

COURTHOUSE DEDICATION PROGRAM IS ADOPTED

Parsons Drilling Two Wells

Producers Will Give Impetus to Eastland Oil Revival.

Three wells in the Eastland field that should strike the oil and gas sands within the next day or two are being watched with great interest.

Ed V. Parsons is drilling two of the wells. His Stubblefield well, southeast of the famous Gray-Highower shallow pool, is seeking the sand around 3,200 feet from which the Webb well produced for some four or five years.

Parsons' well on the Allen ranch, several miles southeast of Cheney, is about ready to drill in. This well is unique in that it was drilled for 3,000 feet without pipe.

The Simmons No. 3 of J. F. Champion and Conway Bros., is expected in at once. This well is on the shallow lease that was recently purchased by these Ranger operators.

Another well that may prove important is the Goodwin & White on the Hazard, north of Staff, drilling this morning below 3,500 feet. It is planned to drill to 3,725 feet.

All these activities are in addition to wells whose completion last week gave great stimulus to oil activities.

Nearly 20 wells are starting, or are already drilling, in the Turner shallow pool south of Eastland, inspired by the 60-barrel well of Kirk & Whitesides.

The Hart gasser, in the western edge of Palo Pinto county, is spraying 60 barrels of oil and will be drilled in, perhaps today.

The T. G. Shaw on the Manning, east of Caddo, which came in for a thousand barrels a week ago, is reported holding up well.

The Belva oil company's No. 1 Stinnett—a mile extension of the Ramsower pool—is rated as one of the best completions in Eastland county in a good while.

Stamford Youth Departs After Fatal Shooting

STAMFORD, Tex., May 21.—Police of half a dozen West Texas towns cooperated today in their search for Dave McCauley, Stamford youth, charged with the fatal shooting last night of Paul Glenn, high school student, in the basement of the Stamford sanitarium, where McCauley was employed.

Both boys were known to have been intimate friends and this fact baffled the authorities in their attempt to assign a motive for the killing. After the shooting, McCauley disappeared and officers in all parts of West Texas were notified to be on the lookout for him.

The boys had attended a theater last night and after the show went to the basement of the sanitarium where the shooting occurred. One bullet from a .38 caliber revolver, fired at close range, struck Glenn between the eyes, penetrating his brain. Death was instantaneous.

McCaulley lastly sought to obtain a small loan from other employees at the institution and failing in this, remarked, "Well, I am gone." He has not been seen since. The mother of the slain youth and close friends of the two families advanced the theory that the shooting was accidental.

Cisco Oil Men Are Injured In Accident

J. Y. Stock, Cisco oil operator, and a brother of H. I. Stock, and his son, Buster, sustained serious injuries yesterday shortly after noon when a casing block on a well which Mr. Stock is drilling on the Ogle lease in Callahan county fell to the derrick floor. Buster's foot was crushed while the calf of Mr. Stock's leg was torn away at the bone.

They received no other injuries. Mr. Stock was reported resting well at his home while Buster is in the hospital where he is receiving treatment.

The injury to Mr. Stock was peculiar in a form. The flesh was not stripped away from the bone, but a gaping hole was torn in the member.

Buster was a regular last year on the University of southern California football team. He plans to return to the university this fall.

Tells of Start Of Start Fire

Buttery Boggs, a steamfitter, was at work in the basement store room of Cleveland Clinic when the fire started that caused several explosions and caused the death of 123 persons. Boggs, above, had been sent into the basement to fix a leaking steam pipe. He found the pipe too hot to work on and went to ask the engineer to shut off the steam. When he returned the basement was "full of yellow smoke" (poison gas) which choked him. During all this time, he said, the fire door to the store room containing X-ray films and chemicals was open.

Drillers' Death Was Caused by Heart Troubles

Heart failure was ascribed in a coroner's verdict as the cause of the sudden death late Sunday evening of Jesse Waters, 51, tool dresser, while at work on the Gilman and McMurray J. B. Matthews No. 2 drilling well about five miles northwest of Albany. The inquest was conducted by W. L. Manning, justice of the peace for precinct No. 1 of Shackelford county.

William H. Rees, driller, was the only other workman on the rig at the time. Mrs. Rees, who lived with her husband in a tent on the lease was called by her husband when Waters became ill and went for a doctor returning a short while later with Dr. Buchman, who examined the body and, according to evidence presented at the inquest, pronounced death due to heart failure or high blood pressure.

Rees, testifying at the inquest, said that Waters had been at work with a sledge hammer and that he sat down saying he was not feeling well. Rees said Waters acted "rather strange". The driller called his wife from their tent and the two of them laid Waters out on the derrick floor, chafing his arms and wrists. Rees then sent his wife in their car after a doctor.

Called Session of Legislature Closed Today

Efforts to Put the State on Record Again Teaching Evolution Were Defeated—Barber Bill Passed Finally.

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Tex., May 21.—The first called session of the 41st legislature of Texas drew to a close this afternoon amid hectic scenes as efforts to put the state on record against teaching evolution were defeated.

Defeat for the anti-evolutionists who were led by Rev. James W. Harper of Mount Pleasant and Rev. B. J. Forbes of Weatherford, minister members of the House of Representatives, came when the House adopted a conference committee report on the board of education bill. This report eliminated all reference to evolution.

