Eastland's Valentine Sweethearts for 1967: MR. and MRS. CURT WILLIAMS

Mr. And Mrs. Kirk Williams Are Valentines Of 62 Years

Miss Gertrude Hudson was born in Missouri, but her family moved to Eastland County when she was quite young. They settled near Gorman, where her older brother became a close friend of Curt Williams, who had been born in Comanche County two or three years before his family started farming near Gorman.

Sometimes about 1902 or 1903, Curt began paying more attention to Gertrude, taking her home from church in his buggy or sitting by her at the weekly parties held for young people. By 1904, they were going steady. The next year they were riding in the buggy on their way to a party, when Curt said, "Why don't we get married?"

She replied, "Yes, let's do that" and Curt kissed her for the first time.

On August 15, 1905, they took two friends with them and drove to their pastor's home, where they were married. The preacher took the four of them to evening worship services following the ceremony.

The courtship sounds casual enough, perhaps even unexciting as she says, "Curt was always around our home with my brother and he seemed like kinfolks."

But upon this courtship is based a happy marriage which has lasted almost 62 years. By any measure, 61 years of love and companionship is a fair exchange for the romantic whirl - wind dating many young people expect.

Their advice to any young couple is simply, "Give and take, give and take. Marriage is a partnership and you shouldn't enter into it unless you're mature enough to put yourself and your likes and dislikes out of the way and think of the other one."

Mr. Williams is retired after working for the city for 32 years. They've lived in Eastland for 46 years and in the county all their married life, except for two years spent farming in Haskell county.

They had four children and two are living, A. C. Williams of Kermit and Burl Williams of Fajane, N. M. They have seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Survivors include one son, Jack, of Hawthorne, California; two sisters, Mrs. Sam White of Brownfield and Mrs. Carl Stark of Kansas City, Missouri.

Eastland Civic Theater completed its first 1967 production with the highly successful four-performance run of Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen." The play, set in Indiana in the summer of 1920, was four acts.

Members of the cast were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Miller and their daughter, Susie; Philip Smith, Frankie Sayre, Marsha Hanna, Tania Faircloth, Keith Elliot, Grey Pierson, James Reid, Larry Sittler, Carla Bonney, Rhett Smith, Donna Haynew, and Melissa Courtney. A great "scene-stealer" was a white poodle, which belongs to the Don Pierson family. The dog was Lola's pet "Floppit" in the play.

Mrs. Virginia W. Russell was director-designer for the play. Other members of the crew were Pat Wilson of Cisco, Stage manager; Tom Tucker, Stage and theatre carpentry; Dick Dixon and Warren Chapman, stage crew; Mrs. Warren Chapman, make-up; Lloyd Armstrong, photographer; Mary Watson, reservations; and Ralph Stevens, house manager.

The costume committee was composed of Mmes. Jack Frost, Cecil Faircloth, Minton Hanna, Don Pierson, Eugene Surfacto, Nora Stokes, and Eddie Gallagher.

A question and answer period was conducted by Scoutmaster Winston Boles. Approximately 50 attended the meeting.

Members of Troop 6 have prepared two displays, which may be seen in the lobby of Eastland National Bank. They attended school Wednesday in their uniforms, as part of the Boy Scout Week celebration.

The troop will attend worship services Sunday morning at First Baptist Church.

MAVS WIN TAKE SECOND IN DISTRICT 7-AA

The Eastland Mavericks clamped a tight grip on second place in 7-AA with a 75-46 win over the Hamilton Bulldogs.

At halftime the score was close at 28-27, but the Bulldogs managed on two free throw points in the third period and lost out hopelessly.

The Mavs took out in the first quarter to lead 17-9, however, the Bulldogs bounced back in the second to narrow the lead 28-27.

Going into the fourth quarter the score was 51-48 in favor of the Mavs and the fourth was theirs all the way as they scored 24 points while holding Hamilton to only 6. Jim Herridge scored 28 points for the Mavericks.

She was born in Thompsonville, Kentucky, and came to Eastland during the oil boom. She was preceded in death by her husband, W. A. Teatsorth, in 1958.

A recent survey by the Texas Aeronautics Commission shows that Texas still leads the nation in the number of air strips, Charles Murphy, director, said today. Texas' total decreased from 895 to 870 airports during the year, largely because there was a net decrease of 3 privately-owned air strips not open to the public, the survey showed.

Increases were noted in the number of municipally-owned airports and privately-owned airports open to the public. Municipal airports increased from 219 to 226, excluding 13 airports that are now in various stages of completion under the Commission's airport construction and development program. Privately-owned airports open to the public increased from 256 to 258 during the year.

