Cisco Upsets Mavs In Offensive Show

Moore... ABOUT Eastland By Virgil E. Moore

Farmers Home Administration Now Can Serve More Farm Families

Well, the football war is on. It's the first game under their belts, the Mavericks can start correcting mistakes and getting ready for their second Class AA rival in a row, Dublin.

We see by the Abilene Reporter-News that Ranger has a lot better team than the locals. The Reporter-News didn't come right out and say that, but they did rate Merkel as the best Class A team in this area and then came up in the same sentence and picked the Bulldogs to down them. That makes Ranger tops in the county, we guess.

Recent changes in the laws governing Farmers Home administration will enable the agency to serve the credit needs of a larger number of farm families, Walter T. McKay, state director, announced Saturday.

The expanded credit services are the best yet devised to help our farmers and ranchers through the worst drought in Texas history, McKay stated.

The new law provides broader authority to assist family-type farmers with loans to improve and operate their farms. It also authorizes, as a part of the Rural Development program, loans for operating and developing farms where the farmer has part-time employment off the farm. Included in the broader authority are loans for refinancing existing debts and an increase in the maximum amount that can be advanced for operating loans.

All county office staffs of the agency have been brought up to date on these changes at meetings held throughout the state, and began operating under the new authorities and policies on Sept. 4.

Types of loans which can now be made include:

1. Operating loans to full-time farmers. Initial operating loans may be made in amounts up to $10,000 to one borrower, with subsequent loans authorized as needed so long as the total amount of indebtedness does not exceed $20,000. Operating loans are used for the purchase of equipment, livestock, or to refinance debts owed on equipment and livestock, and for fertilizer, seed and other farm and home operating expenses needed to carry out efficient farming operations on family-type farms. Interest is at the rate of five per cent, a n d these loans are repayable over periods up to seven years. T h e new law increased from $7,000 to $10,000 the amount of the initial loan; from $10,000 to $20,000 the limitation on the indebtedness; and increased from 7 to 1 year the period during which additional credit can be extended in hardship cases when the inability of the borrower to repay his indebtedness within 7 years was due to causes beyond his control. Under the former law no new credit could be extended to borrowers who have been indebted continuously for seven years.

2. Farm Ownership loans. These loans are made for the purchase, enlargement, or development of family-type farms, and to refinance existing debts for farmers who have adequate real estate security but are unable to meet present credit obligations a n d need credit on more favorable terms. Payments are scheduled according to the ability of the borrower to repay, up to 40 years. Insured loans are made from funds provided by private lenders. The loans bear 3 1-2 per cent interest, plus a one per cent insurance charge. In the past, the agency has only refinanced existing real estate debts, and then only when the refinancing was incidental to the making of a real estate loan for purchase or improvement of family-type farms.

3. Farm Housing loans. These are made for the construction and repair of farm houses and other farm buildings, including farmstead water supplies. Interest is four per cent on the outstanding principal, and repayments may be scheduled over periods up to 33 years, with the loan secured by a deed of trust on the borrower's farm. This loan program was re-activated in May of this year.

4. Soil and Water conservation loans. Made to carry out measures for soil conservation, water development, conservation and use, and farm drainage. Individuals can borrow up to $25,000 for these purposes. Interest and insurance charges are 4 1-2 per cent with repayments scheduled according to the borrower's ability to pay, up to 20 years.

5. Loans to part-time farmers. (Continued on Page Two)

THE LONG, LONELY WAIT—A Chinese Nationalist soldier mans his lookout post on the strategic island of Quemoy. Tens of thousands of Nationalist troops in nearby trenches, bunkers, pillboxes and lookout posts are dug in on Quemoy—ready and waiting for any attack that might be launched from Communist China across the way. The island in the distance is Communist-controlled Tateng, where 10 batteries of artillery sporadically fire against the Nationalist outpost.

Vet Students Urged to Check With CJC Dean

CISCO — All veterans are urged to check with the Cisco Junior College registrar's office at once if they intend to enroll for the fall semester in day or night school, E. W. Mince, dean-registrar, said Saturday.

