County Servicemen To Be Honored at Flag Day Event

All Eastland County servicemen, past and present will be honored at the Annual Flag Day Ceremonies at the Eastland Post Office, Wednesday, June 14, it has been announced.

Friends and relatives of servicemen are being particularly invited to attend the 9 a. m. ceremonies. Postmaster Marene Johnson has reported.

Principal speaker will be Gen. Hamilton Howse, Army retired, and presently a Bell Helicopter executive, who will arrive in Eastland by helicopter shortly before the event.

Providing music for the patriotic celebration will be the 36-piece 328th Army Band of Fort Wolters, Mineral Wells. In addition there will be some 10 to 15 foreign students from Fort Wolters present, who will perform informally at a special barbecue at noon at Lone Cedar Country Club, to which the public is invited. Tickets are on sale for the barbecue at $2 each, and the purchase will provide a meal for the holder and a serviceman, Mrs. Johnson said.

The Rev. Eugene Williams, pastor of the First Christian Church, and a retired Army colonel, will be in charge of the salute to Eastland County servicemen. There are presently some 1,000 men and women from this county on active duty, and the record through the years of service is long and extensive.

Boxed candy is being asked for as memento for the visiting servicemen, Mrs. Johnson said. The barbecue will be catered by the country club, and the servicemen will be afforded the opportunity of a swim in the club pool during their stay here, she said.

Green Beret Sergeant Is Buried In Service At Snyder On May 30

Sgt. Donald Thorpe Deere, a 22-year-old Snyder soldier who gave his life for his country while serving in Viet Nam with a Special Forces detachment of the famous Green Berets, received military rites at Hillside Memorial Gardens in Snyder on May 30.

The soldier was officially declared dead by the Army on May 18, 1967, after having originally been reported missing in action May 17, 1966. The Captain in the Green Beret detachment with which Donald served described the action in which the Snyder soldier was listed as missing. Operating with South Vietnamese forces at Lac Ninh near the Cambodian border, Sgt. Deere was hit in the thigh by enemy fire while attempting to cross a clearing to contact his unit. He was never seen again. Viet Cong forces took the position and it was later recaptured by American troops. Deere's body was never recovered.

The Rev. Jerry Speers, pastor of Green Hill Baptist Church of Snyder, officiated at the services, which were held in Bell - Seale Chapel. Assisting were the Rev. Allen Forbis, pastor of Fluvanna Methodist Church; the Rev. Odie Archie, Sr., and the Rev. Samuel Deigade.

A special detachment of U. S. Army units from Brooks Medical Center at San Antonio and Fort Hood were in graveside rites at the cemetery.

The services were followed by the regular Memorial Day service of the local posts of the VFW and American Legion. A memorial bronze plaque was placed in Hillside's Field of Honor in Deere's honor.

Congressman George Mahom extended his sympathy to the family and expressed regret that he could not be present for the service.

Sgt. Deere was born September 6, 1944, in Roscoe and attended Snyder schools and Ranger Junior College. He joined the National Guard and entered the U. S. Army in July, 1963. He served a tour of duty in Okinawa prior to his special assignment in Viet Nam in January 20, 1966. The Green Berets is an Army Special Forces unit comprised of soldiers trained especially for guerrilla warfare and action in unusual situations. They are all volunteers.

Sgt. Deere was the great-nephew of Mrs. Victor Cornelius of Eastland, who attended the services Tuesday; and the great-grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pettit, longtime Eastland residents. Donald's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Leonard E. Thorpe, Sr. of Dallas, is the former Thelma Pettit of Eastland.

Survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Deere of Snyder; two brothers, Charles of Fort Hood and D. Leonard of Arlington; one sister, Mrs. Roy D. Sanderford of Arlington; the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Delphia Deere of Lamesa; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Thorpe, Sr. of Dallas; four nephews and one niece.

Freedom Exhibit Slated At ColC

The United States Army's traditional role as defender of the nation's liberties is outlined in a new exhibit that will be on display at Chamber of Commerce in Eastland, June 8-16.

Entitled U. S. ARMY — A HERITAGE OF FREEDOM, the indoor display makes effective use of photographic reproductions of paintings by some of America's great military artists to tell its story.

