DALE LANGLITZ brought back the trophy, scouts report, from a recent deer hunt in Colorado. Others in his party and also bringing in racks were Lewis Tiner, Tiner's brother of Trent, and Lendell Levens... Bill Wofford brought one back but dressed it before pictures were made, we understand.

MUCH COMMENT was heard around town Monday and Tuesday about the Sunday night Smother's Brothers television show, a good portion of which many felt was in extremely poor taste. The CBS network and the show's sponsors are undoubtedly getting a bundle of adverse mail... Mayor Frank Deaton reports that when the city's new street sweeper gets here in about 30 days, only one other major piece of equipment will be badly needed, and possibly can be bought next year. It's to be a large tractor suitable for the efficient burial of refuse out at the city dump. The city's making do with a patched, over-aged tractor now.

YOU'LL BE hearing important announcements from down at Horton Tire Co. where Manager Otis Coleman is busy installing important new equipment. He'll be telling us about it soon... Best comment heard at Maverick Stadium Friday night where Eastland and Granbury tied 0-0, according to Gene (Dusty) Rhodes: "A tie is just like kissing your sister. The process is the same, but it doesn't mean as much."... Notice that otherwise Loyal Dallas Cowboy fans were thoroughly disgusted with them after the Green Bay Packers whipped them again Monday night. Can't say we blame the locals—we were sorry we stayed up to see the passing show.

The article "High School Football" which appeared in Sunday's paper was most interesting to me. It came at a time when my thoughts have been turned to this very thing, as I'm sure many to hers had. Since I'm not a writer, a poet or a politician I thought your excellent mastery of words might say what I had in mind. My thoughts on the subject had covered a wider scope of things. Thinking of all the publicity of today turned toward our young people, our citizens of tomorrow as we can call them, I thought of our citizens of here and now, and I wondered how many of us regardless of our age had stepped our busy life long enough to do this:

Have you been to a Pep rally on Friday afternoon lately at the local GYM. You enter almost unnoticed into a world set apart from yours, a place of confusion and noise and you begin to wonder. Then at a magical moment you look upon a scene of leadership, ability, respect, faith, and fierce pride in each other, their school, and in their football team. They call it "Spirit". You cannot leave there without feeling some of that same "Spirit".

Have you then gone on later to the local football stadium and seen that same "Spirit" visible there.

Have you stood reverently during the opening ceremony and joined silently in a prayer for God's blessing on this game?

Have you then watched a game of "High School Football" (Continued on Page Four)

THE GORDON SPOT

By DeMARQUIS GORDON
County Agricultural Agent

A total of 35 men attended at least one session of the Beef Cattle Short Course held in Eastland Oct. 15, 16, and 17. Fourteen attended all three sessions while about a dozen attended two sessions.

Free Eastland Merchants contributed to the short course by providing coffee and donuts. We would like to thank Hanna Hardware and Lumber Co., Eastland Grain Implement Co. for the refreshments.

The short course was held in the Eastland County Farm Bureau meeting room. This was an ideal place for the three day meetings. We are grateful to the Farm Bureau Directors for letting us use the building.

All three speakers covered timely subjects and did a good job of presenting their material.

L. A. Maddox discussed cow efficiency. He said three things are considered when talking about efficiency—cow size, weaning weight of calf and caving percentage. Therefore, the most efficient cow would be a small cow that weaned a heavy calf every year.

Maddox discussed crossbreeding is not always the best practice. It has some disadvantages.

Dr. C. M. Patterson said on Wednesday night that all cattle in Eastland County should be sprayed very soon.

Spraying cattle now will have three advantages. It will help prevent a screwworm outbreak that is threatening the entire state; it will kill insects that usually attack cattle that are spreading anaplasmosis; and it will kill cattle lice that usually attack cattle in the fall and winter.

There were 1,431 cases of screwworms reported in Texas during the last two-week period. This compares to only 835 cases during all of 1967. The first case of screwworms in several years was found in Eastland County last week. Screwworms have also been reported in Brown, Callahan, Taylor, Comanche and Coleman counties. Producers are advised to hold off on all animal surgery until cold weather arrives, to search for and treat all animal wounds and spray all cattle.