"This is necessary due to the time it takes in processing veterans' papers," Mince explained. School officials said they would like for all veterans to check at the registrar's office in regard to their entitlement, delimiting date and other information necessary for proper registration.

"This service is available to veterans even though they plan to attend some other institution, Mince emphasized.

One Hundred Eastland Students Put Their Lives In Your Hands Daily

County School Supt. H. R. (Pop) Garrett and Eastland School Supt. Wendell Seibert this week urged area citizens to remember the importance of obeying special state laws concerning school buses.

Texas school buses were involved in 379 accidents in rural areas (outside city limits) during 1955 and three children and two adults were killed.

"This can be avoided if drivers obey the law," Seibert said. He pointed out that every day three buses make runs to Eastland schools with some 100 students. "One accident is one too many," he exclaimed.

J. W. Edgar, state commissioner of education, said that every one of the 379 accidents last year were preventable.

The law says, in effect, that upon meeting or overtaking from either direction a school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging children, the driver shall stop immediately before passing, then proceed with due caution at a speed which is prudent and does not exceed ten miles per hour. The law does not apply within city limits.

Vehicles are not required to stop on highways with separate roadways when the bus is on a different roadway from that of a passing vehicle. Vehicles are not required to stop if the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is part of or adjacent to a controlled-access highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

Seibert said motorists can identify a school bus easily because "SCHOOL BUS" appears in large letters across the front and rear of each bus. "All public school buses are painted in a uniform yellow color and, trimmed in black," he pointed out. "School buses are equipped with flashing lights front and rear and usually mounted high on the bus. Flashers are used only when the bus is in the process of stopping or is stopped to receive or discharge children."

In conjunction with the educational program for drivers of all type vehicles, the State Department of Education is preparing a bus drivers' handbook for distribution to the 8000 school bus drivers in Texas. The manual will include pertinent safety regulations affecting school bus drivers.

Consumers Acceptance Co. of Cisco To Double Capital In New Stock Sale

The Consumers Acceptance Company, an automobile finance company organized in Cisco four years ago, plans to double its capital resources through the sale of $250,000 worth of stock, according to an announcement today by President R. A. (Bob) Hammett.

Offered to Texas residents only, the stock will be sold by Hammett at his office at the First National Bank and by an Abilene bond and stock firm. The company has assets totalling about $800,000.

Consumers Acceptance Company was organized in June, 1952, primarily as an automobile fi-

Eastland's Mavericks drove across the Cisco goal line with less than two minutes left to play in the ball game Friday night, only to fumble away their chances for an opening game victory in the end zone.

It was a heartbreaker to lose and a thrill to watch as the Mavs fell before their underrated opponents by a 27-26 margin in the non-district tilt.

Eastland's heralded defense just couldn't come with Penji Lipsy, but the Maverick offense was all that it was stacked up to be. Eastland never could make the first tally. They matched every one Lipsy could put across, however.

Cisco was just as helpless in trying to stop Eastland as the Mavs were in trying to cope with Cisco. Big lumbering Saul Pullman, ball-hiding Harvey Lewis and fast-charging Bill Upchurch took times about in eating up yardage. Lewis' passes were one of the big surprises of the evening. The Maverick quarterback thrilled the overflow crowd by hitting his receivers time and time again.

Lipsy scored three of the Cisco touchdowns and passed for another and converted successfully three times. He started things off five minutes and 45 seconds deep in the first quarter when he went back to pass, got trapped, danced away from two Mavericks and raced untouched 22 yards for the score. Then he converted.

Lewis went to the air to tie things up. He hit end Dale Slatten, whom the entire Cisco defense lost all night long, with a pass on the one yard line and Slatten merely stepped across. The play covered 22 yards to climax a 57 yard drive. Lewis then converted.

Lipsy put Cisco ahead again 2 1/2 minutes deep in the second quarter. This time he went through a huge hole in the left side of the Mav line from three yards out for the score. This time he failed to convert, however. The drive started after the Mavs got one of their few breaks in the game. They held Cisco on downs when Lipsy tried to go over his own right side on fourth and two. On first down Jim Martin fumbled, however, and the Lobos took over on their own 43. From there they started their TD drive.

