WHAT DO you do for an encore after you've announced that a new industry is coming to town? Pause and reflect how good it is and think about the favorable comments you've heard: not just in our town, but throughout the county. "Wonderful news" they' re saying in all our neighboring towns . . . Time too, to express appreciation for the great industry already in our town: Hollywood - Vassarette, Victor Cornelius Printing Co., Romco Pottery, Texas Lightweight Aggregate and any number of othey mighty f i n e citizens . . . Scouts report that our town is still being looked at by some other very interfor their businesses.

Briefing the Lions on the Industrial Foundation, which he serves as secretary, and the business of industrial prospecting in general, Mr. Sayre outlined some of the areas where Eastland has been short in the past, and the strong points which it boosts today.

The reference to the mobile home use today is in answer to the natural question of many here who wonder about the new Aztec Mobile Home plant which expects to be in operation here in 60 days.

"Work on the site was to have begun Monday, but was postponed due to rain-soaked ground," Mr. Sayre said. Work will begin as soon as equipment can move onto the site, he said.

Complimenting especially the the Eastland Jaycees for their development of the airport runway to top standards, he said. "Mr. Blalock (President of Axtec) told us that he 'dn't concider any site nt an od quote runway facility, because so many of Caddy Lee of Cisco 4-H was the high-point entry in the overall Junior Division.

Some 23 Eastland County 4-H'ers participated in the show which was judged by Miss Loretta Morris and Mrs. Elizabeth Vaught. The girls were not only judged on the food they prepared, but their knowledge of nutrition, their table setting and centerpiece arrangement, and the days menu prepared which included the food they exhibited.

Prenda Browder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Browder of Gorman won by prepar-ing her favorite casserole. She has been active in 4-H for 7 years and is an active junior leader for younger 4-H'ers in H Club.

World-famed heart transplant surgeon Dr. Denton Cooley watches in Houston as one of his surgical team signs up with The Living Bank, a non-profit organization formed to help persons who wish to donate all or parts of their bodies for transplantation or research upon death. Dr. Cooley and several others on his team signed the few papers necessary. The Living Bank's founder, Mrs. Glen Karsten of Houston, provided the forms as nurse Mary Lou Budde signed. In a joint press conference following the event, both Dr. Cooley and Mrs. Karsten emphasized the importance of a central international information center such as The Living Bank for progress in the field of transplantation of human organs. The Living Bank can be contacted at P. O. Box 6725, Houston, Texas 77005. Dr. Cooley was presented with a gold Living Bank pin when he signed the forms to donate all of his body for medical use.
