CAKE FOR THE COACH — Brad Frazier, 7, son of Coach and Mrs. Shirley Frazier makes an eyeball examination of a "swimming cake" two local girls made for Coach Frazier as their appreciation to him for his highly successful "learn-to-swim" program here. Bakers of the cleverly-decorated cake were Joann Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker, and Sharon Simms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Simms. Decorations include signs reading "Help," "Gulp," and the arm of a doll that's obviously going down for the third time — no doubt a swimming course drop-out. In all, the coach and his helpers taught 70 fledging water babies to keep their heads up during the summer program at City Park. Frazier directs the City's Summer Recreation program. (P. S.: Brad and the photographer can attest that the cake was delicious.)

THERE'S ANOTHER "Help!" signal going up from the Chamber of Commerce's board of directors. A committee has floundered in its assignment of picking a name for the chamber's community improvement program which began with the in-depth survey and is continuing with finding solutions for the community's problems.

A quorum was present at the director's meet Thursday, but those in attendance discussed several possibilities and it was agreed that the chamber is just "a letter" away from having a name for the program.

The directors like the name Lift Eastland, because of its implied self-help ring, but they need your help. They'd like the individual letters in the word LIFT to stand for something concrete. First thought, of course, is "Live In Forward Thinking" Eastland, but frankly they think we all should do more than just "live" in Eastland, so if you can come up with an action verb that starts with the letter "L", the chamber just might give you a prize in this informal, off-the-cuff search for a name. (The words "loaf" and "love" have been rejected.)

Here's a chance to help your chamber. Your thoughts on the word LIFT, variations thereof, or something entirely different, if suitable, will be appreciated. Other ideas submitted by the committee include P.E.P. (Program for Economic Progress), E.I.A. (Eastland in Action), L.I.V.E. (Live in Vital Eastland), etc.

If you can do better, and you surely can, call the chamber office or the newspaper, and we'll see that you get proper credit if you come up with a winner.

VP Grover Hallmark presided and present were Nolan DeFord, Frank Crowell, Lewis Tiner, Frank Deaton, HVO, Morris Jones, R. P. Haun and C-C Secretary Mrs. Emma Lou Benton.

Piano Evening Set Monday On EHS Stage

An evening of piano music is scheduled for Monday, July 1, 8:15 p. m. at Eastland High School. Ben Karnes is presenting the program in the honor of his students, former students, their guests and friends.

Norman Bemelmans of Carolina, now enrolled at North Texas University in Denton, will play selections by Bach, Beethoven, Debussy, Chopin Liszt, and Godowsky. The six foot, 19-year-old freshman is presently studying with Richard Cass and is a former student of Ozan Marsh, noted concert pianist now artist in residence at the University of Arizona.

Guests will be seated at party tables on the stage around the recently overhauled nine foot Baldwin grand. All are invited who would enjoy an evening of classical repertoire. Anyone interested in helping to make the concert noteworthy by having the piano tuned can contact Mr. Karnes.

Big, Live Wild West Show Set for July 4 Shoot-Out

"Thundering hoof beats out of the West..." Once each year, history turns back a few pages and the moderns get to see "How it really was, back in the old days."

The second annual "roottin', tootin'" Live Wild West Show will be presented Thursday, July 4, at the Kendrick Amphitheater between Eastland and Cisco on U. S. Highway 80. The big, free show will begin at 8:30 p. m. and everybody's welcome, so says the cast and crew.

And what a show it is: a combination of western, musical and historical scenes. The presentation promises to be exciting from beginning to end and will include Indian raids on the Wagon Train, square dancing, featuring the famous Rip and Snort Dance Club from Eastland; barber shop quartet singing; caloons with dancing girls; shoot-outs and many other surprises during the big, two-hour show.

Damage Suit for $102,929 Filed In 91st Court

A Cisco man is suing a cosmetics firm for $102,929.29 in connection with the death of his wife, according to records on file Friday at the courthouse in Eastland.

