Little Miss Eastland, '71To Be Crowned Tuesday Evening

Tid Bits

IF YOUR youngsters haven't been immunized against the plain, old measles, you'll surely want to take advantage of

Elementary Tuesday, sponsor-ed by the P-TO, the School an

the State Health Department.

Parents with pre-schoolers are especially invited.

MORE GOOD news: Saturday morning E. L. Foster, well-known here, reports that his district office for Farmers

Home Administration will again be located in Eastland. Beginning Monday, Mr. F. will be located on the fourth floor and he and his family are settled at their Lake Leon Cabin. And it's welcome back may be forthcoming. Mike (Michael Henry) Martin, radio station KNIT in Abilene disc jockey, SSS International recording artiest, and lead singer with "The Topics," will be on hand as master of ceremonies and will crown the 1971 "Little Miss Eastland" and sing the pageant song in her honor.

A portion of the Tarleton Troubaders, a musical group from Tarleton State College in Stephenville who made a Carribean tour last summer and has performed in various functions over the state, will present entertainment during a break in judging. Members of the group to appear are dancers Jeanette Alsup and Seth Miller and pianist Wayne Ross.

Local entertainment will consist of singer-pianist Anna Ivory Edwards and a group of children who will sing several songs. The children in-clude former "Little Miss Eastland's" -Melody Bond, 1963; Rhonda Rushing, 1967; Laurie Underwood, 1968; Sheri Mangum, 1969; and Becky Gailey, 1970—and the hildren of the members of Zeta Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, spensors of the pageant. Restrictions On Shipments Of Hog Ordered

Dr. H. Q. Sibley, acting executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission has ordered a restriction on swine movements in Texas in order to bring the present hog cholera situation under control. This restriction is imposca to implement a quarantine order signed by Mr. Joe B. Finely, Jr., Chairman of the Texas Animal Health Commission on March 22, 1971. Effective March 29, 1971.

the movement of all feeder and breeder swine within Texas will be allowed only by permit issued after inspection of the herd from which they

Under slaughter swine may be con-signed directly to livestock markets for sale to slaughter or directly to slaughtering establishments.

Texas regulatory officials have enlisted the cooperation of accredited practicing veterinarians, vocational agricul-ture teachers, and county extensions agents to assist in en-farm inspection prior to show or sale of feeder pigs and breeder stock.

Special permission from the Texas Animal Health Commission must be obtained for exhibitions, shows and special feeder and breeder sales. Restriction sanitation requirements at such points of swine exposure to hog cholera.

Prior inspection and permits for movement is required for any farm to farm movement of swine. Permits for movenent may be obtained by contacting a representative the Texas Animal Heaith Commission or a County Agriculural Extension Agent.

The restriction on swine movements will be in effect for 60 days and will allow the Texas Animal Health Com mission in cooperation with the Animal Health Division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture to bring the cur rent outbreak under control The action has the support of the Texas swine industry and is being taken in the best in terests of swine producers.
