SLAUGHTER IN AUSTRIA IS CONTINUING

VIENNA, Austria, Feb. 14.—The slaughter of socialists continued on an appalling scale today when the government advanced its war to wipe out socialism in Austria. The United Press estimates of 1,000 dead appeared to be conservative, but beyond that, any figures must be guess work. The most tragic part was many women and children were victims in the shelling of crowded socialist apartment houses. Semi-official sources estimated that at least 20 to 25 women had been killed in Vienna. Casualties among children were not known. Ash Wednesday and St. Valentine's day will long be remembered in the history of Vienna. Few of the devout braved the bullet-torn streets to visit church and have the traditional cross of ashes marked on their foreheads. The government forces, overwhelming the dauntless but poorly equipped socialists by artillery, superior arms and military training, seemed to be crushing the revolt slowly, but it was a tedious and bloody business. The first of the condemned socialists was executed at 5 p. m. today by hanging.

Young Democrats Of Texas Plan Big Convention

The first annual convention and organization meeting of the Young Democratic clubs of North Texas, including approximately 60 counties in the most populous portion of Texas, will convene at Fort Worth, Texas, on Saturday, Feb. 17, at 9 a. m. The Venetian ballroom at the Blackstone hotel in Fort Worth will be used as the convention hall. It is expected that at least 2,000 delegates will attend. At this meeting the officers of the Young Democratic clubs of the northern district of Texas for the ensuing year will be elected. The officers to be filled include a president, four vice presidents, a secretary and an executive advisory committee of three. The South Texas clubs were assembled in convention at Corpus Christi, recently, and the convention of the West Texas Young Democratic clubs was held at Lubbock, Saturday, Feb. 3. Following the Fort Worth meeting the Young Democratic clubs of East Texas will be assembled and organized at a first annual meeting in March, and the state convention of the Young Democratic clubs of Texas will be held in Dallas in May.

McGregor Liquor Bill Unfavorably Reported to House

AUSTIN, Feb. 14.—Representative T. H. McGregor's bill to liberalize sale of medicinal liquor by prescription, will be reported unfavorably to the house today by its committee on liquor traffic. The committee voted 13 to 3 on the recommendation that the bill be not passed, after a public hearing last night. A novel proposal to hold a statewide prohibition referendum coincident with the state primary election on July 28, was killed in the house today by a vote of 38 for the plan and 82 against it. It was introduced by Representative Weaver Moore of Houston.

Judge J. E. Hickman Addresses Scouts

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Feb. 14.—Dr. Jewell Daugherty of Brownwood has been re-elected for the third time president of the Comanche Trail Area council of Boy Scouts of America, which includes eight counties, Brown, Stephens, Erath, Eastland, Comanche, Mills, San Saba and Lampasas. Other officers elected are: vice president, E. P. Crawford of Cisco, Earl Fairman of Goldthwaite and R. S. Vestal of Dublin; treasurer, J. K. Wilkes of Brownwood; scout commissioner, Russell B. Jones of Breckenridge. G. N. Quirl is scout executive of the area. At the recent annual meeting of the area about 125 scout leaders attended and Chief Justice J. E. Hickman of the Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland was the principal speaker.

Mail Pilots, 'Up in the Air,' Await Parley Action

Vitally affected by the government order canceling all airmail contracts, members of the Air Line Pilots' association are shown here as they met in Chicago with their president, David L. Behrke, countless, to decide their future course. Many of the pilots are expected to fly the army planes which will take over the service, but definite action awaits a conference by Behrke with government officials.

TEXAS SENATE CONSIDERS A MORATORIUM

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 14.—The Texas Senate began consideration of a bill for a year moratorium on forced sales of real property today after haggling for one and a half hours on whether the topic could be brought up today. In the half hour remaining in the morning session, Senator Clint Small explained the bill. The measure limits the moratorium to Jan. 1, 1935. The decision of whether forced sales shall be postponed is left to the discretion of district courts in Texas. Ten qualifications are required of the debtor before he may obtain benefits of the act. One of those qualifications is the indebtedness shall not have been renewed, extended, created or assumed by the debtor since May 1, 1933. It was maintained that obligations incurred since that date were with the full knowledge of the depression.