Rep. Forbes charged that "gag rule" had been employed to reach the result. Rep. Harper charged that the committee was stacked against the anti-evolution amendment and had announced its purpose to eliminate evolution reference before holding any conference.

Addressing the House members, Harper said: "To prove to you that I am a good sport, I am not going to try to hold you to the amendment that we as a House adopted. The blame for killing it will rest on the committee."

In the Senate the fight was against the portion of the committee report that continues the state school superintendent as an elective officer.

Earlier in the morning Sen. A. J. Wirtz had led a vigorous protest against the first report of the committee. That report had compromised on evolution by saying that books should not be adopted that taught evolution as a fact.

Wirtz declared that any reference to evolution was an entering wedge of connecting church and state. "If the provision meant anything," Wirtz said, "it is using the force of the state to enforce a doctrine of a church. If it doesn't mean anything, I am not in favor of keeping it in as a foolish concession to somebody's idealism."

As finally passed by both branches the bill makes no reference to the method of selecting a state superintendent nor to text books.

Present law makes the superintendent elective in a statewide election. It will continue in force.

Another hard-fought bill that finally went through successfully was the state barber bill. Under it a state board will examine and license barbers. It will not affect those already working as barbers.

Increased penalties for trespassing on posted land was also enacted before close of the session. Clocks were turned back in both the House and Senate and both branches worked until after 7:30 o'clock although they officially adjourned at noon.

Gov. Long Smiles in Victory

Governor Huey P. Long of Louisiana, smiling broadly, is shown as he sat through the impeachment proceedings against him which collapsed when 15 of the 39 Louisiana state senators decided the action was illegal and moved adjournment. Their action upheld the contention of Governor Long that the charges against him were voted by the House after adjournment, and therefore not legal. There were 19 charges against Long, ranging from the alleged plotting to murder a political opponent to various misdemeanors in office and misappropriation of funds. The arrow points to Governor Long above. Mrs. Long is shown in the inset below, snapped as she attended the hearing.

WHO KILLED COCK ROBIN?
Who killed Cock Robin? Who killed the Mauritz taxation bill? "Oil and gas men from the entire day sending their congratulations mid-continent oil section were to the Petroleum Club delegation which left Thursday went to Austin and led in the appeal which successfully killed the Mauritz bill in the committee stage," thunders the Breckenridge American.

Then the writer lets it be known that the Breckenridge Petroleum club has a life membership of 170 oil fraternal men and that one of the bills killed was designed to place a one-cent gas tax on every 1000 feet of gas produced. It is a tale bluntly told. According to the American it would have "worked" in certain counties where hundreds of small independent oil operators have small gas production" and its enactment would have "meant the plugging of these wells, for the present price of gas, without a one-cent tax, hardly affords their operation."

Now the gentlemen from Ganado realize how his bills were plugged to death by the oil men and the gas men of Breckenridge who invaded the capitol city and are said by the Breckenridge American to have administered the chloroform.

ANOTHER RICHMOND IN THE FIELD

There is another Richmond in the field. Rep. T. N. Mauritz of Jackson county will seek the democratic gubernatorial nomination next year. He has issued an announcement. He declares that the 41st will not pass any tax relief measures; that the "common people" will continue to carry the load, that property taxes for 1929 will be increased by from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 over 1928, "a further burden on those already, over-taxed."

The gentleman from Ganado will make a state wide campaign. He promises to hand a message to the people. He lets it be known in advance that he does not wish "to do an injustice to the corporations or be unfair to them, but he insists that they shall pay their proportionate part of the taxes." According to a Stephens county daily newspaper oil and gas men of the west put the finishing touches on the Mauritz bills. Now their author is going to hand them a Deland for their Oliver.

Haugland Starts Endurance Flight

RANGER, May 21.—Owen Haugland, former flyer at the Rang rearport, is ready to set out in his effort to break the world's record for an endurance flight. He will hop off at Wichita, Kan., Tuesday, it is expected, and will fly to Ranger, where he will re-fuel several times. This means that he will fly over this section for a day and a half or longer.

Haugland's flight will be different from other endurance attempts in that he will fly to widely separated places and not spend most of the time hovering in the vicinity of the point where the flight is to start and to end. In addition to flying from Wichita to Ranger, Haugland will fly over Minneapolis in the course of his course, he plans.

Naturaline, produced by Chestnut & Smith corporation, will be used in the attempt to break the endurance record now held by the army plane, the Question Mark. Haugland's plane is "Miss Ranger."

Vern Nelson is expected in Ranger Tuesday with the re-fueling plane and will have everything in readiness when Haugland arrives. Following is the letter received Monday morning from Haugland by Wayne C. Hickey, Ranger Chamber of Commerce secretary: "We are here at Wichita now, getting our two planes 'groomed' for that endurance flight. "We expect to take the air from Wichita here Tuesday morning and come directly to Ranger, where we will re-fuel three or four times. (We re-fuel every 12 hours.)"