The suit was filed by W. E. Ricks, Eastland County resident, and his daughter, Lucille Ricks Beard, of Caddo Parish, Louisiana, against Cosmair, Inc., a national cosmetics firm represented in Texas by Prentice-Hall Corporation System, Inc., of Austin. The suit was filed in 91st District Court by Turner and Seabury, Eastland attorneys, representing Ricks and Mrs. Beard.

Mrs. Alice D. Ricks, 33 at the time of her death, died at Hendrick Hospital in Abilene August 15, 1966. She was the wife of W. E. Ricks and the mother of Mrs. Beard.

The suit alleges that a beauty operator put "New Excellence Formula Imedia Petite Creme Shampoo Colour" on Mrs. Ricks' hair June 30, 1966 and that Mrs. Ricks suffered a severe reaction and was hospitalized. She was transferred to the Abilene hospital on July 4, 1966.

Claiming that "the use of the compound on the hair of Alice D. Ricks was a prominent cause of the resulting reaction and injuries sustained by Mrs. Ricks and her hospital and medical treatment of her pain and suffering and of her subsequent death," the suit asks $1,920.29 for hospital and medical costs, $1,009 for funeral expenses, and the sum of $100,000 for personal suffering.

SICK-AND TIRED

WE, AND MANY OTHER Americans, are sick. And tired. Sick of those who think the U.S. can never do anything right. Tired of those who think no other country can do anything wrong. Sick of those who promote disobedience. Tired of those who ignore injustice. Sick of the brainless mobs who burn and loot. Tired of their apologists blind to the truth. Sick of white racists who deny the black man the right to set up a home wherever he wishes. Tired of black racists who deny the white man the right to set up a business wherever he chooses. Sick of those who are always demanding something. Tired of those who never want to give anything. Sick of those who oppose helping even people who can't help themselves. Tired of those who favor helping even those who won't help themselves. Sick of teachers who prefer to preach. Tired of preachers who fail to teach. Sick of the batless mobs who are desecrating our colleges. Tired of the spineless educators who are letting them do it. Sick of youngsters who scorn the wisdom of age. Tired of oldsters who spurn the ideas of youth. Sick of those movie makers whose films reflect their depravity. Tired of those movie goers who support such screen scum. Sick of the author's of latrine literature. Tired of the readers who elevate them to the best-seller lists. Sick of the New Left. Tired of the Old Right. Sick of those politicians who promise one thing and do another. Tired of those voters who blindly endorse them from one election to the other. Sick of the mess we're all in. And too tired to say any more about it.—Washington Daily News.

ments. The girls will be graded on a point system on the appearance of their garment, personality, fit of their garment and also on records which they have kept. Each girl with a total of 90 points or more will receive a blue ribbon.

The high point senior 4-H member (14 years old by Jan. 1) and also the runner up in the senior division, will participate in the District Dress Revue which will be held in Stephenville in July, the report said.

Also, the high point runner up in the junior division (age 12 to 14) will participate in the Stephenville show, but will not be able to enter into the State contest, the report said.

Candidate Eggers Tells His Stand on Issues in Local Visit

Gubernatorial Candidate Paul Eggers of Wichita Falls had a surprise waiting for him when he arrived in Eastland Wednesday.

The Republican candidate, due to his heavy campaigning all over the state, had not seen the June 15 issue of the Conservative Newspapers, "Human Events," and was pleasantly surprised to read: "With a possible liberal-conservative fight threatening to split the Texas Democratic party again, Eggers, a forceful campaigner, may pull a John Tower in 1968."

Asked his stand on the states right-to-work law, Eggers stated that he believes the individual worker has the Democratic right to decide whether he will join a union or not — and, he added, "You might be surprised to know that I'm being supported by the labor leaders in spite of my feelings. I believe they consider me fair."

The Human Events article said in part: "In the wake of the recent Democratic gubernatorial primary, political observers still think conservative Paul Eggers could become the first Republican governor of Texas since Reconstruction. Eggers' aspirations, it is claimed, were probably not hurt when the Democrats nominated Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, who defeated Don Yarborough, an ultra-liberal, in the June 1st runoff primary."

"Smith is not only considered a colorless campaigner, but may turn out to be too 'conservative' for Texas' liberal Democrats, who have often deserved their party's conservative candidates."

