in snappy red costume and black face, a typical "hellhop."

hot chocolate were served after a hilarious evening to Maxine Coleman, Jeanne Johnston, Olivette Killough, Jackie Bellew, Alice Jones, Marzelle Wright, Edna Clarke, Frances Lane, Mildred McGlamery, Doris Lawrence, Gladys Gates, Ida Lee Foster, Betty Wagon, Edith Rosenquist, Ruby Lee Pritchard, Sileen Mays, Helen Rosenquet, Janey Coy Stover, June Hyer, Lucy May Cottingham, Betty Hyer, Ouida Harbin, Katrina Lovelace, Mary Helen Armstrong, and Mary Jane Harrell.

Football Boys Lunched. A special lunch was served at 11:30 a. m., to the Eastland high Mavericks, 27 in all, by Mrs. C. C. Ligon, Friday morning in celebration of the Eastland high school. The game was played in Crockett-ridge by the boys Friday afternoon.

Young People's Department Baptist Church. Thursday night the young people's department and the Senior Baptist Young People's union, enjoyed a Halloween party in the lower assembly room of the Baptist church, which was colorfully decorated in seasonable emblems and devices, and vases of yellow chrysanthemums.

Floor games were diversions, and many Halloween romps and fortune telling devices passed a merry evening, led by Mrs. W. O. Wright, Bruce Butler, Misses Irene Williams, and Ruth Butler.

A dainty refreshment plate of sandwiches, cake and hot chocolate with plate favors of paper mache cats, was served Misses Thelma Woods, Beulah Drake, Rowena Cook, Irene Williams, Erna Hunt, Aileen Williams; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lambert, Mrs. O. B. Darby; J. A. Ross, J. R. Carlisle, Floyd H. Thomas, James Bell, John Frank Williams, and Harvey Basham.

Thursday Afternoon Study Club "In Politics." The Thursday Afternoon Study club presented a very fine program last Thursday afternoon, with papers and discussions centering about the major topic, politics.

The hostess and leader of lesson, Mrs. Wilbourne B. Colie, presented Mrs. W. H. Mullings, who gave an unique interpretation of the "Political Boss."

Mrs. W. P. Leslie had an involved, interesting paper on "Taxation," and the book that has created so much interest in political circles and gossip, "More Merry Go Round," was given a book review, quite exhaustive, by Mrs. Grady Pipkin.

The program proper closed with an article on Walter Lippman, written by Mrs. A. H. Johnson.

Prior to program roll call was answered with assigned subjects, and these brought many interesting items to the club's attention. Mrs. W. A. Whitley was greeted as a new member. The business session preceding the program was devoted to the usual routine. The club was formally notified of the (Continued on page 6)

Following this notice given two weeks prior to voting thereon, the amendment will be taken up at the next meeting, and presented for vote at that time.

Announcement was made that the club will meet on Nov. 19, with Mrs. J. M. Perkins as hostess, and leader of program, at clubhouse.

Those present, Misses B. M. Collier, Dan Childress, J. E. Hickman, M. C. Hays, Horace Conley, Leslie Gray, C. U. Connelley, W. E. Collier, James Horton, Hubert Jones, F. M. Kenny, Julius E. Krause, W. P. Leslie, Ray Lerner, W. A. Martin, J. E. McLaughlin, W. H. Mullings, J. M. Perkins, W. D. R. Owen, W. B. Pickens, Grady Pipkin, R. E. Sikes, M. J. Pickett, Carl Springer, E. Roy Townsend, and W. A. Whitley.

Informal Evening

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whitley entertained a small group of friends very informally at their home. Thursday night, with "84," a game played with two dozen sets of dominoes, by eight persons about one table.

Following a delightful evening, refreshments of ginger cake with whipped cream topping, coffee and Halloween candies were served by the hostess to Judge and Mrs. J. E. Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Childress, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Porter, and Mr. Whitley.

This little group meets occasionally for this interesting game, but has no stated time for assembling.

Masquerade Party

Perhaps never in the history of Eastland has there been so many Halloween parties held as has been the case this season. Grow-ups and little folks, clubs, church organizations, and individuals, have all been having various kinds of Halloween parties for several days past.

Among those given for children, one of the most attractive was that of Friday night, when Mrs. J. A. Stover entertained with a masquerade party at the family home, 805 West Moss, for their young daughter, Janie Coy Stover.

