NO WONDER television is such a mess! Like most folks, we've always been suspicious of the national rating systems on which programming is reportedly done. And now, all of a sudden, we find that our name has been picked to participate in this "broad" survey of viewing habits, and it is with fear and trembling that we consider the responsibility that even remotely might hinge on such a test.

No amount of haggling in the pre-survey telephone interview from the research bureau in Maryland, would get us off the hook.

"We don't consider ourselves 'typical' viewers." (Who does?) "And certainly appreciate your cooperating. Don't you want television programming to get better?"

"Well, yes, but how will my telling you what my family watches for one week help the programs get better?"

"Oh, it will, you can be assured of that. If we don't tell the networks what we like, how can they program for us?"

"How many from this area are cooperating?"

"Oh, quite a few. We take a large sampling."

"We'd like to hear from any one else who is participating in the diary-keeping which began Wednesday, Feb. 10, and see just how many of us are 'influencing the television industry.'"

One of our strongest opinions about T.V. is that CBS must have the best state of comedy writers judging from its successful series, but don't know whether we'll be able to (Continued On Page Six)

12 Local Business and Civic Leaders Receive Citations from Gov. Smith

12 Eastland business and civic leaders received citations today from the Texas Industrial Commission and Governor Preston Smith for having made a "significant contribution to Texas' industrial development."

The citations were presented to local recipients by E. H. Sheffield, of the commission staff in a meeting culminating nearly a year's work towards incorporating pertinent industrial location information on Eastland into the nation's most sophisticated computerized site location data bank.

Called "Insta-Site," the commission's computer program has already received two distinguished awards itself from the Southern Industrial Development Council, a professional society covering sixteen Southern states.

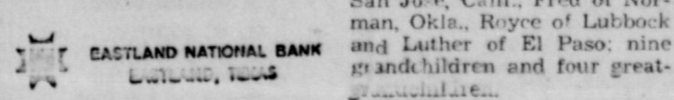

Participation of local leaders in gathering information for "Insta-Site," means that information on Eastland to industrial assets will be instantly available to all industrial firms considering new plant sites in Texas.

Sheffield presented Ben McKinnis who served as the commission's local coordinator for the project, a massive 88 page printout containing 1444 items of information on the Eastland area. Local award recipients collected data for 393 items of information on the printout and the balance were collected for the community by the commission staff.

As soon as the local group has reviewed the information and suggested any changes necessary, a computerized Community Analysis Report will be available that shows

Bill Would Create Gorman Hospital Area

State Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells has introduced a bill in the Senate to create the South Eastland County Hospital District, leaving out the communities of Carbon and Deadman at the request of the voters there.

Legislation to create the district had been introduced at the 1969 session of the legislature, but hot protest from Carbon, Deadman and Gorman caused the legislation to be delayed.

An agreement was reached that an election on the matter would be held and that communities that voted themselves out of the district would be left out. Gorman voted to remain in the district.

Sen. Creighton said he thought that this would resolve the problem.

The district, if created, would allow the district to tax the citizens there and create a hospital in a central location in south Eastland County.

The bill Senate bill 277, was sent to the Senate County District and Urban Affairs Committee.

Vietnam War Veteran To Speak Tuesday to Lions

SFC John W. Warner, Jr., a representative of the Department of the Army Speakers Program, will speak at noon Tuesday, Feb. 16, 1971 to the Lions of Eastland.

SFC Warner is now a member of the Army National Speaker Program, a program which has provided Army speakers on request for public platforms for several years.

Mens Bible Class To Have Chili Supper Feb. 11

The Mens Fellowship Bible Class is holding their annual Chili supper on Thursday night, Feb. 11, 1971 at 6:30 p.m. in the First Christian Annex.

The Chili will be prepared by the Old Master, Johnnie Collins; it always rates the "BEST EVER."

An excellent program of Old time Gospel singing will follow the meal.

The program provides audiences with an opportunity to hear the first-hand experiences and observations of a recent Vietnam returnee so the solid achievements of American soldiers stationed there can be understood.

