Tickets Are On Sale Now For Wednesday Noon Barbecue

FORT WOLTERS, Texas — Chief Warrant Officer Frank Chiarello puts the 328th Army Band through its paces in preparation for the concert the band will play in Eastland on June 14, Flag Day. The 328th Army Band of Ft. Wolters will furnish the music for the flag day celebration at Eastland, Wednesday, June 14, it has been announced here.

The 37-member band, directed by Chief Warrant Officer Frank Chiarello, is rich in Army tradition.

Many officials are to be present for the annual Eastland patriotic event which will be held Wednesday morning.

The 328th has been stationed at Fort Wolters since October of 1966. The origin of the 328 stems from the old Band No. 3 of the Quartermaster Replacement Center at Camp Lee, Va.

The band was activated in January, 1944, and moved to Fort Hamilton, N. Y., in April, 1946. It moved to the Military Ocean Terminal at Brooklyn, N. Y. in 1958, and then to Fort Wolters last fall. Since then it has participated in numerous graduations, concerts, and other activities where the traditional band music is appropriate.

The June 14 program will begin at 9 a.m. when the band forms at the Post Office at Eastland to lead a march up town and around the square. The group will also play a short concert of military and popular music.

Among the selections will be played are: "Stars and Stripes Forever," "American Red Cross," "Americans We," "Over There," a medley of American World War songs, "You're a Grand Old Flag," and "Hail, America."

Tickets for a noon barbecue at Lone Cedar Country Club are now on sale at $2 each. The $2 ticket entitles the holder er and a visiting soldier to the catered meal. Reservations can be made with Mrs. Marene Johnson at the Post Office before the weekend, she said.

INDUSTRIAL THEME... Agents 71 & 75 Reporting

By KAREN GREEN
This is the story of Agents 71 and 72, and their visit to Eastland, Texas.
"Agents 71 and 72 reporting for duty, Chief."
"Have you men finished your report on the Earth?"
"Yes, Chief, the report is ready for examination. We have done our best on this job."
"I am sure that you have. May I have the report?"
"Here it is, Chief."

What is the meaning of this? This report is not about the Earth. It is about a town named Eastland, Texas.
"It is a long story, but we shall try to tell you about it. Our craft went out of control, and we were forced to land in Eastland, Texas. We had to stay there until our craft was repaired. After it was ready, we were afraid to continue on our journey. Agent 71 and I decided to write our report on Eastland. That is the reason for our different report on the Earth."
"That is an interesting story, men. You may go to your stations. I will let you know when I finish examining your report on Eastland."

"Agent 71 and I hope you will be satisfied with our report. We shall be waiting for your opinion on our job."
Friday, January 27. Agent 71 and I were forced to land in Eastland, Texas. Our craft was giving us trouble and we had to stop. A mechanic told us that it would take a week to repair the craft. We then went into town and got a room at the Village Hotel. We registered, of course, under assumed names. Agent 71 and I stayed in our room all night.

Saturday, January 28. It is a beautiful morning in Eastland. We inquired about the town, and found out several interesting facts. Eastland is located in north central Texas, and has a pleasant climate all year. Large cities are within an hour or two drive from the town. Eastland is the county seat and the center of all important business of the county. Agent 71 and I found the people of Eastland to be friendly and interested in newcomers. We spent most of the day talking to people about the town.

Sunday, January 29. What a peaceful town! Agent 71 and I decided to see what the people of Eastland do on Sunday. We started out and began walking around. We passed the First Baptist Church, the First Christian Church, the Methodist Church, the Church of Christ, and the Church of God. These were only a few of the churches we were able to see. Eastland seems to be a very religious and Christian community.

