7 Indicted By Grand Jury; Cisco Man for Kidnapping

A 91st District Court grand jury has returned seven indictments — one of which is for kidnapping — as the result of deliberations Thursday and Friday, officials reported Friday afternoon. Served with the kidnapping warrant late Friday was Bryant W. Bowles, 45, of Cisco. He was in the Eastland County jail in lieu of $25,000 bond. The charge resulted from an incident involving a seven-year old Cisco boy last Wednesday. District and county officials were of the opinion that the kidnapping indictment was probably the first and only such indictment ever returned in this county, at least in recent history. Other indictments included one for forgery, one for theft, one for child desertion, two for burglary with intent to commit theft, and one for disposing of mortgaged property. The grand jury recessed to return at a date to be decided. Charges of kidnapping, sodomy and fondling were filed Wednesday night and Thursday morning against a 48-year old Cisco man after he picked up a seven-year old first grade boy and kept him for four hours. The man was Bryan W. Bowles, and he was being held in the County Jail at Eastland under bonds totaling $25,000. The case was being presented to the county grand jury that was impaneled by the 91st District Court for a regular session beginning today. Police Chief Clyde Brymer reported that the man was arrested at about 9 p.m. Wednesday at his home by Sheriff L. E. (Lefty) Sublett, Deputy Loy Williams, Policeman Charlie Moad and Mr. Brymer. Police filed charges in Justice of the Peace W. L. Lewis' court. The sodomy and fondling charges were filed soon after Bowles' arrest and bonds of $10,000 were set in each case. The kidnapping charge was filed Thursday morning after the little boy's mother signed a complaint. A $5,000 bond was set in this case. Chief Brymer said the little boy told investigating officers that the man stopped his car and offered him a ride home from school, telling him that "I know your daddy real well." The man then drove to the country and kept the boy until around 8 p.m. Police saw the man's car as it approached Cisco from the west and gave chase. He drove to his home and ran into the house. The little boy told police that "I want to go with you." A search warrant was obtained by officers while part of them waited at the Bowles home. With the warrant, they entered the house and made the arrest. The boy was taken to the offices of Dr. M. F. Wallach for a medical examination. Police said the boy was not injured but "he had a bad experience and was badly scared." The boy told officers that the man "look me out in the country." The search for the little boy began when police were notified at 7 p.m. that he had not come home from school and that the family could not find him. The boy was kept home from school today to allow him to rest from his ordeal. Sheriff Sublett reported that no attorney has been hired by Bowles and the court had not acted to appoint one. W. C. Smith of Gorman is the foreman, and others on the grand jury are Jim Parks, H. M. Underwood and R. G. Lyster, all of Eastland; G. M. Fore, James A. Rutherford, and John R. Vermillion, all of Rising Star; F. P. Brasher, Jr., of Ranger; J. V. Heysler of Cisco, M. M. Stubblefield of Carbon, W. C. Crone of Oiden, and Joe Bob Browning of Gorman.

Funeral Sunday At 2 p.m. For Otis Knox, 66

Funeral services for Otis B. Knox, 66, who was accidentally electrocuted Friday night in Oiden, will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at Arrington-Hamner Chapel with the Rev. Eugene Williams, pastor First Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Eastland Memorial Cemetery. Mr. Knox, Eastland resident since 1920, was working on a water well in Oiden about 6 p.m., when the accident occurred. He and Mrs. Knox had purchased land in Oiden, and were making preliminary preparations for eventually building a home there. Sheriff L. E. Sublett and Deputy Loy Williams made the investigation. Justice of the Peace Wells Dalton pronounced him dead by electrocution at the scene. Mrs. Knox accompanied her husband to Oiden but had not witnessed the accident. Born June 2, 1901 in Aspermont, he was a retired oil field worker and had lived in Carbon prior to moving to Eastland. He was a member of the Men's Fellowship Bible Class of the First Christian Church. He married Katie Arnold Dec. 5, 1925 in Eastland. Survivors include the wife of 107 S. Connellee St.; one son, Otis Jr. of Little Rock, Ark.; one daughter, Mrs. E.R. Morton of Fort Worth; three brothers, Alvis and Bonner, both of Baytown, and Crawford of Rhode Island; three sisters, Mrs. Dewey McClough of Lubbock, Mrs. Clifton Garrett and Mrs. Ray Rogers, both of Gorman; and 2 grandchildren.

