Moore... ABOUT Eastland

By Virgil E. Moore

We don't have to tell anyone who was at the game Friday night, but for those of you who couldn't make it, here is something you should know: Eastland has the best band it has had in years! The Maverick band not only looked good during the game, but they played good, too. And they played all through the affair. They marched into Maverick Stadium in sharp fashion, like a good band should. And once there they kept spirits high with their "football music." Their halftime performance was the best we have ever seen an EHS band give, and they were still around as a unit — instead of here and there — to play a victory march when the game was over.

The credit, of course, must be divided. The band members deserve their share, and so does Land Master Howard Gill.

We have always wondered about these official weather readings, and we are even more doubtful than ever now. The official low Sunday was 39. That's seven degrees above freezing. But Monday morning Ab. J. Blevins Sr. says there was plenty of ice about his home. Must have been colder than the thermometer thought it was.

A pat on the back to Eastland county commissioners for treating the county's money as though it was their own. Too often public officials spend the people's money easier than they do their own. That wasn't the case here Monday.

A representative of the Osburn Co., the firm which recently completed compiling all delinquent tax lists from 1919 through 1954, appeared for the second time in the last two months to again ask the Court to go ahead and pay the $6505.44 they owe for the job. When the representative appeared before the Court he agreed to go ahead and pay the company $1000 upon completion of the job and the remainder as delinquent taxes are paid. The latter way was the way outlined in the contract signed by the Court in either 1953 or 1954.

The company reasoned that "all of the other counties we have done business with have paid in full when the job was completed and for that reason Eastland County should too. The Court recognized that just because several other counties made mistakes they didn't have to make the same one.

We thought the $1000 payment was a mistake, but were pleased to see the Court come out with a flat "no" Monday. The company knew how they were to legally be paid when they took the job.

This week it's Albany! And the Mavericks have been grooming themselves for this one all season long. A victory over the Lions will not assure the Mavericks the District 10-A crown, but it would make them have the inside track without any doubts.

Albany hasn't won a ball game yet. But two of their defeats came in the narrowest margins possible, and their other four losses were strong teams, such as Winters (10-26), victors over Merkel, the top rated Class A team in this area, and Anson and Munday.

The game will be a rough one, for Albany has a lot of tradition back of them. And tradition, despite what you hear 'em say, does win some ball games.

We do hope that Eastland sends the largest crowd to Albany that has ever followed a Maverick eleven. And from what we hear, there is no doubt that they will.

That's it for now.

Dogies To Host Cross Plains Eleven Tonight

Coach Jack Hoffman will send his Eastland Junior High School Dogies against Cross Plains here tonight in a game that will get underway at 7:30 p.m.

In announcing the game, Hoffman also listed three other tilts which his Juniors will play this season. Oct. 30 they will play hosts to Cisco and then Nov. 6 they will travel to Breckenridge. The Dogies will end their 1956 season against Ranger in Eastland Nov. 13.

Ground Observer Training To Begin

Billy Jack Johnson, head of the Eastland Ground Observer Corps, reminded local citizens interested in helping serve as an observer, that classes would begin here today.

Johnson asked that a large number be on hand. The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y have been invited to take part in the Ground Observer Corps training, starting, Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall. Johnson said, Sgt. Buchalter of Abilene will instruct by film and diagram airplane identification. The course will be two hours long each evening (total three Tuesdays in a row) or six hours in all. No other time will be required unless in emergency.

"When you complete the course you will be given the wings of the U.S. Air Force Ground Observer Corps. These will be couched an attendance for those who take the course.

"Sign only if you are sure you can complete the six hours of training," Johnson stressed.

"We have room in the course for 10 boys and 10 girls. More than 10 can sign up and 10 will be chosen from the number listed."

Students signing up include Wayne Phillips, Stan Blevins, Bud Young, Jean Whitten, Sylvia Latham, Marianne Myrick, Barbara Hightower, Jane Jordan,

Damliel Fish Story, We'd Say

Herb Tanner says you can believe this or not, he's only telling it as it was told to him:

Fred Ellis of Ranger said he caught two bass on one plug at the same time last Friday at Lake Leon. Fred stated that both fish evidently bit the bait at the same identical time, because he felt only one strike.

Each bass was about 11-inches long.