Each painting depicts a scene from a battle in which the Army acted as an essential instrument in defense of the American way of life. Action from all major conflicts in which the nation took part — from the Revolutionary War to the struggle against Communist aggression in Viet Nam — is shown.

Mrs. Mary Oglesby of Clyde is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. A. K. Garrett this week. Also visiting from Clyde were Mr. and Mrs. Al Pierce and children.

Clark Gets 10 More Years; Gives Notice of Two Appeals

Larry Clark had another day in court Friday when he pleaded guilty to burglary, waived a jury and was given a ten-year sentence by Presiding Judge J. Frank Sparks.

The sentence will run concurrently with the 80-year sentence handed down Tuesday by Judge Sparks after Clark was found guilty by a jury of aggravated assault with intent to rape.

Coming as a surprise was notice given by Clark through his court-appointed attorney,

W.B. Wright, of his intention to appeal both cases, following the Friday proceedings.

Judge Sparks said formal sentencing will come in a few days. Procedure in the appeal will be for the attorney to continue to represent the defendant at county expense, through the appeals courts.

A civil case is set in 91st District Court for June 14, and Judge Sparks will be in Wichita Falls hearing a motion in a court there on June 9.

Jaycees Complete Sale Of 860 Feet Runway

The Eastland Jaycees have sold 860 feet of runway since beginning their "Runway by the Foot" project on May 24.

Any interested person may "buy" part of the runway at a dollar a running foot. All money will be used to complete the runway project at Eastland Airport. Everyone who buys one foot or more will receive a certificate from the Jaycees.

Mayor Frank Deaton bought the first hundred feet from James T. Wright, chairman of the airport committee. Other buyers are Curtis Koen, one hundred feet; Lewis Tinner, fifty feet; Chamber of Commerce, one hundred feet; Eastland National Bank, five hundred feet; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Anderson, ten feet.

The cost of the runway is more than originally estimated, according to Wright. "But we plan to complete it on time," Wright emphasized, "and we appreciate everyone's help. Any member of the Jaycees will give you more information and sell you part of the runway."

Judy Seaberry Awarded Degree

"What do you think of my game?" said the duffer to his friend.

President Johnson Congratulates '67 EHS Senior Class

The following letter was received by Eastland High School Monday:

The White House Washington

To the Graduating Class of Eastland High School of 1967: Please accept my warm congratulations upon your successful completion of high school. I know the pride your families and friends feel on this occasion, and I share it.

You and I cherish the same American ideals - ever larger freedoms, ever brighter opportunity for individual fulfillment for our citizens and for all mankind. We share the continuing task of perpetuating these ideals and translating them into reality. It is not my job alone, nor yours alone. It is ours together.

No one realizes more than your President that success will depend in large measure upon the priceless legacy you carry away from these halls: the knowledge you have won here; the stronger and more certain faith in yourselves that has been born here.

I want you to know that there is no finer contribution you can make for your country than to continue your adventure in education.

In this era of growing complexity and advancing technology, our country can remain strong and prosperous only when each young American acquires all the education he can possibly absorb.

You have my every best wish for a lifetime of success and achievement.

Sincerely
Lyndon B. Johnson

SUMMER REFLECTIONS ...

THE CALENDAR SAYS summer officially comes later this month, but the quiet stillness on Eastland High School Hill, reflected in this puddle following recent rains, indicates that the time is now for summer camps, vacations and enjoying the break from classes. Eastland youngsters are busy through with summer activities, and the September ring of bells seems a long time away. (photo by John Foster)

Barbecue Month And Father's Day Coming In June

College Station — Dairy Month, Barbecue Month and Father's Day — they're all a part of June.

Six types of foods in plentiful supply are a part of this month, says the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

They include eggs, orange juice, potatoes, dry beans, milk and other dairy products and beef.

Ample stocks of beef are perfect for celebrating National Barbecue Month. Or what better way to please Dad on Father's Day than to serve his favorite beef cut — perhaps prime rib, steak or roast.

This year's orange crop is running about 34 per cent above last season, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Understandably, orange juice supplies are large too. Orange juice makes the perfect breakfast eye-opener.

