YESTERDAY Whitey and I went out selling birdseed. As birdseed salesmen we proved to be a flop.

Then we called for Mr. Johnson at Waples-Platter. We found him out and got another razzing when we stated our business was selling birdseed.

He asked if our birdseed would make the canaries sing base if fed according to certain directions.

ABOUT that time B. A. Tunnell came in and we asked him to join us. We told him that we were trying to sell birdseed and he could haul them in on his railroad.

WE DECIDED to run Ratliff for Mayor next spring and are hereby putting his name in the nominations. We mean that seriously.

HOW MANY of the customers saw the double rainbow last evening about 7:30? The combination of the rainbow and sunset presented a beautiful sight such as can only be seen in Eastland county.

SID PITZER and I went out to the Eastland football field this morning. What was a dusty field last season is now covered in a blanket of green grass that looks mighty good.

ERWARDS I interviewed a wild on the prospects of a team next year. There will be six of the boys over six feet tall and weighing over 170 pounds.

HOUSE, HYDRANT HARMONIZE

Stocks Strong In Most Active Day of Year

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A total of 2,900,000 shares of stock had been purchased on the New York stock exchange by 1:30 this afternoon, already passing the previous day record for the year.

But after a morning of exciting trading and sharp advances, the pace was slackening as profit-taking sales appeared. Prices were shaded a trifle from the new high set for the movement earlier in the day.

GUARDS SAVE MINERS FROM UNION PICKETS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 4. National guardsmen rescued 64 grimy, hunger-weakened men, including four wounded, early today from the Dixie Bee coal mine, where they had been besieged by 3,500 angry union pickets for nearly 48 hours.

The line of pickets surrounding the mine property melted away in the darkness as the 250 troopers approached. Firing on the mine continued until the guardsmen were within 500 yards of the scene.

The powder-begrimed band of mine defenders told the troopers they had arrived just in time. "We had given up hope of a rescue," the miners said. "Our ammunition was nearly exhausted and the fire from the picket lines had grown more fierce. If they had attacked us again we could not have beaten them off."

The company will leave in two Pullman cars with one baggage car to carry all equipment to be used in the camp.

TWO TRAINS OF VETERANS START HOME

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 4.—The second trainload of home-going bonus veterans left Ferndale at noon today. There were 1,120 in 14 day coaches. The train was bound for St. Louis. Food will be given the men at Cornellsville and other points en route.

Officials of the Baltimore & Ohio say that no bonus veteran trains will go eastward. It was presumed this order was issued because all B. & O. trains eastward run through Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Ten men, believed by police to be the vanguard of new groups of bonus marchers approaching Washington, were prevented from entering the city today. The men were arrested in the Baltimore & Ohio freight yards and escorted out of the city.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 4.—Distribution of literature by the Workers Ex-Service Men's league, urging the veterans to remain here, elect their own commanders and march back to Washington when congress reconvenes spread confusion today through the B. E. F. camp and delayed evacuation. While the report cannot be affirmed, the United Press learned on good authority that funds for train fares for the veterans came from the Bethlehem Steel corporation, which has large interests here.

Hickman Rally Will Be Held On Friday Night

AUSTIN, Aug. 4.—Almost 100 miles of state highway No. 1 through Titus, Morris, Cass and Bowie counties will be improved, the state highway commission had promised an East Texas delegation today. The improvement will include six miles of concrete between Carbondale and Maud.

Chairman Ely outlined to the delegation the new commission's plan. He said that under it the commission will first construct primary roads.

A change in the designation of highway 96 from Chapman Ranch to Riviera instead of from Chapman Ranch to Sarita was asked and taken under advisement.

Contracts let by the commission for roads and bridges raised the total for the two-day session to $2,506,419. Texas materials are specified for use. Morgan Construction company of Dallas was given the award for bituminous surfacing on eight miles of highway 66 in Palo Pinto county near Salesville.

An Explanation

Some of the friends of J. L. Reid, employee of the Beatty Drug Store in Eastland gained the impression from a story in this paper yesterday that Reid was implicated in a local shoplifting. The J. L. Reid mentioned was not the young man at the Beatty Drug Store but gave his address as living between Ranger and Eastland near the Pleasant Grove highway. This paper gladly makes this explanation.

Hubbard Flays Ferguson Plan As Being Unfair

AUSTIN, Aug. 4.—James E. Ferguson's "tax relief" program would afford tax relief only to the wealthier property owners of Texas, and would shove the burden back upon the small taxpayer, Representative R. M. Hubbard of New Boston said in a statement here.

The small property owners will be given tax relief through the homestead exemption amendment approved by Governor Ross Sterling and submitted to the voters of Texas Nov. 8.

This takes all state taxes off the first $3,000 assessed valuation of homesteads.

The Ferguson tax reduction proposal, Representative Hubbard declared, would thus only grant relief to the owners of office buildings, hotels, apartment houses and larger properties, including land holdings not homesteaded.

"Who would make up that tax revenue?" Representative Hubbard asked, to answer his own question.

"Ferguson proposes to make up the amount he would thus relieve the wealthy property-owners from paying—many of them out-of-state owners and corporations—by stopping our highway-construction program, and by taking the highway money and using it for state operating purposes.