Other fishing news as reported by Tanner is that more people were on Lake Leon over the weekend than usual, but not many big strings were reported.

From Lake Leon Lodge Dan Harris of Ft. Worth reported six crappie from one-fourth to three-fourths pounds, three channel cat averaging one and one-fourth pounds, and two bass each around two pounds.

A. L. Little of Fort Worth reported two bass weighing three and three-fourths pounds each, and four bass from one to two and one-half pounds each.

Cliff McCain of Eastland landed a five pound bass.

Achievement Award Goes to Carbon Church

DALLAS — The First Baptist Church of Carbon has been named winner of the annual Town and Country Achievement Award sponsored by the Cisco Baptist Association, spokesmen said here Sunday.

The Rev. Roger Butler, pastor, will receive a parchment scroll and the church a metal plaque which can be displayed in a prominent position outside the building.

Purpose of the achievement program is three-fold:

To stimulate interest and initiative in town and country church work.

To recognize outstanding achievements by pastors and churches.

To help Texas Baptists realize their responsibilities not only to their own local church and community, but to the nation and the world as well.

The association is one of the 122 geographical areas in which the Baptist General Convention of Texas promotes such work each year.

The denomination includes one out of every six persons in the state, with 3704 churches and 1,430,000 members in Texas. Approximately two-thirds of the churches are classified as town and country congregations.

Low Bidder On County Farm Road Announced

Cage Brothers of San Antonio was successful bidder on the State contract to put down 4.8 miles of pavement on Farm-Market Road 2214 in Eastland County.

Low bid was $174,919. The contract calls for paving from the end of present F-M Road 2214 to south of Ranger.

Work is due to start soon.

Eastland County Commissioners Court Monday to tell them they acted too hastily in appointing A. H. Powell of Ranger as county veterans service officer.

Brashear, appearing as a private citizen, presented the Court with a letter of recommendation from the Ranger American Legion post asking that another Ranger veteran be named assistant. The Cisco man himself told the Court that he felt that the head service officer should be in the county seat, "no matter who he is."

Brashear started his argument before the Court by reading them laws concerning the appointment of a service officer. "He must have certification and recommendation" from one of the veterans organizations — either the Legion or the V.F.W.—and your man has neither," he asserted.

"You have no record whatever," he said, "not even an application from Mr. Powell, and not even one from his own post," Brashear added.

The he presented the Court with the recommendation from the Ranger Legion Post that Ray Williams be made assistant county service officer. He said the Post had named Williams Post service officer, and he would do the job Powell will be paid to do in Ranger. "This man is going to get all the information from the Veterans Administration and the Legion, not your man," he informed commissioners.

Brashear pointed out that commissioners had named Powell head service officer while there were two men, James Wright of Eastland and John Nunally of Rising Star, who have been working as service officers for years and are acquainted with the duties.

"Fellows, this is an important job, and one which is underpaid," Brashear professed.

J. E. McCanlies, Precinct 4 commissioner from Cisco, then said, "If we have overstepped our authority, we will just have to void our action."

He and other commissioners explained that Powell's appointment was just to the first of the year, to fill out an unexpired term. One said the action was taken after County Treasurer Richard Cox appeared before the Court and told them that it was the wish of the late Lee Dockery, who had served as service officer for years, that Powell be appointed to replace him, and "Mrs. Dockery said she wouldn't turn over her personal files to anyone else."

Brashear said that was understandable, but he himself had not turned over his personal files when he was replaced as assistant service officer, but that he felt that it was the Court's decision to name a service officer.

Earlier Brashear had told the Court that his appearance before the commission "has nothing to do with the action to get me out as assistant veterans service officer."

Commissioners, on recommendation of Precinct 1 Commissioner J. B. (Tip) Arther, voted to take no action at the meeting. "We need time to study the situation," they agreed.

In other business, commissioners refused a request by a representative of the Osburn Co. to make full payment at this time on the money owed the company for compiling all delinquent tax lists from 1919 through 1954.

State law states that the money shall be paid as it is collected in delinquent taxes. The county made a $1000 payment at the time the list was completed in August. Price tag on the entire job was $6505.44.

All commissioners were present. R. L. (Bob) Carter, who will succeed Henry Carter as Precinct 3 commissioner Jan. 1, also met with the Court.

