HIGHWAY INJUNCTION HEARING IS SET

Breckenridge Man Is Wounded In Gun Battle

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

Gripin' Gus Coleman comes back at us for saying he predicted the winner of the Eastland-Breckenridge game would be Oil Belt champions, and goes on to say that the Buckaroos outplayed, outpassed, outgassed, and outran the Bulldogs, that the only thing the Bulldogs did was to get the most scores. If it means anything to Gus we will admit the Buckaroos looked better, smiled more sweetly and had prettier teeth than the Bulldogs.

However Gus goes on to say that any predictions he made last January or February didn't go now, which reminds us that we promised to quote another prediction. Here it is: the best of our memory—we haven't found that clipping yet.

Proxy Anderson, after calling us to find out about a basket ball game, wrote in his column that we said the fans here were not much interested in basket ball right at that time. Proxy advised the town to go basketball-minded, because a town the size of Ranger could never hope to get anywhere with football. He said that it was not likely Ranger would ever have a strong enough to win the district again, much less go far in the state race, or words to that effect. We have our fingers crossed in case we have misquoted Proxy too much.

Anyway, here is another prediction from El Paso at Sweetwater, San Angelo, and which we have been saving for an occasion of this kind. Blondy said, just after Abilene beat San Angelo 9 to 7.

"It was an accident that Abilene beat San Angelo, but it probably would be an accident when Abilene beats the Oil Belt."

"Bet you Abilene beats Lubbock tonight. Also, lay you the Elephants struggle through to another Oil Belt championship this year. The Mayhew mastodons have started even slower than they have their custom. They'll be up there throwing punches from all directions when the district gong rings."

The bi-district games will all be played this week-end, four of the games being played on Friday and four on Saturday. The complete schedule is as follows:

On Friday Sherman will play at Vernon; Greenville at Athens, Harlingen at Corpus Christi and Austin (El Paso) at Sweetwater.

The Saturday games will be between Amarillo at Ranger, Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) at Macione Home (Fort Worth), Breckenridge (San Antonio) at Corsicana and Beaumont at John Reagan (Houston).

Considerable work is being done at Lillard field. On the Hodges Oak Park side water had rotted away the foundation of the stands on that side of the field. A drainage ditch has been dug, the stands jacked up and the foundation underlaid with rock. The same is being done on the end zones and new boards are being put in on the seats where others had broken or rotted.

Banquet Tickets Are Going Fast

J. C. Smith, who has charge of the arrangements for the turkey banquet that is to be given for the Ranger Bulldogs in the green room of the Gholson hotel on Wednesday night, announced today that many reservations had already been made by fans who intend to attend.

The price for a plate at the banquet will be only 50 cents and a large number of fans, in addition to the football team, is expected to be on hand. Those who intend to go to the banquet are urged to get in touch with Mr. Smith before Wednesday noon and let him know if they are to be present.

A good speaker has been as- signed for the banquet and a good show is in store for all who attend.

WOUNDED MAN WILL RECOVER DOCTORS SAY

Officer Shoots Six Times After He Is Fired Upon.

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 29.—J. P. Gilchrist, 40, superintendent of the Hanlon Gasoline company of Breckenridge, was in a local hospital today, suffering from three pistol bullet wounds received in a gun battle three miles south of Breckenridge late Monday afternoon.

The shooting occurred after Constable L. D. Slaughter had served the wounded man with some civil papers. Slaughter was accompanied by Deputy Constable Jack Ellington when the shooting occurred.

According to the officers a charge of buckshot, alleged to have been fired by Gilchrist, entered the door of the car just under the glass on the side on which Ellington was seated. Ellington drew his gun and fired six shots, three hitting Gilchrist, who was wounded in the left side, left arm and in the fleshy part of the knee.

Doctors at the hospital said today that the wounded man would recover. No charges had been filed this afternoon.

Ranger Church to Banquet Teachers, Officers Tonight

The banquet is held annually and is always well attended and one of the features of the social affairs of the church.