"It is well known that the volume of license fees and gasoline tax payments come from the small farmer, employed man, clerk, or average every-day person. Even when a man owns no other property, he usually has an old car. The big man generally has but one car, or two at most, though worth 1000 times as much as the little fellow. It takes no more gas, and little more license fees for the big man's car than the little fellow's. In other words, Jim Ferguson would take the money out of the small man's pocket to put back into the wealthy property owner's pocket by his scheme of tax relief."

Mrs. C. H. Carter Taken Suddenly Ill

THREE OTHERS WOUNDED IN GUN BATTLE

Two Remaining Convicts Are Captured After Short Liberty.

ENGLAND, Ark., Aug. 4.—Three convicts and a guard were killed, two prisoners and a guard wounded and two other convicts captured today, the result of a prison break at the Tucker state farm.

Seven prisoners broke from the wooden, wire-bound stockade at the prison camp this morning, stole the ammunition supply, took guns, killed a guard, wounded another and escaped to the woods on horseback.

The seven abandoned their mounts about 15 miles from here and fled on foot. Officers from two counties, aided by bloodhounds, located them in a field. Many shots were exchanged. None of the officers were wounded. The three convicts were shot near here.

The dead were: A. B. Brown, 26, Pike county. Roy Smith, 22, Ouachita county. Herschel Chaney, 20, Howard county. Elise Howell, 25, a guard.

The names of the wounded were not immediately learned.

Ranger Lions Hear Dr. Hunt In Good Talk

One of the most pleasing and instructive addresses ever delivered before the Ranger Lions club was presented today by Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurray college of Abilene, who was presented by Rev. Gid J. Bryan, chairman of the program committee for the day.

Dr. Hunt's address was about Texas and the advantages offered by this great state. He said that he recently visited in Utah and that the people there, like the people of California, were very proud of their country and liked to talk about it.

He said that while talking to the people there he told them that the Battle of San Jacinto should be classed as one of the decisive battles of history because it affected the history and the people of Texas, California, Utah, Arizona, and all the western states.

He pointed out that if Texas could be doubled back it would cover all that section of the country and leave none of it showing.

He spoke at length on the advantages of the Texas Centennial that is being planned for 1935 and said that it would be one of the greatest advertisements for the state that could be thought up. He said that it would bring Texas to the attention of millions of people and would give them an understanding of the state and its resources. He urged all to talk for and vote for the constitutional amendment in the November election that will make the centennial possible.

He quoted figures to show that the section of the state from Amarillo to the gulf, and from Fort Worth to El Paso was the undeveloped section of the United States and with its natural resources in the form of silver, gold, copper, oil, gas, potash and many other mineral deposits, made it one of the richest sections of the country yet undeveloped.

His entire talk was in the nature of a tribute to the State of Texas and particularly to the western section of the state. He presented his facts in such a way that they formed a direct appeal to all who listened to him and made them feel that they were living in the richest section of the United States and a section that would some day become one of the greatest centers of wealth.

Visitors at the meeting were Tom Haley of Eastland, Miss Helen Coasler of Ranger, Miss Lemmons of Snyder, Dr. Crawford of Chattanooga, Tenn., Alonzo Bryan, son of Rev. Gid J. Bryan, and J. J. Kelley.

MILESTONES ON THE ROAD TO RECOVERY

Believe it or not, as Ripley says, the American Bankers association through its official organ lists recent developments that may be looked back upon as milestones on the road to recovery. First, termination of the world run on American gold resources. Second, Great Britain's decision to rid itself of the crushing burden of fixed charges on its 2,000,000,000 pounds of war loans by offering to convert the five per cent issues into cash or three and one-half per cent bonds. Third, first signs on the part of the disarmament conference of a willingness to attack this problem realistically. Fourth, agreement of the leading nations of Europe on a final settlement of reparations involving the almost nominal lump payment by Germany of 3,000,000 marks, or a sum of $750,000,000.

There are other encouraging signs. Many textile mills have reopened with full schedule of employees. Many wire mills have resumed operation. Many lumber camps are reopening and providing employment for hundreds of lumberjacks. There are very healthy signs of encouragement in the livestock world. Indeed, it is said that $25,000,000 has been added to the value of livestock in Texas. There is a heavier demand for woolen goods. There is a heavier demand for cottons. There is a heavier demand for auto accessories. There have been fewer bank failures. Building activities show an awakening. There are hundreds of other signs of virile business activities the country over.

More than $3,000,000,000 will be advanced from the federal treasury as loans to put new life and new strength in industries and to thaw out the frozen assets in the vaults of all the agencies connected with the financial world. It would be well for the pessimists to take cognizance of these signs of improvement. It would be well for the rancorous voiced demagogues ever sowing the seeds of distrust and disorder in the minds of the people to hearken to the warning that these signs foretell.

This is a new civilization. Out of it will come a new economic system. Old methods have been ditched. Old systems have been swept away. Evolution in all fields of human endeavor is on the march and that march does not lead downward but ever upward and onward. People are finding themselves. They realize there is a new order of life which will make of this new civilization in time perhaps the most humane and most enlightened that has been known through the ages.