Commissioners Urge Amendment Support

Eastland County commissioners Monday went on record as favoring the passage of the proposed constitutional amendment which would allow the court to reallocate the amounts levied for the four regular operating funds.

The Court issued the following formal statement, in urging a favorable vote "which would give us the same power the businessman has to regulate his budget."

The statement follows:

"One of the proposed constitutional amendments offered in the Nov. 6 general election presents taxpayers of Texas a rare opportunity — that of saving some money.

"The proposed amendment would allow commissioners courts to reallocate the amounts levied for our four regular operating funds — general, jury, permanent improvement and road and bridge funds — on an annual basis. Now the amounts that can be levied for these funds are fixed by the Constitution and cannot be changed except in regulation elections, which must be held every six years or oftener.

"The proposed amendment guarantees that the total tax could not be raised, for it sets the same maximum as now provided. 80 cents on the $100 valuation.

"No private business could long exist if it had to guess six years in advance on its fiscal operations. Adoption of this amendment would free the counties to operate on a more efficient, business-like basis.

"The people, by adopting this amendment, therefore, can save in two ways: First, their commissioners courts will be given the opportunity to operate their fiscal affairs in a modern way which will make for economy, and, second, they will save the cost of expensive reallocation elections every few years.

"The proposal, undoubtedly, is the most progressive step toward better, more efficient, more business-like county government that has been taken in 100 years or more.

"Remember, under no circumstances could adoption of the amendment cause an increase in county taxes, because it fixes the maximum county levy for the four regular funds at 80 cents on the $100 valuation, which is the same as the present tax levy in our county.

"It deserves the support of every taxpayer, because it gives him an opportunity to save some money.

"This is Amendment No. 2 on your general election ballots."

Dr. Townsend to Attend District VFW Meeting

Dr. E. R. Townsend of Eastland, district surgeon of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will represent Eastland at the fall meeting of representatives from posts meeting in Snyder Saturday and Sunday.

The junior vice commander of the VFW in Texas, Doyle Willis of Fort Worth, will be featured at the meeting.

The group will come from VFW's District 8 which includes Eastland, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Stephens, Shackelford, Jones, Fisher, Scurry, Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, Brown and Comanche counties.

In addition, Mrs. Mamie McCandless of Kingsville, president; Mrs. Ruby Joe Roe of Abilene, senior vice president, and Mrs. Jane Waters of Fort Worth, junior vice president of the Department of Texas, Ladies Auxiliary, are to be in attendance and will be heard at both the joint meeting and in closed sessions of the Auxiliary.

Talmadge E. Dean of Anson is commander of District 8 and Mrs. Annetta Simmons, also from Anson, is president of the Ladies Auxiliary units in the district.

Program notes reflect that support of the proposition to increase funds for and extend the Texas Veterans Land program will be given prior attention and that plans for a district-wide observation of Veterans Day will be discussed.

Sewery County Memorial Post No. 8231, commanded by L. A. Cretshaw Jr., is host to the meeting and elaborate plans have been made for the presentation of the programs and for the entertainment of the attending representatives.

The president of the organization pointed out that members of the Lone Cedar Club were from all over Eastland County. Original stockholders included 24 from Eastland, 18 from Ranger, 11 from Gorman, 10 from Cisco and one from Strawn.

J. I. Encke is the member from Strawn.

Here is the plan for the club as outlined by Dr. Whittington:

"An individual may buy one or more shares," he explained. "This will bring in a total of $37,500. It is with this money that the Board of Directors plans to build the 7000 square foot clubhouse, swimming pool, rough-in 18 holes of golf, roads and fences.

"While this is going on, a new corporation (the social club) will be formed composed of members of the land company and others, but having a different Board of Directors. This new corporation will lease the facilities of the land corporation at a price equal to the depreciation of the value leased. This will be repaid in form of monthly rent, set aside from monthly dues. The land corporation will maintain ownership all the while.

"Stock in the social club will be held by individuals from the land corporation at $150 per share. There will be about 75 additional shares which will be sold to the public at $150 per share, bringing the total membership of the social club to 300, which will be its limit.

"Sale of the social club stock will bring in $45,000 which will be used for operating capital, furnish and complete the clubhouse and finish nine holes of watered fairway golf.

