He was returned to the Texas penitentiary.

THE 'NEW DEAL' CONGRESS IS ON WAY HOME

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The 73rd congress which enacted the framework of President Roosevelt's new deal went home today. The end came undramatically at 11:45 last night to the congress which had vested the president with powers greater than any ever held by a peace-time executive. Today congressmen and senators, most of them seeking re-election, were trekking homeward, anxious to learn what the country had to say about the new course which they have charted for the nation.

Ohio Girl Home To Americanize

CLEVELAND.—A former Cleveland who has taught most American tourists all they know about China is "back home" for a brief visit to re-Americanize herself. She is Miss Helen Burton, former social worker at Hiram House, a settlement house here, and now credited as being the outstanding business success in the Orient. Miss Burton is owner of Camel Bell, an executive Peiping shop dealing in Chinese crafts. The shop has two branch offices in America and connections in Paris, Moscow, Berlin, Shanghai and Manila. Miss Burton's Peiping home is a salon for all distinguished travelers. Besides a town house, Miss Burton has leased a former Buddhist temple, which she has decorated as a country residence. Her recent visitors have included George Bernard Shaw, Alexander Woolcott, Will Durant. Miss Burton emigrated to China following service in the American Red Cross' Bureau for Prison Relief, in Washington, D. C. Her first job there was as a tutor in English to a viscountess of an eminent Chinese family.

CLUES SOUGHT TO AMERICAN WOMAN ABROAD

VIENNA, Austria, June 19.—Elaborate efforts had been made to remove clues pointing to Miss Agnes C. Tufverson from her baggage seized here, police revealed today. The baggage containing the missing American woman's clothes, jewels and other articles, was seized by Ivan Ponderj and his beautiful French companion, Mlle. Susanne Ferrand, who are under arrest. By the use of an invention police examined surfaces. It revealed Miss Tufverson's name on labels on the baggage which had been obliterated to the naked eye. Meanwhile police sought to trap Mlle. Ferrand into some admission that would disclose the fate of the Detroit and New York lawyer. After the seizure of jewels, clothing and books that had belonged to the woman, police were convinced Mlle. Ferrand and Ponderj could tell what happened to Miss Tufverson who disappeared after marriage to Ponderj in New York.

SEVEN NAMED IN CHARGES BY GRAND JURY

Nearly Million Cigaret Tax Stamps Counterfeited According To Report. AUSTIN, June 19.—Twenty indictments naming seven defendants, have been returned as a result of an investigation of cigaret stamp tax counterfeiting, officials said today. They announced that D. H. Willard, an officer of the wholesale tobacco jobbers association was charged in seven indictments. Willard's name was announced following approval of seven bonds of $1,500 each furnished on the charges against him. Identity of others indicted was withheld pending arrests or bonds. Willard was charged with advising, commanding and encouraging the issuance and circulation of 310,000 counterfeit stamps. The stamps are for a three cent tax on a package of 20 cigarets. In one indictment 100,000 stamps are listed. Three other indictments list 50,000 each; one 40,000 and two 10,000. Former Attorney General Claud Pollard, attorney for the wholesale jobbers, who himself announced he had been indicted "unjustly and outrageously," was under bond. State Comptroller George Sheppard, whom Pollard had called upon to "do the right thing" and ask dismissal of the charge against him, said the matter is entirely in the hands of prosecuting authorities. District Attorney J. P. Hart said he will seek trials before the summer term of court opens. He expected a hearing about July 15.

ROBBERS FAIL TO ROB BANK; STEAL GUNS

CHICO, Tex., June 19.—Frustrated in their attempt to rob the First Bank of Chico today, the men looted two stores of merchandise valued at $1,000 and fled with the bank night watchman as captive. The nightwatchman, Wesley Dunaway, was released near Bridgeport. He said the men made him prisoner about 1 a. m. They forced him to accompany them to a filling station where they obtained tools and returned to the bank. Their efforts to open the bank vault were futile. They then robbed the two hardware stores. Their loot included guns, ammunition and clothing.

Steel Strike Truce May Be Permanent

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Steel union leaders offered to make the steel strike truce permanent today, but conditioned the gesture on acceptance of proposals of their own making. They laid a four-point peace plank before Secretary of Labor Perkins. It was based on compromise proposals drafted by William Green, president of the A. F. of L. and accepted by the union convention last week. It differs only slightly from the government's new labor law.