Air Express Cuts Down On Rates

NEW YORK.—Air-express tariff rate reductions affecting 11,266 miles of air-express service of the Railway Express Agency, Inc., from coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf were announced by the general offices here today, effective Dec. 1.

The new schedule, effecting reductions of from 15 to 30 per cent, is the fourth issued since the inauguration by the Railway Express Agency of its air-express service six years ago. Fractional weights of three ounces, or less, are discarded, under the provisions of the revised tariff, while weights four to 12 ounces, inclusive, are treated as one-half pound and those over 12 ounces as a full pound.

Air-express traffic moving between nearly 100 important cities of the country is affected by the new rates, which are operative over six major air routes. They are the United Air Lines, operating from New York, via Chicago, to San Francisco, and their operations, Chicago to Dallas and Fort Worth, Tex., the Varney Air Lines, Salt Lake City to Seattle, and along the Pacific Coast, San Diego to Seattle; the National Parks Airways, Salt Lake City to Great Falls, Mont.; the Western Air Express, Salt Lake City to Los Angeles; Cheyenne to El Paso and Pueblo to Amarillo; the Northwest Airways, Chicago to Minneapolis and St. Paul, Fargo and Grand Forks, N. D.; and Winnipeg, via Pembina, N. D.; the Kohler Aviation Corporation's Milwaukee-Detroit Airline, and the Rapid Air-Transport's Omaha-Kansas City-St. Louis route.

Book May Change Monument Location

HARVE, Mont.—A monument erected to mark the spot where General Custer died in his famed "last stand" at Little Big Horn may be located far from the place he was killed, according to a new book by Frank B. Linderman, a Montana author.

Linderman's book, "Red Mother," tells the life story of Pretty Shield, an aged Crow Indian woman still living.

Pretty Shield, according to Linderman, said her husband, Goes-Ahead, was with Custer when he was killed, and that he fell from his horse into the Little Big Horn River. The monument supposed to mark the place he died is located some distance from the river, on a hillside. Custer's body was said to have been found there, and was removed to West Point for burial.

RANGER ARENA SCENE OF GOOD BOUTS MONDAY

The Ranger Elks Lodge opened its season of athletic shows at the Elks' Arena on Main street Monday night with a good wrestling and boxing card.

Art (Dula), 155, of Brownwood and Duke Trammel, 152, of Fort Worth fought in the main boxing event, which was an eight-round affair which ended in a draw. Trammel and Dula each got two knockdowns and the fight was one of the best seen in the local arena.

In the main wrestling event Sgt. Bill Angus, 155, Ranger, won from Blondy Chrane, 155, of Abilene, taking the second and third falls after Chrane had won the first.

The first fall went to Chrane when he threw Angus with a head scissor after 15 minutes of wrestling. Angus took the second fall with a headlock in 5 minutes and took the third in 9 minutes, 10 seconds. This was about the best exhibition of wrestling ever seen in the Elks arena, through some experienced wrestlers have been on the card from time to time.

In the preliminary Woody Cole, of Strawn, knocked out Battling McManus in the first round, the fight going but one minute, 35 seconds. Cole easily had the edge over his opponent in this fight and had little trouble in securing the only knockout of the evening.

In the other preliminary, between Lawson Acuff of Ranger and Pat Slay of Olden, which was scheduled to go six rounds, Referee Dick Bowers called the match at the end of the third round, declaring it no contest because the two were not fighting.

A curtain raiser between two negro boys, introduced as "Fudge" Lewis and "Tarzan" Nealy, who weighed in at 118 pounds, was declared a draw after three furious rounds which drew the applause of the crowd.

All the net proceeds of the show will go to the Elks Christmas fund, which will be used to furnish Christmas baskets for the needy.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 29.—Ricco Fotino, 19, who introduced himself as a Chicago beer peddler, walked up to a policeman here today and "confessed" he helped kidnap Charles A. Lindbergh Jr.

At headquarters he said his conscience forced him to surrender.