Mrs. Cunningham Dies At Gorman At Age of 93

Mrs. Nancy C. Cunningham, 93, died Tuesday, Feb. 13, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. D. Hasley, near Gorman. Mrs. Cunningham was born Oct. 13, 1840, in Bedford county, Tennessee, and came to Texas more than 40 years ago. In 1857 she was married to John Cunningham. "Grandmother" Cunningham, as she was called by her many friends, had been a faithful member of the Church of Christ since 1888. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the District Church of Christ, with Elder R. C. Maddox officiating. Interment was at the Gorman cemetery, beside her husband, who passed away more than 34 years ago. Those surviving are her seven children; one son, Tom E. Cunningham of Gorman; six daughters, Mrs. T. D. Hasley of Gorman, Mrs. Emma Woody, Mrs. Mattie Stewart of Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. Jesse Wheeler of Ranger, Mrs. Luna Shoemaker and Mrs. J. R. Nordyke of Fort Worth, and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Heidingsfelder Case Is Still With Jury

GEORGETOWN, Texas, Feb. 14.—C. E. Heidingsfelder, Houston attorney, awaited the verdict of a district court jury today to learn his fate on a $34,500 theft and embezzlement charge. The case went to a jury at 6:07 p. m., yesterday. A maximum penalty of 10 years in prison was asked.

COUNTERFEIT BILLS PASSED ON TWO FIRMS

Officials of the Commercial State bank of Ranger announced Wednesday morning that a gang of counterfeiters had apparently been operating in Ranger over the past week-end as two counterfeit bills had been received from Ranger business houses for deposit, the bills having been taken in Saturday or Sunday. The bills were described by H. C. Wilkinson as being of 310 denomination and were fairly good imitations of real bills if one did not look them over carefully. They were on the Federal Reserve bank of the eleventh district. Merchants have been urged by officials of the bank to stop in and look over the bills and have their flaws pointed out in order that they may be on the guard against accepting them on purchases. One of the bills was passed at the Crawford filling station on Strawn road and the other was passed at Steen's cafe. In both instances the bills were accepted on purchases and change was received. The owners of the two establishments did not know they had received "phony" money until they went to make bank deposits early this week and the bills were turned back as counterfeiters. It was not known whether or not there were other counterfeit bills of like denomination in circulation in Ranger which had not been presented at the bank as yet, but it was thought likely that there might be several others left in town by the persons who passed the two that have been detected so far.

Conner and Frost Home From Trip To Washington

Cyrus B. Frost and Earl Conner have just returned from Washington, D. C., after a fifteen days absence, where they have been on business. In an interview with Mr. Conner he stated to a reporter of this paper: "There was several inches of snow on the ground during the time we were in Washington, and the thermometer registered about six degrees below zero, but Mr. Frost and I did not suffer from the cold. We had business with the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of Justice, and the Supreme Court, visited many persons of distinction, and in nearly every instance we made inquiries as to the public opinion there, and learned that Franklin D. Roosevelt is very popular and is the man of the hour. He is regarded as thoroughly honest, able, fearless, and is doing all within his power to aid the people. "The Tennessee mountains and Virginia hills were beautiful as well as other sections of the country through which we passed, and the people with whom we came in personal contact were lovely to us, but we both were really glad to get home and entertain a more intense love for our people and country than before. "While there we saw Mrs. Alma Gleason, the youngest daughter of the late Judge J. T. Hammond, both of whom will be remembered by most of the old timers of this section. She has been employed by the Government in the Post Office Accounting Department some fifteen years, and has a wonderful record. She looks well, contented, happy, and is very proud of her only child, Alexander, who is a handsome fellow."

Senate Completes Action Upon CWA Allotment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The senate today completed action on the $950,000,000 relief bill, making it possible for the CWA to meet this week's payrolls for nearly 4,000,000 workers. The senate, after receding from the controversial amendment which provided for confirmation of state relief directors, defeated a motion to reconsider the partial conference report. If congress had failed today to act finally on the bill, all workers on CWA projects would have dropped their tools tomorrow, the United Press learned on high authority.