Dental Work Is Clue To Crimes

FLOISSANT, Col.—With every other clue exhausted, authorities of Teller County have turned to the dental profession to help them in solving one of the most fiendish murders in the history of the region. More than a year ago two small boys, hunting berries in the heavily wooded mountains near here, found the body of a young woman. Her skull had been crushed in. An attempt had been made to burn her body, but after the features had been made unrecognizable the fire had been extinguished. She appeared to have been an attractive woman, about 25 years old, with dark blue eyes and brown hair. Her clothing that survived the fire and the careful maneuvering of her fingernails convinced investigators she had been of a family in comfortable circumstances. The sheriffs of nearby counties, who have the reputation of "getting their men," found the crime to be a difficult one to solve. Only one clue now remains. The dental work of the woman was of high order. They believe that by printing a reproduction of the dental work in trade magazines they can establish the identity of the murder victim.

Colored Folks Celebrating Today

Colored folks of Eastland county today were occupied in feasting, speaking, dancing and other endeavors in their observance of Juneteenth or the anniversary of the American negro's emancipation. Ranger and Cisco in the Eastland celebration were well represented and speans whose homes were far away as Lubbock were also numbered among the conglomeration. The celebration proper started at 1 o'clock on Welch field east of Eastland with a barbecue and speeches. Following the barbecue 9:49ers, Eastland soft ball team, were slated to meet the Black Dynamiters. As a windup to the affair a dance and stage show will be presented on the stage of the Cornelia theatre at 9 o'clock. Promised as an entertainment feature on the program is L. C. East who will exercise camp meeting vocal calisthenics in imitation of Cab Calloway. Other persons billed on the program were Happy Jack and educated feet, and a feminine songstress styled "Song Bird of the South." The dance and stage show although designed primarily for the colored folks, sponsors announce, is one to which white brethren are invited to witness.

YOUTH WIELDED AX TO SAVE HIS MOTHER

MAUD, Okla., June 19.—A youth's asserted efforts to defend his mother with an ax from an angry suitor had the suitor in a hospital near death with a split head and the youth in jail without charges today. Lawrence Ragdale, 21, son of Mrs. Romie Stallings, 49, was arrested after he hit George Collum, 45, with an ax in the Stallings home. Officers said they were told Collum, who was keeping Mrs. Stallings' company, had quarreled with her and later came to her home, broke in and struck the woman. Young Ragdale, who told the story, said he heard his mother scream and rushed to her aid from his own home nearby.

Six Are Killed In A Gasoline Blast

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., June 19.—The death toll of an explosion in a farm rose today to six when Wayne Lewis, 14, a spectator, died of burns. Of the 21 injured, still in hospitals, two were said to be in critical condition. Absolute control of moles in garden and peanut fields has been reported to the county agent by G. L. McBee of Mangum. This was accomplished by inserting into the run at various points grains of corn coated with a strychnine poison, such as used in raven poisoning. This poisoned grain is made by dissolving 1-2 teaspoonful of laundry starch in a little cold water, pouring slowly into 8 tablespoons of boiling water, stirring to prevent lumping. When thick like mucilage remove from fire and add 1-8 oz. of strychnine with 10 per cent saccharine mixed in and one teaspoonful of baking soda and stir rapidly; then add one tablespoonful of heavy corn syrup and stir to a smooth creamy paste. Pour this over one quart of corn and stir until grains are evenly coated. This same mixture poured over wheat or milo makes a good poison grain for sparrows. Handle cautiously and keep in mind that you are working with a poison.

Union Houters at Houston On Strike

HOUSTON, June 19.—One hundred fifty union workers employed at the Armour and Swift packing companies here struck for higher wages today. The strike was called when the two companies refused to participate in a conference today, John Malone, national vice president of the union, said. The board estimates that 1,300 strike cases have been taken under consideration, involving 874,000 workers. Approximately 1,000 of these strikes have been settled and 685,000 workers returned to work. Approximately 525 strikes have been averted. So far this year the board has not been very successful in arbitrating the larger strike cases. They unsuccessfully tried to bring about settlement in the Detroit automobile strike early this year and it was taken out of their hands and finally settled by the President. The board was unable to reach a satisfactory agreement in the Weirton steel case and was forced to take legal action, the first round of which recently was decided in favor of the Weirton Company. Regional labor boards have negotiated settlements in the Boot and Shoe industry in New England; the truckmen's strike in Minneapolis; and the automobile accessories strike in Toledo; Pacific Coast boards worked for weeks on an agreement between longshoremen and the shipping industry. 3,755 cases involving over 2,000,000 workers. Eighty per cent of the cases have been settled.

