Key Point Of Vyazma May Be Held By Reds

Offensive Heads For Nazi Stronghold Of Smolensk MOSCOW, March 12 (AP)—Observers in Moscow had reason to believe today that the hard-hitting Red army of the central front had captured Vyazma, a railway hub 130 miles west of Moscow and one of the toughest German strongholds of the Smolensk salient, although there was no official confirmation of the report.

(A DNB broadcast from Berlin recorded by the Associated Press announced the German army had evacuated Vyazma after demolishing military installations.) Vyazma, last of the famous corners of the Vyazma-Velkie Luk-Rzhev triangle, was the strongest outpost for the great German base of Smolensk, 230 miles west of the capital, and its fall would mean that the fast-driving Soviet offensive was advancing upon Smolensk from the east as well as the northeast.

Smashing through Rzhev the Russians already were within about 80 miles of Smolensk to the northeast. To the south, however, the Russians were fighting a mighty defensive battle for Khar'kov, the key communications center of the eastern Ukraine.

(A German communique said there was fighting in the streets of Khar'kov. The war bulletin was broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press.) "Although dispatches from that front said the Russians were bleeding the enemy white as he plunged for the prize and had plugged some gaps in the Soviet lines, official communique admitted that the defending forces were outnumbered by German reserves thrown into the battle which now had veered to the west of the city.

The Soviet mid-day communique said "strong enemy tank and infantry forces stormed our positions west of Khar'kov. At the cost of heavy losses in material and manpower, the enemy succeeded in pressing back our units." To the south of the city, however, it was claimed that a German thrust had been thrown back with the loss of nine tanks.

Some Points Get Moisture

By The Associated Press Thirty crops today drank up rain which had measured a little better than an inch in the Dallas-Fort Worth area in a 24-hour period up to mid-morning. No heavy rains were reported by the weather bureau elsewhere, although light rain was reported over most of East Texas yesterday and last night. A rain of .70 inches was reported at Sulphur Springs. A light rain was reported at Abilene, 53 at Hamlin. At Wichita Falls, where rainfall in the first two and a half months of the year totaled only .18 inches, a drizzle fell today. The weather bureau forecast scattered showers in East Texas tonight except in the extreme west portion.

Nazis Keep Their Distance As Yanks Go On New Foray

AT A UNITED STATES BOMBER STATION SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, March 12 (AP)—United States heavy bombers with Allied Spitfire escort scored off German fighters for the second time in a week today and bombed railroad yards and oil stores at Rouen, 45 miles inland from the coast of France. Direct hits were seen by fortress fliers on a concentration of probably 1,000 freight cars, and fires burst up from a nearby group of big oil tanks.

Must Lead In Peace Plans, Says Bullitt

PHILADELPHIA, March 12 (AP) Russia will hold "the real club" in the post-war world unless the United States immediately takes the lead in planning the peace, William C. Bullitt, former ambassador to France and Russia, told the Philadelphia United Nations Forum last night. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who did not name Russia, said "the rest of the United Nations might go ahead with their peace plans without us" unless we begin "talking their language."

In the light of existing rationing programs, the new plan will bring restrictions to the largest part of the typical American diet. Price Administration, said the allotments will be proportionately more generous than the limits put earlier this month on canned, frozen and dry fruits and vegetables. Harold B. Rowe, in charge of food rationing at the Office of Price Administration, said the allotments will be proportionately more generous than the limits put earlier this month on canned, frozen and dry fruits and vegetables.

For the convenience of those who do not have the information at hand, The Herald prints today charts showing point values on various rationed foods. They appear on Pages 2 and 4. It is suggested that they be clipped and kept in the kitchen for regular use in budgeting purchase of foods.

Nazis Thrice Turned Back In The North

Von Arnim Thrusts Repulsed, Rommel Takes Pounding ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, March 12 (AP)—Allied bombers and fighters began softening Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's troop positions and supply lines in the Mareth area yesterday as British and American ground forces beat off three attacks by Col. Gen. von Arnim in north Tunisia, it was announced today.

Axis infantry and artillery struck once, then again and again at British defenses near Tamara, seven miles west of Sedjenane in the north, but each time the enemy was driven back with considerable losses, field accounts said. Military observers agreed that Von Arnim's only object in pressing the attacks was to keep the First army occupied. Western desert air forces started the pounding of the Mareth line with a raid by RAF Boston bombers while the series of axis attacks in both southern and northern Tunisia came to a halt without any significant gain. At the same time United States bombers and fighters struck again at Axis sea lanes and the Allies reported the destruction of 12 more axis planes. Seven Allied aircraft were listed as missing.

Skip-A-Year Tax Plan Opposed By Roosevelt

Blasted U-Boat Base—RAF blockbusters virtually leveled the main ammunition depot at Marienfelde, which adjoins Tirpitz Haven, at Wilhelmshaven, great Nazi naval port and U-boat base. This official British photo was made by a reconnaissance plane after the RAF's devastating raid Feb. 12. The depot contained naval ammunition, torpedoes, and mines.

Says It Would Mean Less To Government

Committee Meanwhile Proposes Discount For Early Payments WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—The house ways and means committee today approved a plan to reduce by as much as 4 per cent the tax obligations of persons paying income taxes before they come due, thus encouraging individuals to go on a pay-as-you-go basis. This action came shortly after President Roosevelt expressed opposition to the Ruml skip-a-year tax plan on the ground that the net return to the government under that plan would be less.

Eighth RAF Raid Of Month Turned On Stuttgart

LONDON, March 12 (AP)—The RAF paid its eighth night visit of March to Germany last night, pounding the important industrial city of Stuttgart. The raid was the first in a series of attacks from which 11 bombers did not return, it was announced officially today.