Monday, January 30. Today we were invited to visit Eastland's school system. We went to Eastland Elementary School. It is a beautiful and well-designed building. We then went to the junior high and high school. They are both situated on "The Hill." Junior high offers football, basketball, and band. Eastland High School has a great deal to offer its students. It offers band, choir, junior and senior plays, F.F.A., F.H.A., Beta Club, Thespians, and a Spanish Club. Sports seem to be very important at Eastland High School. One may choose football, basketball, tennis, golf, or track. After we visited the schools, we decided to go to the hospital. Eastland Memorial Hospital is a fine hospital and accommodates a large number of patients. The hospital has excellent emergency facilities, private and single rooms, a well-trained staff, and extensive medical care centers. We met Eastland's three doctors while visiting the hospital. The doctors are M. A. Treadwell, Ben Alexander, and H. J. Bulgerin. Agent 71 and I had a tiring day, and we decided to call it a day.

Tuesday, January 31. Eastland's downtown, commonly called the "Square," is our destination for today. There are stores of different types. The clothing stores are Bray's, Altman's, Jeanette's, and Mode O' Day. The four drug stores are Corner Drug, Central Drug, Eastland Drug, and Toombs and Richardson. Central Drug offers a variety of things. There are two jewelry stores, Beskow's and Smitty's. We also visited three lumber yards and two appliance centers. Agent 71 and I spent all morning downtown. During the afternoon we were shown around Eastland's three lakes. We first visited Eastland Lake and Ringling Lake. These two small lakes offer fishing and picnic areas. We then drove around Lake Leon. It is a medium-sized lake which serves the surrounding areas with water. Lake Leon offers swimming, skiing, picnic areas, and fishing. We spent a wonderful evening at Lake Leon.

Wednesday, February 1. Agent 71 and I went on a jaunt to "Park Hill." This park has swimming pools, a roquet court, tennis courts, picnic areas, and a playground. We spent all day playing tennis and roquet.
Thursday, February 2. Today we received word that our craft had been repaired. Agent 71 and I are not ready to leave. We had planned to stay another week. We had been invited to the Rotary Club, the Lions Club, the Music Study Club, the Thursday Afternoon Club, the Civic League and Garden Club, the Women's Club, and Las Leales. We had been invited to visit the ladies clubs just as a polite gesture. Agent 71 and I had planned to eat at Lone I had planned to eat at Lone Cedar and Lake View again before leaving. We had also planned to eat at the White Elephant, the Cactus, the Old Rip, the Coffee Shop, and the Cattleman's restaurant before we left. Agent 71 and I also enjoyed hamburgers at the King, the Dairy Treat, and the Texan. (These are the three drive-ins.)

Friday, February 3. Agent 71 and I are preparing to depart from Eastland. We have had an interesting time and are reluctant to leave. We decided that one day we shall return to Eastland, even if it is a million years from today. End of Eastland Journey. Agent 71—Agent 72.

July 4 History Pageant Outlined For Lions Club

History and growth of the Kendrick Easter pageant and related productions were program for the Eastland Lions Club Tuesday as J. H. Kendrick was speaker for the day.

Introduced by E. O. Moore, Mr. Kendrick informally explained how the family organized the Kendrick Quartet in 1944 and began a touring program which took them through a wide area, where they met people and became friends to many all over the country.

In order to have the opportunity to have more frequent visits with their friends, the family decided to begin the annual musical jamboree held the first Saturday of each August, and attended by thousands from far and near.

The Easter Pageant, he said, was the idea of Son Phil, and the first was held on the family-home lawn, and was so successful that the family decided that they'd either have to quit or grow bigger. A large amphitheater was built east of their home which is located between Eastland and Cisco, and already, the Pageant has attracted as many as 20,000 in one year, he said, and the family's goal is to eventually attract 100,000 people.

An early Easter and bad weather this year cut down their attendance, but next year with Easter, the third Sunday in April, estimates are that the attendance will grow.

Beef Production Short Course Will Be Held In Eastland County

A beef production short course for adult farmers will be held June 19-20-21-22 under the sponsorship of the Ranger, Olden and Eastland High School Vocational Agriculture Departments according to Mr. James Clark, Travis Hilliard, Wendle Siebert, Supts. and Beverly Dudley, Jr., Gilbert Copeland, Winfred Parr, teacher of Vocational Agriculture.