Ship Mail Subsidies May Be Changed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Complete reorganization of ship mail subsidies was forecast today by the white house. Defining ocean mail contract subsidies in reality, President Roosevelt expressed the opinion that some of the subsidies were given where they should not have been as far as mail-carrying was concerned. At the same time he let it be known he was in favor of subsidies as such in order to keep the American flag on the high seas and to meet competition.

FARLEY WORKS ON STATEMENT ON CONTRACTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Postmaster General Farley worked on a statement detailing the reason for his cancellation of all domestic air mail contracts today while attorneys prepared a vigorous court defense against injunction proceedings brought by one of the affected air transport companies. Reports that President Roosevelt was preparing to restore, soon, many of the cancelled air mail contracts, were denied in official quarters. President Roosevelt indicated that there would be no change, for the present, in his executive order, declaring an emergency and directing the army to carry the mail. Farley has sent a strongly worded telegram to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh in answer to his protest against cancellation of air mail contracts it was learned today.

H. E. Driscoll New County Relief And CWA Head

H. E. Driscoll of San Antonio has been appointed administrator in Eastland county for state relief and CWA and took over the duties of the office in Eastland Monday. He succeeds Mr. Windler, who was sent to Eastland to act until a permanent administrator could be appointed. Mr. Windler was transferred to Hidalgo county.

Funeral Is Held For Cleo Horton

Funeral services were conducted today for Cleo Carl Horton, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Horton, who reside four miles southeast of Eastland. The services were conducted in the Olden Baptist church by Rev. K. C. Edmonds, pastor of the church. Interment was in the Eastland cemetery following the services at the Olden church.

BALL DIAMOND, GRIDIRON AND TRACK ASKED

County Fair Association Has Been Organized To Promote Plan. The public works administration will loan $87,000 to a corporation, of the proper kind, to build and equip permanent fair grounds, football and baseball grounds, exhibit buildings, race tracks, etc., in Eastland county, provided the application is properly filed and meets the government requirements in every respect, according to a committee of Eastland men who have appeared before the board at Fort Worth two or three times in the interest of securing such a loan for the Eastland County Fair association. The public works administration will further make a grant to such a corporation of 30 per cent of the amount of the loan, which is to be secured by a first mortgage lien on the grounds, building, etc., to be used by the corporation in helping to liquidate the loan. The original loan, if made under these terms, will be made for a period of 20 years and will near no interest. The Eastland County Fair association, temporarily organized some weeks ago, has filed with the public works administration an application for a loan. This organization will have to be made permanent and incorporated before the loan can be further considered. No capital stock will have to be raised in order to incorporate, however. A meeting of Eastland citizens was called for 10 o'clock this morning at the Lyric theatre in Eastland to discuss matters pertaining to the proposed loan. At this meeting it was decided that since the matter was of county-wide interest and the people of other towns and communities of the county were interested and to be served, another meeting should be called for 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning, in the county courtroom at the courthouse in order that more time and further opportunity be given the people of the county as a whole to co-operate in the matter. Officers and the board of directors for the corporation, it was pointed out, should be representative of the entire county and not merely of the city of Eastland and for this reason the citizens of the county, especially the business men, are urged to attend and take part in the meeting Thursday morning. Prospects for obtaining the desired loan are very encouraging. In fact the Eastland committee that has been handling the matter are confident that the loan will be made if the requirements of the board are promptly and properly met.

Frank Bida Case Affirmed by Court

AUSTIN, Feb. 14.—The court of criminal appeals today affirmed a verdict rendered in Stephens county against Frank Bida. Bida, after a trial in Eastland, which resulted in a hung jury, was convicted in the district court at Breckenridge and was sentenced to two years in connection with the fire and explosion which wrecked his filling station and automobile repair shop in Eastland.

