11 Dead In Wake Of Storm

OTHERS FEARED TAKEN

Tornado In Middle West Attains Speed of 75 Miles an Hour. Two Children Found Crushed in Debris of School House.

A terrific windstorm rapidly diminishing in force, swept North-eastward across Lake Erie today after leaving a trail of death and heavy property damage in its path across four Middle western States. The storm which at times reached a velocity of 75 miles an hour, originated in Southern Missouri Friday afternoon, whipped across Southern Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky and after striking lightly in several Ohio cities, was believed to be passing out over the lake. The toll of known dead stood at 11 today. Restoration of communication in the stricken areas, however, was expected to increase the number of victims. The number of injured was unestimated. Red Cross aid was being dispatched to the town of Maunie, Ill., which was directly in the path of the storm. Three persons were killed there.

The known dead were: Dorothy Hanley, 12, Maunie, Ill.; Bernice Tucker, 10, Maunie, Ill.; Mrs. Amos Newman, Maunie, Ill.; Marjorie Hargraves, 4, Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Buddy Hargraves, 3, Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Mrs. Mary Nolan, 65, Fort Branch, Ind.; William Thrasher, 43, Louisville, Ky.; Roy Lister, 21, Milton, Ky.; Clinton Mahoney, 24, Milton, Ky.; Mrs. Thompson, Benton, Mo.; Mrs. Albert Stoodt, 50, Mansfield, Ohio.

Three persons were killed at Maunie, where two schoolhouses, a grain elevator and several residences were destroyed. A three story frame schoolhouse for white children was leveled to the ground. The bodies of Bernice Tucker, 10, and Dorothy Hanley, 12, were recovered from the wreckage.

Herman Martin, a farmer living near Goreville, Ill., 19 miles south of Maunie, was killed in the collapse of a barn.

Colonel Charles A. C. Lindbergh who took off last night from Cleveland for an Eastern airport, was forced to return within 25 minutes. He remained in Cleveland over night.

All sections of Northern Ohio reported a deluge of rain which broke all January records. Illinois, Kentucky and Missouri suffered the greatest loss of life, three being killed in each State. One person was killed at Fort Branch, Ind.

Rising out of the Southwest, the storm first struck in the southeastern corner of Missouri near Cape Girardeau where Marjorie, 4, and Buddy Hargraves, 3, were killed. A Mrs. Thompson was killed at Benton, Mo. Veering Northward, the tornado whipped across Southern Illinois, striking at Maunie, Texas City, Carmi, Norris City, Anna and Chris City.

SHELBY, Miss., Jan. 19.—One man was killed, three injured and one, a negro, was missing, as a result of a storm which swept over this section late yesterday.

Joe Ferretti 69, was fatally injured when the roof of a three-story building toppled on his shop and crushed him.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—New York and New England enjoyed a January "heat wave" today which broke all existing records.

The New York weather bureau reported at 2 a. m. a temperature of 63, which was four degrees above the previous record of 59 established January 19, 1876.

Johnston Will Be Suspended From Position

Lieutenant Governor Will Take Over Duties in Oklahoma Monday. Five More Charges Coming Up Tomorrow in House.

By United Press.
DUNCAN, Okla., Jan. 19.—Governor Henry S. Johnston will not be tried in the Senate court of impeachment until Feb. 1 or later Senator C. S. Storms president pro tempore, said here today.

Storms stopped here on his way home to Waurika.

The House charges will be presented to the Senate Monday afternoon, Senator Storms said, and if accepted by the Senate, the Governor probably will be given ten days or two weeks to prepare his defense.

Senator Storms recalled that a similar length of time was given Governor Jack Walton when the Senate accepted impeachment charges against him in 1923.

Governor Johnston stood impeached today on five proferred indictments preferred by the House. The five articles, alleging incompetency and corruption in office, and specifically charging Johnston on illegally appropriated or diverted State funds, were voted in a lengthy session ending at 1 a. m. today.

The house then adjourned until 1:30 p. m., Monday, when attempts will be made to prefer five other impeachment articles drawn by House investigators against Johnston.

The governor will be automatically suspended from office Monday when the State Senate receive the charges. W. J. Holloway, lieutenant governor, will fill his office pending Johnston's trial by the Senate court of impeachment.

"Every man who voted for those charges believes and many of them know, that I have never done a wrong thing in my life," Johnston said when informed of the House action.

Engineering Magic Transforms Everglades

Modern engineering magic is transforming the Everglades of northern Florida from waste land into rich sugar producing soil. The views above show the actual production of sugar cane under way on a 40,000-acre tract. Drainage was effected by building a dike 31 miles long and installing gigantic pumps with a capacity of 180,000 gallons of water per minute. The pumps are reversible so the land can be irrigated in dry seasons. Soon a third sugar mill with a capacity of 3000 tons of sugar a day is to be built at Clewiston, Fla. Inset is Bror G. Dahlberg, head of the project.

COLLEGE YOUTH BLINKS AT FATE

Jury Is Out Only 40 Minutes in Case of Atlanta Who Killed Drug Store Clerk During Holdup. Execution Set for March 15.

COURTROOM, ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 19.—George Harsh, "fun murderer" was found guilty today of the murder of Willard Smith, drug clerk, killed in a holdup here last fall. The jury failed to recommend any mercy and the death penalty is now automatic.

The jury had considered the case but 40 minutes when it returned to the courtroom.

Judge Ed Thomas set the execution date at March 15 and ordered the 19-year old defendant sent to the State Prison at Milledgeville immediately.

Harsh's eyes blinked at the verdict but the cynical little grin still played about his lips. His attorneys held him, fearing he would faint, but the youth turned away carelessly.

The jury had received the case at 12-16 p. m. and then went to lunch. At 1 o'clock it began deliberations and 40 minutes later had reached its composite conclusion.

The Judge's charge was as expected — a request for a guilty verdict — as defense attorneys in their arguments said they acquiesced to.

There had been no question of Harsh's guilt during the trial of slaying Smith.

Mr. Patterson, Saturday night attended a meeting at Carbon, which was a follow up meeting of the mass meeting held there a week ago for the purpose of discussing plans for greater agricultural development in the Carbon territory.

DEATH ENDS RIP'S CAREER

Old Rip is dead.

The horned frog who brought world-wide fame to Eastland has breathed his last.

His lifeless body was found Saturday afternoon. His head was protruding from the sand, earth and leaves in the bottom of the glass bowl in which he had been hibernating. Apparently the recent sunshine had lured him from the protection of the earth and sand, and he was chilled to death.