A strong formation of Allied planes was heard flying high across the English Channel toward Europe today and vapor trails looped about the city between Calais and Boulogne, as it dogfights were in progress. The air ministry, in a terse communique, described the Stuttgart raid as a heavy one, which usually means participation by several hundred bombers.

The loss of 11 bombers on the mission indicates that a sizeable force took part in the assault. A large part of Stuttgart's population of a half-million is employed in precision engineering which is vital to Germany's war effort in the air and on the ground, an official statement said.

Only a few hours after the British bombers streamed back across the English channel, German raiders in a sunrise attack scored over London's suburbs, dropping bombs in at least one area and machine-gunning trains and other targets. Five of the German planes were reported shot down. The German losses in a light foray thus were nearly half as large as the British loss of 11 planes in a full-scale attack on Stuttgart.

Liquor Store Holdup Nets Bandit $9,000

HOUSTON, March 12 (AP)—A slender bandit wearing a yellow jacket obtained $9,000 in a liquor store holdup here late last night. O. C. Campbell, manager of the store, reported to police. Campbell said the robber entered his establishment at 11:40 p. m. and at gun point forced him to hand over a paper sack containing the money. The manager said the money had been withdrawn from the bank in anticipation of cashing shipyard workers' checks today.

Tax Rush Is Definitely On

With March 15 the final day for income tax returns to be in federal collectors' offices, controversy in congress notwithstanding, income tax specialists are burning the midnight oil to serve their last minute customers.

Many apparently waited until this week to start to work on their tax returns, the accountants revealed, and just about the time things looked caught up, a new batch of customers arrived for assistance. Farmers, like their urban cousins, were drawing on the fast-labbing time to get assistance from Farm Bureau clerks who are assisting in filing of returns. It was estimated that well over 300 have asked for this aid this year, and clerks Wednesday and Thursday worked far into the evening to accommodate their constituents, many of whom are filing their first returns.

They were not getting all the farmers by any means, for many were either competing returns themselves or getting aid from those who offer such service in town. Some of the income tax men complained that they were "snowed under" with little likelihood of getting all their returns out on time and others were already beginning to turn down customers whose returns they just didn't have time to handle.

Also oil your cleaner as recommended by the manufacturer and pick up hair pins and other articles that might damage the fan or clog the brush. Avoid letting the cord become twisted or frayed.

Your vacuum cleaner is a valuable investment that may be difficult to replace. Timely repairs by an electric shop that specializes in such work will put your cleaner in first-class shape and keep it working for the duration.

Axis Past Peak In Africa, But Bitter Battle Ahead

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, March 12 (AP)—A battle rivaling the struggle at Stalingrad in bitterness and intensity—with Field Marshal Erwin Rommel and Col. Gen. Jürgen von Arnim threatened by the same fate as their Nazi counterparts in Russia—appeared in the offing today as the British Eighth army made exploratory stabs at Rommel's forces in the Mareth line.

This is the conclusion reached by some military observers in close touch with the African fighting. They agree that Rommel's failure to cripple the Eighth army in his weekend attacks was a serious blow and declare his heavy losses in men and material mean that the axis has reached the peak in Tunisia and is now on the down grade.

After four months of fighting these facts were becoming evident:

- 1.—With the Royal navy controlling the sea and Allied air forces holding the whip hand in the air no Dunkerque is possible for the axis and the only alternative is that Rommel and Von Arnim fight to the finish in the manner of the Nazi army trapped before Stalingrad.
- 2.—American bomber sweeps over the Mediterranean and surface and submarine warfare are cutting heavily into Rommel's strength while gigantic Allied convoys arrive safely, pouring in troops and munitions.
- 3.—Despite his violent struggles, Rommel is still in an exposed strategic position, facing the experienced Eighth army in one direction and with the newly battle-torn British American First army on his flank ever ready to

MADE IN JAPAN

Your Gas Ration Book is a Gift from Hirohito!

As clearly as if the words "MADE IN JAPAN" were printed on your Gasoline Ration Book, you know that the Japs are responsible for the rationing of your life mileage.

When the Tokyo toughs seized the Netherlands East Indies and Malaya, our chief sources of supply of raw rubber immediately disappeared.

That is why your driving had to be drastically cut down. Not to save gasoline, which is plentiful in this area; but to save rubber, which is short all over the country. And rubber must be saved . . . or we risk losing the war.

The plain, patriotic fact is that rationing gasoline is the simple, direct way to accomplish the sincerely avowed purpose of Rubber Administrator Jeters: "To keep automobiles on the road, not to take them off."

Gasoline rationing and the U. S. synthetic rubber program are both dedicated to supplying the rubber for the combat needs of our boys from Guadalcanal to Gafsa, as well as for essential transportation here at home.

Phillips is proud that its resources, experience, and long peacetime research have qualified it for an important role in the wartime synthetic rubber program. To this vital job, and to the needed production of 100 octane aviation motor fuel, we are wholeheartedly giving our best efforts twenty-four hours a day.

For you and for us, winning the war comes first. Patriotic drivers have as willingly accepted the restrictions on buying gasoline as we have on selling it. And we confidently promise you that when victory comes, today's concentration on petroleum research will bring you almost undreamed of improvement in the Phillips 66 gasoline which will power your car and the Phillips rubber on which it will roll.

"She'll believe it if The AP says so"

Like millions of other Americans, E. F. Cihak learned to rely on the dependability of The Associated Press.

