Farm Safety Week Proclaimed in County

PROCLAMATION BY THE County Judge of Eastland County TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, Scott Bailey, County Judge of Eastland County, do hereby declare the week of July 25-31, 1973 as FARM AND RANCH SAFETY WEEK in Eastland County, for the following reasons:

WHEREAS, the blessing of technological progress in agriculture have given the farmers and rancher of our county the ability to produce and abundance of food and fiber, adding to their economic well-being and comforts of life; and

WHEREAS, the implements of modern agricultural technology have also added the risk of accidents or mishaps on the farm or ranch, on public roads, in the home, or in recreational activities; and

WHEREAS, farm and ranch accidents continue to account for approximately 200 deaths and thousands of painful disabling injuries each year in Texas, in addition to the money cost; and

WHEREAS, during this week, a statewide farm accident prevention education program will be undertaken by the Texas Farm Bureau, the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, the Texas Safety Association, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas 4-H Clubs, Texas Future Farmer and Future Homemakers of America, Young Farmers and Young Homemakers of Texas and the Eastland County Farm Bureau with the theme, "Falls Hurt... Be Alert... at work, at home, and at play. The educational campaign also includes "HAND SIGNALS FOR AGRICULTURE; and

WHEREAS, experience has shown that legislation does not solve all of our problems, especially in the field of safety so we must continue to rely on caution, common sense, skill, protective equipment and the knowledge that we receive from our educational programs to counter the many hazards and keep accidents and injuries to a minimum;

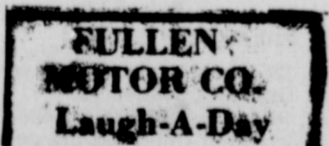

THEREFORE, I urge all citizens to recognize this special period, and especially urge farm families of Eastland County to become more safety conscious, not only during Farm Safety Week, but to utilize the monthly emphasis topics and program guides to help make farm safety a round-the-calendar activity.

(Signed) Scott Bailey
County Judge

"FALLS HURT -- BE ALERT" is the theme for National Farm Safety Week being observed July 25-31. Your Farmers Home Administration county supervisor reminds you that a survey on homestead falls indicated that 76 per cent of them resulted in serious injuries. So watch your step - avoid that fall - it can hurt.

LOOK WHAT'S NEW

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Bingham announce the birth of a son, Price David, weighed 8 pounds 13 ounces and was 23 inches long. He was born at 3:50 Saturday morning at Eastland Hospital.

Elderly Texan, dictating his will, "To my no-good son I leave $5 million - and he's might lucky I didn't cut him off entirely."

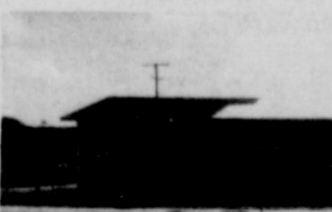

The weather for Sunday will be fair with a hot afternoon, with the high in the upper 90's.

The week of July 25-31, 1973 has been proclaimed as Farm and Ranch Safety Week in Eastland County by County Judge Scott Bailey, at the request of Jack Cozart, Eastland County Farm Bureau President. The local farm organization is joining efforts with other farm and ranch agencies to coordinate the special farm safety, campaign within the county.

In this proclamation, Judge Bailey said: "I urge all citizens to recognize this special period, and especially urge farm families of the Eastland County to become more safety conscious, not only during FARM SAFETY WEEK, but to utilize the monthly emphasis topics and program guides to help make farm safety a round-the-calendar activity."

Reviewing the National Safety Council's materials, which include hand signals for agriculture, Farm Bureau Bureau President Jack Cozart said "hand signals can save time and prevent accidents - even fatal accidents. They are especially useful when noise or distance makes voice communication difficult or impossible. It is important for these signals to be widely publicized and learned so both sender and receiver will understand."

The Texas Farm Bureau Safety Department has tabulated the 1972 Farm Fatalities, which total 183 deaths occurring in 105 Texas counties. The breakdown is as follows: firemen & drownings 321 each; fires & burns - 30; tractors - 25; falls - 18; machinery - 12; electric current - 9; suffocation - 8; struck by object - 6; run over by auto - 3; animals - 3; poisoning & tetanus - 2; snakebite - 2; unknown - 2; and lightning - 1.