TRAVIS COUNTY VOTERS MADE HIGH RECORDS

Now it is announced that the Travis county total primary vote was over 200 more than ever polled before. This is interesting as well as encouraging. If the people are the masters they should pay poll tax or take out exemption papers. They should vote intelligently but this is too much to expect in a democracy where the uninformed or the misinformed are governed by their prejudices and not by their reason and gulp down the fairy tales flung in their teeth by glib tongued demagogues who are ready at times to promise anything for votes. Why should men or women be governed by their hates, their passions, their prejudices which are based on flimsy and false theories to a very large extent instead of listening to the voice of reason and permitting themselves to be direct by the constitution of the republic and the commonwealth. "Sock it to the rich" is unsuccessful, there would be no well paying jobs for the millions and poverty would be the portion of mankind. Jefferson believed that individual merit was entitled to individual reward in a legitimate sense. Jefferson was the founder of the democratic party. He has been dead many, many years. Now there are more types of democrats than there are types of pests to be found in the cultivated fields of the perspiring tiller of the soil. With the passing of the depression reason will return and seekers for high place in governmental affairs will be tested solely on their qualifications and the records they have made.

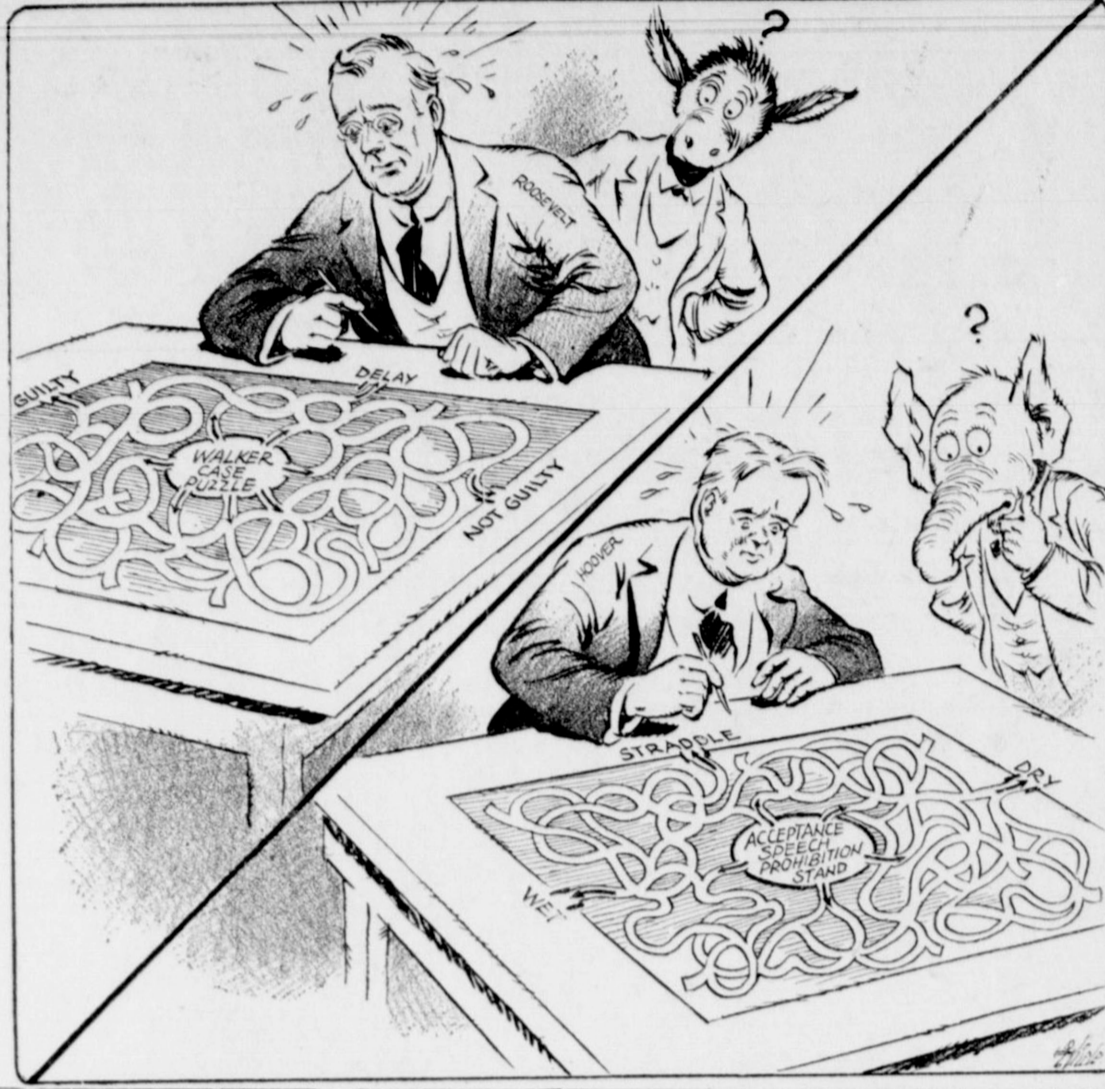

A VETERAN REPUBLICAN RETIRES FROM THE HOUSE

In the Nutmeg State of Connecticut Rep. A. B. Tilson has been a republican leader for many years. He was an aspirant for the house speakership when John Nance Garner won the gavel. Representative Snell of New York won the republican house leadership and this threw Tilson on the sidelines. Now Tilson has decided to resign from congress and not seek a re-election. He has his reasons. They are economic. He is planning to seek activity in other fields where he trusts his talents will be equally well employed and where he hopes the net financial returns for his labors will at least be on the right side of the ledger. Regardless of all that has been said about the salary paid to a congressman unless a handsome stipend goes with the job. A congressional representative has to do the honors of his district. He cannot sleep in a wogan yard and maintain the dignity of the position. He cannot browse around for free lunches. He has to entertain all visitors who invade the capital from his district or state. Tilson is wise. He is going to return to private life where he will be his own master and perhaps do something in a financial way for his loved ones.

BRAZILIAN COFFEE IS GOING HIGHER

This for American coffee drinkers. Brazilian coffee is up and is going higher. There is a rising market. It is the direct effect of the revolution now in progress in the Brazilian republic. According to H. Wirts Teele, Brazil has a large surplus of coffee but not a pound can be shipped before the revolutionary arguments have been settled. Well, these arguments, in the coffee producing states of Brazil are settled by the machine gun method of dealing out equal and exact justice. There is a bloody row on between the established government and two or three revolting states. Truth is there is hell all around the world. Why worry? Evolution is the order of life and evolution ever moves upward and not downward. There is no peace except in a graveyard, and there has not been peace since the cave-man discovered fire and invented the first tool which is said to have been a spade, the second a rude stone hatchet and the third a war club. "Onward and upward" on the part of human atoms appears to have been the record of history since the ancient days.

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE with BILL MAYES

According to advices that have come out of Cisco, the famous Cisco case, alias the Hightower case, alias the Cisco ouster hearing, has been given preferential setting on the docket of the 91st district court at Eastland for Sept. 5.