Now a Lieutenant, a B-17 co-pilot, Cihak is down in New Guinea. Slightly wounded in a raid over Rabaul for which he was decorated, Cihak called his mother that he was all right. She would not believe him, thought he was covering up to ease her fears. Then Cihak went to Vern Haugland, AP war correspondent, and asked Haugland to let his mother know he was well.

"She will believe I am okay if The Associated Press says so", the husky University of Illinois graduate told Haugland.

Haugland sent the message with his own assurance that it was true, and in Berwyn, Ill., Mrs. Louis F. Cihak, who has been under a physician's care for some time, "is better now".

Mrs. Cihak was convinced—because "The AP says so".

Revised Rulings On Adjustments In Rentals

Charles Sullivan, attorney-at-law for the local Rent Control office has received announcement of a supplementary amendment to the Maximum Rent Regulation dealing with landlords making adjustments for rent.

The amendment states that where there has been a substantial increase in the number of tenants or other persons occupying the accommodations, landlords may apply for rent adjustments.

The amendment states in full that if there has been either a substantial increase in the number of tenants or other persons occupying the rental units or a part under rental agreement with the tenant, or a substantial increase in the number of tenants in excess of normal occupancy for that class of accommodations on March 1st, or an increase in the number of occupants over the number contemplated by the rental agreement on the date determining the maximum rent, where the landlord on that date had a regular and definite practice of fixing different rents for the accommodations for different numbers of occupants, adjustment may be made.

Sullivan said that this amendment will give the landlords an adjustment of rents in cases heretofore not permitted under the regulation.

Follows His Dad In The Merchant Marine

COLORADO CITY, March 12.—The 15-year-old son of a man who saw active service in World War I as a merchant marine left Colorado City this week for San Francisco to enter training in the Maritime War Shipping Administration. He is W. E. Crockett Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crockett, graduate of Colorado City high school and student of Schreiner Institute, Kerrville. Before he left young Crockett explained his choice of the Merchant Marine corps by saying simply, "I tried to talk myself into trying for the Air Corps and the Coast Guard. But all I ever really wanted was to be a merchant marine. That's what Dad was."

INSTRUCTIONS—To find the Point Value of an Item:
 1. Find out the net weight of the contents (from the label, if any).
 2. In the line across the top of the chart, showing the weight in ounces and pounds, find the column in which this weight belongs.
 3. Find the item in the listing of items in the column to the left.
 4. The POINT VALUE of the item appears on the same line as the item and in the column listing the correct weight.
 All Point Values must be determined by weights. If no weight is marked on the item, the item must be weighed.
 In finding the Point Value of a container where contents are given in fluid ounces, consider the fluid ounces to be the same as the corresponding weight ounces. One pint is one pound; one quart is two pounds.

The Point Value of any item weighing over four (4) pounds shall be arrived at by multiplying the number of pounds of that item by the Point Value per pound of that item as given in the "Per Pound" column. Fractions of a pound should be figured in quarter-pounds. Fractions of a quarter-pound should be figured to the next higher quarter-pound. Thus, an item weighing 4 pounds 9 ounces would be considered as weighing 4 pounds 12 ounces for the purpose of getting the Point Value of the item.

North Texas Teachers Go Into Semi-Finals Of K. C. Tourney

Aggies Count On Green For Swim Title

COLLEGE STATION, March 12 (AP)—They could slip up as they did last year, but the Texas Aggies believe they're going to finally overthrow the University of Texas in Southwest conference swimming.

Reason for all this optimism—that is, a major part of it—is a black-haired Irish lad who sets a record about every time he gets his feet wet.

Danny Green now is a sophomore at A. and M. and he's scoring for the Aggies just as he did for Dallas Athletic Club in chalking up Southwest AAU marks and battling the leaders in the national meets.

Danny is only 17 yet he's already Southwest AAU indoor and outdoor champion of the 220 and 440-yard free style events, Gulf Coast A.A.A. champion of the 440 and 100-yard, and on top of that he beat the Southwest conference champion, Bob Taylor of A. and M., in the 220 and 440-yard free styles.

He competed in national meets at New Haven, Conn., and New London, Conn., and each time placed third in the mile and half-mile.

Coach Arthur Adamson of the Aggies, himself a national record holder, considers Green the stand-out swimmer to attend A. and M.

Warmerdam Makes Final Try At A New High Mark

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12 (AP)—Cornelius Warmerdam tries again tonight for the last time as a civilian until war ends—to elevate the world pole vault record which is his personal property.

The Piedmont (Calif.) school-teacher and Sullivan trophy winner will compete in the Olympic club's annual indoor track and field championships at the civic auditorium. He is one of 24 club members.

Pitt, Notre Dame Will Clash Again

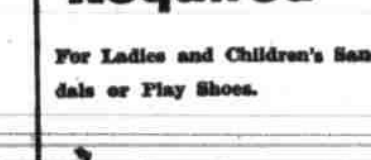

PITTSBURGH, March 12 (AP)—It took a world war to do it, but Pitt and Notre Dame are renewing one of the gridiron's most colorful series next fall after a lapse of six years.

Jimmy Hagan, athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh, announced the two teams will clash here on Sept. 25 in the first game of the year for each team.

Missourians Upset Team From West

KANSAS CITY, March 12 (AP)—Cape Girardeau, Mo., Teachers' college basketball team got a break.

Irwin Laffer, forward from Eastern Washington College of Education at Cheney, had only one sound foot last night. Consequently the Missourians are still in the National Intercollegiate basketball tournament.

They had to go into an overtime period to beat Eastern Washington 57-61 and overcome the 17 points personally tallied by the crippled Laffer.