Moles Are Killed By Poison Method

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Labor Advisory Board of NRA sees its greatest achievement during the past year the application to relations between labor and industry which is more flexible than any law, and adapted to varying conditions. The board was established last July through appointment of nine members by Labor Secretary Frances Perkins. Dr. Leo C. Wolman was named chairman. He has been absent since April 15, when he took charge of the automobile strike settlement board at the request of President Roosevelt. Tentative policies of the board have become standards which decide whether a code shall be approved. These standards are similar for related types of industries, in line with general Administration policy to coordinate code administration for related groups. Administrator Hugh S. Johnson has granted the Board the right to name labor men on all industrial relations agencies, and A. F. of L. men are named in all organized industries, except where independent unions have a majority of workers. One of the Board's greatest problems is to find proper labor representation for unorganized industries. Technically trained men are required, impartial and uncontrolled, sympathetic to labor and able to represent its viewpoint, yet without union affiliation.

Gasoline Is Used For Poultry Worms

The use of gasoline for control of worms in poultry has a strong advocate in Bob Smith of Okra who last spring treated 400 chickens with less than two quarts of gasoline. Plain gasoline is used. One teaspoonful is the dose for grown chickens and two teaspoonfuls for chicks. Due to danger of strangulation the gasoline must be inserted down the throat with a small syringe carrying a 2 to 3-inch piece of rubber tubing on the nipple. For small chickens an eyedropper may be used. County Agent Patterson states that nature will take care of most cases of colds and roup if the birds are relieved of intestinal worms.

NRA Labor Advisory Board Seeks To Aid Labor and Industry

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Labor Advisory Board of NRA sees its greatest achievement during the past year the application to relations between labor and industry which is more flexible than any law, and adapted to varying conditions. NUMBER VS. EMINENCE

The old cry in Texas that the primary nominating system and direct election of United States senators has lost the state the service of notable statesmen, and has substituted drab mediocrity by public choice for eminence is just now drawing loud echoes from the rest of the country. Admitted there are no Roger Q. Mills, Charles A. Culbertson or John H. Reagan in public life now.

But there are a few things overlooked in all these lamentations. Outside public life, where are there men of this elder statesman type?

Isn't it a trend to other types of endeavor, and a dearth of ready-made statesmen, rather than a system of election procedure, that denies Texas the service of great statesmen?

Doesn't Jim Hogg stack up pretty well with the other illustrious officials? Would he have reached public office under the aristocratic or autocratic plan of clique control?

Was it better to have six successful practical politicians choose men of resounding reputation and personal honor and integrity, to serve in public place, accountable only to this sort of a clique, than to have a succession of lesser men, but just as honest and conscientious, accountable really to the majority interest and the majority welfare of Texas?

Deeper, more fundamental than that: Were they any bigger anywhere, those few men who talked mightily on a narrow stage, than the hundreds, far less well known, of a later day? Maybe they weren't. Consider this:

The reputation of, say, Daniel Webster, is fixed by the histories. It is enduring. He strides through the pages in majestic glory, even while fighting to preserve the bank of the United States to prey upon the people, and while privately soliciting the bank to renew his annual retainer fee. John C. Calhoun looms a mighty figure, while his sulking revenge was driving northern and southern brothers to a destructive war.

They were great, maybe, because they were so few. Great because people knew so little about them, as compared with present publicizing. Puffed into greatness by the very thing that profited by the tradition of grandeur, the closed coterie that assumed the right to control government and divide places of honor as a vested property right. An able individualist gravitated to politics then as now; his opportunities are broader now than in the convention days.

People claim democracy has come upon evil days throughout the world. They must see, while blaming democracy, that the woes the herald are due precisely to the undermining and obstruction of democracy, the burrowing and scheming that end by thwarting democracy.

These are competitive times. A man's business will be what vision, determination, effort, good horse sense and newspaper advertising make it.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

FREDERICK E. MURPHY, publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune, says:

"One of the great sustaining forces of business during the past five years has been persistent, intelligent advertising, backed up by energetic sales effort. These same 'prosperity twins' right now are proving to be the most reliable factors in business recovery under the New Deal. The reason is simply that advertising and salesmanship have been proved, time and again, to be both potent and effective in creating rapid and continuous turn-over, which is only a short and enlightening term for describing the exchange of merchandise or services for cash, and the creation of profits and payrolls.

