Norris, Stubblefield Vows

Read Oct. 6

Miss Letha Diane Norris and Larry Mack Stubblefield exchanged wedding vows on Oct. 6, 1972, at 7:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Carbon. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Elder T.F. Houston of the Stephenville Primitive Baptist Church.

The church was decorated with an arch of greenery and white flowers. On either side of the arch were baskets of white gladiolas and the candles, which were lighted by Dickie Norris, brother of the bride.

Maid of Honor was Sherry Stubblefield, sister of the groom. She wore a gown of orchid chiffon over taffeta with empire waist, high neck, full skirt, and bishop sleeves accented with deep cuffs and trimmed with lace and velvet ribbons.

She carried a nosegay of white mum poms centered with orchid poms, and white ribbon streamers. Her headpiece was an orchid camelot cap with white lace and velvet ribbon. Doug Bryant of Carbon was best man and ushers were Dale Jackson of Carbon and Keith Kellar of Olden.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin faced organza and ribboned cluny lace fashioned with a high neck and high rise waist, bishop sleeves with lace puffs at the shoulder and deep cuffs with cluny lace.

An A-line skirt flowed into a full chapel train. Three ribboned bands of cluny lace ran from shoulders to hem. Her headpiece was a camelot style with elbow length veiling trimmed with ribboned cluny lace and satin ribbon. Her bouquet was white mum poms centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Charles Morgan of Carbon played the wedding music and Debbie Holliday and Mrs. Marilyn Vera of Gorman sang the musical selections.

The bride's mother wore a navy and beige suit, navy accessories and white mum pom corsage.

The groom's mother wore a beige dress, bone and brown accessories and an orchid mum pom corsage.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony.

The bride's table was orchid, overlaid with white lace with crystal and silver appointments. The wedding cake was three-tiered, decorated with orchid pom mums.

The bride's going away outfit, was a white and orchid layered look dress with pleated skirt, black patent accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

After a short wedding trip to Temple the couple will be at home at 1601 Puryear Dr., Tanglewood S. Apt. No. 2114,

Texas Baptist Churches which have increased or exceeded their portion of the $1 million statewide Baptist mission offering goal will be recognized at the 92nd annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union (W.M.U.), October 30 - 31 at First Baptist Church, Abilene.

The special offering is used for the support of Baptist mission work within the state.

The opening session, Monday at 10 a.m., will feature Dr. Roberta Cox Edwards, Baptist home missionary from Brigham City, Utah, who will

Texas Legislature In Third Week Of Special Session

The Texas legislature is in the third week of its 30-day special session, but two lame duck members of the House of Representatives still haven't shown up at all.

Eight other house members have attended only one of the nine House meetings so far, and of the 150 House members, 103 have been absent at least once during the session, which ends Oct. 17.

State Rep. Joe Hanna of Breckenridge was one of the members listed with a perfect record. His attendance record showed he was present and voting at every House roll call.

91st Jury Sentences Powers To 101 Years

An 11-member 91st District Court Jury took 38 minutes to assess Harold Ray Powers 101 years punishment for murder. The trial began last week when another jury ruled that Powers was sane and should stand trial. The 91st Courtroom with Judge Earl Conner Jr. presiding, was full of spectators during most of the week, with the conclusion Monday.

Eastland District Clerk Joe Gray and other courthouse observers said it was the longest sentence in Eastland County history.

The jury returned its punishment sentence at 4:20 p.m. after receiving the case at 12:55 p.m. and returning its guilty verdict at 2:15 p.m. Powers, 25, was convicted of murdering Gordon G. Bengston, 42, of Far Hills, N.J., Dec. 1, 1970, who was shot in the head, then beaten and received a slashed throat. The murder took place on a lonely country road near Lake Brownwood. The trial was moved here on a change of venue.

The Verdict was given by an 11 member jury composed of eight men and three women. The twelfth juror, Jarrell McClearen, was admitted to a Gorman Hospital the first day of the trial with a recurring heart condition.

91st District Court Judge Earl Conner Jr. said this was the first time in his experience a little known statute of the state penal code permitting less than a 12 member jury verdict was used to cover the unusual jury situation.

Eastland County Criminal District Attorney Emory Walton, who assisted Brown County District Attorney George Day in the prosecution, said late Monday the state had asked for a minimum of 100 years with no maximum being set.

Walton said "We told the jury as far as we were concerned they could give him 2,500 years, but under no circumstances to go lower than 101 years."