Ule Thompson discussed beef cattle feeding on the final night of the short course. He suggested a feed ration of 80 percent ground grain sorghum, 10 per cent cotton seed meal and 10 per cent salt for stocker calves that are also grazing small grains or spring pastures. With this ration gain can be put on calves at the cost of about 16 cents per pound. This mixture is fed free choice.

Thompson also discussed feeding urea as a protein supplement. He said cattlemen could cut feed cost by feeding urea.

VACATION SALE

We have reduced all prices on all new and used travel trailers. New prices start at $975.00. We only have one of each kind in stock. New prices will be 3 per cent higher from the factory. We are also selling new Pick-Up Camper Covers from $125.00 up. Ezylift hitches sold and installed.

Have you seen them at work in your church? Your town? Have you taken time to read closely THEIR accomplishments in the local newspaper? If your answers are no, then you missed some wonderful experiences. I suggest that you get out and around and see what you have been missing. I think the citizens of this town can be very proud of its young people, past, present and future. Local Survey Will Continue
For Retirement Age Persons

If you have not clipped and mailed the survey sheet recently published in the Press for the use of retirement-age persons, will you please do so? Do this especially if you are interested in a telephone contact program for the coming winter months, especially if you live alone. Do this if you are lonely and want a visitation program. Do this if you have some time you might give to this program in telephoning or visitation. You may not need us, but we need you. We hope by starting with these smaller projects we will be able to work into a stable program to make the years of retirement more meaningful and happy.

Now we need one or more persons who like to play checkers to visit the Hickman Nursing Home for a good game occasionally. We also need some volunteers to take some of the abler patients for a short ride now and again. Can you think of an easier way to make someone happy?

Any information you may need will be gladly furnished if you will call Mrs. Arlin Binst after four in the afternoon at 442-2216.

EASTLAND NATIVE IS DOING ANTIBIOTIC RESEARCH

The antibiotic discarded because of its toxicity is being researched by Oklahoma State University microbiologist at Norman, Okla.

Dr. Harold H. Durham, Eastland native, is the son of Mrs. Harold H. Durham, Eastland.

Frontier antibiotic, vancomycin, is being studied under scrutiny by the health and an associate, Dr. Best, former OSU professor.

researcher now of the Medical College of Georgia, to determine if it has been ruled out prematurely as an agent to combat infectious diseases.

"Vancomycin, which has been around for eight or ten years, is very effective against many disease producing organisms, but has been used very little because of its toxicity," explains Durham, who is dean of the OSU graduate college.

Earl Bender Hostess For Alpha Meeting

The Martha Circle of the First United Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Earl Bender.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Frank Deaton, treasurer's report.

The group voted to have the next committee call each first week, in an effort to improve attendance.

A membership drive was also planned for the year will be knitting shoulder band and any type trading for to the circle for specimens.

Much more potent than any of the penicillins, it causes some side effects in many patients and is not widely used. Effects include pain and skin eruption at injection site and possible hearing defects.

Vancomycin however, kills organisms in such a way that they cannot become resistant, as they can with penicillin.

Dr. Durham and Dr. Best have separated three fractions of vancomycin, which is not a pure substance, and determined the relative biological potency of the fractions. Their techniques in the separation process were disclosed Oct. 22 at the Eighth Interscience Conference on Antimicrobial Agents and Chemotherapy in New York City.

The appointment was announced in Austin by Ottis Lock of Lufkin, chairman of the committee.

Another Marker Due Erection on Courthouse Lawn

The Official Texas Historical Marker for City of Eastland will be erected soon, today announced Charles Woodburn of Amarillo, president of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee. This is a "State Matching Fund marker."

Mr. Mike Collins of Eastland, chairman of the Eastland County Historical Survey Committee, said the marker will be placed at southeast corner of courthouse lawn in Eastland.

Xi Alpha Zeta Plans Thrift Sale At Recent Meet

The Xi Alpha Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday night in the home of Mrs. Jay Staggs.