The situation was this: The chunky cager injured his foot during the team's last game of the season. So before each tourney game a hypodermic of novocaine was injected into the ailing member.

The treatment was effective. Laffer poured in 25 points in the first two games and added 17 last night for an average of 14 per game.

Eastern Washington's loss was one of three upsets on the quarter final program.

Major calamity was the elimination of defending champion Hamilton University of St. Paul by North Texas State of Denton, 45-41. Never has a champion retained its crown in the tourney and North Texas obligingly protected that record.

Hamilton had no defense for the jump shots of the Lone Star conference champions and found it was behind 24-18 when the half arrived.

Schultz and John Norlander, Hamilton's all-American selections last year, were completely shocked by North Texas' defense. The former got only five points and his teammate four. Beggs and Bill Menefee paced the victors with 12 points apiece.

The other surprise was Maryville, Mo., Teachers, who staged a strong last half rally to nip Appalachian State of Boone, N. C., 45 to 43. Murray, Ky. State snatched a victory from Pepperdine College of Los Angeles 44-38 in the other quarterfinal.

In tonight's semi-final Maryville plays North Texas and Murray meets Cape Girardeau.

Mauriello Wants To Close Out In Blaze Of Glory

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—It's the kid's last fight, so young Tami Mauriello has several special reasons why he wants this ten rounder with Jimmy Bivins in Madison Square Garden tonight to become a super-duper production.

They collide in the fancier fireworks of a "double header" program, sharing the spotlight with the first New York boxing of Corporal Barney Ross since he got back from scrambling Japs on Guadalcanal.

There are going to be quite a number of Gus Fan's folks sitting in on the "double feature" and the Garden may break right out of its girle before all the customers can fit. The chances are some 18,000 to 20,000 of bash boulevard's upper crust will be on hand with a gate of about $70,000.

They're also going to see Barney receive from former Mayor James J. Walker the Edward J. Neill memorial trophy as boxing's "man of the year" for 1942. This is the trophy the New York boxing writers presented to the little corporal once before by proxy while he was still in the Pacific.

There is general agreement in Great Britain that local wartime economic controls must be retained for a considerable period after the war, says the department of commerce.

At 26th Birthday Great Man O'War Being Retired

MEDIA, Pa., March 12 (AP)—Grandpa Man O'War is living the life of Riley in greening pastures now—and Mr. Samuel D. Riddle concludes he's earned it.

The 83-year-old sportsman announced that his darling, often called the greatest thoroughbred of them all, has just been retired from stud—on the eve of his 26th birthday March 26—and that the records now show he's been every bit as great a daddy as he was a racer.

The big red outran all comers before he quit the turf in 1921, and now that his career as a sire has ended, Riddle sums up thus:

Since 1861, when the mighty Lexington began sending his progeny to the races, only one American horse has fathered more big-money winners than his favorite. That was Fair Play, and Man O'War had a hand in that performance, for he was one of the six sons of Fair Play who won purses totaling $100,000 or more.

Thus far five Man O'War children have earned 100 grand or better. War Admiral won $273,240; Crusader, $203,261; Marx, $128,786; Clyde Van Dusen (Kentucky Derby winner) $122,112, and aSteau, $120,792.

Two of his big red's grandsons also have hit six figures—Gusto, son of American Flag, collected $181,855, and a reformed no-good get of Hard Tack picked up $487,730. The latter, of course, was Sea Biscuit.

And no one now can say the book is closed on Man O'War as a progenitor—his blood undoubtedly will be carried on through the centuries.

Those Valiant Marines—Texans Off Sunken Ship, Make Up Minds To 'Swim To San Francisco'

You can't beat the intrepid Marines. Take the experience of Pvt. Wayne White, Abilene, who has just left following a visit with relatives near here, as a case in point. He and Cpl. Anderson of Fort Worth were swimming in the vast expanse of the Pacific rather than staying on the ship which had just been sunk beneath them.

"How far is it to Frisco?" yelled Anderson.

"About 7,000 miles," said White. "Well, we'd better get started if we're going to make it by Christmas," replied Anderson.

Six hours later—it seemed more like six years—the two and other marines and soldiers were picked up. Instead of continuing their homeward voyage, however, they were disembarked on Guadalcanal, where whence they went to New Caledonia in quest of a ship home—and finally they made it without having to swim.

White, who had been visiting with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McDaniel of Sand Springs, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Whetzel of Lee's and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Little of the Tidewater lease, was with the Devil Dogs who swarmed on Tulagi as the first American expeditionary force of World War II.

It was hardly a surprise attack, he indicated, for "they were expecting us." The navy had laid down a barrage and under its cover the Marines went ashore. But the wily Japs were well concealed and had to be routed out before "we could fight 'em." There was an abundance of hand-to-hand fighting, but Marines evened the Wake Island score to an extent.

"Sure, they're tough," he admitted, "but there's nobody a Marine can't whip."

And with that, he also admitted that although he jokes about it inside every Marine there is an intense determination to uphold Marine traditions.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLENTON, JR.
NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—The secret finally comes out: When the National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress conducted its nationwide registration of players last spring, the oldest registrant was none other than Connie Mack.

Wonder if the whole Athletic club will drop around at the nearest sporting goods store March 27 to sign up for this year? . . . Pro football coaches are breathing easier since they've learned that the newcomer at the Don Hutson residence is another str. . . not a junior pass-catcher. . . The Boston Olympics hockey team has a rule that players must give up their seats to service men in trains, which accounts for their making several Boston-New York trips standing up.

