

Brownwood Beats Eastland Mavericks 14-6

GARRISON AND TULLY STARS FOR LOSERS

Game Lifts Brownwood Out of Cellar Position in the District.

For the first time in the history of the two schools Harry Taylor's Brownwood High school Lions defeated the Eastland high Mavericks 14 to 6. It was on the same field that some three years ago the Brownwood center intercepted a Maverick and ran the way for a safety for the Mavericks and the necessary margin for victory. But it was a far cry from the game that was played then and Friday. The Lions completely mastered the Mavericks the first half and incidentally that was enough for victory. Unlike the past Maverick games, starting with a bang and finishing with the necessary punch. The tables were sadly reversed and the Mavericks did not awaken until it was too late.

In the opening quarter the Lions won the toss and chose to receive and from then on until the game ended the first half it was completely the Lions'. The two Brownwood markers being made in the first and second quarters. The first Lion touchdown was the result of a determined drive down the field, a cut back over right tackle and then a beautiful broken field run by Evans, one of the main offensive threats of the Lions. It was the same off-tackle jaunt that netted the Lions their second touchdown during the second quarter. A pass, Scott to Parish, of the Lions gained 20 yards and a first down, and after two thrusts at the Mavericks line, Lee broke through over left tackle and after eluding the secondary defense of the Mavericks, dashed the remaining 10 yards for the marker. The Lions failed to convert either try for point the first attempt was blocked and the latter hit the goal post and bounded back on the playing field.

The Lions received their two extra points when Garrison forced to kick behind his own goal line, had his punt blocked and then recovered the ball for an automatic safety for the Lions and two points. That gave the Lions a lead that the Mavericks were never able to overcome. The half ended 14 to 0 in favor of the Lions.

Practically all of the second half was played during a drizzling rain, which not only slowed running plays but seriously hampered the passing attacks of both clubs. The lone Maverick marker was the result of clever and brainy football on the part of Garrison, the versatile Maverick quarter where the ball hit the ground. Garrison raised his right hand as though he were making a fair catch completely baffling the Lions to such an extent that he was able to run some 70 yards for a touchdown, unmolested. The umpire ruled that it was dead ball where Garrison caught, but that aroused the ire of Coach Petty who dashed out on the field and contested the decision and after much palaver and looking up of rules the Mavericks were given a touchdown. The Maverick's try for point failed.

Late in the fourth quarter the Mavericks passed and charged the ball to the Lions' two-yard line only to be held on downs, where the ball went over to the Lions. The final few minutes of the fourth quarter was a series of punts by both clubs as they were unable to run or pass due to the slippery condition of the field. The game ended with the ball in the Lions' possession on the Maverick's 10-yard line.

The outstanding stars of the Mavericks were: Tully, Garrison, and Simmons in the backfield and Captain Taylor in the line. Butler substitute center for the Maverick also played a brilliant game. The main cogs in the Lions victory was the entire Lion forward wall led by Parish, left end, who played most of the game in the Maverick backfield. In the backfield; Lee, Evans and Scott did noble work for the Lions.

"Cabinet Deb"

Washington's social lights will shine on Miss Betsy Dern this year. For she, daughter of Secretary of War and Mrs. George Dern, is the only "cabinet debutante" of the season. She'll be presented at capital society on New Year's Day.

Huey Long To Continue His Tour

ALEXANDRIA, La., Nov. 11.—Senator Huey J. Long let it be known today that heeding and barrages of missiles would not cause cancellation of his speaking tour of the state. Long, speaking from a stand erected in front of the city hall last night, was the target for eggs, stench bombs, and oranges. None hit the mark and the "kingfish" continued talking. The hurriers were not identified. Speaking at Monroe Thursday night, Long was subjected to heckling. Two alleged hecklers were forcibly ejected from the hall by Long's bodyguard.

Gates Rate Case Is Given Court

HOUSTON, Nov. 11.—The controversy between the Lone Star Gas company and the Texas railroad commission over a gate rate, was turned over to a state court today. A three-judge federal court granted a state motion to stay federal court proceedings in the case pending its disposition in district court at Austin. The company asked an injunction against the order. A temporary order restraining enforcement of the reduction order will remain in force until the case is tried.

Cities Welcome Greatest Chance For Public Works

CHICAGO.—Of the nearly 6,000 American cities now in dire need of modern sewage disposal systems, a steadily increasing number, urged on by public spirited groups and individuals, are taking advantage of the unprecedented opportunity offered by the federal government for building those systems at great financial savings. More than 80 such projects have already been approved according to recent Washington reports, with more applications coming in every day.