Police placed little credence in his story but ordered him held.

Fotino said the kidnaper who worked in the Lindbergh home and that Harry Fleisher, Detroit gangster, also was a member of the kidnaping party.

Success Is Seen For Roosevelt By One Hoosier

SYRACUSE, Ind.—A successful and powerful administration for President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt is predicted by W. L. Ballard on the basis of "a scientific forecast—not fortune telling," centered on the fact that Roosevelt's father was 84 when Franklin was born.

Ballard called attention to the fact that many leaders in public life were born of middle-aged fathers and young mothers.

Jeff Davis.

Jefferson Davis' father, he said, was 52 when the Confederate states' president was born; Robert E. Lee and Benjamin Harrison were born to fathers who were 51; William Pitt the younger's father was 54; President Taft's was 47, and Queen Victoria's 52.

Even the fact that Woodrow Wilson's father was only 37 when the World war president was born does not detract from his theory, Ballard said, because that age is considerably above the average of 30.

Many Qualities.

Such off-springs as cited, Ballard said, apparently inherit certain qualities and characteristics. Roosevelt he said is no exception.

"This definitely warrants," Ballard explained, "a scientific forecast of a possible, probable, new administration that will be well organized, well managed and powerful, because of the care, deep personality at its head, who can quietly move the unmovable, without apparent effort, whether it be a New York mayor, sheriff or legislator, or mayhap our broader, deep-seated semi-chronic depression."

"True, brains" do not always imply "goodness," yet the knowledge is that this law (of heredity) engenders healthy humility, that predisposes to right conduct."

CONGRESSMAN DIES.

MARION, Va., Nov. 29.—Congressman James C. McLaughlin, 74 years old, republican of Michigan, dropped dead of a heart attack in his hotel room here today.

Search for Slayers of Lindbergh Child in Active Stages

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 29.—Search for the kidnapers and killers of Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr. is now in its most extensive and active stage, the United Press learned authoritatively today.

Much water has flowed under the bridge since the spring afternoon a woodchopper found the Lindbergh baby four miles from the Hopewell home where he was stolen the night of March 1.

Now only Cal. H. Norman Schwarzkopf and his New Jersey state police remain in active pursuit of the thin, almost non-existent trail, left by the kidnapers.

Schwarzkopf has been tracing ransom money Dr. John Condon tossed over the wall of a cemetery. Police have little doubt but that the men who stole the baby were the men who got the money. Schwarzkopf has received several tips, that one of the bills will provide him a powerful clue.

Schwarzkopf has kept his other clues a profound secret from all but a few associates. A half dozen of his crack troops now work on the Lindbergh investigation exclusively.

SPEAKING of SPORTS

The election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt assures major league baseball of another friend in the White House. For like many of his predecessors in the presidential office, the Governor of New York is a keen lover of the national game.

During the past world series Governor Roosevelt, then in the heat of his campaign, took an afternoon off and journeyed to New York to see the Yankees play the Cubs. Being a native New Yorker, Mr. Roosevelt took no pains to conceal his elation over the manner in which the Yankees, led by Ruth and Gehrig, humbled the Chicago Cubs after what he thought of the game, the Governor, referring to the Babe and Lou, said: "I could much rather have those two fellows for my than against me."

Mr. Hoover's defeat probably came as a great shock to the Philadelphia Athletics, who regarded the President as something of a good luck charm. Mr. Hoover travelled to Philadelphia three times for world series games, and each time he was in the park and the Athletics won. Their most memorable victory with the chief executive in the stands was the fifth and last game of the 1929 series, when the A's scored three runs in the ninth inning.

Mr. Hoover's predecessor in the White House, Mr. Coolidge, was not much of a baseball fan. But his lack of enthusiasm was more than made up for by the zealous manner in which Mrs. Coolidge followed the sport. It was in 1924 that Washington, led by Mucky Harris, won the national title by coming from behind to defeat the Giants. The Coolidges saw all four games played in Washington, and while Mr. Coolidge showed little emotion at the games, Mrs. Cool-

Plans In Air Over Future of LZ-129

By United Press.
FRIEDRICHSHAFEN.—With the Graf Zeppelin having completed more than 500,000 flying kilometers, and with a year-round air service to South America being planned for her, work is going forward on her sister ship, LZ-129, which will be the largest dirigible in the world, surpassing the U. S. Navy's Akron.