All kinds and sorts of costumes were noted, and everyone was masked, which made the interest quite acute. A prize was awarded for the most novel costume.

The home was literally transformed into a Halloween interior, lighted by jack-o-lanterns with soft rays glimmering through jack faces. The corners of the room were filled with autumn boughs, intermingled with corn and maize, and cat and witch silhouettes brought an eerie decoration in keeping with the witch's tent, in which the witch (Mrs. Rosenquest) brewed her incantations over a kettle, beneath which glowed a fire, lighting the interior as she told weird ghost stories, and read the fortunes of the young people.

Trays of rosy cheeked apples, white popcorn, roasted peanuts, and hot cocoa were passed among the gay little crowd. Music through the evening and many Halloween games made a delightful party for Edith Rosenquest, Jeanne Johnston, Eileen May, Eleanor Harper, Maxine Coleman, Helen Adams, Fern Lee Frost, Jennie Tolbert, Christine Kelly, Ruth Knight, Louise Cook, Ruth Agnes Harrell, Doris Lawrence, Katherine Garrett, Eugene Gage, Junior Lovett, Jay Francis, Howard Adams, Walker Fuller, Eugene Harris, Charley Griffin, Charles Van Geem, Carroll Franklin, Warren Lane, and Jim Connelley.

Dance-a-Month Club Presents

Brilliant Entertainment. The Elk club ballroom presented a characteristic interior Thursday night on the occasion of the Halloween dance given by the Dance-a-Month club of the Leon Lake power plant organization.

A rustic interior emphasizing the harvest month was artistically developed in decorations of tall sheafs of corn and maize, with brilliant fall foliage, that massed the corners of the ballroom, and formed a pyramid in the center of the spacious floor. About the base, colorful arrangements in yellow pumpkins, and gopher harvest fruit, encircled the room, which stood under a canopy of streamers, in the harvest shades, extending from the ceiling lights to the pyramid.

Each cluster of bulbs was dimmed with pumpkin faces of paper mache. Spaced between the sheafs stood tall pillars of hay, topped with lighted pumpkin lanterns. The harvest idea was further indicated by the wagon wheels here and there, against the walls, and the atmosphere throughout preserved the old-time barn dance life.

Wonderful music was furnished by the Ray Judia orchestra of six pieces from Cisco.

Those not dancing and as on-lookers, enjoying the luxury of the lounge-room were happily entertained by the charming music, and the unique and characteristic decorations, which added a great charm to the spacious Elk club home.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Hightower, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kilgough, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stephen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. James Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pipkin, Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Fagg, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jones, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bickett, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Conley; Misses Sallie Williamson, Doris Quinn, and Miss Florine Killingsworth of Ranger; Messrs. P. T. Cullen, D. H. Fisher, Jim Golden, M. J. Pilcher, J. C. Hallaman, J. A. Jarboe, Ray Jerigan, G. Lindsey, Jim Morris, Delbert Myers, Bedford Jones, Luther Thomas, and R. O. Hunter. The decorations were planned by T. F. Cullen and Jim Golden, assisted by Mrs. Roy Birmingham and Mrs. Frank Hightower. The Dance-a-Month club enjoys these delightful affairs at stated intervals. Mr. Roy Birmingham is the presiding chairman of the club. Class in Audition, Baptist Church This Week. The Baptist church membership is looking forward with pleasure to the class in audition, for study of Sunday and church budget, to be opened Monday, tomorrow, evening at 6:45 o'clock, in the church, with State Sunday School Secretary G. F. Hopkins of Dallas, as instructor. A church-wide study will be given for members from the interchurch membership. The audition is stressing an every-member canvass for the financial support of the church. The class will be conducted each evening up to and inclusive of Friday. The chapel of the Baptist church will be filled by Mr. Hopkins, who conducts the preaching service this morning, and a laymen's service will be in charge of Judge L. H. Welch of Breckenridge, T. L. Walker of Cisco, and W. D. R. Owen of Eastland Baptist church, who will speak Sunday night (tonight). Cordial invitation extended to the public to attend.

Eastland Again Complimented. The Order of the Eastern Star of Eastland has again been complimented in the appointment by the new worthy grand matron, Mrs. Rida Burnett, and Mrs. D. J. Fiensy of Eastland as deputy grand matron for District 3, Section 4. This appointment goes into immediate effect, and makes the fourth deputy in six years form the Eastland chapter, which is considered an unusual honor, so stated Mrs. W. J. Thomas, worthy matron of the Eastland Order of the Eastern Star.