2 Musicians From Eastland Attends Camp

AMARILLO - Two young musicians from Eastland are currently attending the 21st West Texas Instrumental Music camp being held on the EWEST Texas State University campus July 15-27.

Randy Frost (1111 West Commerce) and Steve Johnson (Box 586) of Eastland are among 1,100 students attending the music camp.

"Interest and enthusiasm are really high this year since the ceiling for camp enrollment was reached May 1," said Dr. George Umberson, camp director. "This is the earliest date we have ever closed the camp."

Regarded as one of the largest camps of its kind in the nation, the camp features band, orchestra and baton instruction along with private lessons.

"Seventy string instrument students, which is the largest number ever enrolled at the camp, will be attending, which should make this year's string and symphony orchestra the best ever," Umberson said.

Dr. Gary Garner, professor of music and director of bands at West Texas State, will conduct the honors band composed of the most advanced instrumental players.

Michael Matesky, assistant professor of music and orchestra director at WTSU will direct the string and symphony orchestras.

"Goals we have for the camp are, first of all, to make the students better players," Umberson said. "But we also want them to leave better leaders,

Audie Moore Bible Lessons July 23-29 At Church Of Christ

Evangelist Audie Moore of Cross Plains will be leading a series of Bible Lessons July 23-29 at 8 p.m., at the Plummer and Daugherty St. Church of Christ in Eastland. Evangelist Moore said that he has chosen the theme: "What Does the Bible Say?" because of the increased interest in Bible reading during 1973. The local church is impressed with his approach and has invited him to share his emphasis on the Bible with them in a nightly series.

Well known in this area, Mr. Moore is presently serving as minister of the Church of Christ in Cross Plains, but in September he will return to Gorman where he and Mrs. Moore will operate a local business. Some years ago he served a very effective ministry with the church in Gorman.

The emphasis on the Bible in the lesson series encourages all to bring a Bible each night and follow the subject closely. The Plummer and Daugherty Church invites the community to share Evangelist Moore's lessons each night during the week.

FARM SAFETY WEEK

CARELESSNESS

Why risk the future of your farm? Check it out for safety now. Machinery in good repair? Electric equipment up-to-date and wiring adequate? Tools stored where they belong? Lofts, ladders and silos secure? Fire hazards corrected and extinguishers working? Keep on the lookout constantly, and teach precautions to family and hands. See that safety rules are observed. When you make safety a habit, there's less room for error. Remember, safety means profit!

Make these rules and keep them. No smoking in barns. No fooling on tractors . . . and no putting off repairs! Keep safe and secure.

Tractors Can Be Safe

CHICAGO—Farm tractors are potentially hazardous yet most tractor accident fatalities can be prevented, according to the National Safety Council.

The Safety Council estimates that there are from 800 to 1,000 deaths resulting annually from tractor accidents. In addition, thousands are injured and millions of dollars are lost in property damage, medical costs, time off work, lost earning power and insurance costs.

"Most of these losses could be prevented," stated the Safety Council, "by competent operation of tractors, use of protective equipment and proper maintenance."

More than half of all tractor accident fatalities involve overturns, the Council reports. These fatalities occur unnecessarily, because the equipment to protect the driver in a roll-over is available for new tractors and many older models.

"The National Safety Council is convinced that more than 90 percent of the roll-over fatalities could be prevented through the use of roll-over protective cabs and frames," said Leon Urben, manager of the Council's Farm Safety Department.

"The problem," said the Council official, "is that many farmers and ranchers are reluctant to invest in roll-over protection systems for their equipment. The Safety Council, however, believes that the use of ROPS is essential to preventing unnecessary tractor accident injuries and fatalities."

Tractor operation can be safe if operators are alert to potential accident hazards. The Safety Council offers the following 10 tips for safer operation of the tractor on the farm or ranch:

—Stay clear of ditches, embankments, holes, etc., to avoid upset.

—Don't permit others to ride—keep children off and away.