Vern Nelson will either pilot or help on the re-fueling plane and Gene Shank of Robinsdale, Minn., will, no doubt, be his co-pilot. "Vern will be there Tuesday with the re-fueling plane and he may bother you for a little help in some things and I will surely appreciate anything you might do. "Things sure have been discouraging as to getting any financial help in this flight but I made up my mind to make it if I have to go bankrupt to do it. "The Chestnut & Smith corporation has kindly offered to give us the Naturaline. We will re-fuel with this fuel at Ranger and Minneapolis, Minn. "The plane is 'Miss Ranger' and I like that name, especially for a flight of this kind because she sure will be ranging. "Am only sorry that I cannot land at Ranger and say 'hello' to the bunch but in a flight of this kind we must land where we take off in order to make it an official flight of the National Aeronautic association. Wichita has a well lighted airport and the finest country to fly over so we figure it's the safest place to start from. Nelson's letter, also from Wichita, was dated May 17—a day earlier than Haugland's—and is as follows: "We are now in Wichita getting the planes ready for the endurance flight. Hope to be in Ranger some time during the beginning of the week. Will let you know later just when to expect us. "Greet all the different friends we knew down there."

Will Be Sent to Shackelford for Second Trial.

Motion for a change of venue in the case of the state versus C. B. McBride, of Cisco, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of John Glenn, Breckenridge oil field supplies dealer, at Breckenridge on Thanksgiving day, 1927, was granted when the case went to trial for a second time in Breckenridge Monday. The case was transferred to Shackelford county by Judge C. O. Hamilton, of the 90th district court, at Breckenridge after the motion of the defense was granted. The defense contended that a fair and impartial trial could not be had at Breckenridge where the case was tried first, the trial resulting in a conviction and a sentence of 45 years. The first trial took place in December 1927. The next term of court opens at Albany on the fourth Monday in July at which time the case will be set. McBride's first sentence was reversed by the court of criminal appeals.

The song is the joint work of William J. Marsh and Gladys Yeakum Wright of Ft. Worth. It was selected in a contest conducted under the auspices of the federated women's clubs.

Gangland Leaders' Sign a Peace Pact

CHICAGO, May 21.—The "Fourteen points" of the Gangland peace pact designed to dissolve the overlordship of "Scarface Al" Capone and to terminate the bloody gang war by the incorporation of all warring factions in one syndicate, were revealed today to the United Press. Most important from several viewpoints in the agreement is a clause which gives to the "executive committee" of the organization the sole right to use machine guns and requires that the gangsters refrain from carrying automatic machine guns to use only to carry out "punishment" for violations of the pact. The recognizer czar of Chicago's gangland will be Johnny Torrio. The pact by which Capone and his rivals agree to the rule of the powerful Torrio and "his executive committee" was proposed in Chicago and signed at a meeting in Atlantic City within a fortnight after the massacre of three Capone bodyguards and two days before Capone was sentenced to prison for "gun-toting" in Philadelphia. Capone remains with Torrio, Joe Aiello and George "Bugs" Moran as the "Big Four" of the new syndicate whose vice, gambling liquor business, it is claimed, will net approximately $16,000,000 annually.

Attempt to Beat Lindbergh's Feat

Two years ago today, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh arrived in Paris at the conclusion of his historic flight, a trip which inspired the greatest period of activity aviation had experienced. More than a score of ocean flights have been attempted, a number of them ending in disaster since that time. On the second anniversary two crews of trained aviators were ready to hop off on new flights for aviation honors over perilous sea routes. One of the attempts is being made by three Frenchmen who hope to better Lindbergh's record for the Paris flight. The other is by two Americans, Roger Q. Williams and Lewis M. Yancey, waiting at Old Orchard, Me., for an improvement in weather before taking off for Rome.

Young Daughter of Morrow Gets Blackmail Note

WESTWOOD, Mass., May 21.—Reports that Constance Morrow, 15-year old daughter of Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, had received a letter threatening her life unless she placed $50,000 at a given spot, were confirmed by Police Chief Peter Driscoll here today. He stated that this was the latest of a series of blackmail attempts made in the last four months against wealthy residents of Greater Boston. The case of Miss Morrow still is being investigated with the aid of Burns' detectives, the chief said. Besides Miss Morrow, who is a student at Milton academy near here, others who received blackmail letters were Mrs. Charles Sumner Guild of Boston, widow of Former Governor Guild of Massachusetts, the chief said. The letter addressed to Miss Morrow specified that the $50,000 should be placed last Saturday night at a point on the estate

Doctor Found What is Best for Thin, Constipated People

As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated. In the course of his 47 years' practice (he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875) he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pspein. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year his prescription was first placed on the market. The preparation immediately had as great success in the drug stores as it previously had in his private practice. Now, the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. Millions of bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are being used a year. Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on satisfied users' telling of it. There are thousands of honest people in this country that are never out a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and we have many hundreds of letters from grateful people telling us they helped them when everything failed. Every drug store sells Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Ring out the scum! Ring in the soft water!