To spend more time outside the kitchen during warm summer weather, serve potatoes.
 Baked potatoes almost cook themselves, and they're family favorites. Market news offices of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service report big supplies of potatoes arriving at local markets now. Dry beans add tasty enjoyment to Section 1: The powers of government of the State of Texas shall be divided into three distinct departments, each of which shall be confided to a separate body of mag-istry, to wit: Those which are legislative to one, those which are executive to another, and those which are judicial to another ...

Article V
Judicial Department
 Section 1: The judicial power of this State shall be vested in one Supreme Court, in Courts of Civil Appeals, in a Court of Criminal Appeals, in District Courts, in County Courts, in Commissioners' Courts, in Courts of Justices of the Peace, and in such other courts as may be provided by

Army Exhibit Slated For Eastland Cof C Office Showing June 8-16

From the Revolutionary War to the struggle against Communist aggression in the Republic of Viet Nam — for nearly two hundred years, the United States Army has served as a prime instrument in defense of American liberties.

How the Army has fulfilled its mission throughout the years is depicted in a colorful exhibit, U. S. Army — A Heritage of Freedom, which will appear at Chamber of Commerce in Eastland, June 8-16.

The exhibit features color photographic reproductions of paintings, each showing a battle in which the Army played a decisive role in preserving the nation's liberties against aggression.

Scenes from all major wars in which the nation participated — as well as several lesser-known conflicts — are presented. Thus, the exhibit interrelates the history of both the United States and its Army, explaining that whenever American freedom was threatened, the Army stood ready to meet the challenge.

For example, viewers will see how the colonists' heroic stand at Bunker Hill ignited their will to win the Revolutionary War. They will see how, in 1867, a 30-man Army force fought off 2,000 Sioux during the Indian Wars in defense of westward-bound settlers.

Another exhibit section features the struggle against the Moors, fanatical pirates of the Philippines who had withstood Spanish conquest for several hundred years. After the United States took control of the Philippines in 1898, the Army fought a long campaign against these barbarians, finally defeating them in 1913.

This topical exhibit also shows the struggle in Viet Nam, featuring the battle in which Captain Roger H. C. Donlon earned the Medal of Honor.

Well-informed viewers will be able to see the Army's war victory in Viet Nam. There is no admission charge. "U. S. ARMY — A Heritage of Freedom" is currently on a national tour. For information, contact the Army.

On Ground', Singing At Flatwoods Church

be an old time ground and all at Flatwoods church located six miles east of Rockport, June 4. Every- cordial invita-

The Carbon Methodist Church will come to Flatwood for the morning service and participate throughout the day. The speaker for the morning service will probably be Mr. Wayne Reynolds or the pastor, Rev. Cockrell. This program is planned as a home coming and also to honor one of the old time members of the church, Mr. Homer Duncan.

Lunch at the noon hour will be for everyone. That afternoon everyone is invited to participate in the singing of old songs, new songs, quartets, etc. H. A. (Pete) Tyrone will be in charge of the singing for the day.

Mrs. Cecilia Richardson and daughter, Kerie of Dallas have been visiting in Eastland with her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Copeland and Nancy.

PERSONALS

Several families from Eastland went on a fishing trip close to Rockport, last weekend. The families were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carroll, Sherry, and Judy; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Langlitz, Connie, and Ronnie; and Mr. and Mrs. May D. Henson, Robert, and Clyde.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Melton Hunt over the weekend are her mother, Mrs. Frank Robason, and Mr. and Mrs. John Blumenschine. Mrs. Robason's family reunion, the Glenn Family, will be Sunday in Eastland.

Mrs. Ada Bowen and her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore and children, all of DeLeon, attended EHS graduation Monday. Connie Coan, one of the graduates, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Bowen.

The first Nobel prize was awarded in 1901.

INDUSTRIAL THEME...

The Eighth Wonder of the World?

DANNY COX, son of Mr. & Mrs. W. E. Cox, will be a Senior in the fall. He is a member of Future Farmers of America and was in the cast of the Junior Play. Danny attends First Methodist Church. His hobbies are fishing and hunting.

"In ancient times, long before there were great machines to help him, man showed that he was a clever builder. Some of things built long ago were so remarkable that they are called the Seven Wonders of the World." Eastland too has seven wonders. They may not be visible until one thinks about it; but for ever wonder of the world, Eastland has one that will symbolize it.

