As usual, we also enjoy hearing J. B. Thomas, TESCO president, make a few remarks. Mr. Thomas paid special recognition to the late Jack Lewis of Eastland. He said Mr. Lewis was the man "who made this company what it is in this part of the state." It was interesting for us to learn that at the end of World War II Texas Electric had 121,000 kw hour production. Today the company's production power is in excess of one million kw's. That is a remarkable growth. We were also impressed with our own Frank Sayre, district manager. Frank was working in high cotton with his association with Dr. McFarland and Mr. Thomas, but he came through in splendid fashion, earning recognition of Dr. McFarland.

Since we always strive to write a "light" column, it would be a sad oversight if we failed to mention gas lights at this point. As most of you folks know, Lone ing. Star Gas Co. reached back into the past and brought out the old Rev. Ferguson Is have caught on, and TESCO New Pastor of ly concerned. Dr. McFarland ripb ed the TESCO folks about sitting their hands while the gas boys Harmony Baptist were busy selling. All in all, we would say Lone Star kinda gave their competitors a hot foot on this one. (Now we wouldn't have mentioned this at all if we had won one of those nice electric lawn lights given away as door prizes at the banquet.)

-vem-Joe Matthews brought us in war of the biggest turnips you ever saw the other day. Said he had a field of 'em. We always take a special liking to readers who bring in things that you eat. Anyone have any extra large pecans?

Mince Pie Is Ever Welcomed Dessert

ERE'S A MINCE PIE as modern as tomorrow, made with 9-ounce package of condensed mince meat; but in taste and appearance it's as authentic as the mince pie of a hundred years ago that took hours to make. This modern mince meat takes all the labor out of the traditional pie favorite. The condensed mince meat is ready to use in three minutes. And it's delicious, too. One nine-ounce package makes generous filling for an eight-inch pie. For a nine-inch pie, add some kind of fruit-in this case, sliced canned peaches.

The Car and it's Companion-

are inseparable frier's and should be. The car is useless and harmless without the driver. With the driver it may become most useful but never harmless. The operator of a motor vehicle never realizes his responsibility to the public until he has a wreck. Then it dawns on him that he is living in a world with other people who have plenty of personal and property rights. So car, if you move, move carefully, but never with a pal without adequate insurance protection.
