A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

FORSAKE EVIL: Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings.—Zechariah 1: 4.

TWO GREAT STATES PARDON PRO OFFENDERS

Gov. Paul V. McNutt of Indiana, a democrat and a gallant soldier and educator, has pardoned all violators held in jail or prison in accordance with his previous ruling "that the recent repeal of the state prohibition law requires such action."

Gov. Henry Horner of Illinois is considering granting executive clemency to those persons now in jail for violation of the liquor laws of his commonwealth. He has signed the bills repealing the state prohibition act and the state search and seizure law.

Why should he keep them in jail? Why should the taxpayers of Illinois pay the cost of housing and feeding and clothing them with economic conditions as they are and all the enforcement acts repealed by an overwhelming majority in both branches of the legislature of the state.

AMERICAN DOLLAR HOLDING ITS OWN ABROAD

Uncle Sam is holding his head high in foreign lands and the American Eagle continues to flap its wings. Yes, the cables announced that the United States dollar generally held its strength after the moratorium had been lifted in the exchanges of foreign land.

BUSINESS BRISK IN SHADOWS OF ALAMO

This is a cheerful little earful, and it is sounded from all the cities and towns of Texas: "San Antonio bank clearings increased 30 per cent the first day of business after 10-day closing. Affidavits were available at all the San Antonio banks in the event that depositors might request the withdrawal of a large sum, but they were not needed."

The same state of affairs existed in all the major and minor cities of Texas. May heaven bless the American warriors, men and women red-blooded and with courage in their hearts who know the value of confidence, which is the basic stone of credit—the maker of prosperity.

A DREAMER WOULD OUTLAW WAR

Sen. Frazier (r) of North Dakota wants war declared illegal. He has introduced in the senate a proposed constitutional amendment. If submitted and ratified, it will be the 21st amendment to the constitution of the United States.

There have been wars from the beginning. There are wars today. There will be wars in future time. Under the skin man is a fighting brute. He has shown it through the ages and the warlike news from the European countries tells the people of the world that the fighting animal is very much in evidence. Indeed he is ready to fight again because he loves the fighting game.

The man who thinks he knows it all and won't cooperate with the other citizens of the home town is just a mistake and it's a mistake to have him around.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

This month, as in many months past, the Economy Bugs are swarming around the country in great numbers. They seem to be working over-time. I doubt if many of them know what it is all about anyway.

Many of them seem to be getting severe cases of brain fatigue in trying to find out who has, or is getting, any money, and getting laws passed to take it away from them.

I am not making any brief for corporations, but just why they should be soaked with increased taxes when in many cases, like the the railroads, they are not even making expenses, is more than I can understand. It only means that this increased tax will have to be passed back to the consumer in some form.

In the new deal it is time for Mr. and Mrs. Consumer to object to the raising of taxes on railroads, oil, power, ice, gas or telephone companies, for they themselves will have to pay them.

That New Deal

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer (Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.) WASHINGTON.—The veterans' lobby has been stepped—and thrown for a loss.

Since the war, right up until this year of the "New Deal," the American Legion and the smaller organizations of ex-service men had been getting nearly everything they went after.

The legislation which the Legion lobbyists wrote for Congress to pass finally came to cost the country very nearly $1,000,000,000 a year. Now, with a power of attorney granted by a Congress which prefers his leadership to that of any minority group, President Roosevelt expects to slash some $400,000,000 from that annual bill in one fell swoop.

Congress has been so flooded with telegrams of protest from veterans and their posts that the telegraph companies here stopped trying to keep count of them. Probably the number was somewhere near 100,000. The veterans' lobby was at work in a supreme effort as Congress considered the new economy bill which empowered Roosevelt to cut more than half a billion dollars from veteran benefits and federal salaries.

ON the other hand, thousands of telegrams were sent demanding that Congress stand by the president.

The veterans' is only one of numerous lobbies in Washington, but its influence and effectiveness has only been matched by the Anti-Saloon League in its heyday. The vast majorities it used to pile up for its measures demonstrated that most members of Congress considered it extremely dangerous, if not actual political suicide, to stand in opposition.

DERRICK SHADOWS By V. MARIE STEPHENS

I really wasn't interested in baseball at all, but he was my host... and a very enthusiastic host. So while petty talk of fashion and weather went on all about us, he told me about the six years he pitched for some professional team.

Just as I was beginning to wilt over his own achievements, he burst into enthusiastic tales of his brother who played with the big league until he threw his arm out of place and had to stop.

