Moore... ABOUT Eastland By Virgil E. Moore

Fred Sanner, who is in charge of the high school football coverage for the Abilene Reporter-News, took exception to a recent statement we made in this column.

Fred's rebuttal came in Friday evening's Reporter - News in his column, "Double Take." Let's print the whole thing so you won't get lost:

"Virgil Moore writes in his Eastland Telegram column 'Moore About Eastland'.

"The Abilene Reporter - News sports department, which for some reason sees all the good points of the Ranger Bulldogs and all the bad points of the Eastland Mavericks, is off on another tangent."

"The R-N comes out with a half-faced statement saying that Eastland this year has the opportunity to win their first district championship since the days of Durrell Tulley. As best we understand, Tulley played ball for Eastland in the 1930's. Wonder if Fred Sanner, et al, has forgotten about the Maverick team of 1947 which won not only district but regional honors as well."

"No, Virgil, we hadn't forgotten the 1947 team, because we did not know it had won regional. We should have checked into our pre-R-N days (prior to July, 1950) and we apologize for the mistake."

"But we resent the implication that we favor Ranger over Eastland in our treatment of area football teams. Or Podunk over Gumbo."

"We have no favorites until after the teams are out of district play and are playing teams from other areas."

"The hardest thing to get through some of our area readers' noggin is this fact: When we pick one team to defeat another, that does not mean we WANT that team to win. It simply means we THINK that team is going to win."

"We suppose we said something somewhere about the way Fred picks the winners, but for the life of us we can't find out where. But, we admit, if we did criticize him for the way he picks 'em, he made a very good point there."

"However Fred, we still think you folks at the R-N think Ranger is a magic word. We don't feel bad about it, however, so don't get too upset. We will rest our case with this comparison. Eastland did something they hadn't done since 1947 Friday when they won the district crown. It was big news here, Fred. Ranger, on the other hand, simply tied for second in their district. Yet on the front page of the sports section of the R-N there was a three column picture of Paul Hinds (who we will grant you is a great ballplayer) and below it on the top half of the page, a story about the game. Flip the page and on page two, at the extreme right hand bottom of the page, there is a story on the Mav game. The Mavs story was fine, not a single mistake. It had a nice headline and everything. But, Freddie, it was a lot less than Ranger got."

"Not to be seriously trying to prove our case, we have sure used up a lot of white space, we admit. So we will quit with this tip. Watch the Reporter News in the next few days for a nice full-page spread featuring Eastland's 10-A champions, with pictures of all the readers, the band and the cymbals pitched in for free. It's going to prove to you that the R-N does indeed love Eastland. (Now see Fred, we went and gave you a nice plug!)"

"Here's a story that sounds as though it came straight from the headquarters of the Republican National Committee:

It was a day late in 1980, when socialized medicine had become the law of the land. A man was sized with a violent cramp in his stomach and sought relief at the modern white structure erected for the purpose in his home town. Upon entering the building, he found himself in a hall with two doors. One was marked "male" and the other "female." Naturally, he entered the door marked "male."

He found himself in a room with two doors. One was marked "Over 21" and the other "Under 21." Since he was 52 he entered the door marked "Over 21."

He found himself in a room with two doors. One was marked "Serious illness," the other "Minor indisposition." Since he was double-

Put Down That Turkey Buddy, This Is Texas

Most of Eastland will observe the Texas Thanksgiving Day, a check this week revealed, but there will be a number of places closed here Thursday, the day President Eisenhower has declared the legal holiday.

Leading in the places that will be closed the 22nd is the postoffice. Mrs. Marene Johnson, postmaster, said Tuesday that the postoffice will definitely be closed Thursday and open the 29th.

All Federal offices here will be closed, including the Draft Board. In fact, Mrs. Jewell Reaves, local clerk, announced that the Board would observe both the National and Texas holiday.

The courthouse, city hall, bank and almost all local stores will be open Thursday. They will observe the 29th.

Dema Beauty Box Opening Is Set For Thursday

The Dema Beauty Box, owned and operated by Dema Harris, is now open for business.

The new beauty shop will be located at 416 North Lamar. All new equipment has been installed. The Beauty Box features a pink and grey color design.

Mrs. Harris, a graduate of Scotty's Beauty Academy in Abilene, has eight months experience. The shop will open for business Thursday and reservations can now be made by phoning 63.