Frank C. Litterst, beef production specialist with the Vocational specialist with the Vocational of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Animal Science at Texas A&M University will be the instructor for the course. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University.

Mr. Litterst is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a degree in Animal Husbandry. Much of his work was done in livestock production. After three years of service in the U. S. Army, Mr. Litterst served as instructor in the Veterans Agriculture Program in Hays County four years and was District Sales Manager for Burrus Feed Mills, Fort Worth, Texas four years.

He then served as Manager, Baldwin Land & Cattle Company with ranchers in Travis and Shelby Counties until 1964. This included operation of a ranch consulting business in Texas and Louisiana. He has successfully operated his own ranching and farming business consisting of both registered and commercial cattle, sheep, Angora goats, Pecans and grain farming. He is a former director in the State Shorthorn Breeders Association and a member of American Angus, and Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

The short course is scheduled to begin Monday June 19 at 8 p. m. in the Community Center Building in Olden. Other meetings in the series of four will be held June 20-21-22. During the dates the short course is in progress, Mr. Litterst will be available to assist cattlemen with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Mr. Dudley.

Cattlemen interested in attending the short course should write or call one of the teachers of vocational agriculture, Mr. Dudley, Copeland or Parr. An entry fee of $2 will be charged.

Beef Production short course certificates will be presented to each cattleman who attends all the training sessions.

Mr. Litterst stated that the field of beef cattle production must take a close look at efficiency of production in the future. With land prices, feed and taxes rising, the producer is meeting more and more competition for the consumer's dollar at the meat counter. From the economic view of the beef cattle business, there is every indication that in comparing the producer of yesterday and the producer of tomorrow's beef must be produced to sell cheaper in order to be a profit-making business. Mr. Litterst indicates that the beef production short course will deal with methods of producing beef at a lower cost and the ways of producing the kind of beef that the homemaker wants to buy. He also stated that the course will include such important fields as cattle reproduction and pregnancy diagnosis, selecting bulls and replacement heifers, calf crop percentages, and supplemental winter feeding. The course can be changed to meet the wishes and interests of the farmers and ranchers enrolled.

"Short courses in beef production, as well as in other areas, are now available to farmers throughout the state under the cooperative program between Texas Education Agency and Texas A&M University," stated Bob Jaska, associate professor, Department of Agricultural Education at Texas A&M University, who coordinates the program for Texas A&M.

"This cooperative program," states Jaska, "is designed to make the services of specialists available to conduct short courses under the supervision of public schools. Such a program will enable teachers of vocational agriculture to provide improved educational services to farm people."

Specialists are now available in the fields of beef production, farm management, farm electrification, arc welding, swine production, tractor maintenance, dairy science, pasture, and oxyacetylene welding.

put it on paper... for RESULTS!

There may be faster means of communication, but for long-lasting effects, nothing beats the printed word. The following letter was written to "Dear Abby":

DEAR ABBY: I'll bet the people who spend fortunes on TV advertising would be sick if they knew how few people are actually sold by it. In the first place, you get all the products mixed up. They all make the same claims. For instance, I couldn't tell you to save my life which cigaret tastes good like a cigaret should, or which one is longer, or has the real tobacco flavor, is milder, cooler, has the filter tip, or which is the world's largest selling cigaret. After seeing people who would rather fight than switch — and others who happily ate their hats, no one knows which programs are brought to us by which cigaret company.

I have more confidence in advertising I can read and re-read. I don't go for this "now you see it, now you don't" stuff you get on television. NO SUCKER IN FARGO

"More confidence in advertising I can read and re-read". Don't you feel the same way?

And remember the printed word is all you can mail to interested grandparents and aunts and uncles. It's all you can cut out and paste in a scrapbook.

When you want to reach the public, call 629-1707 and let us handle the message.

The newspaper lasts longer. A lot longer.

You can still re-read it when the back on the scrapbook is worn thin.

All leaders are urged to at- tend this meet- ing!

