CONNALLY OF TEXAS DEMANDS NEW MONEY

Tom Connally of Texas continues to walk the stage of action. He is drafting a bill to recall all outstanding currency "and to issue new money in its place in an effort to bring hoarded money out of hiding." Holders of existing bills and coin would be required to turn them over to the government in exchange for the new money.

MUSSOLINI THE HIGH ACE OF THE HOUR

Mussolini held an election in Italy. There was an enormous vote polled. He cast 98 per cent of it for the government. It was a unanimous verdict on the part of the voting population for the remarkable man and the largest vote of confidence ever given to a single individual.

TEXANS AND HOW THEY VOTED ON THE VETO MESSAGE

Texas has 21 congressional representatives. That is, 21 house members. This is campaign year. The house roll call is interesting. The showdown came on the veto of the independent officers and veterans appropriation bill.

Minorities are powerful and always active in election years. There is a reason for it. Those who expect re-election find themselves in a tight box. They do not know which way the political cat is going to jump.

The permanent staff of the Post-office Department, which Farley hopes to make break even under his regime, is effective and it pretty much runs itself, including the postal savings and postal inspection departments.

Farley, who affects green socks and ties, and green ink for his signature, is the cabinet gladiator. He's only 45, has three children, and lives in a big Washington hotel.

That, and belonging to many organizations, such as the K. of C., Red Men, Elks, and a long list of clubs, is all a part of genial Jim's stock in trade.

Jim wouldn't have much time for the New Deal administrative jobs. He's too busy fighting off a continual stream of people who sit endlessly in his outer office, waiting. For jobs.

"—A MOTORIST NEEDS TO WATCH HIS NERVES, TOO, MR. TILDEN"

W. E. Richards, Jr. of Lansford, Pa., who rode nearly 20,000 miles in his car last year, says:

"I'm a real tennis fan, Mr Tilden, and I know it takes healthy nerves to play championship tennis year after year. But don't forget, it takes healthy nerves to drive a car, too. Trying to see your way in blinding fog or rain...skids...other drivers taking quick, unexpected turns—all are enough to give any man 'traffic jitters'! And yet driving never bothers me a bit. Smoke? I'll say I do. Morning, noon, and night. But I stick to Camels because then I know I can forget all about nerves. And Camels sure taste great!"

William T. Tilden, II, seven times world tennis champion and winner of countless other titles, says:

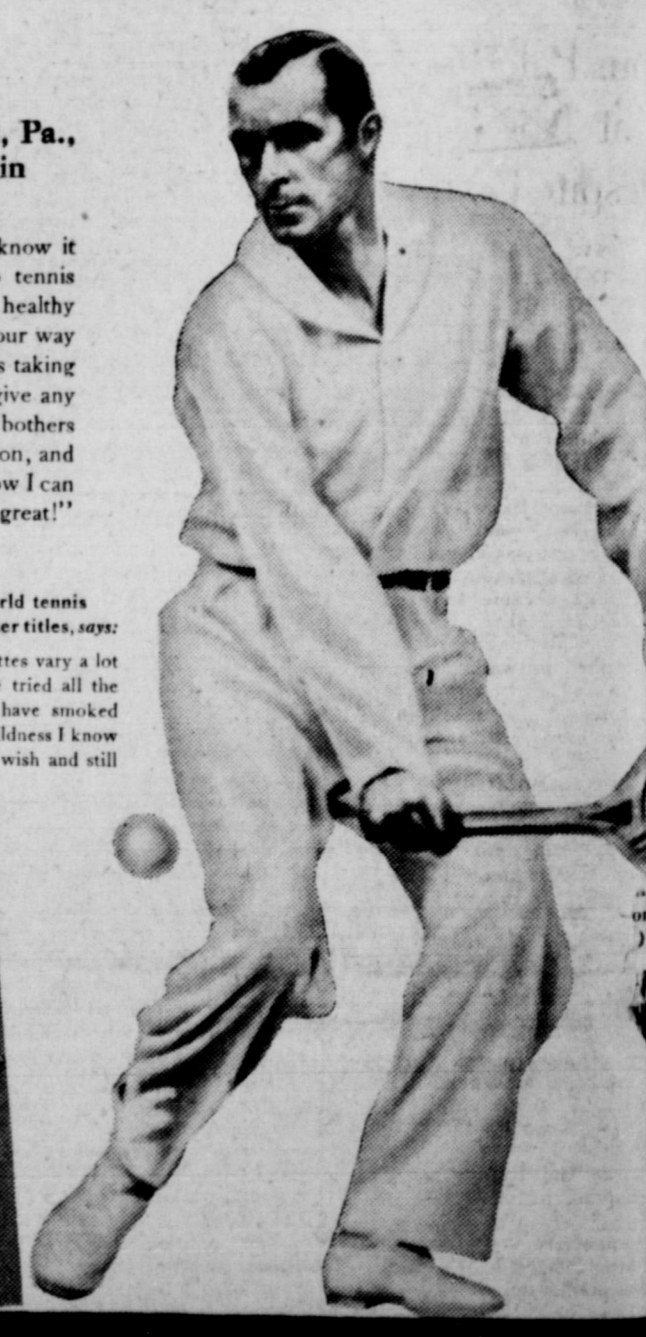

"As a steady smoker, I find that cigarettes vary a lot in their effect upon the nerves. I have tried all the other popular brands, but for years I have smoked Camels. Because of their extraordinary mildness I know that I can smoke Camels as freely as I wish and still have healthy nerves."

How Are YOUR Nerves?

Jittery nerves are everywhere in modern life. You know them by such signs as these—foot-tapping, key-rattling, nail-biting—frowning and worrying. If your nerves are not all they should be, study your habits that might affect them—your eating, your sleeping, your recreations. And get a fresh slant on your smoking by starting on Camels.

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand. Camels never get on your nerves. You can smoke one after another... with increasing enjoyment. Camels are so mild, so delicate—packed with the pleasure of finer, costlier tobaccos! The more you smoke them the more you'll like them.

of the Oklahoma phantom robber, is 27. But in the years of his criminal life he is up a lore nearly equal to Billy the Kid for daring banditry.

Texas prototype, Barrow, is a youth small in stature and almost beardless face, but as equally vicious as his appearance seems otherwise.

Belle Starr, nineteenth century Dallas girl credited with being the fastest woman in the West to draw—faster than most of Barrow's woman companion, Parker, is but a slip of a small in stature and young.

Her cigar has become as notable as the six-shooter of the nineteenth century man-killer.
Officers credit her with being equally as vicious, ready to kill, and while perhaps not as fast on the draw as her husband, a good marksman.

On the days of Floyd and Barrow numbered, officers believe just as those of Sam Bass and Billy the Kid.

amous Palo Pinto
Hermit Not Dead
Despite Rumors

By United Press
LO PINTO, Texas.—Contrary to rumor, Palo Pinto's famous hermit, George the Hermit, is dead, but has moved to a new cave.

The rumor of George the Her-mit's death spread through the country after Palo Pinto folk missented, shuffling figure for an equally long period. His cave at the mouth of Eagle creek on Brazos river, where he has lived for 20 years, was abandoned.
He is known of his past life, as that he became a hermit two decades ago. He lives by an fish and squirrels. On occasions he walks to Palo Pinto to borrow a bit of food, his dog he does in a mud over and keeps on bare rock, according to accounts.

When he disappeared, it was said his dead body would be found in a canyon or some secluded retreat. This fear was dissipated, however, when a band of men recently ran across the cave.

He changed his cave, he told because civilization encroached too near his former home. He sometimes saw a man as once a week.
Occasionally, there would be a man attracted by legends that grew up about him. This could not be a satisfactory state of affairs for the hermit.
George the Hermit moved, leaving a forwarding address, but it is believed his new home is somewhere in the Fortune country of the Brazos, eight miles from his former cave.

Paper Advertising Pays, Wards Declares

The faith of great retail organizations in newspaper advertising has plenty of evidence, but none more convincing, perhaps, than the promotion of Ward Week. Nationally, Montgomery Ward and Company is devoting over 85 percent of its Ward Week publicity to the purchase of newspaper "space."

