When Does a Hill Become Mountain

By United Press
 AUSTIN.—Curious geology students at the University of Texas wanted to know when a mountain ceases being a hill, or in other words, when does a hill become a mountain.

It all depends, quoth A. H. Deen, professor of geology, to his class, a mountain one place might be called a hill in another, depending on the comparative height to the surrounding terrain.

"For instance," Professor Deen continued, "the Black Hills of the Dakotas are 6,000 feet high while Mount Bonnell, west of Austin, is only a few hundred feet high. The Black Hills would be mountains in Texas.

"A mole hill would look like a mountain to people around Houston."

Oil Men Agree On Nation's Output

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Groups of oil men from all parts of the nation today informally approved a limit of 2,000,000 daily for the country's oil output.

The oil men were summoned here to work out a program for balancing oil production with market demand.

BOSTON.—To pay a $310 bill, the Weeks Printing company, of Halifax, N. S., shipped 31,000 U. S. pennies, weighing about 260 pounds, in a stout wooden crate to Jacob Bloom & Co., of Boston.

With the Canadian dollar quoted around 85 cents, the firm saved a substantial sum by using American pennies.

Eastland Revival Draws Largest Crowd Sunday

The Eastland Baptist church seated an audience of 650 people Sunday night in the largest gathering in the series of revival sermons being delivered by Rev. William H. Joyner of San Antonio, a noted revivalist.

Inspirational congregational singing was followed by a duet, "He Will Never Let Me Fall," by Mrs. O. B. Darby and A. M. Hearn, preceding the sermon, "Holding the Devil's Coat," based on text of last nine verses of 7th chapter of Acts.

A striking picture was drawn by the revivalist of the first Christian martyr, Stephen, and of Saul of Tarsus, holding the coats of those who stoned the young martyr.

The speaker said, the name of the sermon was suggested by the author, John Hazzit, who wrote, "Paul Was a Man Who Held the Devil's Coat."

All during his sermon, the revivalist carried on his left arm, the coat of a man, who had beaten his wife to death.

Many people, said the speaker, are in a similar position to that of Paul, formerly Saul of Tarsus. A state of passivity. High lights brought out the ways in which people are holding the "Devil's Coat," indifference and neglect of church people; of their duty and of the great church program. Who would not consciously hurt the church, but who do nothing to help, and are indifferent.

Services tonight at 7:45 o'clock. The public is welcome.

The audience Sunday night had large delegations from Ranger, Cisco and Olden.

Ranger Firemen Answer Two Calls

The Ranger fire department answered one call Sunday night about 9 o'clock and another Monday about 1:30, neither of which fires proving costly.

Sunday night the home of Charles Hummel, in Cooper addition, caught fire, but the blaze was put out before more than a few dollars in damage resulted.

The call Monday was to the old Phillips drug store location, where fire was discovered in the ruins of the building. No damage was reported from this small blaze.

Annual Meeting Ranger Country Club To Be Held April 11

The annual meeting and election of the Ranger Country club will be held at the clubhouse on Tuesday night, April 11, at which time a golf barbecue will be given to all the members.

The annual election is held each year prior to the opening of the Oil Belt season, when officers and directors for the year are chosen by the members.

Winners Named In Jig Saw Contest

Out of more than a score of entries in the Ranger Times-Arcadia theatre jig-saw puzzle contest, the judges selected the following names as the winners of the 10 free tickets to see "Pick Up" at the Arcadia Monday and Tuesday:

Mrs. W. H. Clarke, 507 Elm street
 Margaret McKeehan, 425 Alice street
 Mrs. Earl Payne, Box 471
 Deola Shelton, Route 3, Ranger
 Minnie Maye Notgrass, Ranger.

One contestant failed to put any name on his entry and though it was considered by the judges it was impossible to give it one of the winning places. Several others probably would have been given more consideration and might have won had not pieces of the puzzle been missing, probably because the paste did not stick.

The response to the contest was most gratifying to both the theatre and newspaper and it is regretted that all could not win.

French Army to Defeat the Stork

PARIS.—On the eve of the four year anniversary of the French army's victory in the trenches, the French birth-rate dropped one-third.