Apparently almost all county towns will observe the 29th. Ranger and Cisco both earlier announced that they would observe the 22nd, but both have changed to the 29th. The Ranger Junior College - Cisco Junior College game, to be played Thursday afternoon in Ranger, is believed to be the only reason those two towns considered the 22nd.

All Eastland schools will be open Thursday, and most of the state's colleges will observe the original Thanksgiving.

Service Planned
A special community Thanksgiving service has been planned by local churches for Nov. 28. The service will be held at the First Baptist Church with Don Berry, senior student at Baylor, doing the preaching. An offering for the American Bible Association will be taken up at the service. Most local ministers will have a part in the service, and all church members have been urged to make plans to attend the special service.

About the only nice thing about the entire Thanksgiving mix-up seems to be the fact that it won't happen for another seven years, when the calendar will again show five Thursdays.

Bruce Pipkin's new Sports Center is now open for business. Pipkin said the Center is open now, but said he would announce plans for his formal opening Thursday.

Dallas Smith, father of Mrs. Jess Richardson of Teague, a former resident of Eastland, died Sunday afternoon at Teague. Burial will be held today in Temple.

The formal opening of the new Humble station at the corner of Dixie and Highway 80, will be held Saturday. Humble has invited Eastlanders to come by and meet Jessie L. Gobin, new manager.

DRAFT CLERK REMINDS AREA MEN OF REGISTRATION LAWS

Mrs. Jewell Reaves, clerk of Selective Service Board 36, reminded young area men Tuesday that they must register with their draft board on their 18th birthday or within five days thereafter.

Mrs. Reaves said a total of 6018 Texans registered in the state's 137 draft boards during October, and she said that is "up to normal." Registrations during the summer months were "not up to expectations."

Colonel Morris Schwartz, state director, said that, from official reports which have reached him recently, some young men take needless trips from their communities to draft boards to register when there is an officially appointed registrar living near them.

He said the state Selective Service headquarters recently had ordered registration posters to place in state high schools to keep young men turning 18 reminded of their obligation to register and to direct them to the nearest registrar.

The federal draft law requires all males to register with a draft board on their 18th birthday, or within five days thereafter. If they are not at home at the time, they are required to go to the nearest board or registrar.

A young man who registers away from home can be sure he is assigned to the board in his home area if he gives as his place of residence his address in his home area.

Since the present draft law was enacted in 1948, all males born since August 30, 1922, have had and now have a legal obligation to register, except those not yet 18. Failure to obey the law can mean a fine up to $10,000, five years in prison, or both.

Deadline Near For Reservations to Scout Jamboree

November 25 is the deadline for Boy Scouts and Explorers from the Comanche Trail Council to make reservations for the 4th Annual National Jamboree to be held July 12-18, 1957, at Valley Forge, Pa.

Thirty-seven scouts and three leaders from this council have already made reservations and will be among the 50,000 campers who will camp on the same grounds where General Washington and his soldiers spent the severe winter of 1777.

In charge of the contingent from this area will be O. E. Winebrenner of Brownwood, J. V. Fox of Breckenridge and Lee R. Tesson of Goldthwaite. These Scouts will be the Scoutmasters for the 16-day trip which will include sight-seeing in Detroit, Niagara Falls, New York, Washington and Philadelphia.

Reservations are being made through the scout office in Brownwood and there are a few places left, it is said. Absolute deadline is next Sunday.

Delegates To FB Convention Make Reports

Mitchell Campbell, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau, and the four who served as delegates from Eastland county with him, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cunningham, Claude Stubblefield, and Mrs. Mitchell Campbell returned home from the Texas Farm Bureau Convention with "renewed enthusiasm and inspiration" for the future activities of the local farm group.

Campbell, and Cunningham, chairman of the county Resolutions committee, each gave a portion of the working of the State Resolutions 29-member committee prior to the convention proper, which was held in the Rice Hotel in Houston recently. One hotly argumentative item was that of a consumers sales tax, which was defeated, by a small margin.

The Good Roads Program also carried heated discussion, and several other phases of agricultural recommendations. These reports by Mr. Campbell and Mr. Cunningham were given at the regular directors' meeting at the county courthouse in Eastland.

Eastland County Helps Push U.S. Turkey Supply

One and three-quarter turkeys for every family in the United States—that is what the record 1956 crop of over 76 million birds amount to, and Eastland County will supply a lot of those birds.