Eastland tied things up late in the period. Again Lipsy passed to Slatten, this time from 26 yards out, for the score. The Mavs drove from their own 42 for the score, but Lewis failed to convert.

Early in the second half, Lipsy raced 20 yards to move Cisco out front again. This was the longest drive for Cisco, as they moved all the way from their 33 in 11 plays. Again Lipsy went back to pass, and again the Maverick line charged past him, leaving him in the open. This time he successfully converted.

Upchurch Scores

Upchurch found paydirt for Eastland on the next series of downs. Taking the Lobo kickoff on his own 10, he raced to the Lobo 49 before Lipsy made a great tackle, injuring himself on the play. He was the only man between Upchurch and paydirt. Eight plays later he raced over the right side of the line for the score. J. C. Jarrett then converted to make the score 20-20.

Lipsy went to the air to score the final Lobo touchdown. He hit end Johnny Trigg beautifully from 15 yards out for the score. The drive itself carried 55 yards.

Lewis went over from the five on a keeper play early in the final period for the final Eastland tally. The Eastland drive started on the Mav 29 and went over in just seven plays, as the Mavs put on their most brilliant offensive performance of the night. Jarrett's extra point try, which would have tied the game, was not good.

Eastland held Cisco on the next series of plays, bringing down Lipsy inches away from a first down on the Mav 27.

Upchurch then took it to the 30, Martin failed to gain and then

Wilson Attends Banking School In Colorado

BOULDER, Colo. — H. Thomas Wilson of Eastland recently attended the Colorado School of Banking at the University of Colorado.

Wilson, who lives at 405 Pershing, president of the Eastland National Bank.

The school is sponsored by the Colorado Bankers Assn. with the cooperation of the university's School of Business.

The sixth annual school was attended by about 75 bankers from several nearby states. It is designed to provide an intensive course of study on banking and an opportunity to participate in the discussion of comprehensive banking problems.

On the faculty of the school were 22 banking "experts". Among them was Henry W. Riley, treasurer of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, Washington, D.C., who addressed the group at a special convocation.

Cisco Junior College Coach Arnett Weeks says he is really an expert track coach. He was telling about the boy who reported for drills at CJC last year, who had set a high jump record in high school.

"He was great," Weeks related to Eastland Lions, "and I went to work on him. It didn't take me but a week to cut a full foot off his jump."

Eastland police got on the ball this week. They received a pickup order on a stolen car from Midland. Six hours after the car was stolen they reported to Midland officials. They had the car, and the youthful thief.

THREE NEGROES TO PLAY ON CISCO JUNIOR COLLEGE 11

Cisco Junior college will play three negroes on their football team this year. Coach Arnett Weeks told Eastland Lions this week.

Coach Weeks said the school had decided to go ahead and admit negroes, and at the present time it appears that three of them will make the Wrangler squad this year. He said that "all the boys are playing together." Speaking of the negroes, he said, "they are friends of every boy out there."

He admitted that the school expected some criticism, but said he felt that the college had done the right thing by abiding by the law of the land.

Looking at his team as a whole, Weeks said he expected to field a stronger team, "although we may not have as good a win-loss record as we did last year."

The Wranglers will open against Fort Hood, one of the strongest

Mrs. Bill Tucker

Thursday's high wind in this vicinity reached terrific proportions. Some Farms had outbuildings damaged and all loose pieces of sheet iron and tubs, oil cans and what have you scattered. Some hail fell, knocking out the cotton, where there was cotton open.

Ernest Broom reported damage to the ceiling and wall paper during the storm. The force of the strong wind sagged the canvas, tearing out the tacks, and letting the paper loose. The house was insured.

Rainfall only amounted to a scant half-inch.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Karnes, Judy and Pat, from Denton were week end visitors in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Broom. The family had supper Saturday night with another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wolford and son, Jim Bob, in DeLeon.