MacCracken's Fate Rests With Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—William MacCracken's fate rested with the senate today. It may be jail or freedom. A vote in the joint proceedings against the former assistant secretary of commerce was promised before adjournment tonight. As the case approached an end, the comedy present during MacCracken's maneuvers to prevent arrest, disappeared. The senate considered the seriousness of the situation as it affected them and the man they sought to punish.

TEXAS CENTENNIAL

The legislature will be asked to set machinery in motion this year to prepare for the 1936 Texas Centennial. The particular plan, a compromise between the need for and the lack of money, will be outlined soon.

An enterprising Dallas woman has drawn up a plan for a state-wide series of historical pageants. Presumably, admission to these performances would pay the bill. Texans can stage all the pageants they want without giving some one group a monopoly, or paying royalties on it.

The other plan, advanced by Walter D. Cline, West Texas chamber of commerce president and member of the Centennial committee, would call for a large number of appropriate celebrations in various sections and cities. It has within it possibilities for an adequate Centennial observance, if fully developed. It assumes, perhaps, too modestly, that the amount of money brought in by Centennial visitors would at last pay the whole bill. It recognizes the state would profit in the gasoline tax.

TEXAS BANKER AND THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

Nathan Adams is a prominent banker of Dallas. He is an optimistic banker. He addressed the annual Southwestern sales conference of the Federal Hardware and Implement Mutuals and the Hardware Casualty company. He reported a distinct upturn in business activity. He gave this advice: "If we cooperate in carrying out the President's recovery program we will soon have forgotten the depression. The value of real estate must come back. People will come to realize that home ownership citizenship is the best." Sure, it is the best. The home owner will battle for his home; the farmer will battle for his land and his home. His ballot will be cast on the side of those who believe that each home is a citadel of high civilization and its possessor stands for sane law enforcement, sane assessment of property, sane economy in the cost of government and a square deal all along the line.

Every nation seems to be trying to make itself independent of every other nation, with the result that world trade has suffered acutely. Unless and until "One Way" trade is abandoned, there can be little hope of progress, for exchange is the mainspring of commerce.

To carry good merchandise and advertise it, to deal honorably, fairly and squarely at all times with all customers is the way to succeed in business.

DROPPING THE STOWAWAYS

Married Flirts

by MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY GYPSY MORRILL and TOM WEAVER are married on the same day as LILA HOTELING and HERB BLISS but Lila's wedding is a society event while Gypsy's is very simple. While Lila's luxury Gypsy has to struggle to keep expenses within Tom's income. She keeps her job teaching until she learns she is to have a baby. After David's birth she is extremely busy, caring for him and for her home. Tom is frequently away in the evening and Gypsy suspects he is interested in VERA GRAY, who works in the same office. One day she sees them going to lunch together. She is heart-broken and refuses to listen to his explanations. Lila confesses to Gypsy that she intends to divorce Derek and marry MARIKO BRIGHTON, richer and older. Gypsy's father is seriously injured in a motor accident. For several days his life hangs in the balance. Then he recovers. Gypsy resolves to forget Lila's jealousy and refuses to pursue Tom. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXVII

