

NEGRO IN ASSAULT CASE TESTIFIES FOR SELF

SENSE FUND LARGEST FOR MANY YEARS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The largest war department appropriation bill, with one exception, in American peace time history, was reported to the House today. It carried an indirect warning to foreign nations that America plans a strong defense.

The $378,690,000 army supply bill provided for purchase of 547 new airplanes, strengthening the national guard, and on direction of the president, increase of the army from 128,750 to 165,000 men.

The appropriations committee called for the largest military outlay since 1921, with the exception of 1931.

Taking the navy into account the 1936 budget for national defense is about $100,000,000 in excess of the largest regular annual appropriation for national defense since enactment of the budget law, the report said. The budget of the navy was $447,224,000 for the next fiscal year.

Barbara'll Act As Husband Says

Probably Barbara Kent, above, could rise to fame in the movies all on her own, but she just can't miss because she's being managed by the man who guided such actresses as Garbo, Dietrich and others to the front rank of the famous. He's none other than Barbara's own husband, Harry Edington. That's the latest in a series of lucky breaks Miss Kent has had in pictures.

RELIEF FUNDS SWELLED BY A TRANSFER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Roosevelt today transferred $45,000,000 in unexpended PWA funds to the federal emergency relief administration, financing aid to the nation's 21,000,000 needy persons until March 1.

The action was taken after Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins announced he had spent the $100,000,000 already allotted for relief this month.

The $45,000,000, he said, would last until March 1. By that time, however, the administration officials expect congressional action on the $4,880,000,000 work relief bill.

The relief administration, PWA Administrator Harold Ickes said, would pay the advances when it receives the $880,000,000 relief appropriation in the bill.

Episcopal Minister Weds Catholic

By virtue of winning the best dog award of the Westminster Kennel Club's annual show in New York, Mrs. Sherman R. Hoyt's French poodle, Nunsee Due de la Terrasse, became the grand champion of American dogdom. Mrs. Hoyt, who is shown with him after the title award, herself exhibited him in the judging ring.

WITNESSES SAY KENNAMER IS SOUND IN MIND

PAWNEE, Okla., Feb. 19.—A procession of prosecution witnesses swore today that Phil Kennamer was sane when he killed John Gorell Jr., and his intelligence was above normal.

The state struck heavy rebuttal blows at the plea of insanity and self-defense offered by attorneys for the 19-year-old son of United States Judge Franklin Kennamer, on trial for his life.

"I think he was rational, knew the consequences of his own acts and knew the difference between right and wrong on the night of the tragedy," Dr. G. W. Robinson, Kansas City psychiatrist, testified loudly.

Dr. Robinson was qualified as an expert in nervous and mental diseases by the prosecution, after Tulsa school teachers had testified the young defendant's intelligence was far above normal.

Jersey Executioner

Robert Eliot, executioner who has sent 110 men to their doom in the penitentiary at Trenton, N. J., awaits the call to carry out the sentence imposed on Bruno Hauptmann. Five more are scheduled to die in the electric chair before Hauptmann.

SAID PROMISE SECURED FOR GUN'S RELEASE

Frank Allen, Cisco negro, on trial in 88th district court on charge of assault to attack a transient, Mary Kertesz, in Cisco, Jan. 25, today took the stand in his behalf.

Allen testified Mary Kertesz told him she "would do anything he wanted if he would give her the gun."

What she meant he did not understand, Allen said.

Joe Kertesz, her brother, testified under interrogation of Milton Lawrence, defense counsel, he did not hear his sister tell Allen "a man's man in the north—regardless of color."

Question of Deway Ball, a companion of the brother and sister, brought forth admission he had served some time in disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He was emphatic in his denial of ever serving in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth.

Joe Kertesz denied that a railroad yard worker in Cisco threw a can at him, when under the barrage of questioning of Lawrence. He said, however, that something of that nature occurred farther down the line.

"He thought I was a bum," Kertesz said.

Testimony of the defendant and Cisco officers conflicted. Allen testified that he did not tell officers upon his arrest and fingerprinting at Cisco jail he said he did not recognize them.

Officers Henry Stubblefield, O. Gustafson and Cisco Chief M. L. Perdue stated that Allen told them he had never seen Ball, Kertesz or his sister.

Defense counsel this morning endeavored to draw from witnesses that one of the party had opened a box car and stolen, but no admission was forthcoming.

