RESPONSIBILITY

An Editorial
It's probably an old - timey concept, but we don't think it's gone out of style.

We hold that it is the basic responsibility of elected public officials to take care of the public's business in the most efficient manner possible, and to do a lot of thinking both ways before asking the constituents to make a major decision.

Recognizing that we will be, or already have been, branded as an "aginner", we think it's important to take a stand. Given the opportunity today, we're to vote immediately for a library building with a meeting room or two, but in our mind, we can't justify another kitchen or another stage.

We feel that Eastland just isn't ready for this big of a step. There are so many things that cry for attention, and we hold that we must move on a cautious conservative basis lest we suddenly find ourselves on a road Eastland's been down before, and has no hankering to re-tread.

Yes, we'd conceed that the design is beautiful, it's a wonderful facility and would be a decided asset to our community. But can we afford it now? We don't think so, and as a commissioner, we'd rather go to the public for a vote with something we recommend.

Responsibility to ALL the citizens is a key point. Not too many years ago, the commission, because of indebtedness, had to sometimes figure on the parking meter receipts of next month being good, in order to buy a street broom.

Eastland may indeed one day again be encumbered with bone-rattling, penny-pinching debts that cause ulcers, nightmares and all kinds of bankruptcy financing, but we hope and pray that should it come, we will not have contributed to that condition.

A VERY successful open house was held Thursday at the Eastland office of the Texas Highway Department, when 108 persons signed the register while visiting the local Resident Engineer and Maintenance Departments.

Beta Club Officers Elected

Members of the Eastland High School chapter of the National Beta Club on Monday elected officers for the school year.

Requirements for entry into the organization are based upon scholastic standing, character and leadership. Sophomore members must have held an average of 90 or above during their freshman year; Junior and senior members are required to have had an average of 87 or above during the previous year.

Sponsor of the club is Mrs. Don Griffin, a member of the high school teaching staff.

Mavericks Blast Olney, 16-8

The Eastland Mavericks just about cured of their mis-cue problems, whipped the Olney Cubs, 16-8 Friday night in Maverick Stadium handing the visitors their first defeat of the season. The spirited Mavericks earned the win and now look forward to a much earned rest in an off night next week, before they begin road trips that will take them first to Breckenridge for the last non-conference game of the season, and the following week to Coleman where the conference race will begin - and may be settled.

Eastland scored first to move out only to have Olney repeat the same six-and-two scoring in the same quarter. In the second Eastland put six more on the boards and the rest of the game was a hard-nosed affair with both sides threatening but failing to go across. In the final minute Olney was knocking at the gate, keeping a chilled stand of fans on their toes.

It was real football weather for a change and the fans got their money's worth.

The Cubs took the opening kick and paced by an outstanding Running Back - Quarterback Mike Pace picked up three first downs in a row moving to the Eastland 46. The Mavericks buckled down and behind the stiff defense strength of such as Steve Lopez, ground the Cub attack to a halt, and forced them to punt. Taking the punt, the Mavericks committed one of their three fumbles for the night and Olney was in charge again, but the visitors failed to make ten, and the Mavericks took over on their own 20 for their first performance of the night.

All the Mavericks had a good night, but Back Howard King put together his best to date and in four carries racked up 20 yards. A switch from Quarterback John Jimenez to Tony Thomas put the surprise to all, but Pace and he proved an equal defender, dropping Thomas in a one-to-one at the Olney 30 when it appeared that the fleet footed Tony was gone for good.

King took for a yard, then for five; and then six more for a first down. Jimenez called on Howard again and the Maverick galloped left and across to score first for Eastland. A pass from Jimenez to Thomas into the end zone for two extra points.

Unfortunately it didn't stay that way long.

Olney brought the kick back to the Eastland 45 and on the second play, Olney's Mr. Pace took the ball and found the hole he looked for all night. From the 44, he sidestepped and threaded himself through defenders and raced over the goal line. He just as nimbly encoered by running over for the two extra points - and thereby making a brand new ball game with the score 8-8. Still in the first quarter.

An Eastland interception by Gaeta of an Olney pass early in the second set the stage for the other Eastland scoring. Calling on King and Thomas, Jimenez engineered the ball for two first downs and moved to the 18 yard line. Thomas got nine more and Eastland recovered one of their own fumbles and after a couple of no-gainers Thomas ploughed right to the one, and repeated by going over only to have the score erased by a penalty. King got the call for the next try and went around the left end for six more big ones.

Thomas cleanly caught the Jimenez aerial in the end zone for two more and it stood 16-8, which is the way it ended.

There was no more scoring, but plenty of excitement as the two toed it for the remainder of the brisk evening.

TONY THOMAS GETS TWO MORE

Library Committee Asks Immediate $215,000 Vote

Mayor Durel Reid and at least eight of his Library - Community Center Committee want the matter of a bond election for constructing the facility brought to the voters for a "yes" or "no" decision.