OBSERVATION POST
The news that Eleanor Bingham, serving her first season as basketball coach at Lykens, Pa., high school, turned out two championship teams, makes us wonder if the feminine invasion of the coaching profession will mean the end of one of the coaches' oldest prerogatives. . . Just think of what those pre-game tears would do to the gal's makeup.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Harry Hillman, Dartmouth track coach, claims there's no use grunting about the four-minute mile any more. He says Gunder Hagg couldn't do it on that fast Dartmouth track. . . The boom for the Browns as American league pennant contenders is collapsing, what with Walt Judnich gone to the army, Glenn McQuillen ready to go by April and Vern Stephens on the likely list. . . Trainer Dutch Wilhelm, who is conditioning W. E. Bosing's derby candidates, Devil's Thumb and Slide Rule, at Columbia, S. C., says he wouldn't swap Caroline's training soil and climate for any in the country. . . After Bo McMullin's son, Mike, had been baptized, the Rev. Thomas Kilfoil told the Indiana coach: "He couldn't be yours. I didn't get a whimper out of him."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Bill Montgomery, Jefferson City (Mo.) Capitol News: "The big league baseball scout with a pair of binoculars and a crystal ball, may be seen any time between now and the draft, removing its trusty brogans and pouring out the results of a day's prowling around the sand lots."

SERVICE DEPT.
Chief Specialist George McAfee, who hadn't played basketball since leaving Duke U. a few years ago, turned out for the Jacksonville, Fla., naval air station team the other night and rang up ten points against Pensacola. . . Sgt. Hugh Mulcahy and Lt. Hark Greenberg bumped into each other in a Columbia, S. C., hotel coffee shop the other night and did a bit of bartering about baseball. . . Mulcahy, in charge of the 26th division recreation program at Fort Jackson, is organizing an all-service league which will move into the Columbia Sully league parks.

38 Teams Listed In AAU Tourney
DENVER, March 12 (AP)—Thirty-eight teams from 21 states were entered as officials of the A.A.U. basketball tournament, opening Sunday, began to draw brackets today.

Six teams likely to receive seeded positions are Denver's American Legion, defending champion; Hollywood's 20th Century-Fox, 1942 champion; Phillips 66 Oilers, 1940 titlist; University of Wyoming; Coast Guard of Alameda, Calif., and Cesma Aircraft of Wichita, Kas.

Barney Ross Gets Riotous Reception

CHICAGO, March 12 (AP)—This voodoo walking stick of Marine Corp. Barney Ross—the hero boy of Guadalcanal, no less—may become as famous as Al Smith's derby or Hollywood's lion. It's making the rounds like the water dipper at a country picnic.

It was gripped by more hands last night than was the fighting fist of Barney, who was once lightweight and welterweight boxing champion. And there were hands aplenty reaching to shake the hand that held the gun and grenades that killed 23 Japs that night Barney stood guard over wounded companions in the Solomon Island jungle.

While Barney got a shave and made up the trophies Ross brought home to a photographer wanted it as a "prop" for a picture of Barney. A house detective intercepted and interlarded to a hotel official who passed neatly to one of Barney's brothers who yielded it to a news reel man who got no farther than the door before the law grabbed hold again.

That stick, plus the new gray in Barney's dark hair and the limp and the heavy tan on his face—and the memories of that terrible night at Guadalcanal—made up the trophies Ross brought home to an adoring mob that greeted him at the airport.

Through all of them Barney saw his mother first and he held her tightly while she whispered: "Oh Barney, my little boy Barney."

Editorial - - Here's A Surplus Of Manpower

Speaking in favor of an amendment to a deficiency bill which the senate was debating, which proposed to reduce an item for Treasury employees by a million dollars to 750 thousand dollars. Senator Holman of Oregon said: "My reason for offering the amendment was that no demonstration had been made of the efficiency of the force of the Department. I question the efficiency and industry of many persons among the horde of payrollites in the bureau and departments of the executive branch of our government. In discussions in Appropriations Committee, when considering needs of departments, we are confronted constantly with overstaffed and overmanned executive departments. There are so many employees in that office now that they are falling all over themselves. Moreover, the farming industry and commercial enterprises are being deprived of needed workers. Why cannot the executive departments get along with fewer employees (the appropriation was to pay additional employees) why cannot they tighten up their belts and get to work as the taxpayers and the producers of the country are doing and must continue to do, to even greater extent than they have yet done, if we are to win this war. Fewer and fewer people must do more and more work in government as well as in private life."

Hollywood Sights and Sounds—

Laurel And Hardy Back In Their Old-Time Groove

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD—It was like old times—a Laurel and Hardy set where people periodically gave in to spontaneous convulsions. The boys—slim Stan and big Babe—sat in an ancient car, Babe at the wheel, and rattled along a country road with a trailer behind them. They were just talking, passing the time of day, and arguing, when suddenly something appeared in the road directly ahead—a truck. You probably know the rest: the frenzy, the pantomimed fight and exasperation, the typical Laurel and Hardy reaction. That's why it was like old times. The boys were doing their own stuff again. The director, Mal St. Clair, was in stitches like everybody else. Their last picture, "A-Haunting We Will Go," didn't quite come off. Since then, the boys have convinced the powers over them that they'd better be allowed to stick to the line of attack that has made them favorites these many years. "They tied strings on us," said Stan later. "They put lines in our mouths that we wouldn't say, dialogue that just didn't belong to our characters. We have to write our stuff as we go along. Why, they'd have Babe reciting Shakespeare, when that guy—the character, I mean—would never have heard of Shakespeare. And me, talking like an English butler. It just doesn't fit." In the new picture, "Fittin' In," they constitute a two-man "Zoot Suit Band"—with instruments strung together like a Rube Goldberg invention. The zoot suits

Isolation Island

By JOHN C. FLEMING and LOIS EBY Chapter 6 Jim Blair pulled on Don's something too tight riding habit in a happy mood. It was Sunday, so he felt no twinges of conscience about leaving his wife.

