Leaves NRA After Dispute

Dr. William F. Ogburn, noted economist of the University of Chicago, is shown at his desk just before he resigned from NRA's consumers' advisory council after a dispute with Mrs. Mary Rumsey over policies of the board in checking undue price increases.

INJUNCTION ON ELECTION IS NOW DENIED

DALLAS, Aug. 18.—Rumors that an injunction to prevent Texas voters from balloting on repeal of the 18th amendment August 26, would be sought by drys lacked confirmation today among officials of the United Forces for Prohibition. A score of dry leaders from all over the state, including former Governor Dan Moody, emerged from a secret conference at Dallas to declare that an injunction to stop the election had not been discussed. A statement, setting forth the chief argument for prohibition was circulated among prominent Texas leaders today for signature. It probably will be released next week.

Republicans Were Sincere In Belief In Famed 'Corner'

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 18.—Firm belief of the Hoover administration "prosperity was just around the corner" led federal officials to continue the operation against the letter of the law, Sen. James Couzens told the grand jury probing bank failures in Detroit today. "Everyone from Hoover down," Couzens testified, "felt that prosperity was just around the corner, that better times were coming. The attitude of federal officials was that it might be better to give the banks the chance rather than to close them."

CHARGES FILED IN ATTEMPT TO KILL FATHER

BURLESON, Texas, Aug. 18.—Assault to murder charges were filed here today against Abe Richeson, 20, in connection with the shooting of his father, Joe Richeson, 52, a farmer near here, last night. Richeson was shot through the abdomen with a pistol. He was taken to Fort Worth where an emergency operation was performed. His condition was critical. Mrs. N. L. Clark of Burleson, daughter of the wounded man, said her father told her the shooting occurred following an argument. Young Richeson was taken to Fort Worth last night. He was returned here today where charges were filed against him. He waived preliminary hearing and will be taken to the county jail at Cleburne to await trial. The shooting occurred on the Richeson farm.

Smith and Terrell Wire Roosevelt Of Cooperation

AUSTIN, Aug. 18.—State Railroad Commissioners Lon Smith and C. V. Terrell today telegraphed President Roosevelt a pledge of "heartly co-operation" in the national recovery program. "Since the oil industry of Texas is now giving great concern to the people of the state and to the nation," they wired, "we are very anxious that the position taken by the federal government will comprehend the entire scope of the activities of this industry."

Officers Seeking Escaped Outlaw

SILOAM SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 18.—Officers of three states searched in the wooded hills here today for LeRoy Wright, desperado who escaped in the fusillade of bullets that killed Gene Johnson, alleged member of the Wilbur Underhill gang. Wright was possibly wounded as peace officers from Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma early yesterday raided a purported gangster hideout.

Hal Sevier Named Chilian Ambassador

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Hal Sevier, journalist of Corpus Christi, has been named ambassador to Chile by President Roosevelt. Senator Connally of Texas announced today upon leaving the White House. The new ambassador, besides being a newspaperman, was at one time a member of the Texas legislature. His wife is democratic national committeewoman of the state.

Man Is Held In Extortion Plot

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 18.—Lawrence McCroy Reed, Hutchinson, was in jail today charged with attempted extortion of $50,000 from R. H. Hazlett, cattle breeder, listed as one of the 10 wealthiest men in Kansas. Death was threatened if the money was not forthcoming, County Attorney R. C. Woodward said. He said prosecution would be turned over to the federal government as the mails were used.

WILL REBUILD EDIFICE

CENTER STRAFFORD, N. H.—A modern brick structure will replace the main building of century-old Austin-Cate Academy, where Henry Wilson, 18th Vice-President of the United States, obtained part of his early education.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT RALLY HERE

A large crowd is expected at the county-wide rally to be held in Eastland Saturday night at which time Maury Hughes, chairman of the State Democratic Executive committee, will be the principal speaker. There will be other speakers, but it has not been determined just who these will be. Mr. Hughes favors the repeal of the 18th amendment and favors the proposed $20,000,000 bond issue for relief of the unemployed in Texas. He is a splendid speaker and well qualified to discuss the problems before the voters of Texas and the nation at this time. Frank Judkins of Eastland, who is chairman of the repeal forces in Eastland county, stated this morning that arrangements were being made to accommodate a large crowd and that loud speakers would be installed in order that the speaker's voice would carry for a sufficient distance that all may hear with ease.