Good news! Water need no longer be hard, even in this hard-water country. Scum need no longer form in the bathtub! Dirty rings need no longer be scrubbed from tubs, dishes or wash-basins! Use Melo to soften hard water! It prevents the forming of the dirty ring. It makes water delightfully soft. It saves from 1/2 to 1/2 the amount of soap ordinarily used. It makes soap much more effective. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is a wonderful cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

ness that held them.
 But there was nothing they could do except wait. Their suspense was not long, however, not more than a matter of minutes.
 A call came in from the Grand Central Station. It was from Halley. Unknown to Pamela, he had been put to guard her when ever she left the hotel. Even Mr. Judson did not know this. It was Inspector Markeson's experience that young Mides rebelled against surveillance and he knew Mr. Judson to be indulgent where Pamela was concerned.
 Halley reported that Miss Judson was at the station, waiting for a train. He said there was something peculiar about it and wanted to know if it was all right.
 "It's a kidnaping," he was told. "Arrest her companion, but for God's sake, be careful. It's Connor."
 "Send some men," Halley wisely requested.
 Mr. Judson and Stephen insisted upon going. A policeman rode on the running board of their car and cleared the traffic for them.
 "He's got a gun on her," Halley told them when they reached the station.
 "One of you men get on that train and take him as soon as he gets aboard. He'll be off his guard for a minute or two," the detective in command ordered. "Stay back, Mr. Judson and you, too, Armitage."
 Stephen saw her shrink from him and halted. He reminded himself, with great fear, that he had yet to hear from her own lips what Mr. Judson had told him.
 "Where is Mr. Judson?" Mildred cried, her eyes wildly searching the room.
 "He's left us alone," Stephen said quietly. "So that I may tell you I love you, Mildred."
 His voice was humble, beseeching, but there was an eager intensity behind it that told Mildred he was holding himself in leash.
 She stared at him, unable to say a word.
 "I've been an awful fool," he said suddenly. "And Mr. Judson found it out. He asked me just one simple question, Mildred, and that settled everything." He paused, and Mildred waited, her heart pounding like mad.
 "Please, sit down here and let me tell you all about it," Stephen urged, but not daring to go nearer her.
 Mildred moved over and sank weakly into a chair.
 "What did he ask you?" She simply couldn't keep the question back, though her feminine instinct prompted her not to make it too easy for him.
 Stephen looked at her and she suddenly wanted to laugh joyously at his small boy air of guilt.
 "He said to me," Stephen said, coming closer. "He said to me, 'Young man, do you love Mildred Lawrence?' And before I knew it I had said yes. So you see, that's the way it was all the time, only I was a fool."
 "Oh," it was a very little word, but Stephen found encouragement in it.
 "I know that's only half of it," he went on. "There's you. I might not be a fool any longer, but what good will that do unless I have you? Mildred, you aren't going to spoil it now! Don't you love me?"
 Mildred smiled—the smile that comes but once.

"I saw him this morning," Stephen explained to Mildred.
 "But mother and Connie!" Mildred exclaimed.
 "I'll take care of them," Mr. Judson promised. "And since I'm certain you will refuse the reward—they've taken Connor's thumbprint—it was he..." Here his voice broke completely.
 Mildred laid a comforting hand on his arm.
 Presently he smiled. "There's just one thing I must warn you about," he said; "you must take a peace offering to that loyal sister of yours."
 He reached into his pocket and brought out both the sapphire necklace and the bracelet. "Yours, my dear," he handed them to Mildred. "But I suggested you give Connie the bracelet. She can wear it at her coming out party when she finishes at Bryn Mawr."
 THE END
 Mildred put a hand quickly to her lips—and then reached it up to Stephen. The other one, too. He drew her out of the chair, close to him. "Say it," he said.
 Mildred lifted her face. "Stephen, I love you."
 Stephen didn't need any more. He kissed her.
 He kissed her so many times that Mr. Judson had to come in and put a stop to it.
 "Pamela?" Mildred asked vol- un-ly in the one word.
 "She knows... and she's going to give you that traveling bag herself," Mr. Judson answered. Then, to Stephen: "I suppose you've told Mildred about Mr. Mettle's offer to send you to South America?"
 "I saw him this morning," Stephen explained to Mildred.

ABILENE MAN SUFFERS MORE THAN 20 YEARS

A. E. Barber Says Orgatone Is Making Him a Well Man After Unusual Suffering.

"I don't believe there was a week for the past 20 years that I didn't suffer with awful pains in my stomach that felt just like something was gnawing me in two, but since I started taking Orgatone a few weeks ago I haven't had a touch of my old trouble," said A. E. Barber, residing on rural route 1, Abilene, Texas.
 "I can remember," continued Mr. Barber, "that when I was practically a young man my stomach and digestive organs were always giving me trouble. It was a dull heavy pain that seemed like a hard lump or knot right in the pit of my stomach. Many a day, especially after eating heavy foods of any kind, it would hurt me so badly that it just seemed like I could hardly stand to do another lick of work."
 "After eating, especially at night, I would suffer from a constant gnawing pain in my stomach and I could feel it throbbing and jarring down in my lower bowels. It was certainly a queer sensation and the best way I can give any idea of the pain is to say that it was just like a toothache and only people who have ever had it will know just what I suffered. I have taken nearly every kind of medicine but none did me a bit of good, and when I saw Orgatone so highly advertised I decided to try it. I have taken it just a few weeks now and for the first time since I can remember I don't have that throbbing sensation in my stomach. My stomach feels so much stronger that I can lift heavy things and don't notice any pain or trouble at all. I take pleasure in stating my experience with Orgatone, for I've found it to be a splendid medicine."
 Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile preparation and is sold in Eastland exclusively by Toombs & Richardson, who are the direct laboratory agents.
 WACO, Tex., May 21.—Amarillo was chosen as the 1930 meeting place by delegates attending the annual convention of the Texas branch general contractors of America, here Monday.