As to Ranger, the use of liberal advertising in the Ranger Times and Eastland Telegram has proved its value in the most convincing manner, it was stated today by Mr. Fernire, Manager of the Ranger store.

During the last Ward Week, the two big Saturdays in the event were the biggest trade days in the history of the local Ward store. A survey of the checks made out showed that shoppers came from distances as great as 125 miles from Ranger.

Ward Week is a semi-annual event of the Ward stores, and the sale this Spring will attract a greater number of buyers than ever, according to Mr. Fernire.
For weeks, the local store has been preparing for the sale, and when the doors open Thursday morning, the regular selling force will have been enlarged by ten persons, all from this town.

The ROMANTIC RUNAWAY

by KATHARINE
HAYLAND-TAYLOR

BEGIN HERE TODAY
PABLITO, a handsome youth, becomes a fugitive when he flees from Key West to Havana with BEAU and LOTTE, two thieves.
Pablito has been accused of a murder he did not commit.
MARTIN, a social-prominent, could prove he is innocent but fears scandal.

Pablito is in love with ES-TELLE FIELD, daughter of rich ZIM FIELD, in Havana, under the name "Junnie," he becomes celebrated as a boxer and he and Beau open a gymnasium.

SIR AUBREY, a titled Englishman and Pablito's father, is searching for his son, employing BILLINGS, New York detective.

Three years pass and then Pablito sees Estelle again. They admit their love for each other and meet secretly until Estelle's father hears of it. He tells her she must break off with Pablito or he will turn the young man over to police on the old murder charge.

Meanwhile Billings, convinced Pablito is the youth he has been seeking, has cabled Sir Aubrey this news.

NOW ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXXIV
JIM FIELD spoke slowly, eyes on the girl. "If you want to save your Pablito," he said, "you'll write him a letter saying that it's all over—that you never did care for him and the whole thing was a mistake. Otherwise we'll read of his being strangled in that chair.
We've read about it—after it's all over—"

The words ended. There was silence for a time and then Field snapped his watch shut. "Time's up," he said. "What's it to be?" Estelle moved, swaying, toward the desk. She sat down to write unsteadily. Once she sat back, as if unable to go on. Her father picked up the sheet on which she had written the message. "All right," he commented gruffly.

She rose then to face him—a slender flame that had momentarily blazed into scarlet.

"I hate you," she said slowly in a voice that was too quiet. "I shall never stop hating you. My mother hated you. Any woman who knows you will hate you because you are cruel and merciless.
If you ever so much as try to lay your hand on mine I will leave you forever. And remember, please, that I, too, keep my word. Is that understood?"

He tried to laugh but the laugh was a failure. "I imagine I shall get along—in some manner!" he muttered with a poor imitation of jauntness. Estelle gave him a flaming look of hatred and then she, too, smiled—an echo of his smile.

Field pounded down the stairway, pallid and shaking from the force of his anger and the fright Estelle's words had given him.
Carlito was responsible for this, he thought. Carlito who had carried notes between Estelle and Pablito.
"Kerry!" Field howled. Kerry came, alarm on his face.

"Get that—Carlito out of here!" Field roared, his voice breaking.

Kerry swallowed hard and then protested. "But his wife is in labor," he said.

He shrunk as Field answered that, screaming vituperation and every sort of verbal filth. Was that his fault, Field demanded? He wanted the couple out and out

Special Trains Are Urged for Annual WTCC Convention

SAN ANGELO.—Special invitations to larger cities of the Southwest to send special train delegations to the 16th annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, San Angelo, May 14-16, were extended this week by Walter D. Cline, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and by J. H. Jordan, president of the San Angelo Board of City Development.

Included in the list of cities from which special train delegations were invited are Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Oklahoma City, El Paso, Waco, Wichita Falls, Amarillo, and Plainview.

Fort Worth has already announced that it will have an organized delegation as in all former years. Last year at Big Spring Fort Worth won the distinction of having the largest organized delegation present.