Negro Got 'Right With God' Before His Execution

DALLAS, Aug. 18.—A negro's heart that once thumped with painful knowledge of guilt was stilled for ever today as the state exacted its penalty for a confessed murder. R. T. Bennett, 25-year-old Dallas negro, walked to the electric chair at Huntsville with a light heart today because he had gotten "right with God." He squared his conscience last July 11 when he arose from his seat to announce to a startled court room crowd here he wanted to confess to two murders and end "a thumping" in his breast that had bothered him since his first victim had died. The young negro's death closed one of Dallas' most lurid criminal careers. The two murders, promiscuous robberies, jewel thefts, prowlings and terrorisms lay in his wake. He had served three years at Huntsville previously on a theft charge and had been at liberty only a year before his last apprehension. Arrested for the ambush slaying of Policeman Sam G. Lanford here June 30, Bennett broke under grilling to confess shooting the officer when chased on an early morning round of prowling. Later he confessed the strangling of Mrs. Leona Smiley Buchanan, pretty theatrical company employe, in her apartment Dec. 5, 1932. With the confession of the latter officers put the answers to an unsolved mystery that had become known as the "dice murder."

No Information Of 2 Eastland Girls In 5 Days

A search throughout Fort Worth the past two or three days has failed to reveal the whereabouts or information of Dorthia Dell Bush, 11, and Ruby Rae Graham, 12, Eastland girls who disappeared in that city Sunday night. The girls had gone to Fort Worth for the week-end with an aunt of the Graham girl, and Sunday night the girls on the train for the return trip to Eastland. Since that time they have not been seen nor heard of, and the conductor in charge of the train is reported to have told all inquirers about them that the girls had not been on his train so far as he knew. Mrs. Bush of Eastland, mother of Dorthia Dell, stated this morning that she was convinced that the children were not in Fort Worth. She is doing everything she can to find them and is becoming more and more anxious about their safety as the hours pass. The Eastland county sheriff's department is aiding in the search for the girls as is the Fort Worth police department.

SPEEDY TRIAL FOR KIDNAPERS IS PLANNED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 18.—Federal machinery for the speedy trial of five suspects in the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping was thrown into high gear today. Leslie Salter, assistant attorney general of the United States, arrived by airplane at daylight. At 8 a. m. he went into conference with other federal officials. Whether a grand jury will be summoned immediately was not disclosed. Salter merely divulged that he had been dispatched from Chicago under department of justice orders to take charge of trial preparations. His sudden arrival aroused speculation that Harvey Bailey, notorious gunman and outlaw, as well as Albert Bates and four Texans, the family of R. G. Shannon, would be returned here to face charges under the so-called Lindbergh kidnaping law.

Two Suspected Of Theft Held By the Officers

Deputy Sheriff Steele Hill took two Eastland boys into custody Thursday afternoon on suspicion of theft. Mr. Hill met the boys on the road to Ranger near Olden, decided they might have something that did not belong to them and followed them into Ranger, where he stopped them and asked to examine the car. He found a new metal Chevrolet casing covering and casing in the turtle back of the car. He brought the boys and property back to Eastland. As yet no owner has been found for the property. Sheriff Virge Foster and Deputy Loss Woods placed in custody two Olden boys Friday morning until investigation could be made in regard to a car found in their possession. The car, which is said to belong to a man residing in the west part of Stephens County, was stolen from the streets of Eastland about a week ago. The man found the car near Olden Friday morning and immediately notified the officers who took possession of the car and brought the boys into Eastland. Some parts of the car had been removed, the casings changed and other alterations made. Sheriff Foster and Woods went back to Olden to try to locate the missing parts.

Barrow Search Is Being Continued

GONZALES, Texas, Aug. 18.—Additional state officers arrived here today to aid in the search for Clyde Barrow, notorious desperado, who is believed by some to be hiding near here. The officers were non-committal as to their plans, but it was learned they were watching a farmhouse where relatives of the outlaw, wanted throughout the southwest, are reported to live.

WOMAN'S WARDROBE RAIDED

SEATTLE.—Ask any man if women have too many dresses and he'll probably say yes. Evidently one man thought so, because he raided the home of Mrs. A. P. Hedington the other night and departed with 19 dresses. "I wanted to get right with God," he said after he interrupted her trial to announce to a startled court room that he was a killer. There had been "a thumping" in his breast ever since Mrs. Buchanan was choked to death with her silk stockings as she lay in her bed, Bennett told District Judge Grover C. Adams. "I want to go to Huntsville as soon as I can and get it over with and tell God the things I told Judge Adams just now."

