

MOORE about... EASTLAND by Virgil E. Moore

Mrs. W. A. Rogers, 1317 South Bryens Street, has joined the ranks of those who make Eastland citizens are the world's most honest people.

Mrs. Rogers, you may recall, $50 in cash in downtown Eastland Wednesday morning. She was it back today, thanks to the honesty of Mrs. Otto Morren.

Mrs. Morren found the $60, still in the government envelope, in Perry's. She read in Thursday Telegram about Mrs. Rogers' loss of the money and returned it immediately.

"I appreciate our good people here in Eastland more than ever before," a happy Mrs. Rogers said Friday.

And doesn't it make you feel good too!

—vem—

Rex is much improved and the Telegram staff is much relieved.

Rex, of course, is Mrs. O. H. Deek, our publisher's wife, who is also our bookkeeper. She is a patient in Ranger General Hospital.

—vem—

Members of the Men's Fellowship Bible Class has placed signs around town which read: "Confucius Say . . . If you are too busy to attend Sunday School you are too busy."

How's that again?

—vem—

We were scolded the other day for not making an observation about the ground hog seeing his shadow or not seeing his shadow (depending on where you read about it) on ground hog day. We have read some conflicting reports on the situation and haven't been able to determine if spring is here or it's still winter. These highly scientific things always confuse us.

—vem—

We are disappointed that no one has sent us any cute sayings. Surely someone's child has made a bright remark in the past few days. Just to make you a little more interested, we're gonna give the first person sending in a cute saying one of our super-duper Lindy pens.

Speaking of Lindy pens . . . someone asked us the other day if these pens we have been advertising will write in butter. Friend, these pens will even write in axle grease (if you are patient enough).

The cold weather golfers out at Lake Side Country Club tell us that the greens at the course are in excellent shape. Like everything else, the course is in bad need of moisture for the fairways, however.

Standing of golf, it would seem that Don Janury, who makes his home here, has really caught fire. Don finished second in the Panama Open last week, then shot an amazing eight-under-par 64 Thursday to grab a six stroke lead in the first round of the $10,000 Carabobo Golf Club's open tourney.

Mavs Paste Ranger Teams In 7-AA Play

Eastland's Mavericks coasted to a 63-46 District 7-AA victory over the Ranger Bulldogs in the Mavs' home court here Friday night, and Tuesday will entertain Winters in the Eastland gym.

Both the Eastland A and B teams scored easy victories. The Mavs stomped Ranger 63-46 and the B team won 48-38.

Ranger held the Mavs to an 11-11 tie in the first period after building up a 7-0 margin, but the court got shakey for the visitors after that as the locals jumped to a 32-21 lead at halftime. The Mavs were ahead 49-31 at the end of the third period of play, and Coach Jon Tate sent in his reserves when the Mavs built up a 27 point lead in the final stanza.

Larry Hollis was high for Eastland with 21 points. Otis Green had 17, Mickey Garner 11, Clint Humphreys eight, and Stanley Reed six. Tommy Warford paced the losers with 12 points.

The Mav B team looked extremely sharp in the last half.

Abilene Bar Favors 11th Court Move

The Abilene Bar Association has gone on record as unanimously favoring the moving of the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals from Eastland to Abilene.

And the Association got assurances from Rep. Leon Thurman of Anson this week that "there is a bill on my desk for the court of civil appeals move."

According to the Abilene reporter, the Abilene Bar also discussed, but took no stand, on removal of Shackelford County from the 42nd District Court. The Reporter-News did not reveal what the discussion about Shackelford County might have concerned, but Abilene attorneys blocked a Senate bill in the last Legislature which would have added Shackelford County to the 91st District Court in Eastland.

Church Census to Be Taken Sunday By Baptists Here

A city-wide church census will be taken Sunday afternoon, between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m.

First Baptist Church and Bethel Baptist Church members will take the census. Well over 100 people will assist in taking the census, and the entire city will be covered. The cards of the families of other denominations, other than Baptist, will be given to those respective churches, a spokesman said.

The census is being taken as part of the larger association-wide census which includes the communities and towns around Eastland.

Ranger Woman Is Listed In Book

Mrs. Brice Elizabeth Walker of Ranger, author of "Starlight in Texas", is listed in the first edition of "Who's Who of American Women", a biographical dictionary of notable living American women.

The biography of Mrs. Walker is listed, in alphabetical order, with that of 19,000 women and one man — Shirley Povich (listed by mistake).

Published by the A. N. Marquis Co. of Chicago, the 1438-page volume lists such famous women as Mrs. Eisenhower, Eleanor Roosevelt and actresses Elizabeth Taylor and Marilyn Monroe.

Mrs. Walker is also listed in "Who's Who in the South and Southwest".