The new airship will be completed in 1934 if the present building schedule is carried out. She will be about eight meters, or 27 feet longer than the Akron, and 11 meters, or 36 feet longer than the Graf. The LZ-129 will have a gas capacity of 200,000 cubic meters, nearly double that of the Graf's 105,000. Her diameter at the middle will be 41 meters as compared with the Graf's 30.

According to Knut Eckener, son of the veteran commander, Dr. Hugo Eckener, four of the 16 gas compartments already have been completed and joined. Asked concerning the plans for the future service of the giant ship, Eckener said that no plans had been outlined as yet.

When construction of the big airship was begun, speculation was heard as to a possible world flight after which it would enter the North or South Atlantic region.

The latter possibility appears more likely, since plans for a North American line still are incomplete, while the South American service is well established.

At the half-million kilometer mark the Graf had made 284 flights in 4,960 flying hours, equivalent to 20,000 kilometers more than 12 times around the globe. She had flown in all climates ranging from the Arctic to the tropics. Twenty-eight of those trips were ocean crossings. The average length of her flights was 4,000 kilometers. She carried 1,000 passengers. The Maybach motors, installed on her completion in 1928, functioned without a flaw throughout the record mileage.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

Colonel Is in Again
ADVICES from Atlanta indicate that Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston has "taken over" the affairs of the Crackers. That ought to mean big things for Georgia baseball.

Probably the first thing the romantic engineer who used to own half of the Yankees will try to do is to buy Babe Ruth. That is the way Colonel Til goes about things—always on a big scale.

The Atlanta club went into the red last season, so the colonel's venture may be regarded in the light of an experiment. The colonel never was a hand to pass up an experiment, and quite a few of them have cost him part of the fortune he piled up in Cuba where he remained to build docks and whatnots after having served as a captain in the Spanish-American War.

The Yankee Experiment
IT was regarded distinctly as an experiment—and not a very happy one at that—when he and Colonel Jacob Ruppert put up something like $200,000 apiece some 16 years ago to buy the Yankees.

Ten years ago, differing with Ruppert on the choice of managers for the team (Ruppert wanted Huggins and Huston wanted Uncle Wilbert Robinson), Colonel Til sold his interest to Colonel Jake for monies in the neighborhood of $1,500,000. So it wasn't such a dismal experiment after all.

Reclaims Island
THEN there was the experiment of Butler Island. Something like a century ago, Major Pierce Butler, an English army officer, reclaimed from the islands in the Altamaha river, not far from Darien, Ga., some 1250 acres for the growing of rice. Major Butler worked 1000 slaves in his project.

For years it was one of the idge clapped and stamped her feet at every Washington rally.

Warren G. Harding was the President who really knew baseball. A one-time stockholder in the Marion, O., club, Mr. Harding kept up with batting averages, pitching records, and could score a game as thoroughly as the most seasoned baseball reporter.

Woodrow Wilson was a baseball enthusiast, as was Taft. It was Mr. Wilson who was the first President to leave Washington for a world series game. Mr. Taft inaugurated the practice of having the President throw out the first ball for the opening of the major league season in Washington.

Coaches and Sports Writers Select All-Southwestern

By W. WINSTON COPELAND, United Press Staff Correspondent.
DALLAS, Nov. 29.—Faced by Johnny Vaught, who was a unanimous choice, Texas Christian university led conference schools in positions on the United Press All-Southwest conference football team for 1932 by winning five positions.

In the poll taken by the United Press of coaches and sports writers, Vaught was named by all as guard on the mythical team. Ernest Koy, big fullback of Texas university, ran Vaught a close race for the honor. Only one of the judges failed to name him.