Powers, whose father is dead, remained calm during the reading of the verdict, as did his mother and sister.

The defense, represented by court appointed attorney Bill Wright of Cisco, has ten days in which to file an appeal but gave the court no indication after the reading of the verdict that it would do so.

BAKKER FUNERAL HOME

DALE O. BAKKER
Dear friends,
We often hear this question: "Doesn't a funeral director become calloused to grief?" The answer to that question is, no.
One cannot enter a grief-stricken home without a real sense of sympathy, no matter what the circumstances may be. We believe, though, that the funeral director can best express his sympathy by going about his work quietly and calmly. Confusion only adds to the strain.
Respectfully,
Dale O. Bakker

DON'T TAKE RURAL TEXANS FOR A RIDE... AND DON'T TAKE US FOR GRANTED.

HERE'S WHAT NIXON IS DOING TO RURAL AMERICA

WHEAT SCANDAL - Giant wheat exporters made huge profits at the expense of individual wheat farmers, many in Texas, on Soviet trade.

TAXES - Wall Street Journal says federal laws favor the corporation or investor who farms on the side for a tax write-off.

FARM ISSUES - Under Nixon, parity dropped the lowest since 1933. Nixon held up payments of nearly $400 million for feed grains in 1970, forcing farmers to borrow at highest interest rates in history.

CONGLOMERATE SCANDALS - Big Business first, the public second - that's the Republican philosophy. Anti-trust suit against ITT dropped at the same time ITT pledged $400,000 to finance Republican Convention.

Harry S. Truman said, 'The Republicans admire our government so much they want to buy it.'

Let's face it. The Republicans just haven't changed much since the days of our grandfathers. They still favor Big Business over the average working man and woman. And while they're taking us for a ride, they keep telling us what a 'dangerous radical' Senator McGovern is.

That's what they said about Harry S. Truman.

HERE'S WHAT McGOVERN IS DOING FOR RURAL AMERICA

HIS STANDING - George McGovern has been elected time and again as a Democrat from a Republican farm state... because they know where he stands.

TAXES - His tax proposal would end the loopholes for tax-loss farming by giant corporations and the wealthy individuals who compete unfairly with family farmers. McGovern's proposal calls for the same tax on capital gains as on earnings.

FARM ISSUES - He sponsored and co-sponsored: Meat Import Limitation Law; Dairy Import Act; Wheat, Feed Grain, and Soybean Emergency Reserve Bill; Rural Development, Rural Job Development, and Rural Telephone Acts; Farm Credit Act; and other pieces of important legislation.

HIS BELIEFS - George McGovern knows that the answers to many of our most pressing problems in America today can be found by developing genuine opportunities for everyone in our small towns and rural areas throughout the country.

Let's not be taken for granted by the Nixon Republicans. Rural America has always fared best under a Democratic administration. If you want to stand up and do something good for rural America, the answer is to help put a Democrat in the White House. We need George McGovern... and George McGovern needs us.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Dissenting Opinion
News stories about split decisions by the United States Supreme Court must surely bewilder many a reader. What the majority confidently asserts in Paragraph One, dissenters just as confidently deny in Paragraph Two.
What shall the ordinary citizen make of all this? If even the experts cannot agree on what the law is, how can plain folk be expected to know?
Of course, the law is what the majority opinion says it is. A dissenting opinion has no legal force.

In fact, in many countries, dissenting opinions are simply not allowed. Once a majority decision is reached, dissenters are expected to keep their views to themselves.
But on our Supreme Court, public dissent has a long and respectable history. It has been a regular feature of the Court ever since 1806, when a holdout justice voiced his disagreement with Chief Justice John Marshall.
One great virtue of this right of dissent ("the only thing that makes life tolerable," said Justice William O. Douglas) is that it may help shape the law of the future. Major changes in the law, including even amendments to the Constitution, have had roots in earlier dissenting opinions from the Court.
Still, dissenters, if overdone, can needlessly weaken both public understanding and public acceptance of a Court ruling. At least, say critics, a judge should not dissent merely because of minor disagreement or personal pride.
Statistics do show that relatively few of the dissenting opinions — even those of Oliver Wendell Holmes, the "Great Dissenter" — have ever become the law of the land.
Is it surprising that dissents occur so often? Not when one considers the kind of questions the Court must answer. Almost always, they are questions on which even the wisest and fairest of men may differ. The easy ones just never reach the Court at all.

Delores Taylor also stars in the Technicolor feature which opens next Fri. at the Majestic Theatre.