"Federal funds, under the public works administration," said Dr. Preston Bradley, president of the Isaac Walton League of America in a recent interview, "are available to city governments for specific, needed projects. Those funds, consisting of outright grants supplemented by long term loans, offer American cities the greatest chance they have ever had, or are likely to have, to eradicate stream pollution and thereby protect health and guarantee the enjoyment of natural waterways." According to latest advice from Washington, the original deadline for the filing of applications for public works loans remains as originally set—Jan. 1, 1934. By that date all applications must have cleared state engineers. The undersigned balance of the public works fund—if any—will revert to the exclusive use of the federal government.

Lt. John Murrel Is Granted Bond

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 11.—Lt. John Murrel, infantry officer, today was granted by Federal Judge R. J. McMillan, his liberty under bond of $5,000 pending trial on charges of allegedly attacking 28-year-old Blanche Ralls, divorcee of Birmingham, Ala. The ruling was made after a 35-minute hearing at which three defense witnesses, including the former West Point football star's mother, Mrs. J. R. Murrel, testified.

Armistice Day Program For The South Ward School

A beautiful tribute to Armistice Day was paid by the South Ward school Friday in a patriotic program, in each schoolroom, from 8:30 to 9 a. m., and a massing of the children and faculty one minute past 11 a. m., in front of the flag pole on the campus, for the final observance, which opened with bowed heads in silent prayer, and a salute to the flag as it was slowly raised.

Mrs. A. C. Simmons, principal of school, in a fine talk, explained the meaning of Armistice Day. The faculty members are always alert in observing these epochal days of the nation, as well as ready to give of their talent to public entertainments and Eastland projects. In the minstrels presented by South Ward school, for the program entertaining the Sixth district music club convention, at Connellee hotel luncheon, the credit should have been given Miss Lillian Smith who was in charge of the training of the minstrels, and is a very talented leader of the young people's work in the South Ward school.

Noted Missionary Coming to Speak To M. E. Society

Miss Ione Clay, for many years a missionary in Cuba, and now on leave, will be presented before the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church, Monday afternoon, and will speak of her work as principal of Colegio Buena Vista of Havana, and show in connection, samples of Cuban work and curios, with pictures of the college. Miss Clay is a graduate of Southwestern university at Georgetown, Texas, lives in Dublin, when at home, and is planning to pursue her studies during her absence from duty, at Columbia university in New York city. All members and friends are urged to attend the meeting, which will be a birthday party and will honor Mrs. Stan G. Thompson, who meets with them for the first time. Every member of the W. M. S. is invited and asked to bring a penny for each one of her years.

'Corpse' Bid Mourner 'Good Morning'

VITORIA, Spain.—Gabriela Cecilia was praying by the bed on which the body of her most intimate friend, Petronila Inarra, 63, rested. The room was silent. Candles flickered beside the body. The tick of a clock accentuated the deadly quiet. Suddenly the mourner heard, clearly and distinctly, "Good morning, Gabriela." Gabriela recognized the voice of her "dead" friend. Screaming in terror, she fled from the room. The physician, the undertaker, and the priest, who all had pronounced Dona Petronila dead, were called. The physician admitted that he had erred and that Petronila still was alive. The undertaker agreed. So he canceled the order for a coffin and advised the cemetery that the plot reserved for Petronila would not be occupied. Petronila now is receiving visitors and telling them about her experience.

HENRY FORD IS VICTORIOUS IN MAJOR TILT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Henry Ford emerged victorious in his first major test with the NRA today when Comptroller General McCarl ruled the Detroit manufacturer must be allowed government contracts for car purchases, although he has not signed the industry's code. McCarl, in letters to the secretaries of commerce and agriculture, ruled Ford must be allowed to bid and have his bids accepted in the absence of any showing that he has violated the provisions of the code at his manufacturing plants. Without such a showing, McCarl added, it must be assumed Ford has complied with the provisions of the code, which "have the force and effect of law."

Hard Liquor Is Sold Openly In City of Galveston

GALVESTON, Nov. 11.—Hard liquor was sold openly in many beer parlors here today, although the 18th Amendment has not yet been officially repealed and Texas has one of the most severe prohibition laws of any American state. Prices for whiskey ranged from 10 cents a glass to as high as 50 cents in the better cafes. The price of a quart bottle of Bourbon, rye or Scotch, was about $4.