she hadn't the time and Elsa was a most indifferent chef. Besides Tom didn't care. He used to be bored, she thought now, with all those fancy messes she had prepared for him. That was little bride stuff! Well, she had got bravely over that phase. . . . It was thrilling—it was exhilarating to be received back into the old circle as an equal. At first people had openly patronized her. "How's the baby?" they had asked negligently. "How's motherhood?" But they had got past that now. She was one of them. She had even joined a class in sculpture, one that met Tuesday afternoons, and it was, she said, "inspiring." It was queer but the prospect of spending the summer in the apartment didn't daunt her now. Last year she had been unable to bear the very notion. But that had been because of her condition. She felt strong now and it was fun to be within reach of things. Why, if she moved to the suburbs she would miss out on all the invitations she now accepted so eagerly. No one would remember her if she buried herself in some little house on a side road. When Tom said something about trying to find a place on the island she smiled and shook her head. "Don't bother, darling. We'll be all right. I don't mind the city any more. Besides, everyone says we're going to have a cool summer." The puzzled look came into his eyes again and he said no more. More often than not Gypsy encountered Hunt Gibson at these festivities. Hunt was very much the young man about town at the moment and he had met these people through Sue Canavan. The more Gypsy saw of him the better she liked him. He was always so amusing. He had a grand sense of humor. You saw him on the avenue these days, broad shoulders set off to advantage by his well fitting British clothes. He swung a stick. Girls riding on the tops of buses craned their necks to see him. "Oh," they said, "isn't he like Gary Cooper?" He would offer Gypsy a lift up town as they left the Eighth street studio—Ronny's or Elspeth Harris' place on Barrow street. "Coming my way?" he would say, smiling. Gypsy would waver. "I was going to stop at the French pastry shop on Sixth and get some brioche for breakfast." "Well, come along. The taxi can wait, can't it?" . . . It was fun; it was all fun. To play at being a girl again, to pretend for a little while there were no responsibilities, no worries. Of course you always went home to the baby and Tom with a thankful feeling. It was wonderful, back of all this playing and laughing and chatting, to feel that your life was secure, settled. Just the same, the dash of freedom made Gypsy rounder, rosier, prettier than she had been in years. She looked about her at the people she knew, the completely un-battered ones, and found that she did not envy them. Elspeth was thin, haggard, nervous, at 29; in love with a married man from Park avenue. Ronny had been married and divorced and so had Willa Burns and one or two of the other girls. None of them had children. She would rush into the apartment after an afternoon punctuated by frenzied chatter, scented with cigaret smoke and the dregs of a cocktail shaker. She would bury her face in the pink warmth and sweet-

Letters From Our Readers

As your State Representative, I wish to make a brief statement in regard to this Special Session. We have been here since January 28th. We were called to issue more bonds for relief purposes in order to feed the poor and needy of our State, and to pass a law or laws to extend more time to those who are about to lose their homes and farms. These two subjects could have become the law by now if we had worked as we should, but so many members are playing politics for their own selfish motives instead of devoting their whole time to do something for the taxpayers of Texas. Too Much Paid Lobbyists The same old crowd who represent the special interests are here again with their whiskey and good foods, trying to defeat the will of the masses, as usual; and I for one, am getting tired of such a crowd and I shall, if re-elected to this House, offer a bill to prohibit such a practice in the future. As long as we let these paid lobbyists go unregulated, the masses will never get any relief. Every big corporation is represented and some have two kinds of representation. They have members in the Legislature and high-priced, paid lobbyists outside of the Legislature. No Man Can Serve Two Masters I shall favor a law on our statutes to prohibit the members of our Legislature from accepting retainer fees from or even representing any special interest or public

Proposed Child Labor Amendment

AUSTIN.—When the child labor amendment failed ratification in the senate during the second week of the present special session, Senator W. B. Collie of Eastland was one of those who opposed ratification by that body. He based his opposition to the amendment on the contention that it would be an unwarranted and unnecessary extension of federal control over a matter which the states are competent to handle and which, in his opinion, may be better dealt with by the states because of the wide variations in the nature of the labor among the several states.

More than 80 per cent of the children in Texas under 18 years of age who engage in any form of unskilled labor participate in some form of agriculture, pursuits. Under the present law the people of Texas, acting through their own state government, have the exclusive right to determine what labor is harmful to their children and what labor their children shall engage in, Collie stated.

Mr. Baldus' office will be located in Fort Worth, headquarters for the Southwestern Greyhound Lines. J. J. Woolridge is assistant traffic manager.

The Southwestern Greyhound Lines operate 200 buses over 6500 miles of highway in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico.

Western termini of the lines are El Paso, Texas, and Albuquerque, N. M. Laredo and Corpus Christi, Texas, are the southernmost points served, both being reached via San Antonio, from which other lines radiate to Lake Charles via Houston and to Fort Worth and Dallas via Austin and Waco. From Fort Worth and Dallas lines are operated to El Paso, to Houston, to Memphis, via Texarkana, and to Tulsa. Oklahoma City is served from Tulsa, and another line from Tulsa goes to St. Louis. Out of St. Louis two routes to Chicago are operated as well as one west to Albuquerque via Kansas City and Salina, Kansas, with choice of routes from Salina to Albuquerque via Denver, Colo., or the Santa Fe Trail Short Cut.