Somehow, the entire evening reminded me of a book of fairy years I read once. Each story carrier a trailer. A moral, to be exact, in heavy capitals. For society's sake, don't bore your guests and associates with lengthy stories of your own narrow interests.

I shall probably never see the man again, but I can never buy a ticket with the rest of the fans or read a baseball report without remembering that big, awkward man... and how clumsily he handled his coffee cup while reciting wild tales of the ball and bat. The memory could be nicer... had he let me talk some.

We hear, read, and talk nothing but bills these days. Farm bills, beer bills, economy bills... everything but dollar bills. We are still wondering about them. Prosperity may be returning, but we'd like some money to help us celebrate the home-coming.

And while we fool around down here, doing and undoing all the damage we politically can, we find ourselves in the direct path of heavenly bodies. Fireworks are fine, but this idea of meteor lights and noises is somewhat upsetting.

There's something we can't control, even by state vote. Were it midnight, April 6, we shouldn't be surprised at the bright lights and unearthly sounds. But these are prohibition days and we crave the peace we voted for back when the

Ants Delayed a Flight Over Ocean

PARIS.—Ants were blamed by M. Rene Couzinet, designer and builder of the "Arc-en-ciel" for the necessity of putting off until April the departure of the giant tri-motor plane from Natal for France.

"It was not the size of the Natal field, but the condition of the ground which made it impossible to continue our flight," Couzinet declared.

"Large ants have burrowed galleries through the soil of the field, these underground works not being visible from the pilot's seat and there is great risk taking off with a full load of 14 tons."

Couzinet insists that the flight of the "Arc-en-ciel" proves conclusively the practical possibilities of 48-hour flight between Paris and South America. Mermoz' plane made the flight in 52 hours, but several hours time could have been saved at Natal.

It is the intention to follow the same route for the return as to the outward journey. That will be from Natal to Saint Louis, Senegal, then along the coast past Port Etienne, Agadir and Casablanca, over Spain to Istres.

Debaters Used Half a Million Words

NEWTON, Kan.—Whatever the quality, the quantity of words used in the debates at the Kansas State Agricultural League tournament here was considerable.

A statistician figured it out, and 48 debaters, representing six states, spoke a total of 500,000 words—enough to fill five 100-page books—in five rounds of the court.

CHURCH HAS 1884 ALTAR STOCKBRIDGE, Mass.—A church here was presented to the church in 1893 by Mrs. Frank H. Delano of New York, mother grandmother of President Roosevelt. On Nov. 12 of that year, Delano received holy communion from the altar which she donated.

One I Love

By LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

When JANET HILL learns that ROLF LATHAM has been breaking engagements with her to meet BETTY KENDALL, a society girl, she tells him their marriage is off.

She still loves Rolf and cannot forget him. JEFF GRANT, a young engineer, saves her purse from a holdup man one night and she and Jeff become friends.

Hamilton leaves the magazine and because of reticence there is no job for Janet. However, Hamilton tells her his sister, MISS CURTIS, needs a social secretary and Janet secures the job.

Down town at noon one day she sees Jeff and Dolores Calahan and Dolores is carrying a purse she helped him buy. Janet concludes Jeff is in love with Dolores.

She decides to stay as long as Rolf and Betty are out of town. Janet reads the letter. Her heart was beating so that she thought the other woman must surely hear it.

She went directly to Marsh's department store and asked to see the suits. "Here's something very special today," the saleswoman told her.

She turned her hand and Janet saw the diamond twinkling on the ring finger. "Oh, is it from Alf?" she asked.

Janet laughed. "I'm glad you like it," she said. "I just bought it. I've wanted to see you, Mollie. How's everybody at Mrs. Snyder's? I've been meaning to telephone only I've been pretty busy."

DON'T QUOTE ME

By United Press

WASHINGTON, — "Louis," "Mac" and "Steve" have turned the White House executive offices into quarters as informal as their nicknames.

"Louis" is Louis Howe, the efficient little head secretary to President Roosevelt. "Mac" is Marvin H. McIntyre, the slim, gray-haired political press secretary.

"Steve" is Steven Early, the press contact man. They have reversed utterly the policies of Mr. Hoover's secretaries, who were almost as difficult to see as the President himself.

"Louis" is available to anyone who wants to see him. If his visitors haven't anything of importance to say, he gets rid of them rapidly—and sometimes gruffly.

The police finally have gotten around to announcing it. Maybe they didn't think it made any difference. Anyway.

Six hundred and two inaugural visitors absconded with 602 "no parking" signs. The bluecoats said they believed the signs by now were gracing 602 mantels in the homes of the visiting souvenir hunters.

