HURRICANE TURNS NORTHWARD THROUGH GEORGIA

Courthouse To Be Dedicated To War Veterans

ALL WHO WENT FROM EASTLAND COUNTY TO WAR

Dulin-Daniel Post Gathering Names for Perpetuation On Bronze Tablet. Names Wanted.

Every man and woman who went from Eastland county and enlisted for service in the World War, enlisted in the army, the navy, the marine or the air service, or was enrolled as a nurse, is to be honored by Eastland county, according to an order just adopted by the Commissioners' Court, which has agreed to dedicate the new Eastland county courthouse to them and to place in the courthouse a bronze tablet containing their names.

Any person who knows of any entitled to place on this roll of honor is requested to send the name at once to Hubert Toombs, at Eastland, named by Commander H. Grady Owen of the Dulin-Daniel Post of the American Legion, at Eastland, to prepare the list of names. The WBAP radio station of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram has also promised to broadcast the request for names.

The Eastland county courthouse is nearing completion and it is hoped that it may be dedicated on or just before November first.

It is hoped to have the tablet of names in place by that time. To do so, it will be necessary to have all the names ready by October 15, Commander Owen has requested lists from the state and federal governments and they have been promised, but these have occasional errors and he wants none left of the list who is eligible to place on it. It is believed there are between 300 and 500 eligibles. That seems a wide margin of uncertainty, but Commander Owen says it merely shows the difficulty of obtaining all the names, as he believes there are nearer the largest than the smaller number.

Th Dulin-Daniel Post of the American Legion has been requested by the Commissioners' Court to prepare the list, and the aid of every person towards this end is desired.

MANY DEATHS IN THE WAKE OF BIG STORM

Distressing Report Comes From West Palm Beach. Savannah and Brunswick In Path of Gale.

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 18.—Fifty-three deaths were reported to have occurred in the storm swept area of Florida, the Tampa Red Cross headquarters announced today.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 18.—Telephone and telegraph companies reported at 6 a. m. that all wires down to points on the Georgia coast.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 18.—Passengers who arrived here 15 hours late on the Havana special from southern Florida, provided a vivid eye witness account of the destruction caused by the tropical hurricane. H. H. Hildard of Easton, Texas, who boarded the train at Miami, told the following story.

"After we left Miami, we ran into the path of the storm 15 miles south of Palm Beach. Torrential rains and wind struck the train, rocking the cars from side to side. The noise of the wind sounded like a hundred sirens roaring at once.

"In preparation for clearing a path through the storm, the wreck train had proceeded out of Miami and we were stopped constantly behind it while the crew removed telegraph and telephone poles from the right of way. In many instances portions of houses were blown on the track and the crew labored for hours clearing the way.

"It took us five hours to get from the south end of Palm Beach to the north end. When we halted at what had once been a station the wind had stopped and groups of people were wandering about as though in a trance.

"Two men boarded the train and had to show special officers their military passes. They knew the city was under martial law. We stayed there long enough to find out that the palm beaches had been the worst hit.

"The city was without light. The sight from the train was one of complete desolation and ruin. It was a ghastly sight to see wrecked buildings leaning all about and many persons were homeless.

"Those questioned said almost the entire residential section of Palm Beach had been leveled. They said about 100 persons had been hurt and were being hospitalized in emergency hospitals and buildings which were still standing.

"People said many of the constructed stone buildings had been only slightly damaged that it was the wooden structures which went down. Wind estimated by some to be blowing at 100 m.p.h. Others said the wind had no effect on the 100 miles an hour.

"Other passengers of the United Press houses scattered about in shape. Personnel at the Palm Beach West Palm most level.

"Flood waters of the storm were still standing in places.

DeLeon Bearcats To Play Lobos At Cisco Next Friday

What is the only team in West Texas that has ever defeated Coach Chapman's Cisco Lobos and has never been defeated by Cisco? The DeLeon Bearcats. Since Chapman assumed the reins at the Big Dam city in 1922, he has defeated every team he has met in the Oil Belt district, at some time or another, except DeLeon.

Lobos and Bearcats have met only once and that was in 1922. They are going to meet again Friday afternoon at 3:30 on the Cisco gridiron at which time Cisco has hopes of winning a game and thereby evening matters up in the standing.

DeLeon has always been noted for good football. They defeated the Rising Star for the Class B championship of this territory last year. They met Anson for the district title the season before that. Not so many years ago they had a good claim to the state championship—and we mean the title for either, the first or second place.

The DeLeon game was an odd affair. The Lobos won by the score of 21 to 7 and yet did not make a touchdown. They ran back punts or recovered fumbles, and thereby scored three touchdowns. Cisco had a good team, too. Ernie Wilson and Pinky Alsbrook played. "Red" Smith, later of Texas Tech, and Westerfield, also later a college star, were in the line. Stubbins, afterwards a fullback for Randolph college, was in the backfield and Chigger Browne, then a substitute, was in the game.