—Cut speed when turning, crossing slopes, on rough, slick or muddy surfaces.

—Watch where you're going at row ends, on roads, near trees, etc.; always watch for and avoid obstacles, and be sure everyone is clear before moving.

—Stay off hills and slopes too steep for safe operation.

—Don't overload—engage clutch slowly with heavy load to avoid backward tip.

—Hitch loads only to drawbar (if drawbar is on 3-point hitch, set it no higher than fixed drawbar)—use front weights to balance tractor.

—Keep PTO shields in place—shut off PTO before unclogging, adjusting or servicing equipment.

—Set wheels wide as practical for job for better stability.

—When stopped, put tractor out of gear, firmly set brakes and/or use park lock—remove key.

A visit to the Eastland Manor proved enjoyable indeed. Beautiful new equipment, whirl pool bath, new bath tub with hydrolic lift which enables any resident to have a tub bath. A full staff of efficient licensed nurses on duty at all times...

A barber and beauty shop on the premises. No need to stop social activities to be a resident at Eastland Manor.

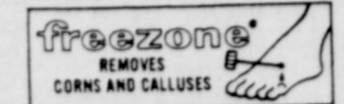

Sunday morning 9:45 is Worship Service. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 is church service. Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 is church and song service with Rev. Myres. I understand a bridge club is being planned and also on the planning board is a picnic. Bi Monthly musicals ar a gala affair...Residents get dolled up in long colorful dresses and turn out for the AFFAIR. Tuesday afternoons at 2:00 is Bingo. Friday afternoon is game day. Forty Two, dominoes, and checkers are the games of the day. The third Friday of each month is the Birthday party for all residents whm are rolling back the calendar. This leaves Monday and Thursday for the unexpected, but I understand these days are pretty well filled with those unexpected little treats.

Eugene Frost is the administrator, and a pleasant person to know. I hope you will be visiting Eastland Manor. I know I certainly intend to get back to visit them, soon.

Eastland Manor welcomes these new residents: Jerome S Seela, Anita Laurent, ary Jaynes, Stella Keegan, G.B. Littlefield, Henry Miller, LILLE Rodgers, Mrs. Bill

McAlister, and Alma Keown. Their coffee pot is always hot. Visit at any time. "By the way" I found out it cost no more to live at Eastland Manor than any other nursing home. The State sets the rate for all the nursing homes in the state of Texas.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to express my thanks to Dr. Treadwell, the entire staff to all my friends and relatives for their kindness during my stay in the hospital for the lovely flowers and cards. Your visits and prayers. With Christians like you made my operation a success. I am not well but improving nicely at my home. Continue to pray for me. May God ever bless you.

I REMEMBER
By Dick O'Brien

To me the saddest thing that is happening to our way of life is the demise of the rural church. I remember when all of the churches that made up the Cisco Baptist Association were rural churches, with only two exceptions. Eastland and Cisco were the only so-called city churches. This average was about the same for all of the city denominations. I remember what a live congregation constituted the Methodist church at Pisgah. I remember one Sunday evening late my wife and I were on our way home at Nimrod from a preaching mission at Reich. We saw the lights on at Pisgah and decided to stop and worship there. The preacher didn't show up, so they asked me to preach. I shall never forget the satisfaction that service gave me. And this was typical of those days. One of the most satisfactory revivals I ever conducted was in a country Methodist church in Callahan county. I remember how alive the Baptists churches at Nimrod and Scranton were, and now I understand they have disbanded. It gives me a sinking feeling to see the drift to the cities both for spiritual and physical reasons. Cities are impersonal, artificial, and cruel. Play is supervised to the point children have no opportunities to develop self initiative.

I am now living in the sixth largest City in America but my heart is still in the country! (ED. Note: Your country always has the welcome mat out for you.)

Home Demonstration Camp

Four-county Home Demonstration Camp was held in Cisco, July 19, 1973. Eighty members from Eastland, Brown, Comanche, and Mills County attended. Mrs. Zelma Lusk presided over the meeting. Recreation was led by Mrs. Hinesly from Brown County. Mrs. Burk, Comanche County, conducted the sing-song. Mrs. Edmondson, Mills County, related experiences of International H-D travel.