Church of God Dedication Set For April 16th

On Jan. 16, 1966, the First Church of God, 501 South Lamar St., Eastland, elected Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Williams as pastors of the church. In the early spring of that year the church began a fund raising campaign in order to remodel their church, which was indeed needing repair very much. By October they had raised enough money to complete the outside of the building which consisted of a new roof, new windows, a fiber-glass spire and a paint job. The outside of the building was completed in November, and the revival was held with Rev. Billy Sanders of Lubbock as the evangelist. On Jan. 30, 1967, the work of remodeling the inside of the church was started which consisted of: paneling the walls of the sanctuary, and one large Sunday school (Continued on Page 4)

Eastland has three lodges—the Oddfellows, Knight of Pythias, and the Masonic Lodge. They hold regular meetings and help the community in many ways.

The merchants in Eastland look to the Merchant Credit Association for information about their customers. The Chamber of Commerce is another aid to the businessman. The Jaycees have done many things for the area, one being establishment of the Peanut Bowl. The Peanut Bowl Game is an annual clash between two rival junior colleges, Cisco Junior College and Ranger Junior College. Peanut Bowl Day in Eastland is a special event. There are twirling contests and a parade to mark this day and to stimulate enthusiasm for the big football game that night.

The women in Eastland have not been left out by any means. A few of the clubs for women are Las Leales, Thursday Afternoon Club, Civic League and Garden Club, and Music Study Club. There are two sororities that meet regularly in different homes. They are the Beta Sigma Phi, and the Xi Alpha Zeta, both service organizations.

The young married women also have another club, the Young Homemakers of America.

Art lovers are not forgotten. Many residents in Eastland are members of the Art Club. These members paint china, pottery, and some landscapes and portraits.

The Pioneer Club offers hours of enjoyment for the older generation of women in Eastland. They meet in various homes to play cards and dominoes or just to sit around and talk.

The Eastern Star is an active organization for the wives of Masons in Eastland and sponsors the Rainbows.

Most important of all Eastland residents perhaps are the teenagers. Some day soon they will be the leaders and businessmen of Eastland and many towns similar to it. Eastland has not forgotten its teenagers. One of the newest clubs for Eastland teenagers is the Junior Music Club '67. One must be interested in music and have some skill in order to be a member of the club.

Each class in Eastland High School has a separate club for the girls. These are not school clubs but only class members may belong. Each graduating class leaves its club to the incoming freshman. These clubs are the Socialites, Sub-Debs, Co-eds, and Double Seven.

The Future Farmers of America and the Future Homemakers of America have active clubs in the high school. The FFA enter their projects in the Abilene, Fort Worth and Eastland livestock shows. The FHA attends district and state meetings at Dallas and Stephenville each year. A division of the home-making department is the Candy Strippers. They take a course in first aid and become volunteer workers at Eastland Memorial Hospital.

Three other school clubs are the Thespians, Glee Club, and Beta Club. The Thespians is a drama club composed of the members of the speech class. The newly organized Glee Club is now on a voluntary basis, and meetings are held during activity period three or four times a week. In order to be a member of the Beta Club, one must have an A or B average. The Beta Club has helped to improve the school with many projects.

In the summer the teenage boys join the Teenage League and the smaller boys join the Little League. Both baseball leagues have a well kept field.

There are two country clubs in Eastland. Lone Cedar is located on Lake Leon and Lakeside Country Club is located at Eastland Lake. Each club has a golf course. Lone Cedar has a large club house and swimming pool overlooking the lake.

The Civic Theatre has been established the last two years.

It gives residents of the community an opportunity to reveal their acting talent. They give an average of two or three plays a year in the Beall-Hurst Playhouse located east of Eastland on the Beall-Hurst Ranch.

Eastland is not without recreational facilities either. There is a city park with picnic tables, swings, tennis courts, and a large swimming pool. There is a smaller pool for the children. Fireman's Hall is located at the park. There are teenag dances at the hall almost every Saturday night.

There is an interstate theatre in downtown Eastland. There are three drive-ins within a twenty mile radius. The bowling alley is located east of Eastland. It has twelve lanes and a handy snack bar. There are six restaurants in towns and three drive-in restaurants.