Texas university was close behind Texas Christian with four men on the first team. Baylor and Texas A. & M. had one each.

Harrison Stafford of Texas university easily won his halfback berth, drawing from his coach, Clyde Littlefield, the praise that "Stafford is the greatest halfback I ever saw or coached and should make all-American."

At the other halfback, however, Hilliard won by a nose from Wallace, Rice, and Oliver, Texas Christian university. Hilliard had one more vote than Wallace for the post but in addition had two votes for quarterback.

Spearman was a top-heavy favorite for quarterback and in addition received four votes for a halfback position.

Pruitt's ability to catch passes and his all-around play gave him first place in the race for end. James won the other wing over Earle of Texas, playing his first year.

At tackle, Boswell and Howell, powerhouses of the Texas Christian defense and offense, were general favorites, but with Blanton of Texas a close third. Cook of Texas was far less favored than Vaught but had a fair margin.

Willis Nolan, floating center for Texas A. & M., had little trouble in winning his post. His defensive tactics have been one of the outstanding achievements of an otherwise unsuccessful Aggie season. He was easily the outstanding center in the conference.

While berths went to first string selections without much competition, the second team posts were bitterly contested. Rice shared with Texas Christian in placing the most men on the second team, each with three. Texas had two, and S. M. U. and Baylor and the Aggies one each.

Fullback on the second team, won by T. Driscoll, was one of the hardest choices. Spencer of A. & M. and Sprague of S. M. U. were on the heels of Driscoll. Any of these three were all-conference caliber and it not been for the great Koy.

Dennis also had a close call over Clewis of Texas for quarterback and Harris of Rice was but a jump behind Townsend.

Placing of Oliver on the second team was a certainty after Hilliard beat him out on the first string.

Players given honorable mention were:

Ends: Cummings, Aggies; Phillips, T. C. U.; Nations, Arkansas; Fiquis, S. M. U.; Bucker, Arkansas.

Tackles: Cummings, Aggies; Hinman, Rice; Erwin, Arkansas; Moody, Texas; Niebur, Texas; Guards: Lagow, Rice; Edmondson, Arkansas; Braly, Texas; Dickey, Rice; Clem, Baylor; Burk, Rice; Centers: Harris, Rice; Edwards, Baylor; Quarter: Brannon, T. C. U.; Dennis, T. C. U.; Clewis, Texas; Murphy, Arkansas; Driscoll, Rice. Halfbacks: B. Wallace, T. Driscoll, McCauley and Thrasher, Rice; Baxter, S. M. U. Fullbacks: Spencer, Aggies; Sprague, S. M. War Workers To Help Relieve Needy

By United Press.
FORT WORTH.—Ensign and Mrs. F. C. Burdick, decorated for their relief work overseas during the World War, are back on the job to fight relief battles on a new sector.

To the World War veterans who took coffee and doughnuts from their hands on the battlefield, they are known as Pa and Ma. "Conditions now are similar to those of war days," says Pa Burdick. "In those days men needed food to keep up their courage when they faced death. Now there are unemployed men who face life similarly without hope."

Lloyd George Given Carnegie Pension

By United Press.
LONDON.—David Lloyd George, Britain's "Grand Old Man" of the war, receives a pension of $10,000 yearly from the U. S., according to "Everyman."

Lloyd George and John Burns, it is claimed, are Carnegie political pensioners.

When Andrew Carnegie became a British Radical and controlled several Radical newspapers, he is said to have endowed four Radicals. Two of them are Lloyd George and John Burns. The other two were the late Lord Morley and the late Thomas Burt, who was a Member of Parliament. The pension granted to "L. G." as the wartime Prime Minister of Britain is sometimes called, was $10,000. Burns receives $5,000 annually.

The animals have become a considerable nuisance and danger to housekeepers, having been driven from the hills through lack of food. They rove about the gardens and lawns, upset garbage containers, and break into basements and even kitchens in their search for sustenance.