Murphy said that while the figures showed that Texas was the leader in the number of air strips, the statistics also showed that this state, considering its size, is far behind a number of other states in airports open to the public, mainly municipally owned airports.

"We have some catching up to do, and the Airport construction and development program that was launched in 1965 will help us close the gap," Murphy said. The last Legislature appropriated $200,000 for grants to small towns for the building of airports.

Murphy also said the survey showed that more than half of the airports in Texas open to the public now had inadequate facilities.

Other statistics on municipally owned airports showed: 135 with runways and lighted; 33 paved runways and no lighting; 11 runways unpaved but lighted; 47 runways unpaved and no lighting; 59 runways length under 3,000 feet; 113 runways length between 3,000 and 5,000 feet; 54 runways length greater than 5,000 feet; 162 have fuel available; 113 have maintenance available; 143 are attended; 120 have uniforms available; 166 have phones available; 112 have rest rooms; and 108 have transportation available; and 33 have cafes.

Major airlines operate in 27 Texas cities, while seven towns are served by TAC certificated airlines. There are 140 airports where there are one to five based aircraft; 51 airports with six to ten aircraft; 48, 11 to 15; 31, 16 to 20; 64, 21 to 30; 51, 31 to 40; and 22 with more than 100 based aircraft.

A TOWN'S TRAGEDY IS IN OLD NEWSPAPER CLIPPING

"It Was Terrible" is the headline on a newspaper clipping dated Oct. 7, 1892, from the Coffeyville, Kansas, newspaper. The clipping is among some other prized possessions of Taylor Owens of Cisco.

The framed story belonged to the late T. C. Owens of Anson, an uncle of Mr. Owens. The T. C. Owens family came to Anson, Texas, from Kansas. Mrs. Owens, who operated a clothing store in Dodge City before her marriage, had advertised for sale a bright red shirt, saying she would marry the cowboy who bought it. A cattle driver on a trip to Dodge City, T. C. Owens saw the shirt, bought it, and married the saleslady.

The newspaper clipping that came into the possession of Taylor Owens concerns the graphic description of the famous Dalton brothers' last flight, which was in connection with "The Great Coffeyville Tragedy."

At the time of the writing of the story, "four of the Dalton gang lie dead in cheap coffins in graves yet uncovered, one remaining dying on a rough pallet in a frame boarding house, and four of the citizens who rose yesterday to repel the raid of the robbers are still in bed in death, while three others lie wounded at their homes."

The writer gives a detailed account of the bank robbery by the Dalton gang which preceded the bloody street fight in which every citizen joined who could find arms. He noted that the attack upon the town, "the writhing fight, the courage displayed alike by bandits and citizens, of the tragedy which was successfully enacted make up the most wonderful story the border has ever furnished."

The desperadoes, in their black varnished coffins, "look very ghastly and unheroic. There were hundreds of morbid ones who came to view the bodies of the slain. The writer says that the Dalton gang was "a bunch of desperadoes who had made a name for themselves in the West. They were a lawless crew, and their actions were a disgrace to the community. The tragedy of the Dalton brothers' last flight is a story that has been told many times, but it is still one of the most dramatic and heroic episodes in the history of the American West."

James Smith, formerly of Eastland and now of Hurst, Tex., has purchased O. H. Dick's interest in the Men's Shop in Eastland. It has been announced.

The two were formerly partners in the firm and Smith was manager until moving to Hurst recently. Dick lives in Olden and is co-publisher of the Breckenridge American.

Smith said that he will restock the store soon, and Jim Everett will continue as manager.

The store was recently the site of a burglary in which some $3,000 in merchandise (suits, sport coats and shoes) were taken.

Smith is presently manager of a discount store in Grand Prairie.

The six-counties area of which Eastland County is the hub, had a 5,320 person population gain during the six-year period between 1960 and 1966, the University of Texas Population Research Center has announced.

Four of the counties reported gains, with but Eastland and Stephens recording losses, the report shows.