Diane Keaton and Woody Allen as they appear in Paramount Pictures' comedy "Play It Again, Sam", opening in Technicolor Friday, Oct. 13 at the Ranger Drive - In Theatre. The film, based on Allen's hit Broadway play, concerns a timid movie buff whose wife deserts him, leaving him alone with his obsession for Humphrey Bogart and a succession of disastrous blind dates.

SECRECY AND NEWSPAPERS

Secrecy and newspapers are mortal enemies. When government is conducted in secret, the people have no way of obtaining information about what happened.

Freedom requires that the people be fully informed in order to act in their own best interest. Although freedom of the press and the people's right to know are constitutional guarantees, there is no guarantee that government business will always be conducted in the open.

Historically, it has been the role of newspapers to keep a watch on government and public officials by reporting what happens at public meetings and discussions affecting the public interest.

Only when people are fully informed about actions of their public officials can they make sound judgments and cast intelligent votes.

And only in this way can democracy function and people keep themselves free.

CJC To Kick Off 'Arts And Humanities Series' Thursday

Cisco Junior College will kick off its 1972-73 ARTS AND HUMANITIES SERIES on Thursday evening of this week, October 12, with a liberal-conservative debate between Reid Buckley and Max Lerner entitled "Right Vs. Left". The program is set for 8:00 p.m. in the Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium on the CJC Campus.

The program will follow a debate format, with each speaker allowed a fifteen-minute presentation, then later a ten or fifteen-minute rebuttal. Following the more formal part of the debate the two will respond to questions from the audience, each giving his point of view on the questions asked.

Mr. Buckley, speaking for the conservatives, is a cultural and social critic, author, film script writer and platform personality, and is an eloquent spokesman. He is known for his extraordinary ability to think on his feet and for his perceptive and witty repartee. Of himself he says: "I'm a Christian, Libertarian conservative. This day and age, how radical can you get?" He is the son of the legendary oil explorer William F. Buckley, and is a younger brother to two well-known American personalities, Senator James Buckley of New York and William F. Buckley, Jr., Editor-in-Chief of the National Review. He is the author of "The Eye of the Hurricane", a novel stressing the ecological degradation Americans have committed on nature and their own spiritual heritage, and he has contributed articles to numerous magazines. He was schooled in England, Mexico, and the United States, and took his B.A. degree at Yale University in 1952. He has lived for many years in different parts of Europe and is now married to the former Rosario Leguina of Spain. The Buckley's now reside in South Carolina where he is always busily engaged on a new book or books while not on the platform circuit.

Max Lerner, who will represent the liberal viewpoint in the "Right Vs. Left" confrontation Thursday evening, is a leading journalist and distinguished educator. His newspaper column is syndicated world-wide through the Los Angeles Times Syndicate and he headquarters with the New York Post. Mr. Lerner has travelled widely to almost every part of the world as a journalist and a scholar. He is the author of a dozen books, of which the best known is probably America As A Civilization. It has been translated and published throughout the world. He is currently at work on a book tentatively scheduled for 1973 publication under the title "America and Its Discontents". He is a contributor to national magazines and is frequently seen on national television programs. Lerner did his college and law studies at Yale University, his graduate work at the Brookings Graduate School of Economics and Government. He has taught at Sarah Lawrence College, Williams College and Harvard University and is presently Professor of American Civilization and World Politics at Brandeis University. He is a regular lecturer on several college campuses and has spoken at colleges and Universities throughout the world. He makes his home in New York City and has five children and seven grandchildren.

Tickets for the debate are now on sale at the Cisco Junior College Business Office and may be reserved or secured by contacting Mrs. Emma Watts, Business Manager, at her office in the Harrell Fine Arts Building, or by telephoning area 817, 442-2567. The office is open 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. weekdays. The tickets are priced at $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for all students - public school or college.

Season tickets for the five-program ARTS AND HUMANITIES SERIES are also currently on sale. They are priced at $7.00 for adults and $3.50 for students.

Program II will be an organ concert by STEPHEN D. ZELL, an outstanding concert organist who is now on the music faculty of Cisco Junior College. This musical program will be offered to the public free of charge since Mr. Zell is on the CJC staff. Zell is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Southern Methodist University and he was formerly organist for the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Dallas. The concert is scheduled for Tuesday, October 17, and the organ used will be of course be the college's $20,000 Baldwin C-600, a gift to CJC from the Rockwell Foundation of Houston.