Freshmen Ask For Return Of Hazing

By United Press.
PHILADELPHIA.—Temple university freshmen are "bears" for punishment.

Two years ago "fresh" regulations were abolished by the student council at Temple. Hazing was characterized as "archaic and undignified," and the whole system of sophomore domination over their traditional enemies was discontinued.

Tired of this absence of discipline, and chafing under the liberty with which they now can come and go unmolested, the freshmen want the "fresh" regulations restored.

If the "regs" are restored, their restoration, it was said, will become effective next year, but hazing, as it is generally understood, will not be tolerated. The days of paddle and the forcible disciplining of freshmen at Temple have gone forever.

The Temple University News, official student organ, is supporting the movement for the reinstatement of freshmen regulations, on the ground that student spirit has suffered since their abolition. Dr. Charles E. Beury, president of the university, is in favor of the restoration, but only on condition that hazing be excluded.

HERE--- AND THERE

By Elvie H. Jackson

Of the wives of the past 31 presidents of the United States, there may be volumes written in prose and poetry of their brilliance, connections, lineage and cultured accomplishments.

Of these women the wife of William McKinley, the 25th president of the United States, Ida Saxton, the daughter of James Asbury and Catherine DeWalt Saxton, who was educated in private schools, spent some time in Europe, and was nevertheless an active woman in business life, serving as cashier of her father's bank at Canton, O., until her marriage to McKinley.

In this we have the notable example of a woman of every cultural attainment and yet, who felt the urge to express herself in some useful way—in the business of life that laid in paths other than starch work, clubwork and the usual occupations of women.

The next notable example of the wife of a president, who could

A sunrise prayer service Sunday morning, held on the campus, was conducted by Miss Turnie Hagans, dean of women of Warner college. The evening session opened with

Comely Christener

Steamship officials sometimes have to look far afield for a pretty girl to christen their new liners. But not so William Russell Grace, director of the Grace Line. He has chosen his daughter, Miss Elise Grace (above), to give the new S. S. Santa Elena its name at Kearny, N. J., on Nov. 30.

an address by Rev. C. S. Mood of Cisco, "What a Pastor Has a Right to Expect From His Young People," with the reply by Lewis Arnold of Warner college, on "What Was Expected From the Pastor."

Dr. J. T. Wilson closed the formal program with a magnificent evangelistic message.

A song service by the assembly was led by Prof. A. F. Barnard of Warner college, with Miss Grace Bailey as piano accompanist.

At stated intervals the college quartet, Elmer Kardatzke, Henry Miller, Otto Karlatzke and John McAllister, rendered special hymns.

Attendance of the 100 visitors registered from Big Spring, Balinger, Ahilene, Cisco, Gorman, Orlan, Stacy, and Eastland.

Miss Ruby Lee Creasor of Gorman was accompanist for convention.

A letter of thanks was received from Mr. Heffner, in charge of the Pythian home at Weatherford, who acknowledged the box of linens sent by the temple to the home as a Thanksgiving offering.

Re-covering From Illness.
Mrs. R. L. Rowe, 112 North Seaman street, who was taken ill a week ago, being unconscious for a day or more, is now improving slowly, though she has been very ill. Her daughter, Mrs. Harry Wood, greatly appreciates the messages of sympathy the family has received.

Karl Tanner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Tanner, underwent an operation for appendicitis Friday morning in Austin, where he is a student in Texas university. His parents were with him, and have returned with the message that he is recovering nicely and hopes to be out of the hospital by this Saturday.

Dinner and Theatre.
Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Russell entertained with dinner at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, and the Connellee theatre afterwards, Judge and Mrs. O. C. Funderburk, Mr. and Mrs. Scott W. Key, Mrs. Bula E. Connellee, and Mr. Sam Butler.

The dinner table, laid for eight covers, was centered with a beautiful bouquet of old-fashioned blossoms, and a menu in three courses served.

Letters Say Western City Is Changed
LOVELAND, Col.—Loveland just "ain't" what she used to be," according to some of the oldest inhabitants.