OBJECTIONS TO SOME PHASES ARE ENTERED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, reporting on this week's burst of activity in the national recovery program, said today that substantial and decisive progress had been made in the basic industries of oil, steel and coal. Johnson said he expected to take the oil code to President Roosevelt for promulgation sometime this afternoon. Four groups of the oil industry had presented objections to the code before 10 a. m., the deadline. The protestations were from Wirt Franklin, representing the industry's "committee of 54." Franklin wanted price fixing applied both to crude oil and the refined products. Johnson said he would change two words in the oil code, substituting "recommend" for "mandatory" fixing of production quotas for the state. He said this has been called to his attention by the Texas Railroad commission and the "recommend" would be substituted to make the section conform to Texas laws. He indicated this would not alter the effect of the production control provision. He said the troublesome question of price basing for the steel industry was near agreement. A revised code has been written for presentation this afternoon to coal men in conference here.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

GOD'S THOUGHTS: I know the thought that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil. . . . And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.—Jeremiah 29: 11, 13.

AN EVEN SPREAD OVER TEXAS

The hardest three weeks work on record has just been finished by engineers of the Texas highway commission. A schedule of all the road projects in all the counties, apportioning on practically a $4 per capita basis of population the emergency federal highway money, has been whipped into shape and laid before the federal public roads bureau for review and approval.

These generally constitute the most-needed highway work in the counties, and the improvements to designated highways within cities. The bare list of projects is a voluminous document. The engineering work of selecting them, completing construction plans and integrating the whole schedule to needs of the communities, needs of the highway system, and to projects capable of being started quickly was a vast and intricate job.

All this is now in finished form, and late this month bids will be taken on much of the work in scores of counties.

Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist, his office staff and division engineers worked day and night for nearly a month on this huge job. Results of their labors will be to shove the program into smooth and rapid functioning in high gear. It will mean payrolls distributed in the counties quickly, and thousands of men this winter given what they need—work rather than charity.

CHUG-HOLES AND CITY STREETS

Everyone who has driven over Texas highways has encountered gaps in paving, rough spots and chug-hole paving in the smaller towns and in the cities.

For the first time, federal and state authorities who spend money for building the highway system have been given authority to extend the work into the towns and cities.

One-fourth the federal emergency budget is to be applied to such work within city, town and village limits. Though the reason for it was to provide jobs where the jobless were congregated, the results are just what should have been obtained on the merits of the road program long ago. Obviously there are more users of a highway inside a city than outside, and the need for paving is greater. Cities and towns have had to consider their own needs before those of through traffic.

Probably this begins a permanent policy that hereafter paved roads will not stop at the gates of a town or city, but will be made a complete through projects.

JOBHOLDERS' SELFISH RIGHT

Hart McCormick, district clerk at San Antonio, and lobbyist for county and district clerks, is sending letters to all these county officials in Texas, asking them to enlist courthouse political cliques to beat the county home rule amendment, pending for a vote Aug. 26.

McCormick tells these officials the amendment "is the most dangerous ever submitted to the people."

It is gratifying that his efforts should have been repudiated wholly by both the county clerk and the district clerk of Travis county.

McCormick has made a misstatement of the effect of this amendment. His message is from a self-interested public job-holder to other self-interested, privileged job-holders. The voters no doubt will consider, not the interest of a group of county office-holders, but the interest of the taxpayers, in voting on this amendment. McCormick's campaign to preserve his own job is prima facie pro of the people should adopt this far-reaching economy measure.

FIVE THOUSAND FARMERS CHEER THE NAME OF ROOSEVELT

President Franklin D. Roosevelt is the idol of Texas cotton growers. Five thousand farmers of Limestone county gave a big barbecue. All the speakers advised the tillers of the soil to follow the national agriculture program in the future as in the recent cotton reduction campaign.

According to a Mexia correspondent, "farmers shouted every time the name of President Roosevelt was mentioned and boasted that only 35 farmers in Limestone county failed to sign the cotton reduction contract." Well, here is the milk in the cocoanut: "Limestone county cotton growers will get about $760,000 in cash for cotton reduction of 70,000 bales."

What will happen next year when planting time comes when a drastic reduction of acreage without a bonus will be the proposal submitted to the 2,900,000 cotton growers of the South? Will they reduce or will they ask for another bonus—this after the planting has been an accomplished fact.

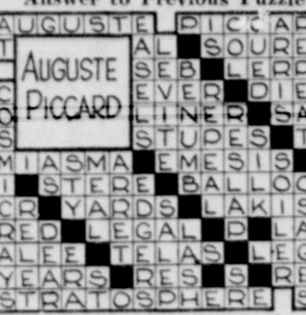

At the present time this world seems to be an uneasy and suspicious one. Newspaper advertising is a guarantee of quality.