The Karnes were en route home after a vacation trip to the Valley and old Mexico. Mrs. Karnes works and assists the head dietitian at North Texas State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Iley's children were visitors at various times throughout the week. Mr. and Mrs. Milton LaGow, and Howard and Wayne Iley and their families from Fort Worth, and Mrs. Cicero Arnold and family of Temple.

Mrs. Iley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gowan of Gorman also visited them Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Deal, and her brother, Arthur Lockhart, of Ranger, visited the Bill Tuckers Sunday afternoon. They report more rain in that neighborhood. In fact Cheaney reports around two inches, in places.

Judy Deal is visiting with the LaCroy family in Lamesa this week. Arthur Lockhart, a World War I veteran, reported back to the Veteran's hospital on Tuesday for check-up and further treatment.

Things are bound to be better over the John Tucker way. Everybody, and that includes Uncle John Tucker, 86, who seldom gets out, was gone Sunday. We can imagine they were dinner guests of the Richard Tuckers. We just hope he was not in the hospital — which could very well be — since he is ill most of the time.

Farmers

These are designed to help farmers in areas designated for the Rural Development program, who are unable to obtain enough land resources to develop full-time farms. Loans may be made for operating and developing less than family-type farms, if the applicants are established bona-fide farmers who have historically resided on farms and depend on farm income for their livelihood, and who are conducting substantial farming operations and spending a major portion of their time farming. Such operations must have dependable sources of outside income. When such loans are made for operating expense, they bear interest at five per cent and are repayable over periods up to seven years. Loans for real estate development bear interest of 4 1-2 per cent and are repayable over periods of up to 40 years.

6. Special Livestock loans. Initial loans of this type will be available until July 14, 1957, and loans to indebted borrowers can be made until July 14, 1959. Such loans are made to help established producers of cattle, sheep and goats maintain their normal operations. Loans are made for replacement livestock and for purchase and production of feed and for other operating expense. Interest is five per cent and loans are repayable in one to three years. They are not made to pay existing debts.

Emergency loans. These are made to enable farmers to continue normal operations but not to refinance existing indebtedness. They bear interest at the rate of three per cent. Ordinarily loans secured by liens on chattel property are scheduled for repayment within one to five years. Loans for crop production are due when the crop is harvested.

Eligibility for all types of loan assistance available is determined by a three-man county Farmers Home administration committee.

$200,000 To Be Given In Prizes to Kids

More than 2000 junior livestock and poultry exhibitors will compete for rewards that probably will exceed $200,000 in the junior livestock shows and sales during the second week of the 1956 State fair of Texas, Oct. 6-21.

Premiums in the junior shows amount to $17,192 for fat and market steers, dairy heifers, lambs, barrows, broilers and market turkeys, but the big jackpot at the end of the rainbow lies in the auction sales which follow the shows.

Last year 1074 boys and girls from all over Texas went home with money jingling in their jeans from the sale of livestock and poultry that brought a grand total of $176,974.51 over the auction block. These receipts were in addition to all cash premiums and sales by private treaty after sifting.

At least 3000 entries are expected for sifting and judging in the 1956 junior, livestock and poultry shows.

Junior judging begins Oct. 6 with market turkeys. Junior egg production flocks will be judged Oct. 8, broilers Oct. 13, dairy heifers, fat steers and lambs Oct. 17, pigs and market steers Oct. 18. Auction sales will be held for market turkeys Oct. 10, broilers Oct. 16, fat steers Oct. 19 and lambs and barrows Oct. 20.

4-H Girls Hold County-wide Club Party

Three 4-H girls of Eastland county recently planned a county-wide 4-H party for both boys and girls. Rose Mary Berry, Jean Berry, and Kathleen Ziehr decided that they would enjoy teaching the games and songs they had learned at district camp and at Round-Up at Texas A&M to the rest of the 4-H'ers of this county. All three girls are outstanding in their 4-H Club work and they planned and executed the party almost entirely by themselves. They seemed to enjoy every minute of it and they did an excellent job.