Mrs. Will M. Wood observed the frog's staring, sightless eyes and notified her husband who found that old Rip, the frog that met the president of the United States, had passed from a world of warring scientists into a sleep even more lasting than his 31 years of slumber within the courthouse cornerstone.

Plans for disposition of the body have not yet been made.

It is likely that the body will be preserved, however, through the sands in the years to come.

It was the most famous resident that Eastland has ever known.

By the Way...

The splendid paved streets of Eastland are among the finest anywhere in the city. But there are a number of other streets, lined by shabby homes, that would be greatly enhanced in value, improved in appearance and made more convenient for traffic by the elimination of dust and mud, if they were paved.

Activities which are in progress Eastland at present include the construction of the Dea Sanders Motor Company and the erection of the office of Warner Memorial University. The construction of J. C. Penny is expected to begin about delay. A number of residences are being built. Hand-in-hand with the development that is strengthening Eastland's position the Oil Belt should go a steady stream of paving.

The cotton production of Eastland county the last year was almost double the crop for 1927. The total was 6,395 bales in 1928 compared to only 3,661 the preceding year. All the counties in its immediate territory registered gain, though none quite so impressive in percent as this county.

Oklahoma House of Representatives has voted to impeach Governor Johnston. Only a few years ago, Jack Walton was removed from office and it seems that we have a recollection that in the comparatively brief history of that State, another governor was impeached. Being governor of Oklahoma is almost as uncertain as being president of Mexico.

The preferential ballot, which has been suggested for State elections, is being done away with a second majority does not work out so well as Gorman where it is used in city elections. Under this system, each voter indicates his first and second choice for each office. Confusion never has caused some ballots to be wrongly marked, with the result that in the last election 20 ballots were thrown out. A number of citizens have suggested a change in the method of voting at least.

At least $20,000 worth of good dry cows will be brought into the Rising Star territory during the year, under plans sponsored by the Star Chamber of Commerce and Lions club. The development of dairying, sheep and goat raising, production of turkeys and string of the poultry industry, the pecans, berries, melons and vegetables along with cotton and sorghum, will make Eastland county, Texas, with the latest prosperity in the South, reinforced—as these activities would be—by the great oil and gas treasures.

The lake of the Gorman Country is now almost full of clear water and has plenty of fish. Several thousand game fish and an abundance of native fish were placed in the lake. Fishing season will probably open June 1.

J. L. Johnson Is Chosen President

At the annual meeting of the Eastland City Medical and Dental Society, held Friday evening in Dr. H. Caton's office, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Dr. J. L. Johnson, President.
Dr. J. H. Caton, Vice President.
Dr. H. B. Tanner, Sec.-Treas.

Will Improve City Hall's Acoustics

The Eastland city commission has let a contract to the S. W. Nichols Company of Dallas for remodeling the interior of the auditorium at the Eastland city hall.

The acoustics of the hall has been so bad that it was rendered almost useless for meetings attended by more than just a few people. This trouble, it is stated, will be remedied by the use of acousti-celotex, the same kind of material used for the ceiling of the courtrooms in the new Eastland city courthouse. The same company that did the work for the city house is also doing the work for the city.

City Manager H. O. Tatum stated that the entire interior of the hall auditorium would be re-carpeted and painted so as to be more suitable for use for public meetings.

Jury Commission Of 91st Selected

A jury commission appointed by Judge Geo. L. Davenport of the 91st District Court and composed of J. T. Berry, Cisco; Walter Harrell, Ranger; and W. O. Russell, Gorman, will meet Monday morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of selecting jurors to serve during the February term of the 91st district court.

WHITE MAN AND NEGRO ARE SLAIN

Bodies Lying Across Railroad Track With Pistol Between Them. Evidence of Fierce Struggle. White Man R. R. Special Agent.

By United Press.
HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 19.—Bodies of a white man and a negro were found lying across the S. P. sidetrack on the North side of the station at Hockley, about 25 miles west of here early today.

The white man was believed to be G. D. Farmer, special agent for the Southern Pacific lines, who left Houston on a freight train last night.

The two men were across the track, the heads on opposite sides. They were about two feet apart and facing each other. Between them was a cocked revolver. Both had been bleeding from the head.

The bodies were discovered by Station Agent J. L. Nooley when he went to open the station for the day.

According to Mrs. Neely, wife of the station agent, the hats of the men were about 10 feet down the track from the bodies and near them was a fountain pen that evidently belonged to the special agent. There was evidence of a fierce fight, she said, the ballast of the track being ploughed up in several places.

The Southern Pacific recently has had trouble with thieves who attempt to rob freight trains in that neighborhood, it was said. Nearly every freight train leaving Houston has been guarded by special agents, sent out to break up the gang.

Justice Overstreet, Sheriff Binford's deputies, and railroad special agents, went way to the scene to positively identify the white man and solve the deaths.

Only one shot was reported as having been heard during the night. Mrs. P. L. Burton, who lives a quarter of a mile from the scene, said she heard one, but she was unable to tell what time it happened.

Another Given Life For Dry Law Disregard

Father of Six Children Is Convicted of Fourth Felony. Charges Wife Planted the Booze to Get Rid of Him.

By United Press.
MANISTIQUE, Mich., Jan. 19.—Nicholas Pappich, a father of six children, was to be taken to Jackson prison today to start serving a life term for bootlegging. He was sentenced under Michigan's habitual criminal act, making life imprisonment mandatory after four felony convictions.

A jury which included five women, found Pappich guilty of his fifth dry law violation after he had charged that wine, whisky and beer found in his home during his absence had been hidden by his wife as part of a plot to get rid of him so she could marry another man.

Pappich broke into hysterical sobbing when sentenced. He had been found guilty of four dry law violations before Michigan's habitual criminal statute became effective.

RUSH HELP TO VICTIMS OF QUAKES

Red Cross Is Aiding in Venezuela Where Thousands Are Homeless, 1,000 Injured, and 200 Reported Killed.

By United Press.
CARACAS, Venezuela, Jan. 19.—Government and Red Cross aid was dispatched today to Cumana where 200 were reported killed, 1000 injured, and thousands were made homeless in an earthquake Thursday.

Gen. Jose Garbin, governor of the State of Sucre, of which Cumana is the capital, asked the government to furnish relief.

The entire city, the home of approximately 12,000 people, was leveled by the shocks, which lasted ten minutes.