In a special called meeting Friday morning at City Hall, the mayor and the number from the committee met with the Commission, and heard the architect outline the features of his library - center design, and a finance expert explain how it could be accomplished.

Originally it was understood that the furnished center would cost some $175,000, but Friday it was reported that the total "outside most" cost, with some "cushion" built in, would be $215,000 which would include a finished total package, including the professional fees of the architect and the finance man.

Joe Smith of the First Southwest Corp., the same man who handled bond arrangements on the sewer plant, explained how such a cost could be handled on the library - center. The Eastland tax rate of $2.50 is maximum, so that can't be increased, but he suggested that the assessed valuation could be raised by 30 percent to bring in the additional needed money to pay off the library - center in 16 years. The present valuation is $2,911,400, which is 25 percent of actual value. This basic figure would need to be raised to some $3,800,000 in order to bring in the additional average $21,338 annually to retire the library - center tax bonds.

For comparison, it was shown that on an average $10,000 home, the present city taxes are $62.50 a year. The valuation increase would up the taxes to $81.25 a year -- an $18.75 increase. Smith showed that the $215,000 principal would cost the city $127,200 in interest for a total of $342,200 over the 16 year period.

The Commission previously had agreed to call such an election and the mayor and his committee asked that a vote be held before the November General Election. To provide the proper notices, it will be necessary for the Commission to hold a special meeting on Monday, Oct. 9, in order to consider calling such an election, which if called, would probably be held on Tuesday, Oct. 31. The proposition would be "for" or "against" the library - center bond issuance, and two voting boxes would be maintained at the city hall voting location. One box would be for qualified voter who have property on the city tax rolls and the other would be for qualified voters who do not have property on the tax roll. The sum of the two boxes would have to carry in order to pass the bond issue, it was reported.

Mrs. James Horton asked how the building would be maintained if and when it were built, and she was told that these things would just have to be worked out.

Commissioner H.V. O'Brien, named by Mayor Reid to check into federal funds available for such a project, has reported that present programs could provide up to two-thirds of the funding for such projects.

All commissioners were present, and in addition to visitors Architect Raymond Darrow, Financeman Smith and Buddy Carter, committee members included Mrs. Richard Wilhelm, Marjorie van Hoose, Mrs. Jim Horton, Mrs. Herman Hassell, Mrs. Dan Childress, Mrs. Bill Leslie, Mrs. Durel Reid and Mrs. Cecil Collings.

WCTCOG Goal: Cut Number Of Index Crimes

The ultimate criminal justice goal in the region served by West Central Texas Council of Governments is to cut in half the number of index crimes committed in 1971, the council has advised Governor Preston Smith's Criminal Justice Council.

The goal for 1973 is to reduce index crime by 20 percent, said WCTCOG's "Criminal Justice Plan, 1973 - 1977," just submitted to CJC.

The plan projects a need for 47 projects with primary emphasis placed on peace officer training. The estimated total cost of this training project is $24,500, with 75 percent expected to come from CJC, 25 percent from local sources. The system would serve the entire West Central Texas region, made up of the counties of Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, Fisher, Haskell, Jones, Kent, Knox, Mitchell, Nolan, Runnels, Scurry, Shackelford, Stephens, Stonewall, Taylor and Throckmorton.

CJC expects to receive a block action grant of $29,161,000 from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, Department of Justice, for fiscal 1973.

In addition, it will have available some three million dollars from the state's criminal justice planning fund, which comes from a court-cost levy in criminal cases imposed by the 62nd legislature.

These funds must be apportioned among local governments in all the state's 24 planning regions, and the amount to be available for the region served by WCTCOG depends on the urgency and validity of applications.

West Central Texas COG expects to apply for six other grants from CJC, for a total of $148,000. Three of these proposed projects are the top 10 in the order of emphasis: continuation of the law enforcement teletype network, $51,000 (No. 2); purchase of criminal investigation equipment, $17,000 (No. 3); and establishment of the criminal justice public education unit, $15,300 (No. 5).

Of the 47 projects envisioned in the WCTCOG plan, the largest number and the greatest share of the funding are expected by Taylor County. Eleven projects are anticipated, with a need for $418,881 in CJC funding. Local sources would contribute at least 15 percent of total project costs, in cash or in kind.

Four of the proposed Abilene projects are in the top 10 in the order of emphasis: installation of the criminal justice information system, $123,415 (No. 4); purchase of technical equipment with the capability of recording all telephone calls and radio messages, $7,500 (No. 7); as well as all police conversation with the public, $15,000 (No. 8); and purchase of on premises crime sensing and alerting system, $50,000 (No. 9).

Taylor County itself foresees a need for $172,016 from CJC for five additional projects.

