Super Billboards to Welcome Interstate Travelers at Opening

Interstate Highway 20 will be opened south of Eastland and Cisco probably sometime between the middle of October and Nov. 1, Resident Engineer R. P. (Buddy) Haun reports. Original estimate was for an Oct. 1 opening, but a re-design of Highway Signs is going to delay the opening for some time, he said. Under a new national program, all interchanges on the Interstate are to be numbered, and although the signing contract was let back in May for this project, revisions are being made by the sign contractor. The roadway will not be open until signs are in place (interchanges in this project will be in the 300 series.)

The two construction contractors probably will complete the highway before that date, but the stretch won't be opened to traffic until the major portion of the signs are in place, Mr. Haun said.

BILBOARDS TO BE READY

Contract has been let by the Billboard Committee of ETHE Eastland Chamber of Commerce, President Jeff Glazier reports, and the giant signs will be erected east of Eastland soon.

Designed by top-flight designers, the boards to the east will be in a series of three.

There will be two eight by 16 feet Scotchlighted signs: the first will read: "Watch for the 10-mile break just ahead."

The third and biggest board will be 40 feet wide and 19 feet tall. All the signs will be erected 10 feet off ground level, making them easily seen and read. The big sign will be electrically lighted.

To the left of the big sign is a map showing the "10-mile break" route on U.S. 80 "off the Interstate", which if followed by the traveler, will take him from east of Eastland to west of Cisco.

Cisco and Eastland are working co-operatively on this project, and the billboards to be erected by the Cisco Chamber of Commerce will plug the same 10-mile stretch, so that travelers getting off Interstate west of Cisco, will logically follow old U. S. 80 (which will continue to be maintained as a national highway,) all the way through Eastland, to rejoin the Interstate east of Eastland.

All the signs will be primary colors of sunflower yellow backgrounds with jet black lettering, except for one line (See Old Rip at the Courthouse!) in royal blue.

Copy on the sign reads: "Take a 10-mile break through Eastland."

The Eastland Chamber of

Watch for the 10-mile break!

10-mile break just ahead!

James Fullen Graduates Auto Course

WAKKEN -- James M. Fullen, Fullen Motor Co., Eastland, was among a class of 43 men graduated recently from a five-week automotive retailing course at one of American industry's most unusual schools.

He was enrolled in the 75th class for Chevrolet Dealers' Sons held at the Chevrolet School of Merchandising and Management here. The group of 43 included 10 representatives from General Motors Canadian and overseas operations.

The five-week course concentrated on latest methods of operating a modern and successful retail automotive dealership. Founded in 1938, the Chevrolet school has graduated more than 9,000 persons from retail and wholesale courses.

Commerce began a program several years ago of putting a certain amount of money each month into a billboard fund.

Miss Diane Horton will be guest soloist at the First United Methodist Church in Eastland Sunday Aug. 22. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeJeune Horton of Midland. Her parents were former members of the Eastland Church, and Mr. Horton is employed with Mobil Oil Co. in Midland.

Diane is a Soph. at NTSU at Denton, and is studying with Mrs. Virginia Botkins of Denton.

Miss Horton sing "Hymn of Praise" by F. Shurbert.

Mangrum Starts Revival

Mangrum Baptist Church will begin their revival services August 23, and continue through August 29, according to Rev. A. J. Thomas, minister. Prayer services will begin each evening at 7:30 p.m. with song services beginning at 8 p.m.

Jim Roberts will be in charge of the worship service, with Dale Jackson leading the singing, both of Carbon. Deborah Casey of Carbon will accompany on the piano.

Rev. Thomas extends a warm invitation to everyone to attend.

Bread of Life

I sought the Lord, and He heard me, and delivered me from all fears.

I the Lord am with thee.
Be thou not afraid!
I will help and strengthen.
Be thou not dismayed!

Jaycees are Thanked

I can hardly find words to properly commend you and the Eastland Jaycees for the fine pageant you conducted for the Texas peanut producers. It was certainly first class all the way.

Three of my Board Members were in attendance and expressed to me that they were really impressed by the quality of the show. The entertainment was superb. The M. C. did a grand job, as did the lady on the musical instrument. Together they made a fine combination.

Please convey our feelings and deep appreciation to the rest of the Jaycees and all of the fine folks of Eastland who had a part in staging this successful pageant.

It has been a pleasure working with you and we are looking forward to working with you again next year.