Stephen had confided to him that he hadn't yet had the talk with her that both knew he must have. It made it easier for him, and for Stephen, too, to see that her father seemed deader to her.
 Stephen was distressingly conscious of the interview he'd had with Mr. Judson following the latter's visit to Mildred that morning. Distress—and strangely happy.

WASHINGTON LETTER

...went to college, but he is ordinarily a quite pleasant and amiable person, with a war record covering the Spanish-American struggle, Mexican border service and the World War. He is rugged and strong, short and chunky and his smile resembles that of a man who is about to commit a long-anticipated murder of vengeance.
 Brookhart was on the administration side during the last campaign, but it didn't last long. Before the conventions he was advocating the nomination of Senator George W. Norris. Now, in farm relief debate, he has become one of President Hoover's bitterest critics, charging that he was misled into making those many speeches to Hoover for the farmers last year. His bolt from the Hoover farm program was even more spectacular and vehement than his campaign for the party candidate.
 All along he has kept on digging up dirt in the Republican party's major standing scandal, the southern patronage system, showing how G. O. P. politicians in that area have profited handsomely by distribution of federal offices awarded for nothing more than their services at national conventions. President Hoover is understood to endorse heartily the work of Brookhart's patronage committee, but his popularity among other Republican politicians is not so much.
 Another example of Brookhart's propensities for hell-raising is his determination for reforming the movie trust. He is pushing a bill to prohibit blind booking and block booking of movie films, arbitrary distribution of films to theaters in which producers are interested and other methods now in use. His announced purpose is to preserve the remaining vestige of competition in the industry and create a new competition.

Now Feels 30 Years Younger

MR. J. BLANCHETTE

"Before I started the Sargon treatment, I was so weakened and run down, that I could hardly get around. I had suffered with chronic constipation and stomach trouble for years. My digestion was poor, my appetite failed me, and severe constipation brought on biliousness.

"I tried medicines that gave me temporary relief, but that was all, and I was never more surprised soon after beginning the Sargon treatment, that to find my appetite had returned, and to find myself eating and enjoying my food, and feeling better in every way. Then, as my strength and energy came back, and I commenced to feel alert, to take a new interest in things about me, and really enjoy life, I was convinced I had at last found the right medicine.

"I feel thirty years younger than when I started the treatment.

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills ended my constipation and my biliousness is gone. They don't shock the system like other laxatives I have used, but are mild and act surely and naturally. I am certainly grateful to this wonderful treatment for all it has done for me."

The above statement was made recently by O. Blanchette, of 1513 Victoria St., Beaumont, a pioneer citizen of that place.

He Was Dead

SIX years ago it was the duty of sport writers to tell their public that some ball player or fighter had been cured by the celebrated Bonsetter Reese. They went to him and they were cured.

In recent years there has been no mention, if any, on the part of the miracle man Reese and his bone. Ball players and fighters began going to other doctors.

In the spring in St. Petersburg, Fla., Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, was asked why he had not sent Herb Pennock and his arm to Bonsetter Reese for treatment.

He replied. "Why, he's dead."

Won't Obey

Bonsetter is not dead. Reese celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday and he did what he has done before. He submitted an interview. He said he had retired from the sport of the athletic world because he was sure to continue treating

... expect too much of you, ball players." Quoted as such by one of his friends.

... have treated hundreds of players and administrators out of the game for a day and rest the injured. Then the next day or two pick up the paper and names in the box score, when the disability re-appears they didn't blame them, they would come back.

Another reason, too, for the failure of the athletic field of Reese is that he attracted too much publicity and it led clients to believe that he should guarantee a cure. I have enough work to keep me without treating ball players. Many times I have appeared two weeks ahead of work on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays and my clients need to be treated."

Reese says that he will not appear at an appointment to an ath-

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

THEY say it was just a blind when the American League magnates met in Cleveland and announced that the valuable player prize had been abolished. . . . And that the real purpose of the meeting was to consider means of "getting" Judge Landis. . . . And that E. S. Barnard, president of the league, is toiling to keep his magnates from an open rebellion against the commissioner. . . . The Washington players jockey their new kid pitcher by calling him Liskavitz. . . . Deal, an Alabama football player, has six inches of skin peeled from his thigh and grafted on his back. . . . So his shoulder could be loosened. . . . Bob Jones says that British golf was set back six years because of the war. . . . And that the big golfers over there are just getting back. . . . lete and those who do get to him for treatment have to do it by a ruse.

They tell a story about Chick Lang, one of America's greatest jockeys. Lang had been almost totally disabled with wrist trouble. There were lumps about the size of a quarter on each wrist and he couldn't hold the reins. He went to Youngstown and was checked to learn that Reese wouldn't treat an athlete.

He went to one of the Bonsetter's friends who promised to get him an appointment but he told him not to dare mention that he was a jockey and to say that he fell down stairs and hurt his wrists.

Reese looked at the lumps, then grabbed hold of the wrists and gave them a sudden twist. Lang said the pain took him to the floor.

"Weeping, ah, ah, ah," Reese told him. "Caused by twisting the wrists when they were under a strain."