In 1950, the U.S. produced slightly more than one turkey—44 million—for each U.S. family. Back in 1930, only 17 million turkeys were produced, a little more than one-half a bird for each family, the bureau says.

Thus, a report at Northwestern Life Insurance Co. points out, we are producing this year approximately four times as many turkeys as we raised a quarter of a century ago. Several factors have contributed to this enormous increase; new varieties which could be marketed much younger; reduction in labor required and in bird mortality, through new scientific methods, which has made year-around marketing possible; attractive packaging and display in modern food stores; and in the case of the 1956 spurt in production, a favorable feed situation and the memory of good profits on the 65-million-bird crop of 1955. Today's turkey, as sold dressed in food shops, averages about 12 1/2 pounds.

How is it that this native American bird, which has sometimes been proposed as the United States national emblem in place of the eagle, ever happened to be named "turkey"? Because, says the report, it was at first confused with the guinea-fowl, which in those days was a delicacy imported into Europe by way of Turkey and was therefore dubbed with the name of that country.

Patrons Urged To Watch For Lost Package

The post office today requested patrons in the southeast section of the city and around the square to watch for a small package lost by a postman Monday.

The package, which is about 3" by 2" is addressed to Mrs. Mary Burgess, 1209 South Seaman. It was lost early Monday. The package is insured and still under the protection of the government. If found it should be returned to the post office.

Mavs Are Darkhorse In State Class A Playoff

Put the Eastland Mavericks down as the darkhorse in the state Class A playoffs.

Eastland, with a record of seven wins and three losses for the year, cannot be considered as a serious contender for the state crown. And that despite the fact that they have lost only one game to a Class A opponent. In fact, the fact that they did lose to Cross Plains when the two teams met earlier this year makes Eastland a pretty fair choice as a first round victim in the playoffs. At least that's the way the sportswriters around the state will look at it.

Bill Upchurch has a fine 6.8 average for the year. He has handled the ball 35 times and made 239 yards. Bill, the Mavs' extra point specialist, has 40 points to his credit this year, with three touchdowns and 22 extra points.

That plays right into Eastland's hands actually. How can a team that has already lost to another team be expected to beat the team the next time they meet?

Eastland, loser by one point to Cross Plains, isn't ready to throw in the towel quite yet, however. If you will reel back to Sept. 28 you will recall that heartbreaker. Eastland's offense couldn't solve the nine man line Cross Plains threw up, and the Mavs forgot there were ends to go around until late in the affair. All night long they tried to crash the Buffs' middle, and they simply couldn't do it.

But despite the fact that the Mavs' 7-3 record for the year isn't the best around these parts, Eastland has had an impressive year. Statistics don't tell the story all the time, but if they did, Eastland would be heavy winner.

The Mavs have racked up 168 first downs to 105 for their opponents. They have gained 3034 yards rushing to 1553 for their opponents. Passing yardage stands 675 to 324, with 33 completions out of 103 tries for Eastland and 25 for their 10 opponents. Eastland has intercepted 14 passes, their opponents 13. The Mavs have punted 27 times for 614 yards, an average of some 23 yards a try, while their opponents have punted 33 times for 910 yards, a 28 yard average. EHS has lost 20 fumbles, but recovered 35 of their opponents. One thing the Mavs come out on the bad end is penalties. Eastland has been penalized 620 yards to 320 for their 10 opponents.

Fullman Leading Gainer

Saul Pullman is the leading ground gainer for Eastland, but Jimmy Martin still holds to his lead in scoring.

Pullman has gained 816 yards in 92 tries for an average of 8.9 yards a try. He has scored eight touchdowns for 48 points, despite the fact that he failed to score in the first four games of the year.

Martin is second in line in yardage gained. He has eaten up 682 yards in 95 "at-bats" for a 7.2 yard average. The swift Mav back has 54 points to his credit this season, scoring nine TDs.

Bill Upchurch has a fine 6.8 average for the year. He has handled the ball 35 times and made 239 yards. Bill, the Mavs' extra point specialist, has 40 points to his credit this year, with three touchdowns and 22 extra points.

Next in line is P. A. Cox. Cox, the boy who didn't break into the Mav starting line-up until the seventh game of the year, has racked up 248 yards in 43 attempts. His average is 5.7 yards a try. P. A. has scored 30 points, with five touchdowns.