"The social club will have 225 members from land corporation and 75 new members. The land company members will be repaid the $150 with interest and will maintain ownership for the risk capital. The assets will increase as the social club makes improvements, and the final membership will cost no one over $150.

"The reason for the above plan is to enable the average man to be a member at a cost he feels he can afford.

"Until all stock has been fully subscribed and paid for, certificates of ownership will not be issued."

In order to stir up interest in the approaching annual Fort Worth Shrine Circus, a free show will be staged at the Gorman High School auditorium on Tuesday night, Oct. 23, at 8:00 o'clock, featuring Moshiah Temple's "Merry Men of Minstrel" with a cast of 50 entertainers.

The people of Ranger and all surrounding areas are invited to attend this gigantic free show, a fore-runner of the famed "Circus" which is to be held at Fort Worth from Nov. 23 through Dec. 2.

Besides the full Minstrel Show which Eastland Countyites are invited to see, the program will also include stars in TV and other entertainment fields. Among them will be The Sinclair Sisters, Marvin Montgomery and his magic banjo, Cherry Maddox, soft shoe dancer supreme, and Pat Hutche-

 2. To recognize outstanding achievements by pastors and churches.
 3. To help Texas Baptists realize their responsibilities not only to their own local church and community, but to the nation and the world as well.
- The association is one of the 122 geographical areas in which the Baptist General Convention of Texas promotes such work each year.
- The denomination includes one out of every six persons in the state, with 3,704 churches and 1,430,000 members in Texas. Approximately two-thirds of the churches are classified as town and country congregations.

Lighting Tips For New Homes

The following are questions most frequently asked of authorities by families who are buying or building a new home:

What shall I look for when selecting lighting fixtures for a new home or when remodeling an older one?
To avoid the same harsh lighting effect of bare, unshielded bulbs, choose lighting fixtures with frosted, ceramic-enameled or opal glassware. These types of glass shields softly diffuse the light for most comfortable, easy-on-the-eyes lighting.

Clear or thinly frosted glass can't possibly "smooth" the light and conceal the bare bulb. Avoid those heavily painted or other heavy glassware that are so dense the light actually can't get through.

How much should I spend on lighting fixtures for my new home?
That, of course, depends upon what price home you are buying. However, a good rule of thumb is to allow a minimum of at least one and a half percent of the cost of the house for lighting fixtures, including valance lighting for the living room.

Remember, lighting fixtures, like plumbing fixtures aren't replaced as frequently as your floor and table lamps so don't be penny wise and pound foolish. Small inexpensive and inefficient lighting fixtures are no bargain. The nighttime appearance of your home is dependent upon the lighting fixtures you give it. Choose only those that can give service and provide most comfortable and attractive lighting for family living.

How can I be sure when a new house has sufficient electrical outlets for my family's needs?
First of all, visualize your furnishings, both new and old, in each room. If possible, measure furniture and make cut-out patterns to scale. Then, if you don't have a set of plans for your house, borrow them from your builder. Arrange furniture on plans to help locate the outlets so you can enjoy balanced lighting with furniture arrangements and others where you'll really need them. This helps avoid finding yourself with outlets behind heavy pieces of furniture such as sofas, beds or refrigerators. Be sure to show your cutouts and plans to your electrical contractor when deciding where outlets should be placed.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service function of the State Bar of Texas

DOUBLE JEOPARDY

Most likely you can't picture yourself being brought into court on anything worse than a speeding violation. Nearly everyone feels that way. Even so, it is good to know that in this country you can't be made to stand trial twice for the same offense.

We have a provision in the U.S. constitution against "double jeopardy." That's one of the important safeguards in our system of law which makes it certain that once a court has reached a verdict of "innocent," the acquitted person may not be put on trial again for the same offense.

To add to the protection, if a person has been acquitted, the prosecution cannot appeal the case to a higher court. The constitution states specifically: "Nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life and limb."

This right holds good, however, only if a full trial is held and a verdict is reached. It is possible to face another trial on the same charge if the first trial ends with a "hung jury" or a "mistrial," or if a new trial is requested.

A classic example comes from the "Wild West" in the late 18-80's. A man named Ball was charged with murder, along with two others. Ball was acquitted, but the others were found guilty. The guilty pair appealed to a higher court, and their original indictment was found to be faulty.