The Eastland County 4-H Club program is going through a period of rapid advance- ment from the standpoint of the total program. The clubs are growing, the boys and girls are becoming more di- versified in their projects, and all in all the total education- al program is becoming more rounded. Instead of just livestock, cooking and sewing projects many young 4 - H- ers have gone into such projects as leadership, citizenship, pub- lic speaking, civil defense, and farm and ranch manage- ment.

It would be impossible to teach the every growing num- ber of 4-H Club boys and girls in these many varied fields if it were not for the outstanding group of adult leaders who are so willing to give of their time to "carry the ball" in working with the 4-H Club boys and girls.

We of the Eastland County Extension Office, De Gordon, Janet Meyers, and especially Wanda Chilton and Bob Co- hen, wish to acknowledge the outstanding work of these 42 leaders: Cisco — Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Pippen, H. County ACS Unit Elects Officers For Coming Year

Officers for the coming year were elected during the annual meeting of Eastland County Unit, American Can- cer Society, held in First Methodist Church of Eastland on Thursday evening, May 25. Sam Kimmel was named president with Mrs. D. E.

Pulley, vice-president; Mrs. Scott Bailey, secretary and Lloyd London, treasurer.

Of particular interest was the report of county service chairman Mrs. G. A. Fyffe which revealed that eleven patients had been served with 248 dozen dressings and 67 gift items during the year. Seventy-two women worked 1,229 hours to make a total of 381 dozen dressings and 79 gift items. The loan of two hospital beds and the death of five patients was also reported.

Speaker of the evening was Dr. Bill Brooks, Abilene path- ologist, who commended the county for its service record, stating that, population-wise, this unit is leading the Abi- lene unit.

In his address, Dr. Brooks cited progress in medicine, and cancer research, stress- ing the role of the human cell in the search for the cause and cure of cancer.

Towns of the county were well represented at the meet- ing.

HOMEMAKERS' HINTS

By JANET MEYERS
Home Demonstration Agent

Many homemakers are requesting information regarding canning and freezing during this season. Some fifty women attended last week's frozen food workshop held in Eastland. If you would like information in regards to home canning, frozen food, pickles and relishes, jams and jellies — write or call the County Home Demonstration Agent, P. O. Box 189, Eastland, or Telephone 629-1729.

The protection of clothing and many household furnishings during the summer months against insects can be a major consideration in spring cleaning.

Two of the most destructive pests of fabrics in the home are clothes moths and carpet beetles. The beetles are more abundant in most localities and often do the damage blamed on clothes moths. The larvae of both pests feed on anything containing wool or other animal fibers.

Paradichlorobenzene crystals or naphthalene flakes are effective against both pests provided the container in which the articles are stored is absolutely air tight. The mere odor of the chemical does not repel the insects. Oil-solution insecticides containing DDT, methoxychlor, Strobane or Perthane are fine for protecting clothes and blankets.

Rugs and carpets may be treated with a 5 per cent DDT oil solution every 12 to 18 months, using 1 1/2 to 2 quarts of spray on a 9 x 12 rug. Special attention should be given to the parts of a rug or carpet under furniture not often moved and around heat registers and under radiators.

Many high school graduates will begin to start thinking about their college wardrobe. Although tuition and living costs have increased this year, at many colleges, much of the total college expense can be found in a girl's closet.

According to the Extension Service clothing specialist, wardrobe costs for women were estimated by a survey to range from $200 to $500. Incoming freshmen generally bought more than the returning upperclassmen. Most of the freshmen shopped at home, using the family charge accounts, and left fill-ins to be purchased in local college shops. Upper class women tended to wait until their return to campus because they were familiar with the local stores.

The survey further revealed that the longer a woman is in college, the less she buys. As she approaches graduation, wardrobe content decreases and types of garments tend to be less campus-oriented in favor of clothing which can be used for a job.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Veon Howard are their grandchildren, Mitzi and Mary Ellen Thomas, both of Fort Worth.