Employees of the Southwestern Greyhound Lines total 700. They receive an annual payroll of $1,500,000. Fifteen company-owned garage repair shops and 30 company-owned terminals are maintained by the company. Practically every town on the lines has a Southwestern Greyhound ticket agency.

Officials of the company include in addition to Mr. Baldus, Paul W. Tibbetts, president; G. P. Schmal, vice-president and comptroller, and J. A. Knutson, operating manager.

Senator Collie Helped to Pass Car License Law

AUSTIN.—Senator W. B. Collie of Eastland joined with Senators Oneal, Woodward and Poage, in offering the senate amendment to House Bill No. 6, which has now been enacted into law, and which sets March 31 as the final date for the payment of motor vehicle registration and license fees.

While the temporary time extension measure for this year was being debated in the senate, Collie contended that he objected to its passage because it would benefit only the delinquent taxpayers, and was discriminatory. "Such differentiation in legislation could only be expected to greatly increase the number of delinquent taxpayers in succeeding years and do incalculable harm to our tax system," he declared. At that time he argued for the permanent later date so that all would receive the benefits of the relief in motor registrations.

The reason for Senator Collie's favoring March 31 as the permanent final date for motor vehicle registration is stated in these words of Section 9 of the amendment as adopted: "The fact that annual motor vehicle registration and license fees are now required to be paid each year in January, and that many other taxes, state, county, and city, fall due in that month, thus placing an unduly heavy burden on the taxpayers in that month, and the further fact that many owners of motor vehicles were unable this year to pay the annual fees before the date of accrual of penalties, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity" for this legislation.

The question of changing the date for motor vehicle registration was submitted to this special session as an intended relief measure. The permanent change in registration date will apply to all alike, and will be immediately advantageous to all owners of such vehicles, Collie stated. Those who paid their fees before Jan. 31 will

Boys and Girls World Club

The Boys and Girls World Club and the Children's Circle are enjoying a series of lessons and plays based on the intersocial relationship plan that is proving interesting to the children and adults.

The session Monday afternoon, held in the classroom of the Methodist church, was opened with the study of the Bible verse, "Love One Another," based on John 15, verse 12, followed by the song, "How Strong and Sweet My Father's Care," nicely sung by these fresh young voices.

The director, Mrs. J. U. Johnson, and her assistants, Mmes. Ed Graham, Earl Bender and Fred Michael, were engaged in song, story, games and other activities, in the training and entertaining of the two groups.

A lovely story of St. Valentine, a bishop of Italy, was told by Mrs. Johnson, followed by a description of Italy, and the habits of its children. The program closed with the club prayer in unison.

The activities brought the making of valentines, gifts for friends across the sea, and the playing of an Italian game, "Chicken Market."

The little ones are gradually learning how the children of other countries live and are taught, and are realizing the "hands across the sea" idea of intersocial relationship friendship, through the teaching of the church.

Church of Christ Bible Class

"The Jerusalem Church" formed the basis of the lesson for the Ladies Bible class if the Church of Christ, meeting in the church parlors.

Mrs. Loretta Herring brought a fine study, prefaced by the ensemble singing of "Take Time to Be Holy," led by Mrs. J. R. Boggs, followed with prayer by the class, led by Mrs. Guy Sherrill.

The class will meet with Mrs. D. L. Childress next Monday afternoon.

Women's Missionary Society Baptist Church

The circles of the Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church registered a slim attendance at their semi-monthly meeting held in the homes on Monday afternoon.

The greatest attendance was noted in Circle 1, which met at the home of Mrs. W. L. Allison, with Mrs. P. L. Parker, chairman, presiding, and presenting the devotional from the 90th Psalm, in a theme talk, "Promises of the Bible," followed with prayer offered by Miss Sallie Morris.

Minutes were presented by their secretary, Mrs. Jess Selbert.

Miss Morris reported the personal service work, which showed many visits made and flowers sent to the sick.