Harvey Lewis, the Mavs' first quarterback, rounds out the starting backs in yardage gained. Lewis, despite the fact that illness kept him on the bench against Clyde Friday night, has made 284 yards rushing in 63 attempts for a 4.5 yard average. He has scored 50 points, with eight touchdowns and two extra points.

In all, 14 Mavs have scored so far this season.

Postmaster Urges Early Mailing Of Christmas Packages This Year

Postmaster Marene Johnson today urged the citizens of Eastland to shop early and mail early this Christmas season to facilitate the processing of the largest Christmas mailing in the history of the Eastland post office.

"To put off mailing Christmas cards and parcels until the last moment results in an extra burden being placed on the postal employees and on the postal facilities of all post offices," Mrs. Johnson pointed out.

Every facility of the local post office will be pressed into maximum service so that again this year, as in the past, the Eastland post office will be cleared, if possible, of all Christmas mail by Christmas.

"There are still some people who retain the mistaken idea that a gift or card arriving on Christmas Eve has a special significance," Mrs. Johnson said. "It is the thought behind the gift or card, not the time of arrival which is the important consideration."

In an appeal to all the citizens of Eastland, Postmaster Johnson praised the fine cooperation of the past year when record mail loads were processed and delivered and asked that this year's cooperation be again in evidence this year.

"By following the simple suggestions of mailing early, wrapping carefully and addressing plainly, the citizens of Eastland will be assured of the safe and timely arrival of their Christmas mail," Mrs. Johnson added.

"I'll never forget the telephone call that rushed a doctor to my mother's bedside."

An Interview With Mrs. Ora Surls by Telephone News Reporter Don Davis

Does any single telephone call stand out in your memory? Mrs. Ora Surls remembers one from 60 years ago as clearly as if it had happened last night.

"I remember the first time I ever used a telephone. It was back in 1895. I was about six years old. My mother was ill and wanted the doctor. We didn't have a phone so I ran to the nearest neighbor who did. I was so scared but when the doctor on the other end of the line answered 'I'll be right over,' it all seemed like a fairy tale to a six-year-old girl."

That's the way Mrs. Ora Surls tells about her most memorable telephone call. It was the first time she experienced the magic of the telephone but certainly not the last.

Meeting Mrs. Surls 60 years later is like bumping into an old friend. She's a warm, friendly person with a keen sense of humor and heaps of patience—qualities she's used to take 67 years of living pretty much in stride.

Coming from a pioneer farming family, Mrs. Surls has had her share of ups and downs. But that's the past. She'd rather count her blessings. She says the telephone is very definitely one of them, calls it her "best friend." She means it.

LARGE FAMILY

Keeping up with her family, which Mrs. Surls treasures above everything, is a big enough assignment in itself. Eleven of her 13 children are living and situated in different parts of the country. With a family of that size, Mrs. Surls has had many memorable telephone calls through the years. Many have brought good news. Many is the time Mrs. Surls has answered the phone and received glad tidings of a new arrival in the family—there are 30 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Other calls Mrs. Surls remembers with sadness. One of these came in 1943, during the war. Three of her boys were in service and one of them, who was headed overseas at the time, called his "Mom" before leaving. "Mother, we fly out at 2 a. m.—overseas duty. Don't worry, I'll be safe. I'll write you soon. Remember, I love you."

That was the last time his mother heard his voice. He was killed on a mission a few months later.

You'd remember calls like these, wouldn't you?

You can't help but see a little bit of everybody in Mrs. Surls' story. That's because the telephone plays such an intimate part in all our daily lives. Probably you've had a telephone call, or calls, you'll never forget. If so, and you'd care to write me about it, I'd like to hear from you. Just address your letter to me, Don Davis, here at the telephone company.

Charles Marshall Tells 9:49 Class World Doesn't Obey Christ's Word

Charles Marshall told the Mens 9:49 Bible Class that the modern Christian doesn't come near to living up to the basic fundamentals Christ taught in His Sermon on the Mount.

Marshall was discussing the International Sunday School lesson, which for this week was on the Beatitudes Christ related as part of his famous Sermon on the Mount.

Actually, Marshall said, mankind is so far away from the teachings of Christ on this point that we honor and respect the very opposite of what Christ said for us to do.