Joe Kertesz and his sister, both Hungarians, told Monday afternoon of their leaving Hammond, Ind., for El Paso. In Fort Worth, Kertesz said, he and his wife split up as she was to continue by highway to their destination. His wife was present during court proceedings.

At noon recess it was thought testimony was near completion.

Methodist Pastor Continues Series World, Religion

A Faith for the World, was the subject of the third sermon in the series on The World and Religion, preached by Rev. Rosemond Stanton at the Methodist church. He is part:

"The religion of Jesus is the answer to the religious problem of the race. He reveals God, who is the Good Life. He teaches by his life how to attain the good life."

"According to Jesus faith is active. It is acting upon one's conviction. Luther said, 'Faith is living, active, powerful.'"

"According to Jesus, faith is belief. It goes beyond action, to an expression of conviction. A belief represents the systematic statement of an experience."

"Jesus represents faith as trust; a trust or purpose of mind in God. The gospel of Jesus is a personal relationship. 'My heart trusted in Him and I am helped.'"

"That we believe about God matters most. God is Christ-like."

"His name according to Jesus is Father. He is loving, just and gracious. He that dwelleth in him dwelleth in God."

'That reminds me...'

More excitement in the legislature regarding the putting the utilities out of the commercial application business. Just why is a hard question for us to answer. Naturally we haven't heard anybody around these parts kicking vociferously on the subject. Law or anything else can't make people buy from any particular store. That being the case we are wondering why the law should step in and take away part of any industries income, whether utility or not. Improvements on anything are the concentrated efforts of industries to maintain special departments whose job it is to see just why a thing isn't as practical as it should be, or what improvements can be made on it to sell it cheaper, not counting the fact of giving a better product for less money. There seems to be no end to what a legislator can figure out to tamper with, by the help of some who are disgruntled.

Senator Collie Is Second Member Of Senate To Tell of Employment

Sen. W. E. Collie of Eastland is the second member of the Texas senate to file a sworn statement as to his employment and compensation. Senator Collie listed his clients of the past year in the Senate Journal. He recited he is not employed in any criminal case and "have received no compensation whatever for recommending executive clemency either to the pardon board or governor."

Senator Collie quoted Edmund Burke's speech at Bristol that "it ought to be the glory of a representative to live in the strictest union, the closest correspondence and the most unreserved communication with his constituents."

Then he listed the names and addresses of all persons, firms and corporations who have engaged his services as a lawyer during the year 1934: H. A. Skinner, Eastland; Harry Porter, Fort Worth; T. L. Patterson, Lubbock; Will St. John, Cisco; Cisco State Bank; Cisco; Earl Bender & Co., Eastland; Texas State Bank, in Ligo, Eastland; Ernest Halkias, Eastland; First National Bank, Gorman; W. A. Lasater, Nimrod; Mrs. Sylvia Evans, Breckenridge; Guy Dabney, Cisco; Praterley Bros., Eastland; Newnam & Walker, Ranger; Pipkin Bros., Eastland; Drs. ### Miss Ramey Gives Lesson at Recent HD Club Meeting

Miss Ruth Ramey, county home demonstration agent, gave members of the Morton Valley Home Demonstration club at their recent meeting a lesson on making candlestick bedspreads.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ed Castleberry, who gave information on beautifying the yard, how and when to plant shrubs, flowers and gardens.

The next session of the club will be held at the Morton Valley school house on Feb. 28.

Congress Urged By Texas Senate To Pay Bonus

AUSTIN, Feb. 19.—Texas senators today memorialized congress to enact some plan for immediate cash payment of the soldier bonus.

Bonuses due ex-service men in Texas amount to approximately $90,000,000 according to Senator Allen Shivers of Port Arthur, author of the memorial resolution.

It was adopted by a 22 to 3 vote.

"The federal government has lent millions to railroads and corporations, why not pay our obligations now to ex-soldiers," demanded Senator Gordon Burns of Huntsville.

Kansas Man Makes Arrangement For Prohibition Talk

C. J. Spiers, of Great Bend, Kansas, advance representative of the Flying Squadron Foundation was in Eastland Sunday arranging for a meeting to be addressed by Miss Norma C. Brown, Vice-President of the organization and Editor of the National Enquirer.

Plans have been completed for a gathering to be held on Wednesday, March 19, in the Methodist church, 7:30 p. m.