Before 1,700 women fans and 1,200 members of the "knot hole" gang, Dallas raised itself from fourth to third in the league standing by defeating San Antonio 6 to 4. The Indians' bobbles in the sixth inning helped give Dallas the game.

Wichita Falls finished two straight over the Galveston/Houston team. The Spudlers took 14 runs on their 15 hits while Houston could obtain only 9 runs off one less number of hits. Houston sank to fourth place.

Waco, which threatened to fall as hard as Houston, righted itself with an easy 5 to 1 victory over Shreveport, the second place team. Harris, Waco pitcher, held the Sports to five blows.

Beaumont took a stronger hold on its already deep cellar position by falling before Ft. Worth, 3 to 1. Dick Whitworth pitched masterfully for Ft. Worth, allowed the Exporters only two hits. It was a grand total of five hits in two days for Beaumont, Jim Walkup having held them to three yesterday.

MAJOR LEAGUES

Yesterday's hero—Bill Clark, Brooklyn hurler who allowed the New York Giants but two hits and paved the way for Brooklyn's 6 to 1 victory. The defeat pulled the Giants down to within a game and a half of the cellar and shattered any hopes the five-season pennant favorites may have had for starting their predicted climb to first place at the expense of the Robins.

The Chicago Cubs evened the series with Pittsburgh, at Chicago, winning 6 to 1 in the second game. Guy Bush pitched a five-hit game while Sweetener allowed eight. The big mistake of the latter, however, was in the eighth inning when he passed Hack Wilson filling the bases, to work on Stephenson. Stephenson hit a triple.

The St. Louis Cardinals continued within a half a game of the league leading Cubs, stopping the Reds at Cincinnati, 5 to 1. Jess

BRUSHING UP SPORTS . . . By Laufer

Before we start counting million-dollar purses for Mr. Max Schmeling, the Dempsey from the Deutschland, perhaps we should pause a moment and consider Paulino Uzcudun, the bristling woodchopper from the Basque.

In Paulino, Der Maxie will face the supreme hurdle in his race for the heavyweight championship. That is if the German can untangle his managerial troubles and get back into the fight game.

The meteoric Schmeling is already mentioned in many quarters as the man who will be in there with Jack Sharkey later in the summer when the heavyweight crown will be officially awarded the winner of that bout. But before that little party takes place, Schmeling will have to face the Basque and in many quarters there are boys who doubt very much if the Teuton can get by the tough and romantic Uzzie.

Paulino's record since he came to this country is impressive. He has lost only four fights, three of which were unpopular decisions. Jack Delaney and Big Boy Peterson were both far behind when the Basque unleashed the questionable low blows.

George Godfrey gained a decision over him in Los Angeles but the last four rounds found Godfrey hanging on for dear life when the Spaniard got going.

True, Johnny Risko gained a clean-cut win over him in New York and you can't deny Schmeling knocked out this same Johnny Risko. Nevertheless, when the German squares off with Paulino, he may find most of his counter punches finding only Paulino's thick forearms and shoulders and unless he can hold the Basque at long range he may have many uncomfortable moments. It has been said the kid from Hamburg doesn't like them in the pantry but in this regard he isn't any different from the greatest heavyweight that ever lived. Nobody likes them there and that's where Paulino delights to put them.

Barnes allowed the Reds only eight hits and would have scored a shut-out had it not been for Frisch's fumble in the eighth.

Rain halted the scheduled appearance of the Philadelphia Phillies at Boston.

The Philadelphia Athletics gained another half game in their lead over the New York Yankees, defeating the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 1, while the Yanks were losing an exhibition game to New Haven, 3 to 2.

The St. Louis Browns, trailing the Yankees in third place, claimed a game by whipping the Chicago White Sox, 6 to 3, at St. Louis.

HOOVER HAS A BLACKENED EYE

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Pres. Hoover is suffering from the most prosaic of human afflictions—a blackened eye.

While rambling through the woods at his camp in the Shenandoah National park during the week-end, he was struck by a branch of a bush that whipped back as he passed. The injury is not serious but the eye is thoroughly discolored.

Kissing your children you may learn things about their health the little ones cannot tell you. Unpleasant breath or a feverish cheek should put you on your guard against illness. Don't worry and don't delay. Just give a dose of California Fig Syrup and soon the bowels will move; all sour, upsetting elements will be cleared from the system and the child will be well and happy again. Nothing sweeter, so promptly as California Fig Syrup. Even if you suspect measles or some other children's disease, give a dose of this trusted remedy first. The doctor will praise your foresight.

It is the finest laxative in the world for children, and the safest. Children love its delicious taste.

If you have a child who is troubled with constipation or subject to frequent bilious attacks, and sick headaches try California Fig Syrup, tonight it will save you further worry. Get a bottle of California Fig Syrup, today. All drug stores have it.

California Fig Syrup has been trusted by the World's mothers for over 30 years. That is why the word "California" should be emphasized when buying.

ONE of the men upon whom Joe McCarthy is placing a hope that his Chicago Cubs will win the pennant is Charley Grimm, who is regarded by the ball players as the best fielding first baseman since the days of Hal Chase.