My best regards,

Sincerely,
Wayne Eaves
Executive Secretary

EASTLAND NATIONAL BANK
EASTLAND, TEXAS

Take a 10-mile break from the Interstate -through Eastland.

See "Old Rip" at the courthouse!

If the realization hasn't hit you that summer is practically over -- and a comparatively short one it was -- just ask some of the Mavericks who started two-day workouts Monday. We talked to some of them after the first day, and some were the most surprised young men you ever saw -- they'd found muscles by Monday night they never knew existed.

But by midweek, after rolling and bending and running and throwing and kicking, and and that comes with first-week football workouts, they had begun finding themselves and working out some of the summer kinks. Even at the beginning, however, from the workouts we watched, they weren't letting the soreness and stiffness drag them down; they were showing an interest in what they were doing, and exhibiting a spirit which will build them into a fine team before the playing season starts.

Coach Shirley Frazier says he won't have a real big team this year -- only a few could be classified as "big" -- BUT what they lack in size they expect to make up in "quickness" and "desire" to play football. Those are the factors around which this year's Mavericks will be built, the coaches say. And in a day of more-or-less scientific football -- against the old "beef" idea -- these factors may just mean the difference.

As the E. H. S. cheerleaders have been planting the seeds of spirit and tending their "crops" we see the products of their work first begin to push up and promise to bring forth a big yield. With the growth of the "crop" we see the changing seasons in the life of every young person from the first grades up through college. The season for summer fun and sun is slowly fading into the autumn colors of games and mums, and of course books and school bells.

First graders are awaiting the exciting moments of the first days of school; and up in theyears, the college freshmen are awaiting the first days of a new life with a little more freedom and tremendous amount of responsibility.

Junior High students will be on the hill for the first time. Freshmen in high school will be seeing how different high school is compared to junior high school.

Parents are awaiting the days of the good 'ole peace and quite again. Still other parents are saying good bye to the last of their home bunch as their first grader waves good bye or their college freshmen sets out to college.

Football boys and coaches alike are eating, drinking and even sleeping football.

Principals and teachers have already begun to prepare and keep up with the students since they have been attending teaching work shops at Cisco Junior College since August 16.

Eastland schools begin at 8 a.m. August 23.

Eastland college students will be leaving for their various places of study at different times. CJC begins its classes September 1, with registration beginning on August 23.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:
When Congress passed the Interstate Highway plan they set up a system to help pay for the nation wide network of highways. They imposed a highway use tax on large trucks, truck-tractors and busses. The good folks at Internal Revenue Service have issued a friendly reminder to truck owners that August 31 is the deadline for filing their Form 2290 and paying the highway use tax for the fiscal year which began July 1, 1971. If you are not sure as to whether your truck is big enough to put you in the taxable category, IRS will be glad to send you Publication 349, Federal Use Tax on Trucks, Truck-tractors and Busses. Write to Internal Revenue Service, 1100 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas 75202.

What underlies today's interest in divine healing?

This is a question to be explored at Christian Science church services Sunday, August 22, in a Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus".

The restoration of sight to a man born blind is one of the healings of Christ Jesus included in the Bible readings. It contains this insight: "If this man were not of God, he could do nothing."

Commentary from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy relates such healing to today's demands. One citation states: "It is possible, -vea, it is the duty and privilege of every child, man, and woman, - to follow in some degree the example of the Master by the demonstration of Truth and Life, of health and holiness." Services in Eastland begin at 10 a. m. at the First Church of Christ Scientist, on the corner of Lamar and Plummer.

Annual Fishing and Boating Permits (Sept. 1971-1972) will go on sale August 15 at Lake Leon.

Boating permits will be available from the patrolman or at the Information Office at the dam. Fishing permits may be purchased at Lake Leon Lodge or at Sadie's Place. Permit holders wishing renewals are asked to come to places listed above.

Sorority Paints Playground Equipment

When school bells ring at Eastland Elementary School Monday morning, students there will notice that a little color has been added to their playground.

During the past week, members of the Zeta Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi have painted the equipment on the playground in bright shades of red, blue, green and yellow. The idea grew out of a suggestion that the merry-go-rounds, slides, see-saws, climbing bars, etc. on the playground were in need of paint before the 1971-72 school year. Several members in the sorority heard of this and it was brought up at a meeting as a possible service project for the community.

By De Gordon, County Agent

Almost every day for the past few weeks I've looked at the calendar to make sure this is August. The weather has been everything but typical for August.

