With Starting Quarterback seated, the Mavericks were signaled alternately by Gene Wilson and Craig Lund. The passing attack for Eastland netted more yardage at 31 than did Albany's 16, but it just wasn't enough compared to the ground game, and the Lions scored in every quarin each of the first two stan-

Eastland took the opening kick and marched to Albany's 36-yard line before the Lion

MONDAY IS VALUE DAY

Once a month, regular as mail, it's DOLLAR DAY in Eastland, and MONDAY is THE day!

Businessmen and shop keepers have been marketing all month in order to offer the biggest values on this special day. You'll find the best values and the lowest prices in Eastland on DOLLAR DAY.

Smart shoppers have learned that it pays to make a habit of visiting the Eastland stores regularly, because they get greater values every time they shop. Their dollars go farther and their lives are more liveable. And especially is this true on DOLLAR DAY!

Actually, you not only save money when you shop Eastland, you also save a great deal of time and effort.
It is so easy and convenient to visit all types of stores, all located within a short walking distance. And there is such a wide variety of desirable merchandise that your choice is practically unlimited.

The styles and fabrics you see in Eastland are the very same you find in the nation's larger metropolitan fashion centers. The furniture, appliances, jewelry and stationery are the very same you see in America's largest and finest stores. So there is no need to travel great distances to buy anything, no matter how exclusive your taste.

It is all right here in Eastland... and in most cases the Eastland price will be lower. If you're not in the habit of visiting the Eastland stores, DOLLAR DAY is a good day to try them. Once visited, you'll surely be back for more friendly, courteous service and genuine money-saving values.

Parking is FREE downtown on DOLLAR DAY too by the way, so there's no need to worry about overparking or rushing. Just take your time, and enjoy and profit from Eastland's major monthly merchandise marathon — DOLLAR DAY.
SEE YOU IN EASTLAND MONDAY!

Jack Arrington Is Elected Chamber Commerce Prexy

Jack Arrington, owner-manager of Arrington Hamner Funeral Home, will take the reins of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce as president, as the result of chamber board of directors action this week.

Elected unanimously by the board, Arrington will replace Don Vieregger, who will retire after a successful year as chamber head man.

Action came Thursday during the regular monthly directors meeting at the White Elephant Restaurant. Jay Staggs was elected vice president.

A slate of 14 directors was accepted for nomination and will be submitted to the membership for the election of seven, to replace retiring directors this year.

A lengthy discussion was held concerning the installation of officers and the chamber's fiscal year. It was decided to continue installing officers at the time of the beginning of the chamber's fiscal year, Oct. 31, but a committee will continue to study and review the possibility of having the installation coincide with the annual banquet which is held early in the spring. It is felt that new officers and directors are put at a disadvantage by having to assume responsibilities in the mid-fall when so many activities are underway.

H. T. Wilson is chairman of the study committee, composed of Jim Parks and Arrington. Method of electing directors is also due for study, it was agreed.

Fifteen directors attended the meeting presided over by President Vieregger, who gave the financial report.

Nominating committee reports were given by James Smith and Jack Germany. A Smith read the officer nominations and Germany, the director list.

Finance chairman Bob Perkins asked that committee chairmen begin to make plans for the year, by preparing and submitting proposed spending needs so that his committee has work on the budget.

Present were Vieregger, Arrington, B. W. Robertson, James Smith, H. V. O'Brien, Jay Staggs, Charles Freyschlag, Frank Sayre, Marene Johnson, Perkins, Frank Crowell, Everett Plowman, Wilson, Jim Parks, M. L. Forgerty, Germany, and guest, R. D. Hatton, Lone Star Gas specialist.

YOUR U.F. GIFT Helps Red Cross Serve

The outstanding service feature of the Eastland County Red Cross Chapter is service to military families — a link between the home chapter and armed forces all over the world, according to Mrs. Carl Lamb, executive secretary.

All towns and communities in the county were served during the past year when many service men received emergency leaves and health and welfare reports on families when requested.

As an agency of the Eastland United Fund, this organization will receive $1,300 this year.

A Red Cross worker is on duty 24 hours a day to be of service to military families.

Applications Begin Taken for Winter Cover

Applications are now being accepted for federal cost-share on practice D-1 winter legumes and practice F-1-A rye cover, it has been announced by Jesse Meredith, county ASCS office manager.