Christ said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit..." but Marshall said we pay homage to the aggressive, that so-called "livewire," the fellow that gets out and gets things done.

Christ said, "Blessed are those who mourn..." but we don't ever show sympathy for them.

Christ said, "Blessed are the meek..." but we look up to the fellow that is a pure egotist, full of boastful bragging.

Christ said, "Blessed are the merciful..." and we treat our fellow man as if he were trying to cut our throats, and in some cases he might be waiting for a chance to do just that.

Christ said, "Blessed are the peacemakers..." but we extoll warmongers and warmakers.

In other words, Marshall said what Christ taught is completely ignored in much of our everyday living, although it would be to our own best interest to live according to His teaching.

Let's take the case of being merciful. It's a fact that when a person is merciful in his dealing with another fellow, the second fellow will in all probability be merciful with us if the occasion should present itself. But if we are hard, unjustly severe with the other fellow he will, if the opportunity presents itself, seek revenge on us.

Mercy begets mercy; hate begets hate. Thus it is better for us from a common sense viewpoint, if for no other reason, to beget that which will be to our own best interests.

Class vice president Leonard Florence presided in the absence of Travis Harrell, class president, who was out of town.

Florence announced that the individual private prayer plan would continue this week as usual. The class is attempting to instill in all its members the habit of daily prayer. It believes the men of Eastland could use a little prayer and this Thanksgiving season is a good time for Christians to do a little praying.

In discussing the Beatitudes in this Sunday's lesson, the editors of the International series were assuming next Thursday to be the universally accepted Thanksgiving Day. Actually this isn't the case. In some sections the old Thanksgiving is used while in other localities the fourth Thursday is used. This year it happens that November has five Thursdays in it, thus the conflict in Thanksgiving Day.

In case of doubt on this point, though, the fool-proof, acid test is the athletic schedule which has been in effect longer than Ed Willman or Earl Bender can remember. It's this: if the University of Texas and A&M are playing football on a Thursday afternoon in November, it's Thanksgiving. If they aren't, it isn't.

But 49ers can study the Beatitudes with profit any day, whether it is the Sunday before Thanksgiving or not. They could study them every day and it would not hurt a bit. They could study them every hour on the hour and still profit spiritually. The Beatitudes contain some basic truths that no one can ever study too much.

"Henry Van Geem has been as busy all week as a termite with a hollow tooth in a new lumberyard getting his quartet in shape," Joe Gray, class reporter, said.

Next Sunday the lesson will be taken from Luke 15:11-32. This is the parable of the Prodigal Son, a lesson in true forgiveness. Vice President Florence asks all class members to read over this bit of scripture before coming to class if they can possibly do so. He thinks this will aid the individual member to gain the full spiritual message of the parable.

And Florence invites all men to come out next Sunday and meet with the class. It meets in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church. All visitors have to do is just come in and make themselves at home. See you next Sunday morning at the 9:49 at 9:49.

That's all today. See you Thursday.

Never Mind the Weather—

... Once said Mark Twain, as there is little or nothing we can do about it. True, we can't, but we must take into consideration the effects of weather on our daily lives and on our material possessions. For example, weather has a lot to do with fires, explosions, collisions and burglaries especially winter weather. In summer it's hail and wind and the dreaded Polio—all effects of weather, directly or indirectly. So let's mind the weather by keeping prepared—keeping insured.

Mrs. Bill Tucker

Here's the latest return on the election. Someone asked Cicero Rogers whom he voted for — Ike or Adlai — and his reply was, "Well, I'll tell you, I scratched through the top, and wrote in Morris Newnam. Anyone who can cook barbecued turkey like he does, ought to be president of the United States."

Of course the barbecue Rogers was referring to was the one tendered to the Community Progressive club at Alameda on Monday night before the election. So it is natural that the turkey was still uppermost in his mind, and the donor, Morris Newnam, of Ranger, Frozen Food Center had top rating. We agree, the turkey and all the trimmings served to approximately 75 people by Mr. Newnam and the Ranger business men was a treat we shall long remember.

Speaker at the Sunday morning services at the Church of Christ was Roger Peterson, junior student of the ministry at Abilene Christian College. Mrs. Peterson and their four-weeks old son accompanied him, and they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tucker Peterson and his wife are from Saskatchewan, Canada, and this is their first time to come to the United States.