The original date set for the hearing was June 20. The hearing was continued until July 20 and was again continued this time until Sept. 5. The case, styled Cisco Independent School District versus L. E. Dudley, et al., is a suit to compel the reinstatement of the Cisco high school football team in the interscholastic league this fall.

The court, in announcing the setting of the case, said no contested cases would be heard during the month of August.

In the writing of the case, Benny Butler, Cisco scribe, says: "Hightower Case."

The Cisco Loboes were suspended from football competition this year by the state executive committee of the league upon recommendation of the district committee which based charges of violation of league rules upon the now famous "Hightower case."

Whereupon Cisco was first exonerated and then penalized by forfeiture of the game. A small whirlwind developed into a tornado of sizeable proportions, the upshot of which was a recommendation, in February, 1932, from the district committee that Cisco be spanked by exclusion from league amity for the period of the football season, 1932.

Investigations. Cisco representatives appeared before the state committee and presented a volume of evidence to counterbalance a hostile volume. The state committee sent Roy Henderson, its secretary, to Tyler

With its team a maverick, the Cisco school officials dug around in the roots of the controversy, brought up some malodorous fertilizer, started negotiations looking to a compromise on the basis of "you switch me and I'll switch you and we'll call it square."

"Holy Crusade." But the district committee, becoming pendanticly morose, they made quite a mistake. The railroads got their bonus months ago.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

It was a funny sight to see. The Tinies, proud as they could be, were riding on the animals that they had blown up high. "My fine balloons are very strong," their fat friend said. "See? Naught goes wrong! I make balloons that every youngster's mighty glad to buy."

"Well, I'll buy this one," Duncy cried. "It's really lots of fun to ride upon the back of a giraffe. The long neck's handy, too."

"If he begins to run with me, I'll be as safe as safe can be, 'cause I'll just grab him 'round the neck. That would be smart to do."

"I THINK my pig is better still," said Copsy. "It gives me a thrill to bounce along and bob around. My seat's a comfy one."

"I'm glad there are no fences here. The pig would run through one, I fear. Then I would be brushed off its back. That wouldn't be much fun."

Then Windy spoke up. "Look against corruption in the district, and resolved to make the Loboes the goat. The Loboes agreed to admit there were the features of a violation upon which the committee might be justified in taking action of the character, but the district committee demanded admission of actual wrongdoing and a complete justification of its act. It refused to lay itself open to even a gentle censure for having twice punished the Cisco team for one alleged infraction, for having failed to notify the Cisco school of its punitive intentions, for having permitted itself to be coerced from without into a serious move against a member team, and for having engaged in clandestine tactics and influenced by jealousies which the Cisco officials allege in their petition and bring evidence to substantiate."

Failing in all negotiations the Cisco school board brought suit to compel the state committee to reinstate the Loboes and to enjoin the district committee from playing any football schedule from which the Loboes are excluded.

When white house guards held up Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, thinking he was a bonus marcher, they made quite a mistake. The railroads got their bonus months ago.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By STUART CAMERON, United Press Sports Editor. New Heavyweight Tournery Threatened For Boxing.