DESDEMONA

DESDEMONA — Dug Barton and wife of Eastland were here Saturday, attending the Homecoming. Mrs. Grace Bray of Lawesha came on Tuesday of last week for a visit with her son, J. H. Rushing Jr., and family. For several years Mrs. Bray made her home here with her son and had charge of the telephone exchange. Her many friends are delighted to see her again. Mr. and Mrs. John Mendenhall and daughter, Mrs. Mattie Henry and her son, Walker Henry, left Tuesday night for their vacation trip. They expect to visit their former home in Marion, Ohio, and to spend quite a while at the Century of Progress at Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harper and son and daughter came in Wednesday afternoon from Post and visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Genoway for a few days. The Harpers were reared here and have a host of friends who were glad to see them again. Mrs. M. Scales and Mrs. W. A. Sutton of Gorman came over Wednesday morning to see Mrs. W. C. Bedford in regard to the exchange programs of the Excelsior and "21" Study clubs. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis returned Saturday night from Dallas where they had visited relatives for a few days. Their daughter, Mrs. Aaron Henslee, who went with them, remained there and will take a special course of piano lessons. Gid Roberts and son of Cisco, were here on business Friday, and also visited his old friend, W. C. Bedford, for a short time. Miss Nora Robert was in the Blackwell Sanitarium a few days last week on account of having her tonsils removed. L. E. Clark returned Wednesday from Kilgore where he went to take Mr. Wimberly, whose son was quite ill there. Misses Ruth Howell and Lois Howell are spending this week at Lometa with their sister. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hammett of De Leon were visiting old friends here Monday and also attending to business. Mrs. Marion Williams and little son, Bobbie of Midland, came Friday and will visit her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Williams, for a week or more. The third annual home-coming for former citizen of Desdemona was held Saturday at the community tabernacle and proved quite a success in every way. A. B. Henslee, who was elected vice president last year took the lead in making plans for the occasion, as N. D. Gallagher, president, was out of town most of the time. Mr. Henslee was ably assisted by T. J. Nabors, W. E. Barron and others. Quite a nice parade of horeback riders, and decorated cars and floats opened the program of the day. After the parade the crowd gathered at the tabernacle and joined in singing "America" and Rev. J. L. Howell then offered the opening prayer. W. E. Barron then gave the welcome address and as master of ceremonies, he introduced Rev. David Irvin of Fort Worth, who was just concluding a revival meeting at the Methodist church, and also the minister who was just beginning a revival at the Christian church. Both of them made short talks appropriate to the occasion. An address on the N. R. A., its purpose and workings, was given by H. C. (Andy) Anderson of Ranger. Throughout the day there was music rendered by the Abernathy String band and the Anderson String band and songs led by Dave Lewis. During the noon hour, the basket lunches were spread and all enjoyed the many good eats that had been brought. Soon after 1 o'clock Mr. Barron introduced Earnest Walter Wilson, who spoke as the representative of the United Force for Prohibition. He spoke 40 minutes after which W. E. Martin spoke 40 minutes as representative of the Texas Liberal Legion. Both speakers were from Abilene and many points were brought out on both sides of the prohibition question. One feature of the afternoon was the introduction of "Uncle Tom" Henry who is 80 years old and settled in this county in 1872, the longest that any one in the audience had lived here, although Mrs. S. K. Shuler said she came in 1871, but had been living in Stephenville a number of years. At night there was a singing contest in which several singing classes took part but Desdemona won the prize, a dozen song books. The officers elected for the coming year were: A. B. Henslee, president; Tom J. Nabors, vice president; W. E. Barron, secretary and treasurer. The date for the home-coming was set again for the second Saturday in August. Dr. P. M. Kuykendall of Ranger was among the large number who attended the home-coming celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Alameda were here Friday, buying roosters from W. C. Bedford. D. C. Davis of Tahoka was here Friday looking after his property and on Saturday he attended the home-coming. Gerry Grace of Stephenville and family were here for the reunion Saturday. Millard Rushing and son, from near San Angelo came Friday and remained over until Saturday afternoon. Mrs. S. E. Browning had the following children with her Saturday: Charlie Browning and family of Jake Hamon, Dewey Browning and wife and Mrs. W. R. Dunlap and two daughters of Breckenridge. Mrs. Mattie Elrod of Ranger was among the number of welcome visitors Saturday. Milt O'Rear of Strawn visited his brother, John, and his two sisters on Saturday. Mrs. Snow Love and daughter

Boys and Girls World Club

The little folks are deeply interested in the action programs of the Boys and Girls World club, an auxiliary of the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church.

Several new faces were noted in the little group that greeted their director, Mrs. Fred Drago, at the regular meeting of the club Wednesday morning, in Booster classroom.