"Even in the face of tremendous efforts in Washington to bring back prosperity, business itself can help the cause along by putting back to work its greatest salesman, Advertising, on full time. Its hours of work are not limited by any codes, and it speaks a language that inspires and lifts up the down-hearted.

"The power of Advertising to build prosperity is proved by a survey made by the Advertising Federation of America, covering the 17-year record of 120 corporations. Sixty of them annually increased their advertising appropriations, in spite of depressions, at an average rate of 16 per cent over each previous year.

"Many of these firms were small, but today every one of them is numbered among the foremost of America. They have multiplied their net assets to four times what they were 17 years before. Their combined net profits in one of our recent years of depression were three times greater than in the comparatively good year of 1915.

"G. T. Hodges, former president of the Federation, says, 'This dramatic but truthful testimony to the value of an unbroken advertising policy should bring confidence and inspiration to executives who want tangible proof that a courageous program, even in difficult times, will pay handsomely.'"

Applications For Cotton Tags Still To Be Received

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration announced today that applications for identification tags for cotton ginned prior to June 1, 1934, which is exempt from the tax provisions of the Bankhead control act, will be received after June 15.

ment form, through the county agent.

County agents are being instructed to hold all applications received by them and deliver them to taggers as they go into the field to tag the old cotton. Old cotton under a special regulation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue is permitted to move untagged in the channels of the trade through the month of June.

These instructions are issued as a result of numerous inquiries by telegraph and telephone in order to assure persons interested in the cotton business that all old cotton will be tagged as soon as it is physically possible to accomplish the task and that taggers will act on applications even though the applications are filed after June 15 and are not on government forms.

In making application, holders of old cotton should state the number of bales ginned prior to June 1 and their location.

Galveston Faces Vegetable Shortage

By United Press

GALVESTON.—Galveston county truck and fruit crops and pastures have been hard hit by the drought, according to farmers here and a general shortage of most products is feared.

Galveston Island watermelons and cantaloups, due to reach the market around June 20, will be almost a total loss unless rain is received within the next few days.

The only farmers who have escaped the effects of the drought here are those who have their own irrigation systems.

The gulf coast fig crop is now in a critical condition, it was reported and unless the drought is broken it is expected that production will be limited to about 1,000,000 pounds instead of the 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 expected.

Excessive heat and dry weather brought the local strawberry season to a close earlier than usual this year. Young berries are now ripening but the crop will be short if dry weather continues, farmers said.

Other fruits also are suffering from lack of moisture.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

SALAD meals are the order of summer days because they may be at the same time hearty and light.

The combination of meat and vegetable in hearty salads is fine for summer because it helps to effect a balanced diet. Fruits also may be combined with meats or fish with good results. The vegetable or fruit acts as a filler for the salad and supplies mineral content and ballast in the diet.

The following salad can be varied in several ways, as for instance, Neat cubes of veal and matchlike pieces of carrots substituted for the beans and tongue.

Summer Salad
 One and one-half cups cold cooked beans, 1 cup cold cooked ham, 1 cup cold cooked corn, 2 cups sliced onion, 2 cups sliced green pepper, 2 cups sliced tomato, 2 cups sliced cucumber, 1 cup sliced radish, 1 cup sliced carrot, 1 cup sliced celery, 1 cup sliced lettuce, 1 cup sliced tomato, 1 cup sliced cucumber, 1 cup sliced radish, 1 cup sliced carrot, 1 cup sliced celery, 1 cup sliced lettuce.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Breakfast cereals, cream, scrambled eggs, graham muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Summer salad, toasted muffins, strawberry tapioca pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER: Breaded veal cutlets, creamed carrots, stuffed tomato salad, cherry and rice pudding, milk, coffee.

Dressing, mayonnaise, curly endive.
 Marinade liver and bacon in French dressing for one hour. A few drops of onion juice may be added to the dressing if wanted.

Sweetbread Salad
 Sweetbread salad can take the place of chicken salad for party affairs and is easier and quicker to prepare unless you use canned chicken. The sweetbreads are soaked in cold salted water for one hour, simmered in salted acidulated water for twenty minutes and then blanched in cold water. Remove all membrane and connective tissue and cut in neat dice. Two cups prepared sweetbreads, 2 cups shredded celery, 1-2 cup blanched and coarsely shredded almonds, 1 cup peeled and seeded white grapes, French dressing, mayonnaise, lettuce hearts.