James Joy Johnston, who doesn't let a fly be told he dyes his hair, but who is forever referring to the matter, as come through with another year-a-page-from-the-book stunt.

Jimmy's newest is the establishment of a heavyweight tournament. The primary reason for the tournament's existence is to provide a challenger for Jack Sharkey's first title defense.

The tournament, of course, is an echo of the one conducted some years ago by the late Tex Rickard. Johnston has, not without sufficient justification, likened some of his accomplishments to those of the one and only Tex.

Johnston will then threaten to bring "My Philip" out of retirement. The impending return of Phailing Phil Scott will be discussed long enough to make it time for another heavyweight championship bout and that will be a meeting of Sharkey and Mickey Walker or Sharkey-Schmeling No. 3.

Southwest Golf Tournery Opens On Wednesday

By W. W. COPELAND, United Press Staff Correspondent.

FORT WORTH, Aug. 4.—What is expected to be the hardest battle in the six-year history of Southwestern Golf association tournaments began here Wednesday with a score of top-rank players and champions from four states vying for the crown.

The first round of qualifying play Wednesday was the signal for the onslaught of the pick of golfers from Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas.

Four winners of the Southwestern trophy will attempt to repeat their performances while the Oklahoma state champion and the runner-up in the Texas state tournament in 1931, C. B. Willis, Arkansas star, are confident of making strong bids.

The four titleholders entered are Onis Green, Hot Springs, Ark., defending champion; Byron Nelson, Fort Worth, 1930 winner; Gus Morland, Dallas, 1929 winner; Texas state champion and trans-Mississippi titleholder, and Nap Massingill, Fort Worth, winner of the 1928 tournament.

The Oklahoma entries are equally as strong as the Texas contingent. Emmett Rogers, Oklahoma amateur and open champion, heads a group of stars including Keefe Carter, former Oklahoma amateur champion, Henry Robertson, Oklahoma amateur titleholder for 1931 and the high school sensation, Walter Emery, runner-up to Robertson.

Flanking the three former champions from Texas are: Louis Nowlin, Dallas, brilliant young player; Dennis Lavender, Reynolds Smith, Neil Smith, Allen Charlton, and O'Hara Watts, all of Dallas; Elliott Hatch, Amarillo; Roy Farrell, Vernon, winner of the Abilene tourney; Charlie Quails, Post, West Texas winner; E. A. Herring, Sweetwater; E. E. Turnham, Mexico; Bonner Frizzell, Palestine, and Jimmy George, Brownsville.

In view of the large number of stellar performers entered the qualifying scores are expected to be unusually low, and a championship flight composed of widely-known golfers is anticipated.

The 18-hole, par 71, Glenn Garden course is in excellent shape after several weeks of careful grooming.

Moreland, Nelson, and Massingill are expected to be outstanding performers since all are familiar with the course. The course is Nelson's home link on which he was runner-up last year to Moreland in the annual Glenn Garden tourney. The Southwestern tourney will be in conjunction with the annual Glenn Garden contest and winner of the Southwestern tourney also will receive the Glenn Garden crown.

Two days of qualifying rounds will be required. Match play will start Friday with the quarter-finals and semi-finals scheduled for Saturday and the 36-hole final round Sunday.

GOT TAX REBATE

By United Press. COFFEYVILLE, Kan.—Joseph Kloehr owns 30 acres of land in Cherokee Township. When the property was left off the tax rolls in 1926 through a clerk's error, Kloehr went right on paying the levy. The mistake was discovered this year. The property was put back on the rolls, and Kloehr received a substantial rebate.

Old Bill Watches

In the shrill scream of indignation that followed the selection of all-eastern coaches on the Olympic games board, could be heard the strident voice of San Francisco Operative Phil Sinnott.

"It looks as if one of the grandest old coaches in the game—I mean Bill Hayward of Oregon—will have to pay his way into the park," Sinnott deposes and says.

"It's a beautiful reward for a man who has spent a quarter of a century developing Olympic talent for the American team." Colonel Bill had a half dozen qualified prospects in the final trials. One won his event—the 5000 meters—and stands a good chance to knock off some of the Finns in the games.

United States Has Stranglehold On Hurdle Honors

By United Press.

LOS ANGELES.—The United States has a stranglehold on Olympic hurdling honors until the Antwerp games in 1920, and even then, although the winner was a Canadian by birth, he had lived in the United States his entire hurdling life and, therefore, some of the string of his victory was removed.

New Record But the net results at Amsterdam were a new world's and Olympic record for one South African, Weightman-Smith by name, and the Olympic title for still another South African, S. J. M. Atkinson, who, in 1924, had chased Kinsey across the line at Paris so closely that many thought that he had won.

Expected For Air Arrivals At Races CLEVELAND.—Visitors on the opening day at the 1932 National Air Races here Aug. 27, probably will see a new world's record established for airport arrivals in one day.

Little Faster The United States boasted of two or three young men who had made the same 120 yard distance, which is about a foot shorter. Then last year long-legged Percy Beard, of Alabama, came along and was credited with a new world's record of 14.2 for the 110 meter hurdle event, which, while it was not the record held by the Europeans, is obviously a little faster, and young Jack Keller, of Ohio State University, equally long-legged and sensational, did the 120 yard hurdles in 14.3 seconds, so that the United States was well represented.