Miss Brown is nationally known as a lecturer in behalf of prohibition and her coming will be welcomed by all friends of that cause. It is said that her discussion is comprehensive and illuminating, free from shallow emotionalism and vituperation.

Youth Tracks The Killers of Friends And Causes Arrest

FORT WORTH, Feb. 19.—The fierce desire of a 16-year-old boy to bring to justice the slayer of his friend today led to a confession by William Robertson, 16, of Stockton, Calif., that he killed Eugene Kling, federal transient bureau employe here.

Robert Norwood, 16, of Wichita Falls, enraged by the death of Kling, quietly set out from the transient bureau and followed Robertson and a companion, Roy Perdue, 28, of Coalgate, Okla., also held in the killing, to Monroe, La., where the pair was arrested when Norwood sought the aid of police.

They were brought back to Fort Worth and charged with murder. Today when confronted with a picture of the battered body of Kling, who was found Tuesday morning in a vacant lot, Robertson broke down and confessed the killing. He said Perdue and he planned to kill Kling, but Perdue was at home in bed when he lured Kling into a dark alley and slugged him with an iron pipe.

HAUPTMANN IS GRANTED APPEAL RIGHT

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 19.—Bruno Hauptmann today won the right to appeal his conviction for murder of the Lindbergh baby and was granted a stay of execution, originally set for the week of March 18.

Chancellor Luther Campbell granted a writ of error to C. Lloyd Fisher and Frederick Pope of defense counsel after Fisher had split with Chief Defense Counsel Edward J. Reilly. Reilly had proposed to delay the appeals action and said either he or Fisher had to get out of the case.

Hauptmann's sentence to death was automatically stayed by granting the writ. The state will pay the cost of printing the records for the appeal because Hauptmann is a pauper.

The date of March 28 was set for arguments before the court of errors and appeals.

TEAMS GOT GOALS MIXED

HARTFORD, Conn.—Two teams lost hockey games here because they became confused over the location of the goals and scored for the opposing sextets. West Hartford high school defeated Holyoke 2-1 and the Hartford Indians beat Windsor 1-0 on unearned goals.

NEW DEAL GETS IMPETUS ON GOLD DECISION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—New Deal prestige zoomed today under impetus of victory in the United States supreme court, where administration gold policies were protected against legal attack.

The administration was reported planning new legislation to head off possible suits in the court of claims by liberty bond holders, alleging damage resulted from dollar devaluation. Some lawyers maintained the high court decision left the door open for such suits.

A long range view of the court decisions indicated that they have imposed permanently upon administrations to come the necessity of following one of two courses of action. All gold must continue to be locked up in treasury vaults at present, in which dollar devaluation may be practiced. If gold should be allowed to circulate, however, the dollar must be restored to its old gold value.

Theater Guild to Meet This Evening

The Eastland Little Theater Guild will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Root & Rhodes building, east side of square, it was announced this morning.

DRIVING WHILE DRUNK BRINGS BROCK 2 YEARS

Elmore Brock, on plea of guilty of driving while intoxicated, was given two years in the state penitentiary Tuesday in 91st district court. Trial by jury was waived.

Brock was arrested recently by officers after a 25-mile chase south of Eastland. Brock was en route with his small niece, Margaret Ruth Brock, to Glen Rose to see his brother.

He abandoned his niece near Kokomo when his machine hit a sand ledge. Highway patrolmen and others found the man after a search of woods in the vicinity where he abandoned his automobile.

Officers went in quest of Brock after a Gorman resident phoned stating he had run into his automobile and was seemingly intoxicated.

14-Year Old Hay Is Ground Into Feed

Here's one that seems almost incredible, but is true.

Monday afternoon A. J. Ratliff, feed store proprietor of Ranger, ground and sacked five bales of sudan grass that had been baled for 14 years.

The hay was brought to Ranger by Scott Lips, who has raised feed each year since 1921, so that the sudan grass was never used. It was in the back end of his feed loft and as new hay was placed in the loft the sudan was covered up.

When ground it was found to be in excellent condition.

Word Is Sought of Geo. Haynes Farmer

Mrs. M. M. Gallagher of 1009 N. Dallas St., Ennis, Texas, is seeking word from her son-in-law, who is thought to be in this part of the country, because there is sickness in the family. The following letter was written to the Carl Barnes Post of the American Legion in Ranger in order that the Legionnaires might aid in locating her son-in-law:

"Commander American Legion Post, Ranger, Texas.