Since he has served in Vietnam for two years, SFC Warner has a wealth of experiences to relate. His first assignment was as operations advisor to Lam Son National Training Center with Advisor Team 40, Military Assistance Command Vietnam. After returning to the states, he was assigned to Louisiana State University of Baton Rouge as an instructor.

In August 1969, SFC Warner began his second tour in Vietnam and served as platoon sergeant, first sergeant and platoon leader with Company A, 1st Battalion, 8th Infantry.

Howard Payne Offers Course In 'Problems'

Brownwood—A new course which may be unique among undergraduate college curricula in the U. S. is being kicked off this semester at Howard Payne College.

The course, called "problems in Americanism," is aimed at "defining, investigating and analyzing" some of the chief issues and problems now facing America, according to Col. Russell O. Fudge, director of the Douglas MacArthur Academy of Freedom and teacher of the course.

Col. Fudge explained the course is being handled as a graduate class but is open to upper-class undergraduate students who are "mature and serious." A total of 18 students are taking the course, he said.

"In the course, we will attempt to define, investigate and analyze unresolved problems of such profound importance that their significance will be of concern to thinking Americans for a decade or more," said Col. Fudge.

"We also will try to recognize that great issues are not confined to single academic disciplines, and will seek to understand by applying the knowledge and principles gained through formal multidisciplinary education."

"Pull" Will Delay, Not Hasten Car Licensing

It doesn't take "Pull" to obtain 1971 license plates. In fact, if you pull apart the three-part motor vehicle registration from mailed to you early this year by the Texas Highway Department it will make the process slower and unnecessarily complicated. Even through the handy three-part form carries the warning "Do Not Separate or Detach Any Parts of This Notice" in large letters on the reverse side, many motorists are doing just that.

Highway Department officials and county tax officers report that many motorists in applying for license plates by mail detached only one part of the form and sent it in. Department officials stress that the entire form must be mailed in or brought to the county tax office or substation. A stick down strip showing the new license number will be attached to all sections of the form and the tax office will separate the form, returning the license receipt to the owner.

Motor vehicle owners still can obtain their 1971 license plates by mail if they send in the entire three-part form, their registration fee and $1 for sending to their county tax officer during February. That allows the month of March for the application to be processed and the license plates returned before the April 1 deadline for displaying the new plates.

During the month of March, it will be necessary for owners to apply in person at the county tax office or substation for 1971 license plates. In either case, owners will save themselves time and trouble by using the new computerized application. You won't need your title certificate or last year's registration receipt.

But, remember, leave the three parts of the registration application intact.

Cooking School Scheduled Feb. 13 At Gorman Fire Hall

A Cooking School, conducted by County Home Demonstration Agent, Jeanette Thomas, will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 13, at the Fire Hall in Gorman.

The school is primarily for senior citizens but all interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

Final Rites Thursday For Ed Crawford, 87

Edwards E. (Ed) Crawford, 87, resident of Ranger since 1919 passed away at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday in Ranger General Hospital.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in Killingsworth Funeral Chapel with Rev. K. C. Edmonds, retired Baptist minister, officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery with Masonic graveside rites.

He was born Dec. 15, 1883, in Brownwood and married the former Grace May Nicol in 1912 in Ennis, Texas. She preceded him in death February 4, 1969.

He was a member of the Baptist Church, Ranger Masonic Lodge, Hella Temple and Cross Timber Shrine Club.

He was recently awarded a 50 year pin and certificate from the local Masonic Lodge. A citation of achievement was given Mr. Crawford by the State Board of Pharmacy

Lone Star Sets $46 Million In '71 Construction

Lone Star Gas Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries today announced plans to invest nearly $46 million in construction projects in 1971, according to W. C. McCord, president.

Major emphasis will be given during the year to oil and gas exploration and to increasing the company's gas reserve and gas delivery capabilities, McCord said. Expenditures are also planned to improve and extend gas distribution services and to broaden the scope of energy service offered through the company.

McCord said that approximately $28.1 million will be spent on construction by Lone Star Gas, the parent company. Of this amount, $10.8 million is budgeted for expenditures by its distribution divisions for the growing requirements of new and existing customers in the 569 cities and towns served by the utility in Texas and Oklahoma. Among new customers to receive gas service in 1971 is the Dallas/Fort Worth Regional Airport.