Gov. Gifford Pinchot, who was in Washington, had 95 cents in his right-hand pocket when the national banking holiday was declared. But he did have a tank full of gasoline in his automobile.

Women's Bible Class Has Fine Lesson

The Bible class of the Church of Christ enjoyed a splendid study hour, Monday afternoon, at their church session, when Mrs. Loreta Herring, class teacher, lectured on "The Conversion of Cornelius."

The study program opened with a hymn, "We Will Work Till Jesus Comes," with acapella singing led by Mrs. J. R. Boggus, and prayer by Mrs. Elmer Hurler.

The members are directed to take the cookies to be sent Bowles orphan home in Quinn to the Bible class meeting next week, for packing for shipment.

Dismissal prayer was given by Mrs. Guy Sherrill. Present were Meses. W. E. Kellett, H. E. Lawrence, James Graham, Harry Wood, Argye Fehl, James Beale, Percy Harris, R. B. Reagan, Guy Sherrill, Elmer Murley, J. R. Boggus, M. P. Pickett, Ira L. Hanna, E. H. Davis, Loreta Herring and B. E. Roberson.

Ladies Aid Society Raising Funds

An informal meeting of the members of the aid society of the Christian church Monday afternoon was held to equip several members with the mental songs, the ladies are disposing of for their aid fund.

Those working on this project were Meses. M. L. Smitham, J. R. Gibbreath, E. E. Wood and Eugene Day.

Announcement was made of the meeting of the missionary society next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Day, with the program in charge of Mrs. T. A. Bandy.

Women's Missionary Society Holds Circle Sessions

The divisional circles of the Women's Missionary society of the Baptist church met at the homes Monday afternoon, each presenting a prayer program, following their necessary short business session.

Reports of the chairmen of each circle were prepared and personally presented by them, at the Monday night revival service, now in progress in Baptist church.

Mrs. J. F. McWilliams, chairman, was hostess to Circle 1, at her residence with the session opening with the devotional from the 96th Psalm.

There was a small attendance as many in this circle are ill. The meeting closed with sentence prayer.

Mrs. John Williams, house hostess to Circle 2, entertained with a social hour following the session, opened by Mrs. Cook, chairman, with the eighth chapter of Romans being presented by Mrs. W. B. White, and prayer led by Mrs. Nelson.

Hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," closed the prayer service.

Cake and hot tea was served to Meses. O. B. Darby, Neil, Lee Bishop, Cook, B. White, Nelson, Fentost, Meses. Almie Williams, Ruby Harbin, and Mrs. John Williams.

Mrs. H. R. Breazeale entertained Circle 3 at her residence. Mrs. W. D. R. Owen, chairman, opened the session with prayer, followed by the minutes, approved, of the secretary, Mrs. L. G. Rogers.

Routine monthly reports were submitted and definite plans for next month made.

The circle will make six dresses as their portion of gift to the Butler orphan home. A family outing with weiner and bacon roast was planned for a near meeting.

A prayer service introductory to the revival was conducted by the chairman.

After a brief social period the hostess served a dainty refreshment of peach salad on lettuce, whipped cream topping, angel food cake, tea with mint and lemon, to Meses. V. E. Vessels, W. J. Herington, Joe Neal, J. B. Overton, W. P. Palm, Hannah Lindsey, L. G. Rogers, Prince Shields, Ida Harris and W. D. R. Owen.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell entertained Circle 4 at her home with program opened by the chairman, Mrs. R. L. Young, in the devotional from the 37th Psalm, and a lesson on "The Pure in Heart." Prayer by Mrs. W. A. Owen prefaced the personal service report, which was very fine, and covered a round of activities.

An examination in the circle study just completed "Great Day," was conducted by Mrs. Carl Springer. A season of prayer followed led by their chairman and taken part in by Mrs. Eugene Tucker and Mrs. A. J. Campbell.

A brief social period, followed, and a salad plate was served with sandwiches, small cakes, and hot tea. Announcement was made that there will be a union meeting of the society in the church next Monday afternoon.

Those present, Meses. Carl Springer, Marvin Hood, R. L. Young, W. A. Owen, J. T. Drake, and A. J. Campbell.

Booster Class Methodist Church

The booster class Sunday school meeting, of Methodist church, had the formal session opened by their president Mrs. W. W. Kelly, and a splendid song service led by B. M. Collier, with Mrs. Neil A. Moore as pianist.

The procedure opened with a reading by little Miss Doris Lawrence. The class discussed the charity plans now in progress, and will continue the work indefinitely.