Liver and Cabbage Salad
 Liver and cabbage salad is unusual and delicious. You will need 1 cup diced cooked liver, 2 tablespoons minced cooked bacon, 1 cup diced celery, 2 cups shredded crisp cabbage, French dressing, mayonnaise, curly endive.

Now Playing At The Lyric

By HARRY GRAYSON

Dick Powell and Dolores Del Rio, two of the great cast of star names appearing in "Wonder Bar," First National's unique musical which is now playing at the Lyric.

Followed Dad's Footsteps

THE Fox, who hornstepped six horse teams on his father's farm at the age of 9, grew up in a baseball atmosphere. His dad, Dell Fox, was a catcher, and father and son were teammates in many games.

The Fox was a remarkable all-around athlete in high school, where he twice ran the century under 19 seconds. His 22½ in 1921 remains the high school record for the 229 in the Old Line State. The young Fox high jumped 5 feet 10 inches, and scintillated in basketball and soccer. The only reason he did not play football is that it was not played in the small rural schools down yonder.

Rogers Hornsby and Harry Heilmann were his boyhood idols, and he speaks with all the assurance of Hornsby.

Ruth's mark of 60 home runs isn't at all safe with a five and one-half inch wrist action like that of the former plowboy playing around the plate. Not as long as there is a pair of jackrabbits in each ball, at least.

Golden Days Gone Forever

WHILE the foremost right-handed hitting home run hammer of all time is confident that the left-handed Ruth's maximum will not stand, he agrees with those who do not believe the Bambino's fattest contract— for $89,000 in 1930—ever will be approached again.

Hop Growers on Coast Are Facing A Slower Demand

By United Press

SALEM, Ore., June 19.—The boom from legal beer subsidized, Pacific Coast hopgrowers today faced the 1934 crop with a large surplus, slow demand and prices moderate to low.

Just a year ago, spurred by legalization of beer and impending repeal, dealers bid against each other, running hop prices to 75 cents a pound, one of the highest marks on record.

Hops Fluctuated
 Today hops fluctuated uncertainly between 20 and 30 cents with demand negligible. Failure of beer consumption to reach proportions originally estimated was blamed for the deflation.

Nearly all commercial hops are grown in the three Pacific Coast states, with greatest production in the Willamette and Rouge River valleys of Oregon.

On June 1 Oregon growers held 20,173 bales of hops from the year before, California 16,430 and Washington 6,172. H. A. Cornoyer, secretary of the Oregon Growers Association reported. A year previous the holdings amounted to only 3,204, 2,715 and 1,224 bales respectively. A bale of hops, 200 pounds, is sufficient for 200 barrels of beer.

1934 Crop 85,000 Bales
 Last year Oregon produced 100,000 bales, California 57,000, Washington 39,000. Cornoyer estimated the Oregon 1934 crop at 85,000 bales, with a decrease in Washington and slight increase in California.

Further decline in prices is due when the new hop crop goes on the market late in the summer, observers believed. The surplus now on hand will drop sharply in value before the influx of newly-dried hops, preferred by brewers.

JOLSON AND KEELER WILL NOT PERFORM TOGETHER IN FILMS

Whether or not Al Jolson retires from the screen and in spite of any effect his open attempt to bribe Ruby Keeler, his wife, to abandon her career may have, one thing remains certain about this interesting couple.

They will never appear together in any one picture.

They are agreed about that.

"Al's too nervous," explains Ruby. "It would never do to have him worrying about my part as well as his own."

"It wouldn't be smart," agrees Al. "We've considered it often but we know it wouldn't be smart."

The fact is that Ruby held off her screen career for nearly five years because of Al.

The chance to play a leading part in "42nd Street" was the first chance Ruby actually had to play a part entirely outside of Al Jolson's sphere of influence.

But it is certain the two of them will not appear together in any picture.

"Wonder Bar" is the mammoth musical and dramatic spectacle in which Al Jolson starred for two seasons on the stage. It is included by an all star cast which includes Kay Francis, Dolores Del Rio, Ricardo Cortez, Dick Powell, Hal LeRoy, Jolson, Guy Kibbe, Ruth Donnelly, Hugh Herbert,