The junior high has the Y building under the bank. It is open almost every Saturday night. It has a jukebox and a fine dance floor. There are billiard tables and a hamburger grill.

Eastland has three lakes to offer its residents a refuge from the every day toil and grind. You may fish in the Eastland and Ringling lakes located north of Eastland. Lake Leon east of Eastland has many cabins and homes built along its shores. You can fish, swim, boat, or just relax in the sun.

Aside from recreation, Eastland has a fine school system. There is a new elementary school and gym. The high school and junior high are located on a hill overlooking the town. There are two old gyms and an air-conditioned bandhall located on the campus.

Eastland has four skilled doctors, two dentists, and one optometrist. There are two nursing homes and a hospital in Eastland. The hospital is modern and is constantly expanding and building more wings. There is an airport in Eastland and a railway station.

Eastland is not without industry. Already there are several factories. The Hollywood Vantage located here is famous. The Victor Optical Factory, other factories, Lightweights pany, what haydite. Eastland ning, building. The drowny a small soue. Not Eastland

Tornado Season Calls for Warning-Signal Advice

Sosebee of the Department of Public Safety urged Eastland to review tornado warnings.

Adverse conditions can occur in the spring, Sosebee said, and the Bureau of Meteorology reports that Texas has the highest number of tornadoes per year, an average of 80.7 per year, a record of 1,210 tornadoes from 1951 to 1966.

cellar; if time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be free from water, gas or debris.

If you are in open country, move at right angles to the tornado's path. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

If in a city or town, seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS. If at home, some protection is offered by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the side of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building. Standing against the inside wall or on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

If in school, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall if possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs. Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. You must be prepared, however, just in case.

Sosebee gave these general facts concerning tornadoes:

Tornado weather can be not sticky days with southerly winds and a threatening, ominous sky. Familiar thunderstorm clouds are present. An hour or two before a tornado, topsy, twirly clouds appear sometimes bulging down instead of up. The clouds often have a greenish-black color. Rain and frequently hail precede the tornado with a heavy downpour after it has passed.

Tornadoes occur mostly between 3 and 7 p. m., but they have occurred at all hours.

Tornadoes in most cases move from a westerly direction, usually from the southwest. The tornado's path is usually 10 to 40 miles (the average length is 16 miles), but they may move forward for 300 miles. The average width of the path is about 400 yards, but they have cut swaths over a mile in over-all width.

Tornadoes travel about 25 to 40 miles per hour, with wind speed estimated as high as 500 miles per hour within the tornado.

Tornadoes cause destruction with violent winds which uproot trees, destroy buildings, and which create a serious hazard from objects blown through the air; and by differences in air pressure which can cause buildings to collapse.

WSCS TO HEAR REVIEW AT TUESDAY MEETING

At the regular session of WSCS Tuesday, Mrs. T. M. Collie will review the final chapter of the book, "Need is our Neighbor", as the Church's response is considered. Mrs. Ed F. Willman will be the devotional speaker, and Mrs. Joe Stephen will discuss facts related to the United States' role in Foreign Aid. A skit entitled "The Giver and Receiver" will be given by Mmes. Joe Francis and I. C. Heck. The filmstrip "Laos" is to be shown also.

Last Tuesday, the group heard Mrs. J. M. Perkins tell about the Woman's Medical College in Pennsylvania where many effective medical missionaries have been trained.

The devotional given by Mrs. Ed F. Willman on "God's Love" was based on the thirteenth chapter of 1 Corinthians.

Mrs. A. E. Cushman presented an interesting and challenging discussion on "rediscovered Man-Power". The consensus was that local churches are better equipped to discover and motivate latent talents for service, than are governmental organizations, due to the normal knowledge of the local situation by church members.

Those attending were Mmes. Davenport, Perkins, Ethridge, Cushman, Harold Ray, H. J. Bulgerin, O. O. Mickle, Ed Willman, J. E. Loughry, I. C. Heck, T. J. Haley, Frank Crowell, L. C. Brown, Turner Collie, Carl Elliott, Milburn Long, Roy Lawson, T. M. Johnson, Etta Johnson, C. C. Collings and C. T. Brockman.