The first of the Seven Wonders of the World is the Great Pyramid. The citizens of Eastland have no real pyramid but through years of hard work they built a strong foundation for all businesses. And through years of more hard work they have placed the stores one by one onto the foundation. We are now waiting for some industry to help put the top stone and the facing of white limestone on our city.

The Hanging Gardens of Babylon is the second of the wonders of the world. These gardens were planted to give the king's wife the beauty of the forest in which they lived long ago. The various clubs throughout Eastland have also planted trees, shrubs, and flowers trying to make this place more presentable to new families who wish to live here. The trees and shrubs were said to have given the king's wife the feeling of being protected. Our city has protection also. We have a night watchman, one patrol car, and Eastland is the headquarters for the highway patrol for this area.

The Statue of Zeus at Olympia represents the power or control. All the small businesses, factories, and plants are the only real source of power, and the whole community works somewhere around them.

The Temple of Diana is an ancient sky scraper built in the memorium of Diana. Our city does not have any sky scrapers, but we do have one of the best courthouses in the country. Our courthouse has in it a tribute to all the men of Eastland county who died in either World War I or World War II.

The Tomb of King Mausolus was built by his wife to commemorate his death. The citizens of Eastland also have tombs, tombs of their loved ones who have passed away. Our cemetery is very well kept and no one would be ashamed to be buried in it.

The sixth wonder, the Colossus of Rhodes, was built for the sun gods. Today we have no sun gods in our community. We have churches, churches of various denominations for all people. Like the ancient Greeks we built our churches for our God so that we might all come and worship Him.

The last of the wonders, the Lighthouse of Alexandria, was built to warn ships that were entering the harbors. We also have a guiding light. It is not in a tower but one can see it if one looks hard enough. Our guiding light is our community and the businesses in it. We glow with pride over what we have done for it. The only thing that would make it shine a little more brightly would be an industry.

Eastland, the eighth wonder of the world? No, it is not, nor is it the millionth. We have no pyramids, lighthouses, gardens, temples, colossuses, moslems, or statues; but what we do have is an attractive little city which we all love.

Mrs. Horton Writes From The Middle East And Holy Land

(Editor's Note: Mrs. James Horton is on a 65-day cruise to 27 ports. She sailed from New Orleans April 6 on the Stella Polaris of the Swedish Lines.)

Dear friends at home: On the morning of May 1, our little "Stella" arrived in Alexandria which is the port of entry to Egypt. We transferred immediately by motor coach to the airport, taking the plane for the flight up the Nile River to Luxor. There were 36 of us together with our four guides.

After dinner at Hotel "New Winter Palace," we rode in horse-drawn carriages to the Temple of King Ramses II. Huge columns, twelve feet in diameter by 75 feet high, stand as monuments to this dynasty 4,000 years B. C. Statues of Kings, Queens, and animals still remain, many of them ungarbed by time.

Next morning after a very early breakfast, we crossed by ferry to the west side of the Nile. The night before, on the same ferry, we rode down the Nile with only the light of Egyptian stars overhead. It was a wonderful experience. Then by private cars, we drove but a few miles to what is known as the "Valley of the Kings." There we entered into the tombs of Intahmenten (King Tut) and other pharaohs. There are 64 of these tombs built in the side of sandstone hills. We descended into four of them and able to learn some of the habits and mode of living so long ago.

It is impossible to describe the greatness and colossal bigness of these Kingdoms of forty centuries before Christ. The city of Luxor is stagnant; no growth and certainly nothing clean. One wonders why this part of the background should be so backward.

Cairo is growing. There is much building of beautiful homes and luxurious boulevards.

The new airport is one of the largest and most beautiful I've seen. The museum in Cairo displays the wonders of a past world and contains all the findings — furniture, jewelry, food, etc. — that were in the tomb of King Tut.

Bible Lands: On the morning of May 4, we took a 250 mile flight from Cairo to Amman, Jordan, crossing the Suez Canal, the Sinai Peninsula, the wilderness of Moses and the Dead Sea. Amman is a large, beautiful city in the lowlands of Jordan, where planes can land. We drove by bus to Jerusalem, crossing the rolling hills of Judah. The terrain in the Jerusalem part of Jordan is very rough. It is made up of high, rocky hills. Only the deep valleys can be cultivated.