Over $17.3 million, the major portion of the parent company's budget, will be spent by the Transmission Division for pipeline construction projects and for upgrading and testing of existing lines. The Division plans to construct over 200 miles of pipeline in 1971 to strengthen gas delivery capabilities in various areas.

Lone Star Energy Company, a wholly owned subsidiary that provides various energy services will spend approximately $2.5 million for a central thermal energy plant to serve the Southwestern Medical School in Dallas. Operation of the plant is expected by November, 1971.

as a tribute for 50 years of faithful service as a pharmacist. He owned Crawford Drug until his retirement in 1955. Prior to moving to Ranger he had resided in Ennis and Fort Worth.

Survivors include one son, Nicol Crawford of Hobbs, N. M.; one granddaughter, Cindy Crawford also of Hobbs.

Pallbearers will be T. C. Wylie, James Ratliff, Morris Newnham, Price Crawley, Willard Swaney, E. P. Brasher, Jr., Seldon Brown and A. N. Larson.

Simpsons To Mark 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simpson of 234 Elston St., Dallas, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception, February 14, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Calvert 9409 Gatetrail Dr. in Dallas.

They were married February 13, 1921 in Nimrod, Eastland County, Texas. They lived in Cisco until 1943, at which time they moved to Ft. Worth. In 1953 they moved to Dallas.

Mrs. Simpson, the former Mabel Baird, was born in Remney, Texas. Mr. Simpson was born in Joshua, Texas. The couple have one son, J. T. Simpson of Dallas, and one daughter, Mrs. C. C. Calvert of Dallas. They have four grandchildren.

First Steps In Sabanna Plans Smoothly Taken

The way was being cleared this week for the initial phase in planning the Sabanna Watershed Improvement Project as landowners on the watershed, without reported exception, were agreeing for technicians from the Soil Conservation Service to enter their lands for the preliminary surveys. Cecil Shults and Oscar Schaefer last week secured such agreements from the owners of lands on the watershed between Highway 183 and the headwaters of the Sabanna westward.

Mr. Shults canvassed the landowners from the highway to Mr. Schaefer's properties and Mr. Schaefer canvassed those from his place to the farthest reaches of the drainage area.

The agreements, which are verbal, will permit Soil Conservation Service to hasten their surveys since they will not have to secure the agreements themselves but may devote themselves to running levels to establish the perimeter of the watershed area and to secure basic information essential to further planning.

The Sabanna area extends from extreme western Eastland county to beyond De Leon in Comanche county where the Sabanna joins the Leon river. Approval of the project for planning by the Soil Conservation Service was given by Congress last fall. The Upper Leon Soil and Water Conservation District and the commissioners courts of Eastland and Comanche counties are sponsors of the project, which if finally realized, will mean the construction of a round 15 water conservation structures on the Sabanna watershed for food control with attendant benefits in soil and water conservation, irrigation and municipal water supply.

TECH-VOC CLASSROOM--This is a view of one of the laboratories in the magnificent new technical-vocational building of Cisco Junior College to be dedicated Thursday afternoon. It is a view of the drafting room and its superb equipment.

Dr. Stevens Speaks For Dedication

"Our whole educational world is undergoing a re-examination," said Dr. John C. Stevens, Abilene Christian College president, "standing in" Thursday afternoon for Lt. Governor Ben Barnes at the dedication of two new buildings on the Cisco Junior College campus. "A lot of what we thought true is being questioned."

The American Council of Education, he said, has made a study of the question, "Where can we get the best education?" and it has come up with a preliminary conclusion that is startling.

Dr. Stevens, accompanied by Dr. Don Morris, chancellor of the Abilene school, appeared on the campus a scant 30 minutes before the hour scheduled for the dedicatory program in Herrell Fine Arts auditorium and Dr. Leland Willis, CJC president, asked him to speak in the absence of Barnes who had been detained at Austin by a special legislative session. Dr. Stevens had been scheduled for the invocation in the printed program. He spoke eloquently.