The steamer Jose Felix rivas left last night carrying supplies and relief equipment. The steamer Guario had left earlier on the order of President Juan V. Gomez, who personally took charge of organizing relief.

Damage to the city, founded 400 years ago, was estimated at $10,000,000.

STOLEN PEANUTS FOUND BY OWNER

Charles Tate of near DeLeon had a sack of peanuts that he had threshed and left in the field to dry. He missed some of the sacks. A day or two later, while driving along the road north of his home, he discovered the three sacks of peanuts partly concealed in the long grass in the ditch beside the road, half a mile from the field from which they had been taken. He loaded them in his wagon and he announces that he is desirous of "delivering" them to the thief, according to the DeLeon Free Press. Mr. Tate "didn't say what else he would do however" if he found out who had taken the peanuts.

Bittle Is Reelected As Superintendent

P. B. Bittle, superintendent of the Eastland public schools, has been re-elected for another term according to an announcement made by G. G. Hazel, secretary of the Eastland school board.

The action of the board in re-electing Mr. Bittle so early in the term shows their appreciation of his work, especially since this is his first year as head of the Eastland school system.

Mr. Bittle, who has been a teacher for the past twenty-seven years, was head of the Big Spring school for five years previous to coming to Eastland.

Grand Jury Urges Suspended Verdict

After returning an indictment against Tony Falwell, 17-year-old Ranger youth charging him with car theft, the Eastland county grand jury recommended to the county attorney and the court that Falwell, in case he was convicted of the charge, be given a suspended sentence.

A jury found Falwell guilty of the charge, fixed his punishment at two years in the state penitentiary and recommended a suspension of sentence which was given.

Falwell was charged with having stolen an automobile from Bob Norman of Ranger.

New Well Is Started North Of Gorman

WHEN COURAGE IS WASTED.

If human beings would turn to worthwhile ends the devotion and courage they sometimes put into anti-social acts, the world would move forward a good bit faster.
 The other day three run ners set out to cross Lake Erie from Erieau, Ontario, to Cleveland, in a 50-foot boat with 1,000 cases of whisky. Lake Erie is a violently stormy place in the winter, and such a trip, in so small a boat, is an extremely hazardous undertaking; and when the engine of this boat went dead three hours out of port, the men were faced with a critical situation.

For three days a storm drove their helpless craft across the lake.
 Then, one morning, they found themselves drifting a few miles off the Pennsylvania shore. You would imagine that by that time they would have been willing to dump their whisky, and speed and jump at the chance of saving their skins—but not this crew. Instead, one of them donned a life belt, jumped overboard, and swam ashore. Then he went to a nearby city and secretly arranged for a tugboat to go out and take the craft to a sheltered haven where it could be unloaded.

But before the tug could get out another storm came up and the boat was driven back out into the lake. For 11 days it floundered about in mid-lake, repeatedly on the verge of going down. The men aboard had no food. The lunch was cold. They could do nothing but wait—for death or rescue.

At last one of the big trans-lake carferries found them. And even then the run runners balked at being rescued. They asked the captain to convey news of their plight, secretly, to their associates in Erieau, so that a new boat could be sent out to get the whisky across the lake. The captain gruffly refused, and the men were taken into an Ontario port in spite of themselves.
 They had been adrift for 14 days under fearful conditions—yet, to the end, their one thought was for their cargo of whisky.
 If such endurance and courage could be put to work in the service of society instead of against it, the world would be a great deal better off.

First pictures of the wreckage of the huge army transport plane, C-2, sister ship of the endurance plane Question Mark, in which eight men were killed in a crash near Middletown, Pa., are shown above. All were soldiers from Bolling Field, Washington. The great tri-motored Fokker, the same type as the famous Question Mark that recently set a new endurance flying record, sideslipped and crashed near a store. The cause of the mishap remains unknown, although the plane was trying to make a forced landing when the crash occurred. It had just taken off from an army field in a scheduled return flight to Washington.

HORSE RACING SALVATION OF MANY FAIRS IN TEXAS

So Declares Manager of Cotton Palace in Address Before the Convention of the Texas Association of Fairs.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 19— Legal racing under the contribution system is the only salvation of our fairs and this system can be put into practice without any immoral effect, S. M. Mayfield, manager of the Texas Cotton Palace at Waco, said today at the final session of the fourth annual convention of the Texas Association of Fairs.

Mayfield spoke on "horse racing at fairs."
 "At the Cotton Palace, we do not feature racing and if the new law now before the legislature is passed, we would not be greatly benefitted as far as we are concerned, but it is a case of life and death with other fairs. We feature football, but there are many other fairs in such locations that this feature cannot be made to draw because of the difficulty in arranging for good teams."
 "Fair secretaries and managers are learning that their attractions such as free acrobatics and other shows, their carnivals and mid-way attractions are holding less and less interest for the people each year. It is human nature to be interested in a race and good racing has and will bring crowds and the contribution system will swell the crowds even greater."

Mayfield emphasized the fact that there will be no open betting and that the meaning of the law has been greatly misconstrued. The professional gambler will not find his paradise in the law, Mayfield said.

 Announcement of this was made by John Tipps, who will defend Richards. Tipps also said he would continue his efforts for a change of venue, denied by Judge Adams after a long hearing several days ago.

THREE DIE AT RIPE OLD AGE

DeLeon laments the recent deaths of three pioneers.
 Mrs. Mary Caroline Robertson was born June 6, 1834 which was before the battle of San Jacinto and lived to attain the age of 94. Moving from her home in Tennessee, she resided in Arkansas where she married Finis Robertson. He was killed ten years later by a guerrilla band and Mr. Robertson's brother later succumbed to tortures inflicted by the band, who burned his feet in an effort to force him to disclose the hiding place of money he was supposed to have.
 Mrs. Robertson with three small children faced the world and the many hardships of these days. In 1886, she came to Texas, making the trip from Searcy county, Arkansas, to DeLeon in a wagon drawn by oxen. She is survived by three children, 14 grand children, 29 great grandchildren and five great great grandchildren.
 At the age of 92, Mrs. J. A. Phillips, mother of Mrs. J. W. Bunty and Mrs. W. K. Johnson of the Tucker community, died at the home of a nephew in Plainview where she had some less than a week before for a visit. She was born in Georgia, July 27, 1836. Surviving are three children, 18 grandchildren, 39 great grandchildren and four great great grandchildren.