The general assembly was opened with the hymn, "Bring Them In," and a responsive Scripture reading led by Wendell Hunter.

The primary then adjourned with Mrs. Drago to their room, and continued the making of three scrap-books, which, with all the work of the department now in hand will be sent when completed to the Indian mission school in Oklahoma.

Miss Maurine Davenport supervised the junior session, which enjoyed the second installment of the story "The American Indian."

During the telling, the girls hemmed embroidered wash cloths and the boys made airplanes in their woodcraft class.

Reassembly was held for several recreational games, taken part in by Margaret Alice Hipp, Bettye Mae Jones, Billie Joe Seales, Barbara Ann Haag, Jean Atchley, Louise Jones, Virginia Garrett, Frances Crowell, Anna Jo Tabelman, Billy Joe Newman, Mary Nell Crowell, Frankie Stokes, Thomas Haley Jr., Ernest H. Jones Jr., Wendell Hunter, Tom Davenport, Howard Brock, Hubert Davis, Joe Bob Davenport, and directors, Mrs. Drago and Miss Maurine Davenport.

Splendid Prayer Meeting Service

The Christian church of Eastland is enjoying a series of fine lectures at their prayer meeting services each Wednesday night, conducted by the pastor, C. W. Lipsey.

The subject for this Wednesday night's discussion was based on the fifth chapter of Acts.

Hymns were "Take the Name of Jesus With You," "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning," and "Let the Tide Come In," with Mrs. James A. Beard at the piano.

Rev. Lipsey announced the Horn of Prosperity, church campaign, gave the list of merchants from whom ballots to be filled out for their favorite church could be secured, and explained the plan of the campaign.

The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church has entered the contest and have been speaking to their friends about the Horn of Prosperity.

Delightful Club Party

Miss James Lewai Chance was a charming hostess Wednesday afternoon at her home, entertaining the Booby Bridge Bunch with four tables for the game.

Pastel colors were effectively used in the appointments, in the pink and blue tallies, with smart dog designs, and individual covers for tables in pink, blue, yellow and green.

Lovely bouquets of bachelor buttons and dwarf zenias decorated the rooms.

At close of an interesting game, high score favor in bridge, a rose and green silk pajama case was awarded Miss Audrey Brawner.

The consolation favor a wooden will plaque, with the head of Abraham Lincoln, etched in colors went to Miss Frances Harris.

A dainty tea plate was served of tuna fish sandwiches, potato flakes, midget pickles, wee cakes in playing card designs, and an orangeade-gingerale, iced beverage.

The club will meet next week with Miss Florence Perkins.

This pretty club meeting honored Miss Sarah Jane Wren of Boulder, Colo., the house guest of Miss Chance. Those present were Misses Ellen Francis, Ruth Harris, Pauline Bida, Louise Day, Eloise Ligon, Audrey Brawner, Margaret Frye, Florence Perkins, Lurline Brawner, and hostess, James Lewai Chance, the club members, and guests, Miss Wren, honoree; Misses Earline Harvey, Frances Harris, Marjorie Shelton, and Misses Mary Helen Childs, and Talmadge Carter of Ranger.

Personal

Mrs. A. F. Taylor and daughters, Miss Loraine and Anna Jane Taylor, returned home Thursday from a weeks visit with Mrs. Taylor's mother in Goldthwaite.

Miss Sarah Jane Wren of Boulder, Colo., is visiting Miss James Lewai Chance.

Mrs. N. N. Rosenquest and daughters, Misses Ruth, Annie Laurie, Edith and Helen returned home Wednesday evening from a 10 days visit, divided between Jacksonville and Tyler. They were guest of Mrs. M. A. Thompson, the grandmother, in the former place, and Mrs. Rosenquest's sister, Mrs. Bert Williams in Tyler. The charming young daughters were honorees of several swim parties during these visits.

Mrs. B. E. McGlamery has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Kinble in Gorman, since Tuesday.

Miss Beth Jenkins left Tuesday for Weatherford where she will visit friends.

For the LOVE of EVE by Lucy Walling

BEGIN HERE TODAY

EVE BAYLESS, pretty assistant to EARLE BARNES, advertising manager of Bixby's department store, marries DICK RADER, a qualification superintendent. They keep their marriage secret. Dick opposes Eve's continued employment but she is determined to go on working.

On her wedding night Eve is sent to New York to meet FRED CARTER, dress buyer. There Eve meets THERON REECE, who is much attracted by her. She visits IRENE PRENTISS, former schoolmate, who is playing the stock market.