Three of the proposed projects, with expected need of $30,650 from CJC, are from Nolan County agencies. The county projects a need for $10,400.

Both of Sweetwater's proposed projects are ranked in the top 10 in emphasis. One proposes to establish a public education unit for the police department, $12,750. This project is ranked sixth. The other, to establish a standardized police emergency telephone number, is ranked tenth. Funding assistance is put at $7,500.

Of the four projects indicated for Jones County, totaling $23,900, one is projected for the county, $17,000; one for the City of Stamford, $900; one for the Stamford Police Department, $3,000; and one for Anson Police Department, $3,000.

Six projects to be funded to Scurry County would ask CJC funding of $356,750. The county, jointly with the City of Snyder, proposes to request $300,000. The city itself will request $56,750 for five other projects.

Of three for Brown County, totaling $31,500, two are for the county ($20,250), and one for the City of Brownwood ($11,250).

Other projects suggested for the WCTCOG region are one each for the following counties: Haskell, $13,600; Knox, $13,500; Coleman, $16,928; Stephens, $15,000; Eastland, $10,000; Runnels, $21,000; and Rotan, $900. Two are planned for Comanche County, totaling $38,750 and three for Mitchell County, totaling $45,410.

Speed Reading Course Set To Begin

Arrangements have been made to conduct a 21 hour course in speed reading. The course is open to anyone above the age of 14 and guarantees every graduate a reading speed over 1,000 words per minute and with at least a 15 percent increase in comprehension.

After the seven week program a person can read any average length book in less than an hour and understand it better. In addition to speed reading the course also emphasizes improved study techniques, better test taking skills, and increased concentration and retention abilities.

The course requires a person to attend one class per week on the evening of their choice. For those who would like more information, without obligation to enroll, a series of FREE one-hour orientation lectures have been scheduled.

These meetings are free to the public and the course will be explained in complete details including entrance requirements, classroom procedures, tuition, class schedule and location. You need to attend only one of the meetings whichever is most convenient for you. These free one hour orientations will be held in the Ranger Room of the First Federal Savings and Loan Building in Ranger Monday, October 2 at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday October 3, at 7:00 p.m. and

In Cisco in the Texas Room in the Library at CJC on Wednesday October 4 and Thursday October 5 at 7:00 p.m.

This course is also available to industry and other groups upon request.

Gordon pot

by DeMarquis Gordon

Peanut harvest continues to progress rapidly in the county. Some good grades are being reported. We heard that J.T. Biggs of the Pioneer area sold one load that graded 82. A grade of 75 is considered very good. A grade above 80 is most unusual. Peanut harvest is a little ahead of last year's schedule because of better weather conditions.

Pecan growers are reporting that all varieties of pecans are hulling about two weeks earlier than normal. In most areas pecan trees still show the potential of making an excellent crop.

With the fall season approaching, check your home landscape to determine if any replacements or improvements are needed. Then take action!

Are new plants needed to repair a gap in the shrub hedge? Has a rose bush died or failed to live up to expectations? Is the outdoor living area shaded enough for optimum enjoyment?

Make a list of needed plants, then make selections early at your garden and nursery center.

By choosing plants early, a much greater selection is available. The natural inclination is to put off garden work until late spring when everything is greening up and spring flowers are in bloom. Then when the urge to plant trees and shrubs is at its peak, most of the nursery stock has been well-picked over.

When selecting landscape plants, choose those that are native to or adapted to West Texas or Eastland County. This helps reduce the amount of disease and insect damage, and thus makes maintenance easier. Also, choose stock that is in good condition.

Container-grown plants and those with balled or burlapped roots can be planted anytime of the year. However, many deciduous plants, which shed their leaves each fall, are handled and transplanted easier in a bare-root condition.

For best results, bare-rooted plants should be set out in the late fall and winter from mid-November through February in most areas of the state. Planting during this period provides ample time for good root development before new top growth begins. If cared for properly, they may be set out as late as March and April.

The success of all landscape plants depends on their condition when set out as well as the care they receive after planting.