Born in Attoyac (Texas), Mrs. Walker formally operated a dry goods store here. She is a member of the Composers and Authors Assn. of America, the Poetry Society of Texas, the San Souci Exchange, and other organizations.

Published in 1943, "Starlight in Texas" is a collection of poems. A poem and biography of Mrs. Walker is also included in the Poetry Digest Anthology of 1950.

Income Tax Return Can Be Filed by Feb. 16

Farmers and ranchers who bypassed the January 15 deadline for filing estimates of 1958 income should file their final 1958 Federal income tax return by Monday, Feb. 16, 1959, to avoid penalty, says A. E. Fogle, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service, Abilene.

Filing requirements for farmers - ranchers are simply detailed in Internal Revenue's "Farmers Tax Guide" (1959 Edition), available at no cost from agricultural agents and IRS offices.

Soil Conservation District News By SCS Unit Workers

The soil and water resources of the farm and ranch lands of our local Soil Conservation District must be protected and conserved. Each individual of these districts, not the farmers and ranchers alone, have a direct interest and in turn a share of responsibility for getting conservation applied on the land.

Conservation farming and ranching of the land may be defined as its use without abuse or the use of the land without impairment of its capacity for sustained and continuous production. Conservation use also includes the use of the land within its capabilities and the conservation treatment of the land according to its needs for protection and improvement. Conservation farming and ranching, based on the above, will result in better homes, more progressive communities, a happier people, and of course a more abundant and dependable supply of food, clothing and shelter materials so vital to each of us.

Many landowners have become district cooperators with their local Soil Conservation District and have developed conservation plans for their farms or ranches. Soil Conservation Service men of the local office, assisting the district, have secured individual conservation plan maps and soil and capability maps for these land owners and assisted them to develop conservation plans based on the capability and needs of the land found on their places. These plans are individualized, tailored to fit the needs and type of operations of the land owners. Both the conservation plan map and the soil and capability map are aerial maps of the individual farm or ranch.

The plan map shows farm boundaries, field and pasture boundaries, and acres within each, and other physical features. Range land or pasture land is classified according to site and so delineated on the map. Adapted grasses are indicated for each site. The soil and capability map shows the various soils, slopes, and the degree of erosion which has taken place. This information is gathered by the Soil Scientist of the Soil Conservation Service and is available to the landowner and technician in developing the conservation plan.

District cooperators have found their conservation plans to be very helpful in planning their conservation activities from year to year.

High priority and seasonal conservation jobs can be planned and applied per plan. During a period of years, depending on the cooperator, the complete plan can be applied without any over-lapping or mistakes. Experience has shown that for each good conservation program applied, a conservation farmer or rancher has developed. The lands best friend is a conservation farmer or rancher.

Your district supervisors of the Upper Leon and Palo Pinto S.C.D. encourages landowners to develop a conservation plan on their lands.

Remember — Land can get along well without man, but man cannot get along without land.

Carbon Senior Is Runner-Up In Merit Contest

A Carbon high school senior has been commended by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for his "outstanding performances on a nationwide test of educational development," according to Ronald Services, Carbon High School principal.

The senior honored is Jerry Clower.

The Carbon student was the Texas runner-up in the 1958-59 Merit Scholarship competition. He has been sent a Letter of Commendation by National Merit Scholarship Corporation. John M. Stalnaker, president of NMSC, believes that the 10,000 students who received the commendation rank in the top two or three percent in ability of the senior students in their respective states and should be given every encouragement to continue with their education.

"While the student receiving this commendation did not quite reach the finals of the 1958-59 Merit Scholarship competition, he has demonstrated highly superior ability and outstanding promise to benefit from college training," declared Stalnaker.

Grasshoppers To Be Hoppin' Again

COLLEGE STATION — Grasshoppers are likely to be more widespread in the west and midwest this summer but are expected to be less destructive than in 1958.

A USDA-State survey made last fall showed almost 23 million acres with enough grasshoppers to damage crops and grass. The effective chemical treatment of 5 million infested acres last summer not only saved crops and grass but is now paying dividends in fewer grasshoppers.

The total acreage infested in Texas is placed at 3,460,000, according to Texas Agricultural Extension Service entomologists. The heaviest infestations were found in the two northern tiers of counties in the Panhandle and those along the Oklahoma line on the eastern side of the area.

In the South Plains area only spotted infestations were found by the surveyors. The infestation in the north central area was listed as light and these counties primarily are those located adjacent to and including the Red River Valley from Childress eastward to Grayson. Other light infestations were noted in McLennan, Coryell and Lampasas counties in central Texas and in the river bottomlands of Johnson, Ellis and Navarro counties.