A week later Eve returns to Lake City to find a new copy writer, MONA ALLEN, at the office. Mona is a trouble-maker.

Eve and Dick take an apartment in an old-fashioned house. Wary from working overtime at the office, Eve arrives there one evening to find a note telling her Dick has gone to a meeting. There is a knock at the door.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

against Dick and her attention wandered from the game. "Your turn, Mrs. Rader," snapped the young teacher as Eve permitted her eyes to wander over the room.

"Forgive me," she asked. "I was just admiring the furnishings."

"I'm glad you like the room," said Mrs. Brooks. "Just before Miss McElhinney came here I discarded the bed and worked out an idea of my own. I bought a good spring and had legs put on it. Then I bought a mattress and some chintz and fixed up that studio couch. It makes the room look more like a living room and it's ever so comfortable."

Eve felt she was a stupid bride partner, but she did not care.

marriage she almost wished that she had given up her work at Bixby's as Dick had asked her to do. It would be pleasant to stay at home today.

She found Dick cheerful but hurried. He did not wait to eat breakfast. "Have to scam," he said, hastily draining a cup of coffee. "I'm late. I'll grab a sandwich somewhere if I can find time for it after the work is under way." Then he kissed her absentmindedly and was gone.

course; but he would not approve of her going into a business which was certain to take so much of her time and interest. Nevertheless she resolved that after the holidays, whether Dick approved the step or not, she would begin to attend night school again and review the course she had taken in advertising. She wondered, too, what salary Mr. Bixby would be likely to pay her. Not so much, not nearly so much as Barnes was getting—but considerably more than she now received. And, characteristically, Eve began to think what she would do with this money.

CHAPTER XI

THE knock on the door was repeated. "Who's there?" Eve called firmly, her voice concealing her nervousness.

"Mrs. Brooks," a cheery voice responded.

Eve opened the door to allow her to enter. "We are having a little bridge party in Miss McElhinney's room," Mrs. Brooks explained. "We'd like to have you join us. There are just three of us—Miss McElhinney, Miss Leeds and myself."

SHE returned home soon after midnight, thinking she would find Dick there before her. Instead, she had lingered a little upstairs to give him plenty of time to return. Perhaps it would do him good to come home and find her away.

But Dick was not there. The place seemed dismal in spite of the bright new paint and pretty furnishings. Eve stood at the sink and looked with dismay at the stack of unwashed dishes. She took an apron from a hook behind the kitchen screen and was about to put it on when she hung it away again. She would leave the dishes until morning. She would get up early and wash them. She was sleepy, tired and cross, and decided to go to bed. She had not enjoyed the bridge game and was aggrieved that Dick could find pleasure in an evening spent away from her. If he was beginning so early in their marriage to find diversion elsewhere, what could it mean except that he was tiring of his home?

SHE hurried through her work that day, determined to get home on time. She longed for Dick's arms around her. Longed for his good, silent barrier that shut out all that was between them to the way away.

But she was not to be surprised into an explanation of her absence the night before. When she mentioned that she had been invited to Miss McElhinney's for a game of bridge he was absent as if she had asked for his voice as casual as possible. Later when she had had a nice time at the meeting he replied by saying "good enough," and immediately changed the subject.

Later when she had had a nice time at the meeting he replied by saying "good enough," and immediately changed the subject.

It would serve Dick right, Eve told herself, if he found her absent when he returned. And, though she was tired, she thought the evening with her new neighbors might prove entertaining and make her feel less lonely than if she stayed in her own apartment.

"Just give me 10 minutes," she smiled, "and I'll be with you."

The effect of the bright frock she chose and the carefully applied make-up tended to lift her spirits and already she felt less weary as she made her way up the long flight of stairs to Miss McElhinney's open door.

Later Eve and Arlene speculated on the cause of Barnes' display of temper—a thing most unusual for him.

"I think Mr. Bixby's been taking a hand in running the office again," Arlene confided. "I know he thinks expenses in our department are higher than they need to be and higher than the volume of this year's Christmas selling warrants. Wonder what the outcome will be? Barnes was on the point of resigning last year and he only agreed to stay on condition that Mr. Bixby promised a hands-off policy toward the advertising office. Sometimes I think Mr. Bixby wouldn't care much if Barnes did resign. He might get a new manager who would work for less and wouldn't object to his suggestions."

Next evening he called up shortly before the store closed to tell Eve he would not be home for dinner and that she should not wait up for him as he might be rather late. Immediately Eve's suspicions were aroused anew. His explanation for this absence was that all the executives in charge of the construction job on which he was engaged were having dinner together to be followed by a conference concerning their work.