Dallas will have its special train on Tuesday, May 15, having included an all-day stop at the convention in the itinerary of its annual good-will train according to H. W. Stanley, manager of the trade and extension department of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce.
Amarillo and Plainview, both aspirants for the privilege of being the host city for the 1935 convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, are expected to send special trains with large delegations to push their claims.

Wichita Falls will run a special train or motor caravan to the convention according to information already received from that city.

LAUNDRY MARKS TO AID COPS

DETROIT, Mich.—Cleaners and laundry-men have returned to the practice of putting identification marks directly on the garment.
Detectives had informed them that their system of pinning a label with the customers' mark to the article of clothing robbed them of valuable clues in identifying both criminals and victims.

French police finally have decided that Alexander Stavisky was a suicide. The next thing to decide is whether his $30,000,000 failure was a failure.

Dear Sir:

We know you will be glad to hear that your paper is to carry a substantial advertising schedule in the campaign for Ward Week, which begins April 12.

Ward Week is our biggest sale of the year, and naturally we want to be sure that the splendid value preparation back of it is adequately conveyed to the public. Your newspaper, we know, will do its part.

It is particularly fitting at this time that we express our appreciation for the ability your paper has shown in keeping our customers acquainted with Ward values.

With every good wish for your continued success,

Sincerely yours,

A TALKIE RICH IN MELODY AND ROMANCE

Boasting a cast of stellar magnitude, telling a lyric and touching love story, and enriched by one of the most beautiful musical scores ever to reach the screen, "The Cat and the Fiddle," which opened today at the Lyric Theatre, stands out as a definite pictorial and melodious achievement.

If only to hear the glorious voices of Ramon Novarro and Jeannette MacDonald, audiences are certain to find the M-G-M version of the noted Broadway stage success a grand and unforgettable entertainment. Directed by William K. Howard, ace megaphonist, the Jerome Kern and Otto Harbach romance which kept the S. R. O. sign posted in theatres for two years, reaches the screen greater than ever due to the additional pictorial charm permitted by camera scope.

Indeed, under the musical direction of Herbert Stothart, is the incomparable music score, including such hits as "The Night Was Made for Love," "She Didn't Say Yes," "The Love Parade" and "A New Love Is Old." The famous Albertina Rasch ballet contributes eye-filling spectacles in several striking numbers, with a living puppet fantasy woven into the climactic love scenes.

With Novarro and Miss MacDonald holding stellar rank, the cast boasts such names as Frank Morgan, Charles Butterworth, Jean Hersholt, Vivienne Segal and Joseph Cawthorn. Gay, mirthful, and sometimes naughty, the play-within-a-play has the Bohemian flavor of continental student life. Much of the action takes place within a large Parisian theatre where the musical romance is uniquely unfolded—a novel technique widely acclaimed as a conventional departure by theatre critics.

Those who have heard the recording of the song numbers sung by Novarro and Miss MacDonald predict even greater popularity for the singing stars. In their first appearance on the screen together, the song-fair pair are thrilling in the love-making passages which blend their golden voices.

As a result of their work together in this film, Novarro and Miss MacDonald are said to be making plans for a co-starring concert tour. They expect to open their concerts in Paris in September. Later touring through Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Spain and England. They would conclude their tour with appearances in five or six of the principal cities in the United States.