Hostin hoisted himself into a new world's record, the previous mark being 771 pounds. Olsen scored second in the event, lifting 792 pounds.

New Barrooms Will Not Be Like Old Time Saloon

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The new American barroom will resemble neither the oldtime saloon nor its successor, the speakeasy, but will include all that is modern in architecture, lighting, decoration and refrigeration.

That is the consensus of opinion of Milwaukee architects and fixture manufacturers, who are preparing for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment, or modification of the Volstead act.

The heavy oak and mahogany of the old days will be taboo along with the backroom saloon. The modern barroom will have lots of light, period rooms, aluminum trimmings and flowers.

The family club, catering to men and women, will take the place of the saloon, says Thomas L. Rose, member of the firm of architects which designed the famous old Schlitz Palm Garden in Milwaukee.

"Brass rails and brass spittoons, the barkeeper and mahogany, all must go," he declared. "With beer and wine bring in modern architecture and lots of light."

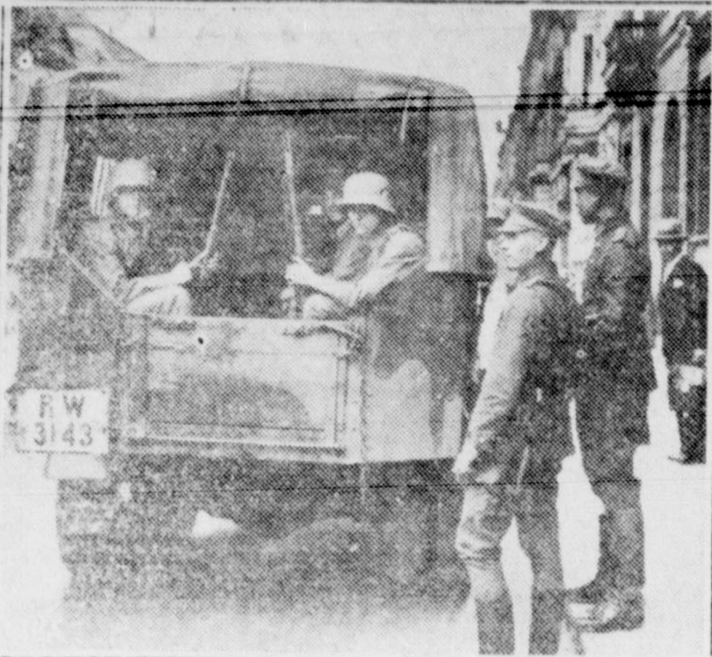

E. W. Kuehn of the Northwestern Store Equipment corporation, would "get away from the sordid night club idea."

"When you can buy a drink legally again it will be in rooms that, for the most part, will have left the heavy rathskeller idea. You will have early American, colonial, eighteenth century English and ultra modern period designs."

"The new cafes will have to be inviting to the women," according to Harry Bogner, Milwaukee architect. "How pleasant are the many European cafes where the front is entirely open to the street, where one can sit comfortably, watch the traffic pass by, have a drink and a bite to eat."

TYLER—Construction work on Masonic lodge building progressing rapidly.

When Martial Law Ruled Berlin

Demonstrations and riot during the political campaign prior to the German Reichstag election brought martial law to Berlin and the province of Brandenburg. Here you see an army truck occupied by soldiers of the Reichwehr in front of the German Foreign Office. The edict made Chancellor Von Papen a Federal dictator of Prussia.

Broadway America Map Distribution About Completed

EL PASO, Texas.—Distribution of the new Broadway of America maps, showing the route of this "all year, high-gear" highway from Broadway, San Diego, to Broadway, New York city, is being completed in El Paso, Texas. This city is located on the Broadway.

The association had 2000,000 of these maps published by the American Automobile Association in Washington, D. C. First supplies were sent to chambers of commerce, motor clubs and tourist bureaus in the northern and eastern states. The demand for the maps, which are printed in colors and profusely illustrated, was so great that in many cases the original supply was quickly exhausted.

Highway association officials say that the results of the wide distribution of the Broadway has resulted in greatly increased tourist travel over the Broadway, particularly those motoring to the Olympic games in Los Angeles.

Many of the activities of the Broadway association are now being centered in cities off the Broadway, to interest the tourist at the starting point. Direct contacts have been established with Chicago, Detroit, Denver, Indianapolis, Buffalo, Boston, Toledo, St. Louis, and other cities, with the result that an increasing demand for the free Broadway maps are coming from these cities.

Slump Hit Teachers' Institute In County

CARLISLE, Pa.—The Cumberland County Teachers institute became a thing of the past this year after 78 years' existence.

Need for economy led the county school heads to abandon it, at least temporarily. The annual institute was held for five days, during which the county teachers gathered here to hear paid instructors and lecturers. The pupils, meantime, had a week's extra vacation early in the fall.

Abandonment of the institute is expected to save about $10,000.