Mrs. Marene Johnson-Johnson read the Exemplar Ritual for Mrs. J. T. Carter of the Xi Alpha Zeta; and Mmes. Dale Bakker, Harold Price, C. W. Hoffmann, Jr., and Jammie Fry, all of Zeta Pi Chapter.

Mrs. A. D. Taylor read the Pledge Ritual for Mrs. John Whistler.

The inscription on this 27 by 42-inch marker reads: County Seat, Eastland County named for William M. Eastland—Texas War for Independence hero who was in mer expedition against Mexico, and was executed in "Black Bean" Lottery at Rancho Salado in 1842.

Most noted early local people were Comanches, who resisted occupation of area by white settlers. The last recorded Indian raid in County was in 1874.

The program, "Sense of Hearing", was given by Mrs. Bill Walters.

Mrs. Jennie Matthews was a guest at the meeting.

The club voted to hold a rummage sale Nov. 6, 7 and 8.

Refreshments of cherry were served by Mrs. Staggs.

Present were five guests, Mmes. Bakker, Price, Hoffmann, Fry, and Matthews; Magness, Eula Arrington, cheesecake, coffee and tea and these members, Mmes. Johnson - Johnson, Whistler, Taylor, Robert Bird, R. T. Leslie, Carter, and Staggs.

Eastland was named county seat in an election on Aug. 2, 1875. With 250 people it was incorporated on June 6, 1891, and was elected W. Q. Connelley as Mayor.

After a discovery in 1917, one of the famed oil booms of Texas occurred nearby, with Eastland center for legal matters. With oil priced $2.60 a barrel, many wells flowed at 10,000 barrels a day. The city quickly grew to 25,000 people; 5 banks prospered.

Coming here to seek "Black Gold" were celebrities, including Evangelist Billy Sunday, Circus Owner John Ringling, sports figures Jess Willard, Tex Rickard.

An international wonder story happened here: The old courthouse cornerstone was opened on this site) in 1928 to reveal survival of "Old Rip". A horned toad placed there with other mementoes on July 19, 1897.

Continuing oil production, agricultural processing, and clay products bolster the present economy.

Over $450,000 Is Allocated By FHA For Area Programs

Loan and grant funds totaling more than $450,000 were approved last week for three rural community water and sewer systems in this area, according to announcement by the U. S. Farmers Home Administration through Congressman Omar Burleson.

Area projects were:
City of Moran — $150,740 for water improvements.
Morton Valley Community of Eastland County — $98,500 loan and $81,000 grant for water system construction.
City of Carbon — $130,000 for a water system building program.

The Congressman said the rural water facilities program "deserves the highest priority, even in these times of severe pressure on the national budget. Modernizing water and sewer services is an indispensable first step toward reviving rural communities and making them more attractive places to live, to work and

Explaining Amendment

AMENDMENT NO. 2
Increasing the amount which may be expended in one year from state funds for public assistance payments to needy aged, needy disabled, needy blind, and needy children to $75,000,000.

This proposed amendment to Section 51-a of Article III raises the ceiling on state funds used for financial assistance to the needy aged, needy disabled, needy blind, and needy children from $60,000,000 to $75,000,000 to assure Texas recipients that they will not be disqualified from receiving the maximum amount permitted under the federal program simply through a deficiency of state funds to meet federal standards.

The proposed Amendment No. 2 does not make an appropriation but rather allows the legislature greater discretion in meeting the needs of all four classes of welfare recipients in the state by raising the ceiling on the use of state funds for this purpose from $6,000,000 to $75,000,000. Texas consistently has been in the lowest percentiles of the nation with respect to welfare, ranking 50th in administrative cost per recipient for old age assistance, 44th in percent receiving old age assistance, 49th in assistance in aid to dependent children, and 45th in assistance in aid to permanently and totally disabled. Because aid for dependent children allotments are based on a family of four, the higher ceiling provided for the proposed amendment would make it possible for the legislature to have greater discretion in giving budgetary consideration to larger families. Further the proposed amendment would permit consideration to be given to last year's 4 per cent rise in the cost of living in budgeting for all four classes of recipients.