Once again the government accused all three men. Ball claimed his right against double jeopardy had been invaded, and the U.S. supreme court agreed. He didn't have to stand trial again. The other two did, and paid the penalty for their guilt.

The reason for the "double jeopardy" provision is to protect the individual from being hounded all his life. In old England, where the fear of tyranny first prompted safeguards for personal freedom, one court said: "Were it not for this rule, anyone obnoxious to the government might be run down by repeated attempts to carry on a prosecution against him."

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variation in facts may change the application of the law.)

'How Music Was Made' Music Club Program Topic

"How Music Was Made" was the program theme for the Wednesday meeting of the Music Study Club held at 3 p.m. in the Woman's Club.

During the business session presided over by the president, Mrs. R. L. Carpenter, the group voted to extend the bake sale indefinitely. The finance committee, Mrs. T. E. Richardson, Mrs. A. D. Dabney, Mrs. W. E. Brasher and Mrs. Howard Gill agreed to take orders for home baked food prepared by members.

Mrs. Brasher, program chairman, began the program with the song of the month, "When Morning Glolds the Sky" by Carswell-Bornaby. Mrs. H. M. Hart then presented a very interesting talk on "How Music Begins" by Barbour and Freeman.

Before singing "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," by Gounoud, Mrs. A. F. Taylor explained that it was Ruth's song to her mother-in-law, Naomi, when she said "Thy people shall be my people and thy God my God."

The group was given a better insight on the many phases of composing when Mrs. Brasher spoke on "How the Composer Works" by Aaron Copeland.

A trio consisting of Mmes. Howard Gill, A. L. Gallagher and G. E. Denny sang "Halls of Ivy" by Henry Russell and Vic Knight and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The program was closed with Miss Charlotte Vaught playing Beethoven's Sonata, Op. 13, Number eight, Allegro, Adagio, Rondo.

Fortieth Anniversary Observed By Thursday Afternoon Club

The Thursday Afternoon Club observed its fortieth anniversary Wednesday with a formal tea honoring its past presidents and charter members in the Woman's Club.

The club was organized in 1916 with 25 charter members, six of whom were present for the tea. They were Mmes. Earl Conner, Sr., Allen D. Dabney, B. F. Lovett, O. P. Morris, Joe Reid and R. E. Sikes.

The receiving line was made up of the charter members and 19 past presidents who were Mmes. Conner, John D. McRae, James Horton, J. E. Hickman, of Austin, F. M. Kenney of Decatur, Dan Childress of Abilene, Victor Ginn of Fort Worth, Ben Hamner, W. F. Davenport, Frank Castleberry and Frank Sparks.

A large easel, arranged with numerous photographs of members, decorated the club house and created much interest. The pictures, with Mrs. R. E. Sikes in charge, were titled, "Pastin Photography."

At intervals during the afternoon, the guests were entertained with popular ballads of 40 years ago presented by a chorus composed of Mmes. C. W. Hoffman, Virgil Seaberry, Jr., Ben Hamner, Grady Pipkin, M. A. Treadwell, Howard Gill, Jack Frost and Frank Sparks. The group was under the direction of Mrs. Cyrus Frost, Jr. and accompanied by Mrs. Donald Kinnaird.

Decorations and appointments for the tea table were in pink and silver to carry out the club's color.

9:49 Class Has Lesson Sunday On Commandments

Closing out the final days of his leadership of the Jewish people after taking them through 40 years of wandering about the desert of Asia Minor, Moses, reviewed the Ten Commandments to his people; told them to obey them and to teach them to their children, Frank Sparks told the Men's 9:49 Bible Class Sunday.

Sparks said Moses told the Jews to keep the commandments engraved in their hearts as well as on their door posts and see that their children knew and kept them.

He was speaking on the general subject, "God's Command to Teach," taken from the International Sunday School lesson.

The attorney also said a big part of the so-called juvenile delinquency stems from the lack of good, proper training at the home.

On the proposition that there are no bad boys some people have done a remarkable good work and painting their names on the pages of history for all to read about. Father Flanagan and his Boys-town, Nebraska, for example. And there's Cal Fraley and his Boys Ranch just northwest of Amarillo. These two organizations have done wonders with boys who other people had given up on; how much good we can do with our own children who have never been confronted with some of the problems these other boys have.