These conscripts are incorporated into the army in two groups: half on April 1 and half on Oct. 1, at the rate of 230,000 each year. To keep the army to that conscript strength, the general staff has devised a schedule of drafting which will advance the date of incorporating recruits.

If there are not enough recruits of 21 years, the army will draw on prospective conscripts of 20 years, 11 months, and so on down a scale of months. It is expected that it will not be necessary to take recruits of less than 20 before the four year term passes and the army returns to its normal routine with the class of 1939.

Art Critics Ban Governor's Portrait

BOSTON.—It is a tradition that a Massachusetts governor upon leaving office, has his portrait hung in the State House.

There is no portrait of the last governor, Frank G. Allen. The subject had posed standing, with one hand in his pocket!

Now, Louis J. Johansen has done a portrait of former Governor Allen, in which the subject is seen sitting at a desk, with both hands visible. This is expected to meet approval and find a place on State House walls.

Ranger Singers Meet on Sunday

The Ranger Singers association met at the First Baptist church of Ranger at the regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon with a good crowd present.

These singing meetings are held once each month at one of the Ranger churches and have become quite an important feature of the Ranger community.

The singing group will be held the first of April at some church, announced later.

General Held For Eastland Girl

Funeral services for the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fitzner, Rosalie, the youngest of five daughters, was held in the Eastland Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the presence of friends and relatives.

Services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Darby, and opened with the singing of "Jesus Loves Me," the hymn "How Firm a Foundation" and "The Junior High school club of 20 girls, who were led by Mrs. F. O. Hunter. The funeral home was paid little for the services, whose oldest sister, Earline Fitzner, is a member of this church.

The white casket was almost hidden under the wealth of beautiful offerings. A most touching service was delivered by Rev. Darby, who stressed the statement that parents in nowise felt anyone to blame for the accident that ended their child's life.

Burial services were held at the home of Mrs. Fitzner and Stephen and family friends, N. K. Hays and S. J. Arthur.

The services were concluded at the Eastland cemetery, in the presence of an immense cortege.

Galley High Man At Ranger Shoot

Galley was high point man in the 200-yard large bore practical at the Ranger American Rifle club range Sunday afternoon with a score of 48 out of 50. Rev. J. H. Darby, Roach and Randall of Thurber were in a tie for second place, with 47.

Moore, Tucker, Spencer and Hearn in a four-way tie for third place.

The 50-yard, small bore black Roach was first place with a score of 95 out of a possible 100 with Galley in second place with 91 and Tucker and Wagner for third place with 83 each.

The individual scores of the day follow:

Large bore, 200-yard range—Roach, 95; Reynolds, 48; Baker, 42; Hamov, 49; Wagner, 41; Moore, 42; Roach, 45; Spencer, 41; Randall, 45; Crossley, 32; Hays, 41; White, 28; Robinson, McDonald, 39.

Small bore, 50 yard range—Roach, 95; Wagner, 83; Galley, Baker, 74; Roach, 95; Tucker, Moore, 60.

"Scottsboro Negroes" In New Trial For Life

Air Disaster Is Probed By Authorities

OAKLAND, Calif., March 27.—An air disaster in which 17 persons were fatally burned in the splintered wreckage of houses and planes reached the concluding stages of an investigation today.

Department of commerce officials completed a confidential report on the crash Saturday night of a biplane, which had been invited to sit in with the state representatives broke up in discord.

"The meeting was packed in the interest of the major oil companies," declared John B. Elliott, chairman of the executive committee of the Independent Petroleum Association of California, who walked out of the stormy session.

Texas delegates had sided with Elliott, it was declared.

Students Boarded For $2

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa.—Room and board for "from $2 to $25 per week" were the rates quoted for college students before the Civil war, according to a 1859 issue of the "Student's Journal," Westminster college publication.

A copy of the paper recently was sent to the college by Dr. Herbert M. Moore, president of Lake Forest college, Illinois.

Oil Shut Down May Be Enforced Next Thursday

DALLAS, March 27.—Majority rule of the state railroad commission may result in the 10,000 wells of the East Texas oil field running without restrictions for two hours Thursday and thereafter being shut down indefinitely.

Commissioner E. O. Thompson and C. V. Terrell were agreed to this policy.

They outvoted Chairman Lon Smith, who, Saturday, revoked an order of the commission which was to go into effect Monday. Thursday's orders are similar to the original free flow and shut down order. Thompson and Terrell were in Washington today to attend a conference of leaders of the oil industry.