 Coming to Comanche county in 1875 from Bell county, W. R. Stewart settled two miles west of where DeLeon was later located and made a crop in 1876—the year of the "June Frost" that killed corn in silk tassel. He was a native of Tennessee. He died recently at the home of his brother in Temple where he had been visiting a short time. His home was in Dallas.

Eastland Wins In Fast Cage Battle

The Eastland High school basketball team was victorious over the Mineral Wells Mountaineers on the latter's court Friday night, 23 to 19.
 All the practice of the Mavericks has been outdoors as E. H. S. has no gymnasium and their victory on an indoor court demonstrates that the five play a fast brand of ball. Foster, guard, who is shifted to center when a substitution is made was high point man. Others in the Eastland lineup were Allen, guard; Laffoon, center; Cheatham, Smith, forwards; Moser, guard.
 Watson, Reasor and King are on the squad.
 The Mavericks will open the race for the Eastland county championship this week.

How It Feels

By M. F. PETERS.
 A marathon race of any description is indicative of long continuous effort upon the part of the participant. Not so in the marathon Bible race now in progress in Ranger, at First Methodist church.

To be comfortably seated under the soft rays of a reading lamp would seem ideal for Bible reading. But from 1 a. m. until 2 a. m., facing empty pews in a beautiful auditorium with no interference except the low hiss of a gas heater burning near by and the resounding echo of your voice in a vacant room, it's different, yet inspiring.

Under the sifting rays of green and white desk lamp I read from Exodus 10th chapter, first verse, 29th chapter, 41st verse inclusive.
 It was indeed a unique manner to acquaint yourself with the beauty and pomp of a biblical temple built of shittim wood, gold, silver, brass; of blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen, goat hair, rams' and badger's skins, but the minutes seemed like seconds and the hour passed quickly.
 Any suspicion or doubt as to the reverence such exemplification of the great book is quickly dispelled, once you participate in a marathon Bible reading hour.

Few Successful Men Are Brilliant; Most Leaders Have Average Minds, Says Bush

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—"Only a few successful men are brilliant. Brilliance is not essential to success."

Irving T. Bush, multimillionaire industrialist, who probably knows intimately as many leaders in every field of endeavor as any man alive...

On the other hand, he believes that brilliance alone can be a handicap; that the youth who is peculiarly gifted, but who lacks the strength of character...

Warns Against Short-Cuts "Among the thousands of successful men in this country, there will be found only a few who are really brilliant," he says.

The builder of the Bush Terminals system particularly sounds a warning to the glib and personable youth who believes he can ride to success on the sheer force of personality.

"You may travel a short distance on thin ice, but you will get your feet wet in the end," he says.

"Social qualities are very helpful in some professions, particularly at the start. The making of friends often opens opportunities. But they must be social qualities based upon sincerity.

"If I attempted a list of successful men, it would not be confined to the names of those who have achieved great fortunes or great distinction," he concludes in "Working With the World."

Drill Deeper 168 Feet And Get Good Well

Old Well Is Making 105 Barrels Besides Gas; Old "Mother Pool" Well Will Be Shot; Rosenquest Well Estimated 15 Barrels.

An interesting and important development in Eastland county oil circles, and especially interesting to local operators, is the striking of a new pay in an old well just west of Eastland.

The Hickok Production and Development company, in deepening a well on the H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey, got a 105 barrel producer of oil and 100,000 cubic feet of gas when they shot the well with 95 quarts of nitroglycerine.

The old well, formerly owned by Clayton et al, was deepened from 3,120 feet to 3,378 feet, the black lime being encountered at a depth of 3,367 to 3,374 feet.

The oil is of 41 gravity and is being run by the Prairie Oil and Gas company.

East of Eastland, Lew Teatsorth is preparing to shoot his well on the N. N. Rosenquest at a depth of 1,459-65 feet, which promises to be a 15 barrel producer.

In the territory just north of Eastland, Hammun Oil Company (formerly the Mother Pool Oil Company) deepened the J. Z. Miller No. 2, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey, Sec. 2, block 4, from 1,662 to 4,000 feet or to the Ellenberger lime where they got 600 feet of water in the hole and are plugging back to the black lime where they will shoot at a depth of 3,712 feet with a splendid prospect for both gas and oil.

MOTHER OF SLAIN MAN FILES SUIT

Workmen's Compensation Insurance of $6,480 Is Asked By Mother of Lucien Shook, Leeroy Murder Victim.

Mrs. Sarah Shook, mother of Lucien Shook, who was killed by Clyde Thompson in the northwestern portion of Eastland county on or about the seventh day of last September, has brought suit in the 91st district court against the Southern Surety company for $6,480.00 for workmen's compensation insurance.

The petition alleges that Shook at the time he was murdered was an employee of the Braden Oil company and engaged in watching and taking care of that company's lease; that there was and is now an illicit whiskey still operated in the vicinity of the lease which fact made the work of watching the lease more hazardous.

The industrial accident board at Austin denied the claim of defendants for compensation and the action is brought to set aside this ruling.

Northcott, His Own Lawyer, Gets Tired

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Jan. 19 — After three days of acting as his own lawyer, Gordon Stewart Northcott admitted today that he was tiring somewhat of his dual role as attorney and defendant in a trial for the murder of two Winslow boys and an unidentified Mexican. The trial was recessed until Monday.

Clar, Northcott's 16 year old nephew, is the principal witness for the State. He described from the stand the actual killing with an axe of Lewis and Nelson Winslow and told of Northcott's boasting that he had killed an unnamed Mexican boy.

Guatemala Rebels Take Two Cities

GUATEMALE CITY, Guatemala, Jan. 19 — Government troops advanced today against revolutionists on the west coast who have captured two cities there.

Headed by Col. John F. Rivas, army officer, insurgents captured the garrison at Retalhuleu after five hours fighting. The rebels then took possession of the nearby city of Mazatenango where the military commander apparently surrendered without a fight.

A portion of the international railway was reported taken over by rebels. A rigid censorship has been invoked in Guatemala and reports of the uprising are meager.

Troops are being rushed from Guatemala City to the west coast and half of the country had been placed on war time footing, the reports said.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 — An armed revolt has broken out in Guatemala and at least two provinces have been captured by rebel forces, according to reports reaching authorities sources here today.

The revolt began on January 17, according to reports.

The provinces of Suchitepequez and Retalhulen are said to be under rebel control.

BIOGRAPHY OF ELIZABETH RECEIVES CRITICS' PRAISE

By PAUL W. WHITE, Editor United Press Features. Eminent Elizabethans.