Rising Star Man Is On Submarine

Machinist Mate First Class Ben E. McDonald, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel McDonald of Rising Star, Tex., is serving aboard the submarine USS Amberjack, a unit of the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Claudette is a junior at Eastland High School, and the groom is to be employed by Buck Wallace Welding Shop of Ranger.

5,200 Men Report For Training At Fort Hood

FORT HOOD Over 5,200 National Guardsmen from 70 Texas cities and towns traded their civilian clothing for Army fatigues and high-top boots on Sunday, June 4, as the 49th Armored Division's annual field training began here. The division includes the Eastland County unit of Cisco.

The state's "Lone Star" division will spend two weeks at North Fort Hood, although another 2,100 will be either on six months active duty for training with the Army, or supporting other activities.

A round-the-clock schedule and a new commander, Brig. Gen. James D. Scott, greeted the men. Scott took command of the 49th June 1, succeeding retiring commander Maj. Gen. Luther E. Orrick.

Some phase of training will be going on every hour of the day and night for the veteran reservists, who will devote their time to combat exercises. During the first week the 49th will be split, with some units heading into the wooded areas, sometimes going as far as 40 miles from the main cantonment area.

The tankers and infantrymen will combine into task forces for realistic live-fire training tests. Other highlights will be the ferrying of large groups aboard hastily-made rafts across streams. This is in preparation for the time when the 49th might be called on to make river crossings under combat conditions.

Advance units began to hit the highways Thursday and Friday prior to the actual start of camp, but Sunday was Day-Off for the division in which some 1,500 jeeps, trucks and military transports moved onto the highways in convoy from all corners of Texas.

As always, a mid-camp mounted review will be held, with members parading before military and civilian dignitaries and hundreds of visitors—mostly families of the Guardsmen.

On Sunday, June 18, the division will return to its home stations.

"As It Looks From Here" SEN. BURLESON Congressmen 17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The good Lord never makes mistakes and did not do so when he placed people in climates to which they were best suited.

Hot, humid climates are inhabited by people with darker skin, better to withstand the elements. The Irish, Scotch and the English seemingly were intended for those fog-bound islands and not so much for sun-favored West Texas. Those of us descended from these people have what is commonly known as a "ruddy" complexion, and the hot sun is our enemy.

Doctors in the East say that people from the Southwest, and particularly West Texas, have the best teeth and the worst skin known anywhere. Doctors say that cancer of the skin is slow-growing and it rarely spreads elsewhere in the body, but if untreated, it can destroy tissue locally and can ultimately grow down to the bone. If neglected for many years it might even penetrate far enough to cause death, but such instances nowadays are rare.

Dermatologists warn that sun and exposure are major causes of skin cancer and rarely occurs anywhere except on exposed surfaces of the body. The Surgeon's problem is to repair tissue loss so as to prevent scarring. Better than treatment, of course, is prevention.

Farmers and people with outdoor jobs are, of course, exposed to wind and sun by necessity. The elements faced by weekend golfers, fishermen and other sportsmen are by choice, and their exposure can be more serious because they are less accustomed to it.

Working outdoors guarantee you a bonus of warm, living sun and fresh air, but that sun, when enjoyed to excess, can be a real enemy as some of us have learned the hard way. Those of us who are light complected, who never tan but only freckle and burn, are the victims.

Our office manager, Mrs. Curtis, has just returned from a week's vacation. She and her husband brought a boat from Florida to the Chesapeake Bay through the Inland Waterway. Her arms are now peeling and her lips are blistered. She is a good reminder of what not to do.

There is no complete protection from the sun, but obviously, to avoid overexposure can do much to meet the threat of injury.

Doctors have advised many of us who are susceptible to the sun to first avoid it as much as possible, second, to use protecting applications, not to wash the face with soap and water but cleanse with cream, and even in the case of men, not to use an alcoholic base shaving lotion.