Cuban Rebellion Recalls Part of Texan In Cuban Independence Fight

By STUART E. JONES United Press Staff Correspondent ALVIN, Tex.—While Cuba struggles through its latest crisis, a little white-thatched man who played an important part in the island republic's insurrection against Spain, leads the calm life of a country doctor in this little South Texas town. He is Dr. Foster H. Winn, one-time soldier of fortune and the correspondent who "scooped the world" on the battle of Santiago. Well-preserved and active at 63, he displays an amazing memory in recounting his adventures as a surgeon with the Cuban revolutionary army, and as war correspondent for the old Scripps-McRae League. The year 1896 found Winn a footloose and adventure-hungry graduate of the medical college of St. Louis University. Revolution was a flame in Cuba. That country appealed to Winn as the best place for a young man to find useful living. Journeying to Galveston, Winn applied to the revolutionary junta in New York for a commission as army surgeon. It was refused. He continued to Key West, determined to find his way to Cuba from there. He had been in the Florida port only a few days when a strange Cuban youth approached him and inquired if his name were Winn. When Winn replied it was, the stranger produced two cards, each of which was notched in a peculiar manner. He gave Winn one. "Whenever anybody approaches you with a card like this," instructed the Cuban, "go with him wherever he commands—at once." The very next day another stranger approached Winn, handing him a notched card, and bade him accompany him to the waterfront. Winn was denied the right to pack his belongings, and was hurried to a wharf where lay the steam tug Three Friends, famous

KIDNAPERS OF YOUTH STILL HOLDING HIM

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 11.—Kidnapers of Brooke Hart, 22, San Jose business executive, evaded an intensive police hunt today after repeating demands for payment of $40,000 ransom. Alex Hart, hotel and cafe owner, received a letter, then a telephone call from the man believed to hold his son a captive. The letter was delivered by an unidentified girl who said a well-dressed stranger thrust the communication in her hand and walked away. "This is to verify our telephone call last night," the letter reportedly read. "We have Brooke and are treating him right. No harm will come to him if you pay over the money as we will direct you and if you stay away from the cops."

Johnson Speaks At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Nov. 11.—General Hugh S. Johnson, National Recovery Administrator, arrived here at 11:45 a. m. today from Tulsa in an airplane for his address tonight. Johnson arrived too late to review the long Armistice Day parade. His secretary said he would remain overnight, probably flying to Louisville tomorrow for a speech there Monday night.

CIVIL WORKS PROJECTS ARE NOW ORDERED

AUSTIN, Nov. 11.—Civil works Administrator Westbrook today called for "at least 1,000 new projects throughout Texas" by next Tuesday. Instructions to all county administrators completed last night were sent out today as Westbrook opened the throttle on Texas' $29,000,000 public works machine. "Call an immediate meeting of your board and get everyone help you," he advised county administrators. "Get your machinery set so if we wire approval of your projects you can start the men to work on Thursday Nov. 16. "Every hour you delay is keeping men off of payrolls. "Go to work" The first duty of county administrators is to secure work relief to absorb all able-bodied men on relief rolls. Speeding through the mails today, with those instructions, were other messages outlining methods of outlying Texas' new work army.

Parent-Teachers Protest Legions' Method for Drive

DALLAS, Tex.—Members of the Dallas Council of the Parent-Teachers Association and two ex-service men's organizations are at odds over the question of "expediting sex appeal of high school girls" in tag day campaigns. The Parent-Teachers council vigorously denounced the practice of sending young girls on the streets to sell tags for patriotic organizations and recommended tag day campaigns be eliminated. Considerable danger exists for adolescent girls in chance acquaintances they make on the streets during the campaigns, the council declared. Members of the American Legion and Disabled American Veterans voiced surprised and vehement disagreement with the stand of the parent-teachers group. "We provide a chaperone for every 10-girls who sell tags," asserted J. J. Murray of the Disabled American Veterans. "I've never heard of any complaints of over-aggressiveness on the part of the girls or of their ever being ill-treated. "I fear the parent-teachers have been misinformed," added T. H. Owens of the American Legion. "The girls aren't misused." The rub, the council made clear, lies largely in the fact prizes are offered in the campaigns. With that inducement the girls who win are the ones who play up most to the men. So far as Laurence Melton, chairman of the Dallas post's central council, is concerned, the Armistice Day Poppy sale will go on. "We don't like this way of raising funds," he said, "but it appears to be the only adequate means at our disposal." He discounted the danger to the girls and said they regarded their work in the campaigns as a "patriotic duty." "It is a reminder on Armistice Day of the great sacrifice which men have made for their country," he said.