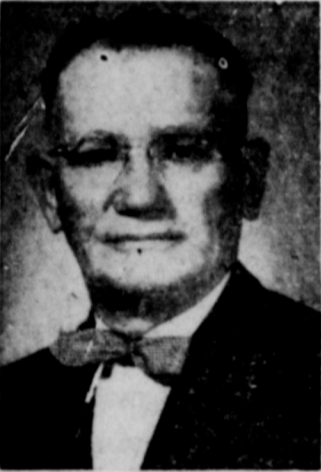

The party was held in the American Legion Hall in Eastland with approximately 80 people attending.

During the year more county-wide 4-H parties will be planned and it is hoped that each club member will try to attend these and other 4-H functions. Parents are always welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Willman . . . marry Saturday

Miss Clarkson, James Edward Willman Are Married in Dallas

Miss Rowena Sue Clarkson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Roy Clarkson, Sr., of 5743 Kenwood, Dallas, became the bride of James Edward Willman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Willman, Eastland, in a double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. Saturday, September 1, in the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Dallas.

Dr. Walter A. Bennett, pastor of Westminster Church, officiated. Bruce M. Dougherty played the wedding music, among which numbers was "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" by Charles Gounod. She also accompanied Mr. Maurice Peterman, who sang as a pre-nuptial number "O Perfect Love," and at the close of the ceremony sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white taffeta and Chantilly lace beaded with seed pearls and sequins. It was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. Her bouffant nylon tulle skirt was covered by a lace front, with tiered ruffles down the back which ended in a chapel-length train. Her crown of seed pearls held her finger-tip length veil of imported French tulle. She wore a single string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Pat Clarkson of Los Angeles, California, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; and John Whatley of Eastland was best man.

Bridesmaids were Misses Suzanne Goff, Glenda Smith, and Shirley Sandkuhl, all of Dallas. Their frocks were identical to that of the maid of honor, except for the fact that hers was a deeper shade of blue. All wore frocks of powder blue crystalline in princess style, each with large back bow of blue satin ribbon. Short sleeves complimented the round necklines, and the bouffant skirts were waist length. The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore tiny caps of blue velvet leaves, matching mitts and blue satin shoes. They carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Ushers were Lester Mills of Mesquite, cousin of the groom; Winston Rhea of Temole, SMU roommate of the groom; Robert Jackson, Sam Griggs, and Eddie Smith, all of Dallas.

Candlelighter was Edgar Roy Clarkson, Jr., brother of the bride. Stephen Dennis Clarkson, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer, and flower girl was Dana Fullbright.

The bride's mother wore a gown of light blue brocade trimmed with blue satin. Her light blue-beaded hat matched her blue shoes and gloves. Her corsage was of white fluted asters.

The groom's mother chose for her gown a periwinkle blue nylon marquisette over net and taffeta. She wore periwinkle blue matching shoes and flower hat. Her gloves were white, matching her corsage of white fluted asters.

The church decorations consisted of four candelabra, each holding seven candles, surrounded by solid greenery, and two arrangements of white gladioli and large mums in silver containers. There was a white satin kneeling bench at the altar, and a hundred feet of white aisle runner down which the wedding party walked. White satin bows marked the reserved pews.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. House party members for the reception were Mrs. John Whatley of Eastland, Miss Judy Lane of Houston, Mrs. L. S. Hopkins, and Misses Martha Powers, Emily Warner, Dana Garfield, Ellen Haraway, Dorothy Schultz, Camille Pratt, Diane Hopkins, and Pat Agosta.

The bride's table with cover of ruffled white net over taffeta was centered with two silver candelabra holding white tapers, and from them trailed stephanotis and small blue flowers. White and blue mints, gift of Mrs. W. E. Cooper of Eastland, in silver composites further carried out the bride's chosen colors of blue and white. At one end of the table was the crystal punch bowl, and at the other was the three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom. In the decorations of the cake were ornaments from the 50th wedding anniversary cake of the bride's paternal grandparents.