Against:
The large overall expenditure of state funds which this amendment would authorize would increase each recipient's income only a few dollars a month but would require $15,000,000 in new funds at a time when the state is already hard pressed to meet existing financial obligations. Instead of encouraging dependency on public welfare, the state should begin to draw a line in combating growing socialism and the welfare state.

IMPORTANT! To vote for Nixon AND the Texas Democratic Candidates:

1. SKIP the line of party squares across the top of the ballot.
2. MARK the square by Nixon/Agnew.
3. THEN go to the square by U.S. Representative IN THE DEMOCRATIC COLUMN, mark it AND the squares by Preston Smith, Ben Barnes, Crawford Martin and on down.

Whatever your interest — responsible law enforcement; curbing runaway inflation; tidelands' school fund protection; improved foreign relations; expanded education; social security and medicare, instead of political throwaways

NIXON is best for TEXAS DEMOCRATS

The Value of Scientific Grazing Demonstrated In County Project

By Ray Young
Soil Conservation Service
Farmers and ranchers of today have long since realized that grazing management of their rangeland has become a technical science. A plan of operations is needed for forage and livestock production. This grazing management plan should have short term and long term objectives. Ways or methods to accomplish these objectives, methods for distribution of grazing, a forage and livestock inventory and deferred grazing. Some of the short term objectives might be to improve the present cover to control erosion. To obtain the greatest amount of use from lesser desirable species and improve the vigor of the more desirable species. Also to learn to judge the degree of grazing based on the key areas and key species.

Long term objectives should include plans to increase the amount of desirable forbs. To obtain a better balance between summer and winter forage. To change the overall vegetative composition from less palatable plants to ones higher on the ladder of plant succession. Also to improve all pastures to as near the original climax composition as possible. Ways to accomplish these objectives might be to concentrate goats at a rate of 3-6 per acre on oak in early spring, mid-summer and early fall to defoliate brush, and do not graze at any other time. By heavy use of spring annuals, and graze approximately 50 percent of the current seasons growth by weight. Distribution of grazing can be accomplished by fencing watering facilities, salting and supplemental feeding areas. These factors facilitate management and aid in better distribution of grazing by protecting from poisonous plants, permitting selective grazing of specific sites or species, better use of all species, and protecting heavily used or more accessible areas.

A forage and livestock inventory on the farm or ranch is basically the same principle as an "end-of-the-year" stock inventory made in a drug store, grocery store or any other business of this type. The inventory simply reflects the acres in each pasture or site, the condition of each site, the amount of forage available whether on the ground or in the barn, acres per animal unit, total animal units, important key species by which to judge degree of use and the best season of use by pastures.

Enough cannot be said about the value of "Deferred

Grazing." Deferred grazing is simply resting a pasture during the growing season. Utilization of Coastal bermuda-grass pastures works beautifully in conjunction with rangeland in that the Coastal is being utilized from about May through October, the period that most native grasses need a rest to grow and make a seed crop. Some of the benefits of deferred grazing are to get the maximum benefits from brush control. Protect livestock from poisonous plants, protect seeded areas, maintain feed reserves in dry years, and most important to increase vigor, establish a seed crop, and extend ground cover. In order to adhere to the principles of range management all grazing management plans must reflect: the best season of use, kind of livestock best suited, distribution of grazing use, proper degree of grazing use and should be realistic, flexible and feasible.

Some special reasons why the LILLISTON 2700 Digger-Shaker-Windrower is the quietest, slickest, smoothest running shaker ever built.

Malleable steel ratchet bars mounted offset on chain to give a gentle pick-up.
 Roller chain lengthens chain and sprocket life.
 Tool bar frame provides greater strength for larger tractors and gives increased vice clearance.
 Belt Drive for quiet safety. Belt rider positioned to give belts maximum pull under minimum tension.
 Plovers standards easily adjusted along tool bar for row spacings. They can easily be removed for re-shaking.
 Tough, virtually indestructible, ductile iron plovers standards — curved for maximum vice shedding action.
 Positive and quick Shaker Height Adjustment without changing belt tension.
 Rodded blade brackets and bolt-on rods for 21", 26" and 30" cuts. Common blade for all cuts.
 Vane deflectors guide vines smoothly, aid in dirt removal.