But when he descended to the dining room for breakfast he found to his surprise that the door to O'Shanessy's general heartiness a shade on the forced side. It was evident from Don's strained face that an argument had been abruptly broken off. O'Shanessy heaped Jim's plate with scrambled eggs and kidneys from the sideboard with his usual flourishing gestures and talked of the preparations for the race while he, controlled with difficulty a sharp impatience that loomed just back of his enthusiasm.

At the stables, Jim had first pick of the horses. He chose an Arabian, a beautiful sorrel mare with a powerful, slender body breathing speed and spirit. O'Shanessy's great laugh roared out. "You know horses, lad! You've never ridden a better, I can tell you that. If you can handle her, you'll give me a run for it!" He climbed upon his own black, Shamrock and they cantered across the stableyard and down a narrow path hewn through the lushness of the heavy tropical vegetation, where nodding heads of giant hibiscus and the clusters of yellow papaya blooms flared through the blending greens.

They came out of the dense jungle growth onto a white crescent of beach. It was the racing track. The spectators were there—every native on the island. It had been a great race. But as he rode back towards the finish line, his laughter died in bewilderment. There was a strange, dead calm over the once shouting line of spectators. Even Linda and Don were gazing at him with glances of stunned disbelief. He looked at O'Shanessy.

Washington—Missimo Rates At The Top As Public Speaker

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON—As Madame Chiang Kai-shek makes her other appearances before she returns home, other sections of the country will have an opportunity to agree that China's first lady is the first speaker in the English language today. Those case-hardened politicians and Capitol observers, most of whom have heard Churchill and President Roosevelt, and many of whom have heard the silver-tongued congress all the way back to the late great Sen. Joe Bailey of Texas, are almost unanimous in awarding the palm for public speaking to the wife of China's Generalissimo. It isn't all the spell of personal charm and exotic beauty, either. Those who have since heard rebroadcasts of the speech she made before the house of representatives are no less positive that given the opportunity, she could be radio's No. 1 personality.

Bridge

"I'd better take your horse back," he offered. Bewildered, Jim got off and Don leaped into the saddle to disappear after his father through the jungle path. Jim was left in the midst of awed, apprehensively staring natives who whispered among themselves as they drifted away. A hand on his arm finally roused him from his puzzled state. It was Linda. She gave a soft, sympathetic laugh. "A queer ending, wasn't it?" she murmured. "Say, what is the devil did I do wrong?" Jim burst out. "You beat him," the girl said simply. "That's never happened as long as I can remember. Father wasn't enough of a horseman, and Uncle Mike doesn't know how to accept defeat."

Jim gave a long, amazed whistle, then laughed. "So that's it! A loyal subject forgetting his place and worshipping the king! That O'Shanessy guy is wonderful. He's—prehistoric!" Linda threw back her head in a sudden rush of laughter that Jim thought held a note of hysteria. Then they walked on in silence. Around the curve of the bay, she pointed out in sudden excitement an anchored ship. A small boat was halfway to the shore. They went forward to watch it beach. Two men, one tall, angular, the other shorter, came across the sand, red-faced and open-necked shirts. Linda's puzzled recognition. "It's the papaya buyers!" The angular man stopped before them, wiping his face. "That's (Continued On Classified Page)

Madame Chiang's house speech was one to be remembered but I liked best the more intimate ones, unprepared and unhearsed, which she made to the senate. She started by saying, "I am not a very good extemporaneous speaker. In fact I am no speaker at all." That is the epitome of the Oriental courtesy of self-abasement. When she told that story of the pilot from Doolittle's Tokyo raid who parachuted down in China and was so heartily welcomed by the joyous natives when he reported the only Chinese word he knew, Mei-Kua (American), that he felt "just as if I were coming home," it was evident that Madame Chiang is a consummate story-teller. She made the senate and packed galleries see and feel. But when she turned that little story so artfully to the simple, sincere statement, "I feel that I am also coming home," the prolonged burst of applause proved beyond doubt that she had won the hearts of her listeners as well as their heads. When she went on to talk of what Japan had done to her people, there was razor sharp steel in her voice that was far more slashing than the rantings and gestures most speakers employ. Missimo speaks the perfect English of Americanized dictionaries. Occasionally she uses unfamiliar words, but you will find by a little reference that she has been very precise. I wouldn't be surprised if someday American school textbooks included among their "best examples" some public speeches of the First Lady of China.

Grade Mishaps On Increase

CHICAGO, March 12. (AP)—A mounting toll of accidents at many of the nation's 230,000 railroad crossings is accompanying the heavy increase in wartime rail traffic, the national safety council said today.

The council reported the accidents daily delay an average of 38 trains a total of 22 hours and are seriously retarding transportation of vital war materials. In the past year, 2,000 persons were killed and 4,700 were injured in grade crossing accidents.

Such accidents were reported by Col. John Stilwell, council president, as increasing at "an alarming rate, and the resulting waste of vital material and the delays in transporting troops and supplies are hindering the war effort."

He said the council's campaign to reduce the grade crossing accidents was a major part of its program to "have manpower for war power" now being conducted at the request of President Roosevelt.

Soybeans Sent To Texas Areas

COLLEGE STATION, March 12. (AP)—A routing by the Commodity Credit corporation of 1,800 tons of additional soybeans to Texas mills for crushing will, the Texas USDA war board hopes, break the protein feed shortage in some Texas areas.