"Sir: The writer is very desirous of locating Mr. George Haynes Farmer, because of sickness in the family. He was last heard of in the Texas oil fields and in Ranger. If any of you have any knowledge of him, or can suggest any way or plan by which any knowledge can be gained of him, it will be greatly appreciated.

(Signed) Mrs. M. M. Gallagher, 1009 N. Dallas St., Ennis, Texas.

Race Track Betting Advocates Decline A Test of Strength

AUSTIN, Feb. 19.—Friends of race track betting declined another test of strength in the House of Representatives today. They withdrew temporarily the anti-bookie shop bill that headed their son-in-law.

"We want a little more time," Rep. Jesse James of Cameron, floor leader in favor of racing, said.

Governor Allred, who sent a message to the legislature urging repeal of the pari-mutuel law, said today he did not consider yesterday's House vote to re-refer the repeal bill a decisive test.

"A number of those who voted for the additional hearing on the bill told me that they will vote for repeal when it gets to that issue," Governor Allred said.

Rotarians Hear Of Scouting At Monday Meeting

Scout talk featured the Rotary program Monday at Connellee hotel roof.

Guy Quirl, formerly of Eastland, scout executive for the Comanche Council trail with headquarters in Brownwood, told Rotarians of the potential membership of the area and the national headquarters in Washington starting August 29 for ten days.

Karl Tanner, Jr., new scoutmaster of the Eastland Methodist troop, said he had observed an increase in the two weeks he has been scout head.

Raymond Pipkin and Horace Horton, Eagle scouts, gave Rotarians an insight of requirements to earn merit badges and scout honors.

Grady Pipkin and F. A. Jones were program chairman.

Ralph Croce was submitted as a new member for future consideration. Visitors were Guy Quirl, Brownwood; Raymond Pipkin and Horace Horton, Karl Tanner, Jr., and.

Ours Is a Government of Five Branches!

The government of the United States, we were taught in schools, consists of three branches, the executive, legislative, and judicial.

Of recent years, a fourth appears to have been added unofficially: The investigative. Few can doubt the valuable services of this branch; to wit, in the matter of Teapot Dome, the banking investigation, and the munitions inquiry.

Now we seem in a fair way to developing a fifth branch, the telegraphic. This is the long-distance lobby, or technique of delivering a shower of telegrams on the doorsteps of congressmen at the psychological moment.

Rejection by the senate of the World Court appears as the most vivid example of the power of this fifth branch at the moment. On Friday, it appeared likely that the World Court would pass. Over the week-end, several wielders of this fifth arm of government got busy. And in the cloudburst of telegrams that descended on the senate, the World Court was lost.

It is not precisely a new technique, yet there are signs that it is being developed to a new high point. Members of Congress not familiar with its manifestations must now give careful consideration to its meaning.

Naturally, a congressman ought to pay attention to his mail, and especially to telegrams, from his constituents. That is one way for him to know how the folks at home are thinking.

But it is, after all, only one way. It ought to be evaluated, weighed, and not necessarily always accepted at face value.

For instance, large numbers of identical telegrams might be discounted, say, three for one. For a certain amount of suspicion always attaches to the intrinsic value as well as to the deep conviction behind the message that comes in another's words.

Old, experienced congressmen know this. Messages plainly attributable to impassioned oratorical appeals or intensive editorial campaigns might also be discounted, say two for one. A sliding scale of evaluating the messages might be worked out by astute congressmen.

For the telegraphic shower is never as good a cross-section as a vote, or even a straw vote. Usually there is one side that doesn't send telegrams at all. It's a fascinating study for congressmen, and you may be sure some of them will be studying it.

For the telegraphic branch of the government seems to be flourishing these days. One result is an unquestioned good—it makes business for the telegraph companies.

SILKEN SPINDLES

by Laura Lou Brookman © 1935 NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY Gale Henderson, pretty and 23, works in a silk mill. She and her 19-year-old brother, Phil, support their invalid father. Steve Meyers, who also works in the mill, asks to marry him. She promises to give him an answer in a few days. Gale goes skating, breaks thru the ice and is rescued by Brian Westmore, whose father, now dead, built the mill. Brian has come home after two years in Paris to enter the mill. Gale appears before he can learn her name. Vicky Thatcher, daughter of Robert Thatcher, general manager of the mill, schemes to captivate Brian. Gale and Steve quarrel, later make up. Vicky sees Gale in Brian's office one afternoon and suspects there is an affair between them. Vicky leaves in a rage, determined to show Gale she cannot take Brian from her. Sunday morning Gale awakens a knock on the door. A young man says, "Special delivery for Miss Gale Henderson."