Crafts demonstrations were given by Mrs. Campbell, Eastland County; Mrs. Hefington, Brown County; Mrs. Johnson, Comanche County; and Mrs. Edmondson, Mills County. The morning featured speaker was Rev. Hubert Foust, Lake Worth, Texas. His program included making floral containers, preserving flowers, carving wood, and making arrangements with driftwood. Tidbits of philosophy were sprinkled throughout his program. Mrs. A.E. Pino of Gorman headed the afternoon session with a thought-provoking talk about knowing yourself and using the Bible as a guide for self maintenance.

County Camp in Brown County next year.

Tips for using electricity efficiently:

Think twice before you open this door.

The habit of opening refrigerator and freezer doors only when it's really necessary is a saving habit. The cold air that rushes out each time has to be replaced, which causes the unit to run more and use more electricity. Make a mental list of the items you need before you open the door, then take out as many of them as you can at one time.

Here are other suggestions for using minimum amounts of electricity to get maximum benefits from your refrigeration equipment.

If your refrigerator has to be defrosted manually, do it before the ice deposit gets one-fourth of an inch thick. Ice (frost) acts as unwanted insulation and causes your refrigerator to work overtime.

Let hot foods cool to room temperature before you place them in your refrigerator or freezer.

Use a refrigerator thermometer to help you attain temperature settings of 35 to 40 degrees for your refrigerator and zero temperature for your freezer. Settings below these temperatures could be a waste of electricity and cause unnecessary wear on the appliances.

And turn the dial to a warmer setting in the refrigerator section (according to manufacturer's recommendation), when you're going to be away for a week or longer.

It's our job at Texas Electric to help you get the most value from your electric service. Call us when you have questions about any use of electricity in your home. Or ask for our free booklet, "Tips to help you use electricity more efficiently throughout your home."

Falls Top Accident List

CHICAGO — Falls are among the most common accidents in agriculture, yet they are perhaps the most difficult cause of injuries to guard against, according to the Farm Department of the National Safety Council.

Nearly one-third of all reported injuries in a study of farm and ranch accidents in ten states were the result of falls. An in-depth investigation of 955 of these accidents by the National Safety Council showed that the majority of those injured (863) were members of the farm family, and more than half of the accidents attributed to falls occurred on-the-job.

In a detailed study of 86 homestead falls, the Safety Council found that 76 percent of the falls resulted in serious injury, and that 50 percent of the victims were admitted to the hospital while 33 percent required hospital emergency room treatment. The investigation further revealed that the yard and the kitchen were the scenes of nearly 40 percent of all accidents, and in more than half of the cases reviewed the victim was simply walking — not climbing up ladders or running down stairs.

The best weapon against accidental falls is alertness, according to the Safety Council. In addition to being alert and aware of the potential for a trip or slip, the Council points out that your chances of falling are increased by illness, haste, fatigue, emotional upset, alcohol and drugs.

There are several common hazards around the farm or ranch that one must watch for to aid in the prevention of accidental falls. Among these are:

- Cluttered work areas and passageways.
- Slippery surfaces resulting from ice, mud, water spills, oil, etc.
- Broken flooring and loose rugs.
- Ladders in a poor state of repair.
- In combating injuries due to falls, the Council reminds farmers to:
 - Keep stairs repaired and lighted.
 - Provide sturdy hand rails.
 - Do not carry a load that blocks your vision.
 - Set ladders on firm footing. Follow 4 to 1 rule for straight ladders—set base one foot out from building or tree for every four feet up.
 - Keep materials and tools well secured and within easy reach.
 - Wear shoes with non-skid soles and heels.
 - Do not work up high when the weather is windy or stormy.
 - Do not work in a high place when you are ill, tired, or taking strong medicines.
 - Allow no one to ride on the draw bar or towed machinery.
 - Stay clear of running machinery so that an accidental slip or stumble won't throw you into moving parts.
 - Falls and injuries can be prevented, but it is up to the individual to always be alert, because accidental tumbles can happen without warning at any time or at any place.