The mills sell outright to livestock producers. Until last week only 24 Texas mills were operating under CCC crushing contracts, but 25 additional mills signed contracts this week and the latest shipment brings soybeans contracted for by Texas mills within the next two months to 119,000 tons. B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA war board, disclosed.

The 119,000 tons are expected to yield 66,000 tons of protein meal for livestock feeding purposes.

Operating under contract with the Commodity Credit corporation, Texas mills which crush northern soybeans are permitted to sell one-half of the meal to livestock producers, while the remaining one-half is retained by the CCC for shipment into critical areas through the state USDA war board.

The average investments of the approximately 2,000 American corporations that had direct investments in foreign countries at the end of 1940 was $3,500,000, according to the department of commerce.

County To Get More Soybean Meal For Feed

Arrival of a second car of soybean meal and news that a third had been allocated to this county came almost simultaneously Friday.

Thus, a high protein feed shortage, which has been growing progressively worse for weeks, was mitigated as it had been during two successive weeks.

Bill of lading on the second car of meal allocated to Howard county by the state USDA War Board was received Friday and probably distribution of the contents of the car will be started Saturday or Monday.

Meantime, the Big Spring Cotton Oil Co., which is distributing the soybean meal, continued to manage to release some cottonseed meal in the face of operating dangerously close to contract point on the seed stock left for crush. The two sources together were staying off the high protein feed crisis in the immediate area, and particularly among dairy cattle.

The county war board which has been working with the chamber of commerce toward securing relief, was advised Friday by the state board that a third car of meal had been released for Howard county. There were hopes that there might be some more available later on.

Way Sought To Keep Open The Local Nursery School

Members of the advisory board of the Nursery school met at the Settles hotel Thursday night to discuss ways and means of keeping the former WPA project from closing its doors on April 1.

Discussed were three plans including the Lanham Act under which federal funds would be available to run the nursery school provided the public schools would sponsor the project and make a survey showing its need.

Also talked were methods of persuading the city and county officials to spend approximately $150 a month each to provide sufficient funds to keep the nursery going. The last resort, the board decided, would be to ask for private donations.

The Rev. R. J. Snell was appointed to speak to the Rotary, Kiwanis, American Business club, and Lions club to seek their assistance in making one of the plans work. Unless some plan is adopted, board members were advised, the school will close April 1, since WPA funds have been cut off.

The board authorized Mrs. Charles Koberg to pay all current bills and in case the school is closed that all furnishings be turned over to the United Council of Church Women, who have provided them in the seven years of operation of the school here.

Attending were Mrs. W. J. McAdams, Mrs. Koberg, the Rev. R. J. Snell, Arch D. Carson, area supervisor for Public Welfare, Mrs. Cleo Fuller, nursery school manager, and Mrs. G. S. Sawtelle.

The Rev. R. E. Bowden, former Main Street Church of God pastor, and now serving the church in Sweetwater, was here Thursday and Friday on a brief business trip before returning to Sweetwater.

Gets Wings

News of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Womack and a Big Spring high school graduate, was one of the bombardiers receiving commissions and silver wings at graduating exercises held Thursday in the "West Texas Bombardier Triangle" of Midland, Big Spring and San Angelo. News completed his training at the San Angelo school.

Girl Scouts Plan Special Event Tonight

Thirty-first anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scouts of the United States will be observed at 8 p. m. today with a Court of Award program to be staged in the high school gymnasium.

Scores of girls will participate in the event which will include pledges, songs, a pageant, inspirational talk and other features as well as the presentation of awards won by Girl Scouts.

Members of the several troops here have been active in inviting the public to attend the event, perhaps the biggest single affair ever put on by the Girl Scouts in Big Spring.

A. V. Karcher will be master of ceremonies for the affair and will introduce Jim Harvey, Church of Christ minister, who will pronounce the invocation and give the welcome address.

Mrs. Emmon Lovelady and Mrs. Florence McNew will lead in the pledge of allegiance to the flag while perhaps 150 or more girls form a back-drap for the ceremony. In turn, one girl will lead the intermediate girls in their promise and two others will lead the Brownies.

Narrator for the pageant, which will require about half an hour to present, will be Frances Bigony.

Lieut. Margaret Eager, who is an army nurse at the Big Spring Bombardier School, is to make the inspirational address for the occasion. Following her talk Mrs. Boyd McDaniel, Girl Scout commissioner, will present awards to girls as announced by troop leaders. During the program there will be breaks for singing. Mrs. Vernon Whittington, who is directing the program, said it would last about an hour and a half.

Rationing

will be poultry, game, horsemeat, fresh or other fish not contained in sealed cans or bottles, and inedible fats, such as soap.

Cheese rationing will cover most types except cottage, pot and similar "soft or perishable cheeses." If divided evenly, the cheese supply under rationing would provide each person with about one-tenth of a pound a week. The butter supply will average about 4 1/2 ounces a person per week. Margarine, shortening, salad oils and canned salmon or tuna fish are other items in this group.

Officials said the new program will appear much simpler than was the canned goods program earlier this month. There will be no registration, no count of food already on hand, and—under present plans—no suspension of sales before rationing begins, especially on meat. Brown put the public on his honor not to hoard any of the new rationed items.

In a couple of weeks the Office of Price Administration will make public a chart showing the point values of the newly rationed items. Because meat cutting cannot be exact, coupon costs will be figured to the nearest full point value. A piece of meat that figured to 9 1/4 coupon points, for instance, would cost 9 points. If it figures to 3 3/4 points it would be counted as 10 points.