James Reid, Eastland Banker, says he has never heard of peanut farmers say he didn't want any more rain in August. There are quite a few saying it now. Most of the growers with irrigated peanuts tell me their peanuts are waterlogged and need lots of sunshine. Claude Fuller of Gorman thinks his peanuts will make less than last year's crop. He told me about another grower who had planted peanuts in April, irrigated three times, and has now had 22 inches of rain on them.

Most dry land peanuts producers agree that it's better to have too much rain than to have none. Lee Starr of Cisco said that around July 20 the prospects for a peanut crop looked as bad as in the early 50's. Now the outlook is much brighter, and the prospect for a good dry land crop is about as good as any year he can remember.

The lesser cornstalk borer activity has decreased, but some damage is still occurring. The worst threat to peanuts now is the leaf spot disease. It spreads fast in warm humid weather. Fortunately, producers can do something about this disease if they begin treatment early enough to continue treatment at 7 to 14 day intervals through the remainder of the season. There are several good fungicides available for leaf spot control.

The summer forage crops are the best I have seen during my five years in Eastland county. As I drive around the county I see a lot of hay that needs to be cut, but wet ground prevents harvest operations. Hay cut at an early stage of growth have higher protein content than those harvested at a mature stage, so when making hay, don't forsake quality for quantity.

The stage of growth and the time of the year greatly influence quality. Harvest your hay young and expect slightly lower yields per cutting when weather permits. In many cases, the total yield per year will be just as high as if the crops had been allowed to grow tall.

Costal bermudagrass should be cut when it reaches a height of 12 to 14 inches. Sorghum, sudan hybrids, johnsongrass and native grass hays should be cut in the boot stage, just before blooming.

Once the crops are cut and baled, it gets no better. It is never any better than the day it was cut.

The pecan crop is going to be very small this year, but the quality should be excellent. The nuts are extremely large for this time of the year.

Expect a heavy infestation of fall insects on pecans. The pecan weevils and shuck worms are already working. The weevils are about a month early and should be controlled now.

cording to the new brand law passed in the last session of the Texas Legislature.

Under the law all brands now recorded will expire six months after the effective date of Sept. 1.

This means that persons now using a registered brand or mark must register within the six month period (Sept. 1, 1971 through February 29, 1972). After this time any unrecorded brand becomes available on a "first-come" basis. The brands and marks must be re-recorded every 10 years.

Periodic registrations are enacted to clear the records of brands no longer being used.

Austin - Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced that the Texas Department of Agriculture will conduct a public hearing September 7 to establish regulations concerning the labeling of treated seeds. The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. at the John H. Reagan Building in Austin.

Presiding over the gathering will be Bill Staffel, director of the TDA's Seed Division. Staffel will outline the proposed guidelines for labeling of treated agricultural and vegetable seeds. The TDA has been working on the regulations since the passage of Senate Bill 457 in the last legislature. The bill, which defined "treated" seeds, called for the Commissioner to make labeling rules and to promulgate the rules through a public hearing. Prior to the act, there was no seed treatment labeling required in Texas.

Commissioner White advised all parties interested in the labeling requirements to attend the meeting.

VETERANS

Veterans and their dependents—and the general public—frequently refer to veterans' entitlement to "compensation" and "pension" as if the terms were interchangeable. Each of these words have distinctively different meanings in describing veterans' benefits, according to Jack Coker, Waco VA Regional Director.

Compensation, the Veterans Administration explains, is paid because of a disability or death that resulted from military service.

Pension, on the other hand, is paid on the basis of need to wartime veterans or their dependent survivors when the veteran is totally and permanently disabled from causes not traceable to military service, or when he dies of such causes.

Payments for compensation may go to a veteran, if he has been disabled by an injury or disease that originated or was aggravated while he was in active military service. When death results from military service or from a service-connected disability after service, compensation goes to the veterans unmarried widow or dependents. Income from other sources is not considered.