The Newfangles (Mom 'n' Pop) By Cowen

has melted. Another week and it will be gone. "It will be if this weather keeps up. Ah—here is where the exploration begins!"

They turned into a narrow pathway through the trees. Faded, colorless leaves crackled under their feet. There was a pungent scent in the air—the scent of earth and damp leaves and tree bark. The path was winding, and here and there sumac and other shrubs had spread their low branches, almost blocking the way.

Gale called out gayly, "Shouldn't we notch the trees or leave a trail of some sort so we can find our way back?"

"Not necessary," Brian assured her from ahead. "We won't come back this way anyhow."

The path swung nearer to the river and presently they were beside it. It was warm in the sunshine. Trees behind broke the wind. Suddenly Brian halted and motioned for silence. Gale crept up behind him.

"What is it?" she asked. He pointed to a tree a few yards ahead. A red squirrel sat on a low branch, its tiny, bead-like eyes glistening and darting from left to right. In its paws the squirrel held an acorn it had been nibbling. It hastened a moment, then began eating again. A moment later it dropped the corn, disappeared.

"There!" Gale whispered, pointing. The squirrel's head came into view on the opposite side of the tree trunk. Brian picked up an acorn from the ground, moved forward cautiously. But the squirrel was not to be tempted. It ran up the tree again and sat there, chattering loudly.

Gale and Brian walked on. She told him about the squirrel she and Phil had taught to eat from their hands years before and how he had grown bold enough to perch on Phil's shoulder. Brian described the pet coon a friend of his had owned. He told her about animals he had seen in zoos in New York and in Europe. He was fond of animals, particularly bears and monkeys.

His stories were amusing and he told them well. They walked on and on and the sun that had been shining brightly slid behind the tree tops. Now and then they heard a bird's song and saw a flash of feathers. Sometimes there was motion in the undergrowth which meant that a rabbit or chipmunk was scurrying for cover. Otherwise they were alone. It was their world—a world of sunshine and rustling branches and earthy odors.

They came to a place where the river made a wide bend. There was a clearing here and several abandoned campfires. The trees parted in the distance, leaving a ribbon of pure gold on the water. At either side, near the shore, were shadows of deepest purple.

Gale halted. "Oh," she said, "did you ever see anything lovelier?" "Never."

She pulled off her hat and let the wind ruffle her hair. "This has been the grandest afternoon I've had in a long time," she said. "I told you exploring is fun."

"But we haven't really done any exploring." "What did you expect to find?" "A chest of buried treasure. Isn't that what you promised me?"

She was smiling at him. The wind blew her hair back and it curled into careless ringlets. There was a warm glow of color in her cheek. She raised her chin and Brian saw again the soft, white line of her throat. He said, "I'd like to paint you like that."

Gale laughed. "I'm afraid I'd be a poor model." "You'd be a perfect one," he told her. "Can I try it some day? Will you let me sketch you?"

"Why, yes—if you want to. Have you been painting much lately?" "I haven't touched a brush or pencil since I left Paris. I haven't wanted to—until now."

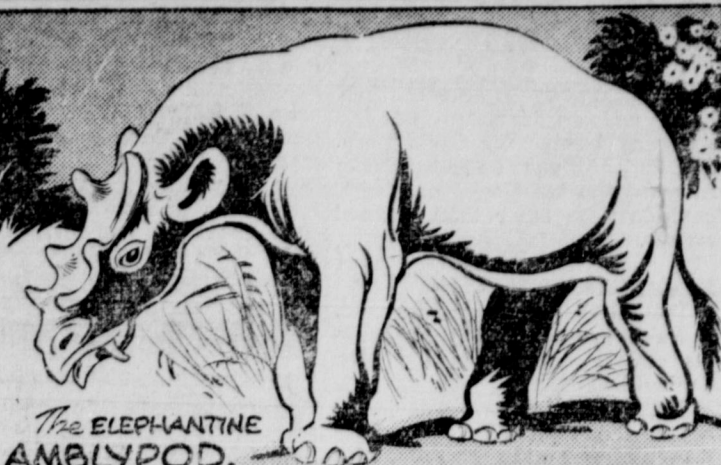

Gale was silent. Brian went on after a moment. "You're an unusual girl, do you know that? Different from anyone I've ever known. I thought I wanted to talk to you about the mill, but you've made me forget all about that. You make me forget everything—"

His arms were around her.