As Eastland does not play this week until Saturday and as it seems that Ranger will be unable to match a game this week, it is quite probable that there will be a big turnout of Eastland and Ranger fans Friday afternoon to see Cisco and DeLeon renew their ancient rivalry, renewed after six years.

hard scrimmaging. Although the school did not open until Monday morning, the boys have been working out since the Monday preceding, so most of them are in good shape.

As things are now stacking up, it looks as though Joe King—brother of Jimmy, curly-headed tackle of 1926 and '27, will lead the center. He played guard last year, though illness kept him out until toward mid-season. Daniel, a good, steady tackle last year, will again hold down that position. Foster, who played end in 1927, has been shifted to the backfield. He is a nice-sized boy with speed and fight.

Mayo, reserve player of last season, is making a determined tackle. Others who are being a similar post are Wilson and Key. There are quite a few more players to be picked out for the guard position, among them being Moser, Smith, Ischman, Adams, and while Castleberry is a scrap for center.

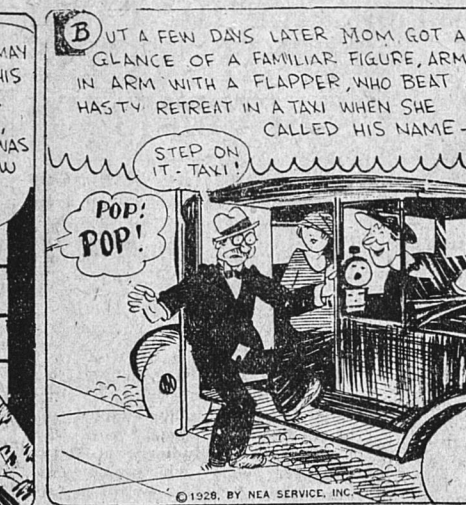

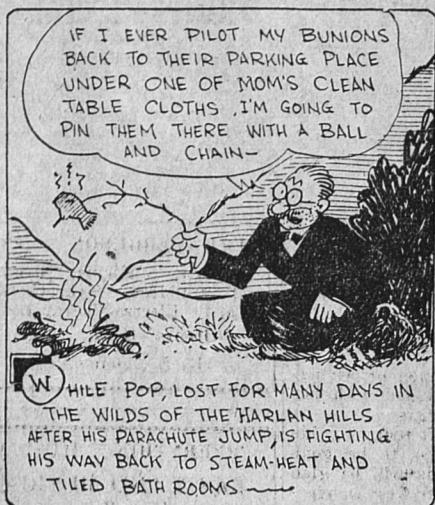

Smith, reserve quarterback is fighting it out with Norton for the honor of general of this team. Dean Allen, 165-pounder, is slated to be the halfback. The spirited comely center is Brown, and Garrett, end, and Myers, tackle.

Old Folks Say Doctor Caldwell was Right

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Dr. Caldwell M.D. AT AGE 83

Then, the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of senna and other mild laxative herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs? A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the baby because pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. In proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottles.

FREE BOTTLE Mail to "SYRUP PEPSIN" Monticello, Illinois. Please send bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to try, entirely FREE.

Now go on With the Story CHAPTER XLIV

"Well, what is the condition?" Bessie asked Rod in reply to his statement that he would accept the job at the cottage on one condition. "Simply that I shall be at liberty to quit whenever I choose," he explained. "And I'll agree that the owner may discharge me without notice."

Bessie hesitated. "I haven't the slightest idea whether or not I can endure living here alone," Rod went on, but he did not add that his doubt was inspired by the fact that the cottage reminded him so much of Bertie Lou. Bessie had decided that Bertie Lou would want her to meet his terms. "I'm sure that will be all right with the owner," she said. "He wants you to leave your address and the name of someone we can ask about you?"

Rod let it pass. If they wanted to investigate him, let them. It was an absurd thing, anyhow, his taking such a job. He didn't really know why he did it, except that the opportunity for some physical effort appealed to him.

It would be a relief to have a chance to work with his hands, outdoors. But five dollars a week would scarcely maintain him. He had a little money. He'd have to wait until it was gone before seeking a position of his own field.

"Here's the address, and the name of the landlady," he said, handing her down on a piece of paper torn from a notebook. "When will you let me know?"

"Tomorrow night? What's your telephone number? If everything is all right I'll give you a ring."

Rod gave her the number and she jotted it down. "Tell the owner that I'd like to put in a garden," Rod said when he was leaving. "I'm not working just at present and I'd like to be busy around the place."

When Bessie repeated his request to Bertie Lou the latter smiled. But the smile was erased when Bessie informed her of Rod's condition acceptance. "He's afraid maybe he won't like the simple life," Bessie added, using her own words. Into Bertie Lou's mind flashed an interpretation that killed a little of her pity for Lila, did he? That was what it meant. The simple life hadn't much attraction for him. Perhaps if he were not down on his luck he would be back with Lila and her friends, in the night clubs.

Bertie Lou thought she could guess pretty well what had happened. Cyrus had discovered that Rod and Lila were in love with each other. Rod had lost his position and Lila had cast him aside when he began to slip down the ladder it had cost him so much to climb. The cost had been chiefly her own. Bertie Lou reflected.