House Splits Over Utility Commission

AUSTIN, March 27.—The house of the Texas legislature split today over considering the creation of a state utility commission.

A vote to postpone such a measure lost by a vote of 66 to 67.

Additional importance is attached to the measure by the fact that advocates of a new oil and gas commission have prepared an amendment that will put utility, oil and gas regulation all under control of the proposed new body.

Consideration of the measure may yet be blocked. Representative J. L. Goodman announced he will ask a reconsideration of the vote to delay the utility bill this afternoon.

Beer, scheduled for a public hearing before a house committee tonight, had two substitute bills on members' desks today. One bill amends the Dean act to declare that beer and wine containing not more than 3.2 per cent alcohol are exempted from the Dean act provisions. The other bill licenses and taxes manufacture and sale of such beverages.

"Forgotten Man" Found At Austin

AUSTIN.—The "forgotten man" of the Roosevelt administration is in Austin, Texas. The original Roosevelt-for-president man in Texas passed on the way to the pie counter by the boys who jumped on the Roosevelt bandwagon.

While some of those who were "gathered for Garner" and "trailing with Traylor" a few months ago are now getting the plums, Holloway has received fine personal letters from Jim Farley thanking him.

Holloway was for Roosevelt when he was still housing for Roosevelt when they Traylor boom got under way in Texas, he didn't waver when the Garner boom was started. He was still and steadily for Roosevelt.

"I guess old Jim Holloway will get a fat job now," declared the cantal habitus when Mr. Roosevelt was elected.

"Ought to be postmaster here or internal revenue collector or something like that."

But when the postmaster was announced, the name wasn't Holloway. He wasn't appointed collector either. He hasn't been appointed anything yet.

Ranger Country Club Presented A Golf Trophy

The Ranger Country club was presented with a large silver punch bowl and ladle Sunday afternoon by Walter Clark, secretary of the Oil Belt Golf association as the award for the club winning the association championship in golf last year. The bowl was presented at the country club.

A. Neill, president of the club, announced today that it would be placed on display in the window of the Paramount pharmacy, where it can be seen by everyone.

The Ranger Country club is going into the 1933 season with a determination to win the championship another year, in order that the silver goblets that go with the set can be secured.

No Pay Cuts Now Prove a Flareback

AUSTIN.—Members of the state legislature were warned when they set their own pay at $10 a day for the session, that failure to take a cut for themselves would fly back and hit them when they proposed cuts for other state employees.

The flareback came when the house took up its departmental appropriation bill. An effort was being made to reduce the pay set for stenographers. High prices in Austin were pleaded against proposed reductions.

"Didn't we refuse to reduce our own pay because of the prices in Austin?" asked Representative R. M. Wagstaff, Abilene.

"Yes," shouted many members.

KILL MAN AND ATTACK WOMAN LATE AT NIGHT

Armed Officers Continue Search After Six Suspects Arrested.

Houston, March 27.—Two negro terrorists, one of whom assaulted a white woman after killing her escort, were hunted today by scores of heavily armed officers, aided by blood hounds.

William W. Porch, Jr., 24, was shot to death when he asked the negroes to show mercy to Miss Adele Torian, 24.

Porch's woman was dragged off into a nearby wood, assaulted, kicked and left bound and blindfolded across porch's body.

By noon, less than 12 hours after the crime, six suspects were in jail. None was arrested in the immediate vicinity of the crime, but were arrested in scattered negro sections of the city.

Porch and Miss Torian were sitting in a parked automobile on a suburban road near midnight when the negroes appeared suddenly at either side of the car.

Porch's plea for mercy for his companion was answered by a pistol shot, which ranged close to his heart. The negro who fired the shot seized Miss Torian and dragged her into the woods.

His companion followed, dragging Porch.

The assault occurred in the woods after the negro caressed Miss Torian and ignored her pleas for mercy and her offer of money if they would permit her to take Porch to a hospital.

The negroes disappeared after kicking Miss Torian and throwing her across Porch's body.

Slipping off her bonds she attempted to start Porch's automobile, but the negroes had cut the ignition wires.

She made her way to the home of John Anderson, blind man, living nearby, who telephoned police.