Income Tax In A Nutshell

Exemption Allowed State Employees The compensation of officers and employees of a State or any political subdivision thereof, if the services of such officers or employees are rendered in connection with activities which constitute the discharge of an essential governmental function, as distinguished from a proprietary function, is exempt from federal income tax. For example, the compensation of the governor of a state, mayor of a city, councilmen, board of aldermen, public-school teachers, firemen, and policemen is not subject to federal Rebekah Lodge, 7:30 p. m., I. O. O. F. hall.

Prayer meeting, 7:30 p. m., all churches.

Church council meeting, 7:30 p. m., Methodist church.

Men's 9:49 Bible Class

Hears Noted Artists
Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, voice soloist, and Mr. Keith Mixson, pianist, of T. C. U., recent Eastland visitors, afforded enjoyment to many churches during their recent stay when they were here primarily to appear upon the Book club program of musical tea.

Mrs. Cahoon sang "Did You Think to Pray," and a second number, the setting of the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, in a recitative aria with accompaniment by Mr. Mixson, who followed with a piano solo, magnificently given, Chopin's waltz, in C Minor, the features of the Men's 9:49 Bible class session Sunday morning in Methodist church.

P. L. Crossley presided in the absence of President Earl Bender, whose wife has been very ill.

The 55 men members attending sang "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," and "Just As I Am," followed with prayer by Mr. Graham.

The artists were then presented and following their program, the lecture on "Good Citizenship," was given by the class teacher, Judge J. E. Hickman.

Class Members To Be Entertained

Mrs. C. W. Price, president of the Booster class, presided at the Sunday morning session held in the Methodist church, opening program with hymns, led by Mrs. Ed F. Willman, with Mrs. Neil A. Moore as pianist.

Pastor E. R. Stanford visited the class and announced a church council meeting for Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m., and requested the presence of three representatives from the class.

These were named in the president, Mrs. Price, the class teacher, Judge W. F. Leslie, and their secretary, Miss Jessie Lee Ligon.

Mrs. Price announced a business session to be held in the form of a covered dish supper, with all members of the class attending, at 6:45 p. m., Thursday at her residence.

The lesson brought by Judge W. F. Leslie, centered about the responsibilities of a good citizen, and talk based on Peter, second chapter and text, "By well doing, ye should put to ignorance of foolish men." The speaker said if we practiced the standard of self-control and be the master of our own soul ye would be examples for others. That we should be subject to the laws and ordinances for the sake of the Lord.

Mrs. Robey Delivers Class Sunday Lesson

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Mack O'Neal, Mrs. C. C. Robey, the class teacher, not only presided over the session, but brought the lesson, based on the second and fourth chapters of First Peter.

The session opened with song service, led by Mrs. W. A. Hart, with Mrs. W. A. Keith at the piano, and closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Mrs. W. H. Mullings brought the Scripture reading, of First Peter, second and fourth chapters, in selected verses.

Mrs. W. P. Palm read the story, "What Happened at Pentecost," written by William J. May, in story teller fashion.

Mrs. Robey's subject, the responsibility of a good citizen, brought out that a good citizen will do nothing to hurt or injure his neighbor; and how much easier to be a Christian today, than in the era following the Pentecost, when Nero burned Rome, and Christians were thrown to the lions. That if they could uphold Christ then, why could we not today?

Mrs. Jack Noel of Oklahoma was presented a guest. Twenty members attended.

Truth Seekers Class

The Truth Seekers class registered a small attendance Sunday morning, as many were out on account of illness.

The session was opened in the Baptist church by the president, Mrs. L. G. Rogers, and the lesson on "Good Citizenship" was brought by the class teacher, Mrs. Clyde L. Garrett.

A fine argument was presented in which it was brought out that Peter urged Christians to clean living and a spiritually clean life that would shine for God's glory, and that any man or woman, who followed the teachings of Christ, could not be other than a good citizen.

Home Makers Bible Class

Due to the absence of Mrs. W. P. Palm, president, the Home Makers class was opened by Mrs. Artie Liles.