If a cowboy should ride his horse into Loveland today he would find no welcome. There would be no place to tie his cowboy. He would have to carry water to his horse in a bucket or let him drink at a fire hydrant.

There would be no lively stable where the tired steed could rest while his master went to the corner drug store for a couple of quick "sodies" and a cigar.

A dry watering trough and a broken hitching rail are the last vestiges of the old west in Loveland.

The trough and hitching rail once occupied places of prominence, down by the depot. Now they are decaying on a back street, forgotten and unused.

The last lively stable is nothing but a memory. A shed car and repair shop now occupies the site of the last stable. A few blacksmith shops continue to struggle on shoeing horses. They depend upon the dude ranches for their business.

"I tell you, son, she ain't what she used to be," the old settlers now considered indispensable.

Junior Band Practice 7:15 Tonight.
The junior band will practice tonight at 7:15. Director R. L. Maddox announced today.

"The Stool Pigeon Speaks."
The other day someone asked Elmore Cleveland if she believed in love at first sight. "Yes," Elmore replied, "but I see too many people at once."

No doubt Ella Mae Smith is a bit nervous with Anderson, that is if she saw him riding around with Vonceil Strong. Speaking of Vonceil, she has been hanging on to Donald Flahee in the halls lately.

Ual Bryan says he is becoming quite adopted to the Brown home and offers a reward to anyone who can coax off May Joe's parents for an evening.

It has been reported that Carlos Turner has never heard that "the early bird gets the worm." Or either has found out that none of your college teachers give away worms, because he was about half dressed when school time rolled around Monday morning.

After at six weeks Latin exam papers were handed out, the first in today, some of the students made note that the sun was not shining so bright.

Anyone wanting to make $10 might send the following "believe it or not" to Ripley: Jack Davenport made 95 on a Latin six weeks test.

The editor of this column seems to have got in "dutch" with the editor of "Seacrest School" of the Taylor Daily Press over his name. I apologize, Walter Johnston.

Books.
I do not wonder that a great many students in Ranger high school never find time to follow up the tips I am gracious enough to volunteer occasionally concerning worthwhile books to be found in our high school library, for in September they are entrusted with four books belonging to the state of Texas and any leisure time they have between then and the close of school is spent searching out the books to loaners for the one of the group that was misplaced last year. And if you see my fourth year English book on your rounds, you would do me a favor to start it home to me.

That with holidays and getting back to the grind after holidays, our lockers have collected a coating of dust and been re-bound in cobwebs and probably someone in the locker next door has spilled a bottle of ink all over your locker, and it takes nerve to begin the job of cleaning up spilled ink. Drawing from my unlimited sources of things literary, I will mention a few new books which have been recommended by the librarian, Miss Burrage, and other teachers connected with the library work in high school: "The Bent Twig," is recommended highly by the librarian, however Daisy Maud Bobo says she has re-checked it twice and has not read half of it yet so I am referring you to Daisy Maud for the good and bad points concerning this book.

"Franklin Roosevelt's Autobiography" is one of the most interesting books on modern great man I have ever read. In case this book is not in your locker, probably find Dandeline Pate with it. Dandeline has just decided she has many of the traits which Roosevelt points out, go to make successful people.

If I were a freshman, I would not let this year pass without reading "Dickens' Oliver Twist" and "David Copperfield." Stevenson's "Treasure Island" and "Kidnaped," and Cooper's "The Last of the Mohicans."

I would read them anyway if I were a senior and had missed them.

PARIS STYLES
PARIS.—If you want to marry fashionably, better dig up your attic copy of Godey's Lady's Book. Follow it, and you won't be far astray.

The fact is the blushing bride is no longer a remote Victorian tradition, at least in the minds of Paris dressmakers.

Another reflection of the gradual return to romanticism in women's dress is the new bridal veil now exhibited.

Even if you are an open-eyed bride, Paris couturiers insist you have an opportunity to hush anyone. The new veils are not merely tulle, but are trimmed with old lace and, most important of all, fall down in front.