Immediately Eve's suspicions were aroused anew. His explanation for this absence was that all the executives in charge of the construction job on which he was engaged were having dinner together to be followed by a conference concerning their work.

The three women sat about a marble topped table with cards spread out before them. Mrs. Brooks hastened to introduce Eve.

"Sit down," urged Miss McElhinney. "We were just playing 'crazy bridge' while we waited for you. I'm so glad you came up. We thought you might prefer a little game with us to spending the evening alone."

Eve graciously took her place. But she was disturbed. What did Miss McElhinney mean? Was there malice there? How did that girl know Dick was to be absent all evening? Had he told her? This rekindled her resentment

She awoke to the sound of the brisk stropping of Chan's old-fashioned razor. She had argued with him about the time consumed by this task but he merely laughed, his eyes twinkling. Well, she would buy him a new razor. Christmas would serve as an excuse. Bixby's had advertised a tricky new safety razor with gold trimmings. She wasn't going to have that ugly leather strap hanging in her bathroom.

After a little the fragrance of coffee drifted in from the kitchen. Eve remembered the unwashed dishes and reluctantly got out of bed. For the first time since her

She went home, locked the door, and after making herself a cup of tea and a sandwich, turned off the lights in the living room, shut herself up in the bedroom and tried to read herself to sleep.

It was nearly one o'clock before Dick came home. Eve, who was wide awake, closed her eyes and pretended that she was asleep, though she scorned herself for pretense and was furious at Dick for making the pretense seem necessary. What was their marriage coming to, she asked herself over and over again.

Meet President Gladys . . .

So begins one of the most fascinating articles I have read on Gladys Whitley Henderson, new national president of Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary and professional fraternity for women in journalism.

And even when you've read the brief and catchy story of how and when she came to be and what she's done with life so far you still haven't met President Gladys.

You have to travel big trains out of Dallas and change to funny little creeping trains in Missouri.

You have to inhale smoke and smear smoot around on your face.

You have to eat expensive meals on diners and grab a sandwich at the next little stop to fill in.

You have to toss about in a Pullman and listen to the endless grind of wheels throughout a night.

You have to laugh at people and see them laugh at you . . .

And then you can look at her blond hair and into her laughing blue eyes and feel that you've met President Gladys.

After eight days of hobnobbing with her, I think I've met her.

I've known hundreds of girls for years and known them less intimately. But there is truly only one Gladys.

It seems she is the daughter of

PICTURES OF SILVER
By BEULAH K. HICKS
I Sam. 3:1-10; 12:1-4

It was in the town of Shiloh, where the tabernacle was set up after the conquest of Canaan, that a 12-year-old Samuel, a child asked of God, by Hannah, a praying mother, lay sleeping on his thin mattress in the temple guarding the treasures of the altar. It was nearly morning for "the lamp of God was not yet gone out." This lamp was the sacred seven-branched golden candlestick which was placed in the Holy Place of the sanctuary. Enough oil was placed in it to last through the night; the lamps being filled and relit the next day.

This child, so well trained and happy, was sleeping soundly. A voice disturbed his slumber, calling, "Samuel, Samuel." Quickly he rose and ran to Eli, who was now old and almost blind. Eli answered, "I called not; lie down again." This happened the second and the third time. Eli, knowing God through great experiences knew that God was calling Samuel to give him a great message. He told Samuel to answer the next call with words recognizing Jehovah.

Again the call came and "the Lord came and stood" in the sanctuary filling it with the glorious white light of Deity.

Samuel, who knew much of God, answered, "Speak for they servant heareth."

A wonderful vision and experience and message for a child; one that he would never forget and had much to do in shaping his life, making him a wise judge until he was an old man. All his life he listened to Jehovah and doubtless kept the saying, "Speak, for thy servant heareth."

The closing picture found in I Sam. 12:1-4 portrays Samuel as an old man, dignified through years of service as a prophet; who could bring direct messages from God to the people; as a teacher and an understanding judge; making him truly a father of the people.

Samuel stood before his people, who had again forgotten much of God's mercy toward them and were demanding a king; hurt and grieved in his heart. His own sons were wicked and unjust judges.

Samuel's farewell address is beautiful in its straightforwardness; asking if any knew aught against him; promising to make anything good that had been wrong.

But they could only answer, "Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand."

Thus God granted them the desire of their hearts—a king.

In studying the life of Samuel we see the influence of his mother, Hannah, who asked him of God and then gave him back to God. God was a reality in his life from the very beginning and as he grew older, he grew nearer, always listening with an open heart and mind for the messages of Jehovah.