Pecan Growers Will Meet In Cisco Thursday

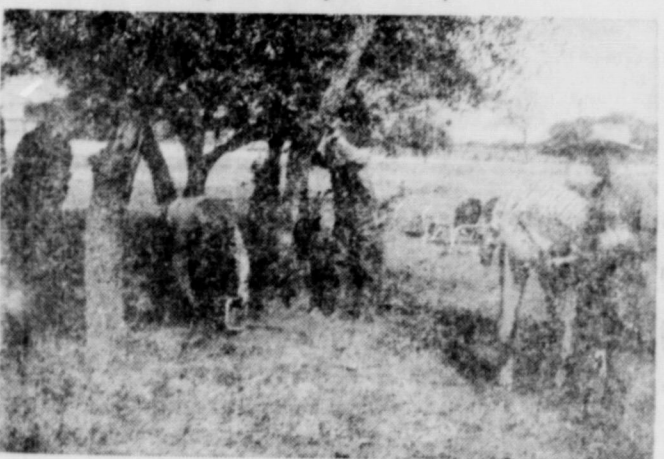

The officers and directors of the County Pecan Growers Association will plan activities for the year at a special called meeting in Cisco on Thursday, Feb. 16, according to J. M. Cooper, president of the group.

The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce office at 7:30 p. m.

Plans for the annual pecan budding and grafting school in April, the annual Spring Field Day in May, the fall pecan tour in September, and the annual county pecan show in December will be discussed, Mr. Cooper said.

PROCLAMATION SIGNING — County Judge Scott Bailey, center, has just signed a proclamation, setting Feb. 13-17 as Farm Bureau Membership Week in Eastland County. Others from left are K. F. Kirk of Ranger, FB President Jack Court of Cisco, Judge Bailey, John Love of near Ranger, and B. T. Graham of Cisco.

CLEARING GROUND — Eastland County Farm Bureau officers and directors were busy clearing the acre-site for their new headquarters building, to be located on East Main Street in Eastland, south of U. S. 80 across from the Eastland Livestock Sales Co., when this picture was made. A 46x32 building, with a community room, four offices, kitchen and customer area, will be in the building. Construction begins soon.

Farm Bureau Launches Membership Week

County Judge Scott Bailey has designated the week of Feb. 12-17 as official "Farm Bureau Membership Week" in Eastland County. The local county Farm Bureau organization will have a special enrollment drive under way as part of a statewide effort to push Farm Bureau membership in Texas over the 100,926 figure achieved in 1966.

The Eastland County Farm Bureau ended its 1966 membership year with 722 member families. The official proclamation called for citizens "to give due recognition to this observance honoring the Eastland County Farm Bureau."

Earlier, Gov. John Connally proclaimed the same period as "Farm Bureau Membership Week in Texas." The statewide drive was started with big area rallies Jan. 30 in Lubbock and Dallas and Jan. 31 in San Antonio.

B. T. Graham of Cisco is chairman of the local county committee. The committee chairman said every farmer and rancher in the county is needed "as a member and leader" by the Farm Bureau.

"Each of us in agriculture has too great an outlay in our business not to do all that we can to protect our investment in capital, time, and labor," he declared.

Following is the text of the proclamation: "WHEREAS, agriculture is essential to the economy of Eastland County, our State and Nation; and

"WHEREAS, the productive efficiency of our farmers and ranchers have helped stabilize food prices and the cost of living for all our citizens; and

"WHEREAS, this record of achievement has resulted from educational and technological advancement in agriculture under a free choice system; and

"WHEREAS, farmers and ranchers have recognized the value of joining together in organized effort to promote and protect their interests; and

"WHEREAS, three out of four farm and ranch families in this nation belong to a general farm organization are members of the Farm Bureau; and

"WHEREAS, FARM BUREAU is a free, independent non-governmental, voluntary organization of Farm and ranch families united for the purpose of analyzing their problems and formulating ac-

Congratulations to J.O. Jackson Jr. for being selected the outstanding farmer in the Gorman area. Mr. Jackson makes efficient use of proven production practices and proper timing for most profitable production. His increased yields during the last three years are an indication of his progressive farming. In 1964 his average peanut yield was 868 pounds per acre, 1,116 pounds per acre in 1965 and 2,584 pounds per acre in 1966.

I have noticed quite a few cattle infested with lice lately. It costs money to feed cattle lice. These parasites, are among the most damaging to beef cattle.

Cattle infested with lice spend a lot of time rubbing against fences, posts, or other objects due to the annoyance caused by these insects. Cattle on feed do not gain as they should and require more feed for a pound of gain when infested.

Infested cows lose weight prime targets for the pest. Reduced weaning weights of calves is one spot that really hits the pocketbook hard.

Cattle lice are common over the entire state and include both the biting and sucking types. Their populations build up rapidly after cool weather arrives in the fall.