HOMEMAKERS' HINTS

By JANET MEYERS
Home Demonstration Agent

The Eastland County Home Demonstration Council is scheduled to meet Wednesday, April 5 at 2 p. m. in the Reddy Room, Eastland. Final plans will be made at this time for the visit to Chandor Gardens in Weatherford. Chandor Gardens is an outstanding "show place" garden in the southwest. All home demonstration club members are encouraged to make plans to attend.

The District 8 Texas Home Demonstration Association convention will be held in Stephenville at Tarleton State College on April 13 and 14. Attending as voting delegates from Eastland County will include Mrs. Ray Gordon, Ranger; Mrs. Geneva Brown, Eastland; and Mrs. W. V. Fenter, Rising Star.

Any home demonstration club member may attend the meeting by paying a 25 cent registration fee for each day attended. The meetings are most informative and enjoyable, and anyone wishing to attend is encouraged to do so.

Following the banquet on Thursday night, Eastland County along with Comanche County will be in charge of the recreation workshop.

For many people, spring is paint-up, clean-up time. Don't let your hard work be wasted by using the wrong materials. The common paint problems of wrinkling, cracking, chalking, blistering, peeling, and mildewing can be reduced to a minimum if a few simple precautions are taken.

Wrinkling occurs when the paint is applied too thickly, especially in hot weather, or when too much oil has been used in mixing the paint, or when the paint is applied at too low a temperature. To correct this problem, sand the wrinkled surface smooth and apply another, thinner, coat of paint at a temperature above 40 degrees.

Cross grain cracking occurs when paint is applied too frequently and is allowed to build up an excessively thick, brittle coat. To stop the cracking, remove all the old paint down to the bare wood and repaint. If a coat paint is allowed to weather for a normal length of time before applying another coat, the removal of the old paint will not be necessary and cracking will not occur.

Excessive chalking usually occurs when an inferior product has been used, or when a previous coat of paint was improperly applied. To correct chalking, remove all the chalk and apply two coats of quality paint.

Blistering and peeling are caused by excessive moisture back of the paint film, moisture on the interior, or by the entrance of outside water. The amount of moisture may be reduced by proper ventilation and proper construction to prevent the entrance of water. Water repellents and blister-resistant paint may be used successfully.

Mildew usually occurs on painted surfaces where continuous warm and damp conditions prevail. Many paints contain a mildew inhibitor such as mildewicide or fungicide, and they should be used in places where mildew might occur.

Contract Let To Seal Coat 39.598 Miles

A contract for seal coat for 39,598 miles in Eastland County has been awarded to a Belton, Texas, firm, according to the State Highway Commission.

Jeff Richards and Son submitted the low bid. Roads in Eastland County to be seal coated are US 380, 13,416 miles; FM 569, 6,570 miles; FM 1864, 4,792 miles; FM 2214, 5,127 miles; and SH 6, 9,693 miles.

MUSIC FOR STRINGS IS STUDY CLUB'S THEME

Eastland Music Study Club met Wednesday, April 5, at the Woman's Club for a program on the subject "Dedicated to the N.F.M.C. Crusade for Strings."

Mrs. Don H. Russell, president, presided, welcoming the members and guests. She read the quotation by Vera Wardner Dougan "There should be more American music for strings and more symphony orchestras. The potential of the American musician, whether composer or performer, is unequalled elsewhere."

The hymn for the month, "The Head That Once Was Crowned," was led by Mmes. Jack Frost and Grady Pipkin.

Mrs. Russell introduced Mrs. A. L. Murrell, who gave the study from the Opera Lucia Di Lammermoor.... Gaetano Donizetti.

A string ensemble composed of Mrs. Tom Wilson, cello; Mrs. S. E. Hittson, viola; and Mrs. David Pickrell, violin; accompanied by Ben Karnes, piano presented Elegie by Jules Emile Massenet. The music for the ensemble was arranged by Mrs. Hittson, who also served as spokeswoman for the group.

Other selections presented were The Quartette, Verdi; and The Sextette (Lucia di Lammermoor), Donizetti.

Miss Verna Johnson accompanied her English students, Connie Coan, Marilyn Huckabay, and Sue Brewer, to the meeting. These students and Lela Lee received awards from the Music Club for their themes on "Music is for Everyone," dedicated to National Federation Music Week.