Why do we not have greater Christians among our young people today? First, there are too few mothers who really pray, teach and consecrate their children to Jehovah. Samuel ran to help Eli, who was old and helpless. Our young people today in all the pomp of our modern age too often regard the old and experienced as "fogey."

Are the people of our great and glorious nation today demanding a king? That remains to be proved. A proof that has been handed down throughout the centuries, that people who forget the teachings of God are humbled. Happy are the people who take as their motto, "Serve he Lord with all your heart."

WHAT A BLOW-OUT!
WE MIGHT HAVE BEEN KILLED

YOU CAN'T BE LUCKY ALWAYS!

Put this Blow-out Protection on Your Car Right Now!

INVESTIGATION shows that the chances are better than even you'll have a blow-out some day. When, nobody knows. But right now is the time to learn the real cause of blow-outs... and the new way to prevent them.

When you drive 40, 50, 60 and 70-mile after mile—terrible heat is generated inside the tire. Rubber and fabric begin to separate. A blister starts—and grows—bigger and bigger—until BANG! A blow-out! And a terrible drag pulls your car off the road.

New Invention Prevents Blow-outs
But now Goodrich has created the amazing Life-Saver Golden Ply. This remarkable invention resists intense heat. Rubber and fabric don't separate. No, blisters don't form. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming their cause.

At gruelling speeds on the world's fastest track, the new Goodrich Silvertown, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, lasted 3 times as long as first quality tires that did not have this feature. These SILVERTOWNS never blew—because the Life-Saver Golden Ply refused to give.

Safer Against Skidding
And that isn't all. Scientific tests show that the Goodrich Safety Silvertown has the most skid-resistant tread on the road. Its squeegee drying action gives your car extra road grip and reduces danger of skidding to a minimum.

Let us show you this amazing new tire—now made THREE TIMES SAFER! You can put this Blow-out protection on your car—at no extra cost. For Goodrich Safety Silvertowns cost not a penny more than other standard tires.

Royal Neighbors' Convention Here In September
The Royal Neighbors held an interesting session Wednesday afternoon in L. O. O. F. hall, with meeting opened by their Oracle, Mrs. Lily Watson, and minutes presented by their secretary, Mrs. McEachern.

Initiation was held for Mrs. Faulks, conducted by Mrs. Watson and her team.
Mrs. Carrie Henry of Ranger, district deputy for Royal Neighbors, gave a fine report of the convention recently held in Detroit, Mich.
The Eastland lodge will host a convention to be held in this city on Sept. 27 with the Eastland oracle, Mrs. Watson, presiding. Committees to care for this convention will be appointed at the meeting to be held next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Those present, Mmes. Kirk Williams, Addie Melton, H. A. Collins, Ethel Harbin, J. A. Watson, Pearl McEachern, Laurella Hall, R. H. Harrison, Willie Brock, Della Harbin, E. R. Chandler, W. M. Armstrong, J. N. Taylor, Lily Watson, Richard Jones, and the honor guest, Mrs. Henry of Ranger.

Informal Luncheon

The recent visit of Mrs. Harry Brelsford of Fort Worth, here for a day with Mrs. H. P. Brelsford Sr., was the occasion for the gathering of a few friends by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Harry Porter and Mrs. Curtis A. Hertig, for 1 o'clock luncheon at Mrs. Hertig's residence.

Three small tables were arranged for four covers each, and pretty garden flowers centered the tables. Covers were laid for Mmes. Harry Brelsford, Gilbert Reimann, E. E. Freyschlag, Walter I. Clark, Scott W. Key, Alex Clarke, Lloyd E. Edwards, Carl Angstadt, H. P. Brelsford Jr., Thomas McManus of Iowa City, Ia., Bryan Brelsford, Porter and Hertig.

Knitting was the occupation during the afternoon, and busy fingers flew over the work in hand, in the making of many useful articles.

"Move On—Young Romeo"

Jean Parker and Ben Alexander in "What Price Innocence?"—A Columbia Picture

"What Price Innocence?" Refutes Old Idea

Magazines and papers for the last years have painted the modern girl as a sophisticated, daring irresponsible female. They would have us believe that she can find delight in nothing but gin parties and suggestive dancing. We have been told repeatedly that she knows more than her mother ever knew. But is this opinion correct? Does this viewpoint reveal the entire picture?

Willard Mack, author as well as leading actor and director of "What Price Innocence?" at a Columbia picture Monday at the Lyric theatre does not agree with modern critics. The modern girl, he finds, is not as sophisticated as we believe she is. He points out that she takes pleasure in simple amusement and simple clothes, and that she is susceptible to the same pitfalls which misled her sisters a generation ago.