St. George Hotel, where we stayed, is the heart of the city. Shops for souvenir buyers are nearby. We were told that the tourist business affords practically the only income for the people in this city of 85,000. We visited many Biblical places and I felt I was walking on Holy Ground, among these were Mount of Olives, Garden of Gethsemane, where Christ spent his hours of before the betrayal by Judas, the Agony Rock, the Holy Sepulchre and Calvary.

In Bethlehem, just 12 miles from Jerusalem, we visited Rachel's tomb, the grotto of the Nativity where Christ was born and laid in a manger, the milk grotto and saw the saw the sloping fields where Ruth and Naomi worked for Boaz.

Driving from Jerusalem to the Dead Sea, we descended 1,300 feet below sea level. This is the lowest place on earth.

Continuing toward Jericho we crossed a very high ridge of mountains before coming down into the city. Jericho is a place of beauty; growth, is lush. They raise many fruits and vegetables, delicious oranges and lemons.

Part of the old and famous wall of Jericho still remains. —It is the oldest city in the world, as records have been found dating as far back as 700 B. C.

Then on the Damascus, Syria. The countryside crossing the plains of Jordan was luxurious with fields of grain not yet ripened. There were many flowers, poppies, great clumps of white daisies and many unknown wild flowers.

Fields of grain were even richer as we drove into the Syrian countryside.

Damascus claims to be the oldest city in the world with continuous habitation. We drove through the residential district where there are many large and beautiful homes, many of our western architecture. Most interesting was the very old "Street called Straight," where we came upon St. Paul's Window in the wall. The Apostle allegedly escaped through this window and to the Chapel of Ananias, which is the oldest church in Christendom. It is a Catholic church now.

Damascus is truly a city of contrasts. Cars are mostly makes from America. We rode in a Dodge. There are very few stop lights and drivers seem to be making up their own rules. Horns blared in the heart of the city. Population is 250,000.

Syria is an independent country and one which has not received help from the United States. Education is free through Master's Degree. It is compulsory from 6 to 16 years of age. A student must pay for his books.

Driving west from Damascus, we were many hours between ranges of mountains on which many had enough snow that young people were skiing on them. Here again the valley was rich in fields of grain, watered by the Biblical Mount Hermon.

Spring is the best time of year to enjoy this part of the world.

We visited the ruins of the enormous Roman Temple of Jupiter and nearby the temples of Baachus and Venus. These old historic temples are in the city of Baalbek, Lebanon. The foundation stones are reputed to be the largest ever quarried by human hands. These temples were built in the first to third centuries, A. D.

$5,250 Damages Awarded by Jury

A 91st District Court jury deliberated for about four hours Thursday and found in favor of the plaintiff, awarding the Pirtle's of Cisco $5,250 in damages.

A total of $33,760 had been asked in the suit. The jury held that a 1964 accident in Cisco was not "unavoidable." W. T. Eaton was jury foreman.

The suit was styled Vaughn R. Pirtle vs. Ervin Addy III, Pirtle 20, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pirtle and Addy is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ervin E. Addy II.

The damage suit resulted from an auto collision in Cisco on Dec. 5, 1964 at 11:15 p. m. in which Addy and Pirtle were drivers of two vehicles.

In the Pirtle's original petition, six points of negligence were charged against the Addy youth, and sums including $1,600 for replacement of a Volkswagen; $27,160 past and future earnings for the youth; and $5,000 for his parents in loss of service is asked.

The Addy's answer disclaimed points of negligence on the Addy boy's part, but counter-charged four points of negligence against the Pirtle youth, and called the incident an "unavoidable accident."

Testimony began Wednesday after selection of the four women, eight man jury in Judge J. Frank Spark's court.

The Ben Sudderth law firm of Comanche is counsel for the Pirtles and the Brown, Day and Crowley firm of Fort Worth represents the Addys.

Among the witnesses testifying Thursday morning were young Pirtle, his father, Ronnie Reynolds and Reynolds' mother, Mrs. Don Reynolds, all of Cisco.