The purpose of the cover-crop practice is to establish a winter cover in the fall to protect the land from wind and water erosion during winter months, Meredith said. Grazing consistent with good management is permitted but harvesting in any manner is not permitted.

In order to be eligible for cost-share, you must file a written request before starting the practice. You should also file your request before purchase of seed or fertilizer so that you may be sure to purchase the correct requirements.

Peanut marketing cards for 1965 have been prepared and are ready for issuance, stated Meredith. Cards may be obtained at the ASCS office or will be mailed to those requesting them. The card must be returned to the office after marketing is completed in order to avoid reduction in future allotments.

Farms with excess peanuts may receive a quota card after proper disposition of excess or after filing form MQ-92, agreeing to leave excess in the ground or hog off the excess acreage.

Farms with excess acreage should pay particular attention to the regulations governing disposition of excess acreage and contact the ASCS office if questions arise.

County Officers Are Invited To Seminar On Law

Eastland County law enforcement officers, justices of the peace, prosecutors, judges of courts of criminal jurisdiction, and news media have been invited to attend a seminar on the new Texas Code of Criminal Procedure to be held in San Angelo on Oct. 4.

The 59th Legislature, in passing Senate Bill 107, made more than 200 changes in the trial procedures of criminal cases in Texas. The changes will become effective on Jan. 1, 1966.

S. S. Schedule Is Announced

Mrs. Mattie K. Arnold Feted With Party On Her 92nd Birthday

Mrs. Mattie K. Arnold celebrated her 92nd birthday on Sept. 28 with a family party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Otis Knox, 107 South Connellee. Two birthday cakes were presented to her, one from Mrs. Bascom Roberson and one from her only granddaughter, Mrs. Martin Jean Morton, and she received many nice gifts and cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton, who reside in Fort Worth, took movies and recordings of the party.

Mrs. Arnold, at the age of 92, is young at heart and is still very active. She watches television to keep informed on current events and reads the newspaper; also she is a big booster of Eastland's football team.

Having been a member of the Church of Christ for 70 years, Mrs. Arnold attended the first service held in Eastland's Church of Christ, which was completed in 1920. She is a daily Bible reader and listens to sermons on the radio, since she is unable to attend church services.

Before moving to Eastland in 1920, Mrs. Arnold and her late husband lived in Mill Creek, Okla., a town which they founded and in which they owned the first store and home. They had a part in the early history of that state, Mr. Arnold being a staunch and active democrat and one of the first delegates to the state democratic convention. He and a friend, Bill (Alfalfa) Murray, who later became governor, framed the constitution under which Oklahoma became a state in 1907.

Mrs. Arnold has seen many changes in the world and hopes she may be living when the first man is put on the moon.

Her grandson, Otis Knox, Jr., and family of Little Rock, Ark., were unable to be here for the birthday party.

Zeta Sorority Enjoys Social at Church Annex

After supper, which was served buffet style, everyone played games.

Those present were Messrs. and Mmes. Dale Bakker, Mike Collins, Millard Glass, Dub Hoffman, Norman Owens, Harold Price, Elwood Rogers and Jack Therwhanger; also special guests, Mrs. Marene Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Parr and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mahaffey.

MAVERICKS —

The Mavs ran only two plays after the ensuing kickoff, fumbling on the second with Albany tackle Jearl Boyell recovering on the Eastland 37. Eight plays later the Lions had a third and one situation. On the first play of the second quarter Full-back Charles Brewster crashed through the right guard hole for the distance and six points. King's kick made it 14-0.

The Lions scored the second time they had the ball in the third quarter when Caud sprinted 24 yards to paydirt, climaxing a 41-yard drive in seven plays.

Defensively there's the Maverick tally:

Jay Daniels, 3; Gene Wilson, 7; James Funnen, 7; John Moylan, 3; Bill Boles, 10; Tommy McCullough, 3; David Hazard, 7; Rodney McCoy, 12; Boyd Porter, 7; Larry Wilson, 6; James McKinzie, 7; Greg Emfinger, 8; and Fred Keith, 7.

Riley set up the final TD when he intercepted a pass by Lund. It took the Lions 12 plays to move the 47 yards, and the three-yard TD plunge was made by sophomore half-back Jim Farmer.

The Mavericks moved to Albany's 10-yard in the closing minutes but they lost their fourth fumble at that point.