The defection of liberals from the state's Democratic party, in fact, became the central reason for the historic election of Republican John Tower to the Senate in 1961.

When Tower ran for re-election against Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr in 1966, liberals once again refused to come to the assistance of a conservative in the Democratic party. The Texas AFL-CIO, a chief liberal force, declined to endorse Carr. The liberals also staged a walkout at the state's Democratic convention, then drafted a statement declaring: "It is no breach of party loyalty for any Democrat to vote against Waggoner Carr and cast his vote for John Tower." Republican Tower was then re-elected with 57 per cent of the vote.

Parents present were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Collins, Mr. and Mrs. James Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ables, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Haun, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Culpepper, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Query, Mr. and Mrs. George Pevehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mahan, and Mrs. Jerry Cate.

Miss Viergever and Mr. Gregory
Are Married in Saturday Ceremony

Miss Donna Jane Viergever and Mr. Jon Layne Gregory were married at 8 p. m. Saturday, June 29, at the First Methodist Church of Eastland. The Rev. Len Layne, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Viergever of Paris, formerly of Eastland and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gregory of Eastland.

The church was decorated with candelabra on each side of the altar and in stair-steps in the choir loft. Floor baskets of white gladioli flanked the altar and the rail at the choir loft was decked with baskets of yellow and white daisies and greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waist-line gown of Peau de Soie accented with scalloped and beaded Chantilly lace encircling the neckline. The floor-length gown had scattered motifs on the skirt and a movable circle wattleau chapel train secured by a looped bow. Her shoulder-length illusion veil was gathered at a crown ornamented with minature pearls. She carried a bouquet of an orchid over frenched carnations atop a white Bible which was given to her by Mrs. Jack Arrington and the late Jack Arrington. Her jewelry was a diamond necklace given her by the groom and she carried a white handkerchief which was her great-grand-mother's.

Mrs. Jim Herridge of Eastland was matron of honor. Mrs. Ted Martin of Arlington was bridesmatron and Miss Sally Perkins of Eastland, Miss Connie Thye of Hillsboro, Kansas, and Miss Kathy Gregory of Eastland, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Each wore a yellow floor-length, empire style gown with an A-line skirt and long sleeves of white lace embroidered with yellow daisies. Headpieces were yellow bows and each attendant carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies.

Miss Lana Arrington of Eastland, junior bridesmaid, was dressed as the other bridesmaids, but she carried a small basket of miniature daisies. Grady Gregory of Eastland, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Jim Herridge, David Taylor, Charles Moon, and Mike Siebert, all of Eastland. Ushers were Lance Corporal Jim Viergever, USMC, Quantico, Va., brother of the bride, Ted Martin of Arlington, Tom Gregory of Lubbock, cousin of the groom; and Ben May, Jr. of Midland, cousin of the groom. Musical selections, "Because," "One Heart, One Hand," and "The Lord's Prayer," were presented by R. Pat Miller and Mrs. Len Layne, both of Eastland.

The mother of the bride wore a pink lace over taffeta dress with matching coat. She wore white accessories and a gardenia corsage. The mother of the groom chose a dress of mint green lace over Peau de Soie with white accessories. She wore a gardenia corsage. A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. Serving were Mrs. Fred Brown, caterer, and Mmes. Jack Arrington, K. D. Butler, Bill Leslie, J. T. Carver, and Otis Coleman.

The brides table was laid with a white gathered lace cloth over yellow satin. The cloth was made by Mrs. Cora Davis. A three-tiered heart-shaped cake was decorated with tiny daisies. Punch, cake, minis, and nuts were served. Rice bags were distributed.

The bride's going-away costume was a yellow knit, sleeveless dress with matching three-quarter-length coat with white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Following a wedding to New Mexico, the couple will live at Lake Leon until September, when they will move to College Station. Both will attend Texas A&M.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Eastland High School. She attended East Texas State one year and graduated from Cisco Junior College in 1968. The groom is a 1966 graduate of Eastland High School and a 1968 graduate of Cisco Junior College.

Old Rip's Story As Told in New Book

Author E. B. Ted Sayles has this to say about Old Rip, in his new book, "Fantasies of Gold."