The entomologists point out that weather conditions between now and hatching time will have a strong bearing on the number of 'hoppers which emerge from egg beds found during the survey last fall. Cool, wet weather with heavy rains during the spring hatching season could greatly reduce the 'hopper population, say the entomologists. Predators and grasshopper parasites could also have a pronounced effect on the infestations, they add.

A check will be made next spring during the hatching season to determine the areas where control measures may be needed. Farmers and ranchers in the areas where infestations could cause trouble are advised to keep a close watch on the egg beds during the hatching season.

FOR JUSTICE

Are you hopelessly confused by court room procedure? Words such as "objections", "overruled", "sustained", "hearsay", "irrelevant" and "opinion" are meaningless to many persons.

The purpose of a trial is to settle disputes that the parties cannot settle by themselves. Before these disputes can be settled, the facts which give rise to them must be established. This sounds simple, but on the contrary it is a difficult task. If the parties agreed on the facts the job would be easy, but each side has its own version.

The trial court has the job of establishing the facts. This is accomplished by questioning witnesses and the introduction of physical evidence. This requires application of the rules of evidence. Through the years the law of evidence has been established. The rules place restraints on what type of evidence is proper. They have the effect of protecting the rights by insuring a fair trial.

Hearsay is a word often heard during a trial. Hearsay may involve a statement by a third person of a conversation between two other persons. It would be hearsay if Jones were asked to tell the court what he overheard Smith tell Greene. With certain exceptions, evidence of this type is excluded because it is not reliable, and might open the door to false testimony.

A lawyer objects to evidence he does not believe is proper. If a lawyer objects to evidence because it is irrelevant, he means that the evidence is of such little importance that it has no bearing on the case, and if admitted it would bog down the trial so that the time needed doesn't justify its admission.

Opinion evidence of one not an expert is not admissible since such opinion carries no weight.

When an objection is sustained by the judge the evidence is not received. Should the objection be overruled, the evidence is allowed to be presented.

The rules of evidence have been built up through many years of court trials. These rules are not arbitrary but are designed to see that justice is done in our courts. The judge is seeking to have the truth established and insure that all

Calico Stuffed-Idahos

Calico Stuffed-Idahos offer an unusual way of serving those wonderful big russet-brown Idaho-grown potatoes so plentiful in our markets. Hearty, colorful fare, as sturdy yet entrancing as the quaint-patterned calico material of yesteryear, these potatoes give nearly as much by way of variety in eye appeal as did those gay little prints. Pictured here is what the well-dressed table will enjoy wearing this season!

Easy-To-Do-Pattern

1. To bake: choose Idaho Russet potatoes of even size. Wash and scrub well. Bake in a 400 degree F. (hot) oven for 1 to 1 1/4 hours, depending upon size, baking them until the potato is soft. To test, roll or squeeze in pot holder-protected hands.
2. To stuff: cut large baked Idahos in half or cut tops off smaller potatoes. Scoop out the "middles", leaving enough that the skin will hold up to form a shell. Prepare potato as for Mashed Potato. Fold in desired combination. Heap mixture in potato shells, smoothing surface. Using a fork dipped frequently in cold water, draw it across the filled potato, leaving little ridges.
3. To serve: about 10 to 20 minutes before serving time, depending upon whether or not the stuffed potatoes have been made in the morning and refrigerated, place them in a shallow pan in a 400 degree F. oven and bake until heated through and piping hot.

Combinations to add to the mashed potato:

1. Cheddar cheese finely-shredded, shredded carrots slightly cooked in smallest amount of water and drained, snipped parsley, a little chopped Sweet Spanish onion.
  2. Pimiento-stuffed olives, sliced, and a spoonful or two of mayonnaise.
  3. Ripe olives coarsely-chopped, with bits of cooked ham.
  4. Cut chives, bits of cooked chicken. Use dairy-sour cream in place of milk and butter.
- Whole Meal Stuffed Idahos: use the whole potato instead of splitting it in half. Fill shell with mashed potato, pushing the potato up around the edges so that a hollow is formed. Fill with any creamed mixture—tuna, chicken, ham, or meat. Sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese, chopped parsley or chives.

Christian Science

The healing power of spiritual enlightenment will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Paul's healing of the cripple at Lystra, as related in the Book of Acts (Ch. 14), will be included in the Scriptural selections in the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Spirit."

A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy declares (324:19): "Paul was not at first a disciple of Jesus but a persecutor of Jesus' followers. When the truth first appeared to him in Science, Paul was made blind, and his blindness was felt; but spiritual light soon enabled him to follow the example and teachings of Jesus, healing the sick and preaching Christianity throughout Asia Minor, Greece, and even in imperial Rome."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:6,13): "We are of God. . . Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit."