Program III will be a "Pops" concert by the ABILENE PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA on Tuesday evening, November 14. This well-known West Texas orchestra, under the baton of Maestro George Yaeger, will present a varied program of light classical, Broadway, and popular musical selections.

Program IV, to be held on Monday, February 5, will be a "Current Affairs Dialogue" featuring two of the National Broadcasting Company's top television news correspondents, CASSIE MACKIN and DOUGLAS KIKER. They will discuss, among other things, their coverage of the two national political conventions and presidential election, and current issues in general from both male and female points of view.

Program V will bring one of America's very top platform personalities, MR. VINCENT PRICE, to the CJC stage. Mr. Price, a famous star of stage, screen, radio, and television, will present a solo dramatic program entitled, "The Villains Still Pursue Me." His performance will be the concluding highlight of the '72-73 "Arts and Humanities Series" on Thursday, March 1.

Dr. Willis announced that tickets for the "Arts and Humanities Series" would be priced somewhat lower than the previous "Current Affairs Series" costs had been. Season tickets are now on sale at $7.00 for adults and $3.50 for public school and college students and tickets for single programs are set at $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students - with the Zell program free of charge. Season or individual program tickets may be secured or reserved by contacting the CJC Business Office in the Harrell Fine Arts Building between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. weekdays, telephone area 817, 442-2567. Willis also said that season tickets would be on sale between 7:00 and 8:00 p.m. on October 12, the evening of the Buckley-Lerner program.

"We think these five programs provide an exceptionally interesting lineup of talent for our first "Arts and Humanities Series", Dr. Willis stated, "and we urge the people of the Cisco and Big Country area to support us in our efforts to bring some of the outstanding personalities and performing organizations to the CJC stage. Some of our programs in the past have been rather poorly attended, and we're hoping that with our new "Arts and Humanities" format and a reduced price of admission that this year's series will be our best attended yet."

Eris Ritchie, CJC Public Relations Director, will be in charge of all arrangements for the series. He also issued a plea for public support. "If we do not have good attendance for these programs it is obvious that such projects will have to be discontinued in the future," he said. "We have received a great deal of encouragement from people who want to see us continue our annual program series, and we are optimistically hoping for fine backing in the way of ticket sales and attendance from the college community, the Cisco area, and our surrounding communities," he concluded.

Condemnation Trial

Virtually over-shadowed by a murder trial in progress a floor up, non-the-less a condemnation trial in Eastland County Court attracted quite a bit of interest, particularly when it resulted in a hung jury at week's end.

The trial, styled State of Texas vs. Cecil Stewart, had to do with the payment by the state for land taken from Mr. Stewart in his foreign automobile repair center. The trial began Tuesday.

A mistrial had been declared earlier in the same suit when a state employee became ill. County Judge Scott Bailey declared the second mistrial when the six-member jury voted five to one for the landowner. The suit reportedly involved some $32,000, and likely will be settled.

The jury was released about 10 p.m. Friday last.

Students' Holiday October 16

Monday, October 16, will be a holiday for children of this area as teachers attend the District 14 Convention of Texas State Teachers Association in Snyder. Mr. Charles Anderson, principal of Northeast Elementary School in Snyder, is district president this year. Keynoting the conference will be Dr. William C. Newberry of Southwest Texas State University. Individual section meetings will include subjects from Art to Social Studies for teachers as well as special sessions for administrators.

Local association presidents include John R. Dillingham of Baird, Charles Marshall of Eastland, Neil Wright of Rotan, Bobby Lusk of Rule, Dennis Ellebracht of Anson, C.C. Burt of Colorado City, Paul Gothard of Highland, La Nelle Ramin of Snyder, Mrs. Winifred Walker of Albany, Randal Howell of Eliasville, Joe Searcy of Aspermont and Don Simmons of Abilene.

Take a good look at the new Satellite Sebring Plus. We've restyled it to give it a look we think a lot of people are going to like. But that's only the beginning.

Built to be seen. Not heard.

Here's the inside story. You know all those irritating little noises your car makes when you're driving down the highway? Like wind whistle. Tire noise. Traffic sounds. Well, we've built a car to quiet those noises. We've added special door and window seals, for example. And things like floor silencers and roof pads to keep the street noises outside the car. Which means that the Sebring-Plus will be a quieter car than ever before. "Super-Quiet" we call it. There's even a standard Electronic Ignition System that'll get you started in cold, wet weather.

"We call it Super-Quiet"