"When Coronado was led on a search for Gran Quivira and greater wealth than the Seven Silver Cities possessed, his informant, The Turk, confessed that he had started the Spaniards wandering over the plains of Texas and finally into Kansas so that he might be escorted safely home. But Coronado wasn't amused, and The Turk was strangled.

"This ending of what might have started as a hoax hasn't dampened the spirits of Texans four hundred years afterwards, as shown by the story of 'Old Rip,' a horned toad that was reported to have been removed from the cornerstone of the Eastland County Courthouse, thirty-one years after it had been built. Here is the way it came about, according to Mr. Herbert J. Tanner of Eastland, Texas:

"In 1897, when the cornerstone of the then new courthouse was dedicated, Ernest Wood, Justice of the Peace, a member of the band, noticed his son Will playing with a horned toad. Ernest Wood decided to place the toad in the cornerstone. On February 28, 1928, when the old courthouse was demolished, three thousand persons watched the opening of the cornerstone to see if the horned toad was still alive. Judge Ed. S. Pritchard removed the Bible and other objects, and, at the bottom, was Old Rip. Eugene Day, an oil man, reached into the cavity and lifted up a dust-covered toad, which he handed to the Reverend Frank S. Singleton, who handed it to Judge Pritchard, who held it up by its leg so that all might see. Suddenly the toad's leg twitched. The toad was alive! The crowd cheered, and thus Old Rip awoke from his thirty-one year slumber.

"Mr. Tanner wrote on October 11, 1963: 'I am sure that today you could find over a thousand good Eastland citizens who would bear witness to its authenticity.'

"Old Rip lived for only a year after his celebrated appearance; he died of pneumonia on Saturday, January 19, 1929. His body was embalmed and placed in a beautiful, plush-lined casket in the lobby of Eastland County's new courthouse. But before he died, the news of Old Rip was spread far and wide.

"Dr. Julius Olsen, then of Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, is reported to have said, 'I think it is quite probable that long under the conditions, although I have never heard of a similar case before.'

"The Honorable Andrew J. Volstead of St. Paul, Minn., former congressman and father of the prohibition enforcement act, is said to have exclaimed: 'Thirty-one years without a drink! I think that toad should be heartily commended.' Then he showed an element of doubt when he added: 'Provided he isn't an imposter.'

"The Honorable Barry Miller of Austin acting governor of Texas, said it was hard to believe, but he vouched for the endurance qualities of the ugly little reptile generally. "Dr. D. W. Hamlett of Bloomington, Indiana, assistant professor of zoology at Indiana University, expressed skepticism: 'Thirty-one years would seem to be about 23 years too long.'

"Mrs. D. B. Castell and J. T. Patterson of Austin University of Texas professor, would not comment definitely but leaned toward skepticism.

"Dr. Raymond L. Dittmars of New York, curator of the New York Zoological Gardens and Dr. William H. Mann of Washington, D. C., Director of the National Zoological Park, also were absolutely impossible."

"The Smithsonian Institution in Washington branded Old Rip as a fraud. 'Horned toads positively cannot live for more than a few days without sunlight'

"Paramount Newsreel Company is reported to have come to Eastland and recorded a re-enactment of the scene for distribution throughout the United States. And Ripely featured Old Rip twice in his

"Believe it or Not" series.

"In May, 1928, Old Rip was exhibited in various part of the United States and was brought to entertain President Coolidge, who is reported to have broken several other engagements in order to get a glimpse of the toad. But even Old Rip couldn't get the tight-lipped president to make any comment.

"However, Old Rip's memory lives on. An Annual Eastland Old Rip Horned Toad Derby was first held on July 16, 1949. Some of the early winners are reported to have been entries of the Honorable James Farley, former postmaster general, and those of Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd.

"Old Rip was never proven to be a hoax, nor were sides taken as with the Lead Crosses. Probably it was only a hoax, but one that was not intended for any one individual. It was accepted by all in good spirit—Just a practical Texas joke."