In "Elizabeth and Essex" (Harcourt, Brace), Lytton Strachey, who with the publication of his "Queen Victoria" six years ago launched a new school of biographers, turns to the age of the Virgin Queen of England for material. Elizabeth, under the subtle and ironic pen of Mr. Strachey, emerges from her stiff trappings of state as a vacillating, yet strong woman who kept her court in constant turmoil by her inability to make decisions. In spite of this she was unrelenting, fearless and capable of the most drastic measures when she saw fit. No less real is the Earl of Essex who ruled, and was ruled, by Elizabeth's love for him.

From a background of court intrigues, wars which hardly deserved the name, and the social activities of the era stand out such dominant figures as the hunchback, Robert Cecil, who knew how to bide his time; the glamorous Walter Raleigh; and Francis Bacon, who used his wit and intellect so cleverly for his own advancement.

"Elizabeth and Essex" is undoubtedly the most important biography published during the past year.

The jacket of "Squad" (Coward McCann) by James B. Wharton with its picture of weary, grim men in the uniform of an American expeditionary force on the march tempted me to shove the book in the furthest corner of my book shelves and forget about it. Another war story! But sense of duty overcame the temptation and I opened its cover. Before I was half way through it I knew that it was the war story—not just another one.

Wharton has written with terrifying simplicity and calmness the story of a squad of eight men—the smallest of military units—who fought in France. The very importance of the men themselves and of their part in the army lends a universality to the novel just as the direct writing gives it power.

The book is not crammed with the rich and varied profanity that we have learned to expect from "realistic" war novels. As often as the conversation is vulgar it is almost humorous, masal and otherwise revelatory of the men concerned. Through mud and blood and fire, "Squad" marches on inexorably and convincingly.

Flies in the Ointment. "Wits' End" (Dutton) is the title of Viola Paradise's novel of the lives and thoughts of a group of clever young people in a Maine summer colony. In this novel, the reader will find sufficient entertainment and several characters he is glad to meet.

Philip Douglas, who is summering in Maine to find the solitude necessary to the completion of his play, meets Maisie, the shrill young thing who is a fly in the ointment of his content, and Ellen, who is anything but that. Among other events, his play is lost (or stolen—), he rescues a young lady from drowning, and falls in love. Which makes a pretty full summer for any young playwright.

Miss Paradise is fond of letting the reader follow the rambling and sometimes incoherent thoughts of her characters—and she does it very well.

To Ashes. "Zelus" (Knopf) is the first of Stefan Zaruski's books to be translated from the Polish. It is a moving two-volume story of two young men, painted against the background of the Napoleonic wars. The author combines strict realism of detail with a poetic, at times dream-like structure.

The first volume is devoted to the early manhood of Raphael Ombroski, with his conflicting emotions, idealism and selfishness, a moody boy given to heights and depths of elation and disillusion. His youth is spent in Sandomierz on the estate of his father, and in the schools of Cracow. At school Raphael and his cousin, Christopher Cedro, are involved in an adventure which results in their expulsion. Raphael returns home in disgrace, to become further involved in difficulties. He then goes to Warsaw where he becomes a protégé of Prince Gintult and sees all phases of Polish life.

After adventures pleasant, and unpleasant, he and his cousin Christopher join a division of Polish troops with Napoleon's forces; they become separated and go different ways.

Christopher, with a surge of patriotic elation follows the route of Charlemagne through the historic Roncesvalles into Spain where he sees the most unpleasant phases of the war. Here Zaruski approaches the power of gruesome detail of Andrew in the "Red Laugh." Raphael stays in his native Poland where there is plenty of fighting.

The tale is a gripping one, the action moves rapidly in spite of wordiness in places, and the description catches with poignant beauty the spirit of both country and character.

 Little talks are much excited about the prospect, and will have a fine musical program.

MARtha DORCAS CLASS
 MAINTAINED BY
R. C. FERGUSON
 R. C. Ferguson entertained the Martha Dorcas Class most delightfully at her residence Friday afternoon, when the hospital was also by the cohostesses, Mrs. W. E. Coleman, C.
 and T. J. Haley.
 W. A. Martin, president, led the devotion from the church of St. John, with prayer by Mrs. W. H. Mullen.
 Interesting discussion was held during the business affairs, presentation of the treasurer's report for 1929, the year following the organization of the Martha Dorcas, and the contrast afforded by the membership and work at that time, and at the present.

Also, the beautiful painted tapestry of Jesus walking on the Water, purchased by the Martha Dorcas, years ago, for their expected new church, was mentioned during the succeeding years, as still waiting to be hung in the church of their dreams.
 This painting is now framed and adorns the auditorium of the new Methodist Church, following ten years of hopeful expectation.
 The literary period closed with prayer by Mrs. S. P. Rumph. A social contest featured a style show, and a Bible contest also a debate, "The Dish Rag, More efficient Than The Broom," with Mrs. J. M. Perkins, Mullings, Bean and Rumph on the affirmative side, and Mrs. J. Le Roy Arnold, Buhl, E. T. Murray, and W.
 A. Martin on the negative. The judges awarded a broom, and a dish rag to the opposing debaters.
 The house was prettily decorated with bowls of violets, and blooming narcissus.
 The refreshments carried out the St. Valentine motif in heart shaped salad, with toasted wafers, cakes, coffee, olives, and plate card
 favors.
 The next meeting will be held, on the third Friday in February, viz:

 deputy grand matron of District
 No. 2, made her first official visit, this week, in Breckenridge, when she was entertained by the Stephens chapter.

While there she was the house guest of the worthy matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, Mrs.
 Bertha Plator, who gave a beautiful dinner party in honor of Mrs.
 Outward.
 Many visitors from adjacent towns attended the chapter meeting and here she met Mrs. Harry De Lane, and Claire McCormick, former Eastland Eastern Star

SENIOUR DEPARTMENT
 METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL
 ANNUAL ELECTION
 The Senior Department of the Sunday school of the Methodist church held their annual election
 Friday night in their classroom, with session conducted by Lucile Brogdon, vice president, in the absence of Joe King, retiring president.
 The election resulted: Wilda
 Frost, president; Lucile Brogdon, re-elected vice-president; Petit Castleberry, secretary; Edwin Hearm, treasurer, and Virginia
 Norton, reporter.

A few business matters were discussed. It was decided to make the next party in February, a colonial one.
 Following the serious business,
 the evening was delightfully spent in group songs, and games, and compiling of a news sheet, "The Shining Light." Regular departments were made up for the paper including sports, society, markets, and clubs. Each set of workers vied in the peppy material turned out, including caricatures, free-hand drawing and very free at that.