FEE SYSTEM PAYMENTS ARE CUT IN SENATE

AUSTIN, March 27.—The Texas Senate today began drawing tight the state purse strings on the payment of fees to county and state fee officers.

Eight bills are designed to blot out "graft" and reduce excessive fees. The measures were prepared by a legislative committee which spent two years studying the fee system.

The Senate pushed through the first two of these bills to final passage without a negative vote.

The first measure provides for payment of fees on criminal cases other than murder only on the final disposition of the case. Under the present system payment is made on indictment.

The second measure is aimed at keeping officers from "padding" mileage reports.

Leaves Geneva

As the Geneva disarmament conference refused to adjourn and proceeded to discussion of the British arms plan, Hugh Gibson, American delegate and U. S. Ambassador to Belgium, announced he was leaving for Brussels and London. Gibson is shown above in a new photo from Geneva. Simultaneously, Norman H. Davis, head of the American delegation to the conference, sailed from New York for London.

Nineteen Bills Are Signed in First Half of Session

AUSTIN.—Nineteen general bills were passed and signed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson in the first half of the session of the 43rd legislature. General bills are those of statewide effect.

Since then the most important general bills passed and signed have been the bill setting up machinery for State Comptroller George Sheppard to catch gasoline tax-dodgers.

Many other bills designated as "general" have also passed but they apply only to particular sections.

Final enactment of this small number with the session more than half gone is no indication there will not be many acts by the end of the session. Only those for which there has been a pressing demand have been rushed through. Most will go through in the closing month.

Former Representative Worth Ray of Dallas, who has issued his first volume of "Advance Session Laws," expects to put out five or possibly six volumes based on next year's session.

CATTLE RAISERS MAKE THEIR DEMANDS

Texas cattle raisers are ever in evidence. They are interested in pending legislation. Indeed, they have been interested in pending legislation more than 60 years. Resolutions adopted by the Fort Worth convention before adjournment included endorsement of a sales tax proposal on condition the ad valorem levy is abolished. Well, according to the signs of the time the ad valorem tax is not going to be abolished. Other resolutions adopted favored resumption of change in ownership through rate privilege by railroads; application of a more equitable differential rate applying on stock shipments to public markets as compared to the rate to other points; support of a legislative bill "designed to establish title to lands held by present owners for 20 years or more," and reduction of yardage and feeding charges by stockyard companies. All the old officers were re-elected. San Antonio was picked for the place of meeting in 1934.

Col. Dayton Moses was retained as association attorney and Ted Moses as assistant secretary. Colonel Moses has been the legal adviser as well as chief legal ramrod for the Texas cattle raisers for, lo, these many years. Indeed, he has been the official watchdog of all legislation affecting the interests or the pockets of the livestock producers and never deserts his post in the Lookout Chair while the legislature is grinding.

COMMISSIONER SHAW AND AUTO LOAN CONCERNS

State Banking Commissioner James Shaw has interpreted the provisions of his moratorium declared March 13 on all financial institutions except banks. His proclamation it is said was in no wise intended to cover automobile finance companies. This is the Shaw explanation: "The moratorium to extend until April 12 was issued for the purpose of protecting such corporations as are authorized to issue their own bonds and debentures, such bonds and debentures being secured by assets in trust. This moratorium in no wise was intended to cover automobile finance companies, agriculture credit corporations, or other concerns that are merely engaged in the business of lending funds in the usual way." His explanation was made to clarify the matter in the minds of the officers of such corporations as are not affected by his recent proclamation. All of which is sound logic.

Many moratorium proposals are destroyers of credit. In the long run those who are responsible will make this discovery when they come out of their trance. Wherever credit is destroyed business is destroyed and wage workers are sent to join the great army of the unemployed.

ARKANSAS LAWMAKERS FOR REPEAL ELECTION

Arkansas is the home of Majority Leader Joseph Taylor Robinson and Senior Senator Hattie W. Caraway. Well, the Arkansas legislature has adjourned. Before adjournment it gave approval of a bill providing a state-wide referendum July 18 and a state convention Aug. 1 on prohibition repeal. A delegate would be elected from each of the 75 counties to attend the convention and all delegates would be bound by the state result. Fair enough. Let the people vote at the ballot box and then let the wisdom of the majority as expressed at the polling place govern as to final results.