Mrs. P. L. Cressley secretary, tendered her resignation of this office, regretfully accepted, and Mrs. Frank Hightower was elected to the vacancy.

M. H. Kelly was elected assistant secretary. A splendid lesson on "Temperance in All Things" was presented by the class teacher Judge W. P. Leslie, whose talks are always interesting and forceful.

Those present, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Hassel, Meses. Milton Lawrence, Ed Willman, Neil A. Moore, Roy Birmingham, W. W. Phillips, J. C. Patterson, Miss Jessie Lee Lyon, T. J. Haley, Judge W. P. Leslie, and guests of the class, Mrs. Clyatt, Misses Dudley and Taylor, and E. M. Collier.

Methodist Missionary Society Holds Circle Sessions

The Anna J. Day Circle of the Methodist Missionary society was entertained by Mrs. Frank Castleberry at her pleasant home Monday afternoon, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Pettit, and Mrs. Iola Mitchell, co-hostess.

Bouquets of lilacs added their charm to the session opened by the chairman, Mrs. Will Keith, with devotional, reading by Mrs. George Brogdon, closing with the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Hymn, "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds," and prayer by Mrs. Annie E. Day, terminated this period of the Anna J. Day Circle.

The circle voted to have a bake sale on Saturday, April 8, when home grown flowers will also be sold on commission, for benefit circle funds.

Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite was named general chairman, and to choose her own committee and select place for sale.

The hostesses served refreshments of ice cream and cake and nuts at close of a most pleasant afternoon, to Meses. L. A. Cook, E. Coleman, F. D. Hale, F. L. Michael, G. H. Kinard, J. W. Miller, C. H. Smith, Ed Graham, Annie E. Day, George Brogdon, Sam Harris, W. A. Keith, Ernest H. Jones, Frank Crowell, and R. E. Sikas.

SHOWDOWN

Can a "pick up" romance hold its own against a society marriage is the question Sylvia Sidney ponders in this scene from Vina Delmar's "Pick Up," today at the Arcadia Theatre. Miss Sidney is costarred with George Raft in the picture.

The dismissal prayer for the missionary in Japan, for whom the circle was named, was given by Mrs. Bert McGlameary. Games, songs and contests filled a cordial social hour, and refreshments of date squares, candies and hot tea, were served by the hostess to Meses. F. L. Drago, P. L. Crossley, J. J. Mickle, Jonathan Jones, T. M. Johnson, Guy Dunham, D. J. Jobe, Hinrichs, T. J. Haley, Frank Jones, Frank Sparks, W. W. Kelly, T. B. Thompson, E. Dulin, F. E. Kenny, and hostess, Mrs. J. E. Hickman.

The Outlook Circle met with Mrs. Turner M. Collier this session presided over by Mrs. A. H. Johnson, chairman. Committee reports were submitted showing many branches of the work well in hand.

The devotional led by Mrs. John Miller, was closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison, and the hymn, "In the Garden."

The study for the afternoon, "Teachings of Jesus," led by Mrs. London, closed the devotional period.

Clever advertising contest games filled the social period, and refreshments were served of salad, toasted wafers, cream filled cakes, olives, and tea.

Mrs. John Barke will be hostess to the next circle meeting, last Monday in April. Those present, Meses. Olin Stover, Jack London, W. M. Griffin, John Miller, Robert Sanford, Noble Harkider, Dee High, Wayne Jones, John Burke, A. H. Johnson, and Turner M. Collier.

Pythian Sisters Temple

Plans for the big convention of the Pythian Sisters association, to be held soon in Eastland, were further outlined at the Monday evening local meeting, conducted by Mrs. Cora Frye, most excellent chief.

The committee on menu for the convention Meses. McWilliams, and J. A. Ross, submitted their plan. About 100 are expected for the day session and evening reception.

The temples to be invited were definitely selected at this meeting and named Mineral Wells, Midland, Big Spring, Graham, Mingus, Thurber, Weatherford, Electra, Iowa Park, Henrietta, Fort Worth, and three temples from Dallas.

Those on the program, will be Brownwood, Abilene, Baird, Breckenridge, and Eastland.

Legal Beer Will Find Barmaids Serving Brew

By STUART E. JONES
United Press Staff Correspondent HOUSTON.—When legal beer finds its way back to Houston, if ever, the rouged cheek and marcel wave will replace handle-bar mustaches and blue jowls as the bartender's badge.

This is on the word of Miss Birdie Thomas, secretary of Local No. 808 of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Beverage Dispensers International alliance—or the bartenders' union.