Grimm always has been a fine fielder. In fact, it was his skill on the defensive that kept him with the Pittsburgh Pirates when his hitting wasn't the size of his hat. But in recent years he has become a hitter. He hasn't led the league or anything like that, but he is respected by all the opposing pitchers as a dangerous batter in a pinch.

Early in his career Grimm was light-hearted and gay. He was a clown and he didn't take his baseball seriously. It has been said that he and Rabbit Maranville laughed the Pittsburgh Pirates out of the National League pennant in 1924, and Barney Dreyfuss, the Pirate chief, sent him on to the Cubs.

Grimm is still somewhat of a clown on the ball field, but he has learned when to do his clowning. On the field he is the life of the Cub family. He has a $400 banjo and he can play it. He also plays the harmonica, the trombone, the mandolin, the guitar, the piano and the xylophone. He is a swell tenor singer in a quartet and an amateur magician of ability. He carries a magician's outfit around with him and can pull rabbits out of a hat or eggs from under the lapel of your coat. He talks German fluently and knows all the German folk songs and dances. And he can tear off a wicked soft shoe tap dance. And during the winter he makes toys in his home for the kids.

EXCAVATION FOR CONDUIT IS STARTED

CISCO, Texas, May 20.—Workmen this morning began excavation for the laying of the tile conduit which will carry the Fort Worth to Cisco long distance underground telephone cable into this city. The cable will enter the city at South Boulevard, just beyond Twenty-second street, where the tile conduit will start, and will follow E. avenue to Seventh street where the conduit will terminate and where the two-story relay station building the company is to construct here will be located.

About six weeks will be required for the installation of the conduit. Along its route 13 manholes, each 11 feet in length by 5 feet and 6 inches in depth, will be located. These manholes will be set in the parkways of the streets, will be constructed of re-enforced concrete with steel tops.

The conduit for a part of the distance into the city will have six "ducts," each of them capable of accommodating one cable of 1,000 pair of wires, and for the remainder of the distance, nine ducts. Only one cable will be placed in the conduit at this time but its capacity will be nine cable so that others may be added from time to time as the growing business of the company in West Texas demands.

The conduit is being laid under contract by Harrison-Wright Construction company, of Charlotte, N. C. J. F. Randall, of Houston, district superintendent, is in charge of the work, with Arch Brightwell, as construction foreman.

Construction of the company's new building is expected to be started within the next few weeks in time to receive equipment and be ready for occupancy when the cable, now laying from Fort Worth, reaches here.

The Southwestern Bell Telephone company is making Cisco an important unit in the vast system that it is building up in Texas. The relay station here will handle practically all long distance communications over the company's lines between east and west Texas.

DELIGHTFUL MATINEE RECITAL

Mrs. A. F. Taylor presented students in piano, in the Booster room of the Methodist church, at a matinee recital yesterday, when Mrs. Austin Williamson and Misses Dorothy Watson, Millicent
Anderson and Mary Stee Rumph appeared on a program of delightful numbers, relieved by the reading of the play, "Aches of Roses," by Miss Loraine Taylor, a very smooth and beautiful achievement
of this young artist.

The recital room was decorated in potted ferns, in pink garden-nieres, and several pink flowering begonias, placed in the window embrasures.

The piano was centered with a bowl of sweetpeas, and tall flower baskets held pink and white blossoms.

Guests were received by Mrs.
Taylor, in semi-evening frock, and Miss Rumph in pink taffeta.

were attractive dinner gowns and Miss Loraine Taylor, a dainty

NEWS FROM FORMER EASTLAND FAMILY

Eastland remembers the brilliant Mrs. Thurmond, or "Thalia" White, who had two little girls, at the time of their Eastland residence, who gave promise of unusual talent and artistic ability.
Cards have come, from Shreveport, La., announcing the coming graduation of Miss Martha Adolin White, of the class of 1929, Byrd high school, Thursday evening, May 30, eight o'clock, at Coliseum. The invitation bears the school shield in gold and silver embossed with lettered
"Byrd" across surface.

Miss White is very young and has made her high school grade in very short time.

Hagen's Fourth British Open Win

A heavy gale blew up over classic Muirfield Downs, Scotland, but Walter Hagen didn't flinch, cautiously, the American veteran fought his way to the British Open Golf championship with a score of 292, defeating a brilliant field of English and fellow American stars. It was the fourth time Hagen had won the tournament, and above you see him, at the left, smilingly accepting the victor's trophy from Capt. A. W. Robertson Duncan, British golf impresario. Hagen had one record-breaking round of 67, and he is pictured below on the 18th green when he sunk the final putt that hung up a new course mark.

Mr. Johnston still has large business interests. He is now retired from active business, but was look-

A very handsome booklet, with cover embossed in design of the tower of the college and figures
"1929" with "Texas Tech" below, flanked by the college shield, has been received by friends of the graduating class of whom Charles

DR. AND MRS. TANNER

Dr. and Mrs. Tanner are looking forward to the coming of Miss Blanche Tanner, their daugh-

first week in June. It will be remembered, Miss Tanner was ill for weeks in Seattle, Wash., with pneumonia which followed influenza, about Christmas season, and that Dr. Tanner was summoned to her bedside at that time. Miss Tanner resumed her responsible school duties after her convalescence. She will be with her parents through August, and return to Seattle overland in time for opening of school in September.