Arkansas is not a backward state. Arkansas lawmakers are doing their level best to pull their commonwealth out of the ditch and to give the people full voice in the disposal of many of the problems which are uppermost.

We are living in an era of fast road traffic and all indications point to the fact that it will become faster as road surfaces are improved. Therefore it behooves all traffic, wheeled or pedestrian, to acquire a highly developed sense of regard, not only for their own safety but for the safety of others.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

Nearly always when an accident involving a pedestrian and a motorist occurs, it is the motorist who is deemed to be at fault.

The tendency to put the blame on the motorist is perhaps natural. It belongs to the period when the motor car was regarded as a weapon, and only time will eradicate it.

The question of who causes an accident on the roads will always remain a subject of controversy.

A well known judge has summed up the matter in the following etrms: "The person is the cause of the accident who has the opportunity and the ability of avoiding it."

Tulsa Baseball Fans Awaiting Season Opening

By United Press

By GEORGE GOODALE, United Press Staff Correspondent TULSA, Okla.—Tulsa baseball fans, eagerly awaiting their initial season of Texas league baseball, are wondering what kind of a team President-Manager Art Griggs will assemble. They are confident it will be a winner.

Fans remember last year when Griggs gathered the nucleus of a club here and added strength here and there until it excelled in the Western league. And such is the status this year—a good nucleus with promise of needed player strength because of connections possessed by the manager.

Two star pitchers, three regular infielders and a star outfielder comprise the "red ink" column insofar as loss of last year's team is concerned. However, the ace hurler remains, as does the best outfielder and the same two catchers, Ralph Birkofer, left-handed speedball artist and the Western league's leading strikeout pitcher, and Charley Wood, left-handed curver, are the pitchers who have gone their way. Floyd Young, shortstop, is now with the Pittsburgh Pirates, and so are Birkofer and Wood. Cecil Stewart, second baseman, was owned by Dallas and Bobby Hips, first baseman, belongs to Hollywood. Stanley Schinzo, slugging outfielder, is with Kansas City.

But since then Griggs has obtained replacements which will fill the gap. He bought Max Harned, first baseman, from Omaha, and Chuck Hostettler, outfielder, from Wichita, both of the Western league. Each man was a star in Western league company. Sammy Hale, former Athletic third baseman, has been signed, and Elmer Egbert, present third baseman, will probably be shifted to shortstop or second base.

Purchase Hal Stoeven, last year's Denver first baseman; Frank Osborn, experienced right-hand hitting outfielder came to Tulsa from the Coast league.

Roy Hudson, brilliant Michigan university player, is also available for the first base duty. Leo Najo, former Texas leaguer; John Stenham, the club's leading batsman; Leo Nonnenkamp is a holdover of outfielders. Brown was also with the club a short while last year but showed promise. Nonnenkamp was the rookie sensation of the summer until he broke his leg about six weeks after the season opened.

For the utility role, Tony Malinosky, who held down the job last year, is still with the club. He may fill the shortstop berth if his hitting improves. Orace (Pudge) Powers, rookie, and formerly with Dallas, will be one of the other men behind the bat. Powers did exceptionally well during the latter part of the season.

Andy Bednar, who won 25 games while losing only four last season, was late signing a contract. He is a righthander. Bill Posedel and Jim Bivin, both righthanders and among the pitching mainstays of last season, have returned as has Marty Lang, lefthand star.

The Oilers were fortunate last year in having a splendid twirling corps. Youngsters who may be ready for greater things this year on the mound are Tyler Robinson and Ed Selway, with the club part of last year. Robinson revealed great form. There also is Kirby Higby, the boy wonder of the South Carolina American Legion junior champions of two years ago. Higby was with the team half of last season but was too young to work

How the Vaculator Operates Measured water is poured into the bottom, pulverized coffee in the top, one heaping teaspoonful of coffee to one cup of water.

Heat generates pressure that causes water to flow upward through the water stops, current should be turned off.

Coffee is brewed in upper glass which correct temperature is controlled. When upward flow of water stops, current should be turned off.

Removing upper glass creates a vacuum which "pulls" down the coffee in a jiffy.

Remove upper glass and serve. The coffee will stay hot upwards of thirty minutes in the decenter.