Orange blossoms remain in vogue, but Paris decrees they shall not serve, as heretofore, as a halo. If you want to marry a la Parisienne, you must set the traditional blossoms in the pleats of the veil on the side of the head, so that they do not clash with the enormous, white, or rose or orange now considered indispensable.

A number of members from the Women's Missionary Society, of the First Baptist Church, spent Monday in Cisco where they were guests of the Baptist church who presented interesting missionary speakers during the program hour.

Women in this condition should take Cardui, a purely vegetable tonic that has been in use for over 30 years.

Take Cardui to improve the general tone of the system in cases of run-down health and "wired nerves." Women have found, in such cases, that Cardui helps them to overcome pains and make the monthly periods easier. CARDUI is safe and wholesome for women of all ages. Try it!

Build Up Health and Pains Go Away
WOMEN who suffer from weakness often have many aches and pains which a stronger state of health would prevent.

According to the full group of members this has proven one of the most profitable courses they have completed thus far.

Interesting plans are going forward for the remodeling and repairing to be done on the interior of the church sometime in the near future.

The usual business period of the program was omitted from this lesson yesterday.

Prominent Montgomery Ward Associate Pays Visit To Ranger
D. D. Prust, prominent associate of Montgomery Ward & Co., of Fort Worth, paid a visit to the local store yesterday, the guest of Manager H. J. Barham. Mr. Prust is in charge of the personnel of Montgomery Ward throughout this section of the division.

Mr. Prust, who has paid visits to the local store in the past received a warm welcome by company employees and pleasing acquaintances made during the past visits to Ranger.

DIVORCE NOT WANTED.
CHICAGO.—It took Gordon Patchen, of Wilmette, six years to get a divorce from his wife, Barbara, and now she has asked Superior Judge Kelly to set aside the decree. Her attorney asserted Judge Desort signed the decree last July while sitting in the criminal court and so did not have the proper civil jurisdiction. But Judge Kelly said she'd have to go to the appellate court.

DELICIOUS CEREAL OVERCOMES COMMON CONSTIPATION
ALL-BRAN Provides "Bulk," Vitamin B and Iron

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN meets a basic need of the American diet. It supplies "bulk"—so helpful in correcting common constipation. In eleven years, ALL-BRAN has won millions of satisfied users.

New tests show added reasons for the success of ALL-BRAN. Laboratory experiments prove that, in addition to "bulk," it provides vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

The headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so often result from constipation can be overcome by this pleasant cereal. How much better than using pills and drugs.

ALL-BRAN is mild. Its "bulk" is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it absorbs moisture and forms soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Two tablespoons daily are sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with every meal, if not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Another benefit of ALL-BRAN is that it has twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Serve as a cereal, or use in cooking. Tempting recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Muffs Make Movie Debuts

ARCADIA THEATRE

Muffs, big, little or medium, are the things for winter, and the movie stars have been quick to seize the new vogue. At the left is Colleen Moore, who likes her muffs small. At the right is Norma Shearer, who goes for a large one. And there were lots of medium-sized ones at the Los Angeles premiere they attended.

FLEECES PARISHIONERS.
By United Press.
CHICAGO.—A "very refined" girl has happened into several churches on the south side looking for her brother or mother. While awaiting the arrival of her relative, she has helped with the cooking. At one church she peeled potatoes and helped bake pies before she found she had to hurry home. And when she left, parishioners discovered most of their money was gone, too.

Fire Isolates School And Its Occupants
By United Press.
ASTORIA, Ore.—The little schoolhouse at Bustercreek, its 11 students and Miss Josephine Hardy, the teacher, still are isolated in the wilds as a result of October forest fires.

The fire wiped out about eight miles of railroad track, the only means of travel to the school. Mail is being carried to the community by sturdy loggers or tractors bringing in supplies and equipment.

With recommendation of a road being rushed, by next spring the students may be able to get out without riding one of the "rats" to civilization.