VISIT IN EASTLAND — Republican Gubernatorial Candidate Paul Eggers and Eastland Mayor Frank Deaton visit in Eastland Thursday afternoon during Mr. Egger's campaign stop in this county. On hand were a good number of supporters including County Republican Chairman Mrs. H. J. Bulgerin.

What Is A Newspaper?

"Nothing else in the world serves such a wide range of needs: training puppies, telling grocery prices, swatting flies, defending citizen's rights, covering floors, reporting city council notes, protecting furniture, supporting bond issues, filling packages, criticizing inefficient government, paper for dress patterns; and, if used under the lineum, may earn a future place in some grandchild's heart for 'the funny old newspaper grandpa read.'"

"AND, IN ADDITION to these, the newspaper carries the distinctive honor of being one of the four major freedoms guaranteed by the constitution."

"Indeed the newspaper is the pillar of all your freedoms.

"For, when the press is weak, so are your rights; but when the press is strong, so are your liberties."

"A newspaper is many things to many people:

"To the housewife, the weekly newspaper is the most welcome piece of mail on Thursday (here she learns of current grocery prices; from it she makes up her shopping list; it provides information on sales in clothing and household needs; and through it she learns what entertainment and recreation is available for her family);

"To the local office holder, the newspaper may be the most irritating sight that day in shocking print he sees those off-the-cuff remarks made the evening before; reads of his poor conduct around the conference table; finds a record of his vote at the last session);

"To the lawbreaker, it may ment (public report is given of a father caught speeding, who just the other day told his son how wrong this was-or a young man is reported charged with speeding, who just the other day was warned by his father about how wrong this was);

"To the parent whose child has earned some honor it is a thing to be treasured forever-have you ever tried to clip a radio story? or paste a TV picture in a scrapbook?);

"And, finally, to the wife of the editor of the newspaper, it is the villain behind a long series of cold dinners; to his children, it's the reason a bike stands unrepaired.

"Much is expected of a newspaper and yet it is here that it receives most of its criticism.

"It is called upon to investigate alleged wrong doings in public office, but is chastened if it is too thorough.

"A newspaper never finds itself on safe ground — either side of an issue has friends and a middle-of-the-road position is a lonely one.

"If it fails to fully report on City Hall, it is accused of covering up;

"If it is too thorough, it is called a troublemaker;

"Let it criticize the opposite political party and it is being parican;

"Should criticize its own party, it is turncoat.

"EDITORS ARE THE SOUL of any newspaper, giving character and animation to it.

"They come in all sizes and shapes and each edition of the newspaper, like a thumb-print, bears his image.

"Some editors speak meekly and are mocked; some speak strongly and are scorned; they are cursed or cheered, depending on that week's editorial.

"Editors are threatened physically, financially and, with hell's fire for every offense from mis-spelling a reader's name, to stepping on the toes of a social leader — who just happens to have a large circle of relatives on the subscription list.

Editors are expected to fight sin, but heaven help him if a reader is caught thereby — he's gone too far!

"The life of an editor is one paradox followed by another enigma;

"He must defend democracy, promote good, inspire youth, and encourage progress; yet

"He must not, in so doing, offend, irritate, embarrass or deflate any individual group or organization.

"That he tries to meet these impossible requirements is a sign of his dedication to his profession, love for the people of his community and devotion to ideals of the highest order.

Higher education in Texas began in 1840 with the founding of Rutgersville University in Fayette County.

All Set For July 4th

Details of the annual Miss Cisco Pageant, which will be the feature of July the Fourth holiday activities at Lake Cisco Park, were studied and worked out at the regular weekly breakfast meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Friday morning.

The day's program will begin at 3 p. m. with an assortment of games in the park and pool for children. The pageant will start at 8:30 p. m. at the pool stage, and this will be followed by a 30-minute fireworks display, according to Chairman James Grigsby.

A combo of folk singers headed by Dwain Fall and a musical combo will be presented as musical entertainment features during the pageant program. Roy G. Hathaway will be the master of ceremonies for the event.

A video tape motion picture was made by Southern Television Antenna Systems, which serves Cisco, Eastland and Ranger, last Tuesday night for possible use on television. The girls competing for the Miss Cisco honor were shown.