The program at 4 p. m. was in dedication of the new Leon Manor Memorial Library and the new technical-vocational buildings completed on the campus last November.

The presiding program underwent revision in other features.

Dr. Morris gave the invocation. Dr. A. C. Garvin, vice-president of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, gave the benediction in the stead of Dr. Guy Newman, HP president, and J. W. Sifton, vice-president of the board of regents of the college, made the dedicatory remarks in the absence of Lloyd London, regent-president, who was ill.

Dr. Willis presided. Mrs. Ann Johnson played an organ prelude and Miss Linda Montgomery, student council president, led the audience in the pledge of allegiance.

Dr. Stevens told his audience that the American Council of Education has concluded, in a preliminary report, that the quality of education a student receives is the result of what a student takes to the school and the effort he puts into his studies regardless of where he goes to college.

If he has the basic foundation and if he is willing to work, said the Abilene educator, he can receive a quality education at any good school.

He said that a study group had come up with a number of answers to the question of how to determine the quality of a college. He named as a few:

1. When the student who graduates is more creative than when he entered as a freshman; when the college teaches him to think;

2. When the college encourages the student to participate in the learning process, not altogether in listening to lectures, but in the active exchange of ideas;

3. By the amount of usage that the library of the college gets, not only among students but among the faculty members who should be constant students themselves;

4. By the number of students who wish to become teachers, which is an indication of the respect which the students have for the faculty and for the courses they study;

5. When there is a sense of purpose evident in the student body, a goal defined and in view.

The purpose of the liberal arts idea of education, said Dr. Stevens, is to teach students to think, to express themselves, to love the truth and the beautiful, and he suggested that a college which meets these standards is a school of quality no matter what its size or prestige.

A good student, he said, should have a desire to serve and to share his knowledge.

He congratulated Cisco Junior College upon the standards evident in the facilities it has developed to assist the program of education on its campus, pointing in particular to the fine library, being dedicated and to the technical-vocational facilities.

There is a great need in this country not only for ideals, he pointed out, but for people who can do things with their hands. He said that Cisco Junior College in its emphasis on technical and vocational training is making a contribution to this need of translating ideals into effective action.

The program recognized the contributions of the late Leon Manor, Cisco druggist and benefactor for whom the library was named. Also honored were Mrs. Oneta Ferguson, librarian who died in September 1970 and for whom the Instructional Media Center in the library is named, and the late Rufus William Merket, who made gifts of very artistic woodwork to the college to house items of rare value in the library, such as a facsimile of the famous Gutenberg Bible.

Preceding and following the program both the new library and the new technical vocational building were shown the public at an open house.

express that thought in the survey or not.

The little diary is supposed to be kept at the set for the week, and you are to make entries as follows: each time the set is turned on; immediately after each program; when there is a change in the people watching (if a visitor drops in and is forced to watch when you don't show good manners and turn the thing off); and each time the set is turned off.

There is a page for every day of the week and a slot for every member of the family.

Then over in the back of the survey book are some questions which I suspect carry more weight than does the eye-ball viewing report.

You're asked: how many cups of coffee are made in your household in a day, what brand; total number of toothbrushings by all members of your family in a day, brand; times headache remedies used by members of your household in past seven days; number of low calorie soft drinks consumed; number of regular soft drinks; beer; loads of wash done last seven days; brand of detergent; pounds of store-bought dog food served; bowls of cold cereal served in your house; dollars spent on gasoline; and (no-kidding) times women's home hair coloring was used by the female members of your household in past three months; cars bought in past three years; money spent in supermarkets and grocery stores; and list of department stores visited in past month.

Frankly, I don't think my response to this survey would affect television viewing favorably, but under "comments and suggestions" I'm going to put: "Please help John Neville of Southern Television Systems Inc. get the Educational Channel into Eastland."