Will Attend Ranger Halloween Party. The Halloween party to be given on the real night of Halloween, Monday, by the Eastern Star chapter, No. 275, of Ranger, will be attended by the Eastland Eastern Star chapter, which accepted Ranger's invitation some days ago. The party will be held in the lower auditorium of the Masonic temple in Ranger, and masqueraded costumes will be the order of the evening. Pythian Sisters Temple Keep Open House. Halloween will be held by the Pythian Sisters temple, who keep open house in Knights of Pythias hall, from 7:30 to 12 p. m., Monday, honoring the Knights of Pythias and their families. A snappy program has been arranged and special features of entertainment include a "wishing well" and a "fortune teller," who will reveal your future, if you cross her palm with silver. An eerie sport, "Murder Committed," and a graveyard scene will aid and abet the spooks, and witches, due on Halloween. Mrs. Milton Newman, general chairman for evening, has arranged to have popcorn balls sold during the entertainment.

Eastland Personal Walter Wise, formerly of Eastland, was a visitor here Friday and Saturday. SLEEPING SICKNESS ALLEGED SEATTLE.—Merton Thompson, 40, accused of taking $40 from the cash register of the Revenue bank, may offer a defense that he was suffering from sleeping sickness when he committed the crime. A scientist denies that the average man is getting bigger, but he may be admitted he feels bigger around election time.

BIG GAME HUNT!

ANOTHER OF THOSE THRILLING WASH TUBBS ADVENTURES BY ROY CRANE.

MARKERS

DIRECTIONS:

CUT out the above markers. Each player, in turn, draws from a deck of cards containing nothing above the sixes (or you can use a single dice, or spinner) and moves his marker as far as indicated. When you land on an animal square put that animal in your corral. If your opponent has that animal, change it from his corral to yours.

THE game is over when either player lands on the spot marked finish and both players continue around the trail until one or the other does land there. Then count your points. Player with highest total wins.

CUT OUT ANIMAL SQUARES BELOW, AND PLACE ON TRAIL.

SCOUT NEWS

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Scouts. Encouraging reports come from all parts of the council. Such activities and advancements are being realized by each individual troop, due largely to the enthusiastic planning and conscientious scoutmasters.

The scoutmaster's job is to see how many boys he can give an opportunity to receive the scouting program in an adequate way. He sometimes gets very much discouraged over things, but is pepped up to continue when he realizes he has made a score by the actions and the conduct of some particular boy.

Although the scoutmaster gets to cash in on some of the dividends during the life of the troop, many of the older ones now are reaping joy and benefit from seeing scouts of yesteryear grown to manhood and making real participating citizens. The scoutmaster being the man who comes in direct contact with the boy, is known as the key-man in scouting. All of the set-up as far as organization is concerned is primarily for aiding the scoutmaster in getting the program over to the

Our hats are off to the scoutmaster who takes his job seriously and equips himself with all possible tools that are necessary in carrying out a well rounded troop program.

Goldthwaite.

The troop was re-organized in Goldthwaite last Thursday night with Marvin Hodges, chairman, and R. L. Steen Jr., O. H. Yarbrock, J. A. Palmer and M. Y. Stokes as members of the troop committee. The troop committee selected Judge James O. Marberry as scoutmaster of the troop. The troop was formerly known as Troop No. 17, but has been changed to 16. We wish for this troop a most enjoyable scouting year.

Troop No. 5.

The scribe of Troop 5 of Brownwood reports a general get-together meeting of the troop lining up some new members, playing lots of games, a talk by the scout executive, and a good story by Rev. Foster ending all with a chili supper. George A. Reiff Jr. is scoutmaster of the troop.

A big scout rally will be held in Ranger Friday night, Oct. 28. Troops participating in this rally will come from Breckenridge, Cisco, Ranger, Eastland, Caddo and Parks. Various contests in scoutcraft will take place. This rally is similar to the one held in Breckenridge during the spring when Ranger carried off first place.

OKLAHOMA UNIVERSITY TO HAVE BIRTHDAY

By United Press.

NORMAN, Okla.—The fortieth birthday of the University of Oklahoma will be celebrated here Nov. 5, homecoming, with a pageant and dance in the fieldhouse. More than 500 students will take part in the show, which will portray the history of the university since its founding in 1892. The program for the day will be directed by the "O" club, lettermen's organization.