Each girl read her theme for the audience and presented a copy of it to the club.

Present were Mmes. Sallie Bishop, Clara Cockrill, Mike Collins, A. D. Dabner, Jack Frost, Hittson, Dale Langlitz, Gwen Meacham, Murrell, Pickrell, Pipkin J. M., Perkins T. E., Richardson, E. G. Rice, Russell, Floyd Robertson, Joe Stephen, Weaver, Wilson, Hubert Toombs, and Misses Johnson, Huckabay, Coan, Brewer, Marjorie Van Hoose; and Mr. Karnes.

Bike Riders, Speeders Cautioned by Police

Another sure sign of spring is the appearance of bicycle riders — and there's a lot of peddling to and fro, on Eastland streets right now.

And not all of the biking is being done in the safest manner, Eastland Patrolman R. D. Arnold reports.

Scout-meeting nights are especially busy now, he said, with youngsters peddling about the town. This is good, but when the meetings are over, the youngsters are on the streets — many without any kind of lights, making an extremely dangerous situation, he said.

The patrolman suggests that copies of the Texas Drivers Handbook, which contains "Bicycle Safety" data on page 46, be secured from the Justice of the Peace office or from the County Sheriff's office.

Bike riders are most generally minors, but adults in the town are also operating motor vehicles in similarly dangerous manner. For instance, the patrolman says, many drivers are failing to exercise the proper precautions at the "Yield" signs and failing to stop at the "Stop" signs.

Jaycees Host For Area Forum

Eastland Jaycees hosted a forum for area Jaycees in the high school gym Wednesday night. Approximately 75 Jaycees attended from Breckenridge, Cisco, Ranger, Weatherford, Mineral Wells, Everman, Forrest Hills, Fort Worth, Longview, Burkburnett, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Brownwood, and San Antonio.

Don Beard of the local club was in charge of arrangements.

Abilene Jaycees presented the program and Glenn Reed of San Antonio was guest speaker.

Another prevalent violation, he said, is speed in the school zones — particularly on West Commerce St., where the speed limit is 20 miles an hour.

Parents are being urged to warn their children of the dangers associated with bike riding — and to practice good driving safety habits as an example.

Visiting with Mrs. Adele Whitten last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, Jr., Johnny, Ricky and Laura of Bridgeport, Brenda Culpepper of Bridgeport, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Fortenberry, Judy, David and Philip of DeCator, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Edwards, Dianne and Alan of Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. David Whitten of Corpus Christi, and Jack Whitten of Throckmorton.

FHA Club Sees Slides Tuesday

The Future Homemakers of America met Tuesday in the high school auditorium for a program on "Careers in Home Economics," given by Mrs. Wanda Chilton, assistant home demonstration agent. All high school girls attended.

Mrs. Chilton used colored slides to present facts about a very important profession, home economics, often called "the profession with one thousand jobs titles."

A person with a degree in home economics may have a job in a nursery school, teaching, extension, health and welfare, journalism, television, dietetics, institution administration, with a utility company, in the Peace Corps, research, interior design, or in fashion.

All home economic jobs relate to the very basic needs of people and to the creative work which will help meet those needs.

Eastland School Band Banquet Is Held March 31st

The annual band banquet was held Friday, March 31 at the elementary school cafeteria. The theme of the banquet was a Spanish fiesta.

The cafeteria was decorated with bright colors to match the theme. The tables were decorated with bright fiesta-colored paper down the center. Also on the table were flowered candle holders and big Spanish flowers. Palm trees were placed around the room and on one side of the room were posters with pictures of bull fighting scenes. Trees made of bright fiesta flowers were placed on the stage.

As the people entered into the banquet room they passed through a garden and were served punch by Mrs. Tom Wilson and Mrs. Don Pierson.

The invocation was given by Bill Kendrick; welcome by Band Booster President, John Graham; response by Band President, Eddie Gallagher; awards by Band Director, John Foster; and the program was given by the Tijuana Brass, a group of eight students from Big Spring High School.

The delicious meal which included barbecue beef, potato salad, cold slaw, beans, relish, tea, and ice cream was catered by Underwood's of Abilene.

About 125 band students, their dates and parents attended the banquet.