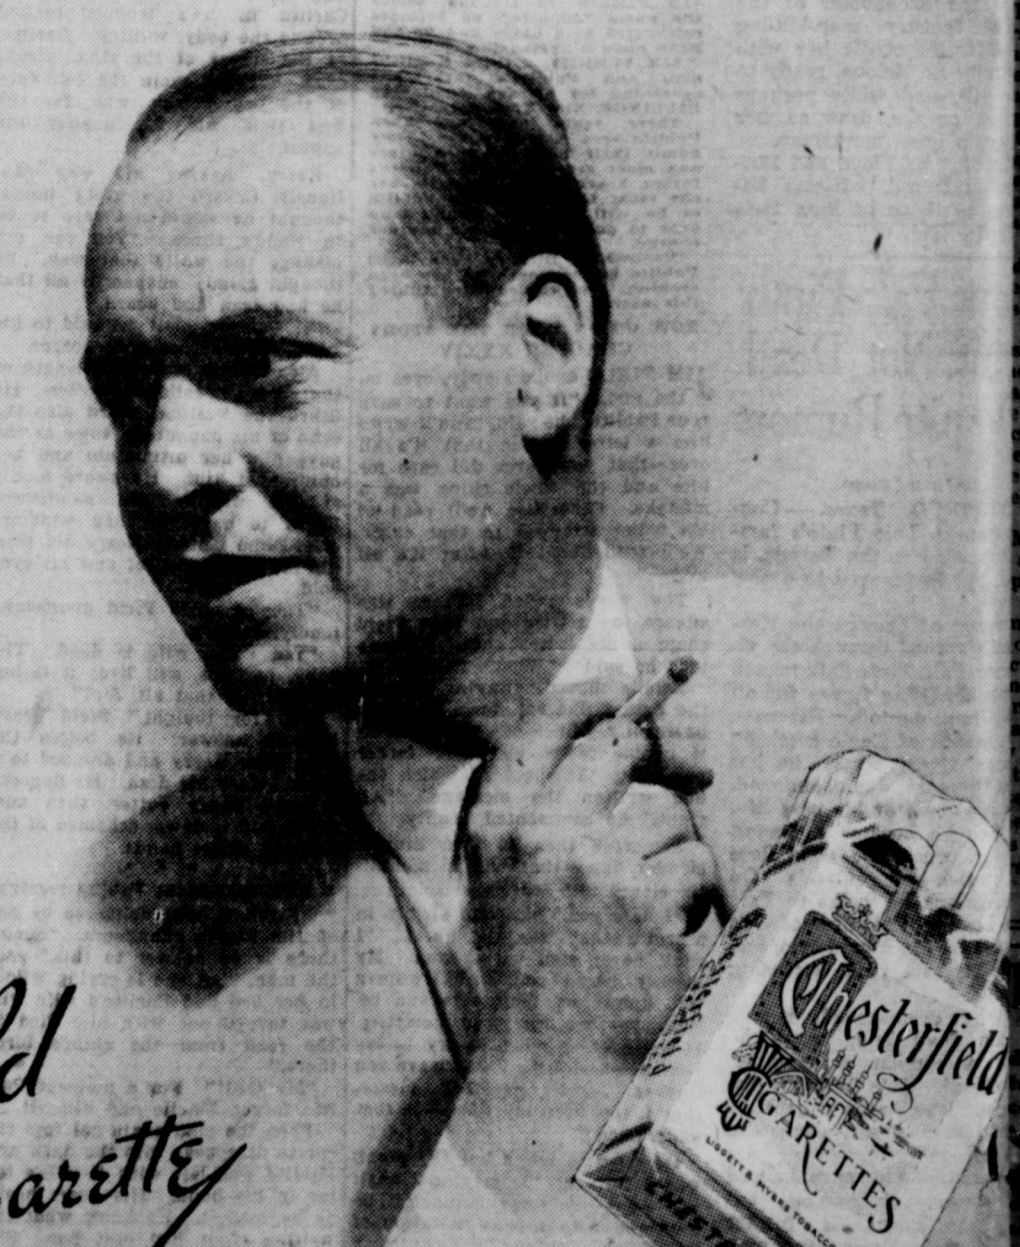

The government, someone has discovered, has been spending much less than President Roosevelt thought it would. But now That Reminds Me (Continued from page 1) will put him in third place at least and that about as far as he can get without outside support... It is doubtful if Small has thus far gained any further strength... Maury Hughes through his State and National political affiliations is about as well known in Brownsville as he is in El Paso, Texarkana, or extreme south east Texas. That gives him a chance to gather votes from all sections... whether enough of them remains to be seen. It is possible that Alred even with the history of what he held office has the lead in the first primary in the bag up to this time.

This is Monday and of course the roads in all directions where they have banks in other towns were kept hot by Eastland citizens who have to go to that unpleasant and inconvenient extreme to dump their weekly sales. It will be a God send and a happy day when the doors of a bank will open for Eastland right here at