The union, which had only a few female members in the days before prohibition, now is composed almost entirely of women.

Miss Thomas was a little surprised that anybody should wonder whether women would enter the new endeavor when it opens here.

"Why, sure we're going in for bartending," she said. "Good times are just turning the corner for us. I'll bet you six months from now there won't be an idle member of this union."

Miss Thomas is expecting more calls for girl bartenders than the local will be able to fill. She wants new members.

Her prediction is based on the guess that when beer is returned to good standing in Texas, its sale will be permitted only in restaurants and other places where food is handled. Most of these, she pointed out, are using nothing but women as present.

Even should the old-time saloon return, Miss Thomas said, there is no reason why girls shouldn't stand behind the bars.

"Look at England," she said. "All of the bartenders are girls who are doing a splendid job. Good times are just turning the corner for us. I'll bet you six months from now there won't be an idle member of this union."

Believe me, the first bar that opens in this town will have a lot of peppy girls back of the counter who will clean up. I'm speaking of nice, ladylike girls—girls who don't drink."

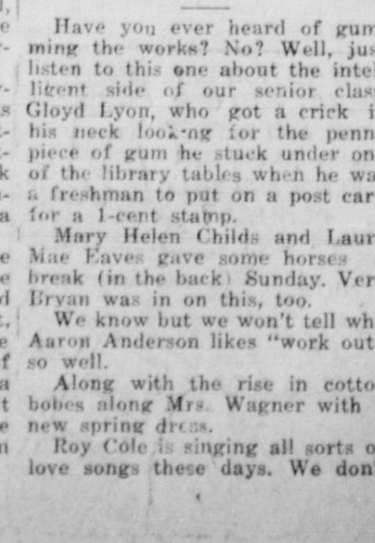

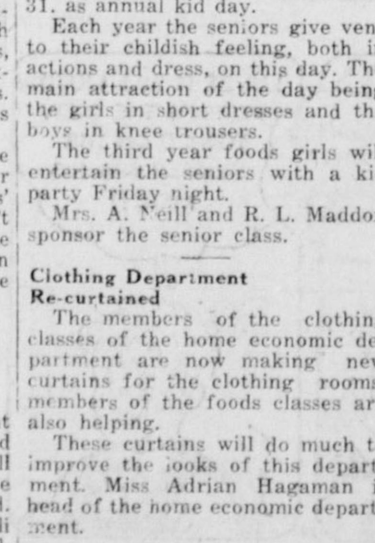

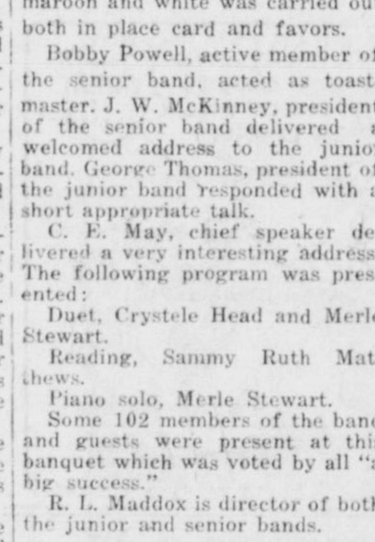

Miss Thomas suggested the girls should be dressed to match the fixtures of the bar itself. Bars with dark fixtures should hire blondes, she said, and bars with light fixtures should feature brunettes. Red-heads should be made to dress in green only.

Miss Thomas' contentions were borne out by Ed Mahoney, former secretary of local bartenders' union. Mahoney said he didn't know of a single bartender in the city now holding a card. Back in the old days, he said, there were about 250 here.

Mormons Plan 103rd Session

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 27.—Members of the Latter Day Saints (Mormon) church, representatives of half the world's Christian population will gather here April 6 to 10 for a 103rd annual general conference.

Heber J. Grant, president of the church, will continue the Grand session will continue April 1 and 2.

Church members from all parts of the world attend the sessions. The great Mormon encampment, having a seating capacity of about 40,000, cannot hold a crowd and a public address.

It is not out of the ordinary for a tribe or two of Indians to be among the listeners. The Book of Mormon is claimed to be a history of their people.

Other nations represented include Australia, Germany, France, Great Britain, Sweden, Holland, and even parts of South Africa.

A successor to the late W. Nibley, counselor to President Grant will be named. It is expected that former U. S. Senator Reed Smoot, now a member of the 12 Apostles, or former U. S. ambassador to Mexico, Ruben Clark, stood good chances of being named.