After discussion as to the next course of study, the Circle voted to take up the Book of Romans for the next two months work.

The members took an examination on their just completed study, "Ambassadors For Christ," with quiz conducted by Mrs. Paul McFarland, the class teacher.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. McFarland, for her faithful and interesting mode of teaching the course.

The Circle will meet in two weeks with Mrs. John Norton. The meeting next Monday will be all Circles in the church, with mission study conducted by Mrs. Carl Springer, teacher.

Pythian Sisters Social and Business Session

The Pythian Sisters Temple held a brief business session, at the K. P. Hall on Monday night, and upon adjournment, enjoyed a social evening at the home of Mrs. C. F. Shepherd.

The business brought plans for drill practice on Thursday night, preliminary to taking the drill team to Baird on February 21, when the District Convention will be held in that city.

The session was conducted by Mrs. R. L. Slaughter, M. E. C. pro-tem.

The home of Mrs. Shepherd was prettily decorated in red valentines, in graceful fashion, and the Valentine Party, was carried out in scores, kept on valentines, when points were tallied that had been given in the various games of impersonations of famous men and women; a written contest, built on the word "Heart," and a Valentine verse in original composition contest.

Mrs. Herbert Reed was awarded a pair of heart-shaped hand-made pot holders for the highest record, and Mrs. Mike Andrews was consoled for her few points with a heart shaped tea apron.

The refreshments carried out the Valentine idea, in the open faced sandwiches made of red bread, the ice box cakes, and strawberry jello in lettuce with whipped cream topping and coffee.

The plate had an underlay of red, and a dainty paper lace doily, with plate favors of lovely valentines on standards.

Those present: Mmes. Artie Liles, R. L. Slaughter, R. L. Harrison, Jim Watson, Herbert Reed, Mike Andrews, Mack Hennessee, C. F. Shepherd, and daughter, Miss Susie Shepherd.

Women's Missionary Society Methodist Church

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church enjoyed a fine program at their Monday afternoon meeting in the church classrooms, with session conducted by their president, Mrs. Wayne Jones, opening with a song service, bringing, "Oh For a Thousand Tongues to Tell," and "What Friends We Have In Jesus," with Mrs. Howard McDonald as song leader, and Mrs. J. E. Hickman, pianist. The devotional by Mrs. Frank Crowell, had for theme, "How Did Jesus Keep His Body Well and Strong?" based on excerpts from chapter 1 and 7 of Mark.

The program proper was led by Mrs. Turner M. Collier, and the subject, "Promoting World Friendship Among the Children," was given an interesting preface by the leader, who presented Mrs. McDonald in the first topic, "Sharing the First Principle in World Friendship."

Mrs. C. W. Price presented an interesting thought "In Order to Have Peace We Must Create Conditions for Peace."

"Missions Are Vitalized Through Projects and Activities," Mrs. M. B. Griffin.

Old Car Good Enough?

Say, just ride in a '34

YOU'LL change your mind about holding on to the old car the very first time you get behind the wheel of a Nineteen Thirty-Four. Are these new jobs smooth and smart and comfortable? And can they "travel"?

Even if you aren't going to buy at present, you should read the automobile advertisements appearing in this newspaper. It's an excellent way to keep up to date on what the spring salons are showing. There are important developments in styling and engineering—features pictured and described—which contribute to new riding and driving ease, new safety, beauty, and e-c-o-n-o-m-y.

ECONOMY is an important point in these messages from leading automobile manufacturers. . . . Exceptional values, long life, unusual freedom from repairs, low fuel and oil consumption! ECONOMY is the reason they advertise in this newspaper, for here they can reach you and many other logical and intelligent car buyers at a minimum cost per person.

Read the advertisements in this newspaper as an ECONOMY MEASURE. They save time energy, money . . . and even now are pointing out that owning a luxurious, up-to-the-minute motor car is often more economical than maintaining an old one.

study conducted by Mrs. Carl Springer, teacher.

Circle 2 was hosted by Mrs. A. O. Cook, the chairman. Prayer was offered by Mrs. L. D. Fulcher, who brought the Bible lesson from Genesis, chapters 15 to 20.