Very little business was transacted other than the report of the presentation by the class of a nice gift to Mrs. Richardson, a member, who lives near Hillcrest.

Mrs. Ray Lerner brought a most interesting lesson on "Temperance" and the responsibility of a good citizen, based on Peter's epistles, written 30 years after the Crucifixion.

Mrs. Lerner showed traditions and circumstances of that period, and compared them with those of today; and that there was no excuse for everyone for not being a good citizen and a follower of Christ in the present day.

Young People's Epworth League

The Young People's Epworth league heard a discussion at their meeting Sunday evening in the Methodist church, conducted by Judge J. E. Hickman, on the subject, "Does It Pay to Be Honest?"

The program opened with responsive reading and prayer led by Mary Frances Hunter.

The discussion was introduced by the program chairman for the evening, Tom Harrison.

The quick thoughts that stood out was "Life itself depends on trust with fellow man."

Council Meeting Tomorrow Night

Pastor E. R. Stanford has called a council meeting of church workers in the Methodist church for tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock, for business of importance.

Officers Called Meeting

Mrs. C. W. Price, president of the Booster class of the Methodist church Sunday school, has called a business session of class members for Thursday evening at 6:45 o'clock, at her residence.

Each is to bring a covered dish for the supper, and problems will be discussed about the supper table.

Martha Washington Chapter Alpha Delphian Tea Hostess

An event that is looked forward to by the Alpha Delphian chapter and their guests is that of next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when a seated tea, and musical program in the community clubhouse under direction of the general chairman, Mrs. W. E. Stalter.

Each member is entitled to bring a guest. Mrs. F. M. Kenny, president of the Thursday Afternoon club, Mrs. W. K. Jackson, president of the Civic league; Mrs. H. O. Satterwhite, president of Music Study club, Mrs. John Harrison, president of the hostess club, and Mrs. J. M. Perkins, president of Sixth District T. F. W. C., will be special guests.

The program will present Miss Roberta Kinnaird in voice solos.

Eastland O. E. S. To Be Cisco Guests

The Eastland and DeLeon chapters will be guests of the Cisco Order of Eastern Star at the Masonic temple Tuesday evening at 7:30, it has been announced. All members of the local chapter have been urged to attend.

Mrs. Gertrude Joiner of DeLeon, deputy grand matron, will make her official visit to the chapter at this meeting, it has been announced.

Calls Off Class Party

That Reminds Me

For the first time in history a jury has been approached to go into a vaudeville contract for public entertainment according to press dispatches. We can only say that such a thing as the Hauptmann trial jurors being paraded for money in the theatres and auditoriums of the nation is beyond comprehension and those who make the suggestion and offer to take it are just as intolerable as the idea of the jury accepting such an offer. We cannot believe that there would be anything else but a revolting of public opinion if such were to happen. It would give no other reason to believe that the whole thing was a sensational farce for publicity purposes. The crime itself was too horrible to entertain such tactics. We only hope that the whole thing was really and truly sincere and that the jury acted in good faith and that the actual guilt of the accused was established beyond a shadow of a doubt, and there it should rest, the supreme penalty must be paid by the convicted, there the case should die with it.

New Standard Six Arrival Announced By Jack Muirhead

Jack Muirhead, Eastland Pontiac dealer, has announced new Pontiac standard six models have arrived and are on the floor at his place.

The new standards are being shown publicly for the first time in addition to the de luxe and improved straight eight announced earlier in the year.

With the same distinctive front end treatment which has made the higher priced Pontiacs among the most popular of the industry's 1935 offerings, the standard six line boasts the characteristic lines of its bigger brothers and provides economy of operation comparable to the lowest priced cars on the market.

Such typical developments of the 1935 season as the solid-steel turret top body by Fisher, synchronized and stabilized front end springing, triple-sealed hydraulic brakes and many other achievements of the engineering laboratory and the stylist-studio are to be found on the latest newcomer to the Pontiac line. It is powered by the same six-cylinder engine as the de luxe line, developing 81 horsepower at 65 miles an hour and capable of speeds well over eighty miles an hour.

Silver-alloy bearings developed and pioneered by Pontiac engineers and found in no other passenger cars in America today, are standard equipment. Except for the front fender indicator lamps, the standard six presents the identical exterior appearance of the de luxe six, and except for the new synchronized and stabilized front end springing, the chassis of both cars likewise are identical.