Class President Travis Harrell said he would like to see a few more men in Bible study next Sunday morning. He didn't have to close the doors to the meeting place as there was plenty of space for all who came Sunday.

Next Sunday the class will turn its attention to one of the most beautiful passages in the Bible, the Twenty-Third Psalm. This is one most class members learned to recite by heart when they were kids and it's one they can profit by now by further study.

Harrell said it will be interesting to come out and see how Sparks handles the Twenty-Third Psalm. And he added he hoped to see everyone "next Sunday at the 9:49 at 9:49."

Double Seven Cake Winner Is Named Monday

Members of the Double Seven Club held a cake drawing Monday and Mrs. J. U. Johnson of Mode 'O Day was named winner. The meeting was held in the home of Dixie Durham.

A short business session followed the drawing.

Refreshments of Cokes, cookies, Fritos and peanuts were served to the following members present: Laura Harris, Sandy Taylor, Cora Mendieta, Nancy Beck, Jackie Baggett, Rosemary Jones, Judy Inzer, Pat Fullen, Linette Capers, Janie Arther, Jannie Morton, Phyllis Phillips, Ola Stuard, Dixie Durham and the hostess.

Marlite Gives Glamor

GLAMOR in a basement is relatively simple to acquire nowadays. The main elements needed in transforming an ugly area into an attractive recreation room is a wall covering and a new ceiling.

Marlite planks and blocks are ideal for such a conversion, because they are economical in cost, simple to install and self-maintaining. They never need re-decorating, as they have a plastic finish over a durable Masonite hardboard base. Occasional wiping with a damp cloth is all that's needed.

Planks in the illustration are one of the handsome woodgrains available in Marlite plank and block. Ceiling blocks and those in the area over the fireplace are one of the pastel shades, also available in a large variety.

These planks and blocks are wonderful for the do-it-yourself craftsman. Tongue and grooved edges and metal clips make their installation easy and quick. A simple nailing method holds the paneling securely in place over old walls or furring strips. The convenient size of the planks, 16" x 8", and blocks, 16" square, makes it simple for one person to apply the materials. All nails are hidden.

October Treat; A Deep-Dish Vegetable Pie

Appetites vary according to seasons and the cool, sometimes chill winds of October are just what the doctor ordered to make the family ravenous. This is the best of months—before the frost arrives—for combining bountiful, flavorful harvest vegetables in a hearty dish that will satisfy hunger and still have the family begging for more.

Here's a recipe for an October treat that is delicious and different—a deep-dish vegetable pie. The vegetables are simmered gently to produce a mouth-watering medley of flavors and they are topped with a crust equally as delicious as the filling itself. Light, crisp and tender, the crust is made with golden shortening to give it its special golden flakiness. The harmony of flavors between crust and filling makes this an ideal dish to serve as a main Autumn luncheon course or as a special dish for the evening meal.

Deep-Dish Vegetable Pie
1 small eggplant, sliced
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon oregano
1/2 green pepper, finely chopped
3/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
3 zucchini, sliced
1 onion, sliced
3 large tomatoes, sliced
Golden pastry for one crust
Dredge the eggplant lightly in flour. Blend shortening with the 3 tablespoons flour to make a smooth paste. Place a layer of eggplant in a greased casserole, sprinkle with half the salt, oregano, green pepper, and cheese and

United States Auto Club

Never before in history has anything built by man traveled so far in so short a time—by land or sea!

An announcement of decisive importance to anyone about to buy a new automobile

The most exhaustive endurance test ever given an automobile has just been completed by two stock '57 Fords—identical in every respect with cars now being offered by Ford Dealers.

Under the supervision of the United States Auto Club and the Federation Internationale de Automobile, each of these two '57 Fords traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days. Ford No. 1 averaged 108.16 mph for the entire run... Ford No. 2, over 107 mph. These averages include time for all pit stops.

In all, the '57 Ford smashed 458 national and international records.

This test was run on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah... it was the longest left turn in history.

A car, like a man, is known by its deeds, not words.

That is why, we at Ford, despite our confidence in our '57 cars, let their deeds of accomplishment speak for themselves.

Therefore, we engaged an independent engineering organization to test our '57 cars more thoroughly than any other cars have ever been tested before—in this country or abroad.

We provided them with '57 Fords—cars identical with those now offered by Ford Dealers. The rest we left up to them.