The hostess served a dainty refreshment of chocolate cake, plum jello and hot cocoa.

There was a small attendance.

Circle 3, met with Mrs. H. C. Swindell, with session opened by their chairman, Mrs. Clyde L. Garrett, in the devotional from the 21 chapter of Luke.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. B. Overton, and announcement of the World Day of Prayer to be observed on Friday, February 16, 3:00 p. m., in Methodist church was made.

The Circle had no lesson on account of the illness and absence of their teacher, Mrs. S. C. Walker, who has an attack of influenza.

The Circle will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Overton. The hostess served refreshments of coconut pit and cocoa with marshmallow topping to Mmes. J. B. Overton, Joe Neal, W. J. Herrington, Clyde L. Garrett, and Miss Lois McAnally.

Circle 4 resolved itself into an informal social hour at the home of the hostess, Mrs. Carl Springer, who served refreshments of ice cream and cake.

There were only a few members present as much sickness is extant in this group.

Circle 5 met with Mrs. Al Green at the Texland Hotel, with session conducted by Mrs. L. G. Rogers, chairman.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. L. V. Simmonds, prefacing the Circle's study, "The Jesus Way," conducted by Mrs. E. R. Weatherford. The examination in their study, showed that all passed the test. An absent member, Mrs. Carl Truery, was visited by Mmes. Rogers and Simmonds, following the session, and presented the Circle's gifts, wrapped in dainty pink and blue packages and heaped in a basket, prettily decorated.

made for a social meeting on Friday, February 23rd, 7:15 p. m., at home of Miss Rowena Cook.

Miss Geraldine Terrell was introduced as a new member of the association. Miss Cook led the program, of which the topic, "Intemperance in the Great Cause of Temperance," had subject, "Alcohol, the Deceiver," presented by Miss Della Webb, and "School Women Closing Prayer" was given by Mrs. Bleazale. Borzage Triumph In "Man's Castle"

Que of the squalor and tawdriness of a shantytown director Frank Borzage has woven a love story that is certainly the greatest achievement in a career that embraces many, many screen triumphs. The picture, "Man's Castle," already hailed as the "Seventh Heaven" of talking pictures, is on view at the Lyric Theatre Thursday.

"Man's Castle" is the story of a man who couldn't hear train whistles without wanting to hop a freight—and of a girl who loved him so strongly she told him he was free to go. Spencer Tracy as the boy and Loretta Young as the girl have never been cast in roles so perfectly suited to their individual talents. They perform admirably and contribute to the finest displays of their respective careers. As for Borzage's direction, it suffices to say that he surpasses in poignancy, incity and beauty his direction of "Seventh Heaven," "My Girl," and "Farewell to Arms."

The supporting cast is superb down to the smallest bit player. It includes Morinie Rabeau, Walter Connolly, J. J. Connelley, Arthur Hohl and Dickie Moore. Joe Sawyer adapted the story to screen form from Lauren C. Hazard's original story and turned in an excellent script.

Young Women's Association Baptist Church

The Young Women's Association of the Baptist church, held their regular meeting Monday night at the home of their director, Mrs. H. B. Breazale, with session opened by their vice-president, Miss Della Webb.

The devotional was conducted by Miss Irene Williams. During the business session, plans were ber in Eastland county. What can be done about the thing is a problem and will be a problem. They all have to eat, and have a place to sleep and have clothes to wear. With half of them not having the means of getting either, direct relief must take care of the situation . . . we are wondering for how long.

Which all reminds us that we hear whisperings of a possible chance to get a bank. Only when finally develop into a shout, all of which we hope will come to pass.

On the other hand local automobile dealers are having trouble getting the new model automobiles. Yet there are many on the waiting list wanting one of the new cars, when they arrive. So there you are.

At a meeting held at the Lyric Theatre this morning it was decided to call another meeting at the courthouse Thursday morning at 10 o'clock to discuss the plans under way for the Fair Ground and subsidiaries project, which was understood will involve an expenditure of more than $80,000. An item worth consideration and a full attendance.