CAN'T TELL you what President Nixon's platform will be 1972 or whether Sen. Ted Kennedy will be a contender or not, but according to a hastily mimeographed press release from Worcester, Mass., one Jacob J. Gordon (Combat Infantry Veteran WWII) will be a candidate for president in 1972. His running mate, as vice president will be S. A. Lebreton St. Germain, (mother of seven sons). Here's their 11-point platform:

We will end the Vietnam war in 72 hours and eliminate the draft; we will eliminate the income tax and the interest revenue; we will end inflation; we will stop the federal government from building housing concentration camps; we will end all the women's liberation problems; the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world (1); we will pay off the national debt in five years; we will completely eliminate America's race problems; The United States will again have pure water and clean air; If elected legally and properly we will rule by presidential decree temporarily; and God created the free enterprise system and our constitution, Jacob J. and Shirley A. will return this precious inheritance back to the American people.

So, announced Candidate George McGovern has opponents, according to Press Release No. 12. Maybe No. 13 will tell how they plan to do all this.

Today's need of the prayer which covers every human need will be emphasized Sunday at Christian Science Church services.

Each section in the Lesson-Sermon on "Soul" begins with a verse from the Lord's Prayer.

Readings from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy include the following:
"Our Master taught his disciples one brief prayer, which we name after him the Lord's Prayer. Our Master said, 'After this manner therefore pray ye, and then he gave that prayer which covers all human needs.'"

Services in Eastland will begin at 10:00 Sunday Feb. 14 in the 1st Church of Christ Scientist, on the corner of Lamar and Plummer.

WILL ROGERS, JR.

Will Rogers, Jr., To Be "Affairs" Speaker

Will Rogers, Jr. will be Cisco Junior College's replacement speaker for Bishop Fulton J. Sheen on April 19, according to an announcement made last night by Dr. Leland Willis, President of CJC. The announcement came during the Current Affairs series speaking engagement of General Maxwell Taylor, held at the Cisco Junior College Auditorium.

College officials had announced several weeks ago that Bishop Sheen would be unable to make his scheduled appearance at Cisco on April 19.

Rogers, the son of the world-famous Will Rogers, Sr., has been a foreign Correspondent, United States Congressman, tank commander in Europe in World War II, newspaper publisher, former Chairman of the California State Park Commission, movie actor, television commentator, and nationally-known speaker.

Dr. Willis stated, "We are tremendously pleased to have been fortunate enough to engage the time of this very busy American to come to Cisco and speak in our Current Affairs Series. Although we are disappointed that Bishop Sheen is unable to fulfill his contract with us, we know that Will Rogers, Jr. will be a big hit with our Current Affairs Series patrons and the people of the Big Country. He comes to us with the very highest of recommendations as an interesting speaker, and we look forward to having him with us. It is doubly satisfying to be able to get him on the same date as our previous program was scheduled."

Rev. James Lee Resigns as Pastor Of Church of God

Rev. James Lee has resigned as pastor of the Church of God to become pastor of the Church of God in Whitehouse, Texas where he will assume duties on Sunday, Feb. 14.

During Rev. Lee's two and one-half year pastorate of the local church, the congregation has experienced more than one hundred per cent growth in numbers and finances. This has made possible extensive improvement of property, both the house of worship and the pastor's home. A feature of the program is "Children's Church," with an average of 20 in weekly attendance.

Mission-wise, the church organized work in Eastland and that congregation is now a supporting church.

CONVERSATIONS ON CARPETING
 By Pete Brashier

Pete Brashier

Why is carpeting installed in so many kitchens today? The answer lies in its convenience, its wearability, and its attractive good looks.

There was a time when people never dreamed of carpeting their kitchen, bathroom, or recreation room. Carpeting just couldn't withstand the spills and heavy traffic associated with these areas. But carpeting has changed. Since the development of the durable, stain-resistant synthetic fibers, carpeting has become a practical and attractive addition to any room in the house.

Very little effort is required to keep kitchen carpeting beautiful and new looking. Spills can be quickly wiped up with a cloth. Crumbs and dirt are easily removed with a vacuum cleaner. There's no strenuous scrubbing or waxing as with old fashioned tile floors.

Kitchen carpeting can help keep you comfortable while you prepare the family meals. The soft floor surface feels great under tired feet and legs. Carpeting lessens the noise in a busy kitchen, too.

Carpeting is available in almost every imaginable color and texture. For help in selecting the right carpet for your kitchen, stop in 'shop' and talk with one of our carpeting experts.