But could Rod be such a poor fish that he repudiated Lila? Couldn't he see since Lila had not been turned out by Cyrus, along with him, that she preferred her rich husband to a poor lover? She must somehow have put all the blame on Rod, and managed to convince Cyrus of her own innocence. Bertie Lou despised Rod at the moment she told herself these things.

She despised him, but still she "pitted" him. And the next day she telephoned to the landlady, as a matter of fact, and made a few inquiries about him. All that she could learn was that he was a satisfactory tenant.

That evening Bessie called him and arranged for him that his references were O. K. He could have the job if he wanted it, and when would he go out? Rod replied that he would be at the cottage the next morning. "Make it tomorrow evening—about eight and I'll be out there," Bessie answered and Rod agreed.

Morris entertained with a lovely little birthday party at her country home, Saturday afternoon, honoring the important second birthday of the family heir, L. FOOD DEMONSTRATION IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH The food and health demonstration presented last night in the Christian church under auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, had an audience of sixty interested people, who greatly enjoyed the plate supper of roast beef, with several vegetables, apple sauce and cake with coffee, which was served by a committee, directed by Mrs. M. L. Smitham, president of the society, assisted by Mrs. Henry Ferrell, W. Z. Outward, J. E. Gilbreath, I. L. Gattis and Will M. Wood.

The program opened with an address by Mrs. Smitham, who briefly stated the purpose of Mr. Guffey's appearance. The lecturer's demonstration was made on the platform in clear view of the audience, and the food was prepared and cooked during his discourse on health and food values. A clever arrangement in the way of a hot plate was used for the various built up aluminum receptacles. Mr. Guffey was assisted by Miss Love, a young high school student.

Why Question Them? If the Yankees and the Cardinals meet in the world series, the betting reflects a rather general opinion, that the Cardinals will win the championship.

But if the Athletics play against the Cardinals the same betting favors the American League team to win the prize.

Sentiment perhaps is swayed not so much by the popularity of Connie Mack as by the belief that the Athletics have a bigger, better and more pliable pitching staff than the Yankees.

There are some critics, however, who say that the Yankees quit in the last world series they played with the Cardinals and that they would have a tough time winning last fall if the Pirates had not quit cold and fast.

Need Going Over If the Yankees are beaten in the American League pennant race there are certain to be a number of changes made in the club during the winter. Even if the club should sneak through to another championship some changes are imperative.

The Yankees will have to have better pitching in 1929. No one knows it better than Miller Huggins, whose dad is fine pitching. If Huggins had five pitchers who could be guaranteed to win twenty games each next season he would feel ordinarily secure. But when he hasn't a pitcher who can be considered certain of fifteen games next year his pain must be intense.

Rookies Won't Do The club will not depend entirely upon the gamble that any one or two of the fine prospects that have been bought in the minor leagues will fill the vacancy. Experienced pitchers will be necessary.

The Yankees can get some pitchers from the other American League clubs if they will give something for them. And they will have to give or else—

No American League club would do business with New York last winter. No club owner wanted to add strength or help a club that seemed to be already invincible.

But the human frailty of the club has been shown in these recent weeks and no magnate would be drummed out of his town if he deals with the Yankees this winter.

Old Boys Good Buy

Some of the young Philadelphia players resented the generosity shown by Connie Mack in signing Ty Cobb and Fris Speaker at fancy salaries. They figured that if the treasury was so flush that surplus could be divided among the younger players who had to do the heavy work through the whole season.

Mack, however, figures that his investment in Cobb and Speaker paid him well. "If Cobb and Speaker were not around we would have been lost hopelessly during the early part of the season when Simmons was out of the game for so long," he said.

The veteran leader says also that it was not Cobb's slow legs that caused him to be taken out of the lineup. "He was almost killed when he was hit over the heart with a pitched ball in Chicago and I had to make him quit for fear that he would kill himself trying," Mack said.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

The Brooklyns have signed an outfielder named Max Rosefield.

Yeh, that the reason... Lefty Grove's hobby is collecting pipes. ... At Simmons stole first base in the last game against the Yankees. ... He got to second safely on a run down. ... And then ran back to first. ... Uncle Jake Ruppert stays at home the Sunday that his Yankees played the A's that doubleheader. ... The colors for the new Sande racing stable are orchid and green. ... Ban Jonsson says he is interested in the American League pennant race. ... Yeh! ... Leon Chagnan, a new pitcher with the Pirates, says his name is the French way of saying Shannon. And Cohen may be Jewish for Cohalan. ... Abdel Baghmel Ouah, the Olympic marathon champion is called "Oofy" around the Garden. ... Where he is going to run.

DOCTOR HEALS SICK TIGER

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 14.—The Bengal tiger, one of the largest and most ferocious animals in the Wichita Falls Municipal zoo, received a visit from the doctor. A foreign substance had become lodged in the tiger's eye and it became necessary to treat it. A 'ariate was used to catch and bind the tiger in his cage. Dr. J. M. Farrell, veterinarian and chief sanitary inspector for the city, then treated the eye.