Virginia Norton was chosen as editor in chief, and the slogan adopted by the editor was "Eat and Be Fat."
 The teachers of the department,
 Mrs. H. O. Tatum, arranged the games, and was very successful in the attractions provided. Mrs. B.
 McGlamey led the singing, and Dr. Ferguson supplied "cents" which came out of paper sacks, lots of red apples, plenty of pap-corn, delicious cookies and some gum.

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, superintendent of the department, assisted in arranging the details of the daily.
 There were forty-five young people in attendance, and the evening was voted the best they have had.

DAYS OF SORROW FOR THE NEIL FAMILY
 Mrs. J. F. Little, and Virginia
 Neil Little have been resting since their return from their sad journey to lay away the body of Mrs.

 Little's mother, the late Mrs. B. H.
 Neil.
 Mrs. Little is not well, and infact got up from a sick bed to be with her mother on the day Mrs.
 Neil met with her fatal accident.
 Her father B. H. Neil, is now with his son U. R. Neil in Dallas, with whom he will visit for two or three weeks, having gone
 there from Grand Saline.

Dr. L. A. Neil of El Paso, another son, who was ill at the time of his mother's funeral, and unable to attend, is dangerously ill with double pneumonia, so his sister, Mrs. Little, was advised Friday evening by wire.

SOMETHING ABOUT
 HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A.
 Much expensive and needed equipment could not be provided without the aid of the P. T. A.,
 such as Victrolas, grand pianos,
 libraries, football and baseball materials, and other expensive furniture and fixtures.
 The high school Parent Teachers Association is earnestly endeavoring to find some way in which to earn $300.00 to pay the balance of the indebtedness on the grand piano that furnishes the high school auditorium.

Without this piano the school entertainments and music would be nil, and yet the piano needs $300 to insure its ownership to the school.
 All kinds of clubs and organizations use the high school auditorium for their entertainments, and seldom pause to think of what it would mean were there no piano.
 The Parent Teacher Association of the Eastland high school will put on a benefit picture next Tuesday, matinee and night, that has filled the theatres to the doors wherever it has been shown.
 The Passion Play is a magnificent production, picturized from the Oberammergau in Bavaria, and carries all the splendor of the history of the rich, of those Roman days, the architecture of that lavish period, the palms, statues, and oriental background that bring out the contrast of the "Man of the Cross."

A spectacular photoplay, one that you should not miss. The P.
 T. A. board responsible for its being brought to Eastland, includes:
 Mrs. K. J. Raines, president; Mrs.
 B. E. McGlamey, first vice president, Mrs. Wilbert Irons, second vice president, Mrs. H. L. Bram-mer, third vice president, Mrs. W.
 C. Baker, secretary, Mrs. B. L.
 Mackall, treasurer, and the following representatives: Mrs. W. Z.
 Outward, mother of freshman section, sponsor; Mrs. W. D. R.
 Owen and Mr. Mason; Mrs. Judkins, mother of Sophomore section; Miss Simon, sponsor; Mrs.
 George Brogdon, mother of Junior section, Miss Gardner, sponsor; Mrs. R. S. Harris, mother of Senior section, Miss Livie Wilson, sponsor.

Why not buy blocks of tickets and get up little movie parties?
 The picture is magnificent and may not come this way again. The "Passion Play" showed in Dallas three weeks ago, and the criticism by Rosenfield proves its beauty in historic splendor and rich settings.

 by an informal luncheon Wednes-

 One of the prettiest was the luncheon of Thursday at one o'clock, when Mrs. Horace Butler was hostess to a small mother, and daughter gathering. Covers were laid for eight, and yellow roses centered the table. The informal another Mrs. Wann; Mrs. George L. Davenport and daughter Mrs.

 A. E. Lindquist; Mrs. W. H. Tay-

 Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs.

 for the immediate friends of the Guptons and Wanns, with an informal dinner at seven p. m., served about four small tables, seat-

A single button, conveniently located in the center of the steering wheel, controls all functions of starting the motor; operating the lights and sounding the horn.

This fundamental improvement does away with all troublesome foot fumbling for the starting button. You can keep your foot always on the brake when starting or re-starting on a hill—an obvious safety advantage of major importance.

“Finger-Tip Control” also avoids changing from the comfortable driving position to reach a light switch on the dash. You can at all times keep your eyes on the road, and the hand that operates the button flashes back to the rim of the wheel in any steering emergency.

W. M. S. HOLDS

Thursday and Friday last, the Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church engaged in two intensive study periods, held in the parsonage with the course of study "Missions in Nigeria" taught by Mrs. W. T. Turner and assistants.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

The body, like John Brown's, may go marching on, but the so long as there is print for paper, ink for manuscript and rust and moth do not corrupt.

Strangely, the first old story read was the history of Eastland, contributed by Mrs. W. A. Martin, and written by Mrs. W. K. Jackson, on the occasion of the entertaining of the Sixth District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, just ten years ago, when the Thursday Club was hostess, and the convention was held in the Baptist church.

The story occupied a full page in the Fort Worth Record, and was secured by Mrs. Charles G. Norton, at that time reporting for the paper and sent by them to cover the convention.

The club was presented the paper by Mrs. W. A. Martin, with request that it be engrossed in the records of the club.

Mrs. Earle Johnson read a letter dated 1865, from Galveston, written by her uncle Mr. Livingstone, who was describing the war.

Mrs. J. C. Patterson presented a quaint missive penned in 1805 by William E. Sims.

Mrs. J. A. Caton, displayed the signature of Mark Twain, attached to a program, one of many sold on shipboard, enroute to Europe, for the benefit of the Seaman Fund.

Mrs. J. M. Perkins, showed some articles that belonged to her ancestors in 1837.

Mrs. Carl Springer displayed a paper printed in 1800 in Ulster, N. Y., that contained an account of Washington's burial.

Mrs. E. R. Townsend showed a copy of the first paper published in Eastland in 1888.

A letter was read that was received by J. K. P. Maxson, from his first cousin, Stonewall Jackson.

Mrs. Fred L. Drago is the daughter of Mr. Maxson.

Mrs. Grady Pipkin contributed a business letter, received from Britain in 1840, and Mrs. James Horton, one written in French from Charleston in 1860.