Texas Failures Show a Decrease Of 65 Per Cent

AUSTIN, Tex.—Commercial failures totaling 33 in October represented a decrease of 65 per cent from the 93 failures during the corresponding month last year, according to the reports received by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research each week. Liabilities of the firms that failed totaled $3,189,000, an increase of 46 per cent over the $2,180,000 in October last year, but assets of $17,067 were 84 per cent less than the $1,086,000 a year ago. The average liability per failure was $96,656 in October, against $23,51 in October, 1932, an increase of 311 per cent, and the ratio of assets to liabilities was 5.4 per cent for October, 1933, compared with 50 per cent for October, 1932.

'White Collar' Relief His Aim

Relief for the nation's 2,000,000 "white collar" depression victims is the aim of Dr. Jacob Baker, shown above at his desk in the capital. Dr. Baker heads this work under the federal emergency relief administration and has several special rehabilitation projects under way.

Another to Be Prosecuted In Urschel Case

DALLAS, Nov. 11.—The federal government took another step today in its prosecution of participants in the kidnaping of Charles Urschel. Mail fraud charges were filed with U. S. Commissioner Lee Smith against J. A. Morgan, farmer neighbor of R. G. (Boss) Shannon, on whose farm Urschel was held for nine days. Morgan, a gray headed farmer, pleaded guilty to the charge, which was filed after Urschel had gone to his farm to get money which the farmer wrote he had found. He admitted the account about finding the money was fabricated. Smith set Morgan's bond at $2,500 and he was taken to the Dallas county jail to await trial. The federal grand jury, which convenes at Fort Worth Nov. 27, will consider the charges, federal agents said.

Juarez May Take Divorce Business Away From Reno

JUAREZ, Mex.—This border city is threatening to take the divorce spotlight from Reno, Nev. At the present rate, 2,800 decrees will be granted in Juarez this year under the Chihuahua "easy divorce" law. They will represent a $500,000 expenditure by American couples. Officials said information from the Nevada divorce capital indicated 2,500 decrees will be issued in Reno. Less than two years old, the Chihuahua divorce law has attracted to Juarez such celebrities as Richard Dix, Hoot Gibson and Sally Eilers. Johnny Weissmuller, Miriam Hopkins and Max Baer. Juarez divorce specialists hope there will be more names from the social register. Already the names of a few millionaires and an obscure baron and countess have appeared on the docket.

SAMUEL INSULL 'GUILTY OF FRAUDULENT TRANSACTIONS'

Samuel Insull has been given his freedom by the high court of Greece. He will not be extradited. Uncle Sam cannot get him. Gov. Horner of Illinois and his sleuths were given a knockout blow. Samuel will make Greece his adopted country. He will recognize the flag of an ancient people as the flag of Samuel in the future. He was born in England under the Union Jack. He came to America before he was 22. He became a naturalized citizen. He began at the low rung of the ladder and he battled his way to the top. He became one of the Napoleons of finance and industry and white power of this amazing land of the free and the home of the brave. He was one of the most daring of all the public utility magnates of the new world. He covered an empire in his ramifications.

He was the high ace of all the Chicago builders and leaders.

He was a power in politics. He made and unmade governors, mayors, and United States senators.

He built a $20,000,000 grand opera house. He had, or thought he had, most of the world at his feet.

Down came the house of Insull and all its possessions. He fled this land of his adoption. He sought refuge under the flag of Greece. His brother, Martin, fled to Canada. Illinois authorities are battling for the forced return of Martin to Michigan avenue and the courts of the Windy City. A foreign court has vindicated Samuel. Now a Canadian court may vindicate Martin and permit the latter to return his allegiance to the Union Jack and the British Empire. Less than six years ago Samuel Insull held as his own a fortune estimated as high as $100,000,000. Now he is living on a fat pension under a foreign flag. A reminder that should prosperity return many of the units of the Insull power empire may become as valuable to their owners as in the days when Samuel was the most dashing of all the Napoleons west of the Allegheny mountains.