What would the world do without rain? Just imagine a dry globe, hot, sandy, pebbly, with no moisture, no verdure, no trees, nothing to rest the eye or relieve the senses.

Just a burning waste of heat, and shimmering air of frightful torrid, thickness.

The rain was a welcome thing indeed in this county, as it came pouring in drenching volumes, on sun-parched fields, and sun-baked town farms, four streets.

One can appreciate the agonies of the Gobi adventurers when their water bags dry up, and they are miles from a desert spring.

Recent pictures at the local show houses, flashed scenes from the Gobi desert where a noted scientist, with a corps of men, is endeavoring to uncover buried evidences of a prehistoric race, and their habits.

The effect of these travel pictures on people's imaginations is stimulating and interesting.

In asking several children, recently, what they enjoyed most at the picture shows, it was surprising to note their reactions, to the various kinds of pictures, which they evidently had seen.

And surprising as it may be, the pictures that held the grip on the imagination, of this group of seven youngsters, in ages varying from 6 to 13 years, was the preference unanimously expressed for the travel pictures, the Rambler pictures, and the news reels.

The movement, representing 30,000 young people in Southern California alone, has the endorsement of Dr. Robert A. Millikan, noted scientist and head of Caltech, and scores of educators.

for LOVE or MONEY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Mona Moran, receptionist in a Wall Street law office, is surprised when her childhood sweetheart, Steve Saccarelli, returns to New York after three years mysterious absence. Her mother contributes largely to the support of her mother, invalid father, sister, Kitty, and ne'er-do-well brother, Bud.

Steve has been in South America where, largely by chance, he has become associated with Barry Townsend, rich and socially prominent, who owns a diamond mine. Together they have made the mine, believed worthless, pay handsomely. Steve owns a huge diamond called "The Empress of Peru."

Steve Carr, fashion model, joins Mona, Barry and Steve on a dinner and dancing engagements. Mona's brother, Bud, is under obligations to Buck Harkins, night club proprietor and gangster, who plots to steal the huge diamond.

Steve tells Mona and Lottie that he has hidden the diamond in his apartment. The four young people are there when Bud, following Harkins' orders, telephones that his mother is ill. He comes to take Mona home. When the girls have gone Steve, suspecting trickery, prepares to meet the jewel thief.

Now GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XIV

It was not long before Steve telephoned Mona. It was as he had surmised. Her mother, it appeared, was not ill. She had been asleep since they left. Mona was going to bed and Bud had escorted Lottie home.

"Mum!" said Steve musingly. "Well, I'm glad your mother is all right. I'll call you tomorrow. Good-night."

As he put down the telephone he looked at Barry who was regarding him uncertainly.

DIED AT 114

LA JUNTA, Col.—When Mrs. Catalina Ballegos, of Las Animas, died, it took considerable arithmetic to calculate the age of the centennial resident. The coroner finally determined she was 114 when she died. Family records that had been preserved made the calculation comparatively accurate.

Wilda Drago on Vacation.
Wilda Drago of this city left last Saturday for Sweetwater to spend the first of a few days vacation with fellow artists of that city and was en route to San Angelo, Wednesday, to visit her sister, Mrs. Wanda Beall, several weeks.

Miss Drago is in San Angelo, specially to conduct a request class in violin. She has been repeatedly urged for several months, to hold this class in violin and violin audition by musicians in San Angelo. During Miss Drago's absence, there will be no formal practice, held on the usual night, of the choir of the Methodist church.

Clara June Kimble, a Drago student, and a brilliant young pianist, will be the accompanist for the Methodist church services, during the absence of Miss Drago, director of choir, and Mrs. Joe A. Gibson, the regular pianist, who is spending the summer out of the city.

Miss Drago will return to Eastland Sept. 18.

Interesting Meeting.
Boys and Girls World Club.
The Boys and Girls World club, a junior organization sponsored by the Methodist church, met in the Booster classroom at the usual hour Wednesday morning, with session opened by their director, Mrs. Fred L. Drago, and devotional conducted by Anna Jo Tabelman, who led the children in the reading of the 100th Psalm.

A prayer, song, and the Lord's Prayer in unison closed the devotional period. A group of new songs was taught the children, these including "Summer," "Nature Song," and "Children of One Father."

Much of the program and devotional work of this club is through the song service.

When the children were asked to suggest a song they would like best, one little girl piped up, "Onward Christian Soldiers," and though rather mature, this song was greatly enjoyed by the children.

An explanation and analysis of the Lord's Prayer was given by Mrs. Drago. Mrs. Claude G. Stubbiefield, director of club, told the children an interesting story of a happy little crippled negro boy.

The second story was related by Mildred McGlamery, who gave an interesting version of the White Chinese Goddess.

At close of the morning hour, the directors gave the children a treat of topsicles and ice cream, during the recreational period.

Informal Dinner.
Judge and Mrs. W. P. Leslie entertained Judge and Mrs. Truman H. Conner of Fort Worth at their informal family dinner table Tuesday evening.

This delightful home dinner hour and hospitality of the Leslies was greatly enjoyed by their guests.

A Recent Informal and Delightful Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kelly were co-hosts and hostesses to a recent delightful and informal party, held in the evening on the lawn of the Ernest H. Jones' home, in Hillcrest.