Mrs. C. G. Norton showed a letter from Robert E. Lee written to her husband's mother when a young girl fourteen years old, January 1, 1861, thanking her for a birthday case, and voicing his foreboding of war.

The program was concluded by Mrs. J. A. Caton's dissertation on "Letters of the Bible," and included David's letter to Joab; several letters from the old testament, and from St. Paul, given in her thoughtful style and well chosen English.

Mrs. Curtis F. Corzelius, presented an elaborate analysis of the following authors' letters: Lamb, Dickens, Macaulay, Byron, Mary Montague and Mrs. Macaulay.

SUSAN STEELE BIBLE CLASS ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF MRS. STEELE

The Susan Steele Bible Class was beautifully entertained by Mrs. Mart Hill, and her mother Mrs. Susan Steele, at the residence of Mrs. Hill on Friday noon, when the Class commemorated the eighty-eighth birthday of their beloved founder Mrs. Steele who has traveled the rugged road of life with such christian grace, that her example is a lesson for all to emulate.

The big, hospitable Hill residence was filled with lovely pink and white blossoms which adorned the two long tables in the dining room.

One table was presided over by Rev. George W. Shearer, the pastor of the Methodist church, and here the place of honor was filled by Mrs. Steele.

The table was centered with a beautifully frosted birthday cake, a mass of little roses and vines, which was set on a round pink tray pierced for the rose tapers.

The lovely glow lighted the table and the happy faces.

Other places were laid for Mmes. Shearer, Cornelius, Mary Hughes, Pottit, T. M. Johnson, Jonathan Jones, Elliott, E. C. Satterwhite, and J. A. Caton.

The second table was centered with a large bowl of pink and white sweetpeas, and presided over by Mrs. W. A. Cathey, president of the Susan Steele Bible Class, whose vis-a-vis was Mrs. H. O. Satterwhite and others were Mmes. Wright, Dulin, O. O. Mickle, Mary Harrison and Mrs. Huddleston, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, a daughter of Mrs. Steele.

The Ladies of the family, Mmes. Mart Hill, R. P. Jones, M. Westbrook, Birmingham, Jones Steele, and Elma Hill, gracefully supplied the guests during the luncheon hour.

Rev. Shearer offered thanks for this beautiful occasion, for the sunshine of Mrs. Steele, and thanks for divine providence.

The luncheon was served on a table of silver. The turkey plate, had dressing, potatoes, sauce, peas, cranberries and pickles. The second course of salad, had last course of pound cake, coconut cake and fruit composite with whipped cream topping, coffee was served throughout the luncheon.

At close of dinner, Mrs. May Harrison congratulated Mother Steele in a graceful little toast written by Nora Hefley Mahon, and thanked her for the help and comfort she has been to all with whom she has associated.

The lovely gifts for Mrs. Steele were piled on the big table in the living room, and opened by the gentlewoman, whose eighty-eight years have not robbed her of her keen interest in surprises.

Mrs. Huddleston passed the gifts around for all to enjoy, among them being a very heavy hand-embroidered shawl with deep fringe, from a family friend in El Paso, and many kerchiefs, scarfs and several vases.

Mrs. Steele is one of the pioneers of Eastland, who has literally helped to make history here.

NEW CARD CLUB ORGANIZED

A little Bridge Club which at present will meet every other Thursday held its initial session with Mrs. W. C. Hayes, last Thursday.

The three tables were prettily decorated with red and white covers and score pads and tallies carried out the color motif. Clusters of red sweetpeas with ferns decorated the rooms.

High score favor, a crystal condiment set, was awarded Mrs. M. L. Kesler and consolation, a set bridge pencils with Dresden heads, went to Mrs. E. L. Robinson.

At the tea hour, a dainty salad plate was followed by individual caramel pies with whipped cream topping and coffee.

The club membership is not yet entirely made up. Members and guests at this meeting included Mrs. Harry T. Johnson of Olden, and Mmes. W. E. Brasier, Leroy Parks, G. W. Homer, M. L. Kesler, G. W. Billings, E. L. Robinson, W. J. Peters, Ralph Lindley, R. L. Perkins, and Miss Ruth Kirkland.

Bankhead Ass'n. Ships Many Eggs

A carload of eggs was shipped out last night by the Bankhead Poultry Producers association. It was the first carload of the season and it is expected that carload shipments will proceed regularly from now on. Between 400 and 500 cases were in the first carload.

Local demand for Bankhead eggs as well as the demand by the Texas & Pacific railroad dining service and by a group of grocery stores, has consumed all the production during the winter months.

County Attorney Disposes of Cases

W. B. Collic, the debonair former district clerk has developed into a veteran prosecutor.

As a friend jestingly remarked, the assistant county attorney hasn't lost a case yet. He has gained three convictions—all of them on pleas of guilty, with suspended sentence in each case, Grady Owens assistant prosecutor, conducted the prosecution in one case in which a suspended sentence was assessed.

No contested cases are to be tried this month, the reason being that, owing to the influenza outbreak, it was not deemed advisable to summon numerous jurors.

TIAL MEETING IS HELD

To Be Tested Free By Cultural Class; 14 Charter Members.

14 charter members, the Parcel Post Cow Testing station, the first of its kind in Texas, was organized at a series of dairy meetings at the Chamber of Commerce, under the direction of Whitehouse, vocational agriculturist.

Object of the organization is to increase the milk production of the county, by giving dairymen and farmers an opportunity to test the quality of their dairy cows.

Members will be mailed to receive two daily and his class high school will test the milk free for a period of six months.

In this way it is possible for a farmer to weed out his inferior stock and identify the producer, and his of the "boarder."

Whitehouse Lectures

Those who signed questions at the meeting last night, were Bob Hodges, S. O. Monte, Mr. and Mrs. McClarty, Hodges, J. L. Reed, C. W. Dan Dudley Jr., J. E. M. M. Duncan, Quincy A. of the Texas Farm Bureau, of the meeting and will re- Ranger Feb. 11.

Whitehouse's lecture dealt with major points. Texas as a dairy state, was the first, and must be done to make Texas a dairy state, was the second.

Germany, the land of his birth, a land which, as a "lifer," he never expected to see again.

Out of a welter of fierce emotions that caused this man to murder in 1890 out of the long dulling monotony of 38 years spent in prison, has come a calm, a quietude of the soul that is like a religion to this kindly, white-headed "lifer."

Prison life may harden some men, but 38 years of it did not seem to harden Fuchs. He emerged as kindly an old soul as one could find anywhere.