Now it has developed that all the hazards may not be under the sun — or at least outdoors under the sun. General Electric has recalled several thousand color television sets because it has found that they emit x-rays above the prescribed minimum. It was found that the emissions are directed to the floor but they are not too sure what happens to them after they hit. If they ricochet, viewers might be in the line of fire. If in an apartment house they may go on down to the occupants below.

We can more easily deal with the natural elements than we can with these unseen and unfamiliar hazards which arise out of present-day inventions.

As if we did not have enough hazards with the bathtub, we are now continuously creating more with our own progress, not to mention air and water pollution, a big part of the problem. This advice is free — otherwise a license would be required.

Record Number Of Visitors Seen In Coming Weeks

AUSTIN — Out-of-state visitors are coming to Texas this year in record-breaking numbers, according to figures released by the Texas Highway Department.

To better serve the anticipated rush of summer visitors the Department's seven Tourist Bureaus have extended their hours of operation to 12 hours daily, 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. The Bureaus are located on primary highway entrances to the State, and are open seven days a week.

Last year three-quarters of a million tourists visited the Bureaus. Despite the 1966 record year when the tourist industry in Texas topped the billion dollar mark for the first time, tourism officials are pointing for an even greater year.

The expected increase is forecast by an 8 per cent rise in the total services provided by the Tourist Bureaus during the first four months of 1967 compared to the similar 1966 period.

The Bureaus extend the first taste of Texas hospitality to many visitors and a warm welcome to all. They are staffed by uniformed, trained travel counselors who are credited with extending the stay of many motorists and upping the tourism receipts. They provide route assistance and charting, and are experts on state attractions, history and local events.

Also showing a marked increase are the services provided by the Highway Department's main office in Austin. These tourist aids include distribution of the Official State Highway Map, in-state routing information, colorful Texas information brochures and specific replies to requested information. Some 30,000 more inquiries have been processed this year than in the comparable 1966 period.

Materials used in the travel promotion program include Department-produced literature brochures from chambers of commerce, and promotion items provided by individuals and concerns interested in the tourist industry.

THE MEDAL OF HONOR

The Medal of Honor is the highest award for bravery that can be given to any individual in the United States. In judging men for receipt of the medal, each service has established its own regulations. The deed must be proved by incontrovertible evidence of at least two eyewitnesses; it must be so outstanding that it clearly distinguishes the recipient's gallantry beyond the call of duty from lesser forms of bravery; it must involve the risk of his life; and it must be of the type of deed which, if he had not done it, would not subject him to any justified criticism.

The idea for the Medal of Honor was born during the Civil War as men fought gallantly and often times displayed great heroism. George Washington originated the Purple Heart in 1782 to honor brave soldiers, sailors and marines. From that time until the Civil War, Certificates of Merit and a "brevet" system of promotions were used as military awards. The first military decoration formally authorized by the American Government as a badge of valor was the Medal of Honor for enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps. It was authorized by Congress, and approved by President Abraham Lincoln on December 21, 1861. The medal for the Army and Voluntary Forces was authorized on July 12, 1862.

The medal is awarded "in the name of Congress of the United States" and for this reason, it is often called the Congressional Medal of Honor. It is only on rare occasions, however, that Congress awards special Medals of Honor. An Executive Order, signed by President Theodore Roosevelt on September 29, 1901 directed that ceremonies of award "will always be made with formal and impressive ceremonial" and that the recipient "will, when practicable, be ordered to Washington, D. C., and the presentation will be made by the President, as Commander in Chief, or by such representative as the President may designate."

The Navy Medal of Honor is made of bronze, suspended by an anchor from a bright blue ribbon, and is worn about the neck. The ribbon is spangled with a cluster of 13 white stars representing the original States. Each ray of the five-pointed star contains sprays of laurel and oak is tipped with a trefoil. Standing in bas-relief, circled by 34 stars representing the 34 States in 1861, is Minerva who personifies the Union. She holds in her left hand the fasces, an ax bound in staves of wood, which is the ancient Roman symbol of authority. With the shield in her right hand, she repulses the serpent held by the crouching figure of Discord. The reverse of the medal is inscribed with the words "FOR BRAVERY".