On the jury were W. T. Eaton, Ann Justice, Andy Taylor, Everesto Jiminez, Mary F. Houghton, Mrs. J. W. O'Neal, Gene A. Agnew, E. H. Cook, Troy Johnson, Mrs. Jesse N. White, Charles Harper and R. C. Long.

Mrs. Horton Reports on Trip To Turkey in Mediterranean Cruise

(Editor's note: This is the third in a series of letters from Mrs. James Horton, who is on a Mediterranean cruise.)

Dear Friends at Home: I'm much behind in writing as we have been so busy sight-seeing each day. After leaving Lebanon we anchored at two Greek Islands before reaching Istanbul, Turkey. However, I'm going to tell you of them later in my summary of Greece.

Istanbul is an old city first called Byzantium, then Constantinople, then finally Istanbul. It sets on seven hills above the dark blue, swift waters of the Bosphorus which separates Europe and Asia. It is considered as one of the Mediterranean's most alluring cities. People in this city dress in Western attire as we do. Cars are of American make with more Chevrolets than any other. They are a busy, serious-looking people. The population numbers two and a half million.

There are two famous Mosques in Istanbul. The Blue Mosque with its six slender minarets is unique in the world. Only one other mecca has seven. Inside its walls, domes, and semi domes are covered with delf blue tile which glows beautifully as the sun's rays come floating through the high windows. Floors are solid with oriental rugs for our stocking feet.

St. Sophia Mosque was inaugurated as a Christian church in 537 AD and converted in 1453 to a Mosque and now is a museum. It has magnificent mosaics of the early-Christian era. The central dome is the largest in the entire world.

The grand bazaar in Istanbul has many oriental curiosities and more beautiful jewelry than I've ever seen in one place. Though the bazaar is out of doors, it is under cover.

The Topkapi Museum was recently made famous by the motion picture "Topkapi." This museum was originally the palace of the Sultans during the Ottoman Regime. Each Sultan added rooms and building which adds to its architectural charm. The treasury buildings house an extraordinary jewelry and Chinese porcelain collection, undoubtedly the largest and richest in existence. Precious jewels adorned all their belongings, from solid pearled pillows to rubies and emeralds in thrones and swords with other precious stones.

From Istanbul over the calm charcoal colored waters of the Black Sea to Yalta Russia, which is situated on the southern slopes of the Crimean Peninsula. Yalta is considered one of the finest resorts of the Soviet Union. The whole country has been beautifully landscaped by czars of former years, one who owned 18,000 serfs. From the standpoint of vegetation, it is one of the most beautiful places I've ever seen. It is clean beyond description. The roadways are lined with blooming wisteria trailing over rock walls, rebuds blooming rich color and a profusion of blooms, very double white spires, acres and acres of grape vines, trees of tall slender cyprus, maple and one called the plane tree, said to be a tree of health.

Yalta is a health center with many sanitoriums. It is the site of the famous conference of Churchill, Stalin, and Roosevelt. We visited the palace of this meeting.

However, there is much behind the beauty which is not pretty. People are poorly dressed and most unhappy looking. They live in very small apartments in large buildings which are constructed a solid block long with small communal courtyards in the center back. The beautiful parkways along the beach are lined with benches where they may sit and sun. This, too, is communal.

There are no cars, only taxis and buses. Service is not.

have their hours for play. Odessa is famous for opera and ballet. They sold us tickets for a Russian evening of dinner and opera and did not inform us that the opera house was under repairs and will not be ready until November 7, the date for celebrating the 50th anniversary of their revolution. Instead they substituted Ukrainian folk dances and an amateur talent show with no explanation. We were sorely disappointed.

Leaving Russia we sailed south over the very smooth Black Sea through the Bosphorus, the Dardanelles, across the Aegean Sea, to Athens, Greece, of which I shall tell you later.

Human Error Is Cause Of Most Auto Accidents

Auto accidents don't just happen. They are caused.

An overwhelming proportion of them are caused by some human element. Sometimes, this human element involves a driver with a physical or emotion condition that makes him a less than ideal driver.

You may think you are in good health. You may have an excellent safety record. Yet, under certain circumstances, it can be dangerous for you to be in the driver's seat, says a pamphlet of the American Medical Association.