Sucking lice, short- and long-nosed, pierce the animal's skin and feed by sucking blood. They are usually found, on the sides of the animal's neck, on the brisket, back, inner surface of the thighs, tail and around the nose, eyes, and ears. Chewing lice are smaller and are usually found on top of the shoulders and around the root of the tail but may also infest other parts of the body.

Many chemicals are available for controlling lice as well as other external parasites of farm livestock. Because of restrictions and safety suggestions which apply to the use of control measures, I invite stockmen to come by my office for a copy of MP-691, "Texas Guide for Controlling External Parasites of Livestock and Poultry."

Peanuts rotated with grain sorghum plus the use of soil fumigation are effective precautions against nematode damage to peanut crops.

B. E. Langley, superintendent of the West Cross Timbers Experiment Station at Stephenville and Dr. W. H. Thames of Texas A&M conducted an experiment at Stephenville. The grain sorghum for rotation was early hegari. They used a fumigant at the rate of 10 gallons per acre. The fumigant was dichloropropene, (Vidden-D).

In 1966 the gross values for the different rotations were: continuous peanuts, $3.68; fumigated peanuts $10.92; sorghum followed by two years in peanuts, $9.23; sorghum plus fumigation followed by two years in peanuts, $18.25; sorghum plus fumigation followed by sorghum and one year in peanuts, $9.46; two years in sorghum and one year in peanuts, $6.26.

The experiment was on land heavily infested with nematodes.

Think.

What else besides Long Distance telephone service costs you less today than it did 20 years ago?

Tough question. Not many things have gone down in price these past few years. Most goods and services have zoomed up in cost.

Long Distance rates are a pleasant exception. There have been ten rate reductions in Texas since World War II.

Nowadays, you can make a three-minute, station-to-station call to anywhere in the continental United States (except Alaska) for $1 or less after 8 p.m. or all day Sunday. This is the lowest rate ever. (Interesting comparison: The first transcontinental phone call, made in 1915, cost $20.70.)

And service today is faster and more convenient than ever before.

Better service at lower cost; we think that's a winning combination. Don't you?

then during a complete renovation, was re-named the Majestic. Among the special guests who will be served Birthday Cake during the Anniversary Event Tuesday will be Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Williams, who are being featured in the Sunday Telegram as the newspaper's Valentine Sweetheart Couple.

Believing that the average adult couple looks forward to an evening away from home, as often as possible, for perhaps a restaurant meal, and an entertaining visit to the theater, the Interstate people try hard to provide the best movie fare possible in the finest facility, the spokesman said.

Among the "big" pictures coming to the Majestic in the near future will be "Battle of the Bulge" Dixon said.

Things to come? Well, Mr. Hudgins reported that his company is actually going into the production business so as to have available the type of pictures found to be most appreciated by audiences in Eastland's Majestic and this area. Announcements are expected soon.

Eastland County takes pride in their Majestic Theater, and with 20 years of providing entertainment here, Interstate apparently plans to continue the fine level of movie fare.

WORKING FOR THE FARMER and RANCHER 100,000 STRONG!

JOIN THE ORGANIZED FARMERS & RANCHERS IN THE FARM BUREAU

The week of Feb. 6-10 has been designated "Farm Bureau Membership Week" in Texas by Governor John Connally and Feb. 12-17 in Eastland County by County Judge Scott Bailey.

During this period, volunteer membership workers in Eastland County will be joining thousands of fellow workers in a state-wide campaign to give every non-member farmer or rancher an opportunity to join with their neighbors.

Farm Bureau in Texas is already 100,000 strong and still growing. Nine out of every ten organized farmers belong to the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Farm Bureau is an independent organization of 722 farm and ranch families in Eastland County—financed by their voluntary dues and run by them to represent their interests in local, state and national affairs.

Join Farm Bureau and help give agriculture a stronger "voice".

HERE'S HOW FARM BUREAU WORKS FOR AGRICULTURE:

LEGISLATION

Farm Bureau has effectively represented agriculture in Washington, D. C. for nearly 50 years. The Texas Farm Bureau is the only general farm organization representing agriculture full-time in Austin.

MARKETING

TFB is currently developing markets in Europe for Texas-grown farm and ranch products. Domestic activities include livestock marketing service, broiler grower service and hay-testing and marketing.

LOCAL ACTIVITIES

Farm Bureau works to improve rural life through sponsorship of youth activities, crop and livestock improvement, animal health projects, safety demonstrations, citizenship and educational programs, and social events for the entire family.