Here is what they did:

They took these cars to the Salt Flats at Bonneville, Utah.

Here, twelve of the world's greatest drivers took over.

In relays they drove these cars night and day for a distance greater than twice around the world... a distance equal to 5 years of normal driving.

Not in all history has a man-built machine traveled so far in so short a time—by land or sea!

But this was not a test of speed—but of endurance of the "Inner Ford." A trial to take the measure of Thunderbird Y-block V-8 power without qualification of any kind. A test of running gear—of brakes, of materials in body and chassis. Of steering and roadability, yes, and comfort, too!

A test, indeed, such as no other cars have ever undergone, let alone successfully concluded.

Surely they have told you, in decisive terms, that they are worth more when you buy... and when you sell!

Your Ford Dealer will gladly place at your disposal the new kind of Ford that means a new kind of value for your car-buying dollar—the greatest the world has ever seen.

The Beethoven Junior Music Club opened its club season with members gathering at the home of their sponsor, Mrs. A. F. Taylor October 15.

The hymn of the month, "When Morning Glides the Skies" was sung by the group and was preceded by an interesting story of the hymn told by Mrs. Taylor.

Phyllis Phillips gave an interesting account of Theron Kirk, a young composer who teaches music at Laredo Junior College. His suite entitled "Vignettes" will be played by the San Angelo Symphony Orchestra October 22. Phyllis also gave a short biography of Richard Maag of Austin and Wesley Casey of Marshall. The entire article was written by Marshall Comer. Phyllis concluded her program by playing "The Cat and the Mouse" by Aaron Copeland on the piano.

"Music in the United States is Really Big Business Today" by Clyde Whitlock was told by Jan Robertson, who also played a modern piano number, "Carnival of Venice" by Schumann. Linda Huckabay play a modern solo, "Espagnol" by Masters.

Glenn Jordan from Kokomo were visitors in the Jimmy Little home Wednesday morning.

Jan Robertson was elected delegate to the Sixth District Texas Federation of Music Clubs Convention to be held November 10 during a business session presided over by the president, Linda Huckabay. Ruth Miller was elected alternate. The convention will be at Sonora. The Junior Ritual was read by the assembly.

The Taylor home was decorated with arrangements of red geraniums and abelias. Refreshments of angel food cake topped with ice cream and cherries and Cokes were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be November 22 at 7 p.m.

Rams Vs. Rebels Is Big Game In Pioneer Loop

San Angelo's undefeated Rams and Arlington State's unbeaten Rebels will meet Saturday night at Arlington in the week's banner Pioneer Conference football scrap-a game which probably will eliminate the loser from title consideration.

The two, co-holders of the loop lead this week with Tarleton State at one victory each, feel that the Saturday game is a "must" in the five-member conference chase where one loss usually means no title.

There'll be no pre-game favorite. The Rebels were impressive in their conference opener last week, bowing over Schreiner Institute, 40-0. But the Rams were just as potent two weeks ago in a 40-6 victory over Ranger. Arlington State has a 12-12 tie on its record. But the Rams edged Victoria by only two points and squeezed out a 14-13 victory over Wharton, 25-0 victims of the Rebels earlier in the season.

A second conference meeting, with Tarleton State entertaining Schreiner Institute at Stephenville, should produce a Plowboy victory.

Schreiner, winner of one start in five tries this season, will have an uphill battle trying to halt Tarleton's undefeated, high-scoring crew. Ranger draws a non-conference opponent this week, meeting the H-SU "B" team at Abilene Friday. The Rangers, with two losses in as many conference starts, are out of the title picture after bowing, 0-32, to Tarleton last week.

Last week's PC grid action further emphasized pre-season predictions that Tarleton State, San Angelo and Arlington State would battle it out for the title. All three were shutout winners as TSC rolled over Ranger, 32-0; the Rebels topped Schreiner, 40-0; and San Angelo stopped Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, 13-0.

Tarleton's victory over Ranger came on a 25-point scoring spurge in the second half, including a 19-point fourth quarter, with five men scoring touchdowns. Arlington State also put on a rousing finish after being held to a single TD in the first half by an alert Schreiner defense. San Angelo took to the air in its non-conference contest, netting 235 yards on 13 pass completions in 30 tries. The Ram defense held Northeastern to a total gain of 89 yards.