Witnesses Attend Convention June 2-4

Some 25 Jehovah's Witnesses and other interested persons from Cisco, Eastland, Ranger, Carlton and Rising Star were among 683 persons from 16 West Texas towns attending a semi-annual assembly in Brownwood Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 2, 3 and 4, according to a report by Eugene Sipe, minister of the Eastland congregation.

Mr. Sipe said that those attending the convention received practical instruction in Bible educational methods in home-to-house ministry and home Bible teaching. Included also was counsel to parents and youths.

Featured speaker was L. M. Dugan, district supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses for the State of Texas, who urged those attending the convention to heed the Bible instructions which they had received.

One of the highlights of the meeting, according to Mr. Sipe, was the viewing of a color film entitled "God Cannot Lie."

History Of Robertson Colony Is Being Studied By TCU Professor

Christian University professor will be looking for historical letters and other documents about Eastland county in the summer and fall. The county is one of 30 counties formed out of Robertson before the Texas Revolution. The colony occupied an area about 100 miles long and 200 miles wide, a few miles north of extending up through to a point near the coast.

Dr. McLean, dean of Arts and Sciences, is gathering the material he can find on the history of Robertson Colony. The project will then be published in several books. The project is sponsored jointly by the J. M. West Foundation of Houston.

Dr. McLean is working under a TCU policy which allows faculty members an absence with pay so they can pursue research projects which will benefit their professional careers.

Dr. C. Robertson is a stockholder in the enterprise when it was formed in Tennessee in 1834. He obtained a Mexican state government contract in his own name to bring into this area.

Dr. McLean is the grandson of Major Robertson and has inherited the archives of the Robertson Colony. He has been since 1930 to find information about the colony and has made trips to Austin, Mexico City, Saltillo, and other places.

Dr. McLean is located, for information, at the original little slip of land on which William H. Robertson lived. He has been since 1930 to find information about the colony and has made trips to Austin, Mexico City, Saltillo, and other places.

Young Families Have Big Stake In SS Program

Why should a man with a wife and young children concern himself with anything that seems as far away as social security?

"Social security is not just a retirement program, and it is not just for old people," answers R. R. Tuley, Jr., social security district manager. A new booklet, "Social Security Information for Young Families," tells why a young worker should be concerned.

Social security survivor protection can amount to over $75,000 in benefits if the breadwinner in a young family dies, he pointed out.

Disability insurance is the other social security program of particular importance to the young worker. After just five years of work under social security, the worker and his family are eligible to receive monthly benefit payments of up to $368.60 if he should become severely disabled with a condition expected to last a year or longer.

Tuley said that the new booklet explains in detail the survivors and disability protection for a family.

Copies of this pamphlet may be obtained free of charge by writing to the Social Security Administration, Box 3253, Abilene, Texas 79604.

Ciscoan Wins Lone Cedar Golf Tourney Championship Sunday

Tim Bennie of Cisco won three consistent rounds of golf on the shores of Lake Leon Saturday to dominate the field at the fifth annual Lone Cedar Golf Tournament.

Bennie fired a 27-hole total of three-over par 104, five strokes ahead of his nearest competitor, James Lanamen, Jr., of Albany and Sam Gardner of Fort Worth, who tied with 113.

The young Ciscoan was never behind on the final day of action, holing out of the first nine in even-par 35, touring the second nine in one-over 36, and finishing the final nine in two-over 37.

Except for a string of four bogeys starting on number four of the final round, Bennie would have finished even further ahead of the field.

Gardner of Wichita, Kan., stationed at Fort Wolters, was the only golfer still in contention after 18 holes. His score of 74 was three back of Bennie's 71, but he ran into serious trouble on number four the same time Bennie was experiencing difficulty. The difference was Bennie carded birdies on the first two holes of the round, giving him an unsurmountable five-stroke margin going into four.

James Lanamen, playing in a separate foursome, closed fast over the last nine to tie
