BECAUSE A DEER HUNTER FAILED TO LOOK FOR ANTLERS

A scene of wild life tragedy that tears at the heartstrings is this a doe cold in death, her fawn starving beside her, victims of man's unat thinking cruelty. A deer hunter, intent only on prey, ignored the rule of the woods, never to shoot before looking for antiers. He killed the doe and left the fawn, struck in one hind leg by a heavy slug, to starve or fall victim to a prowling beast. A conservation photographet on the scene, near West Branch, Mich., Mich., rescued the fawn, and it is being nursed back to health

WHAT CHRISTMAS BUYING MEANS TO THE AMERICAN NATION

Christmas is on the way. Christmas buying days are few in number. There is a slogan everywhere: "Buy now and push the cause along. Figures have been given what Christmas buying means by the officers of the National Retail Drygoods association. This Christmas holiday season a half million workers have been given employment. Approximately $4,000,000,000 will pour across the store counters between this time and Christmas. Extra labor compensation brought about by Christmas holiday buying will result in about $30,000,000, speaking of compensation | Special Correspondent paid to the extra employes by the proprietors or managers of the retail stores of the United States. CHAPTER XXXII THE girl did not see Bannister

She was walking rapidly, her nands in her pockets. In the dim from the street lamp he caught a glimpse of the green suit. knew at once that it was Juliet France.

But where had she been and what had she been doing? Bannister cursed at Jordan, the "house man" who was supposed to be keeping a constant watch over the girl. Then he saw the mail box. It stood on the corner, not a dozen feet from where she had been when be first noticed her. So that was the explanation!

She turned. Was it fright or hand to her throat? Then suddenly she smiled. "Oh. it's you!

I-I didn't recognize you." They walked along together. "It's dark." Bannister objected, "and you're a long way from the house. Aren't you afraid to be out

Juliet France shook her head. "No," she said. "What is there to be afraid of?" "Nothing-I hope."

She looked up at him and her eves were not smiling now. They studied his face searchingly. After an instant she said, "I just wanted a little walk. I didn't think there could be any harm in that. I've been in the house all day-"

Her tone was so repentant that Bannister smiled. "Perhaps there isn't," he said. "Only after this I think it would be better to take your walks while the sun is shining. Tell me, what have you been doing all day." She gave him a resume of hours spent at reading, at household tasks and resting. "Your aunt let me help make the chocolate cake you're going to have for dinner tonight," she told him proudly. "Aunt Kate knows how to cook all right." Bannister admitted.

"Oh indeed she does! And beside that, she's a darling!" They had reached the house now ind Bannister pushed open the door. The warm air and subdued amplight was delightful after the Rannister assured him that they wouldn't. Privately he wondered how he was to manage Aunt Kate, but managed she must be.

"I think the girl went out to mail a letter," he confided. "I met her over on Lawrence avenue right beside the mail box. Did she do any telephoning?" Jordan shook his head. "I kept

SHAKING THE BR

For some years, Uncle Sam's brave boys have been shaking the brush of our dear America, in an effort to relieve the good people of our fair country from the curse of GANGSTERS, BAN. DITS, MURDERS and KIDNAPERS, who infest our territory, destroy our property and kill our people. Every legal kindness, coupled with "Watchful Waiting" has been used in an attempt to induce these "INHUMAN BRUTES" to stop their raids and shameful abuses of American property and people. However, these brotherly efforts seem to have failed to reach the hearts of such savagery, and now Uncle Sam, and her good citizens, by force of necessity, are loading their big "16"-inch guns, with something far more persuasive to such brutes, than the "Sweettoned voice of our beloved, late Billy Bryan," and "Watchful Waiting."

Mickle Hardware and Furniture Company

the up-to-date, exclusive Hardware and Furniture people of Eastland, Texas, and the MICKLE HARDWARE COMPANY of Anson, Texas, have also been constantly SHAKING the BRUSH in Eastland and Anson trade territories, driving out the old-time shoddy goods, high priced credit, (Installment) "extortion" merchandising. We have met with better success than "Herbert" and "Franklin D." for we have not used so much diplomacy and "WATCHFUL WAITING," but have been shooting up-to-date dependable merchandise at GREAT SLAUGHTER PRICES into the territory infested by these high priced "Stand-Patters" until many of them have already fled or withdrawn.

However, our work is not yet complete, and we have PLANNED and are now entering into the greatest crusade against HIGH-PRICED "Stand-Patters," this country has ever known. Our main weapon will be "23"-inch High-Powered Automatic Guns, LOADED TO THE MUZZLE WITH NEW UP-TO-DATE dependable merchandise, with prices amputated below the knees, Jift. which shall destroy every vestige of old, high-priced, non-progressive merchandising.

We have, at Eastland, Texas, the LARGEST HARDWARE STORE, in all West Texas, containing about 20,000 square feet floor space, loaded from cellar to garret with new dependable merchandise for the poor, the average good-liver, and wealthy, at the

LOWEST PRICES

THIS country has ever enjoyed.

We also have at Anson, Texas, the largest stock of up-to-date Hardware, and the LOWEST PRICES in all Anson's trade territory.

REMEMBER, "THE NEW HARDWARE DEAL, 'MICKLE SAYS, SELL IT!" Our GREA SLAUGHTER SALE is still in progress, and will CONTINUE INDEFINITELY. We are in deep sympathy with "The Hardy Hands of Toil." You owe it to your family and yourselves to spend your hard-earned money where it will do DOUBLE DUTY, and get you best results. We especially cater to the farming and laboring classes.

COME IN AND SEE US, you will be met by a polite courteous crew of big hearted, brother- nonds ly sales people, who will make you feel you are their real brother, and you are, if you are a descendent of "Adam and Eve."

"CHRIST LOVED THE POOR, AND HARDY HANDS OF TOIL" and deep down in our heart of hearts, they are the people we most appreciate, and strive hardest to serve. We are especially the FARMER'S and LABORING PEOPLE'S FRIEND. The President of these insti- red Christm tutions was reared on the farm and under financial difficulties, and understands your hard fight against this awful depression, and we are ready to help you bear it with UNUSUAL LOW PRICES.

When in town make this your headquarters, whether or not you want to buy anything. You LES, doz. 9c are most welcome. We have the good old-fashioned wood and coal fires to warm you.

Space and time forbids naming any prices here. JUST COME AND SEE! You shall not aches be disappointed. Just an item or two: We sell a good cookstove for $10.69, which our would-be ait Salad competitors ask $18.00 for. We sell one for $17.95, the high-priced "Stand Patters" ask $27.50 for, and we sell the best electric light globes, each fully guaranteed, sizes, from fifteens to sixties, inclusive, at 10 cents each or two for 15 cents. Others want 20 cents each. We sell the Great Wonder Washing Machine for only $4.95 each, while others want $10.00 to $12.50 for like machines, and so on down the line.