Miss Marilyn Roberts, 1967 Miss Cisco Pageant winner, is expected to be on hand to crown her successor.

Judges for the pageant will be Mrs. Kathryn Hyde of Abilene, past Miss Texas Pageant chaperone; Miss Nancy Tillman, Miss Abilene of 1968; and Willie Bane, president of the Abilene Jaycees.

President Jim Webb presided at the breakfast, which was held at the Longhorn Cafe. He asked all Jaycees working on the pageant to complete their assignments as soon as possible.

Laws setting up Texas' public school system were signed Jan. 31, 1854.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — On August 25, 1959, I introduced a Resolution in the Congress which would permit two companies of Marines to patrol the streets of Washington, which, of course, is a Federal City, in conjunction with the police.

Again on Feb. 26, 1963 and July 14, 1965, the same Resolution was introduced and each of these was referred to the Armed Services Committee where it was opposed by the Defense Department. In fact, Departmental reports, including the District of Columbia Commissioners, were adverse to the passage of this measure.

As time went on it is common knowledge as to what happened and, finally, the Marines and Soldiers were called in to quell riots and looting.

On three different occasions the House of Representatives passed legislation which would have the effect of nullifying many of the Supreme Court's decisions affecting arrest and prosecution of criminals. The Senate did not act.

At last, they have done so, and last week a bill was passed which has as its purpose to override certain Court judgments which have handicapped law enforcement and providing assistance to police enforcement in the States.

Title I of the Bill provides planning grants and action grants to State and local law enforcement agencies to develop and strengthen the total service. Title II of the Bill seeks to give authority back to the trial courts that they may not be handicapped by these decisions which have given encouragement to the criminal as against the public interest. The tendency of the Federal courts, and especially the Supreme Court, to disrupt the finality of State court decisions has eroded respect for law and diminished the fear of punishment.

Another important part of Title II says that the Supreme Court can not review the question of the voluntariness of a confession when the voluntary aspect has already been settled by the highest court of a State. Under the proposed legislation, the standard for admitting confessions as evidence will return to the time-tested standard of true voluntariness. It sets aside the inflexible and technical rules established in the so-called Mallory, Escobedo and Miranda cases.

Title III, to which much opposition developed, is concerned with permitting wiretapping in the investigation of serious Federal crimes. This section allows a court to order electronic surveillance under the "lawful search" provisions of the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution. This power will give much needed assistance in the war on organized crime. The Justice Department has identified an estimated 5,000 members of the Cosa Nostra but has succeeded in indicting only 200 and convicting only about 100 since 1961.

Title IV prohibits interstate mail order sale of handguns. It does not affect rifles and shotguns and does not limit the right of the person under the Constitution to keep and bear arms. It does prohibit all sales of handguns to persons under 21 and to non-residents of the State. It requires gun dealers to be licensed by the Federal Government and to keep records of acquisition and disposition of their sales.

This is a section which gives considerable concern to many of us who have been opposed to the Federal Government injecting itself into this Constitutional right of the individual but as a "take it or leave it" proposition, with the other desirable provisions of the Law, it was acceptable to the House of Representatives. Personally, I would prefer not to see this sort of license power given to the Federal Government, feeling it is a "foot in the door." On the other hand, the so-called Dodd Bill in the Senate imposes far-reaching restrictions, and the action in the Bill approved by the Congress and sent to the President may stop this further infringement by the Federal Government on gun control.

The Omnibus Crime Control Act already bears the imprint of many restrictive changes and additions. If America is to be made safe for its citizens, this is a long step in the right direction.

What do you get when you turn the switch?

Today's best value in better living

Summertime is the time your electric service hits a peak in value. Most likely, electricity cools all or part of your home. Your refrigerator works overtime, supplying extra quantities of ice cubes and cold drinks. With the children out of school, your dishwasher is on a busier schedule. And hot weather means more loads of soiled clothes for your washer and dryer. Electricity works harder for you in summer than in any other season. As a result, your electric bills are usually higher in summer. But when you consider the work electricity saves you and the relief it brings from the heat, you'll agree it's your biggest value in summertime better living.