The cover on the registration table was of white taffeta. On the table was a silver candelabrum holding white tapers, the bride's bouquet, and bride's book.

When the couple left for a trip to San Antonio and other points in South Texas, the bride wore a dark fall dress with matching hat, shoes, and gloves. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School, where she was a member of the National Honor Society. She will attend Southern Methodist University this fall. The bridegroom is a graduate of SMU, where he was a member of Delta Chi, Alpha Psi, and the Mustang Band. He is now employed in the sales department of Burroughs Corporation of Dallas. The couple will make their home at 4811 Matilda, Dallas.

Among the out of town guests other than those already named who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whatley and Miss Ellen Whatley of Eastland, Rev. Jackson C. Oglesby of Fort Worth, Mrs. Deo L. Mills of Mesquite, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Willman, parents of the groom.

The evening of August 31, Mr. and Mrs. Willman were host to 27 guests for the rehearsal dinner at The Dolly Madison Tea Room, Dallas.

First Christian Church Pastor To Begin New Sermon Series Sunday

The following activities are announced for the coming week as part of the program of the First Christian Church:

Church school will gather at 9:45 a.m. Sunday to study "The Source of Human Conflicts," based on the third and fourth chapters of James. This school meets under the guidance of consecrated teachers to consider the "Art of Christian Living." Classes are available for all ages.

Morning worship and communion will be held at 11 a.m. Mrs. W. E. Lewis will be at the organ and Howard Gill, choirmaster, will be in charge of the special music. The pastor, Roy M. Turner, will be starting a new series of sermons this Sunday on the general theme: "Words of Power." The series will consist of three sermons based on a discussion of the words — Share, Mercy and Praise. The sermon this week is based on: "Their security should be invested in the life to come, so that they may be sure of holding a share in the life which is permanent." 1 Timothy 6:19 (Phillips translation). The sermon is entitled: "A Word of Power — Share."

"Hidden Rocks" will be the meditation subject at the 7:30 p.m. Vesper Service. Text for the message will be: "Some fell upon a rock; and it withered away." Luke 8:8. Communion is served every Sunday evening for those who were not able to be present at the morning service.

The executive board of the church will meet in the Fellowship Hall Sunday evening following the Vesper Service. Jerry Freese, board chairman, will preside.

The first meeting for the CWP groups will be held Monday, September 10th. The following groups will meet at 3 p.m. Group No. 1 with Mrs. Lon Horn; Group No. 2 with Mrs. N. L. Smitham; Group No. 3 with Mrs. Neil Day. Meeting at 7:30 p.m. Group No. 4 (young mothers) will meet with Mrs. Bernard Hanna.

The "Prayer Workshop" will meet Tuesday morning at 9:30 to consider the theme: "Work for a Better Tomorrow than Today." This material is being taken from the book by Frederick Ward Kates entitled: "The Use of Life." All women interested in intercessory prayer are invited to participate in this group.

The chancel choir will meet Wednesday night at 7 p.m. with the choir master, Howard Gill. The first meeting of the new season was held last week with 14 present. "We are hoping for a choir of 20 voices this year," Gill said.

Christian Science

The vital importance of honoring God in thought and in deed will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the lesson — sermon on "Substance" is the Golden Text from Proverbs (22:1): "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold."

The importance of spiritual values will be emphasized in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (239:5): "Take away wealth, fame, and social organizations, which weigh not one jot in the balance of God, and we get clearer views of Principle. Break up cliques, level wealth with honesty, let worth be judged according to wisdom, and we get better views of humanity."

Scriptural selections to be read include the following (Proverbs 3:9): "Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of thine increase."

"Now, aren't you glad we saved regularly for this at

This is How it Works Out—

Insurance operates on the theory that the worst never happens, and it seldom does. Insurance says: "You will have no losses for a whole year." You challenge, pay the premium, and wait. Who wins? The law of averages gives the premium to the insurance company, and a full year's protection and satisfaction to you, and, like the story, it ends well, everybody is happy but the poor fellow who wasn't insured the year the law of averages went hay-wire!