FRANCE PLANNING TO REPUDIATE WAR DEBT PAYMENT

France, speaking of its government, is a hoarder of gold. France has huge gold reserves in its steel vaults. France owes the people of the United States a war debt of $3,863,650,000. This is approximately one-third of the total Europe owes Uncle Sam on account of the World War. France refuses to pay the installments due last Dec. 15 and June 15 of this year. France is about $60,000,000 in arrears. Now France is going to default on the $22,000,000 payment due the United States Dec. 15. In the division of war spoils, Alsace and Lorraine provinces were returned to the republic. A territory large and rich in iron ores was returned to the republic. Mandates of many German colonies were given to the people of France. Huge slices of German territory under the skies of the Orient and the islands of the seven seas were given to France. Uncle Sam did not receive a penny in the division of loot. Uncle Sam refused to participate in the division. Yes, "Lafayette, we are here."

The looks of a city has much to do with bringing favorable attention from visitors. Ugly signs, weed patches, piles of trash, old broken down buildings, all contribute to make a city look unkempt and unattractive.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

When all citizens have pride in their home city, they will have a better city. When they are filled with ambition to have a better, bigger and busier city, they will cooperate together in a way that will make their ambitions become realities. Spasmodic work on behalf of citizens brings no results; constant effort is the price that must be paid for steady community growth. The first thing necessary toward making a city better is cooperation. All citizens should be interested in attracting new business concerns and new capital to their city. The benefits derived does much toward bringing continued prosperity. The man who has made a study of his home city is a better booster than the man who has not. The man who knows all about his city can be counted on as a community worker. Boosting for the home city pays bigger, quicker and steadier dividends than anything you can do. It doesn't take eloquence to interest people in a live city; they know one when they see it. The idea is to get them to come and see it. Courtesy to visitors means much to a city. A citizen who thinks it isn't worth while to be courteous to visitors isn't worth while to his home city.

Wonder How Much They Can Be Depended On?

The UNKNOWN BLOND

BEGIN HERE TODAY
DAVID BANISTER, a writer, returns from Hollywood to his former home, Tremont, for a rest. He is trying to forget ADELE ALLEN, film actress, who jilted him. Banister dines with JIM PAXTON, an old friend, now editor of the Tremont Post. They talk about the days when both were reporters. Banister leaves Paxton and takes a cab. Passing the Shelby Arms, apartment hotel, the cab is halted by a traffic light. A girl comes out of the hotel, sees the cab and rushes toward it. When she sees Banister she is embarrassed. He offers her the cab and she agrees to ride with him to her destination. The girl drops her handbag and Banister sees that it contains a revolver.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER II
IN a moment more they had passed the street light. Banister stared at the girl but in the darkness her features were only vaguely outlined. He said, "This is yours, isn't it?" and held out the revolver.

Banister said, "This is yours, isn't it?" and held out the revolver. "I didn't care much for the rest of it, though. The leading man was a new one I've never seen before. Had a kind of funny way he parted his hair. I don't think I like him much." She chuckled on. David discovered that he was not listening and then presently heard her words again. "The reason I didn't get home sooner," Aunt Kate was saying, "was because I stayed to see the vaudeville acts. I missed them the first time and I wanted to see Tracy King. He's the young fellow who leads the band, you know. Master of ceremonies, they call him. Well, sir—he didn't show up at all!" "What was the matter?" "I'm sure I don't know!" Another young fellow came out on the stage and just said that Mr. King wouldn't be there. So they went ahead without him. "Aunt Kate, are you trying to tell me that you've fallen for one of those sleek-haired masters of ceremony? At your age? I'm surprised at you!" "I didn't hear you come in last night, David," she said primly. "That's because I was here before you were." "Oh?" His aunt's tone showed surprise. "Well, I guess it was late when I got here," she admitted. Aunt Kate looked the soul of placid domesticity. "How was the picture?" he asked. "Well, I've seen better," Aunt Kate said critically. "The acting was all right but I didn't think so much of the plot. It was about a girl who fell in with a gang of crooks and then shot a man because she didn't know she loved him—until afterward. Then she found it out and went to prison and reformed. Kind of silly I thought!" Aunt Kate went on, naming the star of the picture. "She was awfully good in the sad parts," she