The point values of prunes and raisins were cut from 20 to 12 points a pound to stimulate sales of existing stocks before warm weather causes spoilage. Point cost of dried beans, peas and lentils was lowered from 8 to 4 points a pound because of improved supplies, especially due to imports from Mexico.

Jack Tallant, who has been stationed until recently in Alaska, had two surprises here this week. Home on furlough, he felt the sting of a West Texas northern winter when he had much of the Alaskan cold. Too, his brother, Sgt. Virgil Tallant, who has been in the Hawaiian Islands, but in his appearance on a furlough and Jack got a few days' extension to his time on the strength of it.

Two new officers, assigned to administrative posts, have arrived at the Bombardier school, public relations announced Friday. They are 2nd Lt. Earl E. Baker of Springfield, Ill., and 2nd Lt. Charles E. Sparks of Gainesville, Fla. Both have just graduated from OCS at Miami Beach, Fla.

Blood runs thicker than water for old time druggists. L. E. Eberhart, St. Louis, Mo., a druggist back in the "good old days," had read Shins Phillips book "Big Spring, the Casual Biography of a Prairie Town." So when he came to Abilene to visit his son, Capt. H. L. Eberhart, who is in the dental corps at Camp Berkeley, he made it a point to come on over to Big Spring and look up this Phillips fellow. Friday he was chuckling over his visit with Shine and packing home the Phillips autograph.

Word has been received from Cpl. Joe C. Dittz that he is at officers candidate school at Camp Wheeler in Macon, Ga. He received his promotion and was sent to school Feb. 22, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Mary Dittz.

Car Registration Is Due For A Boom

A terrific rush for the tax collector's office is gradually in the making, clerks said Friday.

Only 555 passenger cars have been registered for 1943 as yet—approximately 11 per cent of the total registered for 1942. Deadline for securing new plates (which are tiny tags which will be attached to 1942 licenses) is April 1.

Much trouble is arising out of failure of operators to bring their certificate of title and their present license numbers with them. Under the law, the collector cannot register the automobile unless title can be shown—and much time is lost unless the owner has his number or current license receipt in hand.

County Schools Get Payment Of $2

Howard county rural schools were in receipt of another $2 scholastic apportionment payment, Mrs. Helen Acuff, assistant county superintendent, reported Friday.

The payment totaled $1,962 and brought to $17 the amount paid thus far on the current $22.50 apportionment.

Prisoner—Troy Wadde

Forch, reported missing in action last May, is a prisoner of war in the Philippines, the navy department has informed his parents, Mrs. and Mrs. H. W. Forch, Fredricksburg. They had not heard from him since November 1941. Troy, who was reared in Howard county, has two uncles, E. O. and Alva Forch, and two aunts, Mrs. L. G. Malone and Mrs. T. E. Stringfellow, who reside in Big Spring.

New Class Of Bombardiers Arrives Here

The "production line" at the Big Spring Bombardier school never stops.

Class 43-4 was graduated Thursday, and on the same day there arrived another contingent of bombardier cadets, the young men who make up class 43-8. Their number is not permissible of publication, but they're a large group. They were getting established Friday, to begin the 12-week training grind.

The post public relations office announced that a number of officers have been transferred from here to the Childress school as staff bombardiers. All of them second lieutenants, they are: Chambers D. Adams, New York City; Donald L. Bartleman, St. James, Minn.; Wayne Evans, Jr., Duncan, Okla.; Frank Whittington, Niles, Ill.; Omar P. Gabelman, Houston; John L. Yarbrow, Dyersburg, Tenn.; Roger D. Flynn, Decatur, Ga.; Norbert Scheidter, Marysville, Okla.; Paul R. Schmitz, Decatur, Ind.; Leslie Malone, Detroit, Mich.; Edward Alsworth, Georgetown, Tex.; Hollis R. Cox, Lamar, Okla.; Wilbur Pearson, Austin, Tex.; Keith Wilcox, Thornton, Idaho; Ralph Werner, Pittsburgh, Penn.; Alex Vestal, Cyril, Okla.

Must Explain His Dual Registration

Harold Lane, who may have indulged in too much of a good thing, was being held by the sheriff's department Friday for F.B.I. agents.

Federal authorities wanted him on a charge of violating the selective service act in failing to keep the Cheyenne, Wyo. board properly notified of his whereabouts and status.

Lane told officers here he had registered originally with the Cheyenne board. That seemed to work out so well Lane said he registered with the Heward county board when he came to Big Spring. He was in good standing with the board here.

More Handicapped People At Work

The 10th region includes Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico.

Land Appraisals For Housing Unit Being Made Here

Another step toward starting of work on a Federal Project Housing Authority program to relieve housing difficulties for bombardier school personnel and families was being taken this weekend.

Local appraisers were checking proposed plots with view of making their recommendations.

According to the initial draft, 17.37 acres will be required for the project which includes 39 dormitory units, 67 for couples, and 86 for families. Location would be off US 80 and near the bombardier school.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Just one more question before you go, Judge. What is this thing called propaganda you hear so much talk about these days?"

"I'll give you an example, Hank. Last night I was reading an interesting little book called 'Hitler is in Favor'. It told how Hitler would very much like to see Americans fighting among themselves over prohibition because that would create disunity, waste the time of Congress and legislatures in wet-dry arguments and cripple our war effort. It also mentioned a booklet written about Hitler's government telling how Hitler's gang wants to maintain contact with foreign temperance organizations and how it contributes annually to an international temperance union.

"You can bet Hitler isn't interested in seeing prohibition advanced in our country for any reason except that he knows it's a good way to stir up trouble. That's what they mean by propaganda, Hank."