"I have learned my lesson," the old man sighed when he was brought before Governor Fred R. Zimmerman the day after Christmas to receive a "special" pardon certificate in addition to the regulation one he received on Christmas Eve.

"I'm an old man now," he said, "but I know that never again will there be trouble in my life. It was a long time, 38 years; but I am happy. This is my happiest Christmas."

"Love Thy Neighbor," was the philosophy which the man adopted during his long years of imprisonment, and he practiced his creed. He was a model prisoner and for this reason, he said, prison life was not extremely hard for him because he always was treated kindly.

"There was so much time to think," he said, "—so much time to think."

Not quite all of the story of Fuchs' life is known in this country, because he never would tell all. Even after he was released from prison, he continued to maintain silence concerning the crime for which he was convicted.

In Germany, Fuchs' wife, faithful to him through all these years, awaits his return. Mrs. Fuchs still lives at the old Fuchs' homestead in Train, Germany—the homestead which Fuchs left to come to America.

When Fuchs came from the prison at Maupus to the capitol here he rode in a motor bus, the first he ever had seen. Here he heard a radio for the first time and marveled at this "miracle," which had come to passing during the years he was "buried alive."

Truly, it was like a resurrection—the emerging of this softening old man from prison. Everything had changed and to him everything was marvelous. He was thrilled by the bustle and prosperity of Madison and remained here more than a week before continuing on his trip to see the greater wonders of Chicago and then New York.

METCALF GAP INTERSECTION TO BE MOVED

Breckenridge, Albany Plan To Change Route of Present Bankhead Highway.

BRECKENRIDGE, Jan. 17.—At a joint meeting here last night of the Albany and Breckenridge Chamber of Commerce highway committees it was decided to take action immediately on straightening out of the highway at Metcalf Gap, about 2 1/2 miles east of here where the Bankhead highway divides, the south loop going by the way of Ranger, and the north loop through Breckenridge and Albany.

The present status of the highway gives motorists a straight road by way of the south loop, while the north loop angles off along the north end at almost a ninety degree angle, making the turn extremely hazardous.

W. H. Cook, chairman of the Breckenridge highway committee, said today that it had been proposed at the meeting to have a road opened up through a corner of land owned by towns along the north loop, thereby straightening the road and cutting off approximately three-quarters of a mile of the present highway. This strip of land was bought some six months ago, $2400 being paid for it.

Mr. Cook said that a contract for grubbing the land, fencing the right-of-way, and staking off the proposed road would be let within the next few days. It is estimated that this much of the work would cost $500. After further investigation and discussion of the project with other towns deriving benefit by the work, a contract will be let for the grading and paving of the new stretch of road. The in-cost of opening up the road will be borne by Albany and Breckenridge, the Albany Commerce furnishing three-eighths of the money and Breckenridge five-eighths.

In due time it is thought every town effected by the north loop of the highway will be greatly interested in the new road.

F. W. Alexander, chairman of the Albany highway committee and the purchaser of the right-of-way at the Gap, and Murry Ross represented the Albany commerce body at the meet here last night.

Man Charged With Murder of Wife

FORT WORTH, Jan. 18.—Luther Redden was in the Tarrant county jail today charged with the murder of his wife on their farm near Handley Thursday.

Mrs. Redden was found by their 9-year-old daughter, Ava Lee, on the floor of their home with a pistol bullet through her head and the gun at her feet.

Redden was taken into custody a few minutes later, but denied any part in the killing. The couple had been separated since Nov. 16 last, and Redden had filed suit for divorce on Dec. 13. They were married Dec. 18, 1918.

$100,000,000 GROUP WILL INVEST IN OIL SECURITIES

Prairie Oil & Gas and Prairie Pipe Line Stock Are Expected to Comprise Initial Holdings of Big Investment Trust.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Formation of a gigantic investment trust with $100,000,000 capital to invest in oil securities is rapidly taking place, according to reports in Wall Street today.

Banking quarters believe that Blair & Co. Inc., will head the trust and a public offering of stock is expected within the next ten days. Initial capital of $100,000,000 is to be raised through the issuance of about 3,000,000 shares of stock at a price of around $35 a share. The capital lineup will consist of one class of stock, of which 10,000,000 shares will be authorized. The initial offering will represent one-third of the capital stock.

Initial holdings of the trust probably will consist of Prairie Oil and Gas Pipe Line stock. It will be recalled that early last December a group headed by Blair-Fisher-Cotton interests acquired from several Rockefeller philanthropies 14 per cent of stock of the Prairie Pipe Line company and 11 per cent neglected and dependent children and to have them admitted to the State orphan's home at Waco.

The petition, which was filed in 91st District court, alleges that the father of the children abandoned them more than a year ago, leaving them at the home of Forman, and that they are the subject of charity. Their mother, the petition recites, is an invalid and unable physically to care for them. The court had not set a date for a hearing on the petition at noon Saturday.

$2,500 An Acre Paid For Oil Property

SHERMAN, Tex., Jan. 19.—The Fleming, Hardesty & Elliott Oil company and Fleming & Kimball Company, of Sherman, have announced the sale of two tracts of oil land, of eighty acres each, to the California Company, for a consideration named unofficially as $2,500 per acre, or a total of $400,000. The tracts are in the Howard county oil field, sections 137 and 156.

This brings the total of sales made by this company during the week to $3,400,000. A half interest in 480 acres in the same survey was sold to the Moody corporation of Tulsa earlier in the week for $2,000,000.

Both parcels are on the Dora Roberts property. The discovery well of the two Sherman companies is located on section 137. There are three shallow wells on the two tracts with a combined daily production of 140 barrels. The California company is a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company of California.

Firemen Hunt A Fire, Detectives Hunt a Burglar

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 19.—Firemen, being told that a fire rages, do not let glass doors stop them. They smash them and enter.

Alarmed residents, hearing glass smash, do not investigate. They call police and say that burglars are breaking in.

That's why Detectives Wingo and Merchant hurried to a retail store early today and found firemen inside busily hunting a fire.

The firemen went to the place when someone turned in an alarm. Firemen found no fire, detectives found no burglars, store-owners found broken glass.

Mr. Quirl expects several men to go from this council. "The interest shown in the boys of the Southwest by these business men of the east," he says, "has so aroused our own men that they are going to show that their own interest is not lacking; and our own business men are laying aside their affairs for these two days and are going to Dallas to give of their time and thought to the formulation of plans whereby the boys of our own council and of the whole Southwest can be given the best there is to offer them."