Cuban Rebellion—

(Continued from page 1) an insurgent, Winn met a government official and revealed he possessed blueprints of every gun mounted on the island of Cuba. Winn had obtained the blueprints from a wounded officer. The United States was about to declare war on Spain. Winn was hurried to the navy department and there he turned the blueprints over to Theodore Roosevelt, then assistant secretary of the navy. Soon thereafter, Winn departed for Havana with a contract to cover Cuban affairs for Scripps-McRae League and special permission to accompany a vessel of the U. S. battle fleet in event of war. When he reached Cuba, the Maine had been sunk. War followed quickly. Winn was followed to the U. S. S. Cincinnati, later transferring to the U. S. S. Detroit which served as a fleet marker during the battle of Santiago and aboard which many men were killed. After viewing the historic battle from his "ringside" seat aboard the Detroit, Winn hurried to St. Thomas in a torpedo boat to file his story from the Virgin Islands city to Scripps-McRae in Cincinnati. He had less than $400 in his pocket. The cable charge was $1.40 a word. He filed about 250 words, depleting his resources, then hurried back to the torpedo boat to borrow the paymaster's supply of cash. The loan enabled him to file an additional 1,500 words. Winn's story was the first to reach the outside world. It was a beat over Richard Harding Davis and other famous correspondents. The rest of the war he covered for Scripps-McRae from the old J.

He said Davis spent most of his time on the Cuban assignment loafing about Key West, and frequently filched news gathered by other men, including Winn. Only once after the Washington meeting did Winn see Theodore Roosevelt. That was when Roosevelt, then President, went to Frederick, Okla., where Winn was living, to hunt coyotes. Strangely enough, Winn never again set eyes on any of the hardy adventurers with whom he served in Cuba, nor has he ever had a desire to return to the country which he admires inordinately. ## Laugh Making Trio Coming In Talkie

Jack Pearl, famous "Baron Munchausen" or radio, Jimmy Durante of "Schnozzle" fame, and Zasu Pitts, whimsical comedienne of the Pitts-Todd comedies, are the laugh-making trio heading the most remarkable all-comedian cast for the library, and also providing the picture that introduces the radio star to the screen. It comes Sunday to the Lyric Theatre.

The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy with music is a hilarious story dealing with the sanguinary adventures of "The Baron" and Durante in a girls' college. Miss Pitts is the head chambermaid, love while "Jimmy" proceeds to vamp the college dean, played by Edna May Oliver.

Ted Healy and his stooges are in charge of the campus. "The Baron" and Durante arrive aboard a sea-going elephant. Pearl and Miss Pitts have a screamingly funny love scene in an icebox. The "college girls," beautiful singing and dancing chorines, do a musical number climaxed by a dance under shower-baths. Amid the comedy is a thread of a love romance. Walter Lang, famous for "The Warrior's Husband," directed the new picture.

"Doctor Bull" at Lyric On Monday

"Doctor Bull," the Fox Film production of the famous novel, "The Last Adam," by James Gould Cozzens, Monday at the Lyric Theatre and is scheduled to remain for an engagement of two days. It presents Will Rogers with what is reported as the outstanding role of his career.

The acquisition of the Cozzens novel culminated an extensive search by the Fox company for a story that would afford Rogers a worthy successor to his memorable role in "State Fair." It will be remembered as the volume recently honored with selection by the Book-of-the-Month Club, and has already sold over a quarter of a million copies.

In "Doctor Bull," the new title having been chosen by the star himself, Rogers is seen as a country doctor. He plays the role of a jaconically shrewd philosopher who binds together a changing village and who views with distaste the conditions that turn his home from a "town to live in" to a "place on the highway." The role is said to be the perfect outlet for Rogers' original humor and keen philosophies.

The principal feminine role opposite Rogers is portrayed by Vera Allen, recruited from the New York stage specially for this picture. The supporting cast includes such prominent figures of the screen as Marian Nixon, Howard Lally, Berton Churchill, Louise Dresser, Andy Devine, Rochelle Hudson, Nora Cecil, Ralph Morgan and Helen Freeman.

John Ford directed the production. The screen adaptation was made by Paul Green who did similar service for Phil Stong's novel, "State Fair." Green is a Pulitzer Prize winner, his winning play being "In Abraham's Bosom." The continuity is from the pen of Jane Storm.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Nov. 12.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. . . . Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." (1 Corinthians 15:53, 58).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When false human beliefs learn even a little of their own falsity, they begin to disappear. A knowledge of error and its operations must precede that understanding of truth which destroys error, until the entire mortal, material error finally disappears, and the eternal verity, man created by and of Spirit, is understood and recognized as the true likeness of his Maker" (page 252).