National Farm Safety Week
JULY 25-31

President Sets Safety Week

WASHINGTON, D.C.—President Richard M. Nixon has declared the week beginning July 25 as National Farm Safety Week.

In his proclamation setting the observance, the President said: "The dollar cost of rural accidents is high, but there is no higher price than the human suffering. This waste of precious human and economic resources must be reduced and can be reduced. The same energies and talents which have made agriculture so highly productive should also be turned to the task of making it safer. The unfulfilling supply of food and fiber provided by the Nation's largest industry, agriculture, has been the foundation of American prosperity since our country's beginnings." President Nixon observed, "The abundance on the farm, in turn, has been stimulated by constant technological progress. But the blessings of technology have sometimes been mixed, as each advance has also brought a new potential for injury."

The President, in proclaiming National Farm Safety Week, urged all persons engaged in farming and ranching to consider ways in which they can promote safer practices in work, home and recreational activities, and can exercise greater caution when traveling on public roads.

Accidents Kill, 2,200 On The Farm

CHICAGO — In 1972 an estimated 2,200 persons were killed in work accidents in agriculture, according to the National Safety Council.

Using a standardized survey format, the statistical and farm departments conducted one-year studies of agricultural accidents in 10 states. The studies made by extension services and local volunteers show that an estimated 169,000 injuries occur annually to farm residents, workers and visitors in the states studied. Of the total injuries, the report indicates that more accidents occurred in farm structures than at any other location.

The survey area contained approximately 825,000 farms with more than 3 million farm residents. The results indicate that nearly two-thirds of the total injuries were work-related, and much of the remainder occurred during periods of leisure activity.

Food Preservation Workshop To Be Held Thursday

Mrs. Janet Thomas,
County Extension Agent

sumer Specialist from Abilene; and Mrs. Janet Thomas, County Extension Agent.

A "Food Preservation Workshop" is scheduled for Thursday evening, July 26 from 7-9 p.m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room in Eastland. The meeting is open to the public and all interested individuals are invited to attend. Free literature will be available to those attending. Demonstrations on the proper techniques of canning, freezing, and making jelly will be presented by Mrs. Beverly Nicholson, Texas Electric Home Economist, Mrs. Martha Harmon, Lone Star Gas Con-

A food preservation workshop was held in June with some 60 ladies attending. Due to the large number of additional request for canning and freezing information, this workshop is being repeated. The evening session will make it possible for working homemakers to attend.

With the rising cost of foods and the predicted food shortage, utility and Extension home economists have reported a large increase in the requests for food preservation information over past years. Many of these requests are coming from families that have never prepreserved food.

Canning and freezing fruit and vegetables while they are in supply is a good method of lowering the grocery bill and providing top quality food for the family meals.

Miss Debra Raye Anderson Becomes Bride Of George Thomas Wages

Miss Debra Raye Anderson and George Thomas Wages recited nuptial vows 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Eastland. Rev. Haston Brewer, pastor, officiated. They are the daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Harold Anderson of Eastland and Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Wages of Grand Prairie. Durel Reid played the wedding music. Wendell Siebert sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Decorations in the church included a white column pedestal topped with an urn filled with white gladiolas, mums, and baby's breath. On each side, the two spiral candelabra were decorated with emerald. At the base were arrangements of gladiolas, mums, and baby breath. The reserved section was marked with white pew candles.

When escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza with a tucked, fitted bodice, long full sleeves with cuffs, and a full skirt, all trimmed with cluny lace and covered buttons. Her chapel length veil was bordered with cluny lace. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses and baby's breath atop a white Bible. She carried a white linen handkerchief that belonged to her great grandmother. Her jewelry was a pearl and diamond pendant, a gift from the groom.

BAKKER FUNERAL HOME
206 W. PLUMMER PH. 817-619-1726
EASTLAND, TEXAS 76448

Dear friends,

Most families decide in advance upon a doctor in whom they have confidence to call in an emergency. In like manner, it is wise to decide upon a funeral director in whom you can place your confidence in time of need. Select this man in advance, when good judgment is not upset by the stress of your grief.

Respectfully,