FAMILY SERVICES

Group benefits available to members include complete insurance protection, pre-paid medical care, tire and battery program, and such local services as income tax and gas tax refund assistance and fire extinguishers and SMV safety devices.

ing Economy Produces New Jobs For Texans

— Texas' growing economy produced nearly 100,000 new jobs in 1966, the lowest unemployment rate in the state since 1947. In December of 1966, the unemployment total of 133,000 represented 3.3 percent of a labor force of 4,006,100. The seasonally-adjusted national unemployment rate in December was 3.8 percent. Seasonal jobs in retail trades led total non-farm employment to a 40,490 November-to-December increase, with the total at mid-December standing at a record 3,704,909. The total labor force, including farm workers, dropped by 1,700 under mid-November to 4,078,800 at mid-December of 1966.

Completion of the cotton harvest was the primary cause of the 23,700 November to December decrease in farm jobs. Farm jobs in December dropped by 34,300 under the December of 1965 level and declined from 106,500 in December of 1965 to 75,300 in December of 1966.

FARMERS NEED ORGANIZATION

EDITORIAL

At one time in our history, rural areas in general and farm people in particular were in firm control of the political power of the nation. This has long since changed and now rural Americans, especially the farmers, find themselves in a distinct minority.

Agricultural producers now constitute only about 8 per cent of our total population. The recent Supreme Court ruling on reapportionment further dilutes the voice of rural people. In addition, the economic position of farmers has worsened because of the cost-price squeeze. Not even a spectacular increase in productive efficiency has enabled the farmer to offset production and living costs brought on by spiraling wage and price increases.

If there ever was a time when farmers and ranchers needed strength through organization that time is now. The Eastland County Farm Bureau, with 722 members on its rolls, is seeking to increase its membership strength through a county-wide enrollment campaign. Nationwide, the Farm Bureau is the largest of all general farm organizations, but it needs the support and participation of even more farmers if agriculture is to have the strong voice it so badly needs.

The organization is truly democratic with policies adopted by majority vote in county, state and national conventions. It deserves the support of all farmers and ranchers who want to protect their economic future and guarantee their voice in affairs of government.

Eastland County communities, Nimrod and Scranton, are among 308 communities that have signed up in the Texas Community Improvement program this year, setting a new enrollment record compared to last year's 283 communities.

The program is sponsored by the electric utility companies in the state and conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This year, $6,800 will be available for awards to top communities throughout the state.

The Texas Community Improvement Program has worked in every county in Texas to improve churches, roads, install water systems, conduct clean-up campaigns, build welcome signs, establish more than 1,000 community centers, organize youth programs, etc. These are only a few projects that these outstanding community leaders have accomplished.

We extend our congratulations to Nimrod and Scranton communities on the fine work they are doing.

Eastland County appears to be on a building trend. Many new homes can be seen throughout the county. Failure to acknowledge sound design principles in planning a new home or remodeling an older one can result in wasted time, fatigue, and even serious accidents.

A house of efficient design from the standpoint of space arrangement and use reduces disorder, fatigue, and the likelihood of falls and other accidents.

The high rate of home accidents makes it important that houses be designed and built to eliminate as many hazards as possible. Building safety precautions into new construction is less expensive than adding them later.

Some of the design features will help to assure an efficient plan include: The placement of related activity areas on the same level and close together. For example: a play area for preschool children should be located near the mother's work area. Also short, direct traffic routes which are adequately wide for their purpose should be planned for. Check your house plans for adequate storage space in every room where it will be needed. Too, incorporate adequate non-glare light, both natural and artificial in your home. It's also important that no floor level, and no sharp corners or projections be included.

To remove black heel marks from floors, rub lightly with fine steel wool dipped in the wax you are using on the floor.

DATES TO REMEMBER
February 13 — Scranton Community Club meets at the Community Center in the evening.
February 16 — Home Demonstration Leader Training at 2 p. m. in the Reddy Room, Eastland.

test some three miles northwest of Eastland. According to report, pipe was run and cemented after drill stem tests yielded a good show. The well is on surface land owned by Hood King, Eastland auto dealer.

Elsewhere in this area, Otto Bendorf of Breckenridge completed his No. 4 G. W. Taylor as a Land Sand producer four miles northeast of Cisco. Location was in Section 37, Block 4, H&TC Survey.

Daily potential was gauged at 67 barrels of 40 gravity oil with 20 barrels of water.

Flow was through perforations at 3,363-73 feet with gas ratio of 1,000 to 1.

This well is a northwest extension of the Bankline-Owens oil pool that was drilled several years ago. Most of the production and a waterflood project in that area now belongs to Gulf Oil Corporation.