The scene was prettily lighted by electric globes swung through the trees and the lawn was spaced by the seven tables, used in the game.

At close of a delightful evening, high score favor in the game, a serving set of four pieces, was awarded Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dunham.

A pleasing feature of the game was that couples progressed and remained partners throughout the evening.

Delicious home-made ice cream and cake was served by the hostesses at close of this, one of the most delightful social evenings of the summer season, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Crossley, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Parker, Mr. and Mrs.

R. A. Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Claude G. Stubbiefield, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. George Harrell, Mrs. Stafford, and Mrs. Blair of Austin, house guests of J. Frank Sparks, Mrs. W. B. Harris, and host and hostesses.

Delightful Dance.
Elks' Clubrooms Tonight.
Lowell Snyder and Harrison Thomas were busily engaged in decorating the Elks Club ballroom Wednesday in preparation for the lovely dance to be given tonight, Thursday, opening at 9 p. m. and with poppy music furnished by the Joe Joe's Rhythm Rustlers.

The dance is largely honoring the new members but is especially for young folks of Eastland and is the first of a series of such dances, strictly invitational, the B. P. O. Elks put on for the enjoyment of the dancing set.

The ballroom presents a very attractive appearance. A ceiling canopy in purple and white crepe paper strands is gracefully swung from center electroliers to corners of ballroom and a recess or alcove, draped in purple and white gauzy curtains, has been arranged for the orchestra.

This will be one of the most delightful events in the way of a dancing evening that has been arranged this season. In case the weather is warm, many electric fans are placed for cooling of temperature. As this bids fair to be a cool and delightful evening, such expedients may not be necessary.

From all indications there will be a large and popular attendance.

Mrs. Theodore Ferguson Entertains Sister.
Mrs. Fleming of Pharr, Texas, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Theodore Ferguson, from Monday to Wednesday when, accompanied by Mrs. Ferguson, they left for Stamford to visit their mother in that city, Mrs. G. W. Bennett.

During Mrs. Fleming's stay, Mrs. Ferguson entertained the informal two-table card club, of which she is a member, with luncheon at noon, Tuesday, and bridge afterwards.

All members were present, save guest substitutes for absent members, Mrs. Scott Key, and Mrs. Fleming. Club members present were Mrs. James H. Cheatham Jr., Mrs. P. G. Russell, Mrs. Bryan Brelsford, Mrs. Curtis A. Hertz, and Mrs. Gladys McMurray of Cisco.

Judge and Mrs. Truman H. Conner Continue Trip.
Judge and Mrs. Truman H. Conner of Fort Worth, who were the guests of his brother and wife, Judge and Mrs. Earl Conner, left Wednesday afternoon to visit their nieces, Mrs. Anderson, and Mrs. Foxworth in Cisco.

Sunday evening, the judges of the court of civil appeals and their wives, called on Judge and Mrs. Truman H. Conner and spent a delightful evening at the Earl Conner residence. Mrs. Conner served a refreshing course of ice cream and cake at conclusion of their visit, to the callers and honor guest, Judge and Mrs. J. E. Hickman, Judge and Mrs. W. P. Leslie, Judge and Mrs. O. C. Funderburg, Judge and Mrs. George L. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus B. Frost, and Judge and Mrs. Truman Conner, who, following their Cisco visit, will spend the balance of his vacation on a western trip.

Eastland Personal.
Theodore Ferguson is in town with his family for a couple of weeks stay.

Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin and guest, Mrs. Marian Dickens, of Newport, Ark., were Dallas visitors Tuesday.

Miss Blanche Tanner, who left by airplane from the Abilene airport Monday morning for the Olympics, wired her parents from El Paso that she was O. K. and sent instructions for a package to be sent her to Los Angeles. She has not been heard from since arriving at destination.

as gas gets staler - gas gets weaker

Do you know what happens when gas gets stale? It loses power! As staleness increases, the more volatile parts of gas evaporate. A chemical change takes place when gas is stored. And power decreases!

Stale gas is feeble gas. Gives you a slower start. Sluggish pick-up. It is more apt to foul valves and carburetor—because stale gas becomes stickier as it grows older. Stale gas knocks more, too—particularly on hills.

The whole petroleum industry has long known these facts. And for the past several years, Gulf has been developing a system that assures you of getting FRESH gasoline! How? . . .

First, by giving you the best gasoline that can be made—by so refining this gas that the elements that cause rapid deterioration of gasoline are eliminated. Hence, Gulf gas stays FRESH longer.

Second, by taking this FRESH-MADE, PEAK-POWERED gas and rushing it to you in a hurry.

From the moment it is made, Gulf gas never gets a chance to get stale. The whole Gulf organization has been geared up to high speed. Huge Gulf refineries have been placed in many sections of the country—so that a stream of FRESH-MADE gas can be kept flowing into every one of the 45,000 Gulf filling stations. A vast fleet of fast trucks speeds FRESH gas to Gulf stations every day in the year! . . . Get FRESH gas—packed with power. Get Gulf. Use it exclusively. Your motor will be cleaner. Quieter. Faster.