The new type of spring suspension allows for a "softer" ride, in that stiffness has been reduced from 300 pounds to only 200 pounds. This equalizes spring stiffness both in the front and rear, eliminates the forward pitch of the conventional type of suspension, it is claimed, and provides one of the most comfortable and restful types of springing available at any price.

Standard six models have the same completely sealed chassis of the higher priced de luxe six, which keeps all water, dust and grit from every working part. Luggage space is provided in the rear of all sedan and coupe models.

All of the well known engineering features of Pontiac motors such as the cross flow radiator, gusher type cooling and metered-flow lubrication are found in identical fashion in the standard six models.

Karen Morley and Tom Keene see their love flower aney in the benign country atmosphere in this scene from King Vidor's "Our Daily Bread," which United Artists brings to the Lyric Theatre Wednesday.

Now that we've told the world how great we are as a nation, can't we stop scientists from discovering how insignificant we are in the universe?

GREAT HUMAN DRAMA

That warm, human quality which made "Street Scene," "The Crowd," "The Champ," "The Big Parade," and other King Vidor productions such outstanding successes is again the distinguishing feature of "Our Daily Bread," the inimitable director's latest production which United Artists bring to the Lyric Theatre Wednesday for a two-day run.

This dramatic film, which was not only produced and directed by King Vidor, but written by him as well, tells the thrilling story of a young city couple who find themselves on an abandoned farm, amid a colorful group of men and women, from all walks of life—al determined to start life anew, with the sun, the soil, the air and the water as their new allies.

Emotional conflicts greater than any that confronted them in the whirling vortex of the city enter their lives—and not the least of these appear in the person of a hard-boiled blonde charmer who invades this potential Eden and uses the old-fashioned weapon of flattery on the impressionable young husband, threatening not only the happiness of the loyal little wife, but the well-being of all her fellow settlers on the farm as well.

Karen Morley and Tom Keene are cast as the young pair, while Barbara Pepper plays the blonde serpent. John Qualen, who will be remembered for his portrayal of the Swedish janitor in both the stage and screen versions of "Street Scene," supplies some of the humor, while Addison Richards is seen in the powerful role of Louis, an escaped convict who sacrifices his own freedom for the sake of the other sojourners in Arcady. A huge supporting cast, numbering several hundred players, forms the mass background against which this dramatic story unfolds.

What fooled the captain of the Australian cruiser in the South Pacific was that he thought the call for help from the Seth Parker sounded too much like a radio news broadcast.

Collector Finds Record of Sextuplets

By United Press

SILVER LAKE, N. Y.—A stamp collector, Miss Laura Gregg, has discovered the name of the doctor who "spanked" the famous Bushnell sextuplets into the world in 1866, thus besting the record of Dr. Allen Dafoe of Dionne quintuplet fame.

The practitioner was Dr. James Edwards, of Chicago, Ill. Shortly after the Dionne quintuplets were born, reporters interviewed Mrs. Almedia Parker, of Silver Creek, one of the sextuplets, but she could not recall having any record showing her birth, or the name of the doctor who assisted her and her five brothers and sisters into the world. Mrs. Parker is 68.

Recently, however, Mrs. Gregg was searching through a trunk in the Parker home and discovered a certificate of birth for the sextuplets. It was dated Sept. 15, 1866, and said that six children—three boys and three girls—were born, alive and healthy, to J. F. and Jennie A. Bushnell.

A nurse, Priscilla Bancroft, served as midwife, assisted by Mrs.

the New Pontiac STANDARD SIX

An Additional line of cars whose quality and beauty make the price phenomenal

Today Pontiac presents an addition to the Pontiac family—the Standard Six line—even lower in price and offering many of the features that the 1935 De Luxe Six and Improved Eight introduced with such sensational success. All models have the same speedlined styling that gained Pontiac the name of the most beautiful thing on wheels. The bodies are the same solid steel "Turret-Top" Bodies by Fisher. The brakes are the same—big, positive hydraulics, triple-sealed against dirt and moisture. The new ride, the happy result of stabilized, synchronized springing, is every bit as gentle and comfortable as you could ask for. The engine, with its silver-alloy bearings, provides dependable performance so smooth and lively that you will doubt it is a six. And, best of all, it operates with an economy of gasoline and oil that will literally amaze anyone who has had experience with other low-priced cars! A look, a ride and you'll decide you simply can't do better.