Doctors agree that the emotional stability of the driver is as important as any single factor in maintaining traffic safety. That's why you owe to others — and to yourself — not to drive when you have serious problems on your mind. If you are thinking about that argument you had before you left your home or office; if you're in a depressed or angry "I-don't-care-what-happens" mood; if you're very worried about a personal problem... you're better off not driving.

The sleepy driver causes many accidents. In fact, a sleepy driver is as much of a hazard as a drinking one. Dozing at the wheel can occur in broad daylight as well as at night. When making long trips in the summer vacations soon to come, rest every two hours and drink coffee or cola to stay alert. Next time you feel the least bit drowsy while driving, pull up and rest up.

Research proves that many medicines, not just a few, can affect the way in which you handle the wheel. Certain commonly used drugs such as antihistamines, cold tablets, and mild sedatives may dull your reflexes or impair your coordination. Stimulants can make you nervous. Tranquilizing drugs can cloud your judgment and interfere with driving skills. Consult your doctor about the side effects of any drugs you take. Don't drive until you know that the medicine or drugs you take won't affect your driving.

It goes without saying that don't have to be drunk to be dangerous. Even a small amount of alcohol can impair judgment and reactions of many persons. Driving calls for clear healthy eyesight, side vision, judgment of distance and the ability to see well at night. Have your eyes tested regularly. If you have glasses for distance vision, don't forget to wear them.

If you have a nervous disorder, or a heart condition, or diabetes, ask your doctor whether you are a safe driver. This also applies as you get older. Past 65, reflexes and coordination tend to be a little slower.

GARY SNOWSILL ... a touch of Texas?

Honorary Texan . . . New Zealander Tells Lions Club Goodbye To Resume World Travels

Gary Snowsill, the young man from New Zealand who has made Cisco his "home away from home" for some 10 months, told the Lions Club goodbye in a talk Wednesday at the weekly luncheon at the Victor Hotel. He plans to leave in a few days for Chicago and Canada and a tour of Europe and Asia.

Gary, who arrived last summer in the Lions Club exchange program, has made his headquarters for extensive travel in the United States at the home of the James P. McCracken family.

During his stay, Gary visited 34 of the United States, served with the U. S. Army at Fort Hood for two weeks and at Fort Bliss for another two weeks. He has toured Washington, D. C., and the Pentagon, has seen the Grand Canyon of Arizona, visited Mexico, and has a touch of Texas in his talk.

The most scenic place Gary recalls visiting was in Virginia, which reminded him a great deal of New Zealand.

Among highlights of visits he enjoyed were the International Youth Conference in Montgomery, Alabama, late last summer; Cape Canaveral, Florida, and a missile launching; and, attending a rally of Ku Klux Klansmen in North Carolina where 700 new converts were initiated at a meeting attended by 4,500 robe-clad men in the shadows of a 75-foot high burning cross.

Gary's visit to the United States already is having results in New Zealand. He went to Kerrville's Camp and School for the Blind. He wrote a report of this activity to a Lions Club in New Zealand and an Institute for the Blind is now being built there.

In California, Gary talked at a Lions Club meeting and touched on the value of youth exchange programs. This year, California and New Zealand Lions are exchanging 15 students for summer stays as a result.

Gary has probably made more than 100 talks to Lions Clubs and other groups, including Cisco, Eastland, Ranger, Breckenridge and other area towns. He is an honorary Texan, having been made one by Governor Connally. He has made hundreds of pictures and acquired many souvenirs.

Gary's parents are expected to attend the coming convention of Lions International in Chicago, and he hopes to meet them there for a reunion. He expects to be back home in New Zealand in November or December.

The USA and New Zealand compare favorably in many ways, Gary has found. He feels that there is too much commercialism in this country. The news media, he believes, enjoys too much freedom.

There is a big difference, too, in the lives of the young people. A youth of 18 supports himself in New Zealand unless he is an invalid, Gary said. Too many guns in this country probably contribute to the higher crime rate, he felt.

The cost of living is much higher in this country. In New Zealand, real butter is less than eight cents a pound and milk costs less than that for a gallon. The U. S. has