Those communities and towns in our county who are planning clean up, fix up and paint up campaigns might go one step further by having a community wide campaign to plant trees along the streets and in the residential areas. Use care in selecting tree varieties. In areas where overhead utility lines interfere, use trees that remain small at maturity. Often large shrubs can be used and trained as trees. Examples of trees and shrubs for use under utility lines include: Yaupon, redbud, flowering dogwood, crabapple, and crapemyrtle. Avoid using all of one species for a particular street or area. By using a number of different species, the danger of losing all the trees at one time by disease or insects is greatly reduced.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor: Can you please tell me why the people of Eastland are so set about this liquor being brought in? I think they are fools. Isn't it better to have it in our town, so that the people who want it, can get it and the town and people will benefit from it as well as the state. I'd like to tell them that when a person wants to buy liquor, he will do it, and it doesn't matter to him if he has to drive 50 miles or 10 miles to get it. Why do you think so many people from around here are at places like Mingus and Strawn? And just drive over to Ranger and watch a liquor store for an hour or two. You'll see many familiar faces from Eastland, Cisco and Carbon and Olden and Gorman. If these people could get the drinks they seem to want at home, it just might cut down on accidents on the highways. At least it would keep a lot of the drunks from having to drive on the highways going for their liquor. I don't really know for sure, but I don't think not having it wet, will keep Eastland a cleaner town. We have our share of dirt, too. Well, I did sign the petition for getting the election. And if we have an election, I will vote FOR, not against it. As I know it is no better for Ranger to make all the profit and Eastland to send its people to them to do it. I think more people should think this over before they refuse to sign it. Unless you're very religious, ask yourself why not. If you are religious you don't have to ask it.

Thanks for listening. Dee Sullivent

Editor: The Journalism Department wishes to express thanks to you for the contribution you made toward helping make our Journalism Workshop be the success it was. Eight high schools and one college were represented. Sixty-five students with their sponsors participated in the activities. Thanks again for your assistance.

Cisco Junior College Journalism Department Mrs. George Brazell Instructor

Editor: Senior Citizens of Eastland: May I share with you something I received from a reliable source? A few years ago a beer petition was being circulated in one of our smaller cities. Some of those carrying the petition around, would present it to a senior citizen and tell them that they were trying to get their old age assistance checks increased, and if they would sign those papers, it would help them to get a larger check. Some of them signed it without reading what they were signing. May I remind you to know what you are signing. There is a liquor petition being circulated in Eastland at this time so be careful what you sign.

Bureau To Convene Monday

The Eastland County Farm Bureau's Annual Convention will be held Monday night, October 2, 1972, at 7:00 p.m. at the First Christian Church Annex in Eastland.

A chili and stew supper with all the trimmings will be furnished, according to the president, Mr. Sam Kimmell. During the convention, new officers and directors will be elected by the membership. The nominating committee with K.F. Kirk as chairman, will offer a slate of 10 new directors, one from each community in the county. Everyone should remember that nominations from the floor will be in order, Mr. Kimmell said.

This is also the important time of the year when each member has a voice in adopting our county resolutions and, as always, it is our objective to give every member an opportunity to help develop Farm Bureau policies at the grass root level. This way, each member can help to decide the policies of our county, state, and national organization for the coming year, Mr. Kimmell stated.

Mr. Kimmell said that if you want your opinions heard, the right policies in force, and the best man to represent you, you must participate by attending this annual meeting. It's an exercise in democracy. Husbands and wives are both entitled to vote.

Attempted Jail Break Thwarted

An attempted jail break from the Eastland County Jail on the floor where convicted murderer James Duke Creel is being held - was thwarted about 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Eastland County Sheriff L.E. (Lefty) Sublett said that officers acting on a tip, found that prisoners in the third floor tank had used a hacksaw blade to cut through steel bars, thereby giving the would-be escapees access to the roof, where a hole had also been made.

Sublett said that in addition to the hacksaw blade, officers also recovered a length of rope and other paraphernalia that were to have been used in the attempted escape. The escape was apparently being planned for Wednesday night, Sublett said.

There was a total of five prisoners in the third floor tank, including James Duke Creel. Creel, a former Dyess AFB sergeant, who was 33 when convicted Oct. 26, 1971, of "murder with malice aforethought" in the March 15, 1971, strangulation death of 10-year-old Tona Worthington, an Abilene fifth grader, has been waiting on appeal of his life sentence.

He had been convicted in Eastland by a 91st District Court jury following a change of venue from Abilene. The state had sought the death penalty, since ruled unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Also on the floor were Lonnie Joe Hughes being held on narcotic charge and Ralph Adams also being held on narcotics charge and two other prisoners.

Sublett explained that the prisoners in the third floor tank are kept in cells around an open area to which they all have access at certain times.

Sublett said that all third floor prisoners were removed and locked in a second floor tank prior to the investigation.

Sublett could not say Wednesday night what, if any, action might be taken in the incident or who may have been involved.

You're looking at one of the nice things about an electric dryer.

Drying a wet teddy bear, or other stuffed toys labeled "washable," is just one of many things you can do with a flameless electric dryer.

There are plenty of others. Like dusting draperies. Airing bed covers. Fluffing pillows.

And many, many more.

Your instruction booklet is your best guide to the many unique capabilities of your electric dryer. Read it carefully and file for ready reference.

One of the big advantages of electric dryers is that you can get control features which automatically determine the temperature and drying time needed for various fabrics.

This fabric selector is particularly helpful in this modern age of care-free polyesters and other permanent press fabrics.

Versatility is just one more reason why flameless electric dryers are America's favorite.