He reports liking "a foreign country" as he puts it, and especially enjoyed the past two Sundays with the Cheaney congregation. He was filling out for Clyde Antwine, who regularly preaches for the Cheaney church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas, of Roswell, New Mexico were Sunday morning visitors at Cheaney. They were here because of the passing away and burial of her mother, Mrs. Rankin Browning, who for many years was a Cheaney resident, and where the children attended school. For several years they resided in Ranger, and in New Mexico with the Thomases and other members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blackwell tell us of the arrival of a new granddaughter, Denise Lee, who arrived on November 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Lee, stationed in California. Jimmy and Berle June are expected for a visit the latter part of November, probably in time for the Thanksgiving turkey.

Mrs. Etta Brittain of Graham, visited her sisters, Mrs. Ben Freeman, and Mrs. Hatley Dean the past week end, and attended church service at Cheaney, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Tucker, Garland and Dale, spent the week end through Tuesday with the parental Fred Joiners and Bill Tuckers.

Mrs. Dale Warner and son Madison, from Baltimore, Maryland, are making an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perrin. Maxine does not get to visit very often, and her coming each year is a gala family affair.

Mrs. John Love was sick with a cold and unable to attend church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blackwell and Kim from Knox City, visited the parental Elmer Blackwells on Sunday. Ray served as song leader for the church service.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tucker and sons from Odessa were recent visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bennett and his mother Mrs. Mary Tucker and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Campbell, Mrs. and Mrs. Luther Cunningham, and Mrs. C. G. Stubblefield are in Houston this week attending the Texas Farm Bureau convention. Campbell, a member of the state resolutions committee left last Tuesday to meet with the committee, and the other delegates left Sunday, in time to arrive for the vespers services Sunday night. The Rice Hotel was headquarters for the convention proper which will adjourn with the annual banquet on Wednesday night.

This writer had the pleasure of acting as guide and escort for Mrs. Don Bolt and her group of youngsters who were trying to get to Indian Mountain, for a hike and climb, on Monday afternoon. The seven, plus the small dog, explored the hill and the small cemetery nearby, before returning to Gorman. The group consisted of one son of a minister, a son and daughter of Dr. Rodgers, two sons of Dean Kirk, and the two Bolt boys, and Mrs. Bolt, their chauffeur and sponsor.

Visitors on Saturday in the Fred Joiner home were his brother Herbert Joiner and Mrs. Joiner from San Angelo, and a sister Mrs. Charlie Henderson, and Mr. Henderson from Rock Bluff.

Scholarship Fund Discussed By Co. Clubs Saturday

A Scholarship Fund which has been inactive since the war years, due to purchasing bonds with the money, has been revived. Bonds which became due were cashed and earmarked as a scholarship fund again in November 1956, and are available to some deserving young lady who might be interested in taking college courses in either of the Junior colleges in Eastland county, at Ranger, or in Cisco.

This was the decision of the members of the Eastland County Federation at their regular third Saturday in November meeting at the Texas Electric Conference Room in Eastland. Mrs. Bill Tucker, recording secretary, presided in the absence of both president and vice-president, Mrs. E. E.

Todd of Gorman, and Mrs. Olive B. Jones of Rising Star. The Lord's Prayer was given in unison, led by Mrs. A. Louise Weber, Rising Star.

Preceding the business session, Mrs. Gorr of Cisco, program chairman for the hostess group, the County Home Demonstration Council, presented Mrs. Irvin Watson, of Cisco, in a delightful review of the book "Dear Madam."

Mrs. Tucker appointed the following persons to serve on the nominating committee for the slate of officers to be elected in January. They are Mrs. A. J. Olsen, of Cisco; Mrs. J. LeRoy Arnold, of Eastland, and Mrs. W. H. Hagaman, of Ranger.

Representatives of the following clubs were present: Garden Club, First Industrial Arts, and City Federation from Cisco.

The Civic League and Garden Club, Alpha Delphian, Thursday Afternoon, and Las Leales, of Eastland; Mrs. Tucker, from Gorman; Rising Star Saturday Club, and home demonstration clubs, Pleasant Hill, Word, Lake Cisco, and North Star.

Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table, decorated with a centerpiece of gaily colored autumn leaves and bright red berries of the pyracantha shrub. Coffee and cookies were served to approximately 30 persons.
