Ladies Art Club Meets With Mrs. Clara Cockrill

The Ladies Art Club met last Thursday, April 14 in the home of Mrs. Clara Cockrill.

The ladies each have a painting that they are working on. Some of the paintings are a mocking bird with its mate perched high on a limb; a red rooster being painted on a cutting board; a pretty chaparral, splashes of many colors, well blended; a fruit and flower picture; billowy clouds with a touch of sunshine above a mountain and lake scene; and an early American scene of a country home.

The art club plans to exhibit their pictures sometime this summer, but no date has been set at this time.

Members present were Mrs. G. M. Hargus, Joe Tow, Edd Layton, Francis Urban, Marvin Hood, Homer White, and the hostess, Mrs. Clara Cockrill.

Refreshments of dip and potato chips, olives, pickles, cake, orange sherbet, coffee and spiced tea were served.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. G. M. Hargus Thursday, May 12.

Saul Pullman Issues Formal Announcement

Saul Pullman, 25, Eastland attorney, formally announced as a candidate for State Representative for the 63rd District. The District is composed of Callahan, Eastland, Palo Pinto, Shackelford and Stephens Counties.

Pullman who are pioneers of Eastland. His announcement is as follows: I am the only candidate who is a lawyer and who has graduated from college. I feel that if a man is going to be a strong Representative for the 63rd District, he must have graduated from college so that he can give full time to the people of these five counties whenever they call on him. I know from my own experience at the University of Texas, that many members of the legislature were attending law school with me. This I feel is a great injustice to the people at home that sent

SAUL PULLMAN

In this race because none of us candidates have held the office before. All the laws that have been passed are the law and we had nothing to do with it. We should look to the future and do what the people of these five counties want. As your State Representative I pledge full time, energetic positive representation in Austin for our District. "I believe that the government should use the same prudence which in private life would forbid our paying money for unexplained projects and not have unexplained disposition of public money. If this is followed I feel that our present source of revenue is sufficient without an increase in taxes."

"If I am elected your State Representative the best interest of the 63rd District will be my constant goal."

Uncle Gas

The narcotics charge followed a 33-mile chase through the county last February when an attempted routine check-out by Liquor Control Board agents failed to stop Orman in Cisco. In town to close a private club. Agents C. D. Crain and O. D. Wallace spotted Orman and gave chase when he failed to stop for a check. Heading north on Highway 380, his souped-up Chevy out-distanced the agents, and he turned off onto a farm-to-market road, intending apparently to double back into town. The agents radioed back and got Cisco police, the constable and the sheriff's departments for assistance.

"Cleaning his car apparently was his undoing," Sheriff L. E. Sublett said at the time. The agents reported that they saw Orman throw something from his car during the chase, and when the package, being light, didn't quite get off the right-of-way, Orman had to double back and toss it again, this time into a pond, where, its lightness kept it afloat.

The parcel, wrapped in cellophane contained about a pound and a half of marijuana, in two forms — some loose in a bag, and a small bale. Officials estimated the total value to be from $4,000 to $5,000 on the pusher market, and from $1,000 to $1,200 wholesale.

Orman was charged in Eastland Justice of the Peace Wells Dalton's court with possession of narcotics. He was locked up in the county jail, but made bond in the amount of $5,000 and has been free since.

Since that time, however, the Negro's problems have been complex — he's been shot at, and hit with a shotgun blast, and had dynamite thrown into his yard in Cisco. Officials also discovered some 14 pints of whisky along the highway and 30 cans of beer in Orman's auto. He was also charged with possession of beer in a dry area, for which he posted another $500 bond.

Case against the man apparently will be pegged to a small batch of marijuana, found loose in the floorboard of the auto. Penalty for conviction on the charge is from two years to life, Dalton said.

Sheriff Sublett reports that he has had repeated information about dope being present in the county, and that the marijuana cigarettes sell from 50 cents to $1 each. (Such cigarettes are the traditional "hookers" for youngsters, he said.)

Officials also got a search warrant from Cisco Justice of the Peace W. L. Lewis and searched the Orman home where they reportedly found little more than "money," according to Sheriff Sublett. Orman's court record is as follows: Six convictions, on pleas of guilty, in county court for liquor and beer violations (possession and sales), in May and December, 1956, and three in April, 1961. He drew $100 fines in five of these cases and a 30-day jail sentence for one of the April, 1961, convictions.

He pleaded guilty in May, 1959, waiving jury, to a violation and was fined $150. An earlier conviction was set aside in the district court.

What impressions will be related to their listeners? No doubt Boytuzun will emphasize that people in the United States live too fast. He noted that most U. S. citizens seem to have no knowledge of the many innovations being created daily in the United States. In order words, he said we cannot keep up with our fast-advancing technology.
People in Turkey, as well as most Europeans, take a two-hour lunch break from their jobs.
The Boytuzuns came to the United States via California. While in Los Angeles, they taped sounds and voices at Disneyland. Mr. Boytuzun also taped a conversation with Red Skelton.
Mrs. Boytuzun, a linguist, began learning English in the third grade. She speaks the language more fluently than Mr. Boytuzun, who learned to speak English through practice without studying it formally.

The U. S. housewife has it "easy" compared to her Turkish counterpart. No canned foods can be found in Turkey grocery stores. Therefore, fresh foods must be washed thoroughly and cooked to taste. A typical housewife spends hours in the kitchen, the Boytuzuns related.
Though Boytuzun does not have a harem, 10 women surrounded him at a tea given Thursday morning by Mrs. Robert Kamon. Of course, Mrs. Boytuzun was the honored guest. To the stereotype question, "How many wives do you have?" Mr. Boytuzun jokingly answers, "40" Yes, the harem is out of vogue in Turkey and has been for some time. So is the fez.
Those who interrogated the visitors at the tea included Mrs. Robert Kamon, Mrs. Rudolph Kamon, Mrs. Lloyd London, Miss Helen Crawford, Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mrs. Bob Hammett, Mrs. Marene Johnson of Eastland, Mrs. Tommy Toland, Mrs. J. P. McCracken and Mrs. Wesley Valek.
After the tea, the Turks toured the Hollywood Vassar-ette lingerie factory in Eastland as guests of Mrs. Marene Johnson, the postmaster there. Good underwear for women is not manufactured in Turkey, and Mr. Boytuzun conferred with Don Viergever, Vassar-ette manager, about the possibility of establishing the business in Turkey.
Following the Vassar-ette tour, the Boytuzuns were guests of W. B. Wright at the Rotary Club's luncheon.
The visitors have a six-year-old daughter, Beyza. She is not accompanying her parents on their trip. The Kamons will send Beyza a doll.
As the Boytuzuns left Cisco Thursday afternoon to continue their sightseeing-business journey, they issued a cordial invitation to their new friends in Cisco to visit Turkey.

Roll Reaches All-time High —
U. S. A for '65 according to reliable sources the fact that we had better cars, safer more educated drivers than ever before. Statistics show that traffic deaths rose 20%, injured persons totaled 4 million and losses amounted to 11.1 billion, or $195.00 per U. S. household. True, there were more cars on the highways, but even so per se we are making rapid progress slaughtering ourselves each year. We started out to say about insurance, but it shouldn't be now.