Last of Fingerlings
Will Be Sent Out
This Week.

CISCO, Texas May 20.

With the shipments scheduled to be made this week the Cisco state fish hatchery will have shipped this spring approximately 350,000
"fingerlings" of this year's hatch to points within the district of 52
counties which the hatchery serves, according to S. E. Wright, superintendent. To date 283,000 of the fish have been sent.

Shipments are scheduled to go
this week to Merkel, Stamford,
Ablene, Brownwood, San Saba,
Coleman, Lampasas, San Angelo
and other places, Mr. Wright said.

In addition to those being shipped out Mr. Wright has placed 100,000 of the fish in a rearing pond awaiting transfer to Lake Cisco this fall. The fish will not be placed in the lake until they attain a length of from six to eight inches which assures a much larger per cent of the number surviving than would be the case were they
to be placed in the lake while still small.

The fish that are being sent out this week have attained a length of about two inches. They grow rapidly during the first year, at the rate of about an inch a month.

Each hatchery in the state has been given a district. That which is attached to the Cisco hatchery covers 52 counties in west Texas. With the installation of the hatchery
at San Angelo, however, this will be cut down some.

Breckenridge Motorcade Invites Eastland to Elks Convention.

With the honking of numerous automobile horns and the tones of a callopie attracting attention, a motorcade from Breckenridge swept into Eastland this morning.
The visit was to extend an invitation to the state Elks convention which will be held Friday and Saturday in Breckenridge.

A large number of cars composed the motorcade which visited a number of other cities today.
The visitors from the Dynamo City were wearing green and white colors and the cars were decorated with green and white balloons—
the colors of Breckenridge High school.

Souvenirs were tossed into the crowd.

It is expected that 2,000 Elks will attend the convention. A parade, two miles long, is one of the features. There will be five boxing matches and many other entertainment events.

Revival Begins At First Baptist Church

RANGER, Texas, May 21.

A good audience greeted Rev.
Hulon Hoffman at the opening service of the meeting. His message was one of helpfulness to sinner and saint alike. Sorrow comes to every life, but out of sorrow strong characters are molded.

At the evening session the singing was helped in a wonderful way
by the work of Rev. W. H. Rucker and Miss Satterwhite at the piano.
Mr. Satterwhite played two pieces on the hard-saw, a common but melodious instrument when in the hands of a master.

The sermon subject for the evening was "The Atoning Blood of Jesus." A powerful, pungent, plain message. Conversions and additions at both services. Hear through which it passes, for it marks the passing of the old into the new, and to me, a changing from the old order of things is always of interest.

Last fall, while making what has been spoken of as a "clinic journey," I obtained permission to drive a 12-mile strip of newly-laid concrete through the Palos hills country in Illinois. It was a beautiful roadway in a beautiful country, and I could but marvel at the thoroughness—the perfect contour
of this "sidewalk for motor cars"
to hillside, vale and woodland—it was perfect.

Some miles from the convergence of this roadway with the main arterial highway, a large force of workmen with a score of dump trucks were making a fill.
Trucks loaded with loose earth came from both directions; systematically they swung to the edge, half circled to the center of the pavement, then backed; a whistle blew, the truck stopped, the dump body tipped as far and grate opened; another whistle, and the truck moved out and on up the road. For an hour I watched them, as like giant ants they came and went, filling the hole that was bad for the highway.

Then something happened. A monstrous truck, very heavily laden, backed up too far, went off
the pavement and down the embankment, settling deep in the wet, loose, spongy loam. It was stuck

—no doubt about it!
A loud whistle blew—trucks outbound stopped, swung around, and returned to the fill; inbound trucks drew up in a line. Changing trucks drew up to the other —a workman slid down to the truck in the mire, attached a chain thereto, and a whistle blew twice.
At the first whistle, all trucks moved forward taking up the slack, at the second, gears meshed into low, at the third, every clutch of every truck was engaged, and without jump or jerk, all, as one,
moved forward, steadily, surety,
until the stuck truck was back on solid pavement. There was no fuss, dissension, excitement or bluster—all of the trucks pulled, none was standing at the side of the road, idling, watching or

MOTHERS now
learn value
of MAGNESIA

Because it is so helpful in keeping
babies and children healthy and happy, every mother should know
about Phillips Milk
of Magnesia.

This harmless,
almost tasteless
preparation is most effective in relieving those symptoms of babies and children generally caused by souring food in the little digestive tract, such as sour-belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, colic.
As a mild laxative, it acts gently,
but certainly, to open the little bowels in constipation, colds, children's diseases.

A teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia does the work of half a pint of lime water in neutralizing cow's milk for infant feeding, and preventing hard curds. Its many uses for mother and child are fully explained in the interesting book
"Useful Information." It will be

That S-e-l-l-s!

Yes Sir! Your stationery is your silent salesman—if your stationery is of poor quality, poorly printed and sloppy it is not a reflection on the printer—

BUT ON YOU! If you are satisfied with such representation—how is the out-of-town firm to know that it does not typify your entire business methods.

Demand the Best!

A good printer must do more than merely go through the routine of setting type, inking
the roller, etc. He must know how to set up your message so that it will leap out of the paper to capture the reader's eye. So that it will combine emphasis with refined appeal.

We are good printers.