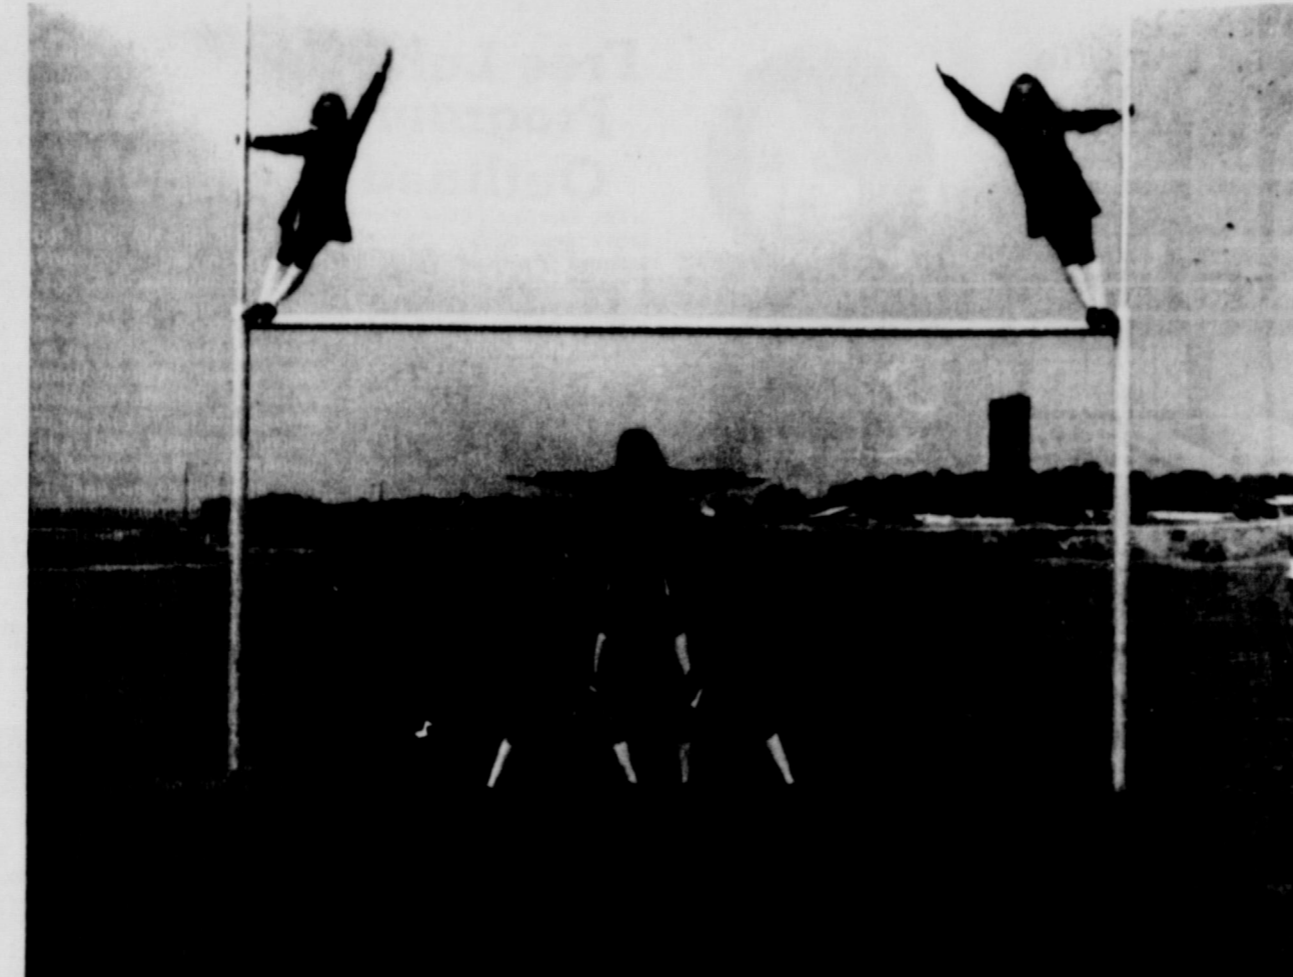

Payments for pension may be made to eligible veterans or surviving dependents whose income falls below levels set by law. The amount of the pension varies with the recipients income from other sources.

Information on these benefits and other Veterans Administration programs may be obtained from any VA office, veterans county service officer, or local veterans service organization representative.

Parent plants were carefully moved to a greenhouse during the winter of 1965-66. Some 245 single Renner lovegrass plants were then field planted in 1967 and seed increase was begun.

The same methods of management used on Ermeio lovegrass should be applied to Renner lovegrass, added the director.

Free Lunch Program Outlined

The Eastland Public Schools today announced a free and reduced price lunch policy for Eastland school children unable to pay the full price.

Local School Officials have adopted a family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility.

Families falling within the scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy the School Building Principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. W. T. Siebert, Supt. of Schools, whose address is Box 31, Eastland Texas (900 W. Plummer St.) has been designated as the Hearing Official. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of our discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the Superintendent of Schools at the High School Building where it may be reviewed by any interested patron.
